

PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser. Ten Days LATER FOREIGN NEWS!

By the bark Young Hector, Capt. Chadwick, we received on the 24th, the New York mail of Dec. 31, with telegraphic dispatches to Jan. 6th from the seat of war.

We glean our usual summary of news, from the various scenes of the civil war in America, and also from Europe.

From Meade's Army. Gen. Meade's army was last reported at Calpepper, and Gen. Lee at Gordonsville.

Jan. 2.—A dispatch from the Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, yesterday, says: Nothing of interest is transpiring. The enrollment of citizens in the army is nearly completed, and includes whites and blacks. The number subject to draft will be very considerable.

Information from the Rapid Ann this morning is to the effect that the enemy opposite to Meade, is making no demonstration, indicating that the rebel movements in the valley are not a part of any general movement of Lee's army.

The Exchange of Prisoners. Under Butler's plan, 5,000 prisoners have been exchanged; but all at once the rebels declare that they will forego all further exchange unless all questions are given up about which our Government has been contending, and their laws in regard to officers and soldiers in negro regiments are recognized.

The special to the Times says our Government will not permit Gen. Butler to be ousted by Benjamin and the exchange of prisoners committed to him will be left in his hands. Secretary Stanton has enlarged Gen. Butler's powers, by putting all the rebel prisoners in the United States under his care.

Jeff. Davis was in favor of recognizing him, as Ould had already done. Butler's last proclamation outlawed the whole of the Richmond Government. Through this equality in disability, there is no doubt but exchanges will soon be re-established.

The Richmond Enquirer, speaking of the exchange of prisoners, writes that the whole question now is a dispute between the Commissioners as the treatment of negroes. The Enquirer concludes that the law of the rebel Congress for delivering all negroes and their white officers captured in the field, to the authorities for trial under the State laws was too wide in its language, and covered matter that is not within the province of one nation to dictate to another, and argues that no nation has a right to dictate to another what troops shall employ or may not employ.

North Carolina. Admiral Farragut expects to sail to-day, on the flag-ship Hartford, to take command of the Eastern blockading squadron.

Charleston. Gilmore bombarded Charleston on Christmas eve and all Christmas day. Telegrams to the Richmond papers say a fire broke out, which destroyed some ten or twelve buildings. One white man was mortally and one woman slightly wounded. Three firemen were killed by the falling walls of burning buildings, and three or four others were slightly wounded. 180 shells were thrown into the city, from 12 midnight, Christmas eve, until noon, next day. Our forces fired from Cummings' Point, from Fort Greig, and from a mortar battery.

Charleston. The Tribune vouches for the genuineness of the following letter, which intimates that the city of Charleston is mined with powder:

CHARLESTON, Dec. 9.—Dear Cousin: Fred has consented to let me come to Macon. You may expect me in a few days. The other day a Yankee shell exploded just around the corner from our house, tearing the building to pieces, and setting two others on fire; nobody was injured. I don't believe there are 200 lbs. in town able to get away. Most families have gone to Dorchester, Summerville, and even to Walterboro, and every house in these places is crowded. The majority of our people have left most of their furniture in their houses, expecting to return to them in a few weeks, but of course they know, if the Yankees take the city, their houses, furniture, and all, will be destroyed. General Beauregard caused information to reach all, that if he finds it impossible to hold the city he will leave it a mass of ruins. No one will complain of them, as they know the barbarians have sworn to destroy every vestige of the secession nest if they can take it. If they should ever enter the city you will hear of the greatest earthquake ever caused by human agency. It will be a consolation to you to know that should the vandals ever get here they will never be able to reach Macon. Beauregard is confident they could never get ten miles beyond the city in any direction, and equally confident they can never reach it. It is mournful to go through the streets and see them so directly deserted, and the explosion, now and then, of one of our colored people or squallid Irish women."

Tennessee. Nothing new from Chattanooga. All quiet there. Gen. Joe Johnston has taken command of the rebel army in Georgia, vice Bragg dismissed.

Rebel dispatches say: "Our forces are still around Bartlesville and Morrisville, East Tennessee. Cannonading was heard at the latter place on Sunday, Dec. 26th. Longstreet was unable to follow up his advantage in consequence of the number of barefooted men in his command. The weather is cold and the mountains are covered with snow." He has gone into winter quarters.

Louisiana. The loyal men of Louisiana are moving for a State election under the proclamation of the New Orleans Era says: "Under this proclamation an election can be called when the number of qualified voters registered is equal to one-tenth of the vote of 1860. The vote of Louisiana in 1860 was about 45,000, so that when 4,500 names are registered we shall be entitled to an election. This certainly must inspire every free State man with hope and joy. It assures us victory. It promises us the speedy restoration of our State under our new Constitution, or at any rate, with the old Constitution stripped of the hideous institution of slavery."

Arrival of the "GEORGE PEABODY" On Tuesday, the clipper ship George Peabody arrived with San Francisco papers to the 10th inst. We clip the more interesting items.

Jan. 7.—Burdette leaves to-morrow to assume command of the Department of the Ohio, relieving Gen. Foster, who is reported to be in bad health.

The World's Washington dispatch denies that Rosecrans has been assigned to the Department of the Missouri, and says that he will not be.

Jan. 7.—Archbishop Hughes of New York died on the 24, and was buried day after New St. Patrick's Cathedral. High Mass was celebrated by Bishop Timon, of Buffalo, and Bishop McCloskey pronounced the funeral discourse. The Cathedral was crowded to its utmost capacity. A large number of Catholic clergy were present from various cities. After the ceremonies the remains were interred in a tomb under the Cathedral, with impressive religious exercises.

WASHINGTON, January 6.—The mission of Gen. Butler has a much waterier name than has been yet stated, and is relative to future plans of the utmost importance, the nature of which must remain a secret till subsequent action on the part of the rebels causes developments. Butler had a protracted interview to-day with the President, Stanton, and Halleck, and it is understood that they were in agreement on his proposed course, and had full powers given him to carry the same into effect.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—The Star of this evening says that private information leads to the inevitable conclusion that the rebel authorities are quietly moving their military forces, and are located at Richmond, to some point in South Carolina. This is the result of Longstreet's failure and our expedition against Knoxville, as our continued occupation of East Tennessee is entirely incompatible with the security of the occupation of Richmond as a chief military depot.

In Congress, Jan. 8, Mr. Baldwin, of Massachusetts, offered a preamble setting forth that organized treason, having its headquarters at Richmond, exists in defiance of the Constitution, and has no claim to be treated otherwise than as an outlaw; therefore,

Resolved, That any proposition or negotiation with the rebels ought to be rejected without hesitation or delay.—Passed, 84 Yeas, 24 Nays.

Mr. Howe offered a resolution that the President be requested to call on 1,000,000 volunteers for 90 days, to carry freedom to every captive in the rebel prisons; and that Gen. Grant be assigned to the command of said troops. The resolution was referred to the Military Committee, and ordered printed.

NEW YORK, January 8.—The steamer Yuzoo has arrived, with dates from New Orleans to the 31st. Another secret expedition left there on the 31st, the strength and destination of which are unknown. Little doubt is entertained but that it is intended eventually for Mobile. It is supposed that Pascagoula will be occupied for the present, and an advance made on Mobile soon after the rainy season ends. It is reported that the man was at once knocked down by others, who remembered Jeff. Davis's proclamation on that subject.

There is great dissatisfaction among the rebels, and deserters who heard of the President's proclamation with respect to colored troops, and they declare that if the proclamation could be distributed freely among the rebel troops, thousands would at once enter our lines.

Miscellaneous Telegrams. Chief Justice Taney is said to be lying at the point of death.

The ports of Acapulco and San Blas, Mexico, are to be blockaded by the French, but the Panama steamer will be allowed to call and coal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Orders have been issued by the War Department postponing the draft until the 15th of February.

The great iron-clad Dictator was successfully launched at New York on the 29th.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5th.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Gen. Harmside is now here, and has, at the earnest solicitation of the President, withdrawn his resignation. It is not improbable that he will be assigned to the command of the Department of Ohio.

CAIRO, Jan. 5th.—A delegation of prominent citizens of Arkansas arrived last night en route to Washington to arrange for that State to resume its position in the Union. They say three-fourths of the whole population favor it.

A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer writing from Rosnoke the 26th, says: "The loss of the Government by Averill's raid, is heavy, consisting of a large quantity of bacon and corn, with a considerable amount of leather, which has been accumulated at the Government workshop, and the loss of private property in the village and neighborhood is considerable. About 30,000 pounds of bacon was saved by being shipped before the enemy reached the depot."

European.

The Emperor of Russia has returned thanks to President Lincoln for the kind reception of his self and their officers in the United States, and for the assistance extended at San Francisco to the Russian corvette Nerack which was wrecked upon the coast.

St. Petersburg advises represent that it was believed that France, Austria, and England will soon break off diplomatic relations with Russia, and that Russian statesmen are not without fears of war in the spring; but they hope by that time to have crushed the Polish insurrection.

The Times of India states that the Japanese city of Kagoshima, nearly destroyed by a bombardment with regard to the attitude and armament of Russia. It is said the Emperor, with the Grand Duke Constantine and Michael, had gone to Kerch in order to inspect the new fortifications, in company with Gen. Fiodleben.

The British Government employs at Sheerness, who assisted in fitting out the Rappahannock for the rebels, have been discharged for violation of the neutrality law. The names of persons serving on any rebel vessel, who belong to the naval service, are ordered to be stricken off the list. Such persons are to forfeit all privileges, and not to be allowed to enter the service.

The Richmond correspondent of the London Times admits that the blockade has now, for the first time, made access to rebel ports really dangerous and difficult. A correspondent of the same journal with the rebel army in Tennessee, admits that the crisis is approaching to test the South, and pays a high tribute to the magnificence of the Northern faith and self-reliance, as contrasted with the lukewarmness of the Southern masses.

PARIS, Jan. 2.—The following is additional, by the City of London. The London Globe carries its readers against a statement recently published, that Lord Lyons had telegraphed Earl Russell, predicting the termination of the war in America in three months.

NEW YORK, in response to an address voted him by the French Senate, asserted that he was actuated solely by good and pacific motives in the proposition for a Congress.

THE CHARLESTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE LONDON TIMES, speaks of the fifteen-inch shells as very efficacious means of grace, and that Battery Wagner has become a sort of missionary depot for the conversion of that nest of apostates from religion, civilization and law, the rebel army. The bombardment has got its effect into the habit of flocking in large numbers to the nearest "camp revival." It is to be hoped the church militant will give "em 'ee—any shot. If proper ideas of their duty to God and man cannot be pounded into them in any other manner, why then three or four pound it into them—use "hard-shell" persuasion.

TOCHING SCENE IN A COURT ROOM.—One James Sutherland, who has been on trial at Indianapolis for several days for killing Roddy A. Small, was acquitted on Thursday last. After the announcement of the verdict there followed a scene, says the Indianapolis Journal, not often witnessed in a courtroom. "The prisoner that was a prisoner now no longer—fell upon his knees, and lifting his eyes towards heaven uttered an earnest prayer of thanksgiving and praise to the God whose justice and mercy have been manifested in his acquittal. The prayer was irresistibly eloquent, and when Amen was pronounced, Amen came back in response from every part of the room, and there were tears in every eye. All rose to their feet; the acquitted man advanced and took each of the hands of the judges, and fervently said, 'God bless you! You have saved an innocent man from shame and disgrace; you have taken a foul stain from my name. God bless you!' And to the prosecutor, whose conduct in the case commended admiration from all for fairness and honesty, he gave a cordial God bless you! The old white-haired father, whose firm trust had supported the son in the dark hours of trial, now melted in tears of joy that his boy was acquitted of guilt, and his own good name remained unshaken. The judge, wiping his eyes of the tears that had come unbidden, ordered the Sheriff to adjourn the court."
