Legitimate Business, Says Pollitz, Will Not Be Hampered

E. Pollitz, the well-known San Francisco financier, who arrived in Honolulu this morning, does not think that the financial disturbances on the Coast will have any serious consequences or that they will seriously hamper legitimate business enterprises. "As a matter of fact, most of the important events in financial circles have taken place since I left San Francisco," said Mr. Pollitz this forenoon. "When I left the situation could not be called desperate, although it was not very good, either. However, there is, I know, enough money in the banks for all legitimate purposes, and the merchants can get money at fair rates of interest. On the other hand, when it comes to speculating and real estate propositions, such as the making of leases and then borrowing money to erect buildings on the leased land, then the banks shut down on it. The savings banks will not loan money for building propositions on leased land, and that is what the present financial stringency means. "San Francisco has done wonders in recuperating from the recent disaster, and one must see the progress she has made in rebuilding the city to be able to believe it. As a matter of fact, the rapidity with which the rebuilding has been done is the main cause of the stringency. If three or

"DR. BICKNELL DID NOT ACT FAIRLY"

Parents Responsibility For Unauthorized Debts Of Son

A very interesting written decision, regarding a parent's liability for debts incurred by a minor child without the authority of the parent has been rendered by Carlos A. Long, Second District Magistrate of Honolulu, in the lawsuit number of Harry T. Mills vs. Edgar Morton. The case was a suit for $100, brought by Mills as assignee of a claim of Dr. Bicknell, dentist, of Honolulu, against Edgar Morton of Maui for services rendered to David Morton, a minor, son of Edgar Morton. The Court decides that the plaintiff cannot recover for services rendered and necessities furnished to the defendant's son without the defendant's authority. The evidence showed that Dr. Bicknell performed the work without first obtaining or attempting to obtain the father's authority. "The Court is of the opinion that Dr. Bicknell did not act fairly in the matter, especially when he was dealing with a minor for services that involved such a large sum as $100. Dr. Bicknell in his testimony stated that he could have treated the boy's pain temporarily to relieve him of any pain till he heard from the father; now it seems obvious to the Court that said dentist disregarded any other authority or anybody else's wishes in this matter but his own and the boy's, and took upon himself the responsibility of enforcing an obligation on the father without his authority or consent, which is in contravention of the principal."

PEASE WILL START WORK ON LEPROSARIUM

F. W. Pease, the engineer who will have charge of the construction of the Federal leprosarium buildings, arrived in the Manchuia this forenoon. He has full authority to let the contracts for the work and to look after the construction, which will begin in the near future. Pease has registered at the Young Hotel and is preparing to stay in the islands for quite a long time.

GOVERNOR FAVORS BANKING MEASURE

May Urge Passage Of Bill For Deposit Of Funds

It is probable that at the next session of the Legislature a government bill will be introduced providing that territorial treasury funds may be deposited in the local banks instead of being piled up in the vaults of the Treasury, as at present. On two occasions attempts have been made to get such a measure through the Legislature, but without success. Governor Pease stated this morning, however, that he would favor such a bill. As to whether or not he would have it introduced, he was not ready to say, remarking that this would depend upon circumstances. "But," he said, "I have the matter down in the notebook in which I keep memoranda of things to be taken up later." Such a measure would considerably help the local money market by putting into circulation a large amount of money which, under the present law, must be kept tied up and bring no interest. Assistant Treasurer Hapai says that there is usually between $300,000 and $400,000 in coin in the treasury vaults. The order of the Governor, made yesterday, allowing certificates of deposit to be taken for taxes will not affect the $300,000 of loan fund now in the vaults. The only treasury coin that will be affected by the order will be that in the Current Expense fund, which at present amounts to something over $50,000.

ADMIRALTY SUIT DISMISSED BY DOLE

Steamship Virginia Is Not Liable For Damages

Judge Dole this morning issued an order dismissing the libel of the British steamship "Virginia," et al by J. J. Moore & Company, a California corporation. The suit was filed several months ago. The plaintiffs claimed that they had chartered the vessel to take lumber from Mukilteo, Washington, to Sydney, New South Wales. Her capacity, as alleged, is 2,500,000 feet, but the master of the vessel claimed that she could not carry that amount safely, and refused to load more than 2,046,000 feet, with which she proceeded on her voyage. The plaintiffs claim that she might easily have carried 254,000 feet more, and that by her failure to do so, they were losers in the sum of $1476.49.

They further complained that when the vessel reached Sydney, the master collected the sum of $29,163.69 freight money, which should have gone to Moore & Co. as charterers of the steamship, and retained possession of it for the owners of the vessel, the Virginia Steamship Co., Ltd.

SHOULD COMPLETE DAM BY DAY LABOR

Holloway Thinks Contract System Will Prove Unsatisfactory

C. S. Holloway is of the opinion that no contract for the completion of the dam should be let, but that it should be finished by day-labor, under the direct supervision of the department. He thinks that this would prove cheaper and that the results would be more satisfactory. This statement he made this morning.

Today is C. S. Holloway's last day in office as Superintendent of Public Works. Early this morning he had all his personal belongings packed ready to move out and turn the office over to his successor, Marston Campbell, who was appointed yesterday by Governor Pease.

During Mr. Holloway's four years as Superintendent of Public Works the department has had a large amount of work to do, and has spent nearly three million dollars. Present projects do not contemplate the expenditure of any such sum during the coming four years. The principal work to be done is the completion of the Nuuanu dam, which will involve the expending of only $132,000—unless it be found that the dam cannot be finished for the amount appropriated for the purpose by the Legislature.

WALL STREET WAS BADLY UPSET

Incidents Of Panic And Comment Of Financiers

The newspapers received by today's mail give more in detail regarding the mainland financial conditions what has already been furnished the readers of the Bulletin through the brief digest given from day to day by the Associated Press. The latest papers are of the date of October 24, the day after the run on the Knickerbocker Trust Company. One of the features of the situation is that in a large degree the trust companies, which have been overreaching, are held responsible for the crisis. The regular banks, while suffering from sympathetic conditions, are in good shape. The great runs have been on trust companies doing a banking business and apparently have taken advantage of lax laws. Although the Knickerbocker Trust Company had to close its doors, the Trust Company of America stood the greatest all-day run that has ever been known in the financial history of New York. Thus it appears that there are great elements of strength in the situation and the shaking-down process is confined to institutions that have been using doubtful

CONDEMNATION SUIT AGAINST MAUKA SITE

Condemnation proceedings were begun yesterday by United States District Attorney Brackens, on behalf of the Federal Government, to acquire title to the Mauka site, which is wanted as a site for the proposed Federal building. The United States is the plaintiff, and there are about sixty defendants, including everybody who has now or ever had any title to the property.

The property which will be required for the extension of Bishop Street is not included in the proceedings, as the United States cannot, under the public buildings act, acquire title to land to be used for streets. This will be left to the Territory to acquire, either by condemnation suit or by some other means.

AGRICULTURAL BOARD MEETS

Many Interesting Matters Were Discussed Fully

The Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry met at an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon, dealing with several matters of importance.

The attention of the Board was taken up with considerable discussion on the matter relating to the main plantation, which is threatening to become a worse pest than lantana. A request to Governor Frenar will be made to appoint F. I. P. Waterhouse as special commissioner on rubber, to visit Ceylon in the interests of that industry.

Superintendent of Forestry Hosmer reported that $2000 had been placed at his disposal by the Federal Department of Agriculture for experimenting in tree planting on the higher levels, the particulars of which he gave later in his report. A vote of thanks to the Washington officials who had secured this sum for Hawaii was passed.

A communication from R. C. Brown announced that the Poultry Association was preparing to hold their annual show on January 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Forester Hosmer read an exhaustive report on the forestry situation of the islands, in which he given numerous suggestions for the benefit of the koe and ohia lumbering interests.

The Board approved of Dr. Norgaard's intended trip about the different islands for the purpose of gathering information for his annual report.

The report on the Nahuiku rubber industry was most favorable. Methods of scientific tapping of the trees to obtain the latex is receiving marked attention.

Mr. Hosmer reports that the new laboratory of the Division of Animal Industry was completed in September and is now ready for occupancy.

There were present at the meeting George R. Carter, C. S. Holloway, W. M. Giffard, A. Crow, F. C. Fitzgerald, V. S. R. S. Hosmer, F. S. Dodge and D. M. Haughts.

TESTIMONY GIVEN ON SALOON BUSINESS TO LICENSE BOARD

Cases of violation of the liquor license law furnished testimony before the License Commission Board yesterday. J. D. Moore's case was the first up for ventilation. Chairman Ballelyne presented the case against Moore. The keeper of the restaurant adjoining, and in the same building, identified receipts for rent and also a notice of the intended raising of the rent. No one appeared for Moore. Through the testimony of the Chinese who operates the restaurant it was made clear that the restaurant was a separate concern.

The case of Ah Chon, of Heela was the next up. Ah Chon took the stand himself and testified that he did not know he was violating the law until he was arrested for it, and that since then he had not sold on credit. W. C. Peacock told about the Chinese translation of the law.

The third and last case was that of Gus Cordes. Cordes is charged with having attempted to transfer his license without the consent of the board. He took the stand and testified that Quong Chong Lung had paid him $500 to obtain control of his saloon, he to remain and was under wages to remain and tend bar. He explained that his white trade was very small, the saloon being mostly visited by Chinese and Japanese.

Cordes asked the Board to be easy with him as he had a large family depending upon him for support and that he was crippled with rheumatism.

The Board held a meeting during the evening to consider the testimony submitted.

CLAUDINE ALL RIGHT

James Sutherland, chief engineer of the steamer Claudine, says that the officers of his ship are in first class condition, and if he does not know, no one does. The reason for the early arrival of the Claudine is, that she is first on the list for inspection and some of the deck machinery needs attention. "Below decks the Claudine is in splendid shape and always has been," says Sutherland. "We're all right everywhere so far as that goes, but there are always slight repairs that have to be attended to. That's what we're looking after this trip."

ATTENTION GIVEN TO PEARL HARBOR

Will Send To Washington Representative To Help

Matters pertaining to Pearl Harbor were given a boost by a special meeting of the trustees of the local Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. The meeting was called by President Morgan for the express purpose of holding a discussion on the advisability of sending to Washington a representative whose sole duty will be to assist in every way in obtaining the appropriation for dredging and widening the channel of Pearl Harbor.

All attending the meeting were in favor of the scheme. That it must be a man thoroughly conversant with all facts and able to answer in an unhesitating manner any and all questions put to him by any member of Congress who desired information, was the consensus of opinion of all present.

The matter will be pushed to an immediate issue, and to this end President Morgan appointed a committee to look into the matter thoroughly and get a line on the ways and means to be employed and also to bring forward a man who would fill the bill, if possible.

The following committee to take charge of the matter was appointed: E. E. Paxton, F. B. McStocker and E. H. Wodehouse.

DIRECTED VERDICT ACQUITS R. W. HOLT

As a result of the testimony of John Marks, who went flatly back on what he had said before the Grand Jury, Judge Lindsay yesterday directed his jury to return a verdict of acquittal for R. W. Holt, who was on trial on the charge of cattle stealing.

Before the Grand Jury Marks said that he had assisted Holt to kill the animals, which were stolen, and had on Holt's orders, cut out the brands. But on the witness stand he told a different story, and claims that what he had said before the Grand Jury was said because he had been intimidated by Sheriff Iaukea and the police.

Marks is himself in serious trouble now. The Grand Jury was called to act yesterday and promptly returned an indictment against Marks, charging him with perjury.

HURSDAY OCTOBER 31, 1907

Marston Campbell has been in the Public Work Department before and he has been recalled to the office.

Chamber of Commerce trustees have decided to make a canvass for a special representative in Washington to urge the Pearl Harbor appropriation and improvement.

KEEPING HAWAII LEVEL.

Governor Frear's decision to accept certificates of deposit in connection with the payment of taxes is desirable, and shows a proper appreciation of the interests of the people.

Under the usual system of tax payment, the Territorial Government takes the coin from local depositaries, and holds it in the vaults at the Capitol until such time as the pay-rolls and other expenses of government cause it to be paid out.

Hawaii was never in better condition to stand a financial strain than it is today and sensible policies adopted by the Government and the people will create the splendid record of this Territory having carried on its business as usual during the period of special stress on the mainland.

There is every reason for the people to stand together in support of conservative action, and every reason for complete confidence in the financial status of Hawaii.

So far as the mainland is concerned, the situation in the East seems to be correcting itself just about the time the pinch has reached the West.

The crisis in New York appears to have been brought about, first, by over-speculation and, secondly, by the doubtful methods in vogue among certain trust companies involved in enterprises affected by speculative values.

There is hardly a place on earth that will not feel the influence of the New York panic to some extent.

WALL STREET

WHAT LONDON THINKS

and the Trust Company of America is to be helped to the extent of its needs.

The muddled financial situation among the trust companies was cleared tonight by conferences between the trust companies of the city, clearing-house bankers and members of the private banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co.

At 12:30 a. m., Frank A. Vanderlip, vice president of the National City Bank, made the following statement: "The situation has been met. The trust companies will come to the aid of the Trust Company of America."

Vanderlip said that Secretary Corteyon will place enough funds in New York banks to meet any emergency.

ICE TRUST BROKEN

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Charles W. Morse, the former ice king, today resigned from every bank and trust company with which he has been connected.

The members of the committee were busy up to a late hour tonight on the books of the National Bank of North America and the New Amsterdam Bank, as well as on those of other financial establishments with which Mr. Morse was associated.

The first intimation Wall Street had of Mr. Morse's desperate financial condition was when a huge volume of bonds of the Consolidated Steamship Company, which controls the coastwise trade of the United States, and which was dominated by Morse,

Frear's Action Prevents Financial Stringency During Tax Period

HAWAII'S FINANCIAL POSITION STRONG

Governor Frear took steps yesterday afternoon to prevent any serious results to Hawaii from the financial stringency and shortage of gold coin that is prevailing on the Coast and in New York.

He notified the banks and sugar agencies that the Territory would accept certificates of deposit in payment of taxes which become delinquent on the 15th of November. This will prevent a heavy withdrawal of coin from the business of the islands, and its useless stacking up in the vaults of the Territorial Treasury.

The Governor did this after a conference with representatives of the banks of the city. These gentlemen had received cables from San Francisco outlining the stringency of coin in that city owing to the unsatisfactory condition in the East.

Consequently Governor Frear took the very wise stand of doing all possible to prevent a serious stringency. In the matter of taxes the Territory will accept certificates of deposit. Thus the surplus cash will be available for public use and not pile up in the Territorial vaults.

The improved financial condition in the East will speedily communicate itself to the banking institutions of the West and the present flurry will soon be a thing of the past.

With the loss of his holdings in the steamship trust, so far as can be learned, Mr. Morse sacrificed all his securities with the exception of his stock in the ice trust.

CHAPTER XIX—CONTINUED

Arriving at the end of the road, the vigilantes debouched and went into the darkness of the canyon behind their leader, to whom the trails were familiar. He bade them pause finally and gave his last instructions.
"They are on the alert, so you want to be careful. Divide into two parties and close in from both sides, creeping as near to the pickets as possible without discovery. When it comes, cut loose and charge like Sioux. Don't shoot to kill at first, for they're only soldiers and under orders, but if they stand well, every man must do his work."
Dextry appealed to the dim figures forming the circle.
"I leave it to you, gents, if it ain't better for me to go inside than for the boy. I've had more experience with giant powder, an' I'm so blamed used up an' near gone it wouldn't hurt if they did get me, while he's right in his prime."
Glenister stopped him. "I won't yield the privilege. Come now—to your places, men."
They melted away to each side while the old prospector paused to wring his partner's hand.
"I'd rather it was me, lad, but if they get you—God help 'em!" He stumbled after the departing shadows, leaving Roy alone. With his naked fingers, Glenister ripped open the powder cases and secreted the contents upon his person. Each cartridge held dynamite enough to devastate a village, and he loaded them inside his pockets, inside his shirt and everywhere that he had room, till he was burdened and cased in an armor one hundredth part of which could have blown him from the face of the earth so utterly as to leave no trace except, perhaps, a pit ripped out of the mountain side. He looked to his fuses and saw that they were wrapped in oil paper, then placed them in his hat. Having finished, he set out, walking with difficulty under the weight he carried.
That his choice of location had been well made was evidenced by the fact that the ground beneath his feet sloped away to a basin out of which bubbled a spring. It furnished the drinking supply of the Midas, and he knew every inch of the crevice it had worn down the mountain, so felt his way cautiously along. At the bottom of the hill where it ran out upon the level it had worn a considerable ditch through the soil, and into this he crawled on hands and knees. His bulging clothes handcuffed him so that his gait was slow and awkward, while the rain had swelled the streamlet till it trickled over his calves and up to his wrists, chilling him so that his muscles cramped and his very bones cried out with it. The sharp schist cut into his palms till they were shredded and bleeding, while his knees found every jagged bit of bedrock over which he dragged himself. He could not see an arm's length ahead without rising, and, having removed his slicker for greater freedom of movement, the rain beat upon his back till he was soaked and sodden and felt streamlets cleaving downward between his ribs. Now and again he squatted upon his haunches, straining his eyes to either side. The banks were barely high enough to shield him. At last he came to a bridge of planks spanning the ditch and was about to rear himself for another look when he suddenly flattened into the stream bed, half damming the waters with his body. It was for this he had so carefully wrapped his fuses. A man passed over him so close above that he might have touched him. The sentry paused a few paces beyond and accosted another, then retraced his steps over the bridge. Evidently this was the picket line, so Roy wormed his way forward till he saw the blacker blackness of the mine buildings, then drew himself, dripping, out from the bank. He had run the gauntlet safely.
Since evicting the owners, the receiver had erected substantial houses in place of the tents he had found on the mine. They were of frame and corrugated iron, sheathed within and suited to withstand a moderate exposure. The partners had witnessed the operation from a distance, but knew nothing about the buildings from close examination.
A thrill of affection for this place warmed the young man. He loved this old mine. It had realized the dream of his boyhood and had answered the hope he had clung to during his long fight against the northland. It had come to him when he was disheartened, bringing cheer and happiness, and had yielded itself like a bride. Now it seemed a crime to ravage it.

HAWAII PRAISED BY VISITING JOURNALIST

His Description Will Be Sent To Baptist Papers

Secretary Wood has prepared the following letter which he will submit to the Promotion Committee at its meeting this afternoon:

For the past week we have had, as a visitor to our city, Mr. Edwin W. Stephens of Columbia, Mo., a journalist and publisher of note, who is about erecting the globe. Mr. Stephens has called at our rooms frequently and at my request prepared a short statement giving his impressions of Hawaii, copies of which I shall take the liberty of sending out to some one hundred papers and magazines representing the Baptist Church in the United States and Canada. Mr. Stephens is well known to the members of this religious body, being Moderator of the Baptist General Association and his words of praise of Hawaii are which follow will be read with interest by many thousands of people.

"My friend, Mr. W. J. Bryan, in his book, descriptive of his tour around the world, denominated the Hawaiian Islands 'A Pacific Paradise.' I have thought of 'The Open Gate' as a good name for them. A trouble, I find, about visiting the islands is the tendency to run into superlatives and compare in such seemingly exaggerated forms of expression as to awaken incredulity on the part of those who have never visited the islands and to whom I may relate my impressions.

I have traveled over practically all of the United States and over most of Europe. Nowhere have I enjoyed, in any one place, such a combination of beautiful scenery, delightful climate, productivity of soil, and such possibilities for the accumulation of wealth. The isolation of the islands is one of its chief attractions to one seeking either health, enjoyment or employment. It is a relief to escape the tiring bustle and friction of the mainland and to find quiet and opportunity for thought and rest and communion with one's self afforded by these islands. Nowhere in the world have I seen such blending of color and such variety of scenery in mountains, valleys and ocean. Nowhere have I known such uniformity and delightfulness of climate and nowhere more profusion of flowers and rich tropical vegetation. It is a land of beauty and should give to the world a race of artists and poets.

One of the features of special advantage is the intermingling of so many diverse races in such friendly and mutually helpful relations, and not the least important consideration attending to the islands is the fact that they occupy a strategic, convergent place in the Pacific, rendering them a key to commercial and political power. It was a great day for the United States when they were acquired.

Our Government cannot overestimate the importance of thoroughly re-organizing them. When their beautiful and advantages are understood, I can see there will be a constant stream of visitors and home-seekers to them.

I have traveled from Honolulu to Hialeah, through sugar and pineapple plantations, without limit, and have been everywhere impressed with the beauty of the scenery, the glories of the climate and the exhaustless possibility of the soil.

(Signed) E. W. STEPHENS

NEW APPOINTMENTS MADE BY IAUKEA

Old Officers Promoted And New Men Added To Force

Sheriff Iaukea has practically completed the making of the list of new appointments, with which he was rendered able to increase the police force since his great victory over Chairman Huestax of the Board of Supervisors. The pay for the new officers will be taken from the increased appropriation.

Richard C. Lane has been appointed assistant back inspector. Lane was at one time deputy sheriff of Koaia, and is one of the best men on the force. His new position will by no means be a sinecure, since the Sheriff expects him to see that hereafter the back regulations are strictly enforced, especially the one providing that hackmen cannot leave their horses on the stands untied, and that providing that fare schedules must be found in all hacks. He will also have to see to the strict observance of the rule of the road.

John K. Prendergast, who was prominent in the councils of the Democrats during the last campaign, will be transient officer.

Henry Espinda has been appointed a special in the detective service. He has for several years been on the bicycle force.

Harry S. Swinton has been appointed special waterfront officer. Swinton was for many years engaged in

MANY ISLANDERS

RETURN IN MANCHURIA

The Manchuria arrived this morning with 499 bags of mail and 178 tons of general cargo for this port. About 428 tons of freight are for the Orient. Among the island people who returned were Prince David and Col. Sam Parker.

Eben Low is another kamaaina who returned from the mainland. He says that there is plenty to do in the line of gold mining, but on account of cold weather he decided to come back to the land of his birth and warm up.

Attorney A. R. Cunha, accompanied by his wife, returned after a long absence from the Territory.

Judge S. B. Kingsbury, who was married while on the mainland, returned with his bride.

Carl Widenmann, who went away in search of a gold mine, arrived this morning, but gave no account of his mission.

C. C. von Harms, manager of the von Hamm-Young Co., returned from a business trip.

J. R. Galt of the Hawaiian Trust Co. also returned.

Miss Keoloha Kokele, a young Hawaiian lady, returned after an absence of a year and a half in San Francisco and Oakland. She expects to remain here for about six months and will again go back to the mainland.

Among the through passengers is J. D. Spreckels Jr., who goes to the Orient for his health. Mrs. Spreckels accompanied him. He was met at the wharf by W. G. Irwin, who will entertain him during his short stay here.

The Manchuria will resume her voyage at 5 o'clock this afternoon for the Orient.

Tahiti Prince Will Marry

IS IN SAN FRANCISCO NOW AND WILL MARRY 'FRISCO GIRL THIS MONTH

Pala Salmon of Tahiti, a prince of the royal blood, has found his affinity. Not the dark hued Lillokalan, one time sovereign of the Kanakas, but a San Francisco girl is the one upon whom the South sea potentate will bestow his hand and fortune, says the S. F. Call. The prince refused to divulge the name of his bride elect, but admits that the marriage will take place before the end of this month. Gossip has it that she is a niece of a prominent retired army officer living in this city.

"The marriage will take place before I leave," said Prince Salmon yesterday. "You may count upon that, even if I have to kidnap the girl. I'm going to take no chances on her getting away from me. There's always another fellow, you know."

But the prince's appearance belied his misgivings indicated by his words.

"She'll have me; she'll have me," he cried, and his 320 pounds shook with unrestrained joy. "I've offered her my heart and my hand and even my gouty feet, and she has accepted them all."

The coming marriage has excited a deal of interest and much speculation is rife as to the identity of the fiancée.

The names of nearly all the eligibles in San Francisco society have been mentioned in this connection, but as yet nothing certain has been learned.

On the arrival of the prince in this city some six weeks ago it was believed that he was on his way to Honolulu, here to become the husband of Queen Lillokalan. Consequently great surprise was felt when the announcement of his proposed marriage to a San Franciscan was made. Waving his hand toward the direction of the Sandwich Islands, the prince exclaimed:

"No, no; my heart is not there. It is here among your charming San Franciscan girls."

"Yes, prince, but where? There are lots of them here."

"Ah, that's the secret," he smilingly replied.

COURTMARTIAL IS PROBABLE FOR MATE MACKEY

From what has leaked out of the findings of the Board of Inquiry lately held to investigate the death of John Collarey on the Fish Commission S. S. Albatross, it is almost certain that courtmartial proceedings will obtain against Machinists Mate Mackey, who was in the engine-room at the time of the accident and whose duty it was to shut off the steam from the injured valve before any attempt was made to remove it. A duty which he neglected to perform. Should such proceeding be inaugurated, they will be ordered from Washington after the Naval Board has examined the reports of the local board, and will take place on the Albatross wherever she may be at the time.

HAD ONLY ONE SHOE.

John Samoa appeared before Judge Lindsay this morning, charged with larceny in the second degree. He confessed to stealing a pair of shoes, although only one shoe was found in his possession when he was arrested. He entered a plea of guilty and the judge let him off easy, sentence being suspended for thirteen months.

FARMERS' DANCE

The Farmers' Ball given last night by the Pacific Rebekeh Lodge No. 1 at K. of P. hall was largely attended and quite a number were in costume. Rubie and his good wife were very much in evidence.

The Kawahau Glee Club furnished the sweet strains that kept the nimble feet moving. Light refreshments were furnished throughout the evening and a good time generally was had.

The entertainment was in charge of a committee composed of Mrs. Alexander Pratt, Mrs. F. G. Noyes, Mrs. Tracy Lando, Miss Marion Wright and Mrs. Fred. Wicke. F. G. Noyes and Charles Simpson acted as floor managers.

Miss M. E. Leslie, of the ladies, was awarded the prize for the best-sustained character, and Mrs. E. A. Jacobson that for the most original. W. H. Stroud captured the prize for gentlemen for best-sustained character and the most original character was held down by Fred. Noyes.

THREE INDICTMENTS RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

Kankichi Hirano is having his troubles come in bunches lately. This morning the Grand Jury returned another indictment against him, making three in all that he has to face. The present true bill charges him with perjury.

According to the specifications, the crime was committed on March 9 last at the Immigration Station. Hirano swore that a Japanese woman immigrant, whom he called Chitose Hirano, but whose true name is said to be Suo Koya, was his daughter, which statement is said to be a perjury.

One of the previous charges against Hirano is that he imported women into the country for unlawful purposes, and this woman is supposed to be one of them.

Sueno herself is also indicted for perjury, she having sworn that she was Hirano's daughter in order to be allowed to land.

One other indictment was returned this morning, but it is on the secret list. A bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of the person indicted.

CAMPBELL THE MAN

Marston Campbell is the new Superintendent of Public Works. Campbell was offered the place by the Governor Tuesday, following the meeting of business men, and asked for time to consider it. He called at the Governor's office at 3 o'clock Wednesday and had a long conference with the Governor during which he notified the Governor of his acceptance.

Campbell first entered the service of the local government when Alexander Young was Superintendent of Public Works. Campbell was Road Supervisor. He was later appointed Assistant Superintendent of Public Works by Jas. H. Boyd, and also served under H. E. Cooper. He went out soon after Governor Carter took office. He has since been with the von Hamm-Young Company and the Honolulu Iron Works.
