THE SOUTH AFRICAN WAR.

Mafeking Holds Its Own—Boers Are Discouraged.

THABA N'CHU, May 17—The British force advanced this morning twenty miles to the northwest and took possession of Maquatlings Nek. Prisoners continue to be taken daily.

LONDON, May 17, 3:20 a. m.—The British relief column fought the Boers at Kraal Pan, thirty-two miles south of Mafeking, on Tuesday, according to a telegram received Wednesday at Lourenço Marques from Molopo, 100 miles north of Mafeking. This intelligence is accepted here with some reserve, because it is difficult to understand how the news could have been so quickly put on the wire from a place 132 miles from the scene of the engagement.

A correspondent of the Morning Post, presumably John Stuart, is reported captured by the Boers at Kraal Pan.

The British public is kept expectant of the announcement that Mafeking has been relieved. In army circles the opinion seems to prevail that this has already been accomplished, although two hours after midnight the War Office asserted that news of the relief had not been received. The steadfast courage of the hunger-bitten garrison has produced a deep impression, and the news of succor is awaited with more anxiety than has been felt regarding any other event of the war.

BIG NEWS HELD BACK.

Douglass Storey, the Mail's correspondent at Pretoria, wires: "The Boer Government is holding back some big news. Fever prevails here. President Kruger is working day and night. The latest Boer official bulletin is that the relief column has been defeated with great loss."

Lord Roberts continues passive at Kroonstad. His cavalry are stretching like a semi-circular screen many miles in length, without lapping flanks. The railway will probably be completed to day. The Kroonstad censor permits the passage of long dispatches dealing with incidents prior to the occupation.

It seems that General French's cavalry had one lively fight after crossing the Zand River. A mixed squadron, composed of the Scots Greys, the Ioniskillings, Carbineers and Australian Horse, took a kopje and dismounted. The Boers suddenly fired from a concealed position, killing many horses and stampeding the rest. The Boers then advanced in overwhelming numbers and drove the squadron, capturing some. The Boers robbed the dead and looted the saddles. A small brigade of cavalry drove them off.

Farther north the Hussars charged the Boers, killing and wounding many stragglers with sabers and pistols. Lord Roberts' infantry marched 120 miles in seven days. General French marched thirty miles in one day. The Boers, when retiring, dragged thirty-two guns through Kroonstad.

GENERAL BULLER'S MOVE.

General Buller is moving toward Newcastle. He appears to be using 25,000 men against 5000 or 6000. His operations will almost certainly result in forcing his way into the Transvaal, possibly in time to cooperate with Lord Roberts' advance, although General Buller is now 252 miles from Johannesburg, or twenty-five days' march.

A Dane, who was captured by the South African Horse, says that there are 500 Frenchmen with the Boers who are opposing Buller, together with many Germans and other foreigners.

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1900.

BRITONS' NATIONAL DAY.

Father Time, the only one who controls the machine of perpetual motion, has again registered the anniversary of the birth of Great Britain's noble sovereign. Eighty one is the mark on the untiring machine and the world bows humbly to the noble woman who since her childhood has worn the crown of the great people on the possessions of whom the Sun never sets.

Troubles and tribulations have often reached the lofty station of Queen Victoria. She has faced grief, sorrow, and even humiliation through the statesmen whom she intrusted with the reins of her government. She stood it all bravely and nobly and for that reason the world admires her, her subjects love her, and every Britisher doffs his hat on this natal day, and says "God bless the Queen."

YOUNG HAWAII.

We hope that the campaign of political education now started will arouse the younger generations of the Hawaiians to taking an active interest in the welfare of the territory and the future of the people living here.

When we use the word Hawaiian we do not refer to those only who have the brown skin and in whose veins flows the blood of the aborigines of these islands. When we speak to Young Hawaii we address all the young men and women who were brought up here and who call Hawaii their home. Those are the people we urge to come forward and show that they are ready and willing and qualified to protect the best interests of their home.

Let the old "war horses" who have battled in our political fields during the days gone by, disappear with the last vestige of our independence and let the young people come forward, and fight for their own interests which means the welfare of Hawaii.

The educational results of our young people are certainly not promising. The average young man leaves school without the first idea of the questions which he necessarily must encounter in his battle through life. What they do learn in our schools would fill a very small booklet; what they ought to learn would fill a library. There are young people who feel their disadvantage and who wish for knowledge and information. Boys who feel like fools in the presence of others, whose thoughts and conversation they cannot follow or apprehend. And there are others, the majority, alas! who finish their term of compulsory school work, drift into life as semi-educated men, and, if wealthy, devote their life to the ennobling influences of our theaters, to horse racing and other excitements, and if forced to work for a living perform their duties in an unwilling semi-sulky manner and wonder why no advancement is ever offered to them.

We want Young Hawaii, poor or rich, to come to the front and make a mark for themselves. It is all right to play ball or pull an oar, or gain fame in athletic sports, but it is far better to study the burning questions of the day and to put a hand to the wheel which some day may turn the political future of Hawaii. There is no sincerity or earnestness among our young people. Everything is a pleasant dream to them and they enjoy their dolce far niente. But remember that the day will come when the hunter will be here and gather in the shekels while our boys and girls are enjoying the sweets of youth in the manner of the butterflies. Let the coming election show the people who take an interest in the Hawaiians that the younger generations are not asleep; that the services of the old men are no longer needed, and that there is material among the boys of Hawaii from which honest legislators, wise statesmen and earnest citizens can be selected. "Play less and study more" should be the motto of every parent in dealing with the youngsters. We hear about honors gained by Hawaiian youths in the great universities and colleges of the East, and when we look into the "honors" we find only references to foot-ball, baseball, golf, tennis, boating, etc.

How can the ordinary, every day Hawaiian, whose means only allowed him a common compulsory school education be expected to take up the burden of politics in this territory when those who have had the advantages of richer, of social position and refined associations are setting to them an example of indifference to their duties to their country and of an all absorbent interest in the vulgar, carnal pleasures of life.

The older generation who soon must disappear either to a Diamond cemetery or a crematory feel justly sad. Not because they have to go but because the spectre of the future of Hawaii is a humiliating rebuke to their honest efforts in creating a creditable young Hawaii.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

B. F. Dillingham is the right man to represent the republicans of Hawaii at the National Congress in Philadelphia. The main issue with our local republicans has been "spouting," and B. F. D. is a past master in that art.

Is it not a fact that the Porto Rican labor scare has simply been created for the purpose of checking Japanese who naturally will "strike" after June 15? The methods of the sugar barons and the Thurston organ are full of tricks, but it is fortunate that the people are on to them.

The cabinet has instructed Consul-General Wilder to sell the furniture belonging to the Hawaiian Consulate at public auction. The lucrative position is "pau" and the flag of Hawaii will fly no longer in San Francisco and poi-cocktails will be missed by morning visitors to the Consulate.

It would be a great misfortune if the Eye and Ear Infirmary should in any way be crippled for lack of funds. Dr. Sloggett is devoting all his time in relieving those who are sent to the Infirmary, but it is certainly unfair to suggest that a single individual should undertake the task of doing what Dr. Sloggett willingly would do if it was possible. The community has no idea what injuries have been done to the sight and hearing of people here simply through the lack of proper medical attention. The Infirmary has filled a long felt want and it is entitled to the support of all who remember the self risks of their fellow-beings.

The Government organ states that Mr. Mott-Smith has notified Mr. Dole to the effect that he will resign his position as Minister of Foreign Affairs on the 15th of June and will not assume any office under the territorial Government. We understand that Mr. Mott-Smith will leave for Europe immediately after his resignation has been accepted. There are a number of people who wish to know whether the Minister of Foreign Affairs is attempting to sneak away without making a proper settlement of the political claims of 1895. It is very cheap to saddle the solution of that trouble on the shoulders of Mr. Dole; but we think that Mr. Mott-Smith, if he has a spark of manhood in him would have seen to the settlement of a vexed and very annoying question. The foreign powers pressing the claims will not be put off, and all Mr. Smith can gain from Washington is a sharp rebuke. From Hawaii he can only obtain a total eclipse politically speaking.

To be in the newspaper business is an occupation full of fun to any cold blooded animal whose temper cannot be ruffled, whose motto is nil admirari and who believe in the eleventh commandment. "Don't be bluffed." In big cities the newspaper man hasn't got half the fun as he can find in a "capital" of the size of Honolulu. The newspaper man here ranks socially with the dock laborer and he is at one minute persona grata with the people his pen has to deal with, and the next minute an abominable wretch who has to frown upon. Lawyers have some experience in the same line but as a rule their difference of opinion is among themselves and they understand that their mutual abuses are simply delivered in a Pickwickian sense. The other day a prominent attorney in open court said words to this effect: "May it please your Honor; if my esteemed brother on the other side meant what he just said, I beg with your Honor's permission to state, that he is a Liar, and that his remarks in regard to this larceny case shows that he is familiar with the art of stealing." The answer came prompt and sweetly: "Your Honor, I have nothing to say because it would be useless to answer a man who calls himself a lawyer and who undoubtedly has recently escaped from a lunatic asylum. I might call my esteemed brother as a witness but knowing that perjury is the principal part of his constitution. I refrain from taking such an advantage of him." Ten minutes after the two attorneys were taking cocktails together in the Union Art Gallery and discussing politics. But if a newspaper man criticizes a man holding a semi-official position in Washington and who is trying to ruin what the newspaper considers the best interest of his cause, he is considered a beast and the feather-fellow goes around with an injured air and doesn't speak as he goes by. If a newspaper man "goes" for the sugar barons on a question of labor, the "snobs" belonging to the clique feel personally injured and strut by him without a nod. If a man joins a political party opposed to that of the newspaper represented by a friend and gets "roasted," friendship is broken and the newspaper fellow condemned to the regions of lower Hades. But it is so nice to be a newspaper man when the whole outfit comes around on a while and say: "Dear Mr. Newspaper, do keep that little affair of ours—you know—out of your valuable paper." And the much abused newspaper man smiles and says "yes."

The Will of the Late Chief Justice.

The will of the late Albert F. Judd was filed in the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon, accompanied by the petition of Agnes H. B. Judd, widow of the deceased, asking that she be appointed Executrix of the estate in accordance with the provision made in the will. The will is one of the briefest documents of the kind ever filed in the local courts covering as it does property to the value of about $210,000, and designating nine heirs.

It covers a single page of foolscap, in the testator's own handwriting, and is dated October 15, 1887. "Having unbounded confidence in my wife, Agnes H. B. Judd, I bequeath all my real and personal property to my wife for her children," is the manner in which the opening paragraph of the will reads. It was executed in the presence of William Foster clerk of the Judiciary Department now deceased, and J. H. Reist, a deputy clerk of the Circuit Court, now away from Hawaii. It is expected that Henry Smith will be called upon to testify as to the signatures being those of the persons then connected with the Circuit Court.

In the petition, the widow states that the Honolulu property is valued at 19,500, while his stock holdings are placed at a valuation of $200,000, the latter consisting of his interest in the Judd Building, Hawaiian Agricultural Company, and other corporations. The household effects are valued at $2,500. No property valuation of the Koolau land was stated, but it will probably be put at about $20,000, making a total valuation of over $240,000. The hearing of the petition has been set for Friday, June 22.

HOW TO SERVE WINE.

RED WINES, especially Claret and Burgundy, should be served at a temperature of at least 95°, though 70° or 75° will be found as good, if not better. Never serve them cold, as chilling lowers the bouquet and ruins the flavor. Rhine Wines, Sauternes, etc., should be chilled in the bottle, never by placing ice in the glass. Sweet Wines should be served at cellar temperature, say from 50° to 60°.

the Daily Telegraph says that only one Boer was shot in the movement which resulted in the taking of Helpmaaker.

General Rundle is sweeping thro' the northeast of the Free State. The Boers are dissolving before him and some are surrendering. Their main force is assembled between Ficksburg and Woburg, but it is without close organization.

GUERRILLA WARFARE.

To-day's installment of the war story from every part of the war field is, therefore, seemingly a narrative of British successes, but with the Boers preparing for a last desperate fling farther in the interior and with Boer guerrilla parties looting houses and stores in the northwest section of Cape Colony, it is not all roses for the British.

The Uptington district is the locality where the guerrilla tactics of the Boers are just now most in evidence.

The postponed congress of the Afrikaner Bond has been called to meet at Paarl June 15.

A Canadian battery of 15 pounders arrived at Beira, Portuguese East Africa, May 10.

The Daily Graphic, which refers to the Boer mission to the United States as a by-product of the war, says: "There is no name of importance among the orators who saluted the delegates. We fear they have fallen into a sort of Anglo-Saxon ambush and are being victimized for purely party purposes."

The Times considers the rumors cabled here as to President McKinley's alleged pro-Boer sympathies "utterly baseless." It says: "Mr. McKinley is convinced that the country does not wish him to interfere and that interference would be in all respects inexpedient as well as impossible."

The Times also refers to the admission by the American State Department of Portugal's general right to refuse passage to contraband goods.

The Lorenzo Marquez correspondent of the Times under Tuesday's date says: "There has been a heated discussion in the Road in secret session respecting the expediency of destroying the mines. The result is not publicly known. The foreign mining representatives are greatly alarmed and have addressed strong representations to their respective Consuls."

Persons acquainted with Colonel Baden-Powell's scheme of defense at Mafeking assert that the occupation of the Kaffir location by the Boers would not endanger the garrison, provided relief came quickly.

A telegram from Cape Town says that Cecil Rhodes has decided to retire altogether from Cape Colony politics.

LONDON, May 17.—An armored train, constructed for the War Office, was tried yesterday at Leeds. The officers present at the trial think the invention marks a great advance in military science. The armor is half an inch of nickel and steel and it is proof against bullets and shell splinters at a distance of twenty yards. Each of the three trucks of the train carries one 47 naval gun. The trial, which was made under severe conditions, was completely successful, and the train will proceed to South Africa immediately.

TO MEET BOER ENVOYS.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Representative Sulzer of New York has announced the Congressional committee which will go to New York tomorrow night to meet the Boer delegates as follows: Senators—Hatch, Idaho; Mason, Illinois; Wellington, Maryland; Teller, Colorado, and Allen, Nebraska. Representatives—Sulzer, New York; Robinson, Nebraska; De Armond, Missouri; Shea, Kentucky, and Champ Clark, Missouri.

The committee will take a midnight train, arriving at New York Friday. Sulzer says he understands the call of the delegates on the President will be unofficial in character.

New York, May 16.—Charles B. Pierce, the Consul General of the Orange Free State, to-day received the following cablegram from Pretoria:

"Messrs. Wessels, Fischer and Wolmarus: May justice and righteousness be with you."
