TO BUILD TOWNS TO RECEIVE SETTLERS

Home For Settlers On Waialua Tableland

PLANTATION TO BUILD MODEL TOWN

Where the districts of Paalaa and Kahaka, in Waialua, come together on a beautiful little plateau between two gulches, is to be the future home of one hundred of the thousand families that are to be brought to Hawaii from the Azores.

Manager E. D. Tenney of Castle & Cooke, agents for the Waialua plantation, this morning gave to a Bulletin reporter an outline of the Waialua plantation's scheme to house and provide for a goodly number of the expected Portuguese agricultural immigrants.

The land for the homes of the people of this little community has been selected and is located as above described. The area amounts to about 200 acres,—acres that were originally intended for cane. Since these Portuguese immigrants are coming, however, the plantation has selected a site for their housing with a view to having them all together, as they like to live, and in some place convenient to the roads and removed from contact with some of the undesirable elements of plantation life.

Here the Waialua plantation will erect one hundred five-room cottages at an expense of about $350 each, ready to house the immigrants when they arrive. Great pasture lands spread above the intended settlement, an ideal run for all the goats or other beasts that the Portuguese will want to keep.

The plantation, in addition to building comfortable houses and supplying water and fuel, will erect a school house for the children of these hundred families, setting aside a large lot for that purpose, and it will also build a Catholic church, wherein they may gather for worship. In fact, everything that could be desired by the Portuguese community will be provided.

If this settlement proves successful, it is the intention of the plantation to establish numerous such settlements. Land is already in view for the purpose.

Mr. Tenney states that, since the plantation has no land which it can give in fee, this tract has been chiefly selected for the reason that it is under long lease, with about twenty-four years to run, and paid-up leases can be given to the people settling there.

LAST BONDS EXCHANGED

The last of the $750,000 first issue of McBryde bonds were exchanged this morning. This completes the readjustment of the bonded indebtedness of the McBryde plantation and gives the property a two million dollar bond limit under first mortgage.

Carter Is Told About Robinson

This afternoon Dr. Judd broke the news of Judge Robinson's appointment to the Governor.

"The Governor asked me if Judge Robinson had been appointed," said Dr. Judd this afternoon.

"I said, 'Yes.'"

"Well," said the Governor, "it is all over now. That settles it."

"Those were his words," said Judd, "or, at least, words to that effect. He made no further comment and showed no inclination to discuss it further."

"I also told the Governor that Jack was on his way back, and he showed much satisfaction at that."

"No," said the Doctor, in answer to the question if Carter had said anything about resigning. "He has said nothing about it."

"There is a change for the better in the Governor's condition today," continued Judd. At 6 a. m. his temperature was 98.4-100 degrees, at 10 a. m. it was 99.4-100 and at 2 p. m. 100.6-100. It looks as if he was on the road to recovery.

"The blood tests which were made were complicated because the Governor suffered from typhoid fever eleven years ago. The tests suggested typhoid, but the suggestion was discredited because of his former attack of typhoid. It looks now as if the original diagnosis was correct."

YACHT CLUB ANNUAL

The annual meeting and banquet of the Hawaii Yacht Club will be held Wednesday evening. Officers will be elected and the plans for the season outlined. This year will be an important one in the history of the club on account of the ocean yacht race. Recent new members added to the rolls are: R. W. Shingle, J. J. Eagan, Wm. Savidge, H. P. Wood, A. S. Robinson.

PINEAPPLES

The next consignment of the Tropic Fruit Co.'s selected pineapples will go forward to the Coast per S. S. Sonoma January 30th. Leave orders at Wells Fargo office, King St.

HENDRY WITHDRAWS QUIETLY AS SHIOZAWA'S SURETY

Marshal Hendry has withdrawn as surety on the bond of C. Shiozawa, the editor of the Hawaii Shinpo, who is charged with publishing a libel, and the reason therefor does not appear very plain. J. H. Soper was on the bond with Hendry.

Yesterday Attorney S. B. Kingsbury, attorney for Shiozawa, filed a new bond, with the names of Soper and D. H. Lewis as the sureties.

The most mysterious part of the matter is that Marshal Hendry professes to know nothing whatever about it. When asked this morning why he had retired from the bond he said that he had no knowledge of doing so. He was asked if he had received any advices from the mainland regarding the matter, but answered that he had not.

SIBERIA WILL TIE UP AT NAVAL WHARF

The S. S. Siberia, due Friday morning, will tie up at the Naval wharf as usual. On this account the transport Sheridan, due Thursday or Friday from San Francisco, will lay alongside the Oceanic wharf during her stay. The Champigny with coal for the Naval Station, will be discharging at the Naval wharf, otherwise the transport would come along her usual place.

ARE HELD IMMUNE

The Honolulu Merchants' Association has arranged through U. S. District Attorney Breckons, its representative, with the Territorial Attorney General's Department, that members of the Association shall be held immune from any penalty attached to failure to turn in corporation exhibits until such time as the corporation exhibit law shall be given a test and decided in the courts.

WILKES' NEW PLAY

When the Bühler players close their engagement here Ernest Wilkes, author of the pretty Hawaiian sketch "The Half White," produced at the Orpheum recently, will tour the Islands to gather material for a four-act melodrama to be produced by Belasco on the mainland.

BIG CARGO FOR SONOMA

The S. S. Sonoma will take 5000 bunches of bananas for Coast people. Four hundred and twenty-five crates of pineapples will be shipped as well as a large shipment of rice, 1190 bags of coffee and much other stuff. She will take on 300 tons of coal. She will be here about six or seven hours.

WILKES' NEW PLAY

Mrs. Captain Clark and her daughter are booked for a trip to San Francisco on the Sonoma. They will probably make a visit to the eastern part of the States before returning to Honolulu.

Will Give Up Leases That Lands May Be Given Immigrant Families

BREWER & CO. MAKE FAIR OFFER

No definite action will be taken in the matter of sending a man to the Azores or elsewhere for the thousand agricultural families desired as immigrants until Secretary Jack Atkinson returns from the mainland. He is expected here within ten days.

The Territorial Board of Immigration, of which Mr. Atkinson is the chairman, held a regular meeting in the Magoon block at 9:10 o'clock this morning and arrived at the conclusion above noted. The meeting was brief, for there was no particular business on hand, although what little developed at the gathering was of great interest.

Present were Commissioners Carden, Cooke and Craig and Assistant Secretary Crabbe. Commissioner Tenney expected to be at the meeting but was delayed. Adjournment was taken after a session of less than fifteen minutes.

J. P. Cooke stated that Atkinson would be back in the city on the 9th of February. He leaves Chicago today and will leave San Francisco on the 3d. John Carden thought that a good man should be chosen in the meanwhile to be ready to go on to the Azores in place of Atkinson. Craig agreed with him in this particular. After discussion, however, the idea of arranging for a substitute before Jack's return was dropped. All members present expressed regret because of the Governor's illness and a learned discussion as to grip and typhoid fever symptoms followed.

Cooke announced that E. D. Tenney had stated that Walialua and Ewa plantations were ready to provide for about two hundred of the immigrants to be brought from the Azores. They were ready to build them suitable houses and supply water and fuel and do all else that was necessary to start them well. He had asked the speaker for copies of the circular setting forth what was expected of the plantations.

Cooke also announced that Brewer & Co. had stated that their plantations were ready to take two hundred immigrant families.

Further than this Brewer & Co. were willing to turn over their lands leased from the Government for the Government to present to the immigrants in fee simple. There was some question whether the Government could do this, but it was up to the Government to find some way to meet this very fair offer.

Brewer & Co. had expressed a willingness, said Cooke, to build good houses for the immigrants and properly supply them with other things needed.

There are now 725 of the contemplated 1000 families already provided for.

Waikiki Reclamation Plans Being Prepared By Pinkham

WILL PUBLISH SCHEME IN PAMPHLET FORM

QUESTION OF INTENT

President Pinkham of the Board of Health announced this morning that he intends in the near future to give the public the results of his investigations for the purpose of reclaiming the large tract of swamp land lying between the McCully tract and the Waikiki road. The whole matter will be contained in a printed pamphlet, which is now being prepared, and will appear in the form of a memorandum of the Board of Health.

"There are several hundreds of acres lying idle there in a good quarter of the city," said Pinkham while discussing the subject. "As the land is now it is swampy and insanitary, and I should certainly do all in my power to prevent anyone from building there while it is in its present condition. On the other hand, I believe that the city is going to grow. Honolulu is going to be a fortified town and the fortifications will call people here. We will also be getting many wealthy people to settle here, as they do for instance in Los Angeles. If not on so large a scale, still to a great enough extent as to be appreciable."

"I am not saying that the plan to reclaim this land is going to be put into effect today, tomorrow or the day after. All I am going to do is to show the public that the plan is feasible, and that they can gain a fine tract of land whenever they want it. If they want it, they can have it; if they don't want it there is no harm in making the plans anyway. I believe in the practice which Bishop Libert said last night was in use in Rome, where they make plans for the improvement of various quarters thirty and even forty years ahead. I cannot say that I want to plan ahead for quite such a long time, but it is a good thing to make plans, so that people who want to live in a certain place can see what it is going to be like in the future."

Pinkham would give out no details regarding his great reclamation scheme. He had, he said, made an exhaustive study of the matter, prepared maps and plans, and made calculations, all of which would become the property of the public in due time when the memorandum was ready. Pinkham stated that he had figured out that the land could be reclaimed, filled in, furnished with streets, sidewalks, etc., at a price which would make it cost about the same per acre as land in the Makiki district.

The Sonoma will take on 300 tons of coal. She left Auckland on time and is supposed to be late on account of rough weather and head winds. She will probably get in tonight. Within six or seven hours after arrival she will depart for the Coast.

Waialua Japanese On Strike Report Minority For Iaukea

Japanese plantation laborers have again gone out on strike. This time Waialua plantation is the sufferer. There has been talk of strikes on the plantations for some time past and at the time of the recent Waipahu strike there were rumors to the effect that an effort was being made by the agitators to make the disaffection general throughout the island of Oahu.

Manager E. D. Tenney of Castle & Cooke this morning received word from Manager Goodale of Waialua plantation to the effect that 225 Japanese laborers were out on strike in the Kawailoa section of the plantation.

The Kawailoa section is situated on the heights not far from the shore, to the southwestward of the Haleiwa Hotel.

The Japanese apparently have no real grievances. A delegation of the strikers, consisting of ten of the Japanese, promised to call and talk the situation over with Manager Goodale today.

Col. Curtis Iaukea has heard from Attorney Galbraith, who is conducting his election contest in Washington, which Iaukea instituted to oust Delegate Kalaniano'ole from his seat in Congress. Galbraith writes that the elections committee of the House of Representatives, to which the matter was referred, has had a two day's hearing of the case, and has prepared a majority and a minority report.

The committee consists, of seven members, four Republicans and three Democrats. The majority report, which is in favor of Kalaniano'ole, is signed by the four Republicans, while the minority report, which backs up Iaukea's claim, is signed by the three Democrats.

Col. Iaukea expects that the House of Representatives, when the two reports have been presented to it, will take up the matter in debate.

JUDGE LITTLE'S DEATH
HOSPITAL CHAPLAIN TELLS OF LAST HOURS AND BURIAL

HAD EVERY ATTENTION AND WAS BURIED WITH HIGH MASONIC HONORS — DEATH NOT FROM FEVER.

The following is from a private letter giving the details of the illness and death of the late Judge Gilbert F. Little at Panama:

On Nov. 7, he (Judge Little) found himself sick, seriously though not alarmingly, and went to the hospital in Ancon, just outside the city of Panama, in the Canal Zone, in charge of our countrymen. There he had everything done for him that was possible. The Ancon Hospital is one of the greatest and best in the world. He was placed in private quarters, not in a ward with other patients, and was as well situated as could be. American physicians and trained nurses with competent attendants did their best for him, with nothing lacking that science and art could supply. His intimate friends were allowed to see him as his strength permitted, not only in the days and hours to which visitors are limited generally, but at all times, and telephone communications kept them aware of his condition and ready to meet his wishes. We hoped for his recovery till near the last, when his falling strength and changing symptoms showed that the disease had exhausted his reserve force, and recovery seemed hopeless. He was unconscious a good deal of the time, and more and more to the last. In his lucid moments he recognized friends and gave responses showing appreciation of kindnesses. He sank to final rest the morning of Dec. 4 at 4:20 o'clock.

His sickness was a combination of ailments of the liver and kidneys, against which his vital force made a wonderful resistance.

The funeral took place Dec. 5 at 8:30 a. m. in the American Protestant Chapel, Ancon, with an unusually large gathering of our countrymen, including Governor Magoon and other officials of the Canal Zone, Mr. Sanders our Secretary of Legation, Mr. Shanklin our Consul General, and men eminent in the business public of Panama. The religious service was conducted by me as Hospital Chaplain. Among the hymns sung was "Lead, Kindly Light"—a favorite hymn with the deceased. The coffin was of beautiful polished hard wood, with glass over the face, so that we all took a farewell look before it was finally closed. Masses of flowers and tropical colored foliage adorned the bier and coffin.

The interment took place in Ancon Cemetery, with Masonic honors. The pallbearers were all of the rank of Knight Templar. The ceremony was conducted by Bro. Mitchell, as President of the Sojourners' Club, assisted by me as Chaplain of the Club, with a large circle of Masons around the grave participating in the solemn service. At its conclusion we marched away feeling that a pillar was gone from our fraternal organization and from the American community on this Isthmus.

I trust you will feel that everything was done which friendship and respect could suggest, and I recommend to you the comfort of Divine consolation in your bereavement.

Yours respectfully,
THOS. B. WOOD.

AN UNHEARD-OF STENCH
GREAT DESTRUCTION AND ROTTING OF GOOD BEEF

MANY YOUNG STEERS FALL VICTIMS TO ROPE AND KNIFE. A STRANGE RANCH CARNIVAL.

The Hawaiian cowboy has ample opportunity to prove his prowess with the lasso in capturing cattle, wild and otherwise, on the mountain slopes of Hawaii, but only once in a lifetime can he enjoy such a carnival as took place on the big Parker ranch the early part of this month. Receiver Couant of the Parker ranch assembled his best ropemen on the Waimea plains Thursday, January 3, primarily for the purpose of killing off a number of old steers whose lack of teeth denied them the ability to pick up a living on the drought-devastated pastures that are now causing the death of so many cattle on Hawaii.

The slaughter began by old steers being selected for the killing and with the word "go" the cowboys were loosed on the herd, each one eager to make best time in reducing his quarry to beef. In the excitement many young steers fell victims to rope and knife and when the work of destruction was called off one hundred and ninety-four carcasses of what had but a short time before been noble monarchs of the plains, lay lifeless on the ground. The bodies, denuded of their hides, were in groups of from two or three to over fifty and stretched all the way from Waimea to Mana, glistening in the sun like millions of diamonds. In many ways it was a wanton destruction and a frightful waste of beef. No effort was made to make use of the meat and enough beef lay rotting on the ground to feed a whole army. One Japanese butcher who appears on the scene several days after the slaughter gazed, regretfully at the decaying carcasses. He would gladly have given at least ten dollars for each steer, allowing the ranch to retain the hide.

Now the traveler between Waimea and Mana is obliged to make a long circuit from the regular road or else endure the poisonous and almost unheard-of stench from nearly two hundred decaying cattle.

EARTHQUAKE AT SEA LIKE SHIP AGROUND

"Talk about your queer sensations," said an old sea-dog this morning, "you should be at sea when there is an earthquake going on below. Everyone feels sort of queer and excited when the tremble is felt on land, but the sensation when on a vessel on the ocean is actually hair-raising to one not accustomed to it. One would imagine that a ship at sea would not be disturbed by earthquakes, but I tell you she is. Were you ever on a ship when she went on the rocks rocks? There is a certain shock, followed by grinding and cracking, a feeling that cannot be described. When a ship encounters an earthquake she sort of quivers and those aboard have the same sensation as when a vessel is going aground."

CUBANS COMING IN

RAW SUGAR MARKET IS INFLUENCED BY WEATHER

FAVORING CONDITIONS START MORE CENTRALS BUT LOWER THE PRICE OF SUGAR. THE SUPPLY.

Willet & Gray's sugar trade journal for January 11 says of the raw sugar market:

Visible Supply.—Total stock of Europe and America, 3,476,965 tons, against 2,760,663 tons last year at the same uneven dates. The increase of stock is 716,302 tons, against an increase of 881,097 tons last week. Total stocks and floats together, show a visible supply of 3,531,965, against 2,840,063 tons last year, or an increase of 691,902 tons.

RAWS.—The week under review has been still influenced by the unfavorable rainy weather in Cuba, which has curtailed receipts and caused an improvement in prices of 3c. per pound to 3 1/2c. per pound for 96 test centrifugals, at which the remaining stock of Javas in store here was sold.

At the close, with better weather reports from the island; a rather easier tone is noted, with large sales at 2 1/2-15c. c. and f., 96 test for January-February shipment, equal to 2.67c. duty paid.

Purchases during the week were reported locally in Cuba as high as 2.36c. c. and f. for 96 test, such being forced, no doubt, to fill contracts previously made for January shipment.

With drier weather now reported, a larger number of centrals will be at work and the shortness of Cuban supplies will soon be broken, without necessity for further advance in quotations, but rather with a tendency to easier prices as supplies increase.

Non-priviledged sugars from San Domingo have been sold to Philadelphia, for February shipment, at 2c. c. and f. (2.69c. landed) for 96 test centrifugals and 1 1/2c. c. and f. (2.94c. landed) for 88 test molasses sugars.

Recent sales to Canada are reported, of 2,000 tons Demarara centrifugals at 2 1/2-15c. c. and f., to New York.

European markets continue steady at 8s. 2 1/2d. to 8s. 3 1/2d., closing at 8s. 3d. for prompt and 8s. 7 1/2d. f. o. b. Hamburg for August beet. An advance of 1 1/2d. during the week was due to the presumption that American refiners would be obliged to draw on Europe for supplies of beet sugar, but in the absence of such sales, part of the improvement was lost, and bids of 8s. 6 d. c. and f. to New York are now being solicited, being the parity of 3 11-16c. for centrifugals.

Our special cable advices from Batavia report no exports last month from Java for Europe or America and only 25,000 tons shipped elsewhere.

P. S.—As we go to press, a sale is reported of Cuban centrifugals for prompt shipment at 2 5-16c. c. and f.

County government has made the Improvement Club possible.

Under the centralized scheme of government it would have been impossible. A large percentage of the calls for governmental cooperation would be met with the old reply of a lack of available appropriations. The local government organization provides a legislative body with authority to appropriate as the funds are needed.

Greater authority given to the County organization as conditions justify will undoubtedly result in greater power for improvement.

Colorado editors in annual convention have declared for a new primary election law. Colorado will have a new primary law or know the reason why.

When the returns are all in, a detailed canvass will show that none of them think they are in any Beef Trust. Each one thus far has seemed rather offended at the District Attorney's imputation.

Judge De Bolt says Crawford is all right as an interpreter in Court, but of doubtful value to the Grand Jury on account of previous connection with gambling and the lawless element. This is a most remarkable assertion. Does not the work of a court require as much integrity as the investigations of a Grand Jury?

Jas. H. Boyd was applauded at the Improvement Club meeting when he said that the best scheme of improving Kalahana avenue is that which retains the boulevard with a well made and wide roadway. All signs point to public opinion being opposed to a parking scheme that will leave two narrow roads in place of one of ample proportions.

On Saturday evening one of Governor Carter's friends chased hastily and personally to the morning paper office to issue a denial of a Bulletin news item giving a general report of the gubernatorial resignation talk. This morning, two days later, the morning paper makes pointed editorial reference to the probability of the Governor's resignation. Is this to be taken as the official utterance of the Governor's friend?

Honolulu will do well to check an outcry against the transports or Manila for alleged dumping of stowaways at this port. There is a wealth of possibility for false accusation and retort that transport calls at this port can cease, if distasteful to the people. The best scheme for dealing with the matter is to arrange such a reception for stowaways that the town will secure a reputation among these men, and they will therefore board ships going in another direction. Honolulu lost the transport trade once, by indulging in fits over the antics of a few soldiers.

ENLISTING THE MAJORITY

The first Improvement Club rally was a good beginning. Like all assemblies for arousing public interest, it brought out many suggestions for future endeavor and the most effective means of bringing the people together for work.

Taking the meeting as a whole, its most impressive suggestion was the necessity for making the next rally more cosmopolitan. In keeping with the character of our population, leaders there must be always, and it is not reasonable to expect that all elements could be brought together at the first meeting of this kind ever held in the city. It is presumed that there will be more than one rally.

For the improvement idea to be a complete success it must enlist the active interest of the people. This cannot be done in a month, nor can the diversity of Honolulu interests be in evidence in one rally. It is, however, the object to be attained. Civic pride and real public spirit will be in full swing in Honolulu when, under the inspiration and development of the present idea, the tenement-house residents as well as the tenement-house owner take a personal and cooperative interest in the improvement of surroundings and property. Improvement will be slow and tedious while the masses are devoting themselves to their own and the city's welfare because some one tells them to do it. Improvement will advance by leaps and bounds when these people work for themselves because they realize the value of it all, and that they are stockholders, so to speak, in the commonwealth.

Improvement Club work has begun with the minority. It must steadily reach out toward the people — the majority — bringing them in, urging them to not only work but to lend their assistance to the labor of others. Honolulu is prone to stick too closely to the minority. This is as much the result of the majority having a mistaken idea that they are not wanted, as a multitude of other reasons. The place for holding the large rallies will have its effect. In a movement of this character it is as necessary to rally the forces that congregate around the Chinese theatre as it is to turn out a Y. M. C. A. Hall audience.

VIRGINIA'S IMMIGRATION SCHEME

Still they come. The impression that Hawaii has a monopoly of the effort to obtain European immigration through Territorial solicitation, is quickly dispelled if one takes the trouble to be watchful of what others are doing. The following dispatch explains what the leaders of Virginia have in mind and indicates a more vigorous campaign than Hawaii's, up to the present date:

Richmond, Va., Jan. 13.—Commissioner of Agriculture Keiner expects within the present year to bring about 30,000 of the poor of London to Virginia to work on the farms, taking the place of lazy and undesirable negroes. He has already communicated with the Lord Mayor of London and the British authorities and expects a favorable answer to his plan. Commissioner Keiner will not confine himself to bringing English to Virginia farms, but will also draw upon the poor of Belgium and Germany to some extent. He has prepared a bill, which will be submitted to the legislature, asking for an appropriation of $10,000 with which to pay agents of Virginia in foreign countries. The office of the Commissioner will be a bureau for negotiations between the immigrants and the farmers desiring help.

Should the Virginians obtain a good share of its immigrants from among the London poor, the experiment will attract particular notice to the change that may be brought about among these people under the influence of country life and an opportunity to work. England's greatest menace is the Hooligan class, steadily increasing, and finding its yearly source of supply among the poor of London and other large cities. In their present surroundings these people have no ambition, they are weak physically and mentally. If Virginia farms can rejuvenate and rescue them, another instance will be recorded of the United States being able to develop men from the poorest material of Europe.

MOTHER AND FATHER

FOR THE FIRST TIME

LEAVE CHILD BEHIND

Standing on shore feeling as though her little heart would break, straining her eyes for a last look of her mother and father, who were leaving her for the first time, little Gladys Graham, the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Graham of the ship Erskine M. Phelps, watched the big vessel towed out through the channel this morning and finally disappear in the horizon with all sails set.

Gladys Graham has been placed in school here. The Phelps is going around the Horn. Captain Graham has provided his daughter with a pony and everything imaginable to help her enjoy her leisure moments out of school. But with all of these how the child longed to be going to sea, as she had done so many times before! And how the parents hated to leave their only child here!

For years the little girl has traveled all around the world on vessels with her father and mother. It was impossible to put her in school as the ship would be in port only a few weeks at a time or a month or two at the most. So finally, after long meditation, the parents decided to leave their daughter in Honolulu. It was a hard matter for them to even think of but they realized that it was for the best.

Imagine how Gladys Graham felt this morning as the big white boat passed out through the channel with her mother and father aboard, the vessel itself which had been her home for years, starting on a trip of 9,000 miles and requiring four or five months. She knew how the people would pass the time away during the many days out of sight of land, what she would do if she were starting, longed for the roar of the waves dashing against the side of the ship, caught glimpses of her mother and her father waving farewell and meanwhile pictured herself here, all alone, away from home, the ship, for the first time.

And on the ship was the mother and father gazing at a little object on land. It was their daughter, gradually being lost sight of, for perhaps a year, or two. The parents regretted to leave the little girl behind nearly as badly as she regretted it herself. But all three had agreed on the school here.

The last good-byes of the parents and child on land was a sight that would bring tears to any son with a human heart. Tears over to the hardened old timer who has been at sea for years, or to the child who is just beginning life. But the trio must separate for the first time and it was accomplished this morning, amid the flowing of tears of each member of the family.

GRAND JURY MAY

INVESTIGATE

GAMBLING MATTER

The Grand Jury yesterday sent a committee to Judge De Bolt, asking for permission to use a Chinese interpreter to use a Chinese interpreter, as the Grand Jury did not have sufficient confidence in Crawford. Their request was granted.

"I expect that there is nothing to be said against Crawford's ability," said Judge De Bolt this morning. "His work in the court seems to be all right. On the other hand, Crawford is not the man I would have selected if I had had any choice in the matter. It is well known that he was at one time connected with the gambling and lawless element, and, though he assures me that he is not so now, still I would rather have a man who had never had any such connection, and in whom more confidence could be had. In the meantime the Legislature caused us to lose our old and trusted interpreter, Lee Chung, because it cut his salary from $150 to $100, so we had to take who we could get."

It is understood that the reason the Grand Jurors wanted another interpreter was that they feared Crawford's translations of testimony might not be as faithful as they should be, and as there was no one present who understood Chinese and could watch him, even the possibility must be removed. It is generally presumed that the Grand Jury intends to investigate gambling and this is supposed to be one reason for the unwillingness to use Crawford, who might be open to suspicion of sympathy with the gamblers. On the other hand, the last Grand Jury made a great show of a gambling investigation, calling witnesses galore, but no tangible result, not even a report, was ever shown. The Grand Jury for some time past has met only once a week.

It is expected that the indictment in the Johnson murder case, which has certainly been slow in coming, may finally be returned tomorrow.

STRENUOUS WESTERN

NOW AT ORPHEUM

Something different every time and yet always good, that is the mainstay of the Bühler aggregation of theatrical talent. Last evening, at the Orpheum, the National Stock Company put on "The Cowboy and The Lady," and the great wild with delight. In this great production, especially as played by the Bühler crowd, there is throughout an atmosphere of keen enjoyment, of sustained thrill and perfect finish. The story in itself is exciting to a degree and spurs the red corpuscles to a gallop of enthusiasm, in the person of every observer.

There is love-making with a vengeance, to be sure, in some parts, but it is none of your insipid novelette style of heart clinching. The force of the passion interpreted by these clever actors takes the audience with a clutch of vigorous realism that uplifts the sense of nobility in the souls of all and carries the spectator through the strenuous scenes of the stirring drama without a single commonplace pause.

The witness of the West, its free and earnest, its elemental honesty of method, its fascinating romance and all its breezy charm of life that really is aggressive and very much to the point and in deadly earnest, are all brought out in "The Cowboy and the Lady."

Richard Bühler is the cowboy, Teddy North, and the hero of the play. He throws enough life into the part to make the people in the audience feel like yelling and going out to kill a few Indians. In the court scene, where he is on trial for his life, he conducts his own case with a spirit that is convincingly real.

Charles Place makes a splendid villain. He has seldom appeared here in a villain's part, so his great ability in this line comes as a very pleasant delight. He has the voice and manner to perfection, not to mention his artistic nonchalance.

Rupert Drum as Billy Ransom comes to the scratch again and satisfies with his complete mastery of effect and the little business that go to complete a situation. Ernest Wilkes is a very dramatic Quickfoot Jim and puts the heavy work into his lines with tragic zest. Tom Lowell, Harry Auerbach and Walter Renford are cow boys to the limit. Lowell is built for the part. Auerbach puts the semblance of good natured toughness into his with a master hand. Renford, the public spirit shown in the organization of improvement clubs in its various districts, and the prospect of united efforts on their part to build up and beautify this city for which Nature has done so much. There are many ways in which our united action can be advantageously directed. Let me indicate but one of them, viz.: the location of street lines and of property boundaries. This lies at the very foundation of all public and private improvements. No intelligent person will build and expend large sums upon a lot whose title or boundaries are in doubt. The Court of Land Registration is affording most valuable assistance in this direction. Its aid, however, can only be secured to those who have first obtained a proper survey of their lots, such a survey in short as definitely locates and fixes the boundaries in question.

CITY IMPROVEMENT.

For this purpose the Hawaiian Government Survey, under the able direction of its first Surveyor General, Prof. W. D. Alexander, was started and carried on with a considerable outlay of money. It brought order out of chaos, and settled the land system of these Islands on the solid basis of scientific accuracy. But unfortunately the duty of looking after and maintaining the Trig. Stations by permanent marks and signals on the exact spot originally occupied has not received sufficient attention.

In some cases where the old station has been destroyed or lost, it has been impossible or inexpedient to replace a new monument on the old site. In a few such cases a first class monument has been set at a suitable point in the same vicinity, but as yet not located with sufficient accuracy. Until they are thus located they are of little more use to a surveyor than any other unlocated signal, such as a church spire or flag staff.

Many of our primary stations are naturally located on prominent landmarks commanding an unobstructed view for miles in many directions. Some of them would require several hours and much hard work to flag, and unless flagged they are absolutely of no help to the surveyor. Every time he wants to sight one of these points he has to re-flag it. A permanent signal, like those on Diamond Head, Punch-bowl or Tantalus, would obviate the difficulty and greatly facilitate the work of locating points from whence they could be sighted.

All this shows that there is much work demanding the immediate attention of an expert backed by the Territorial Government.

Again, the city is in great need of having its street lines definitely established by street monuments. The Territorial Surveyor has done much valuable work in this line, but the establishment of County Government has taken this duty out of his hands and as yet no one has been designated to assume such work. To have the main Trig. stations located by one government, and the street monuments by another, is an unfortunate complication. They are essentially parts of one system, and demand unity of action.

Some 125 of these street monuments have been set by the present Territorial Surveyor and his assistants, but from press of other duties, from lack of funds and on account of repeated interruptions, few of them have been definitely located.

I trust that this intelligent audience will agree with me that the matter is of vital interest to everyone present and demands our united and prompt effort to save what is left of a fine system of Trig. Stations; to restore or replace as far as practicable those which are lost, to set permanent signals where needed at stations already located, to correct the triangulation records where they are evidently faulty, and to carry on the work of setting and locating street monuments so that the present work of getting a title to a piece of land in the Court of Land Registration shall not be so difficult and expensive as it necessarily is under present conditions. If I succeed in arousing your interest in this matter so as to start a much needed reform, I will feel that a most important step has been made towards the improvement of our beloved Honolulu, and the general interests of this entire country, by a saving of many thousands of dollars to those employing surveyors and a marked improvement in the work done by them.

Zeno K. Myers, leading spirit of the club noted, made the following report: The Wai'alae, Kaimuki and Palolo

Improvement Club has the distinction of being the first club of the kind to be started here, and now has a membership of about 85. A complete organization has been effected with the following officers:

President, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and five directors.

The business of the club is carried on with the assistance of the following committees:

Road committee, tree planting committee, transit and water supply committee, membership committee and auditing committee, and from time to time committees are appointed to take up special work. The standing committees are composed of a chairman and two assistants.

Directors' meetings are held regularly, the chairman of the various committees being in attendance, and as evidence of the interest that is being taken in the club work, we have had every member present at these meetings.

General meetings are called from time to time, and we are now looking forward to a large and interesting meeting of all the members to be held one week from tonight, when all interested are invited to attend. We would like to have every property holder in our section join and assist in the work of beautifying the district.

As our name implies, we cover a large district, and in addition to the tracts above named, we include the Kipahulu Tract.

One feature of our Club is our Arbor Day, which has been set for Thanksgiving Day of each year. On the 30th of November last over 500 trees were planted along the streets by members of the Club. Besides, at the same time a large quantity of algeroba seeds were scattered in the vacant lots that have been cleared of lantana. We are now employing at the expense of the club a man to take care of the trees in the streets, and soon hope to employ others to look after the interests of the club.

We have in reserve a large number of trees which will be ready for planting as soon as the streets are graded and ready to receive them.

The work on the Wai'alae Road that has recently been commenced by the County has increased the interest in our club and encouraged the members to a considerable extent, and the club has already taken action showing their appreciation to the County for the undertaking. We hope that arrangements will soon be effected whereby all of the streets of the different tracts will be taken over by the government, and we are also looking forward to the construction of a cross road connecting the Wai'alae road with the Diamond Head beach road.

While our water supply is fair, we hope eventually to have a reservoir in a more favorable location to the residents on the higher elevations. All of this work is having careful attention by the committee in charge.

We also hope for a better car service, and certainly feel as the district improves and builds up that the Rapid Transit Company will consider our needs, and should be so favored at the present time we believe immediate results would justify our expectations.

There is perfect harmony in the club and our object and aim being for the general improvement of the district the members appreciate the fact that any work done in either tract along the line of improvement will eventually result in benefit to all.

It has been made a matter of record that our club is heartily in accord with the improvement work as taken up by the Promotion Committee, and we stand ready at all times to co-operate and assist in the general plans.

We hope that the successful condition of our club will encourage other districts, and that we shall eventually see clubs started and improvement work carried out all over the islands.

FORGED SECURITIES.

New York, Jan. 10.—Charles Augustus Seton, a promoter who is to be tried for grand larceny in this city on Monday, and is known to have been possessor of one of the fraudulent Norfolk and Western stock certificates, was arrested in a hamlet seven miles from Elton, Md., tonight. The arrest was made on the pretext that he was a fugitive from justice, but the real reason was his supposed connection with the recent stock forgery. Seton waived his rights concerning extradition and will be brought to this city tomorrow. Officers found the former financier working as a laborer on a small farm.

FAIR WEATHER AFTER STORMY CONDITIONS

For the Week Ending January 27, 1906. Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau, Honolulu, T. H., Jan. 29, 1906. GENERAL SUMMARY.

The stormy conditions which reached a climax on the 19th instant have been followed by generally fair weather in all portions of the group. During the past week, the days have been rather warm and sunny, but very cool nights have continued.

1906 cane has ripened well, conditions have been quite favorable for field operations, and harvesting has proceeded rapidly. Young cane, however, has made very little growth. Winter pine apples have ripened freely, and young plants are generally reported as in good condition. Coffee in the upper levels of windward Hawaii is ripening slowly. The growing of rice lands continues in all sections. Pastures generally are in good condition, although the cold nights have been bad for grazing stock. During the recent storm, a considerable quantity of snow fell on the summits of Mauna Kea and Mauna Loa in Hawaii, and Haleakala in Maui.

JAPANESE FISHERMAN

OFF HAWAII NOT MISSING ONES

J. Anderson, keeper of the Kanaehona Point Light Station on Hawaii, writes to The Bulletin to the effect that a sampan with three Japanese occupants recently stopped near his place on route to Hilo from Kaula. The men were fishermen and had been out seven days. Mr. Anderson gave them a fresh supply of provisions, including matches, tobacco, salt pork, beans, etc. The sampan was number 66. Mr. Anderson read in The Bulletin of January 23d about a medium-sized sampan with three men aboard which left Honolulu last November and had never been heard from. He was under the impression that the ones who stopped at his place were the supposed fishermen.

The Japanese who it is believed have been lost at sea left here in November for Kaula. According to the records of James McCready, who has charge of the boats for the Government, his sampan was number 69. He had two men with him. The owner's name was Saoura. The Japanese fishermen here still have slight hope that their friends are safe, but fear that the trio was lost. Masuda is the name of the owner of sampan number 66. He is a well-known fisherman and has a number of boats on the other islands and hires men to fish for him. He also left here in November, but evidently was more fortunate than his fellow countryman Saoura and his companions.

ACTING GOVERNOR

BY RULING GIVEN FULL POWER

The return of Secretary Atkinson for the purpose of looking after the affairs of the Territory, while the Governor is disabled, has revived the discussion regarding the probability of Jack's holding the reins as Acting Governor for some time. While there are many who think that the Governor will resign, and others who believe that he will do so not before this fall, when Jack will be of the required age to become Governor, it is generally conceded that it will be some time before Carter will resume charge of affairs, if he does so at all, and during all this time Atkinson will be in charge as Acting Governor.

At the time when Governor Dole took a vacation from his executive duties on account of ill-health, Secretary Cooper, who then became Acting Governor, made inquiries of the Interior Department regarding the extent of his powers as such. As an answer he received a copy of the ruling made in response to an inquiry from the Governor of Arizona.

The inquiry from Arizona raised the question as to whether a Secretary acting as Governor should regard himself as Governor in fact in every sense of the word, or merely as a deputy acting in a perfunctory manner, and to be on hand for any emergency which might require a Governor's presence. This practice has been so long continued, so generally known, and so universally acquiesced in, as to practically amount to departmental and legislative constitution of the section in favor of such action. The language of the section sanctions such construction and the practice which has grown up thereunder. Congress evidently intended that there shall, at all times, be a person in the Territory with authority to "execute all the powers and perform all the duties of Governor."

"The Governor, when present, within the Territory, is clothed with all executive powers. When he is not within the Territory such powers devolve upon the Secretary, and the section makes it mandatory upon him to assume and perform them. The Governor is absent from the Territory the moment he steps beyond its borders, and while so absent, from whatever cause or for whatever time, the Secretary shall execute all the powers and perform all the duties of the Governor." "THOMAS RYAN, "Acting Secretary."

The above ruling does, however, not wholly apply to the case of this Territory as far as the actual absence of the Governor is concerned, as the Organic Act provides as follows: "That in case of the death, removal, resignation, or disability of the Governor, or his absence from the Territory, the Secretary shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of Governor during such vacancy, disability or absence, or until another Governor is appointed and qualified."
