SPECIAL VENIRE ISSUED FOR ARROYO CASE

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the panel of six jurors called in the Arroyo murder case was exhausted, its jurors having been excused owing to their having conscientiously scrupled against the infliction of the death penalty. Judge Robinson accordingly ordered the issuance of a new venire of six jurors.

The following names were drawn: Joe L. Abodo, E. Bellino, H. M. Dow, W. A. McEwan, E. F. Brown, B. Stephenson, J. K. Clarke, D. J. Wright, R. A. Cross, J. Fernandez, Jas. Veary, F. Turill, J. K. Inch, W. A. Bulch, W. A. Hall, U. H. Jones, H. B. Eckart, W. P. Roth, F. B. Angus, W. W. Goodale, Joe Hatcher, J. M. Camara, W. H. Jansen, A. F. Conko, W. E. Correll, J. A. Auld, H. H. Walker, W. C. Burns, W. L. Austin, A. J. Taitte, E. R. Kaminoff, H. Davis, E. A. Holand, D. L. Akwai, F. M. Pond, H. E. Hendricks, Wm. Green, R. W. Perkins, W. L. Lyle, Jas. H. Boyd, H. Zerle, G. W. Macy, H. Krueger, R. W. Holt, J. E. Daly, F. M. Lewis, John Gill, J. F. Langston, R. C. A. Peterson, Theo. Hamann.

The venire was made returnable at 10 o'clock tomorrow forenoon and the jury was excused until that time. Out of the eleven jurors remaining of the original panel four have been passed for cause.

CARTER INTENDS TO TAKE TO THE WOODS

"I intend to exclude myself a great deal more than I heretofore have done," remarked Governor Carter this morning. "In order that I can open to real hard work before the Legislature meets, I shall receive only callers who have important business in order that I may be as undisturbed as possible."

"There will be a great amount of work for me to do before the Legislature meets and I have many things to prepare for it, bills to draft, etc. I want to work as undisturbed as possible and shall 'take to the woods' to accomplish it."

PLANTERS AND LABOR MEN PLANNED TO WORK TOGETHER FOR SKILLED LABOR

Says Carter In Statement.

"I intend to give you a statement regarding this labor commission which is causing so much talk," said Governor Carter this noon to a Bulletin reporter. "The statistics gathered by the commission I consider very important, as they are the only up-to-date labor statistics we have on Hawaii. I have so far only had a rough draft of the report submitted to me, but I hope to get the complete report soon, as I intend to send it to Congress before the session of that body closes on March 5. Whether the report is favorable or not, I will send it. As it did not pass, I have asked the various unions to append statements showing that they did not approve of it and showing the votes for and against the rejection of the report in each of these organizations."

The Governor then gave the following detailed statement of the matter:

HONOLULU, Jan. 9, 1905.

STATEMENT OF GOVERNOR CARTER TO MESSRS. BURNS AND KINNEY OF THE STAR AND BULLETIN IN REFERENCE TO THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION'S REPORT.

The Advertiser is making a great ado about the labor investigation, and I am perfectly willing to be interviewed and give to the public the facts, for it is unfortunate that those in control of the labor organizations, while groping and reaching out for better conditions, should have turned down a proposition greatly in their interests; and the day will come when they will see their own mistake and will realize that the Advertiser has done them an injury in its antagonism to Mr. Pinkham.

When East, there was again forcibly brought to my attention the ignorance of the people and the leaders there as to our conditions here, and it was the impression on every side that labor out here was in a deplorable state. It is not long ago since a book was written on Hawaii, where it told of the arsenals kept up by every sugar plantation here; that the crash of the rifle and the groan of the dying slave who had unfortunately prowled into the manager's grounds was no uncommon thing in Hawaii. Within the last month the San Francisco papers contained a statement of some Porto Ricans from Hawaii, which shows that the San Francisco papers are still of the opinion that slavery, in its worst form, exists in Hawaii. No other thing impressed me so deeply as the harm done to the community through ignorance of labor conditions here.

While East, in discussing this, an opportunity came for financial assistance to secure reliable data. I accepted it and called out here to start an investigation for a report, bringing the matter down to date, and suggested Pinkham as the most intelligent and best friend of labor in Hawaii to organize it. I knew of no man in Hawaii sufficiently intelligent to collect the data who would give labor as fair a representation as Mr. Pinkham would.

The labor organizations responded heartily, and selected a committee of their leaders; and they went to work with a will. I paid no further attention to it.

It now turns out (like all men enthusiastic in their work) the matter developed from a simple report of statements, into a proposition, made lately to the Planters, to meet them halfway on a solution of the labor difficulties in Hawaii, going beyond what I anticipated.

Their proposition, as I understand it, was that they recognized in our industrial structure built as it has been and the situation as it is here, that common Oriental labor was a necessity, and that they were ready to recommend the limited admission of Chinese, so that the balance of power could be maintained in the Territory, conditioned upon certain requirements. The Planters demurred at first, I am told, and Pinkham hammered away at them, and finally succeeded in securing an arrangement, where practically the two interests went into partnership on equal terms.

An arbitration committee to settle all questions that in future might arise between the sugar interests and labor interests in Hawaii was provided for. I find that they had selected me as the fifth member or arbitrator; and as the thing has gone by the boards, I am glad to be relieved of that responsibility.

The proposition, as I see it, was greatly in the interests of that result which the Advertiser has held up as the main cause of its fight for small farming, in that through the small farming movement we would secure the middle class which all deem essential to the well-being of our community.

The report has grown into a proposition that has that very object in view, the increasing of our middle class in Hawaii by the plantation owners stipulating to employ citizens or those eligible to become citizens in all skilled and semi-skilled positions—surely something that labor organizations ought to be glad to see put into operation.

It provided that the Planters should put up $25,000 to be expended by this arbitration committee in another earnest attempt to secure common labor from other than Oriental sources. It did not, and does not, express, on the question of small farming, any other than the result of the expressions of the small farmers themselves. There may have been cases of individual successful farmers being left out; but that is not its great object. To my mind, it is not whether small farming is a success or not—but to bring these two great forces of capital and labor together into harmony, and to provide a path by which in future they can keep in harmony.

Through technicalities, and by the influence of some percentage (whether it is a majority or not, I do not know), the matter has been turned down, and exposed by some member of the commission before being presented to me. This is unfortunate, for cannot be helped.

Nevertheless, I want that report to be sent on. I want the statement of those at the head of the unions that turned it down to go with it. I want the world at large to know the efforts we have made in this direction, and the result. There is nothing dishonest in our efforts. I cannot agree with the Advertiser that publicity is needed for everything, and I presume it was largely at the wishes of the members of the commission that their plans were kept to themselves. They did not take me into their confidence. I do not believe Pinkham has improperly influenced the commission in its endeavor to get at facts. We all want the truth.

Deal To Give McBryde Sugar Plantation Big Electric System

McBryde Sugar Plantation is negotiating a deal for bonds for the installation of its electrical system and for tunneling and other improvements.

Report had it this morning that James F. Morgan was consummating a large deal in McBryde bonds in San Francisco. Men interested in the installation of an electrical system on McBryde stated later that Morgan was not supposed to be interested in the transaction, unless in an incidental manner.

It was stated that a man recently from San Francisco, who had seen Morgan, had reported that a big deal was about to be closed in relation to the plantation; that the Hawaiian Electric Company would take a large share of the bonds to be floated as compensation for installing the electrical system.

Again it was stated by one in touch with the situation that the Hawaiian Electric Company would take bonds of the Kaula Electric Company and install the plant.

F. M. Swaney, of Theo. H. Davies & Co., agents for McBryde plantation, stated this morning that he had nothing to say in relation to the deal. He had seen it stated in the newspapers, he said, that James F. Morgan had gone to the Coast in relation to floating McBryde plantation bonds, and supposed that that was what he had gone for. Further than this, Mr. Swaney would have nothing to say.

Attorney W. A. Kinney, said to have the matter of the deal out of the (Continued on Page 4)

SUGGESTION TO AID HOME SEEKERS HERE

The Hawaii Promotion Committee has recently received several applications from the East looking for suitable furnished houses in this city.

It seems that at the time of the applications being made there was little or no information to be had in reference to opportunities in this line.

The suggestion is now put forward that real estate men and others handling or interested in the rental of furnished cottages in Honolulu leave information at the Young building office of the Hawaii Promotion Committee in order that inquirers at the office may be supplied with all particulars.

If this idea is carried out the convenience to both seekers and owners of furnished houses and people interested in their rental will be great and the interests of promotion work will be that much advanced.

There will be a regular business meeting of the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Confidential business was transacted at a meeting of the Masters and Pilots' Association last evening.

Honolulu Football League is to hold a smoker on the 21st instant.

Delegate Replies To Carter's Cable

The following cable was received by Governor Carter Saturday afternoon from Delegate Kulaniana'ole in reply to a message sent Friday evening:

"Working hard to obtain building. The decision of the committee pending between the policy of buying or erecting a building. Do not think it possible enormous appropriation can be secured to purchase Young building. Fear if any effort should be made necessary to choose between Cushman and Kulo bills. Awaiting expression of Honolulu public opinion 'KALANIANA'OLE."

The cable sent to Kulo by the Governor at the request of the Merchants' Association was as follows:

"What is the cause of telegram 'What is the general opinion Young building? Please give full explanation. Reply immediately.' 'CARTER.'"

Federal Building Meeting of Merchants Tonight

A general meeting of the Merchants' Association will be held at 7:30 this evening in the Young building to take final action on the matter of a Federal building for Hawaii.

It is stated on the authority of those closely in touch with the situation that it is probable that the Association will endorse the bill of Delegate to Congress Kulo Kulaniana'ole, supporting erection of a new building, standing against the purchase by the Federal Government of the Alexander Young Hotel as a Federal building.

Kulo's reply to the cable sent by the Governor at the request of the Merchants' Association will be discussed.

The opening of the Pupukea and Paumotu lands took place this morning. Mrs. Elizabeth B. Shaw secured lot No. 1 of 127.8 acres at a semi-annual rental of $92.75, which she paid. Lot No. 4 was taken by Juergen Thot. This lot includes 92.2 acres for which semi-annual rental of $66.90 was paid.

Buckeye Club holds regular bi-monthly meeting at the Castle Home, 629 N. King street, tomorrow evening at 7:30.

An examination of applicants for admission to the bar will be held Wednesday at 9 a. m. in Judge Robinson's room.

FIRST SOGNER GAME NEW YEARS ON MAUI

MAILES AND IOLANIS BOTH SCORE 2 POINTS

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL SEASON OPENS WITH INTERESTING GAME RESULTING IN A DRAW.

The first game of Association football of the season was played on Saturday afternoon between the Maile Illmas and the Iolanis. The teams were as follows:

Iolanis—Goal, E. Kelleit; backs, J. Kelleit, Freeth; halves, M. Anderson, J. Anderson, G. Mason; forwards, Koa, A. Williams, Campbell (captain), Woo, Veruandes.
Maile—Goal, Beardmore; backs, McGill, R. Anderson; halves, Hester, Guld, White; forwards, Churton, Carter (captain), Greig, Foster, Fiddes, Refere, F. Waldron.
Linesmen—P. Morse and Ed. Mourne.

The toss was won by the Mailes who selected the makai goal. In the very beginning of the first half the Iolanis took the lead but the Mailes soon picked themselves up and held their antagonists at bay. Both teams played an aggressive game and the ball was sent up and down from one end of the field to the other. Both the Mailes and the Iolanis goal were threatened but in spite of the best efforts on the part of the players neither side could score and the first half ended without result.

The second half was a great deal more interesting than the first had been, no less than four goals being made, two by the Mailes and two by the Iolanis.

The Mailes had the honor of scoring the first goal of the season. After carrying the ball nicely down the field Greig passed the ball to Davis on the left wing. Davis centered the sphere to Churton who shot it through the goal in good order.

The Iolanis soon enjoyed their revenge. They brought the ball close down to their opponents' goal and seemed ready to try a shot for it, when they were allowed a foul on an error by a Maile player. This gave the Iolanis the advantage of a free kick. Woo made the kick sending the ball through Hester's hands and between the goal posts. This made the score one to one.

The Mailes again took the lead when Anderson bounced the ball through the Iolanis goal by butting it with his head. For a while it looked as if the Mailes had the game but the Iolanis summoned all their efforts and managed to score another goal just before time was up. This made the game a draw, each side having scored two goals.

The game from the opening kick was stubbornly contested. Several good exchanges took place between the rivals, Woo of the Iolanis being much in evidence against Big Anderson of the Mailes to the delight of the crowd who appreciated the fitness of the clever young Chinese in manipulating the sphere for a possible opening to shoot. Very clean football characterized the game throughout, the spectators being kept up to a high pitch of excitement by the various passages at arms between the contending factions. The Iolanis forward string were conspicuous in trying to break through the strong Maile defence and their frequent incursions into the latter's territory, though unsuccessful, merited better luck. Even play followed for some considerable time and goal to goal visitations occurred. The amount of training that the Blue and Whites had gone in for was shown in the fact of their hustling the pace better than the Mailes.

Up to the interval the Iolanis were strenuous in their efforts to open the score and several good shots from Woo, Fernandez and Campbell rattled rapturously near the uprights before Beardmore, and the Maile backs could clear their lines and raise the flag.

The play in the closing moments of the game for the supremacy was very keen but although both sets of forwards played well they were unable to break through the opposing defence and a well fought game ended in a draw.

Mr. Waldron kept the teams well in hand, his decisions being prompt and just.

The efforts of the league in their endeavors to present the Honolulu public with good clean ball merit success and the league's fixtures for the season appeal to the sporting element as an athletic pleasure.

MANY LUAS GIVEN TO PROPERLY GREET NEW YEAR

JAPANESE CELEBRATED WHEN THEY HEARD FALL OF PORT ARTHUR—LARGE CROWDS TURNED OUT.

[Special to The Bulletin.]
Wailuku, Maui, Jan. 7.—New Year day was generally celebrated by a number of family luas in and around Wailuku, prominent among them being the one given by Mr. and Mrs. S. Kellinot at their home in Wailuku, which was attended by several families from Wailuku and Waikapu. Judge Kepoikal also gave his friends a sumptuous luau at the Fishery in Kahului.

During the holidays the best of order prevailed in and around Wailuku, there being but few arrests for drunkenness and similar troubles. On Monday afternoon the news reached Wailuku of the fall of Port Arthur and the Japanese simply went wild over the report and at once proceeded to arrange for a big demonstration, which was planned for Tuesday night. Prompt in their plans the affair was opened by a big parade consisting of a long line of hacks, buggies, wagons and carts loaded down with both men and women, all of whom carried flags. They passed through the leading streets of Wailuku towards Waikapu and on returning to Kahului. In the evening they congregated on a vacant lot on Vineyard street, where speeches, songs and fire works were used to give vent to their feelings of joy over the fall of Port Arthur.

Later in the evening a parade consisting of children, carrying Japanese lanterns, was arranged which passed down Market street and up High street. There was a long line of them and they made a good showing by their songs and shouts of "Banzai."

HILO RACES

Hilo, Jan. 5.—The first races at the park on New Year's day under the auspices of the Hilo Jockey Club were a success in every way and the club will break even on the events. In the early morning it looked as though the weather was to be against the races, but at noon it cleared up and with the exception that the track was rather sticky there was nothing to mar the pleasure of the crowd or the riders.

Egyptian Princess, John O'Rourke's horse, was the favorite from every viewpoint and she won every race in which she entered. Opiopo was up and he is a hard one to beat at any time. In the first race, a half-mile free for all, the entries were So So, Sam Lazarus, Esq., and Egyptian Princess. There was an annoying delay in starting, but when the horses got away the Princess showed her speed and won in 1:21.2. So So was determined not to go to the wire and it required all the efforts of her jockey, McAuliffe, to bring her up.

The driving race was evenly contested, Harry, entered by C. E. Wright, carrying off the purse, winning two heats in 1:31.4 and 1:31.4; Belle entered by young Joe Canario, took one heat in 1:25; Dr. Holland's horse, Microbe, made a good impression on the judges of horseflesh, but in the race on Monday it was hard to keep her on her feet.

Rejected, Sam Lazarus, Esq., and Egyptian Princess were the entries for the three-quarter mile dash, the Princess winning in 1:20, Lazarus coming in close behind, and Rejected far in the rear.

The pony race was a good event and had four entries: Baby, Nigger, Charley and Frank. Forbes' horse, Nigger, ridden by a Japanese jockey, winning in 56.34.

Royal F. won the fifth event in 1:52.1-2 against Philip and So So.

The sixth race was for Japanese-owned horses and was contested by Jim, Pony and Baby and was won by the latter in 1:57.1-2.

The first event was a mile handicap in which Philip, Sam Lazarus, Esq., Egyptian Princess and Royal F. took part. Royal F. took the wrong measure and set the pace for a half-mile and then dropped back; Lazarus took a turn but was quickly passed by Egyptian Princess, who won the race in 1:50.14.—Herald.

THOMAS REACHES PORT

TROOPS AND SUPPLIES FOR THE PHILIPPINES

WILL SAIL AGAIN THIS AFTERNOON — SOLDIERS DO NOT TAKE KINDLY TO HONOLULU SUNDAY.

United States Army transport Thomas arrived early yesterday morning from San Francisco after a very stormy passage. She struck into the storm which has prevailed for some days, rendering the voyage all of pleasant for passengers and troops. A number of minor accidents occurred as a result of the lurching of the ship. The Thomas docked at Naval Wharf No. 2 and the passengers were immediately allowed ashore. The soldiers, however, were kept on the wharf all day, much to their discomfiture. They played leap-frog, hand-ball and other games, but complained bitterly at not being allowed ashore. It is understood that Sheriff Henry's "good Sunday" program induced the commanding officer to withhold shore privileges for the day.

The Thomas began taking coal from this morning. She is scheduled to sail at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Manila.

As a part of the tracking campaign, Thurston publishes a portion, a very small portion, of the commission's conclusions. He straightaway begins to criticize the remainder of the report or such details as he, according to the inference from his paper, has learned from a member of the commission.

It is well to bear in mind that if the report amounts to anything no detail member of the commission could furnish Mr. Thurston the extended details on which he could form an honest opinion. Whether the gentleman wants to form an honest opinion is another question. Thurston himself doesn't know whether the small farmer has been misrepresented or not. He is prone to withhold his hammer till the full report is made to the Governor and then presumably made public.

My. Thurston through the medium of his paper practically says the work of this commission is worse than "no good." What does he know about it? Has he seen the report with its mass of details? Does he know that the small farmer has been misrepresented or misrepresented? On the most meager information he has attacked the work done, endeavored to destroy whatever good might come from it and then attacked the privacy of its conception. Any man of ordinary honesty or judgment anxious to aid without committing an injury would attach the privacy of the report on general principles and not put it before the public until it is before putting the report down as if for good or evil.

What the labor men of this community have to consider is this: The opportunity offers for the skilled mechanics to deal with the plantation interests in a friendly manner and secure the skilled and semi-skilled labor to citizens. Will the labor men through this opportunity overlook for a mass of sunbats handed out by L. A. Thurston, who knows nothing of the report and is criticizing and whose criticism is based on spiteful generalities—not facts?

FOUR PLANS BEFORE COUNTY COMMISSION

County Act Commissioners meet in the Capitol on Wednesday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

At present there are four bills proposed: Cooper's draft, including provisions for a Board of Supervisors; Stewart's draft, providing a plan leaving out the Board of Supervisors; a revenue measure and a bill providing for a county for the leper settlement. These will be printed, probably, and the final draft of the County Act is likely to be a composition of the ideas expressed in the drafts of Commissioners Cooper, Stewart and Watson; the Molokai settlement business may be included or not, according to agreement of the Commissioners. It is clearly settled that the revenue measure will be a separate affair. It is expected that Commissioner Beckley will arrive in the city soon to engage in the final work of the Commission.

ROUGH WEATHER ON GARDEN ISLE

Former Pilot, of the steamer Kaula, which arrived yesterday from Nawiliwili, reported as follows: "Steamer Waiakaha at Waimea, all her freight discharged. She started to load K. M. M. sugar. They got 600 bags on board, but then had to stop work on account of rough weather. The schooner Allen A. is storm-bound at Mahoe. The steamer Waiakaha is laying off Nawiliwili. Can't work at Kona. She still has her fertilizer aboard. Two boats of fertilizer were landed, but the work had to stop then on account of the weather. It was too rough at Anahola to land the screws. They have the screws on the Waiakaha yet. Strong southwest winds on lee side of the island. Crossing channel light north-west winds with heavy squalls."

ARROYO MURDER TRIAL STARTED

The first murder case of the year, that of Eugenio Arroyo, was begun this morning to Judge Robinson's court. Arroyo is the Porto Rican who on last August Day shot a fellow countryman, named Adolfo Rivera. The two men were both living in Iwilei and enjoyed rather obscure reputations. It seems that the two men quarrelled about a Porto Rican woman and decided to settle the dispute with their fists. Rivera knocked Arroyo down. While the latter was on the ground he pulled a gun and shot his rival, who died from his wounds a few weeks later. It is evident that Arroyo's defense is going to be that Arroyo, while he was lying on the ground thought that Rivera was going to kill him, and that he shot him in self-defense.

Attorney General Andrews conducted the case of the prosecution while Attorney Leon Strauss, who was assigned by the court to represent Arroyo, conducted the defense. Owing to a delay caused by Strauss' wanting a private talk with his client the case was not started before 10:30 a. m. After Andrews had made a brief statement of the facts the drawing of the jury was proceeded with.

City Schools Good Says a Friend

Editor Evening Bulletin:—The report of the Grand Jury concerning the schools of the Territory, and the editorial referring to it in your paper of the 21st of last month, have created no little sensation in the educational department of our city, and it will be only fair to respond briefly to some of the sweeping charges they contain.

In regard to the report of the Grand Jury, they show much kind feeling towards the teachers generally, but they require more light on the subjects they have touched upon.

The Honorable Superintendent has the moral support of a goodly body in the Board of Education, which is composed of educated, up-to-date persons of different callings in life; he is in sympathetic touch with all the teachers of his staff, who reciprocate the confidence he places in them, and from his office go out directions and business transactions every day, with that systematic harmony which can only be acquired by a man of intelligence, long experience, and thorough acquaintance with the work entrusted to his care; while the duties of his calling, as head of the department, prevent him from personally inspecting the schools, which duty is that of the School Inspector, Mr. Davis, now in the place of Mr. Burket, lately retired. And the Superintendent shows good judgment in sending his school agent, who has been a teacher of experience in Honolulu, on important errands and to attend to the various needs of the schools.

WANTS REDUCTION. Senator Achil, attorney for Watson of divorce fame, this morning made a motion that the court change its order in regard to attorney and attorney's fees to be paid by the defendant, by cutting the former down to $10 a month and the latter to $50. Deputy Attorney General Peters opposed the motion contending that it was not made in proper form. Judge Robinson upheld Peters and told Achil that the motion should be merely to reduce the amount, but not to change the court's order. Achil consequently withdrew his motion.

DEAL TO GIVE MCBRYDE BIG ELECTRIC SYSTEM. (Continued from Page 1.) transaction in hand, representing the Kaula Electric Company, was seen in reference to the reports. Said Attorney W. A. Kinney this forenoon: "An attorney for the proposed company I would say that it is premature to say that any money has been raised or that any contracts have been let. "All that can properly be said at the present time is that the prospects are very good for raising the necessary money, in which case the plant ought to be installed fifteen months from date; but, of course, there is many a slip possible." It is understood that the financing of the company is practically assured, but the papers, it is said, have not yet been signed and therefore nothing is at present binding in the situation. It is also assured that the Hawaiian Electric Company will have charge of the installation of the electric plant for McBryde plantation. His company has successfully installed several smaller plants and if they make a success of this contemplated very large plant it is felt that the practical result will be that the bulk of the electrical development of this country will be handled by the Hawaiian Electric Company as the Honolulu Iron Works now handles the machinery end of the Hawaiian sugar plantation business. Samuel Kama, Nawahine, K. B. Robinson and Molokai, four elderly Hawaiians who have been working on the School street extension, this morning called on Tax Assessor Holt. They claimed that they were over sixty years of age and therefore did not have to pay personal taxes. Holt sent them to the Secretary's office in order that their status on their precinct lists might be found.

FROM A FRIEND. Honolulu, Jan. 4, 1905. GOLD BRICK OR NOT? Editor Evening Bulletin:—What's the matter with the Pacific Union Oil Co.? Can anyone say? Can J. H. Fisher, once special agent, tell us what has become of the money that we have paid into this concern? Can H. B. Griffith, Judge H. C. Barrows, Hon. William Craig, Hon. Frank L. Combs, Hon. W. E. Green, directors and officers of this company, say where the money has gone to? Some say,—a base slander, of course,—that it is gone up in smoke, or in high balls, or something of the kind; and that it never saw the oil field of Fresno county, Cal. Another base slander, I presume. But whatever has been done with it is a mystery to the stockholders of this fair land of suckers, and even a word has ever been heard as to the outcome of the venture. And now some of the people who were permitted to buy "a limited amount of the stock" are wondering if it was another gold brick they bought, or the real thing. Can anyone say? Yours truly, STOCKOWNER. Hilo, Jan. 4, '05. The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.

ROTHWELL REPLIES.

President J. G. Rothwell of the Kauai Wine Co. replies as below to the letter of the Governor addressed to the company and recently published.

Dear Sir: We beg to acknowledge your letter of the 7th inst., in which you state that you do not quite understand the purport of our letter of the 5th inst. other than perhaps a desire on our part to give publicity to our interpretation of the question involved and create public sentiment in our behalf.

Our letter is our opinion on the "question involved," to the extent of expressing our own views it may be regarded as "partisan." Believing there is a principle involved, we have approached the matter fairly and squarely and plainly, and from our side.

We beg to decline to accept your diagnosis of our motives as to creating public sentiment in our behalf, but we certainly have no objection to a public discussion of the subject matter of our letter.

From your action in sending our letter to the press, we apprehend that you have no such objection either.

The Weekly Edition of the Evening Bulletin gives a complete summary of the news of the day.

General Moore To Inspec. Camp McKinley

Brigadier General Francis Moore U. S. A., arrived in the transport Thomas yesterday and is at the Hawaiian Hotel. He is accompanied by his wife, daughter and aide-de-camp Lieutenant C. F. Cox, Major Lea Fogler, Inspector General of the Pacific Division, U. S. A., also accompanies the General.

General Moore comes down to inspect Camp McKinley and all other property of the War Department in Honolulu. He will begin his work tomorrow and expects to finish in about ten days. His special attention will be given to Kahaui and the plans for buildings there.

General Moore will start work at Camp McKinley, inspecting both the quarters and the men there. He will next take up the more elaborate work of inspecting the sites proposed for fortifications. Upon his inspection he will issue a report to the War Department. His report on Kahaui, Ka Ihi, Waikiki and Punaloa fortifications will, of course, deal merely with minor matters, the principal features of these defenses having already been determined. One thing he will look into especially, however, is a scheme of defending Honolulu and Pearl Harbor from the Koolau side of the island. A mountain battery or mountain fort may be recommended as the most feasible scheme.

ELKS' SOCIAL SESSION.

Saturday night's Elks' social session was a roaring triumph. Seldom has so merry a flow of wit flooded care and washed away the pills of busy minds. A fine bunch of talent was evidenced and humor was out in its glad gown, brilliant for the occasion. Ripples and roars of laughter wound up Saturday and woke up Haterday (Sunday). Brother Frank Thompson generated the army of jokes and jollies and saw that members were properly fined, that the piper might be paid his due. Hearty comradeship, continuous fun, a cold and refreshing brew, the best of entertainment and lingering laughter characterized the joyous event. The program has been published in the Bulletin.

Books, Bookish People and Things

We get no good by being ungenerous even to a book. E. B. Browning.

There is a good instance of exaggerated conceit unmodified by vanity and despised by a want of humor, culture and savoir faire in the simple elements of good manners, in the criticism of Walt Whitman for printing a letter of praise he had received from Emerson.

The poet was pleased, and naturally used the letter because he needed just such support. It was the sort of appreciation he then was most in need of.

Whitman's biographer (Isaac Hull Fair—Small, Maynard & Co.), says of this: "It is not to be wondered at that the young poet should have been excited at the receipt of such a letter—but at that time he was accused of betraying a confidence in publishing this letter. This appears like rank nonsense. A letter—in regard to a matter of public interest—is not usually regarded as a private letter. Before Whitman allowed the letter to be published, he showed it to Charles A. Lums, who was a friend of Emerson as well as of Whitman; and he not only advised, but urged the latter to publish it."

What of more concern to the public than a reference to a man's ability, character or work? And any man who writes to another in praise of him, is not a man of good sense if he does not know that the recipient has every right to use his letter when occasion requires. The minute a letter is dropped into the postoffice it belongs to the addressee not to the addressor.

Men, of course, may change in their opinion of a man, and amend a statement previously made, but they cannot vitiate what even they themselves have written.

Swinburne from extreme praise of Whitman descended to curses; but everybody knew that it was due to personal feeling and not to a reversal of judgment. He had said what he thought of the man; it was written, and only Swinburne suffered from the pyrotechnic explosions that came later.

The episode of Emerson's letter came from a class who knew nothing of "epistolary" was extremely just. He recognized his own abilities better than the mass he wrote for, and as adequately as we have come to recognize them.

From time to time we see a stray bit in the papers stating that such and such a reporter betrayed a confidence in publishing an interview with so and so. This is generally the veriest bores. What fool would tell a reporter anything he wanted kept a secret? It is only a way some men have of trying to cover up their vanity.

"I don't talk for publication," he says the next day, when he talked for that express purpose. Or they express great indignation over the appearance of their names in a book or paper, giving the impression that they are tired of public notice.

Were they wise like Franklin, and thousands of others, they would acknowledge that they like the praise of men, and they would get it. For a discerning man knows well that all the ear people have down deep somewhere a nugget of vanity which they would like to have mined by the right person.

The Japan Weekly Mail's account of the funeral of Lafcadio Hearn, the author of "Japan: An Attempt at Interpretation," says: "The great author's funeral took place on September 29. The body was carried from the residence of the deceased at Okubo to Kofu-dera, and after a splendid service had been performed, the remains were transported to the crematory for ultimate burial at Zozangaya in the Yamanaka suburb. An address presented by his former student, accompanying a handsome gift of flowers, spoke of the pen of the deceased having been more powerful than Japan's victorious sword, and alluded to his love for Japan as well as to the great honor that he had done the Japanese nation by assuming Japanese citizenship and making this country his place of residence. Very few foreigners attended the obsequies, but the relatives of the great writer and many Japanese were present."

Of "Spembla, Days and Collect," said Whitman, the author, wrote three anonymous reviews, all of which were sane and correct. No one would charge of letters and little of the rules which govern polite society. There are persons actually living who know so little about the amenities as to believe that a letter unmarked "personal," "private" or "confidential" must be held private. Outside of family letters, it rests entirely with the receiver of a letter as to his use of it; he may burn it, keep it for reference, or send it to his publisher. This is an epistolary law which those who write ought to know before they "touch pen to paper." Otherwise, they may make fools of themselves.

Mrs. Ella Higginson, the author of "Mariella of Out West," tells this story on herself: "In Alaska last summer I went into a store in a little town far north, near Cook's Inlet. It is what is called a 'hot' town, up in Alaska. I was looking for a book, and the first thing I saw was 'Mariella.' " "Thought we was stuck on that book—sure," said the gentleman behind the counter, handing it down; he was in his shirt sleeves and had a silk kerchief around his neck. Had ten copies and only sold one. The rest stuck. But the author of the book hit the town yesterday and they've gone off like hot cakes. Last one. Want it?"

Mrs. Higginson's friends are still telling with joy how she "hit" the "hottest" town in Alaska.

"Correct Writing and Speaking," by Miss Mary A. Jordan, Professor of English Literature in Smith College, has been published by A. S. Barnes & Co. In the popular "Woman's Home Library," edited by Mrs. Margaret E. Sangster.

A juvenile work of an absolutely original character is Sandman Rhymes by Willard Bogue. Articles familiar to every child, the Needle, Thread, and Scissors, not to mention such goodies as Chocolate Drop, Sponge Cake, Kclair, etc., hold humorous conversations with each other in clever verses. Mr. Bogue has illustrated the work in his inimitable humorous manner, and the 112 pages, all of which are printed in colors, are full of fascinating features that cannot fail to interest the children. H. M. Caldwell Co., Boston, are the publishers.

Jack London's "The Sea-Wolf" sold out in advance of publication. A second edition of 20,000 copies will soon be issued.

All communications, books and periodicals for this department should be sent to the "Bulletin Bookman," Honolulu, North Kona, T. H.

WAILUKU'S NEW SCHOOL

CHILDREN AND TEACHERS TAKE FORMAL POSSESSION

TEACHING STAFF INCREASED BY ONE—APPROPRIATE PATRIOTIC EXERCISES WERE HELD.

[Special to The Bulletin.] Wailuku, Maui, Jan. 7.—The new Wailuku school was opened on January 5, quite a number of children being in attendance. The teachers and pupils met in the old school at 9 a. m. where they formed a double line and marched to the new school house. The procession was headed by Masters Jimmie Hart and Frank Crockett, the former beating the drum and the latter bearing the flag. Next came the primary pupils escorted by their teacher, Miss On Tai. These were followed by Mrs. Copeland and pupils, then Mrs. McKay and pupils and last the pupils of the high school.

Principal Copeland met them at the school and assigned them to their respective rooms. The school has been reorganized and another teacher added. The present faculty consists of Principal Copeland, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Copeland, Miss On Tai and Mrs. Harry.

The formal opening exercises were held Friday, the 6th inst., at which time the parents and friends were expected to be present. Only a very small percentage of the parents responded. Principal Copeland led the children in their patriotic exercises which were very interesting. The exercises closed with all singing "America."

Erskine M. Phelps Battles With Kona

There was a great deal of excitement Saturday afternoon along the waterfront on account of a battle of the ship Erskine M. Phelps against the Kona storm then prevailing to gain the open sea. The Phelps cleared the channel all right and set her sails properly, but the undertow was too much for her. She began to drift rapidly toward the reef in the neighborhood of the bell buoy.

Realizing his danger, Captain Graham let go an anchor. It failed to hold at first and two other anchors were dropped. At the same time a signal was sent up for help. The tug Fearless steamed out promptly, and the Iroquoia began getting up steam to assist. The Fearless, however, proved sufficient. After getting the Phelps thoroughly under control the tug was secured and anchored and at daylight Sunday morning was towed to sea.

The loss of the Phelps would have meant a great deal in money. Besides the value of the fine vessel, the cargo represented a value of nearly a half million dollars.

It is predicted along the waterfront that Captain Graham will experience all sorts of trouble in reaching Delaware Breakwater. Men who claim to know say that the crew shipped by him here is made up of "farmers." They declare that not a man of them knows how to bend a sail. This, however, may be the result of pique on the part of the men who shipped but didn't go.

MAUI TEACHERS MEET

VALUABLE SUGGESTIONS ARE BROUGHT OUT FOR WORKERS

MANY PAPERS READ, FOLLOWED BY DISCUSSIONS - OFFICERS ELECTED FOR ENSUING YEAR.

[Special to The Bulletin] Wailuku, Maui, Jan. 7.—The Maui Teachers' Association convened in annual session in the Wailuku public school January 6 at 10:30 a. m. Preadeant D. Kapohakimohewa in the chair. Mrs. Harry, the secretary, called the roll and the members responded with quotations. About thirty were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. This was followed by music by a sextet led by Moses Kaubimahu; they received considerable applause and delighted the audience by giving another beautiful selection.

In the opening address Mr. Copeland gave an outline of the future work of the Wailuku school. Vice President H. Coke gave a very good paper on the "Fundamental Principles of Pedagogy." The next selections of music were equally as fine as the preceding. Moses Kaubimahu read a very practical paper on "Mosquitoes and How to Exterminate Them." "School Discipline" was the subject of Mr. Copeland's excellent paper. From what had been observed of the school in the earlier hours of the day, it is quite evident that Mr. Copeland practices what he preaches. The last paper of the morning session was read by C. W. Baldwin, subject "Allens in the Public Schools." This paper, like all of Mr. Baldwin's productions, showed careful preparation and contained much food for thought. It is hoped to give the public all of these valuable articles in full, for they are worthy of reproduction.

The afternoon session was opened with a discussion, "Music in the Schools." Mrs. McDonald of Lahaina read a most interesting and pleasing paper on "Pictures in the School-room." So bright and cheerful was her delivery and so attractive the subject matter that she held her audience entranced from beginning to end. Next on the program was a paper by Mr. Dowdle, who gave many interesting points on how Uncle Sam educates his nieces and nephews. He gave pen pictures of Uncle Sam's educational exhibit at the World's Fair, and so graphic were his descriptions his listeners could easily imagine they were really there enjoying this remarkable exhibit. Mr. Dowdle brought with him many pamphlets, maps, etc. These he invited the audience to examine and suggested that they make a note of such as would be helpful to them in their work, so that they might send for them at their leisure. Uncle Sam generously furnishes many of these publications free on application. A recess of ten minutes was taken to give the audience opportunity to examine the exhibit. There were several subjects down for discussion, but the one on Orthography was the only one considered. In the earlier part of the discussion the subject was left in the background, while Editor Robertson's criticisms of Maui teachers were reviewed. He was repeatedly called for and when it was noticed he was not present, it was suggested that a committee be sent to escort him to the building, that he might meet the teachers and get closer to their work. It was not clear to the majority of the audience that the subject was not there. Someone said the editor was out of town, so the matter was quietly dismissed and the discussion of Orthography continued. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mr. Dowdle, president. M. Kaubimahu, vice president. Mrs. Copeland, secretary. The next meeting is to be held at Lahainaluna's new school, Friday, December 8, 1905.

Witnesses Unable To Come From Maui

The preliminary hearing of Kondo, the Japanese okolehao distiller from Lahaina, did not come off before U. S. Commissioner Judd this morning, as had been expected, owing to the absence of important Maui witnesses. Kondo was arrested by the Territorial police and was handed over to the Federal authorities last week.

This morning Marshal Hendry received a wireless message from Deputy Sheriff R. P. Hone and R. C. Searle, the two witnesses, stating that the Claudine had not been able to pick them up at Lahaina last Saturday and arrive to rough weather. They expect to arrive here in the Likelike Wednesday morning.

Kawanaki was fined $150 in Police Court this noon for running a gambling joint. His wife was arrested on the same charge but the case was thrown out. The man and wife were running a che fa bank.

Ah Sang pleaded guilty in the Police Court this morning to the charge of stealing sixteen silk handkerchiefs and was given two months' imprisonment at hard labor.

After being laid up for several weeks the Ke Au Hou will get away this afternoon for Kaula ports. She will return on Saturday with a full cargo of sugar.
