THE DAILY BULLETIN.

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But Established for the Benefit of All. TUESDAY, JULY 18, 1898.

Nothing is more defunct this time of day than the lottery plea hypothesis of the revolutionists. A few facts laid it out cold.

Mr. Bishop has probably been "surprised" at the challenge of the BULLETIN in respect to his own ad hominem argument in behalf of disorder and revolution.

The Star was scooped in the two most interesting items of city news yesterday. It had not a line about the Stolz inquest or the Macauley treasure trove. Great paper the twinkler!

"Neither time nor space" can be afforded by the Advertiser for answering "financial twaddle." That may well be believed. Its time and space are too much given up to the production of twaddle of all kinds to give the answering of anything a show.

Probably the greatest surprise Rev. S. E. Bishop ever received was when he discovered he could not direct the policy of President Cleveland's administration, in its relations with Hawaii, through gratuitous but fatherly admonition to the American Minister Plenipotentiary.

From the Advertiser arises a cry for the publication of the history of the compilation and writing of the Report of the Finance Committee of 1890. Referred to the Historical Society with a recommendation that the editor of the Advertiser be employed to write the desired history.

It is learned that the Road Board has had its eye on that bad streak of sidewalk on Nuuanu street, and will lose no time in having it put in good repair. That luxurious sidewalk on King street, about which the BULLETIN voiced the jealousy of Nuuanu street pedestrians, was constructed so early through the public-spirited action of the proprietor, Mr. G. N. Wilcox. Proprietors have to provide the material for sidewalk construction on their own fronts, and some are more prompt in attending to the matter than others.

Quoth the Advertiser: "The estimation which Minister Thurston has already won for himself and the Provisional Government at Washington is but an earnest of what can be done where a cause is just and the truth is alone appealed to for its support." As really nothing has reached the Hawaiian public regarding any of Mr. Thurston's official doings at Washington, beyond presenting his credentials, it is good news to hear that he has won an "estimation which is but an earnest." The young man is very earnest himself, never mind in what cause, but the taxpayers imagined he was running his show at Chicago all this time.

Useless litigation of an interminable degree has been prevented by a series of decisions just rendered by the Supreme Court. Under the new Judiciary Act an appeal lies to the Supreme Court on points of law from "all decisions" of District Courts. On the strength of this provision some attorneys have lately flown off to the Supreme Court with appeals from mere rulings on demurrers and the like by the District Magistrate. The Court has put a stop to this practice, which could easily prolong a case indefinitely through an appeal against every wink of the Magistrate, by construing the provision in question to apply only to final decisions or judgments of the District Court.

Mr. Thurston is to have an assistant in managing Hawaiian affairs at Washington. A very good assistant too—much better fitted every way for discreet diplomacy than the principal most people will say. Professor W. D. Alexander, Superintendent of the Government Survey and one of the historians of Hawaii, is the man. Doubtless the P. G. believes the additional expense of another Minister at Washington is necessary. But how the patriotic party supporting the P. G. would fume and bluster if actions such as this—in which the P. G. record abundantly—were done by any other Cabinet member of the country has had since the first of 1890. It is not unjustified by previous actions to inquire whether one reason for a twin Ministry at Washington is not to give the first Minister freedom to attend to his private business at Chicago.

Those Intended Murderers.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The annexation party have evidently been annoyed at the disclosure made in San Francisco, of their murderous intentions against their political opponents. Even the official organ, the Star, since its inception, has always advocated extreme measures, leading to deportation and bloodshed on behalf of the filibustering cause, has been obliged to deny "per order" the damaging fact; it wishes the readers of the American press to doubt the veracity of the S. F. Bulletin's disclosures, and, in its issue of July 17th, it declares editorially, always for the benefit of the American press, that "no murder society, or anything equivalent to it, has been or will be formed or countenanced by the Annexation Party."

It is really very good for the editor of the Star, a new comer here, to make affirmations—paid so much a line—on facts of which he may not be personally cognizant. But the inhabitants of Honolulu do believe in the murder society revealed by the S. F. Bulletin, and moreover they know it is no new thing among the sanctimonious people who constitute the missionary-annexation party. It is well known that the "public-safety" measure of "marking down and distributing opponents around to be shot in case of disturbance" began at the time of the "sacred" conspiracy which led to the 1887 revolution, and the name of the prominent man to whose lot it fell to shoot King Kalakaua, in the event of his resisting the revolution, is an open secret. Only at that time the list of doomed names was somewhat different, some having been dropped out, like Kaulukou, Kaee, Baker, and others added, like the two Ashfords, Kenyon, etc. It might be said, as a palliation, that the existence of the "Murderers' Society" was unknown to the leaders of the P. G. party, and only concocted in the brains of the irresponsible small fry of "radical" followers. But as some of the leaders were in a similar business in 1887, may it not be taken as probable that they are in it now?

At any rate, the very fact of a society of that nature being rumored, is a blot on the "pure" reputation of the P. G. party, and shows the folly of their policy, because it must be self-evident that, in case the murderers attempt to carry out their threats, every one of the doomed men has friends enough to be able to retaliate by selecting as many responsible men on the other side, for applying the "lex talionis" to, and adding moreover ten to one more, taken at random out of the ranks of the "Citizens' Reserve," whatever that may mean. Gentlemen, take care not to unstring race-hatred and retaliation among the hitherto peaceful natives, or you might, some day find yourselves wishing never to have been born.

Regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla, ask the people who take this medicine, or read the testimonials often published in this paper. They will certainly convince you that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses unequalled merit, and that Hood's Cures.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

Worse.—Penelope—"It's dreadful! Papa wants me to marry a man I have never seen." Perdita—"That's nothing. My father wants me to marry a man I have seen."

The Franchise for Japanese.

The Hawaiian question continues to attract much journalistic attention in Japan. The Radical party are evincing special interest in the matter. What action they will ultimately take is more than we can predict. There seems, however, to be little doubt that they will bring strong pressure to bear upon the Government in the sense of securing the franchise for Japanese emigrants in Hawaii. The Jiyu observes that Hawaii is a small country possessing in itself little value for an annexing Power. Neither does Japan desire to annex it. But the question of obtaining the suffrages for Japanese residents there is of vital importance to Japan in more than one respect. It is directly important in respect of the interests of the 20,000 Japanese subjects residing in that country, and indirectly important because the status of the Japanese emigrants there affects the future position of Japan in the commercial world of the Pacific. But above all it is important as a means of drawing general attention to the Empire's real position and strength. In short the Radical organ proposes to employ the Hawaiian question as a means of national advertisement, and declares that Japan is now offered a unique opportunity to display her strength before the eyes of the whole world. Our contemporary concludes by saying that the problem has been definitely placed upon the programme of the Radical party, and by recommending its readers to study the matter seriously. The Choya Shinbun observes that the situation in Hawaii being still unsettled, the present is the best time for the Japanese Government to take active steps towards obtaining the franchise for its subjects in that country. Our contemporary does not maintain that Japanese should attempt any undue interference in the internal affairs of Hawaii; nor does it advise its countrymen there to side with this or that particular party. But it strongly urges the Government to project effective measures for attaining the desired object. As to the method of procedure, it prudently leaves that to the discretion of the authorities. In another article, the same paper alludes to the expected visit of Mr. Neumann of Hawaii, and says that the object of his coming is apparent without any comment. As to the result, however, our contemporary predicts nothing. It confines itself to an expression of conviction that he will receive considerable sympathy from the Japanese.—Japan Mail.

Koolau Provisioned.

On Thursday of last week, the day the expedition arrived in town, a native mounted on a white horse, with two bags supposed to contain food, was seen in the Kalanui valley from the Waimea pass going up where Koolau's effects were found by the soldiers. The native was seen to get off the animal and carry the bags into the bush. When he again made his appearance he had nothing in his hand. Shortly afterward a fog settled down and neither horse nor rider was seen again. This report was brought to Makaweli by guards who returned from Waimea.

Unfair Advantage.—Mrs. Figg—"You little wretch, have you been fighting again?" Tommy—"Yes'm, Johnny Briggs asked me to give him a piece of my apple. I wasn't goin' to give him none of it, but he said 'please, and then, of course, I had to. But you know I made him see he said it 'fore I got through with him."

"German Syrup"

Martinsville, N.J., Methodist Parsonage. "My acquaintance with your remedy, Boschee's German Syrup, was made about fourteen years ago, when I contracted a cold which resulted in a Hoarseness and a Cough which disabled me from filling my pulpit for a number of Sabbaths. After trying a Physician, without obtaining relief—I cannot say now what remedy he prescribed—I saw the advertisement of your remedy and obtained a bottle. I received such quick and permanent help from it that whenever we have had Throat or Bronchial troubles—since in our family, Boschee's German Syrup has been our favorite remedy and always with favorable results. I have never hesitated to report my experience of its use to others when I have found them troubled in like manner." Rev. W. H. HAGGARTY, of the Newark, New Jersey, M. E. Conference, April 25, '90.

Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd

Saturday, July 15, 1898.

This week we provide the means for additional happiness in your homes. It's an odd season of the year in which to increase our stock of goods but as the public insists upon decreasing it, we must import to keep pace with the buyers.

We think we have quite the best Wood Churn you ever used to make butter in. We have not handled wood churns before, preferring to sell the American Wonder, a metal machine that makes good butter in four minutes, but the demands of ranch people who want a churn that will make a larger quantity of the golden hued elegance warrants our importing these. They're in two styles—cylinder and barrel.

If people knew the advantages of the Washing Machine over the conventional hand methods there would be more of them sold. We've sold a dozen perhaps in the last six months, sold out in fact, and we have imported more to accommodate people who want to get ninety percent of work out of their servants on wash days. The Western Washer that we sell is a boon to people with children.

The Commissioner of Agriculture has arranged with us to accept our orders on him for the Insecticide Wash so that in future, instead of sending the ingredients to the nursery, whenever the wash is required, we merely send an order. We have, in consequence of this arrangement, imported a number of celebrated Lewis' Combination Spray Pumps, the acknowledged superior to all other pumps. If you are at all anxious to preserve the foliage on your trees, the means are provided to do so.

Do you ever have any trouble with your hose? Sometimes it breaks, and unless you are up to date in repairing it, your hose is worthless. To help you economize in your household expenses we sell you a "mender" that has won golden opinions in the United States, and should meet with the same cordial reception here. The cost is trifling.

When your hose breaks come to us for a Kempshall Mender. During the past year, we have had a half dozen different varieties of Lawn Sprinklers, each new one was an improvement on its predecessor. By the "Australia" we have what seems to be the very best of all, and which we can sell you at the same price as the others.

We have earned the reputation of keeping the largest assortment of House Furnishing Goods in this market so that to add a large stock of English Toilet Sets merely adds to the good things we have in the store and which you need.

We have several kinds of Rat Traps, one the Little Giant that catches one at a time, and the French sort that takes from five to a dozen at one setting. It's economy to buy the latter.

We've had wonderful success with several specialties we have introduced, notably with the Hendry Breakers and Hendry Rice Plows. The Breakers are in use on nearly every plantation on the Islands, and the Rice Plows have the bulge on the public taste. So as to be in close touch with the people on Hawaii, we have constituted Mr. C. L. WIGHT, of Mahukona, our Agent for the Kohala district. He is thoroughly familiar with the weak points in other plows, and can explain to customers just why the Hendry Plows are superior to any other kind. Orders through him from people in the Kohala district will be promptly filled.

COURT CHRONICLE.

District Court Appeals Again—New Trial Ordered.

A decision has been filed by the Supreme Court, in the case of Frank Brown vs. Jose J. Carvalho, Domingo J. L. Mattos and J. M. Vivas, in tenor and effect similar to the decision in Provisional Government vs. W. G. Smith and Provisional Government vs. Ah Un, viz.: "There is no appeal to the Supreme Court from a decision of a District Court over-ruling a demurrer for misjoinder of parties, in a civil case, no final judgment having been rendered in the District Court." C. L. Carter for plaintiff; C. Creighton for defendants.

Judge Whiting has rendered a decision on defendant's motion for a new trial, in the ejectment case of Maria Kaaunana vs. Keahi et al. He over-ruled the 1st, 3d, 4th and 5th grounds argued, but grants the motion on the 2d ground, saying: "During the trial of the case the Court was not satisfied with the actions of several of the jurors, but this of itself is not sufficient to grant a new trial, but I am strongly impressed by the affidavits filed that there was such misconduct on the part of the jury in this case as to cast suspicion upon any verdict that they rendered, and on this ground I sustain the motion and order the verdict set aside and that a new trial be had." In the case of John, Nellie and Harry, minor children of the late H. W. McIntosh, Judge Cooper has ordered that the Clerk deposit the amount of $104.38—their share of the estate, in the Hawaiian Postal Savings Bank to the credit of the minors, that the interest or income thereof be applied toward the maintenance of said minors, and that their mother have leave from time to time to apply to the Clerk for the payment of the interest for said purpose.

THE FIRE CHIEF RESIGNS.

Only Took Office Temporarily—Jas. H. Hunt His Probable Successor.

Mr. Frank Hustace, Chief Engineer of the Honolulu Fire Department, sent in his resignation a few days ago to the Board of Commissioners, to take effect the end of the present month. The matter will be considered on the last Thursday of this month. Mr. Hustace in conversation with a BULLETIN reporter stated that he had only taken the position for a period of six months, in order to get the department into good and efficient working order. This object he considered had been attained, and he retired satisfied that the city had a very efficient corps of firemen.

"There is one thing I regret," he said, "and that is that there is no machine on the plains. Engine Co. No. 2 ought to be stationed there, and No. 1 engine, which has the strongest pumping capacity, can take care of the town. Even if No. 2 is required in town, with the present corps the machine could be brought into town inside of ten minutes. No. 2 has eight men, including the foreman; No. 1, four men, and Hose Co. has five men." Mr. Hustace said he would retire to his business, and it was probable that Foreman James H. Hunt would fill the vacancy. The retiring incumbent has the honor of being the first to hold the office in the paid Fire Department.

O. & O. S. S. OCEANIC.

Arrives From China to Leave at 5 O'clock for San Francisco.

The O. & O. S. S. Oceanic, W. M. Smith commander, was telephoned off port early this morning, and docked at the Pacific Mail wharf at 5:35 o'clock, twelve days from Yokohama. Yesterday the Oceanic made 202 miles. She had 100 tons of Oriental merchandise for this port, and 40,221 packages in transit. There were eight cabin passengers, 2 Japanese and 19 Chinese—14 men, 4 boys and 1 female for this port, and the following passengers in transit: Miss Amy Barrington, H. P. Boyce, Downey, P. H. Dwyer, Mrs. L. W. Eckley, K. Futurini, U. Hachiro, R. Hargous, H. Jones, Lum Kong, Mrs. McMichael and child, S. Nemoto, M. Oriakawa, Misses Poorbaugh (2), Miss Lizzie R. Poorbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Purdy and maid, A. Reinhardt, Rev. A. Simpson, T. Sore, Dr. K. Takayama, B. Thayer, S. F. Tanaka, U. Tameda, N. C. Walton, Jr., G. A. Watkins, L. Webb, Geo. E. Woodhull and child.

The following are booked at the office of H. Hackfeld & Co., to leave by the steamer at 5 o'clock this evening: E. W. Fuller, T. K. Hayashi, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Moses, Lieut. Hoffman, U. S. N., and twenty-nine males and one female steerage passenger.

FALL OF A SMOKESTACK.

Accident that Scared a Lot of Japs at Ewa.

A telephone message from Ewa plantation at noon to-day stated that an accident happened at that place. Inquiry of Mr. E. D. Tenney, one of the officers of the Ewa Plantation Co., elicited the information that Japanese laborers were hoisting a 7-ton smokestack about 150 feet long at the pumping station near the mill when, just as the smokestack was moving into position, the tackle broke and the monster tube fell to the ground. In five minutes the stack would have been in position if the hoisting gear had not given way. "There was no one hurt," Mr. Tenney wound up, "but there were a lot of scared Japs."

New Departure in Shirts.

Having made arrangements with an extensive shirt manufacturing company in San Francisco, M. Goldberg is now prepared to show a large and well assorted line of samples in White Shirts, both for full dress and ordinary wear; also in fine Madras Cloths, Percales, Flannels, and fine French Piques. A call will convince you that it will pay to have your shirts made to order at popular prices.

Good Time on Wheels.

Thos. P. Cummins, A. L. C. Atkinson and Geo. Paris left Nolte's Saloon, Fort street, at 4 o'clock Sunday morning for a trip around the island on wheels. The wheelmen made Lane's place at Hauula, a distance of 28 miles, in 3 hours and 26 minutes. Left at 8:23 o'clock and arrived at Waialua at 10:57. Said good-bye at noon and arrived in town at 4:58 o'clock. Actual time 9 hours and 2 minutes; traveling time, 12 hours 58 minutes.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Go to M. Goldberg if you want a cheap suit, he is selling out all of his men's clothing at cost. Come early on Saturday, July 15th, and get first pick.

Suffered From Birth

With a Severe Form of Scrofula Kidney

"Until my boy was six years of age he was from birth a terrible sufferer from scrofula humor. Sores would appear on him and spread until as large as a dollar and then discharge, followed by others, so that the larger part of his body was one mass of sores all the time, especially severe on his legs and back of his ears and on his head. The humor had a very offensive odor, and caused

Intense Itching

We cannot tell how that poor boy suffered in all those years. Physicians did not effect a cure. At last I decided to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, as my druggist recommended it. In about two weeks the Sarsaparilla began to have effect. The sores commenced to heal up; the flesh began to look more natural and healthy. Then the sores came off and all over his body now and healthy flesh and skin formed. When he had taken two bottles he was entirely free from sores, having only the scars to show where they had been. These have all disappeared. We are unable to express our thanks for the good has done our little boy." HARRY K. RUBY, Box 376, Columbia, Pennsylvania.

Wit and Wisdom.

Half of the failures in life are from the want of faith, patience and persistence.

There are two places where it requires an effort to keep one's balance—on the ice and at the bank.

That is a queer and most embarrassing faculty which we all possess at some time in our lives, of meaning one thing and saying another.

May—"I lost my old doll last week, and papa got me a nice new one." Nanna—"Oh, how nice! I guess I'll lose mine, and tell papa all about it."

Barred!—He (standing at the gate)—"I'm not your style, evidently, Miss Maybloom." She—"You're not." He—"I see you prefer to 'gang your ain gate!'"

When a small boy bats a ball through a plate glass window he may not lose his innings, but the man who owns the window is invariably put out.

Dora (trusting)—"Am I the only girl you ever loved, Jack?" Jack—"Why, yes, certainly, my love—that is to say, the only girl I ever loved as I love you, my darling."

Teacher—"In what part of the Bible is it taught that a man should have only one wife?" Little Boy—"I should say it's the part that says, 'No man can serve two masters.'"

Mr. Wickwire—"What is that woman across the way trying to sing?" Mrs. Wickwire—"My sweetheart's the man in the moon." Mr. Wickwire—"Well, if he don't hear it isn't her fault."

Maggie—"No girl could have refused if he had proposed to her as sweetly as he proposed to me." Mary—"But you must remember, dear, that he has had a great deal of experience."

At the opera in Dublin a gentleman sarcastically asked a man standing up in front of him if he was aware he was opaque. The other denied the allegation and said he was O'Brien.

Wife (entering breathless)—"Mercy me, I wondered what on earth you was dacin'!" Husband—"Am tryin' a new fiddle awe bocht." Wife—"Guidness! I thoct ye was shiftn' the bed."

"McBorrl can't get over his old haberdashery manner now that he is a house-builder." "What has he done now?" "Sold a man a house the other day, and asked him if he wanted it sent."

After Supper at a Ball.—He—"Without joking, Elsie, I do adore you. When I look at you there is such a commotion in my breast!" She—"And in mine, too, Hourie; it must be the lobster salad!"

Young wife—"Horror!" Look here, sir, your dog has run off with a whole sponge cake I left outside to cool!" Tramp—"Don't worry, mum. That dog's stronger than he looks. He kin eat anything."

Little things often change the current of life. A moment's temper has often severed a friendship which might have lasted a lifetime. An unkind and hasty word has left a mark which death seems scarcely to have erased.

"Has the cookery-book any pictures?" asked a young lady of a bookseller. "Not one," replied the dealer in books. "Why," exclaimed the witty girl, "what is the use of telling us to serve a dinner if you give us no plates?"

A new dish—"I think, Sarah, you had better roast the mutton for dinner, and postpone the pork." Sarah (blank)—"Sure, mum, I can roast, and bake and stew wif the best, but it's the first time I ever heard o' 'pos'oun' a jint."

The deacon's wife wanted to jot down the text, and leaning over to her scapgrace nephew she whispered, "Have you a card about you?" "You can't play in chapel," was his solemn, reproving answer. And the good woman was so flustered that she forgot all about the text.

Prisoner—"Yes, your honor, I committed the theft with which I am charged entirely through the investigation of my medical adviser. Magistrate—"You mean to say he suggested the crime to you?" Prisoner—"One thing is certain; he told me to take something before going to bed."

Young lady of Boston—"Papa, dear, Mr. Sampson is coming to-night, and I wish when you go to bed that you would close the transom over your door." Father (humbly)—"Do I snore so loudly as all that?" "Yes, papa; and I don't want Mr. Sampson to think that sort of thing runs in the family."

Jeanie's Sentiments—Jeanie is six years old. "Mamma," she asked, one day, "if I get married will I have to get a husband like father?" "Yes," replied the mother, with an amused smile. "And if I don't get married will I have to be an old maid like Aunt Kate?" "Yes," "Mamma," after a pause, "it's a hard world for us women, isn't it?"

"How are you getting along?" asked a traveler of an acquaintance, who had gone on the stage. "Oh, I have met with a share of success! I played Hamlet for the first time." "Did you get through all right?" "Yes—except that I happened to stumble and fall into Ophelia's grave." "That must have been embarrassing," "It was; but I wouldn't have minded it if the audience hadn't seemed so disappointed when I got out."

"One of my customers came in to-day and asked me for the best cough medicine I had," says Lew Young, a prominent druggist of Newman Grove, Neb. "Of course I showed him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and he did not ask to see any other. I have never yet sold a medicine that would loosen and relieve a severe cold so quickly as that Remedy does. I have sold four dozens of it within the last sixty days and do not know of a single case where it failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 60 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.
