FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1890. TWO GOOD BILLS.

Noble McCarthy has introduced two good bills this session, both of which deserve to become law.

One is the bill to provide for extending the operation of the garnishee process to the salaries of Government employees. There is absolutely no reason why the employees of the Government should not be compelled to pay their debts, by every process known to the law.

It has been thought beneath the dignity of the Government to be garnished. Perhaps it is, but it is much more beneath its dignity to have in its employ men who do not pay their debts, and who take advantage of their relation to the Government to screen themselves from the just demands of their creditors.

The bill has been referred to committee, among other things to receive some changes of form, and when it comes back it ought to become law.

The other bill referred to as having been introduced by Noble McCarthy, is the Act providing for Government aid to the Paradise of the Pacific. We believe this is a proper application of the Government funds. It is understood that the sole object of the publication is to advertise the attractions of these islands, with a view to bringing tourist travel here.

Government aid then is just as proper in a case of this kind, as it would be to encourage the cultivation of coffee, or to build up any other industry. There is no advocate of "Laissez faire" so rabid, in our days, as to deny that such expenditure is within the legitimate province of the Government. There will doubtless however, be many who, with Noble Hind, will think that it does not pay.

As to this we can say that good business men are generally firm believers in advertising. We believe they are right, and that if we only advertise widely enough and long enough, we will get the travel. There is, however, one other consideration. We must furnish the goods as per advertisement. The Paradise of the Pacific, as we have had occasion to observe, by no means confines its eulogies to our climate and scenery, but has a great deal to say about facilities, accommodations, etc., which the initiated take with a grain of salt.

Now, if this Legislature happens to agree with Noble Widemann in thinking Punchbowl and Volcano roads of no manner of use because he has not happened to make any use of them, tourists who come here will have many a disappointment.

It is not enough for the Government to help the Paradise of the Pacific. The Legislature must make liberal appropriations for roads, for roads not merely of a commercial character, but for those also which open up the country for the pleasure-seeker and tourist.

The time will certainly come, if the Legislature is liberal, when roads of this character will prove to be a most remunerative investment. The proposed carriage road up into the mountains back of Honolulu, if built, will certainly be one of the first to pay, for it will undoubtedly lead to profitable sales and leases of Government lands.

The temper of the Legislature seems to be by no means unfavorable to expenditures of this kind. The National Reform Party came in pledged to a liberal policy in this regard, and the pledge is one which they seem disposed to carry out.

The Tourist's Guide Through the Hawaiian Islands. This new and really valuable publication is nearing completion, and will soon be ready for distribution among its patrons, the advertisers in it.

From a sample copy now before us, we learn that the work comprises 176 pages of descriptive matter, besides the title page, prefaces and a full index of subjects and advertisements. It contains four maps, one each of the principal islands, twenty illustrations, some of them being beautifully executed phototints, engraved by the Moss Engraving Co. of New York, who are probably the finest artistic printers in the United States.

Full descriptions are given of the steamer routes to the Volcano, and of nearly every district and village in the group. With this volume in hand a person in America or Europe, desirous of visiting Hawaii, can ascertain just where he is going, just what he will see, and by what route he can reach Honolulu or any part of the group he wishes to visit, as well as the cost attending his journey.

The book is really a credit to these islands, and will do more than anything else to disseminate correct information about Hawaii and its people. It is just the book that every one will want to send to friends at home, valuable for preservation, and will help to draw hither tourists in search of new fields to explore, where they can gain health and pleasure, without a sacrifice of the comforts of home travel.

The printing of the work is completed, and it is only waiting the arrival of the illustrated lithograph covers due by the first steamer. A few advertisements only will appear in it, from the representative business houses of the Kingdom. Five thousand copies of the work have been printed, and the price is so low, sixty cents, that every one will want one or more copies to send away.

A Dramatic Entertainment. The second grand dramatic school entertainment was given by pupils of Waimea, (Kauai) schools, under the leadership of their teachers, last Saturday night. A great many people had come together, and the whole affair was a success. Everything in connection with the play, the singing, etc., was so well rendered that some of the audience desire to see a brief report of the entertainment in the papers, and to express their thanks to the teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, and Miss Lindsay, for their efforts and perseverance in getting up such a commendable affair. We omit mentioning the names of the young actors and actresses, in order not to awaken jealousy, where all deserve meritorious notice, and therefore we award our praise to them all alike, for they all did well, and were so much encored that the affair did not end till half-past 11 P. M., closing with "King Solomon receiving the Queen of Sheba." Again thanking the teachers for their kindness in getting up such an attractive entertainment, we hope that they will give us another in the near future.

Waimea, Kauai, July 10, 1890. A scheme is on foot to establish a gigantic bank in Rome. Four German bankers will soon go to Rome to take steps in the matter.

The use of electric lights is increasing with great rapidity among the London shopmen.

THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Thirty-Third Day. THURSDAY, July 17.

The House met at 10 A. M. Prayer by the Chaplain. Minutes read and approved.

Rep. Lucas, on suspension of the rules, read a petition from T. W. Rawlins, complaining of damage done to his property at Lele, by the Government lowering the grade on King street, and asking for a grant of $5,430.30 to cover his loss. Referred to a select committee.

Rep. Kalua read a petition from Hanalei, Kauai, asking $13,000 for a bridge at that place, $250 for a scow over the stream at Kalihikai, $680 for an English school house at Kalihikai, and that the tax on vehicles using the ferry be revoked. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

Also, from the same place, a petition asking for $1,800 for road from Kalaialoaha to Wainiha, $200 for a bridge at Wainiha, and $3,500 for a bridge at Muliwai on the Lunehai stream. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

Also, from the same place, that the President of the Board of Health receive no salary, that the Assessor-General of the Island be removed, that prison inspectors receive no pay, and that any new Government officers serve without pay. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Also, from the same place, that the salary of the King be reduced to $40,000 each, that the salaries of Government clerks be reduced, that the Chief Justice receive $10,000 and Associates $8,000, and that the Legislature will not appropriate more money than the estimated income of the kingdom. Referred to Finance Committee.

Rep. Kamai presented the following petitions: From Kipahulu, that none but those having a license be allowed to slaughter beef, and that none but licensed dealers be allowed to sell salt beef. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

From Hanakoa, that people having no children pay no taxes. Referred to Judiciary Committee. That bad places in roads near plantations be repaired by the plantations. Laid on table. From Honolulu, for $200 for a road from Make-nua landing to Keoneho. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

That no pension be granted anybody. Laid on table. That the Cabinet consist of two foreigners and two Hawaiians. Laid on table. That the port of Huelo be opened to the public. Referred to Public Lands Committee.

Rep. Marquis read reports of the Public Lands committee on a large number of petitions and matters referred to it. The committee recommended various dispositions of the subjects, and a majority made elaborate suggestions in favor to the Honolulu market. This was laid on the table to await the minority report.

Minister Spencer announced that His Majesty had been pleased to approve the following Acts: An Act to transfer the care and custody of prisoners from the Interior Department to the Department of the Attorney-General; An Act to prevent plant diseases and insect pests.

Minister Spencer reported on the resolution referred to him, which appropriated $240 to Jas. Aul, guard at Aliolani Hale. That person had been paid $40 a month according to agreement, and there was a balance of $240 from the appropriation.

Rep. Paehaole could not see how Auld could claim the balance, and moved the reply be laid on the table. Carried. Minister Spencer also returned a list of mail carriers, etc., in accordance with request of Rep. Waipuilani. It was ordered to be printed.

President Walker read a communication from the Board of Education, inviting members to inspect specimens of work from different schools of the Kingdom, on exhibition at Fort Street School.

President Walker appointed the following committee on T. W. Rawlins' petition: Rep. Lucas, Nobles Berger, Pua, Walbridge, Rep. Waipuilani.

Rep. Nawahi moved that the Education committee ask the President of the Board of Education for replies to the following questions: Has the Board of Education an agent at San Francisco or elsewhere for the purpose of employing school teachers? If so, what is his salary? Is there any agreement with such teachers before they come to what their salaries will be? For how long are such teachers engaged at the salaries agreed on? How many teachers have been engaged under contract by the Board?

Noble Widemann moved that a committee of three—one from the Island of Hawaii, one from the Island of Maui, and one from the Island of Kauai—be appointed to confer with the Postmaster-General and the two steamship companies here, to see whether any better arrangements can be made in regard to the arrival here of the outgoing foreign mails.

The resolution was discussed by the mover, Reps. Rickard and Nawahi, and Noble Parker, and adopted.

President Walker appointed as the committee, Nobles J. M. Horner, Baldwin, and G. N. Wilcox.

Noble Widemann moved that their Excellencies the Ministers inform the House what claims, and by whom, have been received in answer to their late advertisement. Adopted.

The order of the day was taken up. Second reading of a bill to change the seat of the Third Judicial Circuit from Waimea to North Kona.

Rep. Rickard opposed the bill and moved its indefinite postponement.

Rep. Brown supported the motion. The interest of the whole district should be consulted. Although accommodations were not the best at Waimea, members of the bar could manage to get tolerable entertainment there.

Rep. Waipuilani wanted the bill to pass. He spoke of difficulties of travel to Waimea from Hilo and Kona. The Waimea people had a bad habit of stealing horses and hitching ropes. People going to Kohala are landed at Mahukona by steamer and are carried the rest of the way by rail.

Noble Marsden spoke of the superior traveling facilities for getting to Kohala over those to Waimea, and moved the bill be referred to a committee.

At noon the House took a recess. Afternoon Session. The House re-assembled at 1.30.

Rep. Kahookano moved that the Third Circuit bill be referred to the Judiciary committee. Owing to changed conditions of travel it was easier for people to go to Kohala now than to Waimea formerly.

Rep. Apiki was in favor of the bill. The reasons urged applied to the people of Kau as well as those of other districts. Noble Parker desired the bill to go to the Judiciary committee as he wished to give his views to a committee.

Noble Marsden withdrew his motion for a select committee, and Rep. Brown withdrew his motion for indefinite postponement.

Noble Pua was convinced by the arguments that the bill should pass, and thought it was a waste of time to commit it.

Referred to Judiciary committee. Minister Brown said the next two bills (police and divorce for leprosy) were introduced by a member who was absent on leave (Rep. Cummings), and he moved they be passed over and the next on the order taken up. Carried.

Second reading of an Act to amend Sec. 3, Chap. 35, Session Laws of 1888, relating to the currency.

The section as proposed to be amended reads as follows: "The Minister of Finance shall receive on deposit bills (not licenses and divorce for leprosy) were introduced by a member who was absent on leave (Rep. Cummings), and he moved they be passed over and the next on the order taken up. Carried.

moved to refer it to a select committee. As it affected the planting industry, he asked that a fair sprinkling of that industry be put in the committee. It was well known that plantation lunas went to extremes in regulating field laborers. Some plantations were giving up the contract system, and he thought the country had arrived at a period when the legislation proposed would be beneficial.

Noble Marsden seconded the motion, and thought the committee should consist of seven members, as the bill related to a very important subject.

Rep. Bush accepted the amendment. Rep. Rice moved the bill be referred to the Committee on Agriculture and Commerce, as it fell particularly within that committee's province.

The motion to refer to a select committee of seven carried.

Second reading of an Act to define the duties to be performed by those persons who have become the "kokua" of the lepers.

Rep. Kalua moved the bill be referred to the Sanitary Committee, not because he opposed the bill but because it was imperfect. It provided no penalty for kokua who do not perform their functions properly.

Noble Marsden was willing to have the bill go to the Sanitary Committee, but not just yet. He moved it be laid on the table until the report is received from the select committee to visit Molokai.

Noble Walbridge seconded the amendment. Rep. Paehaole, who introduced the bill, said he thought the regulations of the Board of Health would be sufficient to control the kokua, but if the House thought differently he was willing to have the bill go to a committee for amendment.

The bill was referred to the Sanitary Committee.

Rep. Kalua gave notice that the Judiciary Committee would meet after adjournment to consider the bill to change the seat of justice from Waimea to North Kohala, and that the same committee would meet at 9 o'clock Friday morning to consider the bill to change the seat of justice from Lahaina to Waialuku, and he invited all persons interested in either matter to attend the respective meetings and be heard.

The President directed the Secretary read replies received from the President of the Board of Education, to two resolutions moved by Rep. Nawahi.

In reply to the resolution of the 15th inst., the President said "that in the matter of passages of school teachers to the general convention now being held in Honolulu, no discrimination against Hawaiians, as alleged, has been authorized by the Board of Education. All teachers will be treated alike, and will be allowed the same amount of passage money."

And, in reply to the resolution of the 16th inst., the President enclosed "copy of the instructions to the several school agents, that were published at the time in the principal newspapers of the city, and also copy of a circular letter to the school agents throughout the Kingdom, calling for a detailed statement of the amount allowed to each school teacher on account of passage to the Honolulu convention, which will be submitted to honorable House as soon as possible."

On motion of Rep. Kalua, the replies were referred to the select committee on Noble J. M. Horner's resolution with respect to statements made by Rep. Nawahi.

The President appointed, as the committee on the labor contract bill, Reps. Bush, Brown, Nobles Marsden, Baldwin, Hind, Rep. Rickard and Kahoakana.

Rep. Brown called the select committee on Aho's claim to meet after adjournment.

Noble Muller called the committee on Commerce to meet after adjournment. The House adjourned at 3:45.

How to Make Good Coffee. The Epicure, a paper published in the United States says: "As our country consumes nearly ten pounds of coffee per capita it is a pity not to have it made in the best manner. Take in the proportion of two ounces of coffee, or one-eighth of a pound, to one pint of cold water, let it soak over night in an earthen or agate container. In the morning put over the fire and heat just to the boiling point then set back to prevent further boiling, when it will be found that while strength is extracted, its delicate aroma is preserved, bitterness comes from boiling too long."

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

Fourth Day's Session—Address by Rev. Alex. Mackintosh—Distinguished Visitors. The convention was called to order by the Inspector-General, who made an explanation in regard to the object of the examination. He stated that the object was not to throw anyone out, but rather to keep up the standard to the highest mark, making the illustration that graduates of colleges such as Harvard, Yale, etc., stand high in the world's estimation from the fact that the standard of education in institutions of that class constantly strive to elevate.

Anticipating the visits from members of the Legislature and citizens of the city, he appointed a committee of three—Prof. Scott, Mrs. Overend and Mr. Amalu—to wait upon the visitors to show them the exhibits. After roll call, Mr. Moore devoted some time to answering queries, handed in by teachers, before taking up his subject.

At the same time Miss J. Deyo, in another room, continued her instruction in primary arithmetic. Her discussion of the subject abounded with practical thoughts, capable of being applied with the best results from the youngest pupils.

Rev. Alex. Mackintosh being introduced, addressed the convention upon his experience on the islands. He related in a pleasing manner his ideas entertained before coming here of what was needed for the new country. It is needless to add that he found all his ideas were entirely wrong. After telling some of his experiences for a short time after he arrived on the islands, he continued his remarks by speaking of the character of the children, the progress he made with them, the positions successfully filled by many of them and various other points of interest. The genial, hearty manner in which he spoke won the hearts of all, and his address was finished all too soon.

Miss Lillie Brown commenced her instruction in Geography, stating the period of school life to which her instruction was intended, outlining the different subjects and showing in a general manner her method of teaching the study.

Mr. A. T. Atkinson continued his course of instruction in Primary reading, giving many practical points in teaching that subject.

In the afternoon Mr. P. L. Lord instructed the classes in Penmanship, extensively showing his methods and filling the blackboards with examples. The examples of penmanship from the Hilo Union school with the instruction given the convention shows the Inspector-General could not have done better in the choice of an instructor in penmanship. During the same period Mr. W. T. Lucas concluded his instruction in Phonics, as also did Mr. Lord his subject.

Mr. J. K. Burkett followed with his remarks on Spoken English, briefly, plainly and practically showing how he led the pupils step by step to speak clearly the English language. Mr. Atkinson concluded his instruction on Primary reading, dwelling especially upon the importance of paraphrasing.

Among the prominent visitors at the convention was R. H. H. Prince, Liholohokan, Admiral Brown of the Charleston, (who paid close attention to the instruction given to the classes by Inspector-General A. T. Atkinson, and Miss Brown.) Miss Tawera Henry, Miss N. J. Malone, Principal of the Preparatory department of the Kamehameha schools, and Miss Hoppin of the Kawaihāo schools. The day before the members of the Board of Education visited the convention.

Here is an outline of the bill of fare: Chowders, carries all kinds, ham, tongue, home made bread and biscuits, cheese, olives, pickles, home made pies, tea, coffee, ice cream, etc. The supper will be from 5 o'clock in the afternoon until 7 in the evening, and there will be music during that time. Tickets for the supper are fixed at fifty cents to include everything. They can be obtained at the following places, Hawaiian News Company's store, Up-town book store, C. J. McCarthy's, Elite parlors and Benson, Smith & Co.'s store. The committee hope that tickets will be purchased beforehand, so as to give them some idea of how many to provide for.

COMBINED CONCERT.

Three Bands Play Together at the Hotel—An Immense Attendance. A rare musical treat was given the public of Honolulu yesterday evening, when the bands of the French flag-ship Dubouardien, the U. S. flag-ship Charleston and the Royal Hawaiian Band gave a combined concert at the Hawaiian Hotel. The attendance was something simply enormous. People were packed all over the grounds like sardines, and they remained throughout the concert. Both verandas were crowded from one end to the other—a large number of ladies occupying seats. Never has such a crowd of people been seen before in the hotel and grounds. His Majesty the King, Admiral Brown, Admiral Premesnil, members of the Cabinet, diplomatic and consular corps, and the captains and officers of the men-of-war in port were among those present. The front of the building was nicely illuminated with colored lanterns, while the grounds were lit up by the electric light.

The first part of the programme opened with the Hawaiian band (36 members) on the stand. It played two numbers in its usual well known and appreciated style. Then came the Charleston band (18 men) which also played two selections very skillfully. Its performance drew forth loud applause, which was well deserved. The French band (20 men) was warmly received as the members took their places. There was a finish to the playing of this band that was most enjoyable. It played five pieces, and rounds of applause greeted each number.

The second part consisted of three numbers played by the combined bands, numbering seventy-four musicians. A powerful volume of tone came forth, as might be expected from so many instruments. The concert terminated about half-past 10 o'clock. It was a grand success in every way, and much credit is due those who arranged it.

Hog and Poultry Remedy

A Certain Cure for the Diseases of

HOGS AND POULTRY

1st. It puts your pigs in first-class condition. 2d. It stops cough, and regulates the bowels. 3d. It will keep sows healthy during pregnancy, and superinduce a sound progeny. 4th. It will arrest disease in every instance, if administered before the vital parts are beyond the reach of aid. 5th. It destroys worms and hastens maturity. 6th. It is a thorough preventive. Feeders who use it all the year round have no disease among their swine. 7th. It will repay its cost many times over in the extra pounds of pork it will make without extra feed. Hogs treated with it will gain two or more pounds, while others are gaining one. The reason is it regulates the digestive functions and enables the animal to convert every particle of food eaten into pork, involving no waste. Hundreds of testimonials from breeders in England, Germany, Scotland, Ireland, the United States, New Zealand, and Australia.

TESTIMONIALS:

"Dr. Hass' Hog Remedy is a certain preventive of disease, making pigs thrive well and gain flesh fast. (Sd.) J. N. WALTON, Birmingham, Eng. (Purveyor to H. M. the Queen and H. R. H. the Prince of Wales.)"

"Our experience has shown that Hass' Remedy will prevent disease in hogs and that the increase in flesh by its use more than covers the cost. GILLIAND, HACKWORTH & BUCKLES, Coffeyville, Kansas."

"A good investment as a pork producer, to say nothing of its preventing disease. L. R. WOODS, Keene, Kentucky."

"I do not think it safe to be without Hass' Remedy to prevent disease. After a thorough test I am sure it is a valuable medicine as well as a pork producer. B. F. DORSEY, Breeder Ferry, Illinois."
