THE ADVERTISER AND THE BANK CHARTER MEN.

It seems a matter of some difficulty for the Advertiser to exactly define its own position in regard to the Bank Charter business. While it is evidently in sympathy with the Bank Charter party, judging from its many flings at the leaders of the party opposed thereto, it would also have it understood that it is the friend of the workingmen and others representing the other side of the question—but conditionally, however. There must be no political question made of this thing, and it should be considered by both parties irrespective of party feeling. Spreckels may import strangers here, name the high offices they are to hold in the administration of government, make and unmake Cabinets according to his pleasure, as he has done on more than one occasion, in fact, may, with his few followers and subordinates, engineer all sorts of schemes for the political control of the country, but, his opposers—the whole community—must avoid political sentiment in the matter. "Only let us alone, gentlemen," is what the Advertiser would ask in favor of itself and its Bank Charter friends. This is all that any high-wayman would ever ask.

Not one word of spontaneous commendation has been uttered by the Advertiser in reference to the spirit and motives of those who have arrayed themselves against the Bank Charter and monopoly; but in this regard it has seen much to condemn, either openly or by covert innuendoes. Does the Advertiser for instance suppose for a moment that this community is so dull as not to comprehend its veiled sneer at the signers of the resolutions of the Lyceum meeting, when it offers as an excuse for its neglect to publish a list of the same, the inability of its staff to properly decipher the names of the signers. But the intended sting is left for the tail end of the last sentence of the paragraph referred to, where attention is called to the fact "that it was covered with names, comprising Chinese, Hawaiians and foreigners." "Chinese" with a big "C" are to be distinguished from foreigners with a small "f," as the most prominent signers. Messrs. cousins of the monopoly gang we would tenderly advise you that the country here is too small to make a success of hunting with the hounds and running with the hare.

THE BANK CHARTER AS A POLITICAL QUESTION.

The Advertiser is in rather a peculiar position. Its public spirited proprietor wants to make the thing "pay." He wants to stand well with the community at large, and at the same time does not wish to break with the powers that be. He is between two fires, and talks his prettiest against the monopolists one day, and ridicules and insults the opposition the next. The new importation has not yet got into harness evidently, and is not sure of his ground.

He talks about a "workingmen's movement," and "the Bank Charter must not be made a political question."

When the new editor of the Tiser has lived here long enough to know what he is talking about, he will know that a so-called "workingmen's movement" is something unheard of here. He appears to be particularly anxious that the discussion of the Bank Charter "shall be kept apart from politics." Perhaps he will be kind enough to inform the public what it means by "politics" in such a connection, and how the discussion of the most important matter now awaiting Legislative action is to be "kept apart" therefrom.

What his definition of a "political question" is, we do not know. Being just from the land of Democrats and Republicans, where the passage or rejection of a bill depends not upon its merits, but upon the strength of the party backing it, he probably thinks that there is a party here which is opposing the Bank Charter upon no real ground, but simply because a different political party is interested in its passage. To a certain extent he is right. There has been a party line drawn on this bill. The party who wishes its passage is Claus Spreckels. His backers are the men in his employ, in his power, and those who do not dare to offend him. The other party is constituted of this whole community, irrespective of nationality, profession, trade or political opinion.

How can a question be any less political in its treatment than this? In what manner would the Advertiser have action taken? The simple fact is that the Advertiser has brought over a couple of stale phrases which have no application here, and has not enough originality to discuss the question upon its merits.

THE REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

This important report was presented to the Legislature yesterday. It is one long indictment of the Ministry. Such a mass of dishonest jobbery and reckless expenditure of trust moneys has never before been known in the history of the country. Gross mismanagement, incompetency, carelessness, and for the first time in the history of the nation, defalcation and manipulation of the public business for the private gain of Cabinet Ministers. The report is so full of items deserving of censure that an adequate idea of the extent of the corruption and mismanagement which has run riot under Mr. Gibson's fostering care, during the past two years, can be obtained only by reading the whole report.

The boldest defiance and disregard of the law has been shown by all the Ministers, more especially by Mr. Gibson and Mr. Bush. The law in express words forbids the transfer of funds from one appropriation to another, in the same department even, but Mr. Gibson and his colleagues have not hesitated to draw from any and every appropriation which suited their purposes, even drawing money, in one instance, from the Attorney General's department to pay for the battery lately imported. Another most glaring violation of the law is the use of receipts from sales of Government property, for running expenses, without their ever being paid into the Treasury.

The cost to the country of entertaining the Japanese embassy was $5,149. The furniture used by them and the coronation buildings were sold, but instead of the receipts being paid into the Treasury as a Government realization, they were without warrant, bodily paid over towards coronation expenses. The appropriation for Coronation expenses was $10,000, and every dollar expended for that purpose over and above that amount was a violation of trust and illegal. The coronation cost $33,223. Besides the regular appropriation, $10,985 were taken from the appropriation for receptions and incidentals; $3,837 from receipts for sales of furniture and buildings; and there are now outstanding liabilities for $8,399.

Under this appropriation, F. H. Hayselden has turned an honest penny by selling the Government 7 turkeys, at $3.50 each; a bill also appears for two pair of corsets and a bustle; which department of the Government were they does not appear. The Committee say "the items struck us as rather extraordinary, but we note that they met with the unqualified approval of the Auditor-General."

In the Immigration office, confusion is worse confounded. $209,286 have been collected, and $172,022 disbursed without a book of accounts, the only evidence of such transaction, being contained in loose sheets of journal paper, and moreover, these transactions have been "without the warrants of the appropriation act, and in direct opposition to the terms of the act to regulate the receipt custody and issue of public moneys." As a result of this method of doing business, the Secretary of the Board of Immigration cannot make his accounts balance by $5,962, and although he has checked back his accounts, can find no error and can give no explanation. The Board of Health also, had no set of books. The report says:

"The ledger submitted for our inspection by the Secretary had evidently been prepared for the occasion * * * and on calling for the original, a book was produced by the late Secretary F. H. Hayselden, which showed numerous erasures and interlineations, and only occasional footings, and those in pencil."

In the Interior Department, rascality and incompetence are the predominant features. Investigation shows that Jno. E. Bush overdraw his salary $500, although he denies it. The appropriation for incidentals has been overdrawn $1,116, and well it might be when we find $470 paid for carriage hire, and $185 paid for private telephones of Ministers. Concerning the appropriation for roads, bridges and Government buildings, the report says, "your committee find that the manner in which contracts were made and approved for many of these things must be characterized as disgraceful." After citing a number of instances the report says, "in view of the manner in which the contracts were awarded and the facts connected therewith, they do not see how they can avoid the conclusion that these contracts would not have been awarded at such prices unless some profit accrued therefrom to the Minister who signed them."

We will take up the report in detail hereafter.

THE LEGISLATURE

Mr. Dole moved that the report be made special order of the day for Thursday next.

Minister Gibson said he would second the motion, still he was ready this afternoon to answer the charges made in the report. The members should have time to read the report through thoroughly.

Mr. Kalua said he had made up his mind about the report, and thought the Ministry ought to be censured. Mr. Gibson says he is quite ready, and so am I. Mr. Dole's motion was carried.

Mr. Pilipo, from the Committee on Printing, reported the following bills printed:

- An Act to regulate the use of intoxicating liquors.
- An Act to increase the Judges of the Supreme Court.
- An Act to abolish the Intermediary Court, Oahu.

Minister Neumann reported from Select Committee on the bill relating to registration and identification of Chinese, that it would be unconstitutional, and cause conflict between His Majesty's and other countries, and recommend it be indefinitely postponed. Report adopted. Also on a petition referred to the Attorney General, relating to the slaughter houses owned by Mr. Waller at Kailua, that no action is necessary, as proper action will be taken by the Attorney General and Board of Health. Report adopted.

Minister Gulick reported in answer to a petition for a special mail service between Waikapu and Wailuku, Maui, that the Postmaster General would visit those places after the session of the Legislature, and make all arrangements if necessary. Report accepted. Also a report on the present condition of Oahu Jail, that the strictest investigation had been made, and yesterday Sunday, at noon, it was found necessary to relieve every official in the jail, and it is now in the temporary charge of the Deputy Sheriff and a body of police; and further investigation will be carried on.

Mr. Kalua was much gratified at the promptness of the Minister in this matter. The report was adopted.

Mr. W. O. Smith read, first time, a bill to appoint a Board of Prison Inspectors. Read second time by its title and ordered to engrossment, and will be read a third time on Wednesday.

Minister Neumann gave notice of a bill to amend Section 911 of the Civil Code, relating to Police Justices.

Mr. Kaulukou read, first time, a bill to amend Section 198 of the Civil Code, relating to public markets. Read a second time by its title.

The House adjourned at 4:35 p. m.

TUESDAY, JUNE 17.

The House assembled at 10 a. m. After prayer by the Chaplain, the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

Mr. Kaunamano offered a resolution that the Sergeant-at-Arms furnish the members with 150 two cents postage stamps. Carried.

The honorable member also gave notice of a bill to regulate the Police Department. On suspension of the rules, the bill was read a first time, and then a second time by its title and referred to Special Committee of Thirteen.

Mr. Nawahi read, first time, a bill relating to the construction of rail-ways within the districts of Hilo and Hamakua, Hawaii. Read a second time by its title and referred to the following Select Committee: Nawahi, Widemann, Wilder, Hitchcock and W. O. Smith.

Mr. Hitchcock offered a resolution that the Minister of Foreign Affairs state what fees have been received by the Consuls at the following places: London, Liverpool, Madeira, Hongkong, Tokio, San Francisco, New York and Boston. Carried.

Mr. Pilipo from Committee on Printing, reported the bill relating to currency and the report of the President of the Bureau of Immigration as printed.

Mr. Kalua read first time a bill to amend Sections 1419 and 1420 of the Civil Code, relating to contract laborers. Read a second time by its title and referred to Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Nahinu read first time a bill to amend Section 1, Chapter 23 of the laws of 1872, relating to marriage contracts. Read a second time by its title and referred to Judiciary Committee.

At 12 o'clock the House took a recess until 1 p. m.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Can you inform me through the medium of your valuable journal, how, where and when Mr. Claus Spreckels obtained the idea which pervades every line of that extraordinary piece of arrogance entitled "an act to incorporate the Hawaiian National Bank," viz. that the citizens of the Hawaiian Islands are a parcel of imbeciles who will childishly, with a little peevish display of illtemper perhaps, but nevertheless, childishly, submit to be bound hand and foot in the fetters of an omnipotent monopoly! Mr. Spreckels may be a shrewd man, but if he thinks that when he has captured the ring, and the cabinet, and even the Legislature, he has captured the country, he evinces a sad lack of knowledge of the stuff that Anglo-Saxons are made of; I wonder if he ever heard of the "Boston Tea Party" where men, whose descendants many of us are proud to call ourselves, protested by an act of overt violence—call it an illegal act if you will—against what simply against taxation without representation, and that act of violence, illegal through it was, has redounded to the honor of those men, and of the people they represented in every land where liberty is known. The people of Hawaii are protesting from one end of the country to the other, so far in an orderly and lawful manner, against the granting of vast and unheard of privileges to an ambitious man, which cannot but result in making him the commercial autocrat of the realm, and in grinding them beneath the iron heel of monopoly. And well may they protest; and if verbal protests fail to protect them, they will have no option but to defend their heaven-given and constitutional rights by following in the footsteps of the heroes of Boston. If the Legislature and the King wish to have all the business of the country, commercial and agricultural, entrusted to one soulless corporation; if they would take pleasure in seeing one big shark gobble up all the other fish in the "eight seas;" if they would see all competition paralysed, and this country converted into a Spreckels' ranch and its inhabitants into a herd of cattle owned soul and body by Spreckels, then let them enact this bill and be prepared to take the consequences. For consequences there will be of the direst nature, the end of which no man can tell.

The "Act to incorporate the Hawaiian National Monopoly" is deeper than it appears on the surface. It will overshadow and smother every independent business and industry, and no man who is not a servant of the corporation will be able to live on the islands if the universal franchise is granted. No member of the Legislative Assembly can vote for the bill without becoming a traitor to his country, and the King cannot sign it if he retains a spark of genuine patriotism in his breast.

PLANTER.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Your daily morning contemporary, in referring to the bank bill, says, "No measure so gravely affecting the public interest should receive consideration from the Legislature unless it be introduced as a Government Bill. The true theory of responsible Government as understood in other countries where Cabinet Ministers are also members of the Legislature demands this." It may be a matter of small moment to us, but it is just as well to be correctly informed. In countries with parliamentary Government, Ministries are expected to meet parliament with a definite policy and to be prepared with measures for consideration, on the success or failure of which they stand or fall; but neither the theory nor the practice of "responsible Government as understood in other countries where Cabinet Ministers are also members of the Legislature" demands that every measure "gravely affecting the public interest" should be "introduced as a Government Bill." It has sometimes happened that very weighty measures, most gravely affecting the public interest, have been originated and introduced by private members, of which the parliamentary records of Great Britain and her Colonies furnish ample proof.

R. L.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—Have the writers of the Saturday Press any opinions of their own?—or, are they afraid to express them? One would think that when a special reporter is sent by a newspaper to report for its readers any special event, that the opinions relative thereto, should be those of the paper itself expressed in a definite manner, and not merely a rehearsal of the respective opinions of parties opposed to each other. When a newspaper man goes to report a horse race, for instance, it is to be supposed that he will be competent to form an opinion, and courageous enough to express it. It is the opinion of such, and not the squabbling of interested parties, that the public wants to know. The public generally knows what is "claimed on the one hand, and on the other," without being told these facts through the newspaper. This style of dealing with questions, is what detracts largely from the force of journalistic opinion; and there are other matters of vastly more importance than horse-racing, that are too often treated in this way.

FAIR PLAY.

The Temple of Fashion is situated on Fort street in Campbell's block, and by reference to our advertising columns our readers will see that a large variety of goods may be found at this establishment. They have just received over a thousand boys linen suits, so appropriate for this climate, also Percalé shirts, unlaundered white shirts, and a large assortment of boys sailor hats. If you want to look nobby, get one of their new style of dress suits, in fact everything required in the gentleman's furnishing line is kept by this house.

THERE will be a "Roll call and experience Meeting" at Fort Street Church to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at which all the members of the church are requested to be present.

EVERY official in the Oahu Jail has been dismissed by Marshal Parke, and the jail is in temporary charge of the Deputy Sheriff and a body of police. This is the result of a searching investigation, which has disclosed a terrible state of affairs.

An old grey-headed native probably in his nineties, passed our office yesterday carrying a long bamboo stick with two small baskets attached to either end. His loins were covered with tapa cloth, while round his shoulders was wrapped an American flag.

It is not likely that there will be any combined concert by the Royal Hawaiian Band and that of the Swiftsure. Our Bandmaster is willing and quite ready, but Mr. Bird, the Swiftsure's Bandmaster seems to think it would give him a lot of trouble so asks to be left alone.

THE portrait of Her Majesty Queen Kapiolani, painted by Mr. Furneaux, is without question, the finest portrait ever seen in Honolulu. Mr. Furneaux has fairly outdone himself, and everyone who can appreciate fine work, should pay a visit to Williams, the photographers, where it is on exhibition.

THE following are the officers elected for an organization to be known as the Scandinavian Union, of which mention has been made before in our columns: President, D. A. Fornander; Vice-President for Oahu, C. Hammer; Vice-President for Kauai, A. Faye; Secretary, J. H. Hoeck; Treasurer, H. W. Schmidt.

YESTERDAY while His Majesty paid a visit to Waterhouse's King Street Store, a heathen Chinese came in and inquired of the King instead of addressing himself to the manager of the store, what he would sell English $5.00 gold pieces for. Rex replied that he had no sovereigns for sale and directed the Chinaman to Bishop & Co's. A queer idea to ask a King what he will sell sovereigns for!

THE report of the Finance Committee discloses only a few of the iniquities of the present administration, other items "too numerous to mention" had to be left unnoticed. The Advertiser and Elite (which papers received such an unprecedented patronage from the Government amounting to $18000 and over) were sent to all the young Hawaiians that are being educated abroad, and the subscription paid in advance from the appropriation for education. Why poison the youthful mind at public expense.

A CURIOUS find was made this morning at the mud dredge. The dredge is at work near the Oceanic Steamship wharf, in 28 feet of water. As the bucket came to the surface a small book was observed sticking in the mud; upon washing off the dirt it proved to be a "Manual of Phonography" by Isaac Pitman. It has a gilt edge binding and lettering, and with the exception of the covers and a few pages is as dry, and in as good condition as ever. Upon an inside page is inscribed "W. J. Ray 1871" this has been erased, and on the fly leaf there appears "H. A. Bailey, East Stoke Vicarage Newark, October 1878. The owner can have the book by calling for it. Probably it was dropped overboard from some steamer.

DISHONEST FOES OF ELECTRIC LIGHTING.

It seems to us that the opponents of electric lighting and the advocates of gas or oil lighting, must be very sorely pushed when they can publish such wholesale falsehoods and misrepresentations as we find in the Alta California of San Francisco, April 28, and in another paper, whose name we have not learned, but one of whose tangled misstatements is now before us.

We do not care, as a rule, to give much of our space to these onslaughts upon the electric light, but it may be as well to show how violent, unscrupulous and bitter some of them are. The Alta California says: "A little inquiry reveals the fact that electric lighting has not been found a success in other large cities."

The most wanton and impertinent misrepresentation is that in which Mr. W. H. Preece's valuable paper on "The Progress of Electric Lighting," read before the English Society of Arts on March 5, is made by the Alta California to be "the coup de grace to the electric light for street purposes."

Mr. Preece's paper, he it noted, is on the progress of the right. While it condemns the immoralities of recent electric light financing in England, it is cheerful and optimistic from beginning to end. Mr. Preece says: "Electric lighting is a pronounced success," and he goes on to show what a success it is in spite of an Act of Parliament that is soon to be modified as detrimental to the public good.

The best lighted street in the city of London is the Holborn Viaduct.  It is remarkable how the use of electricity is growing in favor with theatre managers.  Our new Law Courts are admirably lighted, and some of the judges have said that the electric light is the only good thing in this new Palace of Justice.  Indeed, restaurants, hotels, and public buildings, are all testifying to the fact that I am so anxious to bring before you, that electric lighting is a decided success, for they are using it. How is that for a "coup de grace?" Mr. Preece is also made to say that the electric light is a luxury that must be paid for. What he said was, that at present, for household purposes, it may be a luxury, but that people would have it because it is "safe, healthy, pure, soft and natural."

Moreover, as to economy: "Any comparison between gas and electricity on this basis is unfair, because gas is produced in quantities sufficient to supply hundreds of thousands of lamps, while the largest electric light station yet erected does not light up 10,000 lamps.  Nevertheless, the cost of supplying electricity now is far less than was the cost of supplying gas in the early days of its introduction."

We think we have quoted enough from Mr. Preece to show that the eminent electrician is not altogether the "Daniel come to judgment," in the way that the two San
