Tanbara Confesses

IN THE SHADOW OF THE GALLOWS AND IN THE FERVOR OF HIS NEW FOUND RELIGIOUS CONSOLATION HE SAYS HIS MURDER OF CAPTAIN JACOBSEN OF THE SCHOONER FRED J. WOOD WAS PREMEDITATED.

Under the shadow of the gallows Tanbara Gisaburo has freely confessed his guilt and acknowledged that he deserves the sentence which has been meted out to him. Moved by his new found religious fervor the brutal murderer has told the story of his crime to the minister who has been visiting him and the tale is quite as bad as even the prosecution's theory represented during the trial in the federal court.

Tanbara's confession this time is unreserved, according to the minister who has been visiting him, the Rev. Motokawa, of the Japanese M. E. church. He admits not only that he struck the blow that instantly killed Captain Jacobsen on board the schooner Fred J. Wood, but also that he and the cook Ohto premeditated the murder of the captain. In one respect the statements now made by Tanbara, three days before he is to die on the gallows, are a confirmation of the theory upon which the local federal officials did such hard work,—the theory that the cook was almost equally guilty—for Tanbara says that the cook was in league with him and had a pistol with which he would have killed Captain Jacobsen if Tanbara had not done it with a knife.

Tanbara's insistence that the cook had a pistol has been unswerving ever since he was brought here. There was testimony at the trial that the pistol was hastily thrown overboard when the murder had been done by Tanbara. But there was no way to legally connect Ohto with the crime and after a grand jury had made a searching inquiry into his case he was allowed to go free.

To the Christian minister who is giving him the consolations of religion in his last days, Tanbara has said that he believes that his fate is a just one. He is quoted as saying that he did commit the murder and that he believes that it is God's will that a man who does murder shall die as Tanbara is to die—on the gallows. "I first cut the captain on the face," said the murderer, "and then I don't know exactly. I rather lost my head and don't know just what happened, but I must have made the deep stab that killed him. I believe that God wills that a man who does such a thing should die by hanging and am ready to meet my death."

According to Tanbara's statement, made in Japanese and reported through the minister, Captain Jacobson had no chance for life when he went into the galley of the schooner Fred J. Wood where the cook and Tanbara were. Vengeful feelings over a small question of wages had made the two Japs resolved to kill their master, even though he had on board his wife and two infant children. Tanbara held in his hand the large knife with which he did the deed and Ohto had a pistol he might have used, and when the murder was done and an opportunity came, Ohto threw the pistol overboard.

Ohto is in Honolulu again now. He went away after being released after the trial, but he has returned. He is said to have joined the vile company of Japs who live on the earnings of women. It is an easier life than cooking on board a schooner.

Tanbara's new confession is a confirmation of the one he made to the widow of his victim, as published in The Star at the time. Before she left for San Francisco the last time he admitted to her that he had killed her husband. No interpreter was necessary then, however helpless in English Tanbara usually seems to be. It is the opinion of those familiar with the case that he knows far more of the English language than he allowed himself to show.

Tanbara will be hanged soon after the expiration of his reprieve, noon next Friday. He is thoroughly courageous apparently, and the officials think he will not waver at the approach to his doom. There is a big demand for tickets of admission to the jail for the hanging, but United States Marshal Hendry is not issuing any except to those having a right to be present. There will be many local physicians and the jurors who brought in the verdict against Tanbara will be allowed to enter.

KOREANS WERE BADLY BUNCOED

They Claimed to Police That Japanese Luna at Waipahu Had Swindled Them Out of $288.

Twenty-four Koreans are hunting for a lone Japanese. The Jap is trying, so the police say, to be as lonely as possible. These are some of the moments when he wants to be alone. He is accused of having $288 which he embezzled from the Koreans.

According to a story told the police this morning by a Korean, twenty-four Koreans working at Waipahu, deposited $12 each with a Japanese luna for safe keeping. The luna occupied quite a good position on the plantation and bore an excellent reputation. The Jap disappeared last night. He came to Honolulu. This morning he did not report to take his work gang out into the fields. The result was that the Koreans took counsel, and decided that they had been robbed. An emissary was hurriedly sent to the police station in Honolulu to report the theft.

Officers were sent to the various island steamers today to try and intercept the missing luna who, it was thought, was trying to get to one of the other islands.

THE IRISH LAND BILL PASSES THIRD READING IN GREAT BRITAIN'S HOUSE OF PEERS AND REFORM IN THE LAND SYSTEM OF THE EMERALD ISLE IS NOW A CERTAINTY.

Associated Press Cable to the Star.

LONDON, August 11.—The Irish land bill today passed third reading in the House of Lords and its enactment is now assured. The bill is the most sweeping measure ever enacted for the relief of the tenants of Ireland and it is the hope of its proponents that it will dispose of Great Britain's long troublesome Irish question. The Lords were believed to be an obstacle and considerable opposition was shown to the bill by them. Under the terms of the law the English landlord in Ireland will have to go and the tenants may acquire their own holdings.

OFFICERS ON THE SHERIDAN

NUMBER OF MEN WHO HAVE GAINED PROMINENCE IN THEIR PROFESSION.

There is a very large list of passengers aboard the transport Sheridan. Colonel O. J. Sweet colonel of the 25th Infantry, is the ranking officer on the vessel. He was in charge of the work against the Moros in Mindanao island, but was invalided home. He is going out to resume his command. He will be retired shortly.

Colonel John B. Kerr is the regular colonel of the 12th Cavalry but is now on detached duty as a member of the General Staff of the army.

Lieutenant Colonel McCain of the General Staff obtained his position through competitive examination. He ranks very high in the army.

Captain W. C. Rivers of the General Staff was formerly adjutant at West Point. He is regarded as one of the students of the service.

Lieutenant Colonel Chase is in command of the 12th Cavalry and other troops aboard the vessel.

Captain S. D. Rockenbach is the engineering officer who had charge of the improvements about the city of Santiago de Cuba after cessation of hostilities. He expended over $2,500,000 in improvements and when his accounts were balanced it was found that they were out only 15 cents.

Captain James W. Davis is a paymaster in the service. He was twice governor of the state of Nebraska and was appointed to the army during the Spanish war.

AN OLD ESTATE.

Bruce Cartwright, as executor and trustee under the will of Thomas J. Cummins, who died in 1892, yesterday filed final accounts and a petition for his discharge, saying that "through ignorance or inadvertence" he had failed to file annual accounts, but that he now presented a complete statement.

The beneficiary under the will was the late Thomas J. Cummins, who died a few months ago on Kauai. A. J. Cartwright was first appointed executor, in 1892 and later A. J. Cartwright Jr. Bruce Cartwright succeeded him. The accounts of the estate balance at $65,884.81.

LAUKEA AT WORK.

Mrs. Wilcox Tells in her Paper What His Plans Are.

A mass meeting has been called for Saturday, August 15, by C. P. Laukea; S. K. Mahoe and other political leaders of the District to consider plans for the campaign and to express the sentiments of the voters as to their choice of candidates for County seats to be submitted by the Home Rule Delegates to the nominating convention which is to be held at a later date. Some of the Home Rule leaders have been invited to attend the mass meeting.

Mrs. Nawahi of the Aloha Aina was a visitor at Haleiwa on Sunday last. Politics it is said, was the object of the visit and the principal theme of conversation. Mrs. Nawahi is the relic of Joseph Nawahi who with the Hon. Piilo were the strongest Hawaiian opponents of the Reciprocity treaty which the latter termed as the first stepping stone to annexation judging from the way things have turned out.

The Aloha Aina is one of the most widely read papers by Hawaiians, the Colony being a regular contributor.

The Home Rule element, the Aloha Ainas, otherwise known as the Kunoas, are working harmoniously, and feel confident of carrying the District by a sweeping majority.

It is further said that Colonel Laukea will shortly take the stump in the interests of the Home Rule Party and in company with some of the party's more prominent leaders, make a tour of this island and the other islands if time will permit.—The County.

DAVIS RESIGNS AS GUARDIAN

SAYS THE PRINCESS KAWANAKOA ASKED HIM TO BE GUARDIAN OF CAMPBELL MINORS.

After the decisions in the disbarment cases yesterday afternoon George A. Davis filed his resignation as guardian of the Campbell estate minors. The resignation sets forth reasons based largely upon the disbarment decisions, as follows:

"1—The Supreme Court without testimony disbarred me.

"2—The only suit I instituted was in California to protect the property of the minors because the will is void and there was a sham sale of their property.

"3—The influence of gold and enemies have made it impossible for me to longer act beneficially for any person and in justice to the minors and my bondsmen, who freely signed my obligation for twenty-five thousand dollars, I feel that my life must be spent in trying to undo the gross injustice inflicted upon me by the trustee of the bond holders of the Oahu Railway and Land Company and Antonio Perry who has threatened to revenge himself upon me, who both fined and imprisoned me, so that I leave the minors to the kind care of the trustees who sold the minors' property, the Saint James Hotel at San Jose, but who trusted the vendee to pay the purchase price hereafter.

"As no property has come to my hands I gladly resign. Heretofore every trust committed to my care has been guarded, no defalcations nor pay from a corporation while on the Bench has sullied George A. Davis' good name and professional honor. When I attacked and defeated the fraudulent Board of Directors of the Kamalo Sugar Co. I antagonized Cecil Brown and he has first, by getting Fred Harrison to withdraw from my bond, tried to get my resignation and I only retained the position as guardian at the earnest request of the Princess Kawanaka, the sister of the minors.

"Gold and influence in this city will wreck the life and character of any man who single-handed attempts to resist its power. At the verge of ruin one should not involve others, so please accept the resignation forthwith."

The remains will be brought to Honolulu today for interment in Nuanu cemetery. Canon Mackintosh will conduct the services at the grave.

GAIETY AT THE YOUNG.

The Alexander Young Hotel was the scene of gaiety last evening almost equal to that on the occasion of the formal opening of the hostelry ten days ago. The Twelfth Cavalry band rendered a delightful concert on the roof garden from 8:15 o'clock to 10. The band is an excellent one and more than one of its selections were encored. From 9 o'clock there was dancing in the two magnificent dancing pavilions on the roof garden, a native orchestra playing the dance music. There were a number of dinner parties during the evening at the hotel, Manager and Mrs. Lake entertaining a number of guests.

Several of the army officers going through on the transport Sheridan were guests of friends of acquaintances here at the hotel. Steward A. L. Wyman of the hotel was the recipient of many congratulations on the dinner and service given.

FIAT JUSTITIA.

The Supreme Court has acted in the disbarment proceedings with a strength, a determination and a fearlessness which while it was not unexpected, must still call forth the commendation of all who have the interests of the community and the protection of property at heart.

The Supreme Court performed a duty which quickens anew the sense of confidence which the Territory has in the rectitude and courage of the members of that tribunal.

A decree of disbarment is a very serious punishment. It is equivalent in the legal profession to being "broke" in the army or the navy.

It is a long lane which has no turning. These men have attempted to bulldoze the community for years. One has only to look back to the history of Humphreys on the bench, when justice lay bound and gagged, while he used his office to shamelessly advance political aims, to undermine the administration, to influence the legislature, and to terrorize all that was respectable and clean and honorable in the community.

Davis has played all this time into the hands of Humphreys. He has been his ready coadjutor, and it is just that he should feel the weight of punishment, together with the man whom he joined in vilifying two of the judges of the Supreme Court.

Both Davis and Humphreys were engaged in legally robbing or looting the estate of a poor old man of eighty years and upwards. He was feeble of intellect, kindly of disposition, surrounded by greedy relatives, through whom these legal cormorants were able to carry out their nefarious plans.

But in righteously punishing these two men the Supreme Court has not only done an act of fearless justice, but it has saved other properties which were being marked for destruction.

The Supreme Court has saved the community from a very insidious and terrible danger. It has punished, as it should do, fearlessly, and it stands as it ever has stood, a holdfast against wrong, rascality and shameless chicanery.

Remorse—she ne'er forsakes us—
A blood hound stanch she tracks our rapid steps
We hear her deep-throated bay, announcing all
Of wrath, and woe and punishment that bides us.

There is a state of war in the Balkans and Turkey is hurrying up troops. The Macedonian and Bulgarian hands are acting with extreme cruelty towards the Turkish population of the villages, destroying their crops, burning the houses and cottages, and slaughtering and outraging the inhabitants.

The Russian government keeps its strikers in order at the point of a rifle. At the rate the Russian soldiers are shooting down the Polish strikers there will be no strikers left soon.

The yachts are making their final preparations for the cup races, and we shall soon be centering our attention upon the relative positions of the Race and Snanrock III.

Davis had his usual threats of "desperate man" and his hip pocket kind of air late yesterday afternoon. But he became very tame when the bailiff took him by the arm and quietly removed him from the presence of the Chief Justice whom Davis was blackguarding.

the scene of the vagaries of an ill balanced mind, a sort of raree show with the presiding judge as principal clown. Davis has resigned his position.

The Hilo-Kohala Railroad will now be pushed along for all it is worth, and it should be worth a good deal. Another of the dreams of the past is going to be realized.

The Sheridan people are loud in their praises of Honolulu. Many pronounce this the most beautiful spot that they have ever seen, and they are not very far wrong.

Russia is going to make it hot for Turkey over the murder of her consul at Monastr. At present we have the bare news of the fact, the details have not come along. Probably the death of the consul is just the opportunity that Russia wants. Any how the Sultan is going to have some very bad quarters of an hour.

The expulsion of all Servian pupils attending the Austrian military schools is a significant fact. That Russia and Austria should agree upon the point is still more significant. It is intended as a warning to the Servian army, but that delectable body is entirely out of hand, and King Peter is likely to be murdered by his guards because of the insult to the military, which he will be powerless to resent.

Kauai and West Hawaii had better get a hustle on in the matter of papers. They are not entirely destitute of news matters as some seem to think. In West Hawaii, is published the Kona Echo. It is a curious little sheet manifolded from a gelatine slab. It is owned by a Japanese, but has a part written in English. Kauai has or had a little paper called the Garden Island. These might expand their plant and be sufficient to fulfill the meaning of the law regarding county papers.

HAD AN INTERESTING CAREER. The life of the novelist Charles Reade, which is to be published soon in London, will be of uncommon interest, because it is said to be in large part an autobiography. While Reade's career was not so picturesquely prosaic as that of Trollope, whose matter-of-fact autobiography surpasses in interest most of his novels, admirable as they are, Reade was a singularly robust and vital personality, and his life should be highly entertaining. Not to speak of his

CARRARA Mixed Paint

Is not an old paint in the sense that it has been in the market for many years, but the pigments used in its manufacture are believed to be old, because they are supposed to represent the re-discovery of the secret of permanent color, thought to have been lost with Michael Angelo, Leonardo da Vinci, Fra Angelico, Corregio, Murillo, Titian, Guido, Raphael and other Old Masters.

CARRARA has been in the market long enough, however to establish the fact that it gives a BETTER FINISH, lasts LONGER, under the most severe tests, covers more surface, and COSTS LESS than the best Lead, Zinc, and Oil.

If you want the Best Effect and the Best Results, USE CARRARA. Of course some people want what came over in the "Mayflower" and think that pure lead, Zinc and Oil Paint is the thing to use because "Grandpa" used it. "Grandpa" was no doubt an authority in his day, and a man of judgment; but if he were alive today, it goes without saying, that he would use CARRARA.

In passing, we may say, that we still have a balance of the OLD KIND OF PAINT, as good as can be made under the old formulas, which we were selling when our knowledge was in the rudimentary stage.

This we can give you at A BARGAIN.

It is the same with a standard article of any manufacture. But the man that is decried because some one has a private grudge against him does not suffer in the least. Those who know him are ever ready to speak well of him—because spite is so evidently the spirit that moves his biased critics. Also, the article of trade which is accepted as standard—the Douglas Patent Closet, for instance—has its few bigotted, biased and jealous soreheads, that, prompted by envy, talk bitterly and the only disturbance is a thermogaseous harmless, effusion. $25.00 buys a Douglas.

THE BAGGAGE EXAMINATION

The San Francisco Bulletin of July 30, publishes the following: Passengers on the steamship Siberia, which reached San Francisco this morning from China and Japan, bitterly complain of indignities heaped upon them by the customs officials at Honolulu, at which port the steamship called. They have issued the following signed statement:

"We the undersigned, per Steamship Siberia, from China and Japan for San Francisco, via Honolulu, would thank you to inform the public of the latest and most atrocious outrage ever perpetrated on the passengers and under the instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury.

"The Siberia called at Honolulu to discharge some cargo, land a few passengers and receive passengers for San Francisco. As soon as the health officers came on board a squad of Custom House officers followed, and with the exception of three or four, they looked and acted like a lot of jackals.

"The passengers from China, Japan and the Philippines were ordered to get their baggage ready for inspection, although bound for San Francisco, and still six days to sail from that port.

"They were also notified that what baggage they had in the baggage-room could not be touched and all would be sealed in the hold. In fact, it was simply seized!

"The baggage in the rooms was examined and the owners were dictated to as to how many shirts, collars, etc., they could retain. All the rest must be bundled up and sent to the hold and sealed up. One gentleman who had lived for several years in Japan, had six suits of pajamas. The custom officers said, 'You can only have one,' and bundled the remaining suits into the hold. This was only one instance. The clothing was taken from the rooms and was rolled up and tied in any fashion; some in paper, some in nothing, and now lies in the lower hold; no receipt given for it; what condition it will be returned in can be imagined.

"Men and women who have been living and traveling in a tropical climate and were clothed in duck and flannels had their heavy clothing sealed up, and many serious cases of sickness are sure to arise before landing in San Francisco.

"We do not believe there is any law in the United States that permits the Secretary of the Treasury to use such high-handed measures and trust that the Secretary has made a mistake by being misled by some overzealous custom-house official.

"The foreigners were treated in the same way as Americans, although most of them were on their way to Europe via the United States. They one and all declared that they would never travel via San Francisco again. This is also the determination of two-thirds of the Americans on board. The officers on the steamer protested in every way, but were powerless.

AMATEUR HARVESTERS

From the San Francisco Call.

Between the farmers of Kansas and Nebraska and the amateur harvesters whom the profuse East has poured out upon them from all her college halls and seats of learning, there appears to be a relation not unlike that between two young lovers thrown together at a summer resort where they cannot get rid of one another for a single day, nor even for half a day. When first the collegians took to the fields the reports came of glowing hours and a joyous time on the farms. The county press put the harvest items along with their society gossip and announced that the beautiful Miss Threestars and Mr. Baseball of Harvard would summer in the wheat fields in much the same way that it would have announced their engagement and prospective bridal tour of Europe. It was not long, however, before there came reports of discontents, misapprehensions, fallings out and other mishaps, thus proving that for amateurs the course of harvesting like that of true love never did run smooth.

Shortly after the first midsummer quarrel came a scornful report that an Eastern college man could not do as much work in a wheat field as an ordinary Kansas girl. The report, however, came from a farmer and not from the girl. Under the circumstances it is perhaps permissible to suppose that the college men either deemed it impolite to outstrip the girl and pass ahead of her in her own fields or else that they were so absorbed in watching her that they forgot to work. In any event the report was followed, not by an announcement that all collegians had been sent home, but by a statement of a general demand for more of them. Evidently the first storm had blown harmlessly over and the farmer and the collegian had made it up with one another and were getting along again all right.

Next came a howl of rage from the collegians. They denounced the farmers for waking them too early, for giving them coarse food, for furnishing no comfortable beds and for not providing them with continuous work. It appears they expected to rise somewhere about noon, dine sumptuously, sleep on beds of amaranth or moly and spend the entire summer on one farm; so that when they found they had to hustle out before day and keep moving all day and then have to leave a farm as soon as they got well acquainted with the best girl, they began to feel that Kansas is a fraud and harvesting a humbug.

In this mutable world, however, everything passes away; even the howls of collegians die out of the air in time; so now we are once more getting reports of established harmony on the farms. The farmers have ceased to say that their girls are better than the dudes and the collegians have ceased to demand huckleberry pie for dinner, they even show a willingness to accept it at breakfast. So everything is for the time being quite lovely, and we learn that some of the collegians have been writing East to tell their local papers that Kansas wheat fields are as large as a whole county in New England, so it seems there is a pretty good course of education going on along with the work.

MISSOURI NOTES.

(From the Kansas City Star.) A Clinton physician advertises to "fix old stomachs to last a life time." If you cannot go, send your stomach. It seems very appropriate that a paper called the Mirror should be edited by young women. Such is the case in Marcelline. The boys of Gilliam have organized a secret society called "The Coming Boys of America." The object of the lodge is to keep its object a secret. The Taney County Republican has an "angel" performing the "devil's" duties. The "angel" is Miss Edith Parrish, who bids fair to become a good printer some day.

Bates county is so full of former residents of Iowa that the Butler Republican-Press suggests that an Iowa association be organized to hold an Iowa picnic annually. Hale and Tina, Carroll county, two of the smallest towns in Northwest Missouri, will have the biggest Fourth of July celebrations yet announced in that portion of the state. A Fillmore paper announces that a noted photographer will visit that town soon, and urges the people to take advantage of the opportunity to have made the best tintypes in the world. A Boone county jury last week gave a man a verdict for $10,000 against the St. Louis Transit company for injuries received in a street car accident. Only three of the jurymen had ever seen a street car. A man who had been a steady whisky drinker all his life died at the age of 75 in Barton county recently, and the temperance people are holding up his death as an awful example of what liquor will do. William Ratliff, aged 104 years, and his daughter, Caroline Ratliff, who is 62 years of age, were committed to the Fulton hospital for the insane recently. They were sent to the institution from Pike County. Editor Walton issued a handsome fifty-page trade edition of the Armstrong Herald lately, containing pictures of most of the leading citizens of the town. It takes a big paper to show off all of the leading citizens of Armstrong. Roastin' eah; Roastin' eah. What yoh stoppin' at? Nigh on time yoh steps Ah heah. On mah ole doah mat. Roastin' eah, listen heah. Luggin' mighty bad. Come on Mistah Roastin' eah. Mek dis niggah glad. —Paw Paw Corner Bazoo.

The Centerville Record tells of a young man who had been writing a girl in Minneapolis for three years, intending some day to ask her to marry him. The other day he received a letter and a picture from her. The letter announced that she had been married two years, and the picture was of her baby. "My husband and I have enjoyed your letters very much," she wrote, "but I guess you'd better stop writing now, as I have to spend all my time caring for the baby." The Record says the words the young man used after reading the letter would shock a field of oats. Wedd City Sentinel: A number of men were standing on a corner one day telling how they got their first starts in the world. The gist of their stories was that the young man of the present day does not know what hard times are, but Mayor Redding carried off the biscuit with the story of his first effort at carving a fortune. He said he commenced life back in Ohio by cutting wood at twenty-five cents a cord, and that as it took him just four days to cut one cord, that he earned 6 1/2 cents per day. The meeting then adjourned.

A FAMILIAR JAIL BIRD AGAIN IN CUSTODY CHARGED WITH BEING UNLAWFULLY ON PREMISES. Ah Loy the old jail bird is in the toils again. He is said by the police to be up against a hard proposition. He is charged with having been unlawfully on the premises of another, after dark. Ah Loy is a graduate of the reform school. After he got out of the reform school he started on a career of crime and has passed most of his time in jail ever since. Early this morning shortly after 3 o'clock, Ah Tack who runs a little grocery store in Holokahana Lane, which is off Liliha Street near School, heard a noise as if some one was trying to break open the front door. Ah Tack had been robbed once before of about $50 worth of goods, so he at once surmised that a burglar was trying to rob a second time. After the first robbery, Ah Tack had been advised to sleep in his place with a loaded six shooter near his bed. Ah Tack had the six shooter on hand and he promptly took it up this morning, and blazed away at the supposed burglar. The man whoever he was, is said to have been so astonished that he stood still, trembling with fear. A neighbor was aroused by the noise of the shots and he went into Ah Tack's yard to investigate. He found Ah Loy there and placed Ah Loy under arrest. Today before Judge Dickey Ah Loy was charged with being unlawfully on the premises of another. The defendant has retained Sonny Cunha, the heavyweight of the local legal fraternity, to defend him. The case was set for tomorrow.

THE FOURTH OF JULY. The Fourth of July celebration this year caused a loss, according to statistics collected by the Chicago Tribune, of fifty-eight dead, and 3,431 wounded. The loss from fire was $400,025. Few Revolutionary battles were more sanguinary. Last year there were twenty-one lives lost and the injured reached 2,172. It is a low estimate, that in the past ten years there have been some 300 deaths, and some 30,000 casualties, as the result of our senseless, foolish celebration of the Fourth. No other country outside of China adopts this dangerous, wasteful and insensate form of national commemoration. Nothing will probably bring a reform but the steady publication of the harm done by a habit which has grown up without thought in those who share in it, and has led to a national practice which Americans would be the first to condemn if it occurred in another country.

MUST MUZZLE THEIR PETS. An ordinance requiring the muzzling of dogs or the leading of dogs in leash through the streets has been passed by the New York board of aldermen. The owners of pets have been loud in their protests, but being against the judgment of the best physicians, the medical societies and the health board, these had to be disregarded. It is in fact an enactment whose good sense is obvious to every one except the owners of pets, whether these owners be rich people or poor, and both sorts are equally angry at the law, just as both sorts of pets are equally nuisances. The "leash" requirement is a bad compromise, however, and will have to be abandoned before long. The enforcement of the law is placed in the hands of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals. The officers of this society have also to determine upon the proper form of muzzle. At the best, it is but the mitigation of nastiness and the diminution of rabies that can be achieved by the law. Ordinances of the sort ought to be in force in every city.

ONTO HIS JOB. Rev. E. H. Wallace pastor of the Montoursville (Pa.), Methodist church, has discharged the old church ushers and substituted four pretty girls. The size of his congregation is growing rapidly. Twenty-five cents pays for a Want ad in the Star. A bargain.

The second number of Mrs. Wilcox's new paper, The County was issued yesterday. The following are some of the most striking features of the contents of the part of the paper published in "English."

THERESA'S ASPIRATION.
O who wouldn't be a republican politician when there is a barrel on tap and easy graft in sight!—The County.

WHAT WILL HAPPEN.
We are told that certain Republican leaders are fixing up a satisfactory republican slate, which the primaries will adopt and the convention endorsed as the republican ticket.

The boys will be on top, Mike. Sure kela.—The County.

GENESIS OF THE NEWLANDS RESOLUTION.
The Newlands Resolution had to be sprung up as the war of Spain with United States was imminent. It was a safe-guard for the United States to be so at the time. Of course Hawaii is suffering from the effect of such resolution.—The County.

IT'S EFFECT.
In our last Editorial, "Hawaii for the Hawaiians" we mean to call all the Hawaiians of these islands to act and do something for our Country or rather to remedy the wrong which Newlands Resolution has done (unintentional) to our Country.—The County.

DON'T WORRY.
The Home Rule Party will have a represented ticket on the field for the County official, so don't worry Messrs. Advertiser and Star: We will be fair to all the Hawaiians who have interest in our country.—The County.

AMERICANS IN PORTUGAL

LISBON, July 31.—Today being the anniversary of the granting of the Portuguese constitution and also the anniversary of the birth of the Duke of Oporto, brother of King Charles, the Cabinet Ministers sent to the royal castle at Cintra and congratulated the royal family. The United States European squadron and the Portuguese ships in those waters dressed ship for the occasion and fired salutes. Owing to the observance of this holiday the luncheon which Rear Admiral Cotton was to give on board the Brooklyn today to the Minister of Public Works was postponed indefinitely. The day on which the banquet is to be given on board the Brooklyn to the Portuguese Ministers and local authorities has not yet been determined upon. Portuguese officials continue to visit the American ships and are cordially received. The attention of the public here has been called to the fact that there are large numbers of Portuguese, formerly belonging to the Azores Islands, serving as sailors on board the American ships generally and as musicians on board the flagship Brooklyn. It is reported that the United States cruiser Chicago will sail for New York tomorrow to undergo extensive repairs there.

ABLE HERSELF.
The late Rev. George Koenig, a Brooklyn clergyman, who was rather Puritanical in his views, rebuked one of his parishioners whom he saw with her hair profusely curled. "If the Lord intended your hair to curl," he said, "he would have curled it for you. Whereupon the young lady replied saucily: "He did when I was a baby, but now I am quite able to curl it myself."—Philadelphia Ledger.

UNCLE TOM TABU.
The Howard county (Mo.) court has effectively put an end to all "Uncle Tom's Cabin" shows in that county. In rearranging the license rate for circuses and shows, it was decided to levy a tax of $200 a day on all "Uncle Tom" shows. Howard was the largest slave-holding county in the state.

THE COMET HAS FOUR TAILS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 31.—That Borelli's comet has developed four tails from its forked appendage is the statement made by observers in the Yale University observatory. As the comet approaches the sun in its precipitate attraction it may develop even more tails. Comets have been known to have as many as this, and one had six tails. Professor W. L. Elkins, director of the observatory, and Professor F. W. Chase are nightly observers. A camera has been trained upon the track of the comet every night for weeks past whenever the sky conditions were favorable. In a recent exposure of four hours' duration a negative was obtained, which by development shows very plainly three tails and more faintly a fourth.

The comet is now northeast of the Great Dipper constellation.

The Ancestor Of The Horse

NEW YORK, July 31.—In striking comparison with the monstrous animals of a collection of fossil mammals placed on exhibition today at the American Museum of Natural History, is a clumsy little skeleton of the pantolomoda. It is the oldest complete mounted mammal in existence. The curator says it is 3,000,000 years old. It was found in New Mexico and presents an impressive example of the possibilities of evolution, as illustrating the law of progressive increase in size.

This exhibition of fossils, as rearranged and made public today, represents the results of thirty-three years of exploration and an expenditure of $250,000.

Each alcove contains a group of animals, placed so as to show the evolution in North America of the horse, the elephant, the mastodon and the rhinoceros. Many of the new and important specimens were obtained by the recent expedition sent out at the expense of William S. Whitney.

In the alcove devoted to the evolution of the horse the results of the Whitney explorations in Texas, Nebraska and Colorado are shown. Besides the ancestral four-toed horse, representing the beginning of the series, there are shown the three-toed and one-toed variety. The first named specimen was found in the Wind River beds in Wyoming, and is about the size of a fox. Its frame is not unlike that of the whippet, the swiftest dog of its size.

TIME WORKS A PARDON

SAN RAFAEL, July 31.—After being incarcerated in the State prison for nearly twenty years Fook Yook, a Chinese, will probably be liberated. The man is serving life sentence for murder, but by a technicality his attorneys expect to have him a free man in a short time.

Fook Yook was sent to San Quentin in January, 1882, to serve twenty years for robbery committed in San Francisco. In November of the same year the Chinese killed a fellow convict in San Quentin. He was tried before Judge Bowers, then Superior Judge of Marin County. He was convicted and on April 17, 1883, was sentenced to life imprisonment. On January 22, 1902, he became mentally deranged and was sent to the Stockton Insane Asylum, where he is at present domiciled.

Fook Yook had no friends or money, but recently some relatives in China caused an investigation to be made. Attorney C. T. Hughes of San Francisco was retained to try to procure a pardon for the prisoner. Upon investigation Hughes found flaws in the commitment and instead of asking for a pardon will petition for a writ of habeas corpus. The records of the County Clerk's office has helped to substantiate the ground for release.

George W. Davis was County Clerk of Marin at the time Fook Yook was sent to prison for life, but a careful scrutiny of the records of his regime fail to show that any commitment was ever entered or in fact that the judgment roll was ever filed or that there were any minutes kept of the trial. In fact the only record of the case at all are the filing of Justice Court proceedings and the filing of the information for murder in the Superior Court. These errors, it is claimed by attorneys here, are sufficient to liberate the prisoner.

Fook Yook is 67 years of age.

PROSPECTUS Palmyra Exploitation Co.

A private company under the above name is now formed for the exploitation of Palmyra Island.

It is reported under fair authenticity that a vast quantity of treasure has been cached there which, if said report is verified, will give desirable satisfaction to the shareholders.

But apart from the treasure the Island is immensely rich in its abundance of fish which are of excellent quality and varied description. The most valuable pearl shell has been located there, but has never been worked on a proper basis and there is no reason whatsoever, that the pearl fishery of Palmyra should not prove as profitable as the pearl fisheries of Thursday Island where enormous fortunes have been made.

There is sufficient land of good quality with abundance of water for the purpose of having a small colony of settlers who, in addition to their profitable occupation of fishing in every form, can raise fruit and vegetables of nearly every kind.

The Promoter has secured the option of purchase of this group of Islands, with full rights to occupy and thoroughly exploit the resources during the option, for a tenth part of the net profits.

The shares are placed at one dollar each, so that in the event of an unsatisfactory termination the subscribers will not be financially ruined, but if successful will be repaid by many hundreds of thousands of dollars.

The number of shares to be issued will be twenty thousand, five thousand of which to belong to the Promoter as his interest in the company, he having no further remuneration for either present or future services.

The Promoter will have complete control of the expedition, so accepts all responsibilities as agent for the shareholders.

Palmyra Island consists of a group of nearly fifty islets and lays about one thousand miles south of Honolulu.

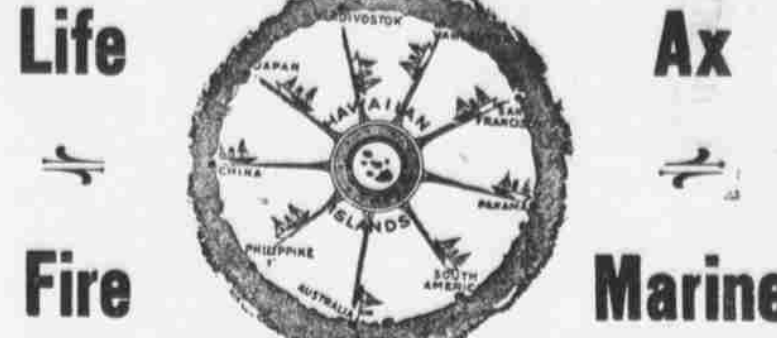

Share certificates of less than five dollars are issued to bearer.

Respectfully submitted,

F. D. WALKER.

Due notice will be given when share certificates will be opened.

DAVIS FILES AN ANSWER

SAYS THAT HE NEVER INTENDED TO MAKE ANY MONEY OUT OF HIS GUARDIANSHIP OF THE CAMPBELL MINORS—ALL HE DID WAS TO HIRE A RELATIVE OF JUDGE GEAR TO MAKE THE MONEY.

George A. Davis this morning filed in the Circuit Court an affidavit in the matter of the guardianship of the minor children of the late James Campbell, answering the affidavit of Cecil Brown filed yesterday. Davis says that a guardian of the children is needed, in order to represent their interests in contesting the will, and he alleges that the sale of the San Jose hotel property to Alice Campbell was a fraud, no money having passed. The affidavit is as follows:

"1. That I was appointed guardian of the property of the above named minors by the Second Judge of this Court without making any application to be so appointed.

"2. That I have not used or did I intend to use the position of guardian for the purposes set forth and contained in the affidavit of Cecil Brown, the trustee under the will of the late James Campbell.

"3. That on an examination of the will of said James Campbell and after consulting H. L. Gear of the San Francisco bar, I instructed him to appeal to the Supreme Court of the State of California against the order of distribution of the Probate Court on the ground that the will was void under the laws of that state, and that the property of the said minors was sold to Alice Campbell for $175,000, no part of which has been paid, and that said sale to her, the said Alice Campbell, was a sham and a fraud upon the said minors.

"4. That I am informed and believe that Cecil Brown induced Fred Harrison, one of the sureties upon my bond filed as guardian to ask to be released, which he, said Harrison, did, and I was forced and compelled to file another bond which I did.

"5. That I have paid the said H. L. Gear, Esq., a retainer of $200 and agreed to pay him $100 more, and I wrote and told him that at the termination of said proceedings his fee should not exceed the sum of $800 to be paid by the two said minors and the Princess Kawananakoa share and share alike, to which said H. L. Gear assented by cablegram now in the possession of the said Princess Kawananakoa, nee Abbie Campbell.

"6. That I received a retainer of $100 from the said Princess Kawananakoa and instituted said appeal in good faith and to protect the property of the said minors and the said Princess.

"7. That I was willing to sign an agreed statement of facts and to submit the will to the Supreme Court of this Territory for construction without incurring any but legitimate expenses; said will needs construction and the action of the trustees in selling the property at San Jose without getting any money therefor requires explanation and the interests of said minors require the appointment of an independent and reliable person to protect their interests, and this court should immediately appoint some suitable person therefor who will do his duty.

"8. That my disbarment as an attorney at law in this Territory without evidence is binding until reversed and a serious reflection upon my standing and led to the resignation filed in this court on the 10th of August, A. D. 1903, and was my voluntary act.

"9. That I never intended to make one dollar out of the property of said minors unless allowed me by this court or the courts of California, and the said Cecil Brown who has intrusted me with important litigation involving thousands of dollars well knows this.

"10. I deny the statements and innuendoes contained in said affidavit and would gladly have resigned except the said Princess Kawananakoa who is contesting said will did not wish me so to do as the interests of said minors and her are identical.

"11. That the appointment of a successor as guardian is absolutely necessary as will be seen from an examination of the record of proceedings had before said Circuit Judge, the Honorable George D. Gear, in the passing of the first accounts of the Executors and Executrix of the last will and testament of the said late James Campbell, deceased, will appear.
