ASSESSOR KNOCKED OUT

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS TAX APPEAL COURT.

Assessor Placed Too High Valuation on Maui Plantation and Appeal Court Overruled Him.

The Supreme Court this morning handed down a decision dismissing the appeal of Tax Assessor Wilcox from the ruling of the tax appeal court in the valuation of R. R. Hind's Maui plantation, and ordering that the valuation placed on the land by that body be enforced. The decision was given in the appeal which the tax assessor took from the decision of the tax appeal court reducing his assessment on the property in question.

The decision is as follows: "An appeal from the decision of the tax appeal court of the third division, district of Kohala, Island of Hawaii, Territory of Hawaii. The record in this case shows that the appellee, R. R. Hind, returned for taxation, for the year 1899, Maui plantation, located at Kohala, Island of Hawaii, at a valuation of $223,351; that the tax assessor for said district increased this valuation to the sum of $237,000; that from this increased valuation the tax payer, the appellee herein, appealed to the tax appeal court for said district, that a hearing was had before said court and a number of witnesses were examined for each of the parties to the controversy; that at the conclusion of the hearing the members of the tax appeal court were unanimous in the opinion that the valuation placed on said property by the assessor was excessive and made an order reducing the amount thereof to $223,000, being the same as the valuation for the preceding year; that from said order the tax assessor herein, noted and perfected an appeal to this court.

"The Supreme Court of the Republic of Hawaii in the elaborate and exhaustive opinion rendered in the tax assessment appeal cases H Hawaii 333 to 345, announced the rules that should govern and clearly points out the various elements that shall be taken into consideration by tax assessors in valuing property for taxation purposes. The tax laws of the territory are the same as those of the Republic at the time said opinion was rendered.

"The tax assessor relies principally for the correctness of his valuation on the fact that the court placed a valuation on this property for taxation for the year 1897 (H Hawaii, 252) of $267,500 and the acquisition of additional lands by the appellee. The appellee contends that the valuation placed on the plantation for the year 1897, was based on evidence showing an average yield of 2 5/8-100 tons of sugar per acre and that the evidence for the year 1899 shows a yield of only 1 1/5 tons per acre and no profit but a possible loss on the year's business; that the rainfall in the district is decreasing each year and that irrigation is being practiced and is an experiment and that the additional lands are leaseholds held at high rental and that it is problematical whether they will be a source of profit or loss to the plantation and that these leaseholds were taken into consideration by the court in fixing the valuation for the year 1897.

"We are convinced that the evidence supports the contention of the appellee and fully sustains the tax appeal court in reducing the valuation placed on the property by the assessor to the amount of the assessment thereon for the preceding year, and that an appeal therefrom by the assessor cannot be sustained.

"The appeal is therefore dismissed and the order of the tax appeal court placing a valuation on Maui plantation for taxation for the year 1899 of $223,000 is affirmed."

MORE CAMPAIGN RIBBONS

THE INDEPENDENTS NOW HAVE A HAT BAND.

Wilcox Says There are No Democrats on Maui or Hawaii—Republican Meetings Today—Prince David.

At Waialua last night there was a large gathering to hear the Democratic candidate for delegate to congress. Today and this evening meetings are being held at various points along the line of the railroad and in Koolau.

On his return from this trip, Prince David will go by the Waialeale for a short tour of Maui returning in time for the election.

The Democrats will hold a big rally and mass meeting at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Honaunika near the relief camp.

The Republicans will hold a big rally at Alaa Park this evening. A number of noonday campaign meetings were held in various parts of the city.

The number of Republican hat bands seen on the street is constantly growing. The Independent party has now got out a hat ribbon a few of which are beginning to be seen on the streets today. It is a brown ribbon with the words "Kuokoa Home Rule" and the motto of the party on it.

According to Robert Wilcox there are no Democrats to be found on either Maui or Hawaii. They have vanished into the air, he says. The Republicans and Independents are the only parties on those islands. Wilcox came home last Saturday after being away eleven days. This was one of the longest trips he has made in several months. Wilcox went to Hilo, then to Kona and Kau. The rain interfered considerably with the meetings at Hilo but a good sized crowd attended in spite of the heavy down-pour.

From Hawaii, Wilcox went over to Maui where he visited Waialuku, Waialeale and Lahaina. This will be the last trip Wilcox will make to the other islands, before election. The balance of the time between now and election day he will devote to campaigning in Oahu.

Wilcox says that he thinks it would be a good idea for the Independents to have tables near the voting booths, where the natives can go and receive information as to the proper method of voting for the Independent candidates. Today the headquarters of the Home Rule Party has been thronged with natives who are being instructed regarding the ballots. George Markham and Robert Boyd went to Puloa today and will return this evening.

Much interest is being felt in the tennis tournament which has been scheduled for early next month. The doubles is the event which is causing the discussion. It is feared that the tournament may be postponed. A number of couples are practicing hard. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elston the present holders of the championship are said to be playing very strong tennis.

FACED LOADED REVOLVER

DEPUTY CHILLINGWORTH'S GOOD NERVE.

Few men have looked death in the face more closely or more calmly than did Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth last night. He had to face a loaded revolver in the hands of a desperate prisoner. Only his own coolness and the prisoner's lack of nerve saved him from being killed.

Charles Heffernan, who is accused of having passed a forged check and who also holds the distinction of having made a nice escape from the prison in Honolulu, is the man at whose hands the deputy sheriff so nearly met death. Heffernan was being driven to Oahu jail in a hack.

Just after the railroad station had been passed the prisoner said he was sick and asked to be allowed to get out of the hack for a minute. He was no sooner allowed to do so than he drew a revolver and leveled it at the deputy sheriff.

It was a ticklish situation, but Chillingworth appeared to be primed for it. "It was just like a play on the stage," said Chillingworth afterwards, "telling about it. The hackman said he had a lump in his throat yet, at midnight.

The prisoner said he must have his liberty and told the officer to get out of the hack "if you are going to shoot, do it," said Chillingworth. He was unarmed, and told Heffernan that but for this fact the job would not be so easy. "I remember that I was thinking of poor Correa, hack driver in front," said Chillingworth this morning. "I thought to myself that if I was shot Heffernan would of course have to kill Correa too to put a witness out of the way."

Heffernan evidently thought he would be able to scare the officer into letting him go, but he was mistaken. He finally said that though he didn't want to be shot, whereupon Chillingworth said he wasn't to be bluff. Heffernan, who had evidently made up his mind to be impressive, said he would say good-bye before shooting and he held out his left hand to shake.

Chillingworth ended the situation very quickly when he got hold of the hand. Heffernan was jerked half into the hack with a force that ended his chances. Chillingworth got hold of the revolver, keeping the hammer in his grasp, and he soon had his prisoner again. An unarmed man with nerve had beaten an armed man without.

At Oahu prison Heffernan made another "situation." There was a rifle standing in one corner of the room into which he was first taken. Chillingworth and Jailor Henry were alone with him, when he was observed to be slowly edging towards the rifle. This game was stopped in time, however. Heffernan was searched and placed in a tank.

This morning Heffernan was in the police court. There were two charges against him, one the original charge of passing a check for $180 to which the name of a lady had been forged, and the other of assault with intent to commit murder. He waived examination in both cases and was committed to the Circuit court for trial.

Heffernan's alleged crime was committed at Waialuku. He was taken to Honolulu prison by climbing over a gate that leads into the corridor near the high sheriff's office. He must have been watching for a chance, as there is generally some one at hand who would stop such an escape. Once over the gate, he had no trouble in walking out of the building.

CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT.

HILO, October 27.—W. A. Purdy, first manager of the Hilo branch of the American Bank, retires from his position today and will be succeeded by Norman L. Halstead, brother of Mrs. Dr. Reid. During the ten months of Major Purdy's management, Hilo has won the confidence of the public and become a social favorite and a popular business man. He will probably remain in Hilo, though he is as yet undecided.—Hawaii Herald.

RAILROAD COTTAGES.

NEW ICEMEN.

WAILUKU, October 27.—A new enterprise has just been started. It is one of the biggest enterprises that Maui will see. It is a combination business, that will supply electric power to Kaula and Waialeale, carry on a business, steam laundry and a soda and ice business. Among the principal persons interested in it are W. T. Robinson, W. H. Field and Attorney Coke.

WATER FROM IAO.

Both Surface and Sub-Surface are Being Utilized.

WAILUKU, October 27.—The tunnel being run in Iao Valley by Manager Wells, under superintendency of Carl Waldeyer, has reached a length of 750 feet and has developed a million gallons of water per 24 hours. The head of the tunnel is now 35 feet below the surface. In traversing it, the water is heavy water bearing strata. It will probably be run 250 feet further, and will be completed in a couple of months.

Grinwood & Richardson have completed a preliminary survey of the grade and water supply of Iao Valley for electrical purposes, but the unusual amount of rain at present has delayed further operations temporarily.

BY THE STEAMSHIP QUEEN

HONOLULU PASSENGERS FOR THE COAST.

The steamship Queen, Captain Reilly, leaves tomorrow afternoon for San Francisco, with quite a large passenger list. She may make another trip here, if the new steamer, Mies, does not get ready for business in time to keep the Oceanic Company's time tables without using the Queen.

Latest reports are that the first of the new vessels, the Sierra, will leave San Francisco on the 20th of November, the date on which the second one, the Sonoma, was to have left. The Sierra was booked for leaving San Francisco tomorrow, but is on her way round the Horn. If she reaches San Francisco in time she will be here on the 27th of next month. If not the Queen is likely to make another run.

The Queen made a good record coming here. She has big keels, which are counts for the fact that she does not do all the rolling that her appearance would lead people to expect from her. When she is through with Honolulu "it was just like a play on her old run up the Pacific coast, where she is very popular.

The following passengers are booked to leave here on the Queen tomorrow: D. M. Aiden, A. A. Whiteley, R. C. Lennie, H. B. Roan, Walter Bram, Dr. T. J. Fraser, Sister Bonaventure, Sister Vincent, Mrs. Knapp, Dr. Hendricks, Charles Stallman and wife, Mrs. W. S. Cole and child, George Toomb, Mr. and Mrs. Burnham, W. F. Dixey, J. H. Spohn, Samuel Well, Mrs. Cohen, Miss L. McBoyle, Miss W. L. Smith, A. G. Glenn, wife and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harris and daughter, S. Marcus and wife, Mrs. M. L. Reed, Miss A. W. Hayson, Mrs. A. R. Conklin, J. H. Makins, Miss Downing, Miss G. E. Malsland, G. A. Galbraith and wife, D. C. Becker and wife, G. A. Rathbun and wife, H. L. Baldwin, E. B. Thomas and daughter, A. F. Baumgartner, P. S. Osgood, G. H. Farnsworth.

The band will be on hand to play off the Queen, which will be the first steamer to have music on the wharf since the vacation of the musicians began.

ALL THE POLICE DRUNK

KAHANE TELLS WHY HE WAS ARRESTED.

Officers Thought He was Intoxicated But the Beams Were in Their Own Eyes.

Kahane was the star among the 26 drunks before Judge Wilcox this morning and the only one in the lot who did not plead guilty. Kahane had a new kind of defense, which created something of a sensation. He pleaded that the police were drunk instead of him and gave testimony to that effect.

Kahane was arrested by Officer Thomas who found him doing the light fantastic, to void music of his own, on a sidewalk. Efforts to make Kahane go home were useless and so he was gathered in. Two other officers testified that Kahane was very drunk.

Then Kahane told his story. He had been sober himself when arrested, but the officer's condition was quite disagreeable. Arresting him was only a graceful freak on the part of the officer.

At the station every officer in sight was as drunk as Thomas. White men and natives as well, the police department appeared to be having one of the times of the century. One of the bits of hilarity they indulged in was putting Kahane in a cell, all laboring under the hallucination that he, and not they, was drunk.

The judge forbore stopping to analyze the evidence and Kahane went below to work out $2 and costs. He had made a good fight but the law of probabilities appeared to be against him.

Paradise and Monday Cruz were given similar sentences and J. McNeil was treated likewise, after a good deal of trouble had been encountered in getting his plea of guilty. He didn't seem to quite understand the charge until it was put very plainly and concisely.

"Drunk or not drunk?" demanded the judge.

"O, drunk your honor, drunk," said McNeil with a sudden light of comprehension on his face, and he was fined $2.

Maliwiski was the only one of the lot to free. He is a Pole and doesn't know English. He knew the meaning of the word drunk, and shook his head vigorously when asked if he had been under the influence. By a pantomime he managed to make it appear that he had taken one solitary drink before being arrested. Chillingworth entered a nolle prosequere rather than hold the case over and send for an interpreter.

"Take your hat and go," said the judge and Maliwiski didn't wait for the ruling to be translated.

GREAT PIANO AUCTION.

The 9 Kingsbury Pianos to be sold by Morgan next Wednesday, will be on exhibition all day tomorrow.

The buyers create the price and will be assisted by easy terms of payment. $50 to be paid in cash, $10 per month on balance without interest.

POLICEMEN WOULD STRIKE

THE PARKER-HANRAHAN ROW REACHES A CRISIS.

Officer Hanrahan No Longer a Member of the Force—Officers Threatened to Strike for Parker.

Senior Police Captain Parker has scored on Officer Hanrahan. The latter is no longer a member of the force and all because Parker suddenly decided that he would either resign himself or have Hanrahan out. There are various reports made to the High Sheriff about the dispute between the two officers and at the end of the discussions Hanrahan handed in his badge.

The row that had developed between the two officers threatened for a time to involve the police department in a very undesirable storm. The many natives on the force, as well as many of the whites, are staunch friends of Parker. If his resignation had been accepted, it is stated, High Sheriff Brown would have come down town this morning to face a general strike of policemen, and the situation would have been anything but pleasant.

Senior Captain Parker is a highly popular officer. He has a long and creditable record and when the news was circulated that he had handed in his resignation because he would not associate with Hanrahan and that the differences between the two men were the subject of an investigation, there was a general rally to the Parker stand, especially among the natives.

"Over half of the police force of Honolulu would simply have gone on strike if Parker had not been sustained," said one member this morning. "For the boys did not propose to see their friend Captain Parker turned down without showing their feelings."

Hanrahan has been a very active member of the department, being, in fact, in some way connected with nearly every case of importance that has been on the calendar since his appointment. He was clothed with a good deal of unusual authority by the high sheriff, being allowed to make arrests on his own responsibility in opium cases and others of the kind, as no other members of the department, except the high sheriff and deputy were allowed to do. He was rapidly promoted and appeared to be in high standing, and this is said by his friends to have been the reason why others did not like him.

There was general rejoicing at the station this morning, among the various native employees, over the overthrow of Hanrahan. The latter was decidedly unpopular, either through jealousy, as his friends say, over his rapid promotion to special privileges, or for some other reasons.

The immediate cause of the last row with Parker was an arrest made on Saturday by Officer Thomas at Hanrahan's request. The charge was drunkenness. When Captain Parker saw the prisoner he declared him not drunk and ordered Thomas to make no more arrests for Hanrahan.

Hanrahan went to Parker and demanded that he refrain from any further interference with him in his work. Captain Parker called another officer and Hanrahan was escorted out of the police station and told to stay away. Both officers made a report to Brown. Parker declaring he would not work any more with Hanrahan on the force. Hanrahan declared he would not resign, said High Sheriff Brown, this morning. "The situation was simply that Captain Parker and Officer Hanrahan could not both remain on the force, and Mr. Hanrahan went."

POTATO BLIGHT.

Vines Drying Up and Dying all Over Kula.

PAIA, Maui, October 27.—A potato blight has struck Kula, and farmers there are losing all their potato crop. The potato vines just dry up and die, and the blight seems to be traveling throughout the entire district. There will soon not be a potato to be bought in Kula. General opinion is that the blight is caused by the great amount of rain, coming after so many months of drought.

RAILROAD CHANGES.

WAILUKU, October 27.—Ferdinand Hons, who has been employed by the Kahului Railroad Company for some time past succeeds D. L. Meyer as general freight agent. Mr. Hons is of Honolulu, succeeds Ferdinand Hons as freight clerk. D. Meyers who has been agent of the department for the past six years, has resigned, and will move his residence to Wailuku, and will enter into a new enterprise.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The people of Maui should at once organize a horticultural society. There are enough people interested in such matters to make the society a success, and there is very much good and needed work to be done by such a society. It would, for one thing, enlist the interest of people with small land holdings in the planting fruits well adapted to the soil and climate, and directly and indirectly do much to promote the interests of the island, and at the same time supply a long felt want for island fruits.—Maui News.

FASHION FOR OAHU JAIL

Some Reforms in Tailoring of Prisoners Suggested to the Council by Attorney General Dole.

No business of importance was transacted at the executive council this morning some of the time being occupied with a discussion of the fashions best suited for garbing prisoners in Oahu jail.

Attorney General Dole recommended a change in the custody of prisoners. In future, prisoners convicted of infamous crimes should be confined in the Oahu jail while those who have been convicted of merely misdemeanor offences should be kept in the prisons in the districts where the offences were committed. Attorney General Dole further recommended that misdemeanors and infamous classes be kept separate. It was also recommended that those convicted of lesser crimes wear uniforms of blue instead of the double colors now in use and that those serving sentences for infamous crimes wear the stripes. These changes were urged on account of both better discipline as well as being cheaper. Attorney General Dole also brought up the matter of the payment of physician's bills for attending prisoners. No action was taken in either instance by the council.

The matter of cutting Queen street through the Bishop property, to enable the rapid transit company to run its lines was also discussed. W. O. Smith was called upon and he stated that the estate had heard nothing of the latest plans proposed so the council decided not to make the necessary recommendation until after the transit people shall have complied with certain requirements.

A petition from a resident at Makawao on Maui was read by Treasurer Lansing, asking for permission to make wine from grapes. No objection was made.

THAT KAMALO SUGAR STOCK. Arguments were heard this morning by Circuit Judge Humphreys in the matter of the amended complaint in the suit of Hitchcock et al against Sustace, Foster, Egan and the Kamalo Sugar Company. Davies, Neumann and Henshall appeared for the plaintiffs and Robertson and Wilder for the defendants. The court announced that he would decide the matter next Thursday.

Pulse Beats.

Put a finger on your pulse. Do you feel the throbbing beats come strong and regular, or are they weak and uncertain? A weak pulse means a weak heart and retarded circulation of the blood. It means stomach trouble, indigestion, pain in left side, dizzy spells, shortness of breath, palpitation, fainting or sinking spells and breaking down of the entire system. If your heart is weak and your pulse irregular begin at once to guard against the coming breakdown by taking

DOCTOR MILES' Heart Cure,

The Great Heart and Blood Tonic.

"I had much pain about the heart, palpitation and irregular pulse, and for nearly three months had to be propped up in bed to keep from smothering. I had frequent sinking spells when it seemed as though my heart had stopped beating entirely and the most heroic measures were necessary to revive me. I had no appetite for food and lost flesh rapidly. Seeing that my doctors were doing me no good I took the advice of an old friend and began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. The good effects were so apparent that I kept on with it, and I am satisfied that I owe my restoration to that valuable remedy."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold at all drug stores on a positive guarantee. Write for free advice and booklet to Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

TARIFF WALL STILL UP

HAWAII SHIPMENTS DUTABLE AT AMERICAN PORTS.

An Important Tariff Rule that Has Been Ignored at San Francisco—Baggage Examination Called for.

There is a large quantity of goods in Hawaii yet that is not entitled to admission to the United States without paying duty at the port of entry, and the question of how to look after it is demanding the attention of the authorities at San Francisco. The territorial bill passed provided that dutiable goods in Hawaii imported before June 14, must pay tariff on being sent to the United States, and this appears to make it the duty of the custom house at San Francisco to examine baggage from Hawaii just as though it came from a foreign country.

Section 93 of the territorial bill says that "imports from any of the Hawaiian Islands into any state or other territory of the United States of any dutiable articles not the growth, production or manufacture of said islands, and imported into them from any foreign country after July 7, 1898, and before this act takes effect, shall pay the duties that are imposed on the same articles when imported into the United States from any foreign country."

This means that goods held in Hawaii that are dutiable under the American tariff laws, cannot be shipped to the United States without payment of tariff if such goods came here before June 14. The treasury department has made a ruling requiring that such goods, when sent to any American port, must be accompanied by a certificate from collector Stackable or the deputy at the port of shipment, stating when the goods were brought into Hawaii.

At San Francisco up to this time no notice has been taken of this rule but it is said that in the future travelers from Hawaii will find customs men on hand to examine their baggage and collect duty as from a foreign country, unless it can be shown that the dutiable articles in the baggage were imported into Hawaii since June 14 of this year.

It is said that an appeal will be made against the section quoted, which appears to be worded so that it will remain in operation indefinitely. In due time, it is supposed, the treasury department will conclude to rescind the law, and allow all goods that are in Hawaiian territory to be considered as American. This will necessarily mean the admission to American territory of a large quantity of goods that were imported into Hawaii before American tariffs were put in force, as there are considerable stocks of such goods here.

At present, however, local holders of dutiable goods in Hawaii cannot ship them to the United States, according to the law, without paying American tariff.

DIVERGENT VIEWS.

Length of stay in an Oriental country does not always argue thorough knowledge of the ways of thought of the inhabitants. At the time of the Indian mutiny there were men who spoke the vernacular fluently, had been either as military men or civilians connected intimately with the natives for from thirty to forty years, yet these men could not see the coming storm, and could not believe it when it finally burst over their heads sweeping them away in the cataclysm.

The same is quite applicable to the condition in China. One can now see the mutterings of the storm which culminated in the attempt to massacre the foreigners in Peking, and indeed the intention to drive all foreigners out of China. But people who had lived a life time in China, who were thoroughly acquainted with the vernacular, and were on intimate terms with many Chinese of prominence, had no inkling of the coming catastrophe, and fully believed in the lying decrees of the Chinese court.

One doubts, then, very much whether the diagnosis of the reform movement in China, which is made by some of the old residents is correct. They have been so accustomed to the arbitrary power of the court, that it must seem invincible to them. But to the looker on from a distance this does not appear so invincible. The power of the court has been seriously shaken, and with Germany's determined attitude and possible spring campaign, is likely to the further broken.

Again, Southern China has always represented the rule of the Manchus. It is in Southern China that the Reformers are working. The Southern Chinese will if they see Dr. Sun and the reformers have initial success, flock to their standard. It must be remembered that the propaganda of the reformers is carried on in the vernacular and that it is carried on by Chinese themselves, not by foreigners. Leung Chi-iso, for instance was entirely ignorant of English. There is no word of religion in the propaganda. It is intellectual and practical. Under such circumstances the spread of reform ideas may be far more rapid than any of the old residents can be made to believe. The regeneration of China will come from within and not from without. Because the regeneration from without has almost made no progress, there is no reason why the regeneration from within should not make great progress.

The Tai Ping rebellion shook the throne of the Manchus to its very foundation, and it probably would have continued far longer, and might even have succeeded, had it not been for the Americans and English soldiers of fortune who enlisted in the Imperial forces and helped to drill them into effective troops.

The Imperial forces on this occasion will have practically no assistance in this direction, and what has already been done for them, has been greatly thrown out of gear by the success of the allies. The revolutionary forces, on the other hand, are likely to have a good deal of this kind of aid, both from policy of the national governments and from sympathy with a people trying to break through the trammels of an ultra conservative power, a tyrannical power which they hope to break.

In spite, therefore, of adverse criticism upon the part of old residents in China, the teachings of history show us that the reform movement in Southern China may become of very formidable proportions and may ultimately mould the future of a part, if not the whole of the country.

TUBERCULOSIS.

We shall have to meet tuberculosis in some way. The year's record, up to the present, has exceeded the record of any previous year. Activity has been displayed in many parts of the mainland. Both Boston and Trenton have recently tried to isolate consumptives under certain quarantine regulations. Massachusetts has a State Hospital for consumptives which has now been open for two years.

A report for the first year's work shows that of 212 cases of all degrees, that were treated 39.97 per cent were discharged cured after an average stay of four months, 46.19 per cent were discharged as improved, and 21.23 per cent were recorded as not improved. A sanitarium at Fort Bayard, N. M., which has been established by the United States Government, for soldiers suffering from consumption, reports that twelve cases of incipient consumption have been completely cured during the past year.

These are extremely encouraging facts and show that we need not throw up our hands and do nothing for consumptives, but allow them to die. We need not give up, but we do need to make war upon the disease. We have beaten a good many forms of disease, as in the case of small-pox, which is no longer the scourge of the human race that it used to be. In point of fact it is the rarest thing to meet a person now marked with small-pox, fifty years ago it was quite a common thing, a hundred years ago the proportion of people so marked was enormous, while the death rate from it was frightful.

In this Territory the spread of tuberculosis has been very rapid. We do not know fully how rapid, because we have no statistics outside of Honolulu. But we know how much it has increased here. Unless some organized fight is made, it will continue to increase more rapidly still, because each person attacked becomes a center from which further cases will spring. Fortunately there is much that can be done to check the inroads, and probably to eradicate them.

Medical men, are now extremely confident of their ability to cope with tuberculosis if it can be seen in time. The sanitarium treatment of the disease has been very successful, and doctors have begun to realize that not drugs and charge of climate, but fresh air, good food, freedom from care, and the constant encouragement and direction of a medical adviser are the important elements in the treatment of the disease.

In the recent medical congress held in Paris, the subject of tuberculosis was fully discussed. It was pointed out that an early diagnosis is most important, and there have been great advances in the ability to do this. It is a case of the stitch in time.

In one communication it was pointed out that the general family history might give valuable hints. Just as soon as the tubercle bacillus begins to grow in the human body, it commences to elaborate toxins that get into the general circulation. These are especially liable to affect any organ within the body that is not up to the normal standard of health. If, for instance, the patient comes of a family of dyspeptics, then the stomach is likely to be affected early; if of a rheumatic family, then joint symptoms will be observed.

Attention to the family history, then, may enable the practitioner to suspect the preliminary stages of tuberculosis long before any physical signs would furnish sufficient grounds for a diagnosis. The Roentgen rays are of some service, too, but there was a new method presented at this congress that promises to make the diagnosis of tuberculosis in its earliest stages a simple procedure.

The method suggested is precisely the same as that used at present for the assured recognition of typhoid fever. If a drop of the blood of a typhoid patient be added to a culture of typhoid bacilli, it causes the bacilli to become massed together, to become agglutinated. The blood of a person who either has not or has not had typhoid will not cause this reaction to take place. Professor Arloing, of Marseilles, has discovered that a similar reaction takes place if the blood of a tuberculous patient be added to a liquid culture of tubercle bacilli. Early diagnosis then becomes easy. If tuberculosis can be discovered with certainty in its incipient stages, its cure is comparatively simple.

Armed with the knowledge the physician will be able to know for certain, and not have to guess, until guessing is too late and fatal certainty is reached by the disease becoming fully developed. If this fact is true the war against tuberculosis can be carried on with hope for complete success.

Hefferman seems to be a pretty desperate sort of character. Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth was probably never so near death as he was last evening. He showed remarkable nerve and it was to this undoubtedly that he owed his life.

Krueger's departure for Holland does not appear to be popular with the Boers who are in Lorenzo Marquez. The departure of the former President in secret, for fear of being mobbed by his own countrymen, is a commentary upon former popularity.

The women of Walluku seem to be a determined set, and to be thoroughly acquainted with the peccadilloes of their lords. No gin before voting but a plentiful allowance afterwards seems to be their motto according to the Maui News. Has some one been pulling the Maui man's leg.

The Parker boom continues to swell all over the islands. In Oahu it has been gaining rapidly. Maui and Hawaii will return majorities for Parker. Prince David claims a big following on Kauai, but the wish is father to the thought. Kauai will go strongly Republican, never fear.

The rain of the past week has fallen all over the group, and has increased the value of the coming crop many thousands of dollars. On Kauai the rain has been heavier than on Oahu. Maui has had abundant showers, but apparently not so heavy as the Northern Islands. Hawaii has also had its share on the Windward side. The Leeward side strangely enough had ample rains earlier in the season.

Cases of bubonic plague continue to appear in Glasgow but do not appear to give the authorities much alarm about them. Indeed the last case died in the city hospital. Another case of plague was that of a seaman who landed at Newcastle on the east coast of England, crossed over by rail to the west and died at Llandaff, Wales. Yet no one has gone into hysterics. One begins to think we made rather too much of the plague here.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT

W. RICKARD OF HONOKAA SHOT IN THE FOOT.
Was on Horseback When His Gun was Accidentally Discharged—The Load Passed Through His Foot.

HONOKAA, Hawaii, October 25.—W. Rickard of Honokaa met with a serious and painful accident while out shooting. He was on horseback carrying his gun by his side, muzzle down.
In some way, either by a sudden shying of his horse, or otherwise, the gun was discharged. The charge striking Rickard in the foot, carrying away a part of the foot, and causing the most excruciating pain. Rickard was entirely alone when the accident happened, and wounded and bleeding as he was, was obliged to ride five miles to secure medical assistance.
This long ride in the condition he was, was a terrible nervous strain on the unfortunate young man. That he did not faint from pain and the loss of blood before he reached a physician is the wonder.

A "SETTLEMENT."

One Prepared and Being Carried out in Wailuku.
WAILUKU, October 27.—A "Neighborhood Settlement," is being organized for the Chinese at the corner of Main and Market streets. The "Settlement" will include a kindergarten and a church. The Wailuku Sugar Company donated the lot just below Dr. Weddick's new residence. Miss Turner very recently received a check from a friend in Honolulu for the aid of the kindergarten building. A meeting of prominent Chinese of Maui was recently held to consider the project and they agreed to raise the money for the church. Ahini of Kula started the subscription with a check for $100. The Chinese, generally are very favorable to the enterprise. Charles Bridges, a graduate of Kamehameha has the work in charge.

REV. DESHA TO THE VOTERS

ISSUES A MANIFESTO IN HIS OWN BEHALF.

Tells How He Came to be a Candidate for Senator and That He Wants to be Elected.

HILO, October 27.—Rev. S. L. Desha, candidate for senator by petition for the First Territorial district has issued the following to the voters of his district:

At the meeting of the Republican Precinct Club of the Second Precinct, held just previous to the District Convention at Laupahoehoe, it was resolved that a vote be taken for the purpose of deciding the choice of the club for the Senatorial candidates, and that our delegates be instructed to support the choice of the club. The vote taken in accordance with this resolution indicated that I had a considerable majority who were in favor of my receiving the nomination. Believing that the expression of the club was sincere and being re-enforced in this opinion by a large number of respectable voters of this island who have come to me in person with assurances of their hearty support in case I would stand for election I have decided to stand as a candidate for the Senate at the coming election and to that end to commence a vigorous campaign in my own behalf.

At the present time I am a cripple and unable to go before the voters of the island and so am forced to take this means of declaring the principles for which I stand. A number of persons have spread abroad false reports concerning my candidacy and I shall take this opportunity of correcting those reports.

It is not true that I have at any time been preparing to withdraw my name as a candidate for the Senate. I shall remain before the voters of this island until the final issue is decided at the polls. It is not true that there is discussion in my church due to my candidacy. I have before me the consent, but the earnest co-operation and support of all of the trustees and officers of my church, and I believe that I shall have the unanimous support of my congregation.

I am a Republican and a member of the Republican Precinct Club of Hilu. I have heretofore and do now unreservedly pledge my adherence to the Republican platform as adopted by the Territorial Convention in Honolulu and the platform as adopted by the district convention in Hilu.

The most important matter to be settled at the coming election is the choosing of our representative at Washington. Of the candidates before us my choice is Samuel Parker, who is my life long friend, a man of my own island and race, and who possesses in a high degree the qualifications necessary to advance our interests at Washington. He is a man of magnificent appearance, a man of whom our race is justly proud, and will in the future, as he has in the past, maintain a position of distinction abroad. Both Mr. and Mrs. Parker have been accustomed to the usages of polite society and their ample means together with their great social abilities will enable our representative to take an envious position in society in a place where society is so potent a factor. Combine these with the fact that our representative—a Republican—will undoubtedly go to a Republican Congress and a Republican President and that Mr. Parker is already personally and favorably known to Mr. McKinley and to a long list of influential Congressmen and I think we have a logical candidate in the man whose name heads the Republican ticket. I shall vote for Mr. Parker and shall use my best efforts to induce others to vote for him.

I believe in the principle of local self-government and if it shall fall to my lot I shall work for measures which will give us the right to levy and collect taxes for our exclusive local uses. I believe that we should regulate our local school affairs and that each one of the islands in the group should have an office for the recording of deeds and other conveyances. I believe that our statute book should not be encumbered with unenforced laws.

I wish to make an appeal to my friends and to the voters of this island to support me in my candidacy. And in return for this support I pledge myself to work for the best interests of our island and Territory and to perform that work with zeal and vigor.

Respectfully,
S. L. DESHA.

"REMINGTON" MUCH CAMPAIGN ORATORY

SPELL-BINDERS ACTIVE FROM HAWAII TO KAUALI

Maui Republicanism Seems to Have Been the Storm Center Last Week—Many Meetings Held There.

PAIA, Maui, October 27.—H. P. Baldwin, M. H. Reuter, C. H. Dickey and J. K. Nakila, with many supporters, went to Kauala last Wednesday and held a rousing Republican rally.

It was the intention of the party to have a meeting at Huelo, last night on their way back, but the heavy rains caused the streams to become so swollen, that the party was obliged to return by steamer this morning.

A. N. Kepolka, Geo. Hons and Henry Long with J. M. Kaneaku and others have been in Hana, Kipahulu and Kaupo this week.

A big meeting was held at Makana last night and some good speeches made and effective work done. Workers are now out instructing the people how to vote.

An Hawaiian woman and party, including a musician have been touring central Maui this week, campaigning in a carriage for Sam Parker and the Republican party. About the carriage was a big sign, "Vote for Sam Parker," and the woman has made some good hits. The musician never failed to attract large crowds.

WAILUKU, October 27.—Robert Wilcox came to Maui by the Mauna Loa arriving here Tuesday morning. An independent meeting was held in Waiehu on the same night. On Wednesday night a meeting was held at Wailuku skating rink, at which a large crowd attended. Manuel C. Rose, Jr. was secretary. Wilcox was the principal speaker. On Thursday night a meeting was held at Waiehu. From there Wilcox proceeded to Lahaina.

George Hons, Republican candidate for senator has gone over to Hana to stump that part of the Republic.

A big reproduction of Samuel Parker's photograph is stretched from Lovejoy & Co.'s saloon to the other side of the street. On the side of his picture are the words "Samuel Parker, Delegate to Congress."

The Democrats seem to be rather quiet this week on Maui. There were no rallies, and no meetings of the Democrats.

The Republican candidates, H. P. Baldwin, George Hons, Henry Long, Charles Dickey, J. W. Kalua, and P. Noah, returned from a political tour on the Hana side of the island. They report large attendances, and sure success for the Republican party on that side.

HILO, October 27.—A. B. Loebenstein returned on Wednesday from Puna, where he had spent two or three days in vigorous campaign work with J. D. Lewis, J. Mattson and Harry Ryeroff. He speaks hopefully of the prospects in Puna, though he admits it is an anti-Republican stronghold naturally. He left for Kau on Thursday afternoon, after writing a very urgent letter to Sam Parker to come to Hawaii by next King.

WAILUKU, October 27.—T. B. Lyons, candidate for senator and Thomas Clark, candidate for representative for Maui, have been to Molokai and Kauala, but returned on the Mauna Loa last night.

THE LANGUAGE OF POLITICS.

The indications are that the native vote of Maui is beginning to drift back to its first love, the independent party and Bob Wilcox. Pol talks. Chicken luau argues. Head them off!—Maui News.

NEED HAWAII

Hilo Tribune Finds Fault with Republican Central Committee.

It seems to us that the Territorial Central committee is the Republic party are hardly giving this island due credit for the voting strength it really possesses, if one judge their belief by their attitude. It would seem the fact that during the past six years there has been practically no vote outside Honolulu has blinded them to the change of affairs under the new conditions of the franchise, which gives to nearly every Hawaiian the right to vote, where formerly a voting Hawaiian was the exception.

Sam Parker needs the vote on Hawaii and he needs it badly, unless we are very much mistaken, but he isn't going to work the right way to secure it when he makes one trip to the island and assumes to cover it with a few five-minute speeches between Kawaihāne and Hilo and a few more from the deck of the Mauna Loa at Kona ports. It is about time that the party managers of the Territory got next to themselves and recognized the existence of something outside Honolulu.—Hilo Tribune.

MASONIC TEMPLE.

The Brethren of Hilo About to Build One.

HILO, October 27.—The various bodies of the Masonic Fraternity in Hilo are now proceeding to carry out a design which local Masons have long had in mind, being nothing less than the erection of a fine building which shall serve as a home for the various lodges now established here.

Kilauea Lodge, No. 330, is the owner of the tract of land on upper Walauea street, lying between the residence of W. H. Little and the D. H. Hitchcock homestead. The Hilo Masonic Hall Association is now being formed for the purpose of erecting on this tract a two-story block to cost not less than $20,000 the stock for which is now, to a large extent subscribed. The second story will be devoted to lodge rooms. On the ground floor will probably be one or two stores, and a big hall, calculated to accommodate 500 or 600 people.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

WAILUKU, October 27.—Miss Nape of the Wailuku Union school, is drilling her pupils preparatory to a public exhibition about the middle of November.

JAMES REED INJURED.

Mr. James Reed, struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by all dealers, Benson Smith & Co., general agents for Hawaiian Islands.

BEAUTIFUL SKIN

Soft White Hands
Luxuriant Hair
Produced by
CUTICURA SOAP.

MILLIONS OF WOMEN USE CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and chaffs, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients, and the most refreshing of flower odours. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines, in ONE SOAP AT ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet and BEST baby soap in the world.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour, Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA Ointment, to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. A NEW HOTEL.

KAHULUI, October 27.—Plans have been perfected for the new hotel at Kahului. The hotel will be a two story frame building with six large, well ventilated rooms up stairs.

The hotel will stand just west of the new wharf, close by the water's edge. Large lanais will surround both the lower and upper floor, the latter to probably be enclosed with glass on the makai side, making a fine observatory.

The hotel is being built by the H. C. & S. Co., at the suggestion of Supt. Fyler, and is intended for the convenience of travelers rather than a money making proposition.

KASTOL is nothing but castor oil, devoid of its unpleasant taste. It is as pleasant to take as honey. No one objects to a dose of KASTOL. Physicians prescribe castor oil knowing well its excellent medical properties. KASTOL possesses all the medicinal properties of the oil. It is not affected in any way, except the taste.
