GOOD NEWS FOR NAVY BOYS

COUNTY GOVERNMENT MAY BE MENACED

The ordinance which is being prepared for passage by the Board of Supervisors in relation to the tearing up of the streets by corporations may have far-reaching effects, which may undo a great amount of work that has been done in advancing local government in the Territory. As previously reported in this paper the Mutual Telephone Company has taken action looking to resistance of municipal control over its laying of conduits and erecting of poles. The important question which may be brought up is the extent of the power of the Legislature to "modify" the powers of the Superintendent of Public Works. It is possible that a test case, if taken to the United States Supreme Court, might nullify the acts of the recent Legislature in extending the powers of the counties. Whether the Legislature has the right to create a substitute jurisdictional authority for that which has been created by act of Congress will be the question. It is understood that Attorney Abe Lewis, who represents the Mutual Telephone Company, is investigating the matter with a view to bringing it into the local courts.

READY FOR GRADING

RAPID TRANSIT WILL ADVERTISE FOR BIDS ON WORK FOR PEARL HARBOR LINE.

Specifications are being prepared for the job of grading the right of way of the Rapid Transit Company from its present terminus at the base of the Fort Shafter hill to Pearl Harbor. The company will advertise for bids on this work and will not handle the job themselves. This will be done in the very near future. President L. Tenney Peck of the Rapid Transit stated this morning that all the machinery had been purchased and that a large part of it was already on hand. He said that everything was going along very favorably.

SUICIDE DELAYED FOR FOUR DAYS

Take Deguchi, Japanese woman, is dead as the result of poison administered by her own hand. She died yesterday, though she took the corrosive sublimate last Saturday.

Her husband and another man were great chums and while the husband was busy away from home as a seafaring man, the chum annexed the wife. The husband became aware of the facts and the woman so felt the shame of discovery that she took from a doctor's house, where she was working, the poison referred to. When it was found that she had poisoned herself, a Japanese doctor was called and it was thought, after the use of a pump, that her life had been saved. But the effect of the poison on the tissues was such as to produce death yesterday. There will be no inquest.

Have your typewriter, cash registers and adding machines repaired by the Office Supply Co. They have a complete repair department for this work.

M'CANDESS SAYS OTHERS DID POLITICS

"Link" McCandless this morning offered his "come back" to the proposition that he was doing politics on the recent Congressional trip. "You can quote me," he said, "as wanting to know whether the appropriation for the Congressional visit was made for the purpose of boosting Kuhl's campaign. Nearly all the Republican Congressmen gave him a boost whenever they spoke.

"I deny that I did any politics in any offensive way. All I did on the trip was to discuss land and other matters. The Congressmen were here seeking information, and I was only doing what was right in giving them whatever views and information I had."

ESTATE OF MRS. BRINCKERHOFF

The inventory of the estate of Mrs. Nellie White Brinckerhoff was filed in the Circuit Court this morning, the total valuation of the property being placed at $223,633.32. Of this amount there is but very little located in Honolulu, the larger part of the property being investments in municipal and railroad bonds in the East. The only items in this Territory are the personal property and household effects here which are worth $10,000 according to the estimate and 544 shares of Ewa stock, worth $15,776, with $951.40 in cash in one of the local banks.

The estate is summarized in value as follows: Personal and household effects, $10,000; bonds, $118,651.25; stocks, $23,786; savings banks, $3,264.64; $3,645 in cash and a seventh interest in the firm of Nelson D. White & Sons, valued at $64,285. The property, with the exception of a few thousand dollars, left in gifts to friends and relatives, goes to Dr. Walter Brinckerhoff of this city, according to the terms of the will.

MR. JUDD'S VACATION.

When the Mongolia leaves for the Coast she will carry A. F. Judd, of this city, who is bound for the mainland on a trip which will take from two to four months. He plans to go back as far as Boston and will also take in the Seattle Exposition and several of the livestock shows in the Northwest. Since it is his first trip for a vacation for ten years, Mr. Judd is looking forward to a very pleasant time.

COTTON BULLETIN.

"Insects of Cotton in Hawaii, by David T. Fullaway, entomologist," is the title of Bulletin No. 18 of Hawaii Agricultural Experiment Station. Its issuance when the cultivation of coffee has been just barely started shows how closely the Experiment Station is keeping up with the cause of diversified industries for Hawaii.

OLD TIME MINSTREL.

There will be a regular old time minstrel show at the Orpheum tonight. The first part will consist of the regular circle with bones, tambos and interloctor. The regular jokes will be sprung and also plenty of songs, dances and specialties introduced throughout. Moving pictures and a musical comedy will complete a full evening's entertainment.

INNOCENTS FOR SALE

POLICE INVESTIGATING IMPORTATION OF COUNTRY GIRLS BY HONOLULU MEN.

R. W. Condon appeared in police court this morning to answer to the charge of maintaining a disorderly house, arrests having been effected in this matter by Chief of Detectives Joe Leal who, for some time, has been working up evidence against a system in the red light district which a little while ago was unknown. Condon's case was deferred until Wednesday next.

According to the findings of the police, the restrictions placed on an unauthorized element of the community abiding beyond the region of the Territorial and County jails, have wound up in the venture of certain men who are bringing to Honolulu from the country districts of other islands young Hawaiian girls to lead shameful lives. There were never before any Hawaiian girls in the red light district.

This morning in police court two of the girls arrested in Condon's place were sent to jail for thirty days for vagrancy, that is, having no visible means of support.

When the place was discovered by Leal, the Chief set Officer Apana on watch and Apana was threatened with bodily violence unless he removed himself from the veranda of the premises. Apana, however, stuck to his duty, being armed, and threatened to bore a hole through anybody who laid a hand on him.

KEEP TO THE RIGHT

MOUNTED PATROLMAN ENFORCING NEW CITY TRAFFIC ORDINANCE—MUST STAND RIGHT.

Keep to the right, head to the right and stand to the right! Such is the rule under the new City and County traffic ordinance in regard to horses and vehicles, and today there was in evidence a mounted patrolman of King, Fort, Nuuanu and other central city streets, riding up and down to enforce the rule.

Every vehicle must not only keep to the right side of the street while moving, but when it is not in motion it must be standing with the right side wheels against the curbstone. Any buggy, dray, express, milk, meat or other wagon, carriage, automobile, pushcart or saddle horse caught heading the wrong way is at once the signal for the watchful mounted patrolman to seek out the driver or owner and make them "face the other way."

Between Fort and Bethel streets early this forenoon, on King street, the solitary police horseman made probably two dozen drivers turn their rights about.

Supervisor Jim Quinn rode up to a barber shop on Hotel street, mounted on a fine bit of horseflesh, and went inside to get his face massaged, leaving his horse heading the wrong way, that is, with its port side alongside the sidewalk, but the mounted patrolman did not catch him.

MAILE GETS GOOD VALUE

INTERESTING SALE OF LAND ON PAUAAHI STREET AS RESULT OF SUPREME COURT DECISION.

An interesting result of the suit of C. B. Maile vs. Henry Van Giesen which has been commented on through recent citation in contempt of the defendant before the Territorial Supreme Court and its subsequent dismissal, was seen today in the sale of land by Maile to the Robert Love Estate. The amount refunded by Maile as the result of the decision that the price paid was inadequate was $64,40, which included several years' interest. This was for three lots of land. One of these alone, sold as above mentioned to the Robert Love Estate, brought $1800. The land mentioned is located on Pauaahi street near Smith and is 244 square feet in size.

WOMAN BEATEN BY JEALOUS TRIO

Malgara Barbosa and Antonia Silva, two women, together with Martin Sal, an alleged man, are under arrest for assault and battery on a woman whose name is recorded in the police books as Lena Robero.

The two females and one male beat up the lonely Lena, declaring that Lena was trying to steal the husband of Antonia and was also interfering in the love affairs of Malgara.

Martin is the husband of neither of the assaulting women, though he is a sort of a private secretary for Malgara.

The beating occurred in the Winston block which too often proves a cave of cussedness.

HOW TO PREVENT BLOOD POISON.

Carelessness and neglect are the chief causes of blood poisoning. A cut or bruise, however slight, should have immediate attention. A good liniment and one that not only gives prompt relief from pain, but being anti-septic, heals the wound without maturation, is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When this remedy is applied all danger from blood poisoning is avoided. For sale by all dealers, Denison, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

PROFESSOR AVERS POLE
COVERS EXTENSIVE AREA

BERKELEY, Sept. 7.—That both
Dr. Frederick A. Cook and Commander Robert E. Peary could have reached the north pole and yet have seen no trace of one another was the declaration of Henry W. Stager of the mathematics department of the University of California to his class in trigonometry this morning. He devoted the greater part of the period set for the lecture to the double discovery of the boreal center by the American explorers.
The pole, he said, could not have been accurately determined by the scientists or reduced to a mathematical certainty. The two explorers could therefore have been approximately near the pole and have discovered it without either finding a trace of the other.
"More than 1000 men could have taken an observation at the pole," declared Stager, "and found that their instruments showed that the latitude is 90 degrees and the longitude 0 and yet not finding themselves on the spot occupied by another. On account of the irregularity of the earth, the so-called north pole is quite an extensive area and the instruments inside this district would all indicate the boreal center where every direction is south. I do not believe that the north pole can be definitely located on one spot."

Dr. T. R. Crawford of the department of astronomy also devoted his time during his lecture to a discussion of Peary's discovery following closely upon that of Cook. He said that the methods used by the explorers in making the observation would alone be the test of the veracity of their statements. The usual method, he explained, was by measuring the horizon, but at sea mercury is used.
This, he said, would freeze in a climate such as 17 degrees below zero that Cook is said to have encountered.
Doctor Crawford concluded his lecture asserting that the statements of the explorers would have to be relied on largely as the truth, as the discovery of the north pole could not be proved to a certainty.

CONGRESSMEN
ARE BANQUETED

Somewhere around 150 guests sat down at the banquet of the Chamber of Commerce to the visiting Congressmen at the Alexander Young hotel last night. National and Territorial flags were tastefully displayed in the banqueting room.
William G. Irwin presided at the table of honor, seated with him there being Hon. Richard Bartholdt of St.
Louis, dean of the Congressional party,
Governor Frear, Rear Admiral Sebrée,
U. S. N., Col. Walter S. Schuyler, U. S.
A., Consul General Uyeno, of Japan,
Consul General Tseng Hai, of China, Delegate Kalaniana'ole, Bishop Restar-ick and Federal Judge Woodruff.
A choice menu, in which Hawaiian products figured largely, was served and the Hawaiian band performed a standard program.
L. Tenney Peck was toastmaster. His introductions were replete with information. This was the toast list: "The President," Congressman Bartholdt;
"The Congress," Congressman Scott;
"The Navy," Admiral Sebrée; "The Army," Congressman H. O. Young;
"Commerce," Congressman McLachlan;
"Hawaii," Governor Frear and Congressman Humphreys.
Mr. Bartholdt made general remarks on the position of the "mightiest chief magistrate in all the world" and concluded with these words: "Abraham Lincoln put a stop to man-selling, and the civilized world now looks to William H. Taft to set the pace in a humane effort to stop man-killing and thus inaugurate, amidst the plaudits and blessings of all mankind, an era of more permanent peace. We rejoice in the possession of a President who is a great jurist and who, we know, will prove equal to all responsibilities as we, as to all legitimate expectations and will add new lustre to the American name the world over."
Mr. Scott upheld the good name of Congress, which he believed they represented the magnificent nation of 90,000,000 people.
Admiral Sebrée complimented the personnel of the enlisted men of the navy. The average age of the men in his command was twenty-three years and he was glad that today's navy was composed of young men.
When they went back to civil life after four years of service he believed they were better citizens.
Mr. Young believed Hawaii should be made an impregnable outpost. AP-proportions for Hawaii's harbors should be more liberal than for mainland harbors. Harbors were nothing without ships. Nine-tenths of the nation favored a ship subsidy. That is what Hawaii should work for, rather than experiment upon some untried method to obtain relief.

Mr. McLachlan urged the improvement of internal transportation and complimented the enterprise seen in great irrigation works in this Territory. He had assisted Delegate Kalaniana'ole in obtaining $500,000 for Honolulu harbor and $800,000 for the Hilo breakwater and now believed in still larger appropriations for the development of these ports. Let the coastwise laws be suspended to better passenger facilities, but not until every other method was exhausted.
The speaker was enthusiastically applauded when he expressed the hope that Prince Kuhlo would consent to be returned to Congress.
Governor Frear discussed Hawaiian conditions, giving many statistics, also the homestead problem. As the goose that laid the golden egg, the sugar industry should be conserved in tension of the Reclamation Act to Hawaii was a vital necessity in order to all schemes of development. The ex-develop large areas for homesteading.

GEORGE F. HENSHALL, MANAGER

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1909

The candidacy of L. L. McCandless for delegate to Congress in the next campaign is already as good as formally announced, and his campaign is under way. We have not observed that the Republicans have shown much sign, yet, of getting together.

THE CONDITION CONFRONTING HAWAII.

One of Grover Cleveland's famous phrases might well be applied to our steamship discussion. We have to consider a condition, not a theory. The theory of retaining all the present protection to American shipping, finds plenty of support, but quite evidently American shipping, unsubsidized, will not respond, whether it can or not. The oft quoted statements of Manager Schwerin and others, that the Pacific Mail boats are run at a loss and have been for years, do not appeal to intelligent men. The great railroad system of which it is a part, has not such a reputation as to make people ready to believe that it would run any steamers at a loss for sentimental or patriotic reasons. Of course the steamship records might well show a loss considered alone, but as tributary to the continental railroad system, they probably were found worth while. They probably are still. So they will probably keep on running. The other steamer lines operating here are unquestionably making profits. In the matters of both passengers and freight, the steamers leave here and arrive loaded to the limit. Perhaps suspension of the coastwise laws might bring about a competition that would make them wake up and try to handle the business, if it were provided that they should have the protection back again as soon as able to handle it, or in other words, that the President might restore the coastwise regulations at his discretion. Wouldn't that be about the same principle as the maximum and minimum tariff proposition?

Victoria keeps up her wonderful record as a pipe dream center. Nothing has ever been like Victoria except Mole St. Nicholas in the Spanish war and the Shanghai liar of the Boxer days. News of all parts of the world originates in Victoria. The cable of this morning, that 500,000 Russians are being massed in Siberia, is plausible enough, but it does seem strange that the news didn't leak out somewhere a bit nearer to the five hundred thousand.

Mr. Gifford Pinchot appears to have tackled the wrong man.

Our nation annexed the Hawaiian Islands, announced a policy of Americanizing them, and then proceeded to enforce laws preventing Americans from getting to them.

THE TRAGEDY OF HARRIMAN.

There is something very tragic in the death of Harriman just when he appeared to be achieving the greatest railroad combination ever planned and just when he had become the biggest railroad man on earth. He represented a type that is probably soon to disappear from American life. "Harriman owns and controls everything from religion to the telephone service in Arden," said a press dispatch some days before his death, adding in explanation that, when he decided to make the place his home, Harriman bought not only the home he wanted himself, but the surrounding farms as well, leaving the former owners to work for him as tenants. From the seclusion of this American dukedom, he made a statement to the press, the full text of which has just arrived here:

"I am pursuing the course laid out before I went abroad and advised by the physicians. I intended taking a rest as soon as my responsibilities would permit.

"My treatment abroad reduced my strength and vitality and weakened my digestion. The most expert physicians in Munich advised me to have an examination by surgeons as a matter of precaution.

"This has been done very carefully by Drs. Brewer and Crile in conjunction with Dr. Walter James and Dr. Lyle. The whole result is that they find nothing serious.

"They renew the advice previously obtained that I should have rest and not see many people at one time. This I am trying to do. This covers the whole case.

"Later on, if the representatives of the press desire, and there is any purpose to be accomplished, I will see them up here.

"But now I ask that the surveillance of the operations of my home be withdrawn, not so much on account of my family or myself, but that the coming and going of my friends may not be interfered with.

"I appreciate the interest shown in my welfare by the press and by friends in all sections, and perhaps by some others. If there was or should be anything serious I will let the press know.

"As I have never deceived them, I ask that the press now withdraw its representatives and rely upon me."

This, of course, was palpably addressed to Wall street. It was Wall street to the end with Harriman. In a few days came the relapse and he died a victim to overwork. It is a poor reward for his devotion from the age of 14 to stocks and bonds and railroad building. And, incidentally, it is a poor advertisement for that famous German beer treatment. Harriman is more likely to live in history as one of those whom Roosevelt called an undesirable citizen than in any other way, and the system he sought to create, if it is finally created by some successor, will be made only to be demolished as soon as the people realize what it means.

The feature in stock circles today lik the rest of the year. Even after an announcement that Onomea four months of such enormous dividend increase its dividend to four cents have been paid, the plantation per cent a month, beginning with the will have a surplus with which to begin next dividend period, and keep up the gin the new year. There are several reasons for the big profit at Onomea, the principal one, however, being that the crop has exceeded the estimate by about 2,000 tons, or an extra profit of from $125,000 to $140,000. This thoroughly explains the sudden advance of this stock a few days ago.

Another interesting item on 'Change this morning was the announcement that Hawaiian Agricultural would increase its dividend from one to two per cent a month, this to be kept up the rest of the year. Even after paying out this large amount in profits, this plantation will have a surplus of about $150,000 at the first of the coming year. The outlook for Hawaiian Agricultural was never better. For the stock $205 was bid this morning but holders demanded $240.

Waialua held its own today, although there was no trading. The bidding was at $115.75, holders asking $116. The stock is regarded as strong at the latter figure.

On the boards five shares of Ewa sold at $30.25. Bidding was at $30, the stock being held at $30.50.

A bond sale made between was $1,000 Redney at $101.

On the boards ten shares Oahu found a buyer at $32. Demand is not great for the stock at that figure, although holders are firm.

Two small blocks of 5 and 5 shares Hawaiian Commercial sold at $33.625. Later, bidding was at $33.75, holders asking $34.

THE HAWAII POSTER.

Harry M. Mist's design of a poster for the 1910 Floral Parade has arrived from Desden and is on exhibition at the rooms of the Hawaii Promotion Committee. Opinions in regard to it seem to be extreme—that is to say, the poster is either a superior work of art or an almost unintelligible assemblage of colors, according as the student looks at it. Anyway, the view is of a Hawaiian girl astride of a white horse, wearing a malle streamer and carrying a banner upon which is the

Why does the FRANKLIN win all the important economy contests and outclass all other automobiles in reliability trials, if it is not the most economical, most efficient and strongest automobile made?

1909 FRANKLIN RECORD CONTEST

HARRISBURG RELIABILITY AND ENDURANCE TEST.—Franklin Model D won the Governor's Trophy, the highest award of the contest. In this run the Franklin's nearest competitor had 96 points penalization.

NEW YORK AUTOMOBILE TRADE ASSOCIATION ONE-GALLON MILEAGE CONTEST.—The Franklin won its class prize, also grand prize, and established a world's economy record by carrying the greatest load the greatest distance on one gallon of gasoline.

PITTSBURG ENDURANCE RUN.—Franklin Model D was the only automobile to make the run of 450 miles without penalization for repairs or adjustments.

WORCESTER RELIABILITY TRIAL.—Franklin Model D won the only perfect score. The technical examination after the contest eliminated thirteen contestants who had clean road scores.

CLEVELAND ENDURANCE AND ECONOMY CONTEST.—Franklin Model D won the highest award. It had a perfect road score and also the lowest gasoline consumption.

CHICAGO 1000-MILE RELIABILITY TEST.—Franklin Model D won a perfect score. The technical examination after the contest caused the penalization of many entrants.

BRETTON WOODS RELIABILITY RUN.—Franklin Model D won a perfect score. In this run it was the only 1909 stock model that was shipped direct from the factory to the contest route. It went through the 1600-mile grind without a single adjustment.

GLIDDEN TOUR.—Franklin Model D and Model H both won perfect scores. In this contest they were acknowledged to be the easiest-riding of all motor-cars, and they had no tire trouble.

All of which proves that an automobile constructed so that it rides easily is the best automobile mechanically and the most reliable, that great weight is not necessary for strength, that Franklin non-jarring construction and light weight mean comfort, economy and safety, that the Franklin air-cooled engine is without a rival for efficient work and staying power.

Wife Wants Good Riddance

Nannie Thomas Harris has entered suit against Joseph Emory Harris for divorce. Harris is the "bad nigger" whom the local authorities thought they were rid of when he was allowed to ship for the Coast on a sailing vessel some months ago, but he returned recently on one of the American-Hawaiian steamers and was immediately placed under arrest. The divorce libel was placed on the court record some time ago, but since the papers could not be served on Harris was held up. Now, however, with his return, Mrs. Harris has been given an opportunity to gain her freedom. She is now located at Lihoua, where she does washing for the officers and earns a good living. During her married life Mrs. Harris had rather a hard time, according to her complaint, for Harris not only refused to support her, but made her get out and work in order that he might live at his ease.

HOW MAUI WON THE CHAMPIONSHIP

OAHU TEAM OUT-GENERATED AND OUT-RIDDEN—FRANK BALDWIN PLAYED STERLING GAME—SHAKE-UP IN LOCAL TEAM BADLY NEEDED—ATTENDANCE WAS SATISFACTORY.

By H. M. AYRES.

Maui retains the polo championship. The visitors met and defeated the strongest team that this island could muster, at Moanalua yesterday by the score of 14 to 3 1/2.

It was Maui's game from beginning to end and not at any time were they in danger of losing.

The Maui players started off with a rattle and scored a couple of times before the Oahu players got going. They kept up their good work and the longer they played the more goals they scored.

The Maui combination is perhaps the best that has ever played here. Frank Baldwin played his best game and held his team together throughout by timely and judicious coaching. It would be hard to pick a weak spot in the visiting team so well was it balanced. The Maui men played with splendid dash and excellent combination and their riding off was superb. The Oahu team played very below expectations. Walter Dillingham had an off day and Dr. Baldwin played below his best form.

Sam Baldwin and John Fleming between them kept the Maui score down several notches, the latter playing headily and fearlessly throughout every period.

The playing of Frank Baldwin was the feature of the game. He was on the ball all the time and the way he juggled the ball with his mallet was wonderful. The veteran appears to keep on improving as he grows older.

Maui were better served in the matter of ponies. Their animals lasted longer and the team's superiority in this regard was particularly noticeable toward the end of the game.

To sum up, Maui won because their team are practically always in the saddle and know their ponies thoroughly. They played a harder game than their opponents and though the Oahu four tried to return the compliment in this respect they were unable to. It was a case of business men stacking up against men whose work keeps them astraddle all the time, and though there was nothing to choose between the two teams in point of knowledge of the fine points of the game, dash and vim won the day, and it will come mighty near doing so, all other things being equal, whenever a polo match is played.

If Oahu is to again hold the polo championship there must be a shake-up in her team. It is proverbial that a man must be rich in order to participate in the joys of polo. It does not follow however, that because a player has once made a team, he should be allowed to remain his position for the term of his natural life.

The crowd at the game was a very large one, probably seven hundred people journeying to distant Moanalua. Over a hundred automobiles were parked on the ground and there were carriages galore.

Queen Liliuokalani was present at the game and watched the playing with keen interest. The Hawaiian band, in a tally-ho, drawn by white horses, enlivened the game with music.

The teams, officials and colors were as follows:

Maui—Harold Rice, number one; Harry Baldwin, number two; Frank Baldwin, number three; David Fleming, number four.

Oahu—Dr. Baldwin, number one; Sam Baldwin, number two; Walter Dillingham, number three; John Fleming, number four.

Referee—Lieutenant O'Connor, U. S. Engineers.

Timekeepers—Clifford Kimball and J. S. Walker.

Colors—Maui, yellow shirts with black band; Oahu, white shirts with blue vests.

Ten periods of six minutes each were played and no time was taken out. There was an intermission of three minutes between all the periods except between the fifth and sixth, when ten minutes' rest was allowed.

First period.—Oahu defended the town end. The Maui players swooped down on the Oahu citadel, David Fleming in the lead, and Harold Rice scored the first goal of the game half a minute after the commencement of hostilities. The honk-honking of the bubbles was very faint. Dillingham was first away with the ball which was backed by Sam Baldwin. Frank Baldwin essayed a try at goal from the far right. Rice picked up neatly and John Fleming sent the bamboo-root back. A safety by Dillingham relieved the tension which existed through the threatening of the Oahu goal. At this point the only accident of the game occurred. John Fleming's pony broke his girth and fell, precipitating his rider to the ground. Rice's pony fell over him. The two players were on their feet immediately and after a new pony had been procured for Fleming the game was resumed. David Fleming barely missed scoring, then Harry Baldwin scored off a hit by Frank Baldwin. Score: Maui 2, Oahu 1, minus 1/2.

Second period.—Frank Baldwin scored quickly off a pretty hit by Harry Baldwin. Dillingham advanced the ball goalward and Sam Baldwin did the trick. The honk-honking was tremendous. Dr. Baldwin came near scoring but a good effort was spoiled by the ball hitting a pony's leg. Even play ensued, then Dillingham and Sam Baldwin missed the ball when the road to the goal's mouth looked open. Score: Maui 3, Oahu 1/2.

Third period.—Frank Baldwin got away, then Dr. Baldwin made a good run but when he looked to have matters his own way ran right over the ball. Frank Baldwin obtained possession with a clear field in front of him and scored with a long shot which went between the posts squarely and well. Harry Baldwin missed a chance to score. The Maui players did some magnificent riding off in this period. Score: Maui 4, Oahu 1/2.

Fourth period.—Dr. Baldwin was well off with the sphere, he and Dillingham taking it down the field between them. Sam Baldwin came fast from behind and put the ball through for Oahu. Give and take play followed, then David Fleming notched the fifth goal for the Maui. Harry Baldwin centered with a lofty shot off which Frank Baldwin scored. Score: Maui 6, Oahu 1 1/2.

Fifth period.—Dillingham took the ball and Frank Baldwin cleared cleverly, then John Fleming came along and scored. Frank Baldwin missed a hard shot and play for a while continued in Oahu's territory. Oahu attempted a safety but the ball struck a pony. Harry Baldwin hit down the field and the bell rang when Maui looked like registering another. Score: Maui 6, Oahu 2 1/2.

Sixth period.—Harry Baldwin scored fifteen seconds after the ball had been put in play. On changing ends the same player came near scoring again. Frank Baldwin's hitting was very accurate, in fact he was playing croquet with the ball. Maui continued to press and Harold Rice did the trick. Score: Maui 8, Oahu 2 1/2.

Seventh period.—Frank Baldwin, although his team were well in the lead never ceased coaching his men. Harry Baldwin scored. Then Oahu pressed with John Fleming at the head of affairs. Dillingham scored Oahu's fourth and last goal. Rice and Frank Baldwin took the ball along the field and the latter just missed at goal. Harold Rice scored at the end of the period but the goal was disallowed as the ball had rung before the ball went between the posts. Score: Maui 9, Oahu 3 1/2.

Eighth period.—Harry Baldwin scored for Maui five seconds after play had been resumed. He was playing a rushing game but a trifle erratic. Harry Baldwin looked like scoring again but Dillingham saved cleverly. Dr. Baldwin made a fine run but the ball was well backed by David Fleming. Frank Baldwin scored impressively from the side-line, hitting the ball under his pony's belly. A little later on he missed a good chance at goal. Score: Maui 11, Oahu 3 1/2.

Ninth period.—David Fleming scored after a sensational run after taking the ball the length of the field. Harry Baldwin then put the ball between the posts. In this period the ball went over the side-line for the second time during the game. Walter Dillingham in this period was evidently very tired. Harold Rice piled up another goal. It commenced to rain. Maui pressed but Fleming saved the situation. Score: Maui 14, Oahu 3 1/2.

Tenth period.—Sam Baldwin made a good run up the field but Dillingham failed to score when a good chance offered. Frank Baldwin sent the ball down and Fleming sent it back over the same ground with a beefy hit. Dr. Baldwin took the ball goalward and Sam Baldwin missed a shot. Rice took the ball along, then John Fleming backed it and two Oahu players missed it just as the bell rang, signaling the close of the period and the end of the game. Score: Maui 14, Oahu 3 1/2.

PICKED OAHU TEAM SLATED TO PERFORM

There will be some famous baseball at the Athletic Park next Sunday. The first game will be between the Marines and the Kalihis and the second game will be between a picked team from the cruiser fleet and a picked Oahu League team.

The first game will be the play-off of the nineteen-innings tie game played between the Marines and the Kalihis some time ago. This game will settle the first series of the Oahu League. The Japs are at present ahead, having won six games out of nine. The Kalihis have won five games out of eight played. If the Kalihis defeat the Marines they will tie with the Japs for the championship of the first series. Should the Marines be victorious, however, the Japs will be undisputed champions of the first series.

The second game is one of the most interesting that has ever been dished up to local fans and the management of the Athletic Park could not have hit upon a better drawing card. Hundreds of people will turn out to witness this game who don't give a fig for minor league ball.

For some time past there has been a lot of discussion as to what chance a picked team from the Oahu League would have against one of the big league nines, and Sunday's game will furnish a line on just how strong a team can be picked from the Oahu League.

Just who will be on the picked team has not yet been decided on as yet and the task of selecting the nine best players won't be a particularly thankable one.

Apau, Flores, Gibson and Clark will probably furnish the pitcher from among them. Shepherd of the Fifth Cavalry will probably be the choice for catcher. Dreier and Woods have a claim on the position of custodian of the first bag. Long, Ayau and Coll all play an excellent game at short and there isn't much to choose between them.

Sing Chong and Ross will both have to be considered when it comes to electing a third baseman for the team. As to the candidates for the other positions, verily their name is legion.

polo tournament didn't send tickets for yesterday's game to the local newspapers, is a mystery. The sporting writers were told to order a rig to take them to the game, at the last moment, but nary a ticket to the game was sent to any of the offices. The tournament has been boosted to the limit by the newspapers and a little courtesy in the matter of passes might well have been expected from the management.

LAHAINALUNA CASE AGAIN

As the result of advices received on Tuesday Attorney General Hemenway expects to present the Territory's side of the Lahainaluna case before the United States Supreme Court about the middle of November. Attorney Withington, who represents the Lahainaluna side, will move that the case be advanced on the calendar as soon as the session of the court opens on October 11 and it will not be opposed by the Territory.

This is the second time that the Lahainaluna case has gone to Washington, being taken there first on an appeal from the decision favorable to the Territory on a demurrer. The local court was then reversed. The case was then tried on its merits here, though Withington objected to the Territory's filing an answer, and was won by the government. It goes now on a straight appeal.

Attorney General Hemenway has received the printed transcript of the record in the case from Washington and will now perfect his case, which he seems quite confident of winning.

THE POLO BALL

The Moana Hotel was the scene of life and festivity last night when the annual dance of the Ohahu Polo Club in honor of the visiting polo teams was given. There has rarely been a dance in Honolulu which has been more generally attended than the polo ball, and last night was certainly no exception. The hotel was beautifully and appropriately decorated for the occasion, the dancing taking place in the dining room over the beach. Local society people were present in very large numbers and the navy and army officers added to the beauty of the scene by their white uniforms.

Be Not Deceived

There is only one cleanable Refrigerator and therefore GERM PROOF, and that is the Gurney Refrigerator handled by us.

No other make has ever stood the test and by means of the removable ice chamber as well as removable shelves, drain pipes, traps, etc., we have solved the problem.

Assail us where you will you cannot help but admit our claim. All other makes fail when it comes to keeping the ice chamber pure, sweet, clean and germ proof, but

THE GURNEY

Listen to idle talk and arguments put forth in favor of cleanable provision compartment. All refrigerators have this feature. You cannot deny that unless ALL COMPARTMENTS can be kept absolutely pure and wholesome that a refrigerator is germ-proof. Go from the provision chamber to the receptacle for the ice and it is here where all other makes fail. There's the weakness that cannot be overcome by them. The Gurney with its removal ice chamber feature has supplied the great want and therefore.

Is the Only Cleanable

Come in and bring forth your arguments and if we fail to convince you we are ready to take your decision. A full line always on hand. They are used in almost every household. Do you possess one? If not why not, it costs no more than other makes. GREATEST ICE SAVERS.

LAND VALUE DISCREPANCY

PINEAPPLE LAND WORTH $250 AN ACRE FOR INCORPORATION RATED AT $80 FOR TRANSFER.

An interesting matter has come up in the office of Registrar of Conveyances Merriam this morning in connection with an attempt to file the deed by which the Tropic Fruit Company conveyed 357 acres of land to the Wahiawa Consolidated Pineapple Company. The deed shows that the land is transferred for the sum of $500 and stock in the lately organized concern, but in order to find out what stamp tax must be paid the value of the land must be ascertained.

Here comes the peculiar part of the transaction. When the Wahiawa Consolidated Company was formed the incorporators swore that four hundred acres of land was valued at $100,000, or $250 per acre. The price of real estate must have taken a tremendous drop since that time, however, for now the Wahiawa Consolidated people claim that the land is worth only $80 an acre. Naturally, with a sworn statement on file in the office of the Territorial Treasurer to the effect that the land is worth $250 per acre, a statement that it is worth less than a third of that amount is looked on with some degree of suspicion. Further developments may be expected before the deeds are recorded.

THE EXPERIMENT STATION REPORT

The Annual Report of the Hawaiian Agricultural Experiment Station has been issued. It is a pamphlet of eighty-four pages, of Hawaiian Star print, and contains many halftone illustrations.

Dr. E. V. Wilcox, special agent in charge, gives a summary of investigations—chemical, rubber, entomological, horticultural and rice—describes improvements in buildings and grounds, and mentions experiments made with matting, sedges and rushes, cotton and miscellaneous crops.

Reports fairly exhaustive are printed from D. L. Van Dine, entomologist; J. Edgar Higgins, horticulturist; Alice R. Thompson, assistant chemist, and F. G. Krauss, on field crop experiments.

As a whole the report affords a good idea of the extent, variety and value of the work the station is doing toward the development of the Territory.

REGATTA DAY

Among the many events for the coming week and one that is looked forward to with a great deal of interest by society, is the Regatta ball, to be given by the Healani and Myrtle boat clubs on Saturday evening. It has been the custom for many years past to wind up the day's outing with a grand ball, which in the old days, nearly everybody in town had to attend on general principles. This is one event that is certainly attracting more than passing notice during the week of a full social calendar and one can be prepared to see a record breaking crowd. A committee representing both boat clubs has the matter in hand, and already many startling effects are promised. With the fleet in port, the visiting Congressmen and their ladies, together with the numerous visitors in town, Honolulu will have an opportunity to do itself proud in one of the old time holiday dances. Many new gowns, some of them in the colors of their wearers' favorite boat club, are being spoken of. Sonny Cunha's "Little string band" will hold forth to do and dare if necessary for the pleasure of all who attend and by special request Sonny will revive his famous song "The Healani Girl," which made such a hit in the days when everybody talked boat racing. The results of the evening will help to defray the expenses of keeping the boats in order, training expenses, and the many little necessities that generally go towards making Regatta Day a success.

LATE ITEMS OF SPORTS

Nigel Jackson has accepted Tsukamoto's challenge for a Marathon and details of the race will be arranged in the near future.

Nothing definite has been settled as yet with regard to the ten-mile race between Anton Kaoo and Tsukamoto. It is probable that an agreement will be come to this afternoon. Tsukamoto wants to race Kaoo again for any kind of a purse. The native, however, is harder to negotiate with and wants to receive a hundred dollars for his work of last Saturday before he will consider another race. George Lowe, his trainer, stated this morning that Kaoo would give a definite answer this afternoon.

The end of the big league season is in sight. The games have been so poorly patronized that the management of the league have decided to close the season after the St. Louis and Diamond Heads have played a series of the best two games out of three for the championship. The first game of the series will be played at the league grounds next Saturday afternoon.

There will be some good baseball at the Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon. The Chinese Athletic Club will play the U. S. S. Tennessee and the Japanese Athletic Club will try conclusions with either the U. S. S. California or the U. S. S. South Dakota.

Nothing has transpired in the boxing line so far, but it looks as if Charlie Reilly would be matched with Tringle of the U. S. S. Maryland, the bout taking place in one of the local arenas.

Judge George Davis made an address to 6000 members of the Eagles' fraternity at San Francisco, which was received with much enthusiasm.

SERVICES APPRECIATED.

Mr. Bartholdt, on behalf of the Congressional party, presented to Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McClellan a silver service, in recognition of Mr. McClellan's agreeable offices as guide, counselor and friend on the trip from Washington and on the tour of these islands.
