TOLD OF POLICE AFFAIRS

DOLE TELLS OF HIS OFFICIAL LIFE IN HAWAII

PRaises ALL HIS OFFICIALS—DOES NOT BELIEVE IN SEX SEGREGATION ON MOLOKAI—DENIES RELATIONSHIP PULL.

The Commission started promptly at 9 o'clock this morning with Attorney General Dole as the first witness. In attendance also were J. A. McCandless, W. O. Smith, R. D. Stillman, G. S. Desky, Commissioner Gill, J. C. McCrosson, Special Agent Hayward, Samuel Parker, Ernie Davis, Haysen, P. M. Pond, Postmaster Oat, A. S. Humphreys, L. T. Kenake.

Senator Mitchell asked the Attorney General to describe the nature and duties of his office with its emoluments and employees. It was shown that 315 persons were employed in the department, and their duties were described. Appropriations for the department in the present biennial period were $629,719.95. The witness read the statute setting forth his own duties.

The divisions in connection with his office were described as a deputy at $3000 a year, assistant at $2400, clerk at $1800, twenty years in service; stenographer at $1500, messenger $830 a year. There were paid by special appropriations, except the deputy. The High and Deputy Sheriffs were eulogized as highly efficient and positively incorruptible. The insular police system was described at length. "Warden Henry was eulogized as most efficient and humane. 228 of those on the payroll of 315 were Hawaiians, most of the remainder of American-Hawaiian birth. Aggregate salaries were paid from an appropriation (biennial) of $461,780.

The first year of Mr. Dole's regime $12,000 was saved from an appropriation, but the last three or four years' worth has been doubled, and expenses increased. Hard work was necessary to keep within appropriations. Thrice they have been exceeded. Many more prisoners are in jail and cost of produce increased. A pro rata increase of $3.80 topped the jail appropriation. The handling of witnesses with means of transportation was a very difficult problem. The incidental fund of $30,000, which includes all traveling expenses, horses for patrol wagons, stamps, outside counsel, all came out of this fund. The detective service appropriation was cut in half. Mr. Dole having thought that the employment of informers should be limited with respect to the powers of local sheriffs. The use of informers as illicit still discoverers was cited.

With the exception of the secret service fund, every cent used in the incidental fund was vouched for, and the vouchers filed with the auditor after being signed by the Attorney General. The salaries of the sheriffs were cited and the number cited at approximately 25. The witness stated that the Attorney General's salary was $12,000, but he had recommended a reduction to $10,000. This was cut to $9,000. The appropriations of the entire police system and the office of the Attorney General were read on request of Senator Mitchell.

"What," asked Senator Mitchell, "constitutes the police force on Hawaii, that uses up $65,000?" Mr. Dole explained that local conditions since civilization were very different to the mainland. Centralization was great because the country was so

Tom Fitch To Address The Republicans

Tonight the Republicans of the Island of Oahu will ratify the congressional and legislative tickets of the party. A monster meeting is planned for the Orpheum theater at 7:30 o'clock. Col. Thomas Fitch will be the orator of the evening. He will be followed by Prince Kuhio the party nominee for Congress, and Prince Kuhio in turn by the party nominees for the senate and house of representatives. Seats will be reserved for ladies and a large and enthusiastic meeting is anticipated. Republicans and republican organizations from both the fourth and the fifth districts will be in attendance.

small and so many districts incapable of self-government, and with honest officials perhaps a better result was so achieved. There were two sides to the question. Here was a one tax system, everything being centralized and then divided into departments. The Attorney General, for example, as opposed to the general mainland duties, is the adviser of every department, the counsel for the government in land interests for many millions of dollars of public lands, covers all prosecutions. Insular conditions have led up to the present handling of affairs.

"I am not advocating this system," said the witness, "but for the past eight years it has been run honestly in the interests of the public good. They have been mistakes." "We appreciate the difference in situation," said Senator Mitchell, "between here and the mainland. We ask for all information. You are on the right lines. If we find the present system a good and sufficient one we shall recommend to continue it."

Mr. Dole opposed, in argument, the radical methods of change. He did not consider local conditions ideal, but needed an evolution towards American methods, not a revolution. On the pay of police officers and the department, high local prices were cited. Mr. Dole stated that as a Republican from boyhood he preferred local men, other things being equal. As his assistant he asked local men to take the office, but they said the price of "beefsteak and bonnets" were too high. Other things being equal, he would appoint a native before a white man, a Republican before another, but always the most efficient. In some instances present salaries are too small. For example, his deputy was one of the best of lawyers, but his salary of $3000 was insufficient. In his judgment $1500 in California needed $2500 in Honolulu, as an equivalent. House rents were high, a little less perhaps than last year.

The water system, was he thought good, but others, the witness thought, could testify better. In regard to the Board of Health he explained that it consisted of three physicians, three laymen and the Attorney General ex-officio. Its problems were serious with a population, many of which cared nothing for sanitation. There were no salaries and they were gentlemen of high standing, their names being here given. None of the appropriations for the Attorney General's department went to the Board of Health. The attaches' salaries and position were given.

Senator Mitchell: "Are marriages permitted between lepers?" Witness: "Yes." The general conditions of the Settlement were then given. The lepers as far as possible lived in families as they would were they not stricken. The term "kokuu" was explained and the discretionary powers in reference to them resting with the Board of Health.

Senator Mitchell: "Do you consider it right to allow children of lepers to be spread amongst the population at large?" Witness: "I cannot speak as a physician, for myself, I think it perhaps the right thing." Senator Burton asked questions as to the cohabitation of male and female lepers without marriage ceremony.

The Attorney General explained that it was against the rule, but that many Hawaiians cohabited on the islands, with all faithfulness, but without marriage ceremony. In case of kokua of such long standing the Board of Health did not search records.

B. H. WRIGHT'S BAIL REDUCED TO $4,000

ON HABEAS CORPUS JUDGE GEAR HOLDS THAT $6000 IS EXCESSIVE. SOME OF THE AUTHORITIES CITED BY BOTH SIDES.

Judge Gear this morning reduced the bail required of B. H. Wright, charged with embezzlement, from $6,000 as fixed by Judge Wilcox to $4,000. The reduction was made on an application for habeas corpus, the petition for which was filed Saturday and the writ made returnable this morning.

George A. Davis and C. W. Ashford appeared for Wright. The petition for habeas corpus set forth the charge against Wright, the process under which he was held in custody, and the amount of bail as fixed by the police court. This bail, the petition alleged was excessive, in that it was more than the defendant could reasonably be expected to give, and was therefore a practical denial of bail in an offense clearly bailable.

In presenting the matter to the court this morning, George A. Davis cited the United States vs. Browner, 7th Federal Reporter, pages 86, 87 and 88. "To require larger bail than the prisoner could give would be to require excessive bail and to deny bail in a case clearly bailable by law."

The syllabus of this case he cited as follows: "To require for the accused a larger sum as bail than from his circumstances he can be reasonably expected to give, is substantially a denial of bail, and a violation of the constitutional guaranty against excessive bail."

Davis also cited the Hawaiian statute on the subject of bail, section 559 of the Penal Laws: Section 559. The amount of bail rests in the discretion of the Justice or Judge but should be so determined as not to suffer the wealthy to escape by the payment of a pecuniary penalty, nor to render the privilege useless to the poor. In all cases, the officer letting to bail should consider the punishment to be inflicted on conviction, and the pecuniary circumstances of the party accused.

Deputy Attorney General Cathcart for the government argued that $6,000 bail was not excessive where the amount of embezzlement charged was as large as in this case, and the defendant on conviction could be fined five times the amount of the embezzlement aside from imprisonment.

Judge Gear said that in the case of Woodward and Thompson, a case similar to this where the defendants had five indictments against them each charging an embezzlement of $15, he had fixed the bail at $1500. But in each of those cases the term of imprisonment that might be imposed was the same as in this. In other words the statute made the embezzlement of one dollar by government employe the same crime that the embezzlement of thousands would be except as to the amount of the fine to be imposed. He did not see exactly on what theory the statute was framed, but if he had been right in fixing the bail in the Woodward and Thompson cases, $6,000 was excessive in this case. Thereupon he called the defendant to the stand.

"What bail can you give in this case?" asked Judge Gear of Wright. "I don't know exactly. I haven't been out yet to see any of my friends."

"Then you don't know but you could secure the bail fixed?" "No I don't think I can get that amount."

"We spent all day Saturday trying to get bail and failed," replied Attorney George A. Davis. Concluding this interrogation, Judge Gear said he would fix the bail at $4,000. Wright and his attorneys express the belief that the surety is to be approved by the High Sheriff.

MAGOON'S MISTAKE. In the suit of J. Alfred Magoon and others against Chin Kee Gnau and Ang Ton over a lease of property was denied by Judge Robinson this morning. Magoon demanded that in drawing the lease he had made a mistake and instead of setting out the rent as $100 a month for the first two years, $150 a month for the next four and $250 a month for the balance of the term, he had left out the words "per month" making the rental $100 for the first two years, and $150 for the next four years. Judge Robinson found that this was so; that Magoon had made this surprising mistake against his own interest, and that he was entitled to have the lease corrected. In addition he was entitled to have the lease forfeited because the Chin leasess had violated some of its terms. This was accordingly ordered.

DEMURRER FILED. The Oahu Railway and Land Company has demurred to the bill of John K. Sumner to set aside a deed and lease because of multifariousness.

NEW WRINKLE IN THE LOCAL DIVORCE COURTS

CAN THERE BE SERVICE BY PUBLICATION IN SUITS FOR DIVORCE?—THERE MAY BE UNCONSCIOUS BIGAMISTS.

A new legal wrinkle in the matter of divorce has just been sprung in the circuit. It will be taken at once to the supreme court, and if that set of jurists cannot find some means of smoothing it out, there is no way by which service of summons in divorce cases can be made by publication in this territory, and all divorces procured here on service by publication are illegal. It may therefore be that quite a number of unconscious bigamists are moving about in the country.

The puzzling proposition was sprung by Phillip L. Weaver in the divorce proceeding of Franc Robins Winslow vs. Dr. Herbert E. Winslow. Dr. Winslow skipped out some time ago, and his whereabouts are unknown. His wife began proceedings for divorce, and under the circumstances, service of summons by publication was necessary. This the statute, section 1923 of the civil laws provides shall be accomplished by publication "in the Government Gazette and Ke Au Okoa at least six times."

Heretofore no one seems to have looked at this as presenting any difficulty. But a divorce to be valid must follow the statute in all its proceedings and the question arose "What is the Government Gazette and Ke Au Okoa?" Judge Gear first entered an order directing publication of summons in the Hawaiian Bulletin, but when it was pointed out that this was not "the Government Gazette and Ke Au Okoa," he revoked that order. Attorney Weaver then filed affidavits by W. E. Castle and H. M. Whitney, setting out that there never was a paper published in Hawaii by the name of the Government Gazette, but that in the sixties the government did run a paper called the "Hawaiian Gazette," published in English and Ke Au Okoa published in Hawaiian. That these were considered government gazettes and were the publications had in mind by the members of the legislature which passed the statute in question. The Hawaiian Gazette was afterwards sold by the government to H. M. Whitney and has ever since been published. Ke Au Okoa was merged in the native paper called "Kuokoa" and for a long time both names were used. On the basis of these affidavits it was claimed that the Hawaiian Gazette and the Kuokoa are the papers referred to in the statute, and that publication of summons in these meets the requirement of the statute. But to get a decision of the supreme court on the subject, Judge Gear revoked his order for publication his two orders on the subject being as follows:

"After due consideration I have concluded that there is now no provision for publication of divorce summons and the within order is therefore annulled."

"Application refused as the statute must be strictly followed and no 'Government Gazette' or 'Ke Au Okoa' are now being published."

This being the buck up to the Supreme Court which is now called on to decide whether or not it is possible to comply with that statute, and if it isn't that there is now no way by which service of summons in divorce cases can be secured by publication. If this conclusion shall be reached no husband or wife who is deserted by the other leaving this territory can secure a divorce in this territory.

PIANO RECITAL. There will be a grand piano recital given by F. Barron Morley the brilliant Australian pianist assisted by Arthur Hahn the celebrated Australian Bassist in the new assembly hall at Oahu College Friday afternoon, September 12, at 3 p. m. Recital under the direction of W. D. Adams.

SHIPMENT OF CATTLE. The Oahu Railway has built a chute leading from the cattle pen to the tracks. This enables the cattle to be driven directly from the pen where they are landed from the various island steamers, into the cattle cars of the railway company. The cattle are then taken directly to the slaughter houses at Kalihi. Formerly the cattle would be driven through the Iwilei district by native cowboys, but this is all changed by the installation of the car system.

PEARL HARBOR BAR WORK

Scholar Cut By Buzz Saw In Bad Way

While in the manual department of the Kamehameha school last Friday afternoon, Charles Williams one of the boarders, sustained severe injuries by getting in the way of one of the saws. One of his legs was caught under the buzz saw and before the youth could be pulled away, the saw had cut into the flesh and reached the bone. The boy's injuries are very painful and may prove quite serious, as it may be found necessary to amputate the leg. The young man was reported today as resting easily and with excellent prospects of his limb being saved. He is about 15 years of age and comes from Hawaii.

HERMAN IN TROUBLE.

Another libel has been placed against the schooner Herman this morning. An affidavit of four sailors who claim that they were entitled to wages at the rate of $20 per month from a date in July until September 13, when they were discharged, and affiant claim, refused their pay, was sworn to before Commissioner Gill, who has issued an order to show cause. The order was first returnable at 2 o'clock this afternoon, but has been later changed to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Commissioner Gill is before the Commission this afternoon.

WRIGHT LOOKING FOR BAIL.

B. H. Wright, the former clerk of the Public Works Department, who is charged with the embezzlement of over $3,000 of public money, had not succeeded up to the hour of 2:30 p. m. today in securing bail. He was still in the custody of the High Sheriff.

NINE MONTHS TIME ALLOWED THE COTTONS

NAVY DEPARTMENT GRANTS EXTENSION TO NEW-CONTRACTORS CLARK AND HENRY LOSE MONEY ON THEIR CONTRACT.

Cotton Brothers has arranged for an extension of the Pearl Harbor dredging contract which was unsuccessfully attempted by Clark and Henry and will commence work on October 1 with a force of forty men.

The original contract ended on December 31, but the clam shell scoops and dredging apparatus of Clark and Henry had proved not the best machinery to handle the sand in the channel and the results had fallen so far beneath expectations that a bare quarter of the work to be done had taken up three fourths of the time. Southerly winds, the rise and fall of the dredger and the character of the bottom mitigated against the successful use of the Clark-Henry dredger and the prophecy of the local engineers that "the scoop would never do it" was fulfilled.

The firm then sublet their contract to Cotton Brothers, the latter to pay them for work done and take over such parts of their outfit as they could use. This arrangement was made with a provision on the part of Cotton Brothers that they should secure an extension of contract from the Washington authorities.

This has been accomplished, nine months additional time, giving the new contractors one clear year ahead, has been granted. Cotton Brothers however expect to accomplish the work in six months. They pay the late contractors for their work a sum in the neighborhood of $16,990 and take over their two sand scoops and the tug at agreed valuation. Out of this the late contractors have to pay many months labor and fuel bill with the original cost of all their machinery. They will lose many thousands of dollars, it is said, on the enterprise.

The new contractors will handle the task of cleaning out the channel in an entirely different way. Instead of using scoops they will use a suction pump, or rather two of them. This system has worked successfully with coral sand in Honolulu harbor and its only possible failure to do what is expected of it lies in the too great rise and fall of the dredger on the bar of the Pearl Harbor channel and the occasional southerly winds. The dredger and its scoop used by Clark and Henry will be dismantled and not used at all by the new comers who are comparatively short length of the dredger so used by the late contractors was in great measure responsible for its heavy pitching.

Besides employing two suction dredgers, probably to be used end to end, Cotton Brothers will put on a much heavier force of men than utilized by the last firm. Forty men will find a floating home on Almy's houseboat, which after being used as a regular stand Saturday will be transformed with bunks and other suitable arrangements into a floating boarding house from a pleasure ark and will be towed down to Pearl harbor ready for occupancy the first of next week.

There are practically only two methods of dredging to be employed in work similar to the Pearl Harbor contract, where but little rock is expected to be encountered. The bottom, from soundings, is principally coral sand, packed hard in places, much the same as at the entrance to the Honolulu Harbor channel. It is suggested that the two dredgers will work end to end thus underlining big spaces of the bottom and

A WELCOME AT HILLO.

The gentlemen who prepared to receive and entertain the Senate Commission, though disappointed at their non appearance on yesterday's Claudine, will make their welcome none the less hearty when they do reach Hilo. Between the arrival in Honolulu of the Korea and the departure of the Claudine for Hilo was much too short a time for the visitors to get their bearings. Besides, the people of Honolulu are anxious to give the distinguished visitors a taste of Honolulu hospitality, and, having a taste, the Senators, like clever 'Twist, want more.—Hilo Herald.

SERGEANT SAMMONS SICK.

Mr. Sammons, sergeant-at-arms for the United States Senatorial Commission, was unable to perform his duties last Friday, being under treatment by Dr. Cooper for malarial fever. The symptoms aggravated and yesterday forenoon the patient was taken to the Queen's Hospital. There he is resting quietly, although his temperature is high. Mr. Sammons is a member of the Elks who will administer to him during his illness and has beside made many friends while here.

"This, ladies and gentlemen," the dimo museum lecturer continued, "is the celebrated vampire bat, of which all of you have heard. It fastens itself upon its sleeping victims and sucks the life blood from their bodies. You will observe its ferocious expression of countenance as it hangs suspended, head downward, thinking, doubtless, of the many bloody feasts it has had in the past, and longing in vain for equally bloody feasts in the future. Passing on now to the cage on the right, I wish to call your attention to our remarkable collection of snakes."

"That's right," mumbled the red-nosed man in the crowd, "first the bat and then the snakes."

Casts of the heads of some of the notorious criminals executed in New Zealand have been added to the collection of criminal records at New Scotland yard.

THE SUBTLE INNUENDO.

A witness who has bobbed up several times before the committee, and who seems bent on supplying misinformation certainly outdid himself on Saturday. There were many points both malicious and insidious in their half truth, which will be dealt with when the proper time comes, and one has a choice of such statements to attack. But for the present purposes it is not necessary to take them up seriatim. That will come later, but take for instance the ownership of plantations. The statement was made that the majority of the plantations were under the control of English and German firms. The object of this was to show that the benefits from the plantations accrued to these nationalities, and that therefore any damage to the sugar industry would not fall upon the American citizen, but upon the foreigner.

In other parts of the mainland there is not that sharp line drawn which this vindictive witness would draw. German trading firms are to be found in every part of the Union. Portions of States are so colonized by Germans, that the very schools are taught in German. When the Emperor's brother visited the states the Germans made a fine showing both as to their wealth and their intelligence. In the war of the Rebellion German regiments and German generals fought for the integrity of the union, but as the witness is a Southerner, perhaps the integrity of the Union is not a matter that he cares much for.

British firms take a high standing in the United States. British capital is invested in railroads, in ranches, in mines in manufacturing, and there is no complaint. Marriages between American and British families of the oldest lineage are frequent, officially there is a strong tie between Great Britain and the United States. Yet the vindictive witness attempts to use nationality as a lever to injure our sugar industry by a statement which would make members of the committee think that the commercial prosperity which has grown up here is not American but is European.

Now is this statement true? The remark was clear "the majority of the plantations were under the control of English and German firms—T. H. Davies and Co., H. Hackfeld and Co., Dowsett and Co., and Schaefer and Co." Upon the actual firms there will be something to say later, but let us consider the term "majority of the plantations."

According to Thrums' almanac and the Republicans made a fine showing at the "free for all" political meetings on Saturday. Argument and enthusiasm all went to the Republican credit.

Tom Fitch will give a talk upon Republicanism and the faith that is in him tonight. As an orator Tom has few equals, and age has neither weakened his intellect nor dulled the silver tones of his voice.

In a trial the address of the lawyer for the prosecution is followed by that of the lawyer for the defence. The Committee has heard the self-constituted lawyer for the prosecution, the case for the defence has yet to be summed up, and one story holds good till the true one is told.

The town is looking forward to its Saturday full holiday, and the races which will enliven the day. The weather promises to be fine and no doubt a most enjoyable time will be spent. Besides the boat racing there will be picnics in all directions. With our means of rapid locomotion the city quickly spreads into the country, and groups of holiday makers can be found from Waikiki beach to the sands at Waihua bay.

Dr. Bishop predicts further volcanic eruptions upon Martinique, and gives reasons for his views from a study of the great Malayan eruptions at the blowing up of the Island of Krakatoa. If the predictions are substantiated Martinique will cease to be habitable, and its productive capacity will have to be dependent for centuries. Dr. Bishop's arguments are based upon the rival actions of igneous and aqueous forces. He does not go further into space seeking the powers of the moon and the planets like the astrologers of the middle ages.

No one thinks much about indigo here, yet the world's consumption of that dye is over 11,000,000 pounds annually. Germany has given much attention to the discovery of an artificial indigo dye, and it is stated that success has crowned the efforts. At all events it is believed in to the extent of $4,284,000, which is the amount invested in some works at Ludwigshafen. The basis of the dye is naphthalene. The twenty years ago a similar discovery was made. The material used was ortho-nitrophenylpropionisaeure. It is no wonder that it ruined every one connected with it.

annual for 1902 there are in all 58 plantations upon the Hawaiian Islands. Of these T. H. Davies & Co. control 11 plantations, Hackfeld and Co. control 9, Schaefer and Co., 2 and J. M. Dowsett 1, making 23 plantations in all, for the firms designated by the witness, and leaving 35 in the control of American firms like Brewer and Co., Alexander and Baldwin, Irwin and Co., Grinbaum and Co., and Castle and Cooke.

The statement, therefore, that the English and German firms control the majority of the plantations is absolutely false. It is made out of whole cloth. It is one of those statements thrown off with the object of creating an impression which it is hoped may not be investigated, and which may possibly be made to stick. False statements are easily disseminated and the object of the witness is not to enlighten the committee, but to pose before a larger audience through newspaper quotation.

Another object of this "majority control" falsehood is to give an idea that these English and German firms send their trade in the direction of their mother countries. But this is done as a subtle inuendo. The whole of our trade is with the mainland. Every pound of our sugar went to the American market. Our shipments of produce to the United States amounted to $24,772,373, minus $17,684 which went elsewhere. Our imports from the mainland were between $19,000,000 and $20,000,000. This gives a volume of trade amounting to over $44,000,000, greater than the trade with the Philippines, with all its teeming millions, greater than that of Porto Rico, whose population is six times as great as that of this territory.

If we look at the personnel of the firms quoted by the witness, we find that many of the members have been born here and are by right of birth Hawaiians, and therefore since annexation are Americans. They are in many cases married to Hawaiian born wives some of them to wives of Hawaiian blood. Their homes are here, and their old homesteads date back twenty, thirty and even fifty years. Their children go to our American schools here, and seek a higher education on the mainland. A leading member of the firm of Davies and Co. is a graduate of the Boston School of technology.

These are the people whose witness would strive to show as inimical to American interests. When he intimates this he knows he is not stating facts, but is perverting facts. Such perversion ever returns upon the head of the perverter.

It may spring up, and lantana will become a memory of the past.

The treasure schooner will be looked for with interest on her return trip. She may come back laden to the gunwale with doubloons and other rare coins, a golden candlestick at each masthead, and her sails all made of Chinese silks and satins, after the fashion of Drake, Cavendish, and other treasure hunters. Or she may come back with a tale of quarrels and disagreements and minus several members of her mess. The Herman is a curious vessel, she is an anomaly in this century and might figure in a story as the "Last of the Treasure Hunters," which ought to be put side by side with "The Last of the Mohicans."

The case of the jury having been supplied with beer and other liquors is of course made the most of by the lawyers for the defense in the Ferris case. There is much to be said pro and con in such a matter, but there is no necessity to charge jurors with being unfit for duty because they drank one or two glasses of beer. All this kind of defence and inuendo will be swept away when the world gets wiser, and is less self-opinionated. At the present time self-opinion runs very rampant.

We have been getting gold from the borders of the Arctic circle, and now we are going to have coal from within the circle. A company has been formed to mine for coal in Spitzbergen. The coal deposits are large and easily worked, and the coal will be able to be delivered to the water side at about $2.50 a ton. Fancy heating houses with coal from the frozen north. The idea is certainly a unique one. There is probably a large supply of coal throughout the shores of the Arctic Ocean and its many Islands.

No one thinks much about indigo here, yet the world's consumption of that dye is over 11,000,000 pounds annually. Germany has given much attention to the discovery of an artificial indigo dye, and it is stated that success has crowned the efforts. At all events it is believed in to the extent of $4,284,000, which is the amount invested in some works at Ludwigshafen. The basis of the dye is naphthalene. ## TOLD POLICE AFFAIRS

Senator Burton: "Don't you think it would be better to separate sexes?"

This is the only country where leprosy, existing in the world over is segregated. I would be loath to take the last unite of comfort from these people. Doctors can theorize on leprosy, and I don't know but what I am entitled to my opinion. The children of lepers are not always tainted. W. O. Smith knows more than I do. Leprosy is jerky in its methods. It would be hard to take away the bulk of the little happiness that remains to these people by breaking their family ties. Last year out of 900 people, there were 14 white people, 7 Portuguese, some others, but 96 or 97 per cent of them are Hawaiians, while Hawaiians constitute only 25 per cent of island population.

"Hawaiians eat from the same pot bowl, smoke the same pipe, kiss each other. I do not think segregation is needed."

Senator Burton: "Is it your philosophy to be made and happy ones with segregation of the sexes to prevent the birth of children without materially detracting from their pleasure?"

Witness: "Their human nature is as ours."

Senator Burton: "Is it your philosophy that human nature produces the most happiness in that way?"

"I believe," said the witness, "that we, having gone further than any other people, have gone far enough in segregation. The remedy I think is too severe."

Senator Burton: "You would think that leprosy should be allowed to stay rather than enforce the sex segregation. There are only 100 lepers in the eighty millions of the United States. Suppose you give these people every pleasure, at any expense without the one pleasure of cohabitation, could they not be made happy?"

Witness: "The Hawaiians are a simple, kindly race. It is a heart-rending thing to do, and they have feelings perhaps different from no other races. As I understand the children are not always lepers."

Senator Burton: "But like produces like, that is a truth."

W. O. Smith: "The children are not compelled to go away to schools. Hereditary leprosy, even from parents when both lepers, is extremely rare. In the girls taken away in the last thirty years not one per cent had shown leprosy. The same in leprosy. The settlement was started in 1864. Only in the late 1870s was the disease suspected. The first case I saw was in 1877. The marriage relations and the tearing apart of families was always a hard one. The cottage system with the homes for children as handled by the Belgic sisters and lay Brothers has been found the best. The report by the British commissioners to India was against segregation. Leprosy is not very contagious. Few children are born to them. If taken away within a year from their parents, hereditary leprosy seldom shows. Over there with schools, Y. M. C. A. and the devoted Sisters and Brothers, everything is done to aid the morals. Compared with other islands the morals there are equal."

Senator Mitchell here left the Commission for a few minutes, and the leprosy incident closed. Further statistics of the department were read.

"On comments on my relations to the Governor, and being so appointed by him, I want to say a few words. Some years ago there was a vacancy on the supreme bench. The Governor was urged by the other members of the bench and the prominent members of the bar, but answered on this and a later occasion not to let a relationship stand in the way. At the time of the Territorial act the Governor told me he had decided to set aside relationship for what he thought the public good, offered me an office which I accepted after stipulating that I was not to be the president of the Board of Health according to public precedent."

The witness described the necessity of the grand jury attending to petty cases, adding both to the expense of the Judiciary and Attorney General's departments.

"There is a rule in my department that hospitalities shall not be accepted. I myself have only stayed at one planter's house, a personal friend of mine, and there paid for my boarding expenses. The deadhead system is barred with us."

"About the labor law the Supreme Court did hold that the 11th amendment of the United States was not extended here. The question of the 5th and 6th amendments as regards annexation is still pending before the Supreme Court of the U. S. The Supreme Court of Hawaii had just decided that they did not. The Supreme Court in the Honoumua case made a decision which was bad law."

"In 1840 Kamehameha of his own will gave these people a voluntary and royal gift of a constitution recognizing elemental rights. In 1852 an amended constitution was given in which was stated that 'all men were free and equal, and that no slavery should be tolerated in the islands.' This was passed, gentlemen, twelve years before the abolition of slavery in America. Now the mercantile marine system of America today and our contract labor differs only in the difference of land or sea. If our laborers were slaves, then every mariner shipping in the mercantile marine is equally a slave, with severer penalties. The factory labor of today is another equivalent."

Judge Humphreys spoke of prominent persons who have lived here for twenty to forty years as non-citizens. Now up to the time of annexation we had what was known as denization. Fifty-five years ago a young, but celebrated lawyer came here when Kamehameha III was king. Now I believe that no dark-skinned race ever produced a dynasty of such great and public-spirited men as the Kamehameha dynasty. Kamehameha III trying to lead his people to Anglo-Saxon civilization asked this young man to stay here and help him. Under this denization system, a man, no matter what his nationality, was primarily a citizen, open to all appointive offices without renouncing his flag. Now behind Judge Humphreys' statement lies the fact

A Summer Proposition.
Well, now there's the Colds often hang on. You try this thing and that thing, every kind of home remedy and cheap cough mixtures, and yet your cold continues to hang on. You must not deal lightly with these old colds. You must get rid of them just as soon as possible. You must take something to break their hold.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral
soothes irritable throats, heats inflamed bronchial tubes, and quiets congestion in the lungs. This is why it so quickly controls these old coughs and prevents pneumonia and consumption.

"I was troubled with a very hard cough which I could not get rid of. When I read of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral I sent to Johannesburg and procured a bottle. It completely cured me, and I have many comrades here who have had hard coughs cured in the same way."
—Wm. Sessions, Company C, Second Royal Berks Reg., Nell's Spruit, Transvaal, S. Africa.

There are many substitutes and imitations. Beware of them! Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
Two sizes. Large and small bottles.

MAUI'S EMPTY HONORS
FUSION NOMINATIONS WILL NOT BE SUCCESSFUL.

Rebellion in Home Rule Party Predicted—"Bill" White and Wilcox May Quarrel—Prince Kuhio popular.

WAILUKU, Sept. 13.—The Maui News says: Perhaps, after all, Tom Clark was right when he boasted that he had put Bob Wilcox in his pocket on Maui. One thing is certain, and that is that the nomination of Prince Cupid seriously alarmed Wilcox, and doubtless made him feel like crawling into a hole, and perhaps Tom Clark's pocket was the first convenient hole he could find.

The Democrats on Maui have fallen into line with the "widow's taira" proposition, and caucuses are being held to divide the spoils. The two Home Rule candidates, Robert Makoa-kau of Lahaina, and Waihehua of Hana, are to step down and out, and two Democrats, Thomas Clark, and possibly a Kula man are to be named in their stead. A continued and strenuous effort is being made by the Home Rule leaders to induce Billy White to step down and out, in which case he will be replaced by Col. W. H. Cornwell. If Billy finally refuses to be led to the slaughter, it will complicate fusion plans on Maui.

The intelligent Hawaiians in Wailuku have almost to a man cast their fortunes with Prince Cupid, and the Republicans, and this is equally true with the more intelligent class of Hawaiians on all parts of Maui. Defections from the Home Rule ranks in the outside districts are daily reported, and these men are in many instances leading men in their respective communities.

As conditions exist on Maui today, fusion nominations bid fair to be empty honors on Maui this year.

There is no question but that there is a rebellion fomenting in the Home Rule party against Wilcox for leader of the party, and against William White for the Maui senatorship. Wilcox and William White are the brains of the Home Rule party, and Wilcox would unquestionably turn down White to strengthen himself, if he were not afraid of White. The intelligent element on Maui, independent of party ties, should turn both of these gentlemen down effectually. If they would faithfully serve the best interests of the Hawaiians themselves, and the country at large.

MAUI NOMINATIONS.

WAILUKU, Sept. 13.—The Republican District Committee held its convention at the court house September 8. W. F. Pogue was chairman. There were 28 delegates present. The following were nominated:

- For Senator: C. H. DICKEY.
- For Representatives: JOEL NAKALEKA, of Molokai; SAMUEL KELLINOI, of Wailuku; PHILIP PALL, of Lahaina; S. E. KALAMA, of Hamakua; L. von TEMPSKY, of Makawao, and W. P. HAIA, of Hana.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Candidates on Maui Address Members of the Party.

WAILUKU, Sept. 13.—The Maui News says: The Republican party on Maui fired the first gun of the coming campaign at the Skating Rink, Wailuku, on Monday evening last, the occasion being the ratification of the selection of standard bearers for legislative honors.

W. F. Pogue called the meeting to order and Judge Kalua acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the several speakers, and Mr. Keola kindly consented to act as interpreter during the entire evening. Each of the candidates present was introduced in turn, and each pledged loyalty to the party and its platform in eloquent addresses. Messrs. Kalama and Haia were unavoidably absent, but were ably vouchered for by Rev. J. Kallio and Judge Josepa respectively.

After the candidates for representatives, Nakaleka, Pall von Tempsky and Kellinoh had spoken, Hon. C. H. Dickey was called upon and was received with enthusiasm and gave an extended resume of the plans and hopes of the Republican party, as at present constituted on Maui.

KAUAI NOMINATIONS.

LIHUE, Sept. 13.—The Sixth District Republican Committee in convention has made the following legislative nominations:

- For Senator: S. W. WILCOX.
- For Representatives: J. GANDALL, E. KNUDSEN, H. A. JAEGER and REV. S. KAILL.

THE VOLCANO.

HILO, September 12.—The Tribune says: Last Friday night the lava lake in the bottom of Kilauea crater disappeared and the big cavern was in darkness. Visitors Wednesday this week say the bottom of Kilauea looks as dry as an extinct crater. At night there are seen feeble glimpses of light along cracks and jets of steam and smoke emerge from fissures in the black crust of the recent lake of fire. The sudden termination of the brilliant show disappointed many people. But old timers say that this is one of Madam Pele's tricks and that the activity may be renewed at any time with increased power.

THE FLORA AND FAUNA OF MARCUS ISLAND

OPERATIONS OF THE JAPANESE THERE HAVING A PROFOUND INFLUENCE ON THE BIRD LIFE OF THE NORTH PACIFIC.

William A. Bryan, the representative of the Bishop Museum on the recent Marcus Island expedition, says that from a scientific point of view the expedition was a pronounced success. An immense amount of material for the Museum, of great scientific value was secured. An immense number of photographs illustrating every phase of life on the island was secured. Practically complete specimens of both the flora and the fauna of the island was obtained. It is understood that this material is to be worked up as rapidly as possible and the results published by the Museum in a monograph on the subject. This monograph will be the first and most complete description and history of the island published, and will be copiously illustrated.

Mr. Bryan says that a number of birds new to science were discovered. The number of different species of birds on the island is not large, but the number of individuals of each species is almost myriad. Nevertheless the operations of the Japanese in collecting these birds for the European market will very shortly, if they have not already, produce marked effects on the bird life of the North Pacific, rendering some varieties extinct. This can readily be foreseen from the fact that as to some varieties the Japanese kill both old and young, and that in some varieties only one or two eggs are laid for a hatching, so that reproduction is not rapid, and extinction of such species can be accomplished in a very short time. The company which controls operations there sends thousands and thousands of these birds to the market every year. Mr. Bryan thinks that the Japanese government ought to put a limit to the destruction of these birds.

The stop made by the schooner Julia E. Whalen at Midway Island, made a comparison of the bird life and other fauna of that island with that of Marcus Island at practically the same period of the year, possible, the scientific value of which is important. As to plant life, and especially trees, Mr. Bryan found that there was an abundance of trees of the Lobelia family so common in Hawaii. As a conclusion to his investigations Mr. Bryan says that in its flora and fauna, Marcus Island belongs to the windward extension of this group of islands.

SHOT AT DUMMIES.

The First Regiment, National Guard of Hawaii, was given field practice yesterday. For the first time in the experience of the regiment the regulation "figurantes" of the United States army were used as targets. These "figurantes" are made of a framework of iron covered with canvas and this in turn with black paper representing the figure of a man in shape and outline. The field practice was held on the property of the Woodlawn Dairy in Manoa valley. The "figurantes" were first placed in the position of men lying prone on the ground, and in this position were fired at from a distance of about 100 yards. They were then placed in the position of men kneeling at 200 yards distance, and later they were placed standing at a distance of 500 yards.

About five shots were fired at each set of figures by each man. The score as calculated by Captain Bowen was as follows:

First battalion: 100 yards, 89 hits; 200 yards, 91 hits; 500 yards, 77 hits.
Second battalion: 100 yards, 59 hits; 200 yards, 94 hits; 500 yards, 98 hits.

The regiment mustered about 218 men for yesterday's exercises. They went out Manoa valley by special cars on the Rapid Transit line. Each company provided its own sumpter wagon. The day was extremely hot and much suffering was experienced on that account.

LAHAINA SCHOOLS.

LAHAINA, September 13.—All the Lahaina schools are in a prosperous condition, and the number of pupils is as large as it has ever been at this season of the year. There are two new teachers in the Government school, but there have been no changes in the higher grades. Miss Holden succeeds Miss Barker, as principal of the Kindergarten. There has been no change of instructors at Lahainaluna Seminary, and there are about fifty students of excellent character.

WILL NOT GO HUNGRY.

HILO, September 12.—While in Hilu the members of the Senatorial Commission will be well cared for. Senator Burton and his party will be the guests of C. C. Kennedy at Waialeale. Senators Thurston and Foster will be entertained at the home of P. Peck and Senator Mitchell will stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hitchley.

CRIMINALS FROM KAUALI.

Three criminals convicted of serious offenses were brought to Honolulu yesterday on the steamer Mikahala from Kauai. Yoshikawa Dengiro, a Japanese, was recently condemned to be hanged and is to be held in the local prison awaiting the final disposition of his case. Chong Koong Wal was brought to serve a sentence of 20 years imprisonment for murder, and Francisco Serra, a Porto Rican, is to serve two years for assault with a deadly weapon.

MIGHELL'S VESSELS TO BE LAID UP INDEFINITELY.

The Bottom Has Dropped Out of Freights—No Money in Carrying Coal—Colliers Put Out of Business.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 3.—The large fleet of late domestic vessels now lying up here and in most of the big Sound ports will soon be increased by the numerous craft belonging to W. E. MigHELL, president of the California Shipping Company. It was reported today that he had reached that decision after a careful review of the situation and the prospect both in this country and abroad. The very bottom has dropped out of freights and under the circumstances to retire his fleet seems to the big owner to be the most logical thing to do. The money to be earned bringing coal to this port from Australia is so small that even foreigner some flying light sooner than accept a charter and lose the time that it would take to load, make the passage and discharge.

This dead condition of shipping does not obtain alone on this coast, but in all the big centers of the world. The ports of Scotland and England are jammed with idle tramps, a short time since as many as 350 of these sea-wandering cargo steamers being tied up on the banks of the Clyde. Naturally with this big steam tonnage forced to retire the remaining business fell to sail and even there is too much of this. What is happening now was predicted long back as two years. At that time England and America had wars on their hands and the demand for transportation was so great and freights so high that anything in the shape of a steamer was pressed into service, while sail made more money than it had in the preceding twenty-five years. Owners began building craft and the yards of both countries were pressed to their limit. Now that the wars are over the demand no longer exists, and the extra tonnage is forced to compete to make a living. This competition has had the only natural result—the killing off of freights. Twenty-three shillings for a grain charter from here to England, of the continent sounds ridiculous, but it is, nevertheless, true.

The advent of oil as a fuel on the Pacific slope has put the colliers out of business and in turn they have sought an existence in other channels, lumber-carrying and general cargo, and in consequence rates kept falling in pace with the increase of available tonnage. There are too many vessels for the business to be done, and as MigHELL intends to do so other owners are doing and having done, who cannot afford to compete on the risks of the enormous capital they have invested.

THE Pleasure OF Drinking

IS NEVER APPRECIATED QUITE SO MUCH ON A HOT DAY BEFORE OUR SODA FOUNTAIN. THEN AND THERE, IT IS A JOY NOT TO BE DENIED.

OUR SODA WATER IS VERY POPULAR, AND STEADILY GAINING IN POPULARITY BECAUSE IT REPRESENTS A RARE COMBINATION OF CHOICE MATERIALS, PERFECT EQUIPMENT AND EXPERT SKILL IN PREPARING, MIXING AND SERVING. THAT IS A GOOD DEAL TO SAY IN ONE BREATH, BUT COME AND TASTE THE SODA DRINKS. ALL FLAVORS, AND SEE FOR YOURSELF HOW GOOD THEY ARE.

Many dollars are turned away annually by The Star in rejecting offensive and improper advertisements offered for insertion in its columns.

This is a cogent reason why The Star's advertising columns are so generally used and so widely read.
