Dear Miss Vasper:

I was most pleased to learn of your recent selection by the Distributive Education Club of America as winner of its National Career and Development Contest.

This achievement reflects upon your outstanding abilities and is a measure of the dedication and work you have directed towards this competition.

May I join with your family and friends in congratulating you on this honor. Please accept my best wishes for success in your future endeavors.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
