THURSDAY, AUGUST 31, 1893.

A MILITARY, NOT A CIVIC QUESTION.

That small but well-meaning element in the Annexation party which objects, on ethical grounds, to the removal of Royalist office-holders is represented by Mr. Albert E. Nichols, in a letter which the STAR prints in this impression. Mr. Nichols views the issue as an opponent of the spoils system, and his arguments are the familiar ones which have been used in the United States since 1882 to support Republicans in office under a Democratic president and Democrats under a Republican administration.

The Provisional Government is in a state of military defense. It exists behind sand bags and cannon. It knows that an enemy confronts it which, if possessed of its defenses and archives, would overthrow it, execute or banish many of its leaders and restore a heathen and tyrannical power. Yet, in spite of this, it permits its offices and the vantage ground within its fortified camp to be filled with men who boast of their Royalist sympathies.

Granted, therefore, that a military government should take care not to let its enemies, or those fairly believed to be enemies, within its lines, it follows that it should do all it can to secure friends and supporters there. It cannot get them by giving premiums to latent treason.

What of the oath of allegiance? Let us ask in what country an oath of allegiance ever kept men from revolting against the constituted authority which had required its acceptance of them? The hell of political anarchy is paved with the fragments of broken oaths and shattered promises.

As to the Annexation Club, we do not wish to see it a Tammany Hall, but a Union League—a body committed to the doctrine that only loyal men shall hold office, to the end that the great principles upon which the Government is grounded shall not be weakened, menaced or abused.

Regarding "spoils" the STAR disclaims the inferences drawn from the use of that word. It has no friends to suggest for any office, but it holds that where official salaries are disbursed the Government should make sure, by a wise selection of the men to whom they are given, that the funds are not diverted to the use of those who are plotting to undo the good work of January 17th.

FOR LACK OF MEN.

A distinguished citizen of Hawaii, a former member of the Government, has put a new phase on the removal question. He says that, while he agrees with the principle upon which the STAR's proposal is based, he doubts that competent men can be found in the Annexation party who would accept the positions now filled by Royalists.

All we can say about this is that we should like to have the authorities make the experiment. Can it be that no Annexationist doctor, of the proper medical attainments, could be persuaded to take the place of that inconceivable Royalist, Dr. George Anti-Segregation Troussau?

Then there is the place occupied by George J. Ross, a Royalist bred in the bone and tattooed in the flesh. How about that? Its duties are not severe, and its salary is nearly $5000 per annum. Can no one be found on all these Islands who could join competent management of the Auditor-General's office with good faith to the dominant cause and party?

The position of Registrar of Accounts, held by George E. Smithies, is one that might be looked upon as agreeable to an Annexationist. Its salary attachment is $3000 a year. Mr. Smithies, besides having the idea that the highest bidder is the one to award public printing to, is a gentleman who, to put it delicately, has not identified himself with the Annexation movement.

A PORTUGUESE EXAMPLE. Captain Camara of the Portuguese company (C) of the National Guard was lately an applicant for a clerkship which, at the time, was vacant. The captain is competent for the duties of the post and as citizen and soldier has always been faithful to the Government.

The Portuguese, whom Captain Camara represents, comprise forty per cent of the Annexation Club and the Americans twenty-three per cent. So far, we are told, four Portuguese have obtained small places—very small ones—and one has a seat in the Council.

What of the oath of allegiance? Let us ask in what country an oath of allegiance ever kept men from revolting against the constituted authority which had required its acceptance of them? The hell of political anarchy is paved with the fragments of broken oaths and shattered promises.

As to the Annexation Club, we do not wish to see it a Tammany Hall, but a Union League—a body committed to the doctrine that only loyal men shall hold office, to the end that the great principles upon which the Government is grounded shall not be weakened, menaced or abused.

not stand up for his friends is "worse than the infidel." He spoke with reference to the fate in American politics of one Rutherford B. Hayes, who, after four years' effort to placate political enemies and offend political friends, retired to his hen yard at Fremont with the ill will of Republicans and Democrats alike.

What is all this hullabaloo about the "three articles" of a new treaty offered by the Provisional Government to the United States? We observe that the New York Times (Dem.) is in a fever on the subject. So are some of the local Royalist prints; and yet the highest authorities upon Hawaiian matters say that the articles in question were never adopted by the Councils, and have no place in the pending negotiations.

PROFESSOR ALEXANDER TALKS.

Some of the Things He Told a San Francisco "Call" Reporter. Upon being seen at his brother's residence last evening, Professor Alexander skinned, in a desultory but nevertheless interesting way, over the broad field of Hawaiian politics.

"Too much has been made of the Spreckels imbroglio, but to some extent his visit to the Islands was disadvantageous. The natives were gradually coming over to the annexation idea when Spreckels arrived at the Islands. He is credited with having spread abroad the report that he would replace the Queen on the throne if it cost him $200,000.

"Now," continued Professor Alexander, "it is easy to be understood how talk such as I have quoted was calculated to unsettle the volatile minds of the unthinking natives. I have heard it said that Mr. Spreckels is going to Washington within the week to 'kill' annexation, for the failure to do so means an end to the sugar industry through the cessation of the coolie traffic.

"The objection against the difficulty of working the plantations seems a valid one: how does the Government propose to get around it?" was asked. "The coolie traffic has always been a blot on the island system, and the Government believes it can be stopped, not only without loss to the Islands, but with very decided benefit. In 1884 Mr. Dole had passed the first homestead law, and he is now busy in perfecting a law which will attract small farmers to take up vacant lands.

The Honolulu football team will have its first practice game at 5:30 this evening at the Makiki grounds.

Nearly Four Months in a Doldrum.

Held for nearly four months in an equatorial doldrum or dead sea calm until her provisions were exhausted and her crew on the verge of starvation was the terrible experience of the American ship Edward O'Brien, which had 10 1/2 ago been given up for lost.

The ship left Victoria, B. C., early in December last with a large cargo of wheat, and nothing was heard of her until June 22nd, when she was sighted by the steamer Galileo in latitude 46.31, longitude 25.18, flying signals telling that she was short of food.

It was learned that the ship had made a fine run down the Pacific coast and around the Horn, but when near the equator she had been caught in one of the dreaded calms that prevail in that latitude. For three months she remained within a distance of half a mile from where she first struck the calm, and during that time there was not wind enough to fill even the lightest of her sails.

Nearly Drowned by Hailstones.

C. Stanley Hurlbut, the well-known oarsman, had a thrilling experience on the Schuylkill river during the terrific storm on Wednesday night and had to swim for his life.

Mr. Hurlbut is a member of the Malta boat club, and after office hours on Wednesday started up the river in a single shell to the race course. Here the storm overtook him, and the hailstones perforated the covering of his shell.

At one time he was in imminent danger of losing his life by being run down by the four-oared shell of the Pennsylvania Barge Club, which bore down upon him, appearing suddenly through the veil caused by the storm, not ten yards away.

The boat shot by like a flash and left the oarsman fighting with the waves, which rolled over his boat, causing it to settle at least one foot. He succeeded in getting to the shelter of a pier at Columbia bridge, when the shell turned, leaving him in the water.

Imprisonment For Snoring. The club member who goes to sleep and snores in the reading room or library is a nuisance, but the punishment of his offense by a term of imprisonment has not yet been heard of.

A GOODBYE.

She Wanted Half a Minute, Took More and Missed the Train.

He was the proud and haughty guard at the railway gate, and they were two ladies who disliked to be separated very much.

"Goodbye," said the one with the valise and the red pasteboard box tied up with a white string.

"Goodbye," replied the one who had no luggage.

"Be sure and tell mother goodbye for me, won't you?"

"Yes, and you must be sure to give my love to all the folks."

"I will. They will be so sorry you could not come with me."

"I know it, but you will explain just how it was. I certainly wanted to come."

"You won't forget to lock the piano so that baby won't put buttons and scraps into the strings."

"Yes."

"And shut the windows when it rains."

"Of course."

"Well, I must hurry. Goodbye."

"Go, go."

Then they kissed and parted, and the traveler with some difficulty extracted her ticket from the valise. Just as she got to the guard she gave a little scream.

"Oh!" she said, "there is something I want to say to her. Will I have time?"

"How long will you need?" he asked as he looked at her ticket.

"Just half a minute."

"Oh, then, you have plenty of time. It'll be ten hours before your train starts."

"But the time table says it goes at 9 o'clock."

"Yes'm. And it is now just one minute past 9.—Washington Star.

As Good as a Seashore Cottage.

"Are you going to the seashore this summer?" Jones asked of Brown.

"N-not exactly," said Brown, "but we're going to accomplish the same result without going from home at all."

"What do you mean?" "Why, its this way. You see, when a person of my means takes a cottage at the seashore, of course, gets a poor sort of shanty, because we can't afford a large, finely finished and well furnished house. You know the sort of place the usual summer cottage is. Well, we've decided to accomplish the result in another way. We're going to move up into the attic for the summer."

"Move into the attic?" "Why, certainly. It is unfinished just like a seashore cottage. The sun beats down on the shingles and raises the temperature above 100 degrees every sunny day. That's just like a seashore cottage. There isn't any means room enough in it for our large family, and that's like a seashore cottage, too."

"When it rains, the water doesn't beat through our roof, to be sure, as it does through the roofs of seaside cottages, but we can remedy that by poking a few holes through the shingles here and there and getting the roof mended in the fall. It will smell a little stuffy, but that is eminently like a seashore cottage. We shall keep a clothesbasket full of unwashed shells standing in the corner to produce a realistic effect. On the whole, we shall be ever so much more comfortable in our own accustomed garret than we should be at the seaside, and we shall have this inestimable advantage that when we get sick of it we can simply move right down into our own comfortable home, whereas, if we were at the shore and paying a high price for a cottage, we should feel bound to stick it out to the bitter end. Oh, I tell you, it's a great scheme."

Expects to Have Arms Grafted to Him.

Theodore Lee, the armless news-dealer who went East recently with a vague idea that he could get arms grafted on to his stumps, has been heard from. He has been inquiring among specialists regarding his case, and he finds that he may yet secure arms. First, the arms that are to be grafted on to his stumps must be taken from a healthy man or woman, and the hope is held out to Mr. Lee that he may find some person—condemned to be hanged, for instance—who would, for $1000 say, be given to relatives or charity, allow an arm to be amputated for grafting purposes. Mr. Lee has in substance been informed that the splice would have to be made just above the elbow joint.

When Mr. Lee has found a person who will submit to the operation, they will have to be brought together in such a position as to permit of the arms of both, which are to be operated upon, being placed in plaster of paris casts so that they cannot be moved. Then it is proposed to cut the back part of both arms, also cutting through the bone. The arm that is to be grafted on to Mr. Lee's stump, or that portion of it that is cut away at the first operation, is to be adjusted and fastened to the stump and allowed to remain until it heals and there is evidence of circulation between the stump and the part that is grafted on. The second operation will be the cutting of the remainder of the inside portion of the arm, together with the artery and the nerve. This operation, it is proposed, however, is not to be undertaken until the surgeons are satisfied that the circulation through the part of the arm already grafted on is sufficient to nourish and support the new forearm.—St. Paul Pioneer-Press.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's

Tasteless Preparation

Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

Sample copies mailed to any address. A limited number of advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and acknowledged not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual recorder of current and reminiscence events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each.

THE ABSORBING TOPIC.

REMOVALS DISCUSSED BY BOTH SIDES.

One Dissenting Voice and Two Approving Ones—The Merits of a Pressing Question.

EDITOR HAWAIIAN STAR: Will you kindly listen to a word of regret at the present policy of your paper from one who is an ardent supporter of the Provisional Government, a member of the Annexation Club and a well wisher of the HAWAIIAN STAR.

As a disclaimer of personal interest, allow me to state that, should the official guttural fall upon the necks of those listed in the STAR of a recent date, it would decapitate no one with whom the writer has the privilege of personal friendship; neither, so far as known, would the change place in official position any for whom the writer has sought but respect. Realizing the impossibility of political perfection while human nature remains unregenerate, I still believe that he who seeks to mould public opinion from press or platform fails signally in his duty if he neglects to keep ever before the people the perfect standard. On that ensign the modern "spoils system" has no place. The Provisional Government can demand of each and every employee his signature to the oath of allegiance. If he is loyal to the spirit of that oath and properly attends to his duties, the Government can ask no more. They can no more demand membership in the Annexation Club than they can demand affiliation with the "Thompson-street Poker Club."

The Provisional Government lives in the present. The Annexation Club has hopes of a glorious future. Only bigotry could punish those who hold views on the advisability of a certain future existence which may be contrary to ours. The world holds no nobler sight than that of a man shouldering his gun and stepping manfully out to aid his country in its hour of darkness and peril. It would be prostituting the heritage of one, across whose cradle the deepening twilight cast the shadows of old Bunker Hill, to take one iota of praise from those who on the 17th of January displayed a personal courage and devotion to country which will ever furnish an heroic page on the annals of Hawaiian history.

History gives to the Anglo-Saxon this noble heritage, that wherever in the home land or in the islands of the sea a blow has been struck it has been a blow for freedom. And they have ever, in the face of tyranny, flaunted the banner of justice. Consequently, following old traditions, our citizen stepped forth that day and did his simple plain duty.

Now to those of us whose ideas are a little old-fashioned it seems despicable that such an one, following thus far instinct, which was heroic and noble, should take counsel with that which is base and sordid, and demand of the Government, as a return for services rendered, guardianship eternal and entire. This movement of extrication may be disguised as simple justice or public expediency, but the fact remains that there are the outs who want to get in, and there are still a few of the faithful who, if proper influence were brought to bear, would be willing to sacrifice private interest for public office. To-day a man saves your child from drowning; to-morrow he comes and demands an annuity. The Annexation Club is a noble institution founded by necessity and nurtured by patriotism. The country and the Government need its unqualified and magnanimous support. Let us hope that its management will not fall into the hands of a few ward politicians who will seek to make of it "Honolulu's Tammany."

For our country let us bury all petty animosity and personal ambition and present one mighty united chorus of harmony whose majestic chords shall resound even to that distant New England shore where they shall warm the blood and cheer the heart of the staunchest American who ever represented the home land in the Islands of the Southern sea.

ALBERT E. NICHOLS.

NOT SPOILS BUT JUSTICE.

EDITOR STAR: The familiar motto, "to the victors belong the spoils," is commonly regarded as embodying and expressing in condensed form all that is most dangerous and most vicious in party methods and political morals. Stated in this way, the proposition is certainly open enough to criticism. Public office and government patronage are not in any proper sense "spoils," and should not be so regarded or spoken of. This, any fair minded man is ready enough to admit at all times. "Spoils" means "plunder," something dishonestly or improperly obtained, either by force or fraud, and we are not dealing nor proposing to deal with anything of that kind. A great deal in this world depends, however, upon the way of putting things. The mass of manhood neither think deeply nor reason closely. They are led captive by words and phrases to an extent which does very little credit to their judgment or insight. Consequently, the careless or malicious use of this word "spoils" in this connection has produced an amount of loose thinking as well as loose talking and writing which is at once exasperating and ridiculous. Taking, then, the proposition advanced by the STAR, eliminating the idea of "spoils," and can only serve to confuse the real issue, and stating the matter in another way, we shall find the proposed course eminently reasonable, just and politic. It may be put, for instance, thus: "A set of men or a party, responsible for the difficult and delicate task of carrying on a government, particularly when surrounded by active and bitter enemies, are entitled to the assistance of, and to have the subordinate positions under them filled by, those who are friendly to themselves, who are in sympathy with the main objects they have in view, who approve of the policy they are endeavoring to carry out, and who will co-operate loyally and cheerfully in trying to make that policy a success." This, instead of the essence of wickedness, appears to be the embodiment of both of essential justice and practical common sense. The application of this rule to our own public affairs at the present time is what I understand the STAR to be contending for, and I believe the great majority of the members of the Annexation Club, and of the friends of the Government generally, stand on substantially the same platform. So standing, their position is impregnable as a matter of logic as well as of policy.

As I understand the matter, this is not in any sense a movement against the ministry. There is no question raised as to those gentlemen's personal integrity, their loyalty to the cause of annexation, or their general business qualifications. But there is a general feeling that in one important matter of administrative policy the Government is not up to the requirements of the times; is either ignorant or does not sufficiently regard the opinions and feelings of those on whom it is dependent for support, and is pursuing a course which is discouraging and demoralizing to its friends, and which well deserves, as it does not fail to receive the commendation of the reptile press of Honolulu.

PLENTY OF COMPETENT MEN.

EDITOR STAR: The argument has been made, and most generally by those who are trying to do the "craw-fishing" act, that the reason the Royalist element has not been cleaned out of the various departments of the Provisional Government is the lack of suitable material to supply their places. Is not this argument an insult to the intelligence of the rank and file of the Annexation party in these Islands, and does it not show either a lamentable ignorance or a deliberate misstatement of the facts. There never was a vacancy in any position in any department in any government in the world that could not be filled at short notice. Suppose that every Royalist in both Government buildings was to be struck dead on the 2d of September, do you, Mr. Editor, or any one else mean to fill that the vacancies would not be filled in a day or two, or a week at most? Of course they would. The truth of the matter, as I and other Annexationists understand it, is that the Government has made no effort to replace these officials, or if it has, it has only been among its own family circles. The whole policy of the Government in this matter has been dilatory, shilly-shallying and weak-kneed. There has been too much of the old traditionary "You tickle me and I'll tickle you" business, and it is high time it was stopped and a new order of things adopted. There are any amount of good and competent men in the Annexation ranks, men able to fill any position in the gift of the Government, who would gladly take office and who would give better satisfaction than the present Royalist incumbents. If they cannot be found through the smoked glasses of our Executive Council they can be by a three-line advertisement in the STAR. Let the Government advertise for men to fill the place occupied by Chief Clerk Hassinger or Registrar of Accounts Smithies or the places occupied by the Clerk and deputy clerks of the Supreme Court and see how many applications would be received within twenty-four hours by men equally qualified and of experience both here and elsewhere. Why is it that such men as Judge Foster, and many others occupying positions requiring only a very small modicum of intelligence, should be retained in an office which gives them the power to annoy and discriminate against their political enemies. Out upon such a system! It is time our Executive and Advisory Councils took a tumble to themselves and consulted the wishes of the party at large instead of their own personal preferences. If good men to take these offices cannot be found by advertising, or by any other means known to the Councils, they can be imported from the States. There are thousands of good, loyal American citizens in America who would be only too glad to get a chance to boost a Royalist. Let us give our fellow citizens a chance instead of feeding and fattening a lot of Royalists at their expense. Keep the good work up, Mr. Editor, and don't let up on it, and you will earn the everlasting gratitude of the Annexation party, and especially of one of its

RANK AND FILE.

P. S.—How many applicants were there for Captain Tripp's place? There were between twenty and thirty, which does not look like any lack of material.

The Condition of Emma Square.

Much complaint is made of the dusty condition of Emma square. On the upper end the dust in the roadway is fully an inch thick. On Saturday afternoons and Monday evenings, when the band plays, the passing vehicles raise a cloud of dust that destroys all the pleasure of those who go to hear the music. It would seem that the square might be sprinkled on these occasions, or the gardener of the square might be instructed to wet down the street with the hose.

The Warrimoo's Passengers.

The following have engaged passage for Vancouver by the Warrimoo: Miss Carrie Castle, Mrs. H. N. Castle and child, Chas. Gay, Mrs. Buchholtz, Lieut. C. Feike, R. N. Williams and wife, Thos. N. Datto, H. M. Whitney and H. C. Palmer.

COUNCILS IN SESSION.

THE USUAL ROUTINE BUSINESS DONE.

The Appropriation for Additional Customs Guards Passed—Post-office Affairs.

The regular weekly session of the Executive and Advisory Councils was called to order at 1:40 this afternoon by Acting President Hatch, the following members being present: Ministers King and Damon, the Attorney-General and Councilmen Allen, Waterhouse, Ena, Bolte, Nott, Morgan, Suh, Young, Tenney, Emmeluth and Mendonca.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Minister Damon read the following weekly financial statement which was approved and filed:

FINANCE STATEMENT FOR WEEK ENDING AUGUST 30, 1893.

Table with columns for RECEIPTS and EXPENDITURES, listing various departments and their financial contributions.

EXPLANATORY.

This amount of $126,261.93 was paid from General Revenue to the Treasury to carry on Public Improvements under section 2, date, and all receipts from sale of bonds under loan of 1888 paid to General Cash as offsets until this date is cancelled.

MEMO CASH IN TREASURY.

Table showing Treasury balances and cash in hand, including items like Outstanding Certificates, Cash on hand, and Available Cash.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The daily skirmish drills of Captain Good's command attract a good deal of attention. In Mr. Emmeluth's resolution for "prominent supporters" read "prominent supporters."

Some of the cottages at the Emigration depot at Kakaako have been rented, as the Government has no use for them. The arrests made to-day were two deserters from the Parthenope and a ten-year-old native boy for assaulting a small child.

In the "By Authority" column appear notices from the Board of Health and from the Superintendent of the Water Works. The result of the inquest held on the four Japanese who lost their lives in a well at Kahuku has not yet been received at the Marshal's office.

Copies of the laws of the Provisional Government, printed in English and Hawaiian, have been distributed among the Government officials to-day. The weekly financial statement of Mr. Damon shows the balance on hand on current account, August 30th, to be $157,197.06. Balance on hand in the Postal Savings Bank, $21,811.42.

$2800 for additional customs officers passed its second reading and becomes a law upon publication.

After a session of just twenty minutes the Councils went into executive session.

ANOTHER POSTPONEMENT.

The restoration Day Again Deferred—Bush's Fool Talk. The following translations from John E. Bush's paper, Ka Leo o ka Lahui, are supplied the STAR readers as evidence of the sort of pabulum which sustains the feeble life of the Royalist party. It will be observed that the "restoration," which Bush predicted for to-morrow, has again been put off.

THE SITUATION IS GOOD.

By the latest intelligence received, there is not a single word to cause any doubt of the restoration of our Queen. We have learned, by certain letters, that the friends of those now in office here have advised them to retire at once, to escape public ignominy. On Saturday of the coming week, on the steamer Australia, will arrive news that will verify the truth of what the party of patriotic Hawaiians have been confiding in. The restoration of the Queen is certain, being delayed only for the American Cabinet to clearly hear the facts relating to Mr. Stevens, the aged Minister who has left here, in respect to the overturning of the Government.

After that has been heard, President Cleveland and his Cabinet are at once to order the fulfillment of the restoration of the Hawaiian Kingdom and its independence under its Queen.

This is an example of Ka Leo's local news.

THE QUEEN'S PARTISANS TO BE SLAUGHTERED!!!

It has been secretly whispered in the town of Hilo, and among the foreigners there, that all the Queen's adherents at Honolulu are to be slaughtered on the arrival of the 2d of September, 1893. The orders have been issued to slay them and take their lives. Say these offspring of the Gospel tribe, that Nawahi, Bush, John Cummins and their party of the Queen are all to be killed on that day!

These are statements reported in Hilo from Honolulu, and thence has the report spread forth upon the winds. These are grievous rumors, should their cravings be accomplished; but we leave these affairs before our gracious God. He shall bring to nought the designs of the enemy.

A New Artesian Well.

McCandless Bros. have just completed the boring of five artesian wells on the premises of the Hawaiian Electric Company. These wells which are ten inches in diameter and about thirty-five feet deep, are to be connected by five pipes of six inches each, running down about ten feet below the surface of the water, and are to supply water for condensing purposes and not for the use of the boilers. The company had expected to obtain only salt water, but finds that the water now obtained is fresh and soft and may be suitable even for steam purposes. The large electric station is progressing rapidly under the energetic direction of R. Lishman, the contractor, and is being built in the most thorough manner. The foundations are nearly completed and the brick walls are going up rapidly. The whole building is to be 100x105, and the immense engine and dynamo room will be 100x56 feet. The company hope to be prepared to furnish the electric current in December next, and it will be now in order for all prospective consumers to have their houses wired in time.

Police Court Items.

Before Judge Robertson this morning, a sailor named Mooney was found guilty of assaulting the captain and chief officer of the Parthenope and fined $15 and costs. Chen On, for doing business without a license, was discharged after procuring one.

The case against C. A. P. Gardener, charged with being a gross cheat, was nolle prosequi. The case of Kiikua, charged with deserting her husband, was partly heard and continued till to-morrow.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The Vancouver steamer leaves at 9 P. M. The daily skirmish drills of Captain Good's command attract a good deal of attention.

In Mr. Emmeluth's resolution for "prominent supporters" read "prominent supporters."

Some of the cottages at the Emigration depot at Kakaako have been rented, as the Government has no use for them.

The arrests made to-day were two deserters from the Parthenope and a ten-year-old native boy for assaulting a small child.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

ARRIVAL OF THE COLONIAL WARRIMOO.

Barkentine Kikikat For Puget Sound—British Bark Velocity For Hongkong—Items.

The Canadian Australian Liner Warrimoo, Commander Arthur, arrived at one o'clock this afternoon, 12 days from Brisbane and docked at Pacific Mail wharf. The Commander reported strong northeast winds and heavy sea and squally weather, and on board a cargo of horses and general merchandise. The Warrimoo takes on a big lot of island fruit in crates and packages this afternoon and leaves at 9 o'clock to-night for Victoria.

The four-masted schooner Alice Cooke is now over thirty days out from Puget Sound with lumber for Lewers & Cooke. No fears are entertained for her safety, as she is a good sailer, and with the big cargo of lumber she carries she could not sink. All the same, the Alice Cooke is due and probably has good reasons for the long voyage she has taken.

The wrecking party, who went to rescue the Waimanalo telegraphed at eleven o'clock this morning that the steamer was off the rocks and in seven fathoms of water. Inquiries are being made by them as to getting a tow into the harbor, and the chances are the Waimanalo will be here to-morrow somewhat worse for wear and tear.

The bark Velocity sailed this afternoon for Hongkong with a full steerage of Chinese passengers and a small cargo of old iron and junk. The customs guards now breathe easier as the ceaseless watch that has been kept over this vessel has caused them to work hard.

The bark Albert came down off the marine railway this morning and will commence loading sugar for the Coast to-morrow. She has received a general overhauling and a new coat of paint throughout, and looks clean and fresh.

There are only five vessels in port, but a large number are due, and when they begin to arrive there will be a busy time for some days for the tug and harbor master. There are nine vessels now due for island ports.

The barkentine Kikikat left at noon to-day empty for Puget Sound, where she will load another cargo of Northwest lumber for this port.

The O. R. and L. barges were kept busy ferrying the Ewa and Pearl City bananas and pineapples to the Pacific Mail wharf for the Warrimoo to-day.

The schooner Ka Hae Hawaii is on the marine railway having repairs made to her keel.

The leeward Oahu sloops Waianae and Kaulani came in this morning with cargoes.

A breezy day on the reef to-day.

A STRANGE CASE.

Two Masked Men Make Their Way Through Ben Norton's House. On Monday evening shortly after dusk Mrs. Ben Norton left her residence, which adjoins that of Mr. Wenner, for a short time, leaving the children in charge of a 16-year-old girl. Soon afterwards the front-door was opened and two masked men made their appearance. They hurriedly passed through the house and went out through the rear door. On their way through they overturned some articles of furniture. Two of the children, who came to the hall to see who the intruders were, were thrust aside with such violence as to throw them to the ground and hurt them severely. The screams of the children alarmed the neighbors, who started in pursuit of the intruders who had disappeared in the dark slopes of Punchbowl hill. The men were dressed in gunnysacks which nearly covered them, and wore masks of some material.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. H. N. Castle leaves to-day to join her husband in the States. President Dole leaves by the Kinau to-morrow for a two weeks' visit to Kohala. W. G. Ashley and family have returned from Ewa and are at their Honolulu residence. H. M. Whitney, manager of the Hawaiian Gazette Company, will leave for a two month's vacation by the Warrimoo. He expects to spend most of the time in British Columbia and Puget Sound cities, but may go on to Chicago.

Getting Her Started.

Patti was to sing on a certain date at Bucharest, but at the last moment she declined to leave Vienna. It was too cold; snow everywhere. M. Schurman, the impresario, was in despair until a brilliant inspiration came to him. Quickly he telegraphed to his advance agent in the Roumanian capital: "At whatever cost, Patti must receive an ovation at Bucharest station from the Italian aristocracy. Send me by return the following wire: 'The members of the Italian and Roumanian nobility are preparing to give Mme. Patti a magnificent reception. The ministry will be represented. Precious torches and bands. Telegraph the hour of arrival.' The advance agent carried out this instruction, and when the telegram dictated to him over the wires arrived in Vienna it was handed to Patti with the desired effect. "What time do we start?"—Argonaut.

Stanford's Two Palm Trees.

Mr. Stanford was not superstitious, but he believed that his life was linked with that of two palm trees which he had planted in front of his Palo Alto home. He bestowed great care on these trees, and they flourished until a few weeks before his death, when their leaves began to turn yellow. No one noticed this change until one evening the senator called the attention of one of his closest friends to the trees and said he regarded this as a bad omen. He said solemnly, "When those trees die, my life will end." The palm trees are now dead, and Stanford lies lifeless in the shadow of their withered tops.—New York Tribune.

Art Notes.

Lady—All your marine pictures represent the sea as being calm. Why don't you paint a storm once in a while?

Artist—We painters in oil can't paint a storm. I have often outlined a storm on the canvas, but as soon as I begin to spread the oil colors the waves subside, and the sea becomes as calm as a duck pond.

Lady—Yes, I've read about the wonderful effect oil has in calming the waves, but I had no idea it was as effective as that.—Texas Siftings.

"What Did the Private Do?"

Peans of praise have gone up at Admiral Tryon's refusal, with the words "Save yourself," of a life belt offered him. He would have been heartily glad had he taken it, and his heroism is simply naught compared to that of the man who had tendered the life belt. Not a single paper has touched on the grand unselfishness of the subordinate, yet—from a woman's point of view at any rate—his offer was a far nobler act than the admiral's refusal.—Cor. Pall Mall Gazette.

Information Wanted.

On the World's Fair grounds the other day a tall woman with steel rimmed glasses went up to the "general information" woman and asked, "Is this where you tell people what they want to know?" "Yes, madam." "Well, I've been looking for them, I've heard so much about you. Can you tell me what banding they are in?"—New York Tribune

Obliging.

Tramp—Can you give me something to eat, madam?

Mrs. Hayrien—Yes, if you will chop up that cud of wood and store it away in the cellar.

Tramp—Won't you also allow me to plow up that field and plant the house and barn?—Brooklyn Life.

Envious.

"I wish I was a frog," said the tramp.

"So that you could loaf on a lily pad?" asked his companion.

"No. But I haven't any cash this morning, and a frog always has a green back about him."—Harper's Bazar.

At a Disadvantage.

Lady—I wish you would paint me a storm at sea.

Marine Painter—Impossible, madam.

"Other artists paint storms at sea." "Yes, but I've seen one."—New York Weekly.

Just the Thing.

Mrs. Flathunter—But the rooms are so dreadfully small! Really, they are only closets.

Landlord—Ah, but then, you know, there's nothing like having plenty of closets in a house.—Boston Transcript.

He Wasn't in Earnest.

Mamma—Did the wretch really try to kiss you?

Chicago Girl—No, it was about the weakest bluff I ever stood off. He quit and began to apologise the minute I said I'd scream.—Detroit Tribune.

Lots of Change.

Dreamy Novelist—What a change woman can make in a man's life!

Victim—Exactly, and what a lot of "change" she requires doing it.—Wonder.

Left.

Swayback (to importunate beggar)—Leave the house, sir!

Beggar—Certainly. I would not think of carrying it off with the heavy mortgage it has on it.—Tid-Bits.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with Wampole's Tasteless Preparation OF Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease.

It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and acknowledged not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual recorder of current and rememorable events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 25 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 35 cents each.
