WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become constive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Hartill, near Sheffield:—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills. The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many grosses.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—I find that the trade steadily increases. I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

N. Darroll, Clun, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Jos. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstead, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir,—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most patent medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel has had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.

A certain minister in my neighbourhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to costiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying. Mother Seigel's Pills do not leave a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.

Yours very truly,
William S. Glass, Chemist.
A. J. White, Esq.

15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Yours truly,
N. Webb,
Chemist, Calne.

The People's Cyclopaedia.

A New Era in Cyclopaedism.
It came into existence as the result of public opinion that the masses of the people needed a Cyclopaedia better adapted to their wants and means. It has the cream of all the other Cyclopa-edias given in a masterly, scholarly manner, not mere skeletons, but the flesh and blood of all the others. It has eighteen thousand topics more than other Cyclopaedias, five thousand illustrations, fifty-two double colored maps, one hundred and twenty-five maps and diagrams. The maps are Rail Road and County maps of the United States.
The work is complete and now ready for delivery, revised and all brought down to 1884.

A SMALL GAME.

The little dodger has taken to guess work, reinforced by lying, in its contemptible efforts to hound down the editor of this paper on the ground of his nationality. Not as a reply to its silly slander, but to inform any of our American readers who may see the dodger, we may say that the objection to the American flag on the hotel did not come from one who is neither English nor American, nor yet Hawaiian. It was an expression of outside opinion from persons having the best right to hold such an opinion, the force of which is acknowledged by Americans whose views have weight here. The patriotism of persons who cannot stand upon their own merits out of their own country, but have to appeal to national prejudices to gain support, is not American patriotism but a spurious article for which sneering at is too mild treatment. The day before the lamented Garfield was shot the writer was one of a party of from one to two thousand Canadians who celebrated the birthday of the Dominion of Canada upon one of the loveliest spots in the Green Mountain State. Hundreds of Americans came by special trains from many towns and hamlets of Vermont, and mingled, with a zest not second to what they should display on their own national holiday three days later, in the joyous celebration. Such international reunions occur every year, and many times in a year, at places on both sides of the line. That is the true patriotism, which can take delight in the love of country of other, particularly kindred, people. How much more does such a fraternal spirit, which we know exists, become the numerous representatives of both countries here, than the contemptible spirit of bickering jealousy sought to be introduced in a sneaking way by the Saturday Press and its daily dodger. As for the spiteful and silly letter in to-day's Guide, it bears almost positive evidence of having been written by a person who is smarting from the results of similar imperfections in the same line. If the firm issuing those papers chooses to make the sowing of prejudice and discord in the community part of its enterprise, let it do so. So much the better for its rivals.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The respectable portion of the community are highly incensed at a most vulgar allusion contained in a paragraph relating to the postponement of the St. Andrews fair, in this morning's Guide.

The return of the lurid sunsets has occurred in the East as well as here. The New York Sun of Oct. 10th says: "The fiery appearance of the western sky after sundown, which excited much attention and wonderment in all quarters of the world last year, has recently again become a conspicuous phenomenon. Last evening particularly the skies glowed with splendid shades of red and crimson. So brilliant was the display that some persons thought a great fire was raging. Long after the sun disappeared a lurid red light hung over the western horizon, while the darkening heavens overhead reflected a faint tinge of pink. Similar displays have been witnessed at intervals ever since last winter, also the halo which can be seen surrounding the sun any clear day, and which has not lost any of its intensity during the twelve months that have elapsed since it was first noticed."

The whirligig of time does bring some queer revenges. "Three members of the British nobility who had been spending several weeks in the Yellowstone National Park," says a San Francisco paper, "were arrested recently for despoiling the place of valuable specimens, which they proposed to take home with them. They clipped off bits of mineral which took their fancy, and, in fact, acted worse than the traditional Western vandal. They were greatly outraged when placed under arrest and compelled to pay a fine, but the example made of them will do good in checking a growing nuisance. The park is for the people, but there will be little left of it if visitors are allowed to deface its chief curiosities." After all the wealth of satire poured out upon the head of the typical American tourist roaming among the "effete monarchies" of Europe, for his proneness to similar peccations of both natural and artificial souvenirs, it is truly refreshing to hear of three live lords being caught at such tricks in the unsophisticated Western World.

The appointment of a resident physician to the leper settlement on Molokai is an act which meets the approval of every lover of humanity. It is a measure that was advocated by this paper long ago, and we now note with pleasure that this step has been taken by the Board of Health in the interests of suffering humanity. Concerning the gentleman to whom the appointment has been given—Dr. Mouritz—it is safe to say that a better selection could scarcely have been made. He possesses the two important qualifications of skill in his profession and sympathy for the sufferer. The settlement is fortunate in getting Dr. Mouritz, and we have confidence that its condition will be bettered by his presence and services. King Lunalilo did a wise and generous act when he bequeathed his property to aged and indigent Hawaiians, and the Lunalilo Home stands as a grand and enduring monument of a great and noble heart. Equally commendable is the munificent bequest of Mrs. Bishop of the bulk of her large possessions, for the establishment and endowment of two schools, one for Hawaiian boys and the other for Hawaiian girls. The influence of the donor's presence is no longer felt among the living, for she sleeps the undisturbed sleep of death in the silent tomb; but her deeds live after her to speak her praise, and of all this last great gift to her people and her country. These schools will rise up as monuments to her memory, and from them will come many a boy and many a girl to bless her name.

Last evening, at the residence of Capt. John H. Brown, Beretania street, his daughter, Miss Minnie, was united in marriage to Capt. W. H. Aldrich, of the Honolulu Rifles. The interesting ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alex. Mackintosh in the presence of a large number of invited guests, including H. M. Queen Emma, H. R. H. Princess Liliuokalani, H. R. H. Princess Likelike, His Ex. Gov. Dominis and Hon. A. S. Cleghorn. The presents were very numerous and most beautiful, and included a silver set of eleven pieces from the Honolulu Rifles. Later, a reception was held at the residence of Mr. S. J. Levey on the Parade ground. The Royal Hawaiian Band was in attendance. The BULLETIN wishes the newly married couple a long life of happiness and prosperity.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

The South of Ireland Labor League was formed at a convention of delegates, at Cork on Oct. 12th, to be devoted exclusively to the interests of laborers. The members are pledged to support only candidates who favor the franchise bill, which they believe will tend to remove the grievances of the laborers, and also to abstain from any outrages. The convention manifested no hostility toward Parnell's party and the farmers, but the new organization is altogether independent of the Irish National League.

Judge Snell has rendered judgment in Washington in the civil rights case of Emmanuel Hewlett (colored) against John Fowler, purser of the Potomac river steamer Jane Moseley, for a refusal to sell plaintiff a supper ticket on the steamer. The decision is that the Government, on whom the burden of proof lay, failed in proving the alleged refusal; but if proof had been made he would have had no hesitation in giving judgment against the defendant, for although the Civil Rights Act had been declared unconstitutional so far as the States are concerned, it is in full force in the District of Columbia, where the offence was alleged to have taken place.

All officers of the army implicated in the recent political trials in Russia were sentenced to death, and many culprits were doomed to Siberia. The University at the Kieff has been closed by the authorities until January. One hundred and sixty-eight students have been arrested for alleged connection with nihilists.

A French paper has given currency to a statement that Queen Victoria has requested Premier Gladstone to submit to the Cabinet for its consideration the question whether special powers cannot be conferred upon the Prince of Wales to enable him to participate in conferences of the sovereigns of Europe. A cyclone swept over Catania, in the Island of Sicily, Oct. 8th, which left a scene of desolation similar to that presented by Casamicciola after the earthquake of 1883. Twenty-seven persons were killed and four hundred injured. Hundreds of houses, including many summer mansions, were demolished, and there is great distress among the poor.

Charles W. Butler, one of the most noted criminals in the State of Ohio, son of Dr. George Butler, a wealthy physician of Columbus, was executed at Columbia City, Indiana, Oct. 10th, for the murder of Abbie Butler, his young wife, at Pierceton, Indiana, September 29th, 1883. His trial occupied nearly a month, and all that wealth and influence could do was done to save him from the gallows.

Richard Clark, an employee of Forepaugh's circus, had his arms and legs badly mutilated by tigers at Waterbury, Connecticut. He was seized by the ferocious brutes while opening the ventilator of the cage, dragged inside and only rescued when the animals were beaten off with iron bars.

Morris Garrison died in Cincinnati from a pistol shot fired by David West during a Republican procession.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

SMOKING does not agree with some people; but it always seems to soot the chimney. To-morrow is Lewis & Co.'s day for receiving fresh fruit and other good things from the Coast. REMEMBER the amateur band from the German man-of-war plays at the Hotel this evening. Everyone will be welcomed. THE Planters' Monthly for November is to be ready on Monday, and will be quite a large and interesting number. GOBBLE, gobble, gobble, is what those fat turkeys say that Lewis & Co. have for sale to properly celebrate Thanksgiving Day. THE new lamp posts are being put up in the places selected for them by Marshal Soper and Mr. C. O. Berger of Macneale safe fame. THE bark Abbie Carver, which arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Hongkong, brought 19 Chinese passengers, 14 men and 5 women. THE S. S. Mariposa is due to-morrow morning from San Francisco with dates to the 1st inst. Look out for Lucas's whistle between 9 and 10 o'clock. THAT beautiful green-all-over parrot was seen flying about near Mr. P. C. Jones's green-all-round residence yesterday afternoon. Wonder whom it belongs to? THERE is a Fountain at 123 Fort street, filled with ginger, root and spruce beer, and a stock of candies, cigars, cigarettes and many other good things.

Miss Bernice Parke is now prepared to give lessons in vocal and instrumental music at her residence, Kukui street.

THE Honolulu Cricketers are trying to arrange a match game of cricket with an eleven from the Honolulu Iron Works, on Hawaiian Independence Day, November 28th.

If you want to know what you are good for, Professor Johnson, whose advertisement appears elsewhere, professes to be able to tell you by the knobs on your head and the lines of your face.

THOSE persons requiring Anglican prayer or hymn books can find the same at Messrs. J. M. Oat & Co., they having just received a first instalment, and will always have them on hand for the future.

THERE is quite a long list of letters remaining in the Post-Office up to the end of last month. If your name is on this list, which hangs outside the office window, ask for "advertised letters."

THE W. H. Dimond leaves for San Francisco to-morrow morning. A mail will be sent by her, and will close at the Post-Office at 10.30 a. m. All letters marked per W. H. Dimond will be forwarded.

THE Friend for November has been laid on our table, and is an exceedingly interesting number, being full of newsy matter. A sketch of the late Father Lyman is given, and the last page gives Y. M. C. A. news.

THOSE members of Pacific Hosiery Co. No. 1 who are six months in arrears of dues, are called to pay them before next Monday evening, when the regular meeting takes place, or else their names will be dropped from the roll.

LYONS & LEVEY hold their regular cash sale to-morrow at 10 o'clock, and at 12 noon they will sell the lease of the premises upon which stands the restaurant and billiard parlor known as the Blue House on Nuuanu street.

LAST evening H. F. Glade, Esq., acting German Consul, gave a very pleasant party at his residence, Judd street, to the captain, officers and midshipmen of H. I. G. M.'s S. Prinz Adalbert. The affair was most enjoyable in every respect.

THE painting of the Kaumakapili church tower is progressing slowly. When completed it will be a slate color. It is to be hoped the trustees in charge will now fit up and use the audience room up stairs, instead of building another tower as is the present intention.

MR. Robt. Lishman, who has the contract for building the new St. Andrews Cathedral, will arrive by the Mariposa to-morrow. He was in San Francisco when the City of Sydney left, but could not obtain passage by her. Building operations will probably be recommenced next week.

THERE will be two Government holidays in this month, His Majesty's birthday to be kept November 17th, and Hawaiian Independence Day the 28th. We suppose the American Thanksgiving Day will be kept on the last Thursday of this month, the 27th.

THE Board of representatives of the Fire Department met last evening. It was voted to give $200 to Marshal McGuire, who was burnt out Wednesday, for his immediate use. The foreman of each company was also notified to prepared subscription lists and go round among his own men for the same object.

THE fair in aid of St. Andrews New Cathedral has been postponed for a fortnight or three weeks, so as not to interfere in any way with the mission work of Mrs. Hampson the evangelist, who is expected here on the next Australian steamer. The fair will take place about the third week in December.

WITH regard to the American flag flying from the Hotel on Sundays, Manager Fassett says that the Hotel is to receive a flag of every nation, which will be hoisted when a steamer or man-of-war is in port. For example, if they had a German flag, it would be hoisted now the German vessel is in port. Furthermore,

George says that the "Haweyhan" flag always flies from the pole in the yard. But isn't that wrong, George; shouldn't it be vice-versa?

IN our issue of yesterday, we called for a number of boys and girls to make pies of the mud in front of the new bank. Five minutes after the paper was issued three Portuguese were busy scraping it up into large heaps, which are now awaiting a horse and cart to take them away.

A NATIVE WOMAN named Paakaula, wife of David, a well known orange peddler, living on Beretania street near Emma, while out visiting some friends last evening, was suddenly taken with spasms, dropped down and was dead in a few minutes. Her age was about 37 years, and she has complained lately of severe pains in the back.

"INDUSTRIOUS EDITORS.—On reading the four daily papers, 'Advertiser,' 'Hawaiian,' 'Bulletin' and 'Guide,' we are surprised at the amount of fresh reading matter daily published for the reading of the Honolulu public. Some items may be found the same in all, but the chief articles are all fresh and spicy, and many of them well written. The average is equal to the matter served up that comes to us, in the daily and weekly papers from abroad."—Friend.

THE Police Court was crowded with Chinese humanity this morning and had somewhat of a joss stick smell. The attraction was a case where six Chinese were charged with assault and battery on a fellow countryman. The case occupied two hours in hearing. Two of the defendants were discharged, and the other four sentenced to twenty days' imprisonment with costs. Each noted an appeal. Mary Howard was brought up on remand, but as she complied this morning with the laws by registering her name, was discharged, so that several individuals will breathe easier than before.

THE following statement of the expenses and receipts for election day in Honolulu, has been handed us with a request for publication: Hawaiian Band.....$40 00 Services J. Ball Programmes! NEW DESIGNS, just received from San Francisco, at THE DAILY BULLETIN Office

ASTORY OF WEBSTER.

The Great Exponnder and How He Helped a Teamster.

(Ben Perley Poore in Boston Budget.) Senator Silsbee, of Salem, contributed the following anecdote to those told illustrating the rural instinct of Mr. Webster. Once when the great exponent was riding alone in his carriage from Boston to Marshfield he overtook in Scituate a wagoner with one horse, deeply "stuck in the mud," with a load of staves. The road was so narrow at this spot that it precluded the passing of another vehicle. How far Mr. Webster was influenced by the question of detention did not appear, but he immediately in a kind manner offered his assistance to the man in difficulty, which was gladly accepted. Having stripped off his coat, at it he went to help his new client out of the slough. In the first place, he took the reins of the old horse, which he belabored with light blows, while the countryman hove at the wheel. This proving inefficacious, Mr. Webster put his own shoulder to one of the wheels, with the wagoner at the other plying the lash upon old Dobbin, but it was "no go." Some rails were then procured from a neighboring fence and the power of the lever tried.

There sat the statesman astride the elevated end of one, tugging with all his might, now joking, and now exhorting on the virtues of the lever, and the man of staves on the other, and each shouting at the old frame of a horse, but all to no purpose. Our hero was not to be foiled in this way, nor give up his case without another expedient and trial. "We'll try another additional argument," said he. So his own horse was taken from the shafts of his chaise, and, with part of his own harness and by means of a rope, was attached to the reluctant load ahead of the old pony. There was strength enough now in the team to lift the load from the mire, but there was not a perfect coincidence of effort in the two horses. He of the wagon was a raw-boned, worn-out animal, the other a high-spirited, powerful horse. The word to start being given, the leader, by a sudden spring, would jerk his hinder companion down upon his knees before he was ready to give a regular "draw." The lash was then applied to the tardy animal, which would set the one of mettle to plunging and kicking. Thus they went on, alternately pulling and holding back, first one and then the other, the countryman "hewing and geeing" and Mr. Webster now and then lifting his lion voice, but all rendered useless by a want of concert in action on the part of the horses.

The scene had now become one of a highly amusing character—the statesman's straw hat, which had been taken off by the wind and lodged in the bushes, his swathy features sweating in the hot sun, his polished boots and fine linen considerably besmeared with mud. So amusing had the scene now become that my informant, who had been a concealed spectator behind an elder hedge which divided the road from the meadow where he was at work, involuntarily gave an audible laugh. This immediately caught the ear of Mr. Webster: "How is this," said he, "we have an evidence in the case which must be brought on to help us carry our point." The narrator was accordingly discovered and summoned to the stand, and by this additional aid the man in limbo was soon set on his legs again. His job at deliverance was great, and his thanks profuse. "By gorry," said he, "we must have a drop of something to take after such a tug," and produced a quart flask and a tin tumbler from his wagon. Mr. Webster kindly consented, at his earnest solicitation, to partake of a little of his beverage, diluted with water from the brook, counseling him, by way of a toast, to keep himself clear in future of the law and mud-holes. After rearranging matters, and a partial adieu in the brook, Mr. Webster took his departure. The astonishment of the countryman was great when informed that it was no less a man than the great Daniel Webster who had been lifting and prying at the wheels, and he solemnly declared that he would have his vote for the next president.

A Glimpse at Tunis.

(Cor. Boston Transcript.) The town is small, flat, dusty and uninteresting. It has one broad principal street leading down to the railroad station, with numerous small, dirty lanes branching off from it. The streets were filled with Arabs, Moors, Jews, etc., of all shades and color. About the coffee-houses were groups of French and Tunisian soldiers, while the background was filled in with pigs, donkeys, dogs and camels. Here we first saw the peculiar costume worn by the Jewish women, consisting of a pointed cap, a blouse reaching a little below the waist, and tight white trousers, with small slippers protecting half the foot. As we passed along the street we saw several primitive flour-mills in operation. Two millstones are placed one on the other; in the upper stone a long pole is fixed; to the extremity of this is attached a mule, which walks about in a circle, slowly grinding the corn into a coarse powder.

Two Definitions.

(Phrenological Journal.) A London writer says, "the 'masher' is a fungus, not an honest mushroom, or even a respectable toadstool, but a wet, spongy, and unwholesome emanation from a rotten and poisonous soil, ridiculously overdressed, and starched up to the very eyelids, smothered like a girl in jewelry, decked out with flowers like a footman, idiotic in countenance, sparse in conversation, with a knobbed stick stuck in his hand, he has become an observed form of social evil." We hope this is sufficiently definite, although we might add, for the sake of the information of our querist, that a "masher" is a young gentleman who boasts of his remarkable powers of fascination over the ladies.

AN ALARMING DISEASE AFFLICTING A NUMEROUS CLASS.

The disease commences with a slight derangement of the stomach, but, if neglected, it in time involves the whole frame, embracing the kidneys, liver, pancreas, and, in fact, the entire glandular system, and the afflicted drags out a miserable existence until death gives relief from suffering. The disease is often mistaken for other complaints, but if the reader will ask himself the following questions, he will be able to determine whether he himself is one of the afflicted:—Have I distress, pain, or difficulty in breathing after eating? Is there a dull, heavy feeling attended by drowsiness? Have the eyes a yellow tinge? Does a thick, sticky, mucous gather about the gums and teeth in the mornings, accompanied by a disagreeable taste? Is the tongue coated? Is there pain in the side and back? Is there a fullness about the right side as if the liver were enlarged? Is there costiveness? Is there vertigo or dizziness when rising suddenly from a horizontal position? Are the secretions from the kidneys scanty and highly colored, with a deposit after standing? Does food ferment, soon after eating, accompanied by flatulence or a belching of gas from the stomach? Is there frequent palpitation of the heart? These various symptoms may not be present at one time, but they torment the sufferer in turn as the dread disease progresses. If the case be one of long standing, there will be a dry, hacking cough, attended after a time by expectoration. In very advanced stages the skin assumes a dirty brownish appearance, and the hands and feet are covered by a cold, sticky perspiration. As the liver and kidneys become more and more diseased, rheumatic pains appear, and the usual treatment proves entirely unavailing against this latter agonizing disorder. The origin of this malady is indigestion, dyspepsia, and a small quantity of the proper medicine will remove the disease if taken in its incipient stage. It is most important that the disease should be promptly and properly treated in its first stages, when a little medicine will effect a cure and even when it has obtained a strong hold the correct remedy should be persevered in until every vestige of the disease is removed, until the appetite has returned, and the digestive organs restored to a healthy condition. The surest and most effectual remedy for this distressing complaint is "Seigel's Curative Syrup," a vegetable preparation sold by all Chemists and Medicine Vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White Limited, 17, Faringdon Road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system.

Market Place, Pocklington, York, October 2nd, 1882.

Sir,—Being a sufferer for years with dyspepsia in all its worst forms, and after spending pounds in medicines, I was at last persuaded to try Mother Seigel's Curative Syrup, and am thankful to say have derived more benefit from it than any other medicine I ever took, and would advise any one suffering from the same complaint to give it a trial, the result they would soon find out for themselves. If you like to make use of this testimonial you are quite at liberty to do so.

Yours respectfully, (Signed) R. TURNER.

Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition. They cure costiveness.

St. Mary-street, Peterborough, November 29th, 1881.

Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the Syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I felt quite cured.

I am, Sir, yours truly, Mr. A. J. White. WILLIAM BRENT.

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16th, '82. Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health.—I remain, yours respectfully. (Signed) JOHN H. LIGHTFOOT. 15th August, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesburg, W. Va., informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life. Yours truly, N. WEBB, Chemist, Calne.

(Signed) N. WEBB, Chemist, Calne.

September 8th, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "Godsend to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence. Faithfully yours, (Signed) VICENT A. WILLS, Chemist, Dentist, Merthyr Tydfil.

To Mr. A. J. White.

Preston, Sept. 21st 1883.

My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible. The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it."

The sale keeps up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great.—I am dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) W. BOWKER.

By Jack Malone, he by Lexington, 1st dam, Ivy Leaf, by imported Australian; 2nd dam, Bay Flower, by Lexington; 3rd dam, Bay Leaf, by imported Yorkshire; 4th dam, Imported Maria Black, by Philo da Putah, etc., etc.

Bazaar was bred at the great Woodburn Farm, near Lexington, Ky., by the late R. A. Alexander, and was sold to W. L. Pritchard, of Sacramento, Cal., for $5,000. He stands 15 1/2 hands, weighs 1,065 lbs., and is a bright chestnut color. During his racing career he won many a favorite and won many a hatful of money for his owners, and proved himself one of the greatest of horses over a distance, most of his races being at two and four miles. He has already sired several colts in California that are winners, among which are Lizzie Dunbar, Young Bazaar, Sophia, and another called the Bazaar. Minerva Colt, he being out of Minerva by imported Leamington, the sire of Parole and Iroquois. Lizzie Dunbar greatly distinguished herself last year in her two-year-old form by defeating one of the largest fields of two-year-olds that ever started in California, among which were the two beautiful fillies brought here last Spring by Mr. Agnew, distance 3/4 mile; time, 1:04 1/2, the fastest time on record for two-year-olds at the distance. This year she has won several important events, and has proved herself to be a crack three-year-old.

Bazaar has now been brought back to Honolulu, and will remain here the balance of this year, and breeders, horse owners and stock raisers should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain his services while they have the chance. Terms, $10. Payable at time of service. The imported Clydesdale Stallion Donald Dinnie, Jr., will stand at the same time and place at $30 for the season. He was bred in Canada, sired by imported Donald Dinnie, and out of an imported Clydesdale mare. He is a beautiful dapple grey, 16 hands high, and weighs 1,400 lbs.; is very active, and as fine a large horse as could be found anywhere.

Also, the fine large imported Kentucky Jack Sampson. This is one of the largest Jacks that we could find in California, and is an animal of immense bone; is a very sure breeder, and should be liberally patronized, as he is one of the very best animals of his kind. Terms, $30 for the season. The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the above animals.
