Governor Carter, Honolulu.

Cable what is the general opinion Young Building ---KUHIO.

Delegate Kalaniana'ole -- While waiting public opinion I desire to state that the community is urgent for a Federal building because of the Federal needs. Individually I think the Young building can be purchased at a reasonable figure. I think it can be made to fit all requirements. I have no objection. Cannot official architect decide the matter?---Carter.

Governor Is Anxious To Secure Opinion Of The People

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. Cable what is the general opinion Young building.

This was the laconic text of a cablegram which Governor Carter this morning received from Delegate to Congress Kulu Kalaniana'ole. The Governor is at present making the text of this cablegram as public as possible in order that the community may, as far as it is possible, give its opinion on the subject.

"I hardly know as yet what I will do in answering this question," said the Governor. "I have not decided upon just what course I will take. The cable is directed to me, but I have only my own opinion,--but one in a multitude,--and I will have to ascertain just how the public feels about this proposition of having the Young building turned into a Federal building. I wish that the various organizations, as well as individuals, would answer the question, as they feel about it, either by letting Kulu know their opinions directly, or through me.

There are several ways of looking at the proposition and much can be said both for and against it. Some people say that the Young Hotel is not a paying proposition itself and that it is ruining the other hotels at the same time, while these would flourish if the Young Hotel went out of the competition. Others maintain that the tourist traffic would probably be seriously impaired if this hotel was closed. Still others maintain that the building is not adequate for the proposed purpose.

It seems to me that there are two ways of looking at the question, namely, either from the patriotic standpoint of the citizen of the United

COURT BEGINS ON UNLUCKY NUMBERS

The case of the Territory vs. Chong Yin was placed on the calendar after having been reposing on the secret file for several days. The defendant was charged with selling liquor without having a license at Wai'alua last October. He pleaded not guilty and had his case placed on the calendar. Bail was fixed at $100 with Ah Chu of Wai'alua as surety.

Clerk M. T. Simonton called the list of trial jurors as follows: C. H. Atherton, Lawrence K. Sheldon, James H. Cummins, Edgar Henriques, A. L. Wy.

WHAT THE CITIZENS SAY

C. M. Cooke of the Bank of Hawaii, asked as to his attitude in the matter of the proposed sale of the Alexander Young Hotel for use as a Federal building, stated this afternoon that he would like to see the building sold to the government, for Mr. Young's sake. Whether the building was one which could be adapted to the uses of a Federal headquarters was something for the architects to decide. It might develop that the cost of making the necessary changes would be very great.

Mr. Cooke added that many favored a new Federal building for the reason that they thought that in this way a great deal of work would be distributed among citizens of Honolulu; he thought that they should not be so sure of this, for the contract might be let in San Francisco and then Honoluluans would be very much disappointed. As far as the argument of having work to do on a new building was concerned, said Mr. Cooke, this had little weight with him, for the reason that, if the Young hotel was sold, there would still be a great deal of work to be performed in the necessary changes.

"I think the situation is all that could be desired," said Mr. Cooke, referring to the Young building as a Federal structure. Colonel Soper, asked in reference to the proposal sale for a Federal building, said there were many reasons in favor of the transaction and many against the idea. He was in favor of the lot between the buildings of Lewers & Cooke and E. O. Hall & Son for a site for the Federal building, so that the structure would front on both King and Merchant streets. Rather than have a site outside of the business section chosen, he would prefer to see the Young Hotel used as a Federal building. He did not want a first-class hotel cut out, yet, at the same time, the cutting out of the Young would be well for the other hotels of the city.

E. A. McInerney thought that the sale of the Young would prove a good thing for the other hotels; none of them were making money at the present time and there would be some hope for the Hawaiian and the Moana in the event of the Young being sold.

He thought the general opinion was against the sale of the hotel; that a large number of people want the lot opposite the police station as a site for a new Federal building.

Geo. W. Smith said: "I would prefer to see the Alexander Young building remain as a hotel. I believe we need it for that purpose, or shall need it in a short time.

"I would prefer to see a new Federal building erected. The influx of mechanics and artisans that would be needed to erect a new building would be of great benefit to the whole community.

"The sale of the Young building for Federal purposes would only benefit individuals. Give us an entirely new building."

J. G. Spencer said that he was in favor of a site for the Federal building anywhere within the boundaries drawn by the Chamber of Commerce, the business section; it would be good thing for Young to sell the hotel, which had proved a white elephant on his hands, but it would be better for the town generally to have a new building.

Joe Cohen said that the sale of the hotel would benefit but one man, while a new million dollar building would do good in the way of work to many. Mr. Cohen said that while the Young Hotel might not pay at present, it was bound to pay well before long. He did not think the city should be deprived of this great hotel.

F. E. Richardson remarked that it would be a very good thing for Young. W. F. Erving expresses himself against the sale.

Judge Whitney this afternoon sentenced the Pacific Club to pay a fine of $100 for selling liquor without license. Federal Attorney Brekons appeared for A. S. Cleghorn, president of the club. He forthwith noted an appeal to the Circuit Court, withdrawing the notice of appeal to the Supreme Court noted this morning.

There were a number of prominent attorneys, mostly "interested" clubmen, in the court room at the time. With them the opinion was expressed that if the decision was sustained in the higher courts, several other clubs in the city would have to change their tactics.

In compliance with the ruling, the Pacific Club closed its buffet today.

Governor Discusses Education Board and Grand Jury

"If it is the trend of the Grand Jury's report to put the Board of Education under civil service rules," said Governor Carter this noon; "then I heartily agree. It would be a good thing for the Territory to put this system in operation early in its history and I know of no department when it the divorce between the public service and political influence, would be better than in the Board of Education.

"The Department of Public Instruction has already for some time past has a system of examinations and certificates on the line of those of the civil service and it will be a question whether it would be well to carry it any further and adopt all the rules of the civil service.

"I presume that the charges which have been made that teachers have been removed without cause are principally based on the Miss Toomey incident. If this is the case I am perfectly satisfied that the Board of Education should be silent and refuse to give out its reasons.

"Speaking of the introduction of civil service rules here reminds me of a conversation I had with Civil Service Commissioner Garfield. This official said that Hawaii should as soon as possible enter the turn end of the wedge of the system to her departments. Civil Service was slow of me."

Cooper Would Elect Supervisors In New County Bill

County Act Commission's mosaic was not ready last evening for the public beholder.

Commissioner T. McCants Stewart was on hand with a bunch of bills, which he referred to as suggestions for the Commission to work upon. He urged a simple Act and a safe one; he did not want to run the risk of having in the County Act anything that would be likely to kill it in the courts. Mr. Stewart introduced to the Commission a bill for the creating of counties, a bill without reference to Supervisors, leaving out the alleged dangerous Supervisors' Board proposition altogether. The Commissioner has drawn up a separate bill providing for a Board of Supervisors; should this latter business be floored in the courts, the main County Bill stands and a system of county government endures. What Stewart had to say about his proposed County Bill, his suggested measure, appears in full elsewhere in this paper.

In the Hall of Representatives in the Capitol last evening the County Act Commission met in public session for the first time since last September. Present were Commissioners H. E. Cooper (chairman), E. M. Watson, T. McCants Stewart and Clarence Crabbe. Attending were various members of the Legislature, including Senator Achi and Representatives Harris, Long and Lilikalani.

Something of a stir was created when the clerk and stenographer, J. D. Avery, was called upon to read the minutes of the previous meetings. He commenced with that of September 6th; after that his records showed a long string of meeting nights when there had been no meetings. Commissioners Cooper and Crabbe wanted to know the significance of this bald procession of dates upon which the record declared nothing had been done. Commissioner Stewart, as secretary of the Commission, stated that this list was for the purpose of keeping the record straight; the period covered was that during which he had been absent from the Territory. Chairman Cooper did not see the use of recording meetings which had not been held and Commissioner Crabbe moved to have the minutes amended so that this empty index might be stricken from the tablets. Stewart thought it should appear that something had been done by the Commission in the matter of declaring meetings off if there had been no meetings; the resolution in the beginning of the sittings of the Commission had provided that a meeting be held on every Tuesday evening; this, evidently, had not been carried out. Chairman Cooper declared that simply because there had not been any regular open meetings did not go to prove that the Commission had been idle.

As a matter of fact, said Chairman Cooper, he, Cooper, and Watson and Crabbe had been holding numerous strenuous meetings in Cooper's office, at which times, with their coats off, the Commissioners got down to real, hard work and had accomplished more at these informal meetings than had ever been accomplished in the public meetings held in the Hall of Representatives.

Commissioner Stewart, who mentioned his having returned from the mainland a couple of months ago, asked the Chairman if any of these work-

Stewart County Bill Minus Supervisors Before Commission

Introducing an act creating counties for the Territory, Commissioner T. McCants Stewart last evening addressed the County Act Commission, meeting in the Capitol, as follows:

"Our record shows, that at the beginning of our work, I said here, 'Whatever act we draw, I favor having a simple one, and having it follow as closely as possible our present system of government.' Our people are familiar with it (the present system), and our representatives can conduct it (County Government) without having to learn it, except in parts.

"As a Commission, we are under obligations to the press of the city and to many public spirited citizens, who appeared here, and in public discussion, gave us the benefit of their views, both individually and collectively, we have carefully gone over the entire field.

"While on the mainland I had the opportunity of conferring with students of County and Municipal problems, whose views have been both helpful and suggestive to me. And since my return and while waiting for this, the first meeting of the Commission, since I left last September for the mainland, I have formulated my ideas, and beg to submit to the Commission a draft of a County Act.

General Suggestions.
"I have received some general suggestions from Senator Crabbe. I have followed suggestions made by Senators McCandless and Aehl, and I have used some of the provisions contained in the admirable County Act draft, submitted to the Commission by Mr. W. O. Smith. I am also under obligations to our clerk, J. D. Avery, for some valuable suggestions as well as for the efficient general manner in which he has aided me.

"We have now reached the point where we can safely proceed to put our abstract ideas into concrete shape. But at this stage no draft can be considered perfect. Indeed, changes may be made with the view of improving the measure clear through to its final passage by the Legislature.

"It is unnecessary at this time to enter into any elaborate legal discussion as to the limitations of the Organic Act. It will suffice to quote Chairman Cooper's words, uttered here at the very beginning of our work, namely:

Cooper's Own Words.
"I believe that the Organic Act must be our guiding star in forming the County Bill, to be presented to the Legislature.

"The more I study it, the more I believe the power of County Government was intended to be limited. * * * The Board of Supervisors is undoubtedly a public board; and, in the opinion of our firm in testing the case before the Supreme Court, we contended that the election of a Board of Supervisors was contrary to the Organic Act.

"I also feel a grave doubt about the right of the Territory to transfer Territorial property to the Counties * * * and my special feeling is, that we should take no chances on this subject.

"I think, as lawyers, our reputations are at stake, and we should draw up a report which would be free from any conflict with the Organic Act."

"Now in reaching my conclusions as to the nature and scope of the County Act, which we should recommend to the Legislature, I have been largely guided by my own first impressions, and by the danger signals set up by our chairman.

"In the draft, herewith submitted, there is provided a system of government, which gets its revenue from the Legislature, and which is dependent upon it, leaving to the Legislature the matter of taxation and appropriation. County President.

"Each County will have as its chief executive officer and will act through him, a president, who will perform such duties and exercise such powers as usually fall in the County system to the Board of Supervisors. But the President, when acting for the County, can act only with the concurrence of the other County officers and the approval of the Governor.

"Now this check on the President of the corporation is only when he is carrying out those larger powers, such as making rules and regulations, buying, leasing and selling property, etc.

"As County President he will also have all the powers and exercise all the duties imposed by law upon the Superintendent of Public Works. Said Superintendent being authorized to inspect the transactions of the County President, and report his findings to the Governor.

"This provision leaves the office of Superintendent of Public Works in tact, and simply modifies his duties. The County President, in the performance of his duties, will be in touch with the Governor just as the Superintendent of Public Works now is.

Get County Started.
"And this leads me to say, that, in my opinion, we should make haste slowly. Our chief aim should be to get County government started, and to place upon it as many checks and balances as are reasonable, leaving for each succeeding Legislature an enlargement of the system, as our own people grow in experience. Under the plan, which I propose, there is an elective system, the people choosing their public servants, the County President, Clerk, Treasurer, Auditor, Attorney, Sheriff and Surveyor. And in the districts, the Magistrate and the Road Supervisor.

"I do not believe it is necessary to attempt a lengthy description of the duties of these County officers. I have followed the plan in the Organic Act, where in defining the duties of our Territorial officers chapters and pages of our own laws are carried in a half dozen lines.

"By following this plan, I submit a bill covering only sixteen typewritten pages. If the County Act becomes a law, our county officials will go on in the old beaten path.

County Sheriff.
"This places the County-ship right in the channel of our present governmental river, and the men chosen to sail it will be more or less familiar with their duties. The County Sheriff will go right on as the High Sheriff and Island Sheriffs are going today; and this will apply to every other officer.

"There are a great many good features and provisions in our present laws. I have been informed, for example, that a special accountant, in the employ of the United States, came here to gather statistics after visiting many cities in the West, and said that our system of auditing was ahead of anything he had met; that our audit law was admirable.

"Why then is it necessary to take up pages telling what the County Auditor should do?
Power With Legislature.
"Fearing, however, that there may be a tangle somewhere, I have provided a section to cover any possible conflicts.

"The plan which I am suggesting leaves the power of taxation, of fixing salaries, etc., and of making appropriations with the Legislature, in other words, the Legislature is the Board of Supervisors. There is in this no conflict with the Organic Act, and the people elect their Legislature.

"But I have an act separate from the County Act, creating a Board of Supervisors, defining its powers and duties, and providing for its election. Now this Board will take the place of the Legislature. If, however, it should be

That is the comment Mrs. Seymour makes.

If you are sick you can take Wine of Cardui and secure health and strength. If other medicines and other treatment have failed, that will make no difference. Few women have taken Wine of Cardui at first. By far the greater number of Wine of Cardui cures are women who could not

THE FEDERAL BUILDING.

Delegate Kubto has asked a very broad question when he requests the opinion of Honolulu on the purchase of the Alexander Young block for a Federal building.

He is very sensible, however, in not attempting to forecast the Honolulu decision from the distance at which he is called upon to act. A consensus of Honolulu opinions is subject to so many lightning and variegated changes at times that even the Governor hesitates to voice it and is very wise in so doing.

One statement can probably be made without danger of meeting serious opposition: Honolulu very much prefers the purchase of the Young building to an indefinite postponement of the construction of a new Federal building. The Federal offices in the city need proper housing. They are scattered around in a helter-skelter disarray and practically living off the charity of the Territory, whose public buildings are already crowded beyond the limits of comfort or convenience. The Federal Government needs accommodations for its representatives, and is obtaining enough money from the people of Hawaii to warrant liberal expenditure for a first-class building. The main object of the Government is to obtain what it needs at the lowest price. This unquestionably is one of the attractive features of the Young building purchase. It is well built, well located and is offered at less than the cost price.

On the other hand the citizens of Honolulu are reasonably selfish. All things being equal, they very much prefer the erection of a new building—providing all the money appropriated is not expended in purchasing the site. A new building means money generally distributed in the Territory for labor and material. Money for the Young building will go practically to one source, to be reinvested in the Territory perhaps, or perhaps not. Given the direct choice, with assurance that failing the acceptance of the Young building a new structure will be provided for immediately, the people will undoubtedly decide against the building already up. Satisfied that by failure of the Young building purchase the whole Federal building program will be held up for an indefinite period, the same people would as enthusiastically unite in favor of the Young.

FUSHIMI HERE AGAIN

Prince Fushimi and party came ashore in Hackfeld's steam scow, Pioneer, and landed at the Hackfeld wharf. There the Prince was met by Consul Miki Saito and his secretary; prominent Japanese merchants and professional men; a party of about 200 Japanese boys and girls and a gathering of Japanese residents that crowded almost every foot of space on the wharf. As the Pioneer steamed up to the makai side of the wharf, the children began singing patriotic airs. The music was greeted with cheers by the big crowd while, with bared heads, the Prince and party listened.

Eight fine carriages from the Territory stables were in waiting to receive the distinguished visitor and his party. From the wharf the Prince was driven directly to the Japanese consulate, and later to the Young Hotel, where hundreds of Japanese had already assembled.

At noon a lunch was given at the Japanese Consulate in honor of the Prince, whose short stay, owing to the brief stop here of the Mongolia, somewhat interferes with the arrangements of the welcome prepared for him.

Tennyson Won't Talk Deal With Trust

E. D. Tennyson, vice-president and manager of Castle & Cooke, returned from the mainland on the steamship Mongolia this morning.

Shortly after coming ashore he attended a meeting of the trustees of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association. After the meeting in the Judd building Mr. Tennyson was asked concerning his business in the East, where he went to arrange with the American Sugar Refining Company, the sugar trust, for a new contract between the trust and the Hawaiian sugar planters, signing a new three years' contract relative to delivery of sugar at New York.

Mr. Tennyson refused to have anything to say in regard to this new contract, saying that at present he was not ready to give out anything concerning the arrangement.

Mr. Tennyson stated that he had not brought the matter up before the Hawaiian Planters' Association, that body having nothing to do with his trip to New York.

HEPBURN BILL FOR LEPROSY HOSPITAL CARRIES OUT LOCAL PLAN

Dr. C. B. Cooper this morning received a personal letter from Surgeon General Wyman enclosing the Hepburn bill to provide an appropriation for the study of leprosy at Kalaupapa. This bill is believed to have the sanction of the Marine Hospital Service and fully meets the desire expressed throughout the Territory for Federal assistance for expert study of the disease.

Dr. Cooper also received a letter from Dr. W. C. Wile who wrote from Washington where he had gone to do what he could for Hawaii. Dr. Wile says: "I think there is no question about getting what is desired for Molokai." The text of the Hepburn bill which will carry out the recommendations made by Dr. Cooper and Territorial authorities generally, follows:

A bill to provide for the investigation of leprosy, with special reference to the care and treatment of lepers in Hawaii.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That when the Territorial government of Hawaii shall cede to the United States in perpetuity a suitable tract of land, one mile square more or less, on the leper reservation at Molokai, Hawaii, there shall be established within the leper settlement on the island of Molokai, Hawaii, a hospital station and laboratory of the Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service of the United States for the study of the methods of transmission, cause, and treatment of leprosy.

Sec. 2. That the Surgeon-General of the Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service shall prepare plans for, and cause the erection of, the proper buildings to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 3. That for the purposes of this Act the Surgeon-General, through his accredited agent, is authorized to receive at such station such patients afflicted with leprosy as may be committed to his care under legal authorization of the Territory of Hawaii, said patients to remain under the jurisdiction of the said Surgeon-General, or his agent, until returned to the proper authorities of Hawaii.

Sec. 4. That the Surgeon-General of the Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service of the United States is authorized to detail or appoint, for the purposes of these investigations and treatment, such medical officers, acting assistant surgeons, pharmacists, and employees as may be necessary for said purpose.

Sec. 5. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, from any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the erection of necessary hospitals, officers' and attendants' quarters, laboratory, and other necessary structures and their equipment; and fifty thousand dollars for maintenance and pay of all officers and employees during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and six.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME Are Never Without Peruna in the House for Catarrhal Diseases.

W. D. WATSON, Clovis, Fresno County, Cal., writes: "God bless you for what you have done for me. The rheumatism has all disappeared, and today all exclaim, 'How well you look!' I tell them yes, and I owe it all to Dr. Hartman for his good advice to me. Today finds me as free from pain as I ever was. The rainy season has set in here, but the change hasn't affected me as it used to. I am very thankful that I have found out that you can and will help the suffering ones that will follow your advice. Several have asked me what cured me, and I tell them. They get the medicine then. We keep Peruna in the house. My daughter has two sons, and they keep well and go to school, and they take the medicine every day."

Mr. Jno. O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., Box 272, writes: "Your remedies do all that you claim for them, and even more. Catarrh can't exist where Peruna is taken according to directions. Peruna completely cured my wife and I of catarrhal troubles of twenty-five years standing. In my rounds as a traveling man I am a walking advertisement of Peruna."

For special directions everyone should read "The Ills of Life," a copy of which surrounds each bottle. Peruna is for sale by all chemists and druggists at one dollar per bottle, or six bottles for five dollars.

Those wishing direct correspondence with Dr. Hartman and can wait the necessary delay in receiving a reply should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, U. S. A.

STEWART COUNTY BILL

declared illegal on the ground that the Governor has the exclusive right to appoint all Boards, no harm can come to the County system, for the County will not be dependent upon a Board of Supervisors for its life.

"And, now, a few general expressions, and, for the present, I have done."

Taxation the Same.
"There should be no increase of taxation. The present revenue laws yield the Territory annually over two million dollars. The Legislature should take the appropriation bill in hand and make the income cover the expenditures of the County as well as the Territorial Government."

"It must be admitted that there will be an increase in the salary expenses. For example, there will be four County Presidents with aggregate annual salaries amounting to say, eight thousand dollars; but some portion of this, perhaps at least four thousand dollars, can be deducted from the salary expense account of the Superintendent of Public Works."

"There will be four County Treasurers and four County Auditors, whose aggregate annual salaries may amount to sixteen thousand dollars. But this can be reduced by reductions in the appropriation now made to these offices, say, perhaps, about eight thousand dollars."

"County Government will not materially increase expenses in either the Attorney General's Department, or in the Police Department. The decrease in the amount of the work of the law department of the Territory will enable the Attorney General to get along with, perhaps, one junior assistant. And the Legislature can appropriate for County Sheriffs just what is being now paid to Island Sheriffs, and can easily provide for the High Sheriff's office, whose duties will be so materially reduced that he will be able to cut down his expenses."

Promise to People.
"I know that I am now on delicate and dangerous ground; but we have promised the people County Government, and I am faithfully serving the Governor, who appointed me to this work, by suggesting how we can keep faith with the people without increasing the burden of taxation."

"Now to state in another form the increase and off sets:
Four Presidents . . . . . $ 8,000
Four Clerks . . . . . 8,000
Four Treasurers . . . . . 8,000
Four Auditors . . . . . 8,000
Four Surveyors . . . . . 8,000
$40,000

Deductions in Dept. Public Works . . . . . $ 4,000
Deductions in Bureau of Conveyances . . . . . 3,500

Deductions in Dept. of Finance, 4,000
Deductions in Dept. of Audit . . . 3,500
Deductions in Dept. of Survey . . 4,500
$19,500

"Showing an increase of only $20,500. Lower reductions may be possible. And to this increased Act must be added Road Supervisors. County No Burden."

"Now the point I wish to make is not that there is no increase, but that there is little in the cry that County Government will heavily increase our burdens."

"I am a lawyer not a financier. I leave to our Chairman, Judge Cooper, who is financier as well as lawyer, and to legislative students of finance like Senator Achi and Representative Harris, the work of preparing revenue and appropriation bills, and the duty of keeping the cost of our government within our income. I simply express with great emphasis, the opinion, that it can be done."

"There is one other thing to be said in this connection. It is difficult to decide when to inaugurate County Government. In July the beginning of the fiscal year, and in January, the month following the period of the heaviest receipt of our taxes, the treasury is empty."

Start on July 1st.
"It seems to me, that as we have decided to start County Government, we may as well do so on the first day of July, at the beginning of our fiscal year, and appeal to the banks to carry our warrants. There is but one other course left open to us, namely, to start and let each officer and employee of the County dispose of his warrants as best he can. But this would result in such hawking the County paper about the streets for little or nothing, that our credit would be impaired."

"I admit that my suggested County Act does not go as far as many of our citizens wish; but in my opinion, it goes far enough as a starter. It brings the Government nearer to the people; it gives them a large measure of control over it, while it continues that general gubernatorial supervision, which should not be opposed, where it seeks to improve our citizenship and bring prosperity to our Territory."

ing, informal meetings had been held since his return; he was answered in the negative. Stewart then asked if the Commissioners who had been working at these informal meetings had any report to make at the meeting. Chairman Cooper replied that he had been working along certain lines with a view to forming an unassailable system of county government and that Commissioner Watson had also been hard at work along other lines. They had not had time to get together to compare their separate efforts, nor had they had time to consult as to the bringing together of these parts which were necessarily designed to be connected. But a little while before the meeting they had hastily gone over the two portions and had found that there were some minor changes to be made in each before they could be brought consistently together.

Chairman Cooper suggested that an opportunity should be given the members of the Commission to get together to ascertain what each had accomplished and to bunch their efforts before any concrete result of the workings of the commission be given out for public discussion.

Commissioner Stewart appeared not at all to relish the idea of anything that smacked of secrecy in the operations of the Commission and urged that everything to do with the transactions of the Commission be public property.

Chairman Cooper and Commissioners Watson and Crabbe did not think it wise at that time to make public the results of the workings of the Commission; they thought that first of all the proposed county bill should be in a condition to be passed upon and criticized by the people. Cooper remarked that the amount of work which he had accomplished could not be sized up by the mere written words, for he had spent many an evening, sacrificing holidays and all his otherwise spare time in studying the law of the situation and looking up authorities. He would say that he had completely turned about from his original opinion in reference to the system of electing a Board of Supervisors under county government; this entire change of main idea had necessarily created a great deal of investigation and hard work.

Whereas, in the beginning, Chairman Cooper had been firmly of the opinion that it would not be safe to provide in a county bill for the election by the people of a Board of Supervisors, but that the Governor of the Territory should appoint the supervisors, now Cooper believes that it will be absolutely safe, as far as any chance of the law being upset by the courts is concerned, to provide that the Board of Supervisors be elected by the people.

Commissioner Cooper stated at the meeting that he felt absolutely certain that the elective system would stand the courts and went on to announce that he had prepared a bill providing for the election of the Board of Supervisors.

This announcement created a great deal of discussion and Commissioner Stewart was inclined to think there was a risk in Commissioner Cooper's idea; he thought the safer way would be to take his suggestions in relation to a county act; to leave the Board of Supervisors out of the county act and to provide separately for the supervisors, so that in case the courts knocked out the supervisors proposition, the county system would nevertheless stand, being provided for in a separate bill and the people would not be disappointed.

Commissioners Watson and Crabbe favored Commissioner Cooper's idea; Watson thought that Stewart's idea was a half-way measure; Watson wanted the whole loaf or none at all.

He was of the opinion that the only way to obtain real county government down here in Hawaii was to put forward the complete idea at once, all at once; if we were not to have county government, then let us find out, by going to Congress, what amount of liberty we should have in Hawaii in matters of Government.

It was suggested that in Stewart's bill there was too much of the gubernatorial power; he had the final say about too much.

Taxation was discussed. Chairman Cooper said he had worked on a revenue bill. Commissioner Stewart said the Legislature would be under existing obligations to Mr. Cooper if he devised a new revenue law.

Legislators present wanted to know what would happen, if the unit of taxation were divided, half and half, between the Territory and the counties, and the county law should be knocked out; how would the Territory get hold of the half already appropriated for the counties? Cooper thought his idea of a county act would not be knocked out. He would stake all he had or was on the legality of the election of supervisors. Cooper's scheme provides for one per cent taxation, half to the Territory and half to the counties.

Cooper suggested that it might not be a bad idea to make taxes payable twice a year; this would ease the payers and help the Territory to keep its funds.

Stewart wanted county law to start July first. All seemed to be in favor of an early start.

What would the counties start life on, was asked.

The answer was that if counties waited for a full treasury to start, they might never know existence.

Cooper, Crabbe and Watson appeared in favor of continued private, informal meetings until the work of the Commissioners could be amalgamated. Stewart wanted open sessions.

It was finally decided that meetings should be held every evening in the Capitol until the work was finished. Meetings will begin at 7:45.

The press will be present.

GOVERNOR DISCUSSES EDUCATION BOARD AND GRAND JURY.

"I do not agree with the Grand Jury's estimate of Superintendent Atkinson, which I think is wrong in some points. In regard to this matter I will only remind you of a little story which I consider very much in point: When Lincoln was President of the United States, complaints were made to him about General Grant, his enemies saying that he drank too much whisky, etc. 'I only wish I knew the kind of whisky Grant drinks,' said Lincoln, 'in order that I might give some to the other Generals.'"

Change in License

LAW MAY

Produce Revenue

The Treasurer is at present getting together an estimate of the revenues of the Territory for the fiscal year beginning next July. "This will be laid before the Legislature at its coming session in order that it can be known just how much the Territory can afford to spend. Several plans have been suggested for the purpose of raising the revenue of the Territory. Among these is the plan that many new licenses should be created whereby considerable revenue could be collected. The license laws undoubtedly need revision. In the first place they should all be made to extend over all places in the group and not like back licenses, hunting licenses and several others, be required in certain places only.

"While the idea of raising revenue in this manner may be a very good one, I cannot say that I perfectly agree with it. In my opinion licenses, at least most of them, are required by the Government for the purpose of control and not for the purpose of revenue.

This is the case with the liquor licenses which are wanted for the purpose of control. The men who are privileged by such licenses should recognize in them a trust and should aid the Police Department in exercising the control. I am not making a temperance crusade, but I am anxious to create public sentiment in favor of the maintaining of the laws. The illicit sale of liquor and the ignoring of these laws means only a repetition of what has occurred everywhere else; when one law is pulled down it means that others go with it.

JAPANESE JOY FILLS THE CITY

Thousands of Japanese filled the streets last evening, marching with a forest of gorgeous lanterns held gayly aloft, exulting over the surrender of Port Arthur by the Russians.

Scarcely had the sun set when Aala Park became the meeting point of regiments of shouting, cheering Japanese from all over the city and from all over the island, merrily exchanging the compliments of the occasion, using their voices to their best with their "banzais," carrying poles and sticks and branches of trees bearing lanterns of all shapes, sizes and colors and with all manner of legends in token of the fall of the long-besieged stronghold.

In the park had been erected a platform from which prominent Japanese citizens delivered speeches of patriotism to the jostling crowds before the great procession started. Behind this was stationed the Territorial band in charge of Captain Berger, saving forth appropriate music as directed by the committee in charge.

The spreading lawns of the park were covered by moving humanity and the night was alive with the prettiness of hundreds of lights, candles twinkling through the coverings of the swinging lamps.

Besides the horde of Japanese in the park there were big crowds of townfolk gathered around to witness the celebration. Lanterns festooned the buildings all around and the spectacle was one long to be remembered.

About 7 o'clock, headed by Berger's band, the procession started from the park, going along Beretania and King streets to Liliha, thence to Judd street and along Judd, down Nuuanu to the Japanese consulate where there was a tremendous demonstration.

Along the route the streets were lined by people anxious to behold the pageant. It was a large and noisy and jubilant march. Numerous drays and wagons were in the line. These were decorated with lanterns and flags and filled with brightly dressed Japanese men and women singing and shouting their banzais.

Some seven or eight thousand were in the line of march. They progressed in long lines stretching across the street, marching indifferently as to step, but nevertheless going forward with some degree of regularity. Lanterns loomed high above their heads; transparencies were original and unique, many of them. Merchants and business men had not forgotten the advantages of advertising, for they had painted on their transparencies the names of their firms in English.

The procession, after going down Nuuanu street, passed along King in the Walkiki direction, passing the Capitol, where the County Commissioners were in session, these gentlemen taking a recess to see the gay crowd get by.

Taking in the residence of Governor Carter during the procession, the Governor was cheered. Mr. Carter replied to the demonstration, returning the greeting.

Going out King street the marchers reached the British Consulate and there cheered Consul R. de B. Layard. At the Chinese Consulate there were more banzais. The immediate lin broke up in Thomas Square late in the evening.

MONGOLIA HERE FROM THE COAST

The big Pacific Mail liner Mongolia was sighted early last evening off Koko Head and came to anchorage outside about 11 o'clock. Owing to the depth of water being drawn, she did not attempt to come in. Early this morning the passengers and mail were taken off in the tug Fearless, and the freight was subsequently lightered ashore. The Mongolia will sail again at 5 o'clock this afternoon for the Orient.

An unusually large number of passengers were brought by the Mongolia for Honolulu—in fact about half of the first class travellers stop here. Most of them represent the first big detachment of winter tourists, although quite a few local people were aboard.

The Mongolia carries a record cargo. So deeply is she loaded that it was deemed unsafe to try to enter port. Her freight list is made up of all kinds of supplies, chiefly for Japan.

The most conspicuous personage aboard the ship was, of course, Prince Fushimi, of Japan, accompanied by his escort. The Prince was first driven to the Japanese consulate and later to the Young Hotel where the reception was held.

Bishop McKim, head of the Episcopal church work in Tokio, is a through passenger. He has been attending the annual conference of the church. Bishop McKim has been here many times before.

There will be a social session held by Honolulu Lodge No. 616, B. P. O. E., on Saturday evening, January 7, 1905. This session is for Elks only. A good time is assured and a full attendance is desired. Time, 8 p. m. Place, B. P. O. E. hall.

The Royal Hawaiian Hotel will give a dance to the officers of the U. S. A. T. Sherman, which is expected from Manila on the 5th or 6th. As the Sherman has a large number of returning soldiers the hotel's large lunette will present a pretty spectacle with the army and navy uniforms and the attractive costumes of the ladies. All local officers of the various branches of the U. S. service are cordially invited. Owing to the fact that it is impossible to ascertain in advance when the Sherman will arrive, the date of the dance will depend upon the arrival of the boat.

The mandamus proceedings in the case of the Hawaiian Dredging Co. vs. Superintendent of Public Works Holloway were taken up in Judge Robinson's court again this morning. CLEARANCE SALE OF Embroideries, Edgings, Insertions and Mercerized White Goods

BEGINS TUESDAY JANUARY 3, 1905

The month of January will be of great importance to people who care to take advantage of remarkably low prices on trustworthy goods.

Surplus duplicates must be disposed of. Certain odd lots that are eating up valuable space it is better to sell out at a loss than to keep.

Prices must be so low as to keep the stream moving steadily and swiftly, because there are other sales to follow.

Here's a part of our program: Tuesday, Jan. 3. Embroidery, Insertions, Edgings and Mercerized White Goods Sale.

Monday, Jan. 9. Sale of Corsets and Shirt-waists.

Monday, Jan. 16. Sale of Laces.

Beautiful Embroideries, Edgings and Insertions with a Double Charm

They're lovely in themselves, but their greatest charm lies in their remarkable prices.

Cambric Embroideries, Edgings and Insertions, from 2 to 5 inches wide. Reduced from 10 cts. to 5 cts.; 15 cts. to 3 yards for 25 cts.; 6 yards for $1.00 to 2 yards for 25 cts.; 20 cts. to 15 cts.; 25 cts. to 6 yards for $1.00.

All-over Embroideries, in linen shades, neat designs. Were formerly $4 to $6 a yard. Now reduced to 50 cts. a yard.

Teneriffe Medallions by the yard, reduced over one-half.

Nainsook and Swisses, Edgings and Insertions to match at immense reductions.

Swiss and Nainsook Edgings, reduced from 15 cts. to 10 cts.; 20 cts. to 15 cts.; 25 cts. to 6 yds. for $1.00.

Swiss and Nainsook Insertions, reduced from 15 cts. to 10 cts.; 25 cts. to 15 cts.

Corset Cover Embroidery, from $1.25 to 85 cts. and a great range of proportionate reductions.

Embroidery Beading, from 5 and 10 cts. upward.

Mercerized Cotton Goods, Soft and Fine, With Silky Shine

Mercerizing is a fairy-like process. It turns cotton into a stuff that looks like silk and, strange to say, adds to the strength of the fiber.

More wonderful still, note these prices. Beautiful patterns, reduced from 20c to 8 yards for $1.00; 25c, to 6 yards for $1.00; 50c to 20c; 60c to 25c.

White Pique, reduced from 25c to 6 yards for $1.00; 35c to 25c; 50c to 35c.

ENTERPRISE ARRIVES

TO LOAD REFINED SUGAR FOR SAN FRANCISCO

THOUSAND TONS ALREADY AT RAILWAY WHARF — BOATS SOON TO GO TO PEARL HARBOR TO LOAD.

What may be regarded as a substantial beginning to the business of shipping refined sugar from Hawaii to the mainland will be made this week.

The steamer Enterprise of the Matson line, doing business between San Francisco and Hilo, arrived this morning from the latter port.

About 1,000 tons of the new sugar await her at the Railway wharf. After taking it aboard she will sail for Hilo to complete her cargo with raw sugar and fruits, leaving Honolulu on January 10.

The manufacture of refined sugar at Honolulu plantation is no longer in the experimental stage. It has been successfully manufactured there and a small quantity satisfactorily marketed on the Coast.

So successful has the project been that the entire output of the plantation will, in future, be shipped in the refined state.

One part of the plantation's plans for the future is to secure adequate wharf facilities at Pearl Harbor and in the near future run its steamers in there to load. This would not only mean a great saving in expense but would be far more convenient in the matter of handling.

The Enterprise is at the Railroad wharf, where she will begin loading tomorrow.

SHORT STORY FOR EVENING HOURS

THE WAY PHYLLIS MOVED

"Oh, yes, we moved," she said, as she sank into the biggest and easiest chintz chair in the other woman's little sitting room, and sighed. "We have moved into some one else's house and they have moved into ours, and why do people do these things, I ask you?"

"If I hadn't moved myself, or at least been moved, I might be able to tell you," said her friend, as she looked at the clock to see if it were time to take her grieve tonic. "But as I, too, have gone wrong I am only able to tell you my own experience. It wouldn't benefit anyone else, I'm afraid. I agree with John L. Sullivan, who says that the articles in the magazines on how to get on in the world written by Andrew Carnegie, Russell Sage and Mr. Schwab are not to be relied on as working plans. The ones to write rules for success are the failures. They can tell you what to avoid and why they failed to score. I succeeded in moving in spite of myself, so I'm hardly a reliable oracle."

"But who moved you and how much did he charge? I know you were imposed upon or you would never be in this philosophical frame of mind."

"Well, I can't say that I was imposed upon exactly," said the woman with nerves, slowly. "I at least enjoyed a unique experience."

"I am glad you enjoyed it. Unique moving experiences don't come in the category of pleasures for me." I remember the time I packed so zealously that I put even the clothes I was going to wear into the trunk and had to go to the steamer in clothes borrowed from my next-door neighbor, whom I had hated cordially for years because she had a cat who used to come into our yard and eat my birds. Talk about eating humble pie! I never had such an attack of indignation in my life, but I brought her a frock from Paris and a dozen pairs of gloves—the finest things she ever had in her life—the cat!"

"My experience was worse than that, but it ended in my not having any responsibility at all about my moving, so you see blessings sometimes come well disguised."

"The friend sat up in the chintz chair and her eyes widened alarmingly. "How in the name of all that's wonderful did you manage that?" she said.

"I didn't, my dear. When one manages things they never turn out like that. It's when fate or the landlord takes a hand that expedition and ease perch upon the helm—on the banner, or whatever it is that they perch upon. You see, I was put out—evicted."

"Phyllis! If I had known that those horrid stocks—"

"Oh, don't distress yourself, my dear. I did not mind it in the least. It is the best way in the world. I think I shall always let them put me out in the future. You see, I had to give up my apartment on the first, and I did not worry much about moving until a few days before. I called two or three moving men up on the 'phone, and they all assured me that they had enough to keep them busy day and night for two weeks. That was not what you would call encouraging, so I determined to try wiles, and I put on my prettiest frock and went around the neighborhood and, finally, got one man to promise that he would do the trick, as he put it. But when I heard his price my opinion of the value of cajolerics dropped several points. One modest creature wanted $15 a van load, another wanted $12. I argued and almost pleaded, but they were adamant. Then I telephoned to every storage house in the city and the Bronx.

"Then despair settled coldly down upon me and I told my landlord that I found it impossible to move so that I would leave my things in my rooms and sleep at a hotel until I could move them. He informed me with severity and firmness that he had rented my apartment, and that the new tenant was desirous of moving in on the first. I explained that I didn't see much fun in sitting around among packing boxes and rolled mattresses myself, but that no one would move me for love or money. I told that fib because it sounded well. I didn't say anything about my objection to paying exorbitant prices in order to make way for the new tenant. My landlord said that, goodness knows, he was willing to be obliging, but the new tenant had extracted a promise that he could take possession on the first day of the month. I finally agreed to arrange matters with the tenant myself and called him up on the 'phone and put the case to him.

"His voice was pleasant and I told him all about it, and he said he sympathized with me. He had had quite a heartrending time himself, but he had finally got hold of a man who had sworn to move him on the morning of the first, but he could not move him any other time, day or night, unless he waited a week.

"But couldn't you possibly wait a week?" I asked. He said that he would do so if he could, but he had to move for the reason that the family which was about to move into his house was in the same predicament that I was, as they, too, had to leave by the first to make way for others moving in. We laughed over the 'phone at the

RACE OF GIANTS.

Philadelphia, Dec. 18.—After a year's visit to the land of the Eskimos, Captain Christian Jensen of the bark Sili-on, arrived last night at his home here.

A strange tale is told by Captain Jensen of a remarkable race of giants, some of whom visited the Eskimos and Danes at the mining settlement of Arauk, ten miles from Ivigtut Bay, Greenland. These people had never before been seen even by the Eskimos. They are copper-colored and are seven, eight and even nine feet tall. In feature they resemble the American Indians.

"These strange people," said Captain Jensen, "represented to the Eskimos a traditional, a most legendary tribe of giants, stories of which had been brought down to them until they regarded the race as mythical. They cannot speak the language of the Eskimos and could only make known by signs that they had been driven from their homes in the interior by great storms and cold weather."

August Lutheken, who has been running a humble fish and oyster business in East St. Louis, has received word from a firm of reputable English lawyers that a Liverpool sea captain, recently deceased, has left him $25,000. Eighteen years ago, while rounding Cape Horn in the British merchantman Westgate, he saved Captain Watkins from being swept overboard in a fierce storm. The captain died recently and left the sum named to the man who preserved his life long years ago.

MR. AND MRS. GAY SPREAD GOOD CHEER

Waimea, Kauai, Jan. 2.—Christmas, this year, has been better observed at the services of the Waimea church than has been the case for some years past. Since the return of Mr. and Mrs. Gay from Europe, the choir has been reformed, and on Christmas day was augmented by the presence of Mrs. Hjort and Mr. Kutz who assisted with his violin, playing his part with grace and reverential feeling so necessary in sacred music. The services opened with a prelude from organ and violin, followed by the doxology. During the service several hymns appropriate to the occasion were sung, also an anthem by Sir G. Elvey, "Arise Shine For Thy Light is Come," and Mr. Hjort sang Gounod's exquisite sacred song, "O Divine Redeemer," with organ and violin obligato accompaniment in a manner that called universal approbation. The voluntary offering of such talent is a very right and pleasing thing for them to do.

Mr. Omsted presided at the organ, as Mrs. Hjort, the organist, took her place for this occasion in the choir. A brilliant gathering took place on Christmas eve at Kekupua, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gay. The place was prettily decorated, and a fine large Christmas tree, laden with all the paraphernalia necessary, and a large heap of presents of all descriptions were heaped around its base. At 6 o'clock p. m. old Father Christmas (Santa Claus) was seen wending his way across the lawn, and ringing of bells and other like demonstrations of joy announced his arrival; on entering the room he was received by Mr. and Mrs. Gay, and shook hands with some of the young people after which he disappeared having so many places to call at.

At 7 p. m. dinner was served to an adult party which heartily responded to the invitation of the many good things before them, to be eaten. Bands of native musicians playing during dinner and at intervals up to 11:30 p. m. Nor were the old folks and work people on the estate forgotten. Natives, Chinese, Japanese, Portuguese and all were brought in and participated in the bounty of the host and hostess.

After dinner the adult's prizes were given out—a beautiful and choice collection of all sorts of things—were duly given and received and by midnight all was quiet again at Kekupua. Mr. and Mrs. Gay gave a most successful garden party on Monday, Dec. 26, at which close on fifty persons attended. Luncheon was served at 1 p. m. under the shade of a gigantic mango tree, and took the form of a feast where every thing was served that could attract the eye and satisfy the palate. After lunch the gentlemen discussed in a practical manner the merits and luxury of Havana cigars. This being satisfactorily disposed of, the following program of sport was carried out in a most healthy and enthusiastic manner while a general list of valuable prizes gave an extra lilt to the competitors. Needless to say that the natives and servants were not forgotten.

LIST OF SPORTS. General running race for ladies. General running race for gentlemen. General running race for children. Egg and spoon race for ladies. Egg and spoon race for gentlemen. Three-legged race for ladies. Three-legged race for gentlemen. Potato race for ladies. Sack race for ladies. Sack race for gentlemen. The prizes comprised among other things lace handkerchiefs, embroidered neckties, boxes of bonbons for ladies and cigar cutters and boxes of cigars for gentlemen. The shades of evening were fast falling before the program was through and all expressed themselves as delighted with the afternoon's proceedings—Garden Island.

Agent With Bonds Misses Steamer

Governor Carter Saturday afternoon received a cablegram from Agent Terrell of the United States Trust & Mortgage Co. of New York, stating that he had been detained until Jan. 12. Terrell will bring the new million dollar bonds here for the Treasurer's signature. He was expected to arrive here in the Sonoma, but has evidently for some reason missed the boat. The next steamer Terrell can take will be the China, sailing Jan. 17. The delay will mean a difference of sixteen days in the time when the agent can return to San Francisco.

O'Brien, J. A. H. Vierra, Richard Woodin, Albert McGarr, Horace Mahaulu, Ernest Renkin, J. S. Asavello, Thos. C. McGuire, John A. Templeton, Ben Naukana.

John A. Templeton was excused for the term. W. J. White had been excused until January 30. Edgar Henriques was the only juror not present and a bench warrant was issued to produce him. Ernest Renkin said he had a broken arm and that he would lose his job if he was made to do jury duty. He was excused. Chief Wyman of the Hawaiian hotel asked to be excused for the rest of the month on account of a rash of business. Ben Naukana had no place to stay in town as he lived in Waiata. T. C. McGuire, the piano mover, asked to be excused for business reasons. He also was excused. Chas. H. Atherton was excused for the rest of the week on account of rash of business. Horace Mahaulu was working in the Halewa postoffice and was excused for the term.

Attorney General Andrews, without fear of starting the term with an unlucky number, asked that case number thirteen on the calendar be taken up first. This is the case of the Territory vs. Chung Hing, Ah Kap, Tom Sing, Man Leab, alias Chew Tuck, Ung Hing, Cheng Chew and Ah Nam.

Attorney George Davis at this time said that he wanted the Fullerton case set for some day next week. His client was going away and wanted to have the case disposed of soon. The court suggested that the case be transferred to Judge De Bolt but Davis wanted Judge Robinson to try it. The case was, however, destined to keep its regular place on the calendar at least for the present.

Yamamoto, a Japanese charged with assault with intent to commit murder, was called for sentence. He stabbed a fellow-countryman twice out of revenge. The defendant pleaded guilty last Saturday. He gave drunkenness as the cause of his offense. He was sentenced to imprisonment at hard labor for eighteen months.

The jury for the burglary case was then drawn and found satisfactory to both sides. Attorney General Andrews conducted the prosecution while S. F. Chillingworth represented the defendants. The cases of three of the defendants were nolle pross'd, leaving two to face the music.

The defendants were members of the notorious combination of Chinese malefactors which was broken up by Detective McDuffie about a year ago.

In this instance the defendants are charged with having stolen a number of tubs of soyu from Makino's warehouse. The prosecution placed on the stand ex-Detective McDuffie, Fred Makino and a clerk who identified the tubs offered in evidence. The case was continued until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

WITH THE POLICE.

All other cases went over.

Probably a world record in the matter of the performance of marriage ceremonies was made a few days ago by Rev. C. C. Meador, retired pastor of the Central Baptist church in Washington. It was the most remarkable experience of the pastor in his fifty or more years in the ministry. The record established is the marriage of two couples in one day by the same officiating minister and resulting in no change in the names of the brides.

The first of the couples was Robert F. Lee and Annie Lee, both of Fredericksburg, Va. James C. Gordon and Violet C. Gordon, both of Washington, were the second couple.
