A New Comer

For the City Shoeing Shop. NOW BRING ON YOUR BAD Cases of contracted hoofs inter-fering corns and quarter cracked horses and those that play the anvil chorus as they patiently jog along, bring also some of those who can hardly walk without crutches and you will soon have them on their pins like colts. If your horse can't trot fast let the boys turn a speedy shoe and you will have the boss of the road. The new comer, Mr. J. W. McDONALD, is a practical horse sheer, having owned a large business for the ast five year- in San Francisco at 209 Ellis street, also 116 Washington street, and now proposes to locate right here, and show the owners of horses what he can do. He certainly proves worthy of his many recommendations. Don't Forget the Soaking Stalls,

As they are indispensable in the aid to cure corns, quarter cracked and crippled REMEMBER ANDY BROWN

THE FLOWERDEW CASE.

Will reference to the above case our daily contemporary in its article of the 18th inst. makes some very serioumis-statements. In the case in question no evidence was submitted because the various statements of facts and the documents set forth in the Bill and Answer were taken to be true and the argument turned solely on the legal principle involved.

The Attorney-General at interim ought to know that only newly discovered evidence can (with permission of the Court) be admitted on appeal and that in this case, the truth of the matter alleged in the answer was not put in issue by the plaintiff, so that no evidence could be given.

The statement therefore that "The facts of the case have not been discussed or subjected to the test of evidence before a tribunal, which might have been the case had there been an appeal to the full Bench of the Court" is misleading and contrary to fact.

CERMAN LABORERS.

Within the last few weeks over sixty German laborers have been brought to Honoluiu for refusing to carry out the terms of their contracts. As such instances have been unknown among Portuguese or Chinese laborers it seems a very natura opinion to form that either the right class of Germans have not been brought to this country or that they are not the kind of labor that we require, of the last men, thirty three in number, that were tried at the Poice Court, there was not one who had any reasonable grounds for complaint. Their charges were all of a trumpery character so much so that Mr. Glade who was present, in their interests for two days during the hearing of the cases, said "they were most unreasonable men" and withdrew. Some of them complained that their half-acre of land had not been shown to them, though they confessed to having worked on it, others said that their beef and sugar were of short weight, others that their houses leaked, that they were sick and could not work hard, that they had to work with Portuguese, that their food was bad, that they wanted another doctor, that they had not enough benches in their houses, that they wanted a separate house for each single man, that they had worked overtime without extra pay, that the manager swore at them (it cannot be wondered at if he did), that they had no bedsteads, that there was too much bone in the meat, that it was stale, and other complaints of a like character. The most amusing were those of the man who complained that his aunt told him his sugar was short in weight, the man who wanted to fix his own pay day and upset the regular plantation routine and the man who did not receive his gallon of alcohol that he wanted to turn into whisky and which he thought the manager must have kept.

It appeared in evidence that hardly one of these men had made their complaints to the manager before they appeared in Court, which was the first intimation he had received of what was wrong. The loss to the plantation from the waste of time in bringing the manager, his assistants and the laborers, on account of such trifles, is very considerable besides being exceedingly annoying to all parties concerned. and we are quite sure that there are no employers of labor on these islands who are anxious to secure any large number of German laborers.

HE IS OUR PROTECTOR.

In speaking of the Java catastrophe our daily contemporary says, "But amid all these unparalleled catastrophies abroad, Hawaii has only been prosperous and entirely exempt from all considerable miso tunes. As a nation she has acted for herself in all things as was for the best, and benignant heaven has protected her prosperity against all manner of calamities. Therefore the whole country has especial reason to be contented and grateful."

It will be noticed that our freedom from disaster and calamities is due in the first instance because Hawaii, " as a nation has acted for herself in all things as was for the best" and that "benignant beaven" comes in as an after-thought. We have to thank Walter Murray Gibson and nis administration for being "exempt from all considerable mis-fortunes" such as have visited Ischia and Java. He is our protector and our saviour. Had not an all-wise providence placed him in power, then, we would long since, have been food for the fishes, devoured in the fiery furnace or converted into sulphide of calcium. Let no man fail to remember it. Let us fall down and worship him for amongst us there is no man like unto him. Wiggins prophesics, Gibson controls, Great is the name of Gibson.
