Message

It is with great admiration and pride that I pay my respects to Mrs. Matsu Toyama on her achievement as the first woman to be honored as an Okinawan cultural samisen instructor in Hawaii.

This personal accomplishment is more astounding in view of her success as a widow in raising eight children and two nieces and two nephews into useful and upstanding citizens of our community.

Mrs. Toyama has also contributed to the good Christian life as a member and past president of the women's auxiliary of Wesley Methodist Church.

It is indeed a distinct honor to be able to extend my personal congratulations to an outstanding artist and conscientious mother.

Warmest aloha.

Sincerely,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
