Insurance.

WHY THE Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States is the Best company with which to Assure.

I.—Because of its Safety. Its surplus is larger than that of any other assurance company.

II.—Because of its Promptness. Of 1,043 death claims paid in 1885, nearly one-half were paid the very day proofs were received; while of the remainder, the majority were paid within the following three days. No other company can show such a record.

III.—Because of its Liberality and Reforms. All policies are INCONTESTABLE after three years. All incontestable policies are payable immediately upon receipt of proofs of death. The Society's policy contract is clear and simple, and liberal in its conditions. Its Non-forfeiting Tontine (or Semi-Tontine) policy affords all the ultimate benefits of the full Tontine, and has during its earlier years the surrender value and other material advantages of ordinary life policies.

IV.—Profit. No other company is paying on its policies, as large profits as are shown under the Equitable's matured Tontine policies with fifteen-year periods. Persons desiring insurance may obtain estimates of the probable results of similar policies, and of policies with twenty-year terms, which are expected to show even larger profits.

V.—Prospective Advantages. The unexampled progress of the Equitable in the past is the best guarantee of the increasing future value of assurance with the Equitable.

A CORRESPONDENT writes to us, corroborating the statements made in these columns of the breach in the road at the back of the Hospital. He corrects us by stating that the street referred to is the Kinuu street and not Punchbowl street. The correction is admitted with thanks. By the way, the Road Supervisor informs us that the spot referred to is not a public road. What is it?

WHAT THE LUSO HAWAIIANO SAYS.

The Lusó Hawaiiano copied the BULLETIN's first article about the Portuguese band, and advised the selection of another place for rehearsals. The same number of that paper states that recently the arrivals of Portuguese from California have exceeded the departures, and intimates that those who went away at the expiration of their contracts find it to their advantage to come back.

MUSICALE AT OAHU COLLEGE.

Last evening, as previously announced, a musicale took place at Oahu College. The performers are pupils of Mrs. Hanford, the Instructor of Music to the College, kindly assisted by Professor Yarnley, the violinist. Mrs. Hanford and Mr. Van Slyke also added to the success of the musicale by their rendering of a vocal duet "See the Pale Moon." It would be invidious to particularize the respective performances of the juveniles, all doing so well, as to merit universal praise. In a few well chosen words, the Rev. E. C. Merritt, at the conclusion, thanked the audience, for their patronage. There was a large attendance, and the frequent applause was evidence of hearty appreciation and success of the musicale.

SINGULAR FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE GREAT PYRAMID.

An accident which recently occurred at the pyramids was very shocking. A corporal of the army hospital corps, who, poor fellow, was just going home, having served his time, had a picnic to the pyramids with some of his comrades. He ascended to the top of the Great Pyramid and was seen to pause when about a quarter of the way down and make a signal as if for help. Suddenly he was seen to slip back against the step or block below him and then to rebound from each successive step. The peculiarity of the accident is that the body did not roll or tumble from each irregularity, but bounded into the air as it struck these in succession, as if attracted thereto; in fact, a series of parabola were performed. The corpse when it reached the base was a shapeless mass.—[Cairo letter to London Daily News.

"Mary," he exclaimed with an air of fierce determination, "twice I've asked you to be my wife and twice you have put me off with evasive answers. Now, I'll ask you for the third time, and if you don't say 'Yes' I'll, I'll—"

"Well, what will you do?"

"Why, I'll ask you for the fourth time."

"O," she laughed, "I knew you would. If I hadn't felt certain you'd ask again I'd said yes the first time."

We should Blot Out Disease in Its Early Stages.

The disease commences with a slight derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and in fact the entire glandular system; and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffering. The disease is often mistaken for other complaints; but if the reader will ask himself the following questions he will be able to determine whether he himself is one of the afflicted:—Have I distress, pain, or difficulty in breathing after eating? Is there a dull, heavy feeling, attended by drowsiness? Have the eyes a yellow tinge? Does a thick, sticky mucous gather about the gums and teeth in the mornings, accompanied by a disagreeable taste? Is the tongue coated? Is there pain in the sides and back? Is there a fullness about the right side as if the liver were enlarged? Is there vertigo or dizziness when rising suddenly from an horizontal position? Are the secretions from the kidneys highly coloured, with a deposit after standing? Does food ferment soon after eating, accompanied by flatulence or belching of gas from the stomach? Is there frequent palpitation of the heart? These various symptoms, if present at one time, but they torment the sufferer in turn as the dreadful disease progresses. If the case be one of long standing, there will be a dry, hacking cough, attended after a while, with expectoration. In very advanced stages the skin assumes a dirty brownish appearance, and the hands and feet are covered by a cold sticky perspiration. As the liver and kidneys become more and more diseased, rheumatic pains appear, and the usual treatment proves entirely unavailing against the latter agonising disorder. The origin of this malady is indigestion or dyspepsia, and a small quantity of the proper medicine will remove the disease if taken in its incipient stage. It is most important that the disease should be promptly and properly treated in its first stages, when a little medicine will effect a cure, and even when it has obtained a strong hold the correct remedy should be persevered in until every vestige of the disease is eradicated, until the appetite has returned, and the digestive organs restored to a healthy condition. The surest and most effectual remedy for this distressing complaint is "Seigel's Curative Syrup," a vegetable preparation sold by all chemists and medicine vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White, Limited, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system. Ask your chemist for Seigel's Curative Syrup.

"East-street Mills, Cambridge-Heath, London, E. C., July 24th, 1883. "Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to be able to add my testimony in favour of your valuable Syrup as a curative agent. I had suffered for some length of time from a severe form of indigestion, and the long train of distressing symptoms following that, for nearly two months, all possible means to get relief, by seeking the best medical advice. I had swallowed sufficient of their stuff to float a man-of-war, so to speak, but all to no avail. A friend of mine, coming to the aid, in the midst of my sufferings, brought with him a bottle of your Seigel Syrup; he advised me to try it, stating he felt confident it would benefit me. Being weary of trying many drugs, I contented it before I tried anything else, and not possibly do me any good, but ultimately determined to take the Syrup. After doing so for a short time it worked such a change in me that I continued taking it for nearly two months, and I then felt thoroughly cured, for I have discontinued its use for five weeks, and feel in the best of health, and can partake any kind of food with ease and comfort. I am glad to inform you that, through the instrumentality of your valuable medicine, I am restored to the state of health I now enjoy.—Yours truly, W. S. FOSTER.

"To Mr. A. J. White:—These who "Asthma Furnace" should lose no time in obtaining relief by the use of "The Rosingweed Tar Mixture;" but do not use the medicine unless you will follow all the directions to the letter. Poor Asthma sufferers, who are strangers to "tired Nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," should make use of "The Rosingweed Tar Mixture." Quiet refreshing sleep will follow its use.

"Waterloo House, London Stile, Chiswick, "February 17th, 1882.

"Messrs. White and Co., London.

"Gentlemen,—It is with great pleasure that I add my testimony to the wonderful effects of Seigel's Syrup. For years I had been suffering from various attacks, which began with giddiness; then a mist would come before my eyes, so that I should not be able to recognise any one or anything at the distance of a yard or two from my face. This would be followed by excessive trembling of my knees, so that I could not stand without support; after which a severe headache would occur, lasting often two or three days. I have tried various remedies for these distressing symptoms, but until I tried Seigel's Syrup I had no relief. Since then I have had excellent health in every respect, and if ever I feel a headache coming on I take one dose of the Syrup, which arrests it. Hoping that this testimonial may be the means of inducing others (who suffer as I used) to try the Syrup, as I feel sure they will receive speedy benefit and ultimately be cured, I beg to remain, yours faithfully,

"A. H. HORTON.

Seigel's Operating Pills prevent ill effects from excess in eating or drinking. A good dose at bed-time renders a person fit for business in the morning. If you have Asthma use "The Rosingweed Tar Mixture."

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

Miss A. F. Johnson, Superintendent of work among sailors, has most faithfully performed her duties. Every week, nearly, she has visited the wharves and carried papers, magazines, temperance literature and other good reading matter furnished by the ladies of the Union. She has been treated kindly in almost every instance and the sailors seem grateful for the interest manifested in them. She says: "They are a rough set of men as a class, but there is many a noble heart beats under the sailor's garb."

Temperance literature has been distributed by our superintendent of that department, Mrs. Wm. Bowen, at the Y. M. C. A. reading room, Library, Prison, Police Station and many other places.

Mrs. L. McCully, our Superintendent of the press, contributed an article every week for the Gazette, until the opening of the Legislature, but during the session of that body, she discontinued them, the paper being filled with legislative reports.

Thanking the publishers of the Gazette for their kind courtesy in the past, we ask that we may still have a place in their columns in the future. The editors of the dailies have also been very courteous in giving notice of our meetings, publishing our reports, and so forth, all of which we gratefully acknowledge.

We have two auxiliary societies, one at Hilo and another at Waikuku.

Miss M. A. Chamberlain, the Recording Secretary of the Hilo Union, sends us a very interesting report of the past year's work, the substance of which I will give: This Society is composed of foreign and native women and all its proceedings are carried on in both languages. There has been a steady growth in the attendance on the part of the Hawaiian sisters, while there has been a decrease in the attendance of foreign ladies, on account of the absence of several from Hilo. But, on the whole the average attendance has been larger than the preceding year. A prominent feature of the work in Hilo is a public union temperance meeting, held on the third Sabbath of every month. The programme is continually varied, enlisting old and young in the exercises. This is one of the most successful efforts of the Union in awakening public interest and influencing public sentiment. In the month of May and June, special effort was made for the young.

Temperance literature and badges were sent for to aid in forming "Bands of Hope," and in June a very successful celebration was held in connection with the exercises of the Hilo Boarding School. Many of the children of the foreign schools and all of the members of the Boys' school signed the pledge of a simple organization called the "I'll Try Band," and some children of other schools as well as a number of adults enlisted. In conclusion, she says, "While all these things are matters of thankfulness, it is evident that unremitting activity is the only ground of hope."

The Waikuku Union has kept up its meetings regularly through the year; but its numbers are small. Mrs. Widdifield, the Secretary, says: "Our prayers have been offered in harmony with those of kindred associations for the success of the W. C. T. U. work. We miss, at our meetings, the inspiration and impetus given to temperance endeavor by larger numbers in other places. Yet our aim has been to co-operate in our sphere and to the extent of our ability, with the general movement."

In addition to these, Mrs. Hitchcock, of Lahainaluna, is making an effort to organize a W. C. T. U. among the English-speaking ladies of Lahaina. We most heartily bid her God speed in so worthy an undertaking.

In summing up the work of the past year, I find we have been sowing by all waters. We must not expect a harvest, until time and patient care develop the seed sown. Our work is just begun. "Let us not be weary in well-doing for in due time we shall reap, if we faint not." Our president is an efficient leader. Doubtless, she is the right woman in the right place. Most of our members are earnest, Christian women, ready for any good work, and with a ready sympathy and confidence in our standard bearer, we hope to achieve a grand victory over this terrible enemy in the coming years.

The overt acts of the late Legislature must certainly bring about a re-action in the politics of the country; and let us pray unceasingly for a triumph of right principles in the Government of Hawaii. We need the aid of the good men and women who believe with us and yet stand aloof from us. "In union is strength." Let every one who sees the enormity of the curse of intemperance join hands with us and what may we not hope to accomplish. Heaven help us all to see and do the right.

Respectfully submitted,

M. A. HILTON GREENE, Recording Secretary.

PROTECTION.

New York, Nov. 15.—The World's London cablegram says: Right Hon. Henry Chaplin, M. P., created considerable alarm by his speech to land owners, tenant farmers and laborers in Lincolnshire, in which he hinted very strongly at protection as a remedy for the present depression in English agriculture and manufactures.

He said that wheat could no longer be cultivated with profit in England and the depression was effecting other branches of industry. The destruction of wheat growing was a danger which the Government could not ignore. The country must decide what it would do in the face of so great a danger. Duty on the foreign manufactured article might be a remedy. If the proceeds of any such duty were devoted, for instance, to the encouragement of wheat-growing in this country, it would obviate the great danger to which he alluded, and would tend to the improvement of both the trade and agriculture of the Kingdom, while still maintaining to the utmost extent the present cheap prices of food for the people. He did not see why there should not be considerable reform in the fiscal system, by which taxation might be lightened and the foreign producer, who used English markets, be compelled to pay his fair share toward the revenue of the country. Chaplin's speech has created a great sensation here.

While there is a growing belief in the necessity of protection as the only salvation of farmers, who have been reduced to the last extremity by the importation, free of duty of products from America and elsewhere, nobody hitherto had courage to give it expression. It will not, therefore, cause much surprise if protective measures are strongly urged upon Parliament during the next session. Lord Randolph Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, said to-day that protection would undoubtedly help to raise the party to ride into power in the event of another Parliamentary election.

LABELING A STEAMER.

Washington, Nov. 15th.—A decision was rendered by the Court in the case of the steamer Harrisburg and her owners. The appellants, Emma S. Rickards et al, appeal from the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern district of Pennsylvania. This was a suit brought to recover damages for the loss of a human life through the alleged carelessness and negligence of the employees on board the steamer Harrisburg. The Court holds: First—That in the absence of any national law giving the right of action to recover damages for the death of a human being on the high seas or on navigable waters communicating therewith, a suit in admiralty in the courts of the United States cannot be maintained. Second—That even if an action at law has been authorized by the statute in the State where the loss of life occurred, and a suit can be maintained in admiralty against the offending vessel for damages (a point which, however, the Court does not decide), the present case was begun too late. The law which gives the right of action in Pennsylvania provides that such a suit should be brought within one year. Five years elapsed in this case between the time when suit was brought, and there was no equitable excuse for the delay. The decree of the Circuit Court is reversed, with costs, and the case remanded, with directions to dismiss the libel. The opinion is by Chief Justice Waite.—[S. F. Bulletin.]

THE TEA CARRYING TRADE.

The use of the Suez Canal in moving the tea crop from China to America is rapidly being abandoned for the swifter means afforded by our transcontinental railroads. In 1884 the bulk of the shipments were via the Suez Canal. In 1885 the shipments by that route to America were but 9,254,197 pounds, while San Francisco received 12,498,187 pounds. This year the imports by way of San Francisco have reached 20,525,280 pounds, while those via the Suez Canal have fallen off to 7,592,049 pounds. From Yokohama to New York by the canal takes sixty days, by San Francisco forty-nine days. Insurance and freight charges are diminished, and the tea, being fresher, is said to be better when brought by the latter route.—[N. Y. Sun.]
