SABATE HELD TO ANSWER SECOND CHARGE FOR YOUNG MAN TO ANSWER

NUMBER OF MINOR THEFTS ARE NOW CHARGED AGAINST THE FRENCHMAN—CANNOT FURNISH BONDS ON TWO CHARGES.

There was great relief among employees in all departments of the postoffice yesterday, when the news of the arrest of Sabate for stealing mailed letters was made known. For months the postoffice authorities have been sending tracers after tracers in search of lost letters. Almost every employe has felt that he was under suspicion, and books and records have been gone through over and over again, all without result. United States Postoffice Inspector Madden has been working on the proposition since he came here on the present inspecting trip, but without result until the charge against Sabate was developed.

In a number of cases where letters failed to reach their destinations complaints were made by parties who insisted that the letters had been entrusted to the mail, and the postoffice authorities tried to find the letters. This meant all sorts of inquiries among clerks, and all sorts of suspicions, and there is a general feeling of relief now that the mystery has been cleared up and suspicion no longer rests upon any of the present employes.

Sabate's beat as a mail carrier was in Punahou district, and the letters he received were all for delivery for parties there. He delivered in the blocks bounded by Keenauoku, King, Heula and McCully streets.

Sabate was examined this morning before United States Commissioner Gill, on a charge of embezzling letters that had been entrusted to him as a mail carrier, and he was held to answer in $1,000 bonds. A second charge was filed by United States Attorney Breckons, and the defendant again waived examination and was held in $1,000 bonds. If he should secure the $2,000 other charges will be brought, it is said.

There is talk of other cases that may be brought against the defendant in the Territorial courts. He is accused of having taken $95 from Father Valentine's desk in the Catholic mission, and a search among his effects led to many suspicions that will be run down. It has been suggested that the youth must have been a kleptomaniac, if he stole with such regularity and lack of ordinary precautions.

Another charge against Sabate is that he stole the sum of $55 from P. D. Kellett, of Kellett and Robinson. Kellett placed the money in his desk one afternoon recently, intending to use it of the following day to pay his insurance. The desk was piled open and the money taken. On being accused Sabate confessed the theft, it is stated.

The evening of the disappearance of the $55 was followed by another larceny placed to Sabate's credit. He had spent the evening in company with the son of "Sid" Boyd, who had just returned to Honolulu. Sabate bought wine freely, and the evening was a lively one. On the following morning Boyd missed an overcoat and a new suit of clothes. Yesterday he called at the police station for a search warrant, to find out if his lost clothes were among Sabate's assortment of possessions.

Sabate confessed to several other small larcenies in the Maqoon building where there are a number of offices which he used to frequent until the janitor of the building was told to keep him out. He appeared to think there was nothing much to be bothered about when charged with these little offenses and on one occasion accompanied a victim to several Chinese stores, in search of articles of jewelry, which he had sold. He was willing to do his best to give the owner a chance to get them back, if the owner would buy them. Two rings, from which diamonds had apparently been pried, were found among his effects.

BAD BOYS SENTENCED.

Henry Meahola and Kahula, native boys who were accused by the police of having aided in breaking into the Metropolitan Meat stall in the fish market were sentenced to six months each this morning by Judge Wilcox. The boys are part of a crowd of hoodlums and wharf rats that the police propose to break up.

Frawley Seat Sale Assures Large Crowd

The seat sale for the performance of "Secret Service" by the Frawley company tomorrow evening has broken records at Wall, Nichols Co., but few seats remaining unclaimed. The play is of a class that is always attractive to the theater going public, that of the war drama, treated, in the case of "Secret Service," from an entirely new standpoint by its author. The piece has been universally recognized as a model of dramatization and Frawley is credited with giving it a presentation fully equal to its original production. It has been selected as his opening piece in Manila and is the hit of the repertoire.

YOUTHS FROM KALIHI HEARDLESS YOUNG MEN APPLY FOR REGISTRATION.

Twenty Young Men Who Applied Were Turned Down—About 550 Names Have Been Enrolled by Registration Board.

The registration office closed this morning at the regular hour with about three hundred additional names making about 550 in all who have registered. The preponderance so far rests with the natives. Some Chinamen have registered, more white voters and a very few Portuguese.

The registration hours are from 7 to 10 in the morning and from 5 to 8 in the evening. There is no Republican party watcher at the polls and while twenty were disqualified this morning by Lorrin Andrews for inability to read and write, youth and other reasons, he still feels that some may have subscribed who had no right to do so and who may escape the final challenge on voting day in November.

Several young Hawaiians from Kalihi Camp in the Seventh Precinct were nearly trapped by Registrar Andrews this morning. A number of heedless youths, without a sign of hirsute adolescence on their faces, came in from Kalihi this morning and all styled themselves "twenty-one." In July into the month and year of their birth showed that their arithmetic was weak as they usually gave the latter as 1884, and were promptly turned down to their great chagrin.

Later on some of them brought it down to '83 and finally the last batch must have communicated with a mathematician of some quality as they all claimed 1881 as the year of their nativity. One or two unfortunately stumbled even then by giving their month as November or December.

On the fifteenth the office will be closed for a week while the officers make the tour of the islands for registration purposes. Lorrin Andrews is not looking forward to eagerly to this trip as he his vivid recollections of indifferent fare to which his stomach was not inured on last year's trip. Expenses have to be paid out of $6 per diem, and very little margin is left out of that sum when eating, sleeping and riding has been paid for. The registration in Honolulu closes on the 10th of October.

ANOTHER VOLCANO EXCURSION.

The Wilder S. S. Company will run another excursion to the volcano next week. On September 13, the steamer Helene, Captain Nicholson, will sail from Honolulu for Hilo with an excursion party for the volcano. The vessel will depart Saturday morning and reach Hilo the next morning. She will sail from Hilo for Honolulu on the following Wednesday.

JAPANESE ARRAIGNED.

H. Mori who tried to kill E. E. Hartman and also threw some hot water over Mrs. Hartman, was arraigned before Judge Wilcox this morning on charges of assault and battery and assault with a weapon. Mr. Hartman showing the scars of the knife wounds inflicted upon him by Mori was in court. The defendant's cases were continued until tomorrow.

GAY WILL TAKE LAND IN DISPUTE AT ONCE

IF COLBURN HAS ANY RIGHT TO LANAI PROPERTY, HE MUST TAKE THE MATTER INTO THE COURTS.

The question of the seventeen thousand acres of land which are claimed by J. F. Colburn to have been wrongfully included in the Lanai sale of two weeks ago, are still being held by the purchasing party Charles Gay and his agents. Instructions to that effect have been forwarded to Lanai and possession will be maintained until ejectment is legally obtained. Fences are also being erected.

The challenged property comprises two leasehold tracts known as the ahupuaas of Paomai and Kamoku, making in all 17,369 acres. They are connected by a narrow strip of land and pay $500 a year. On them are situated the ranch buildings, sheep pens, wool houses and the general headquarters of the ranch, greatly lessening the control of the purchaser over the land as a ranch property.

Mr. Gay has leased from W. G. Irwin a tract of 9,677 acres on the east side of the island and another of 19,468 acres on the west side at an annual rental of $1,000 for thirty years. The western leasehold runs directly between the disputed ahupuaas. It is claimed by J. F. Colburn that the tracts were released from the Kunst mortgage under which the property was sold by a decree of Judge Humphreys based on the payment of a third of the entire mortgage of $100,000.

The legal counsel retained by the Gay interest, including Smith and Lewis, Cecil Brown and others, have not, it is claimed by them made any mistake in their papers. When Mr. Gibson took up the lands, being then agent for the crown, he entered them in the name of his son, in law, Hayselden. In 1891 the land was made over in the name of the Gibson estate and the estate has ever since then paid the rental on the lands. Mr. Hayselden not paying anything.

Shortly before the sale Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Hayselden made an arrangement by which John F. Colburn secured the 17,000 on an option for six months paying $500 cash and making an agreement to pay $1500 more for the option in five monthly installments of $300 each. The fact that the Hayseldens knew of the deal and sold the option before the sale, keeping the same absolutely quiet until after the public auction and purchase, has been regarded and expressed as an act of questionable good faith by the Gay interests and they will act on the assumption that the land is theirs under the terms of the sale until legally dispossessed, if such a procedure is possible.

There will be no sale reordered and the fee fees collected by attorneys and others in connection with the sale will not be refunded even on paper. Gay will hold on to what he considers his own property and a suit of dispossession will probably be brought as soon as the new tracts are established and the ranch houses utilized.

BISHOP VS. PAIN.

In the case of Bishop and Company vs. W. H. Pain, Mrs. E. V. Neumann and Mrs. T. L. Hayselden, Judge Gear this morning granted a motion to strike the answer of Mrs. Hayselden from the record on technical grounds, and ordered judgment entered against her.

SHERIFF TO LOOK AFTER JURYMEN

"Mr. Attorney General, can you suggest a way to provide for this jury?" said Judge Gear when the time came for the noon recess of court today. Attorney General Dole had entered the courtroom and was seated with Ex-Senator Thurston.

"It's hardly in my department," said Dole, and the court said that he thought the jurymen should be provided with a plan. The jury in question was the one which is hearing the Ferris murder case which is likely to last several days.

"I suggest that the jurors get board on credit and take chances on the next legislature," said Dole. Attorney Reynolds said he was willing to allow the jurors to separate and go where they wanted, but the court ruled that this would be illegal.

High Sheriff Brown was sent for and said he would keep the jurors if the court made an order to that effect. Gear stated that he would make the order. The jurors must be given three meals a day and sleeping accommodations in some large airy room, with mosquito nets. Dole said that the expense would have to be charged to the fund for maintenance of prisoners, and the High Sheriff suggested mosquito proof cells for the jury.

Arrangements had been made for a lunch at the grill and the jurors were taken there by Bailiff Ellis. The dinner this evening and the sleeping quarters are yet to be provided. "I shall probably bring beds here and provide accommodations for the jury to sleep in the courtroom," said the High Sheriff.

If this is done the jurors will have to live in the Judiciary building until the trial is over. The case is being very closely contested, and the Judge stated that it would undoubtedly last all the week.

Senator Thurston was an interested listener to the discussion of the court's plikka, during which Gear remarked sarcastically that it was all due to the circuit court's extravagance, and the senator had an opportunity to appreciate the extent of the financial plikka under which the Territory labors.

THE SEAS ROSE HIGH AND THREATEN MALOLO

TWO ENORMOUS WAVES NEARLY ENGLTFED THE VESSEL—REPORTS OF STORMY WEATHER FROM THE OTHER ISLANDS.

What is believed to have been two tidal waves was encountered by the Malolo last Tuesday night while off the Koolau shore. The waves were met while the vessel was near Bird Island. Nothing like them had ever been seen by the sailors on the vessel. The boat had a narrow escape from destruction. Last Tuesday night the schooner Malolo encountered an unusually heavy sea on the other side of the island. The vessel was heading northwest between Bird Island and Koolau. Suddenly the captain saw two enormous seas come rushing toward him from the southeast. They broke clean over the stern of the boat, nearly sweeping the man away from the wheel. Everything was battered down at the time and no damage was done.

The vessel encountered only two big seas and sailors on the boat who have navigated these waters for years, declare that they have never seen any thing like the two waves before. Just what caused the waves is uncertain. There was an ugly treacherous sea running at the time but the two waves were more in the nature of tidal waves than anything else. Each of them must have been twenty-five feet in height.

It is more than likely that the waves were due to some marine volcanic action. "Volcanic weather" is now prevailing and it is not unlikely that the two waves that nearly wrecked the Malolo originated from some upheaval. The captain says that had the vessel been broadsides to the waves nothing could have saved her.

The weather has been unusually rough at all of the various islands. Yesterday afternoon the schooner John G. North arrived in distress from Punaluu with tale of narrow escape from being piled on the reef. Last Saturday, a gale sprang up and for a while, threatened to drive the vessel ashore. She was unloading lumber at the time. Her stern line parted. On the next day Captain Erickson decided to get out of the place as his vessel was endangered every minute. The stern line had carried away. While trying to heave the starboard anchor up, the chain carried away. The port anchor had to be slipped, together with forty-five fathoms of chain. The schooner was brought around and Captain Erickson beat to sea and saved his vessel.

He brought about 20,000 feet of his lumber cargo to Honolulu with him. Four rafts of lumber were washed ashore during the gale. It is thought this lumber can be recovered however. A party of natives was sent from shore to clear the surf line but their boat was driven ashore. The crew of the North did not learn whether any of the men were lost or not. The fore-lower mast head was sprung on the way to Honolulu as gales were encountered.

Diver Herbert Young returned Tuesday from Kilauea, Kauai with the schooner The Brothers. The weather was so bad at Kilauea that he could not reach the lost cable and in addition, his vessel narrowly escaped being wrecked. He clung on in Kilauea until everything was carried away from his boat and then he put into Hanalei and layed there three days for shelter.

JOINT MEETING OF DISTRICTS

The sub committees of the Fourth and Fifth districts chosen to meet as a committee of the whole on the question of senatorial election and report to a convention of both district committees later convened this morning at Republican headquarters. Nott, McClellan and Aylett were present for the fourth, Nott also acting as chairman of the meeting and Avery and Pottor for the fifth. The third member of the fifth sub-committee, Henry, was absent.

It was finally determined that the joint sub-committees should report at a convention of the two districts on Monday evening at eight o'clock in either Waverly or Progress hall and that Nott, as chairman of the meeting should read the report. McClellan will request the chairman of the central committee to call the meeting to order and after the election of a chairman and secretary for the meeting, a report will be read advising the nomination of the choice of the precincts in open meeting. According to the resolution adopted in the fourth last night, the fifth is entitled to two and the fourth to one nomination for senator.

After the precinct nominations, district caucuses will be held and on the resumption of the convention, ballots taken up by tellers appointed by the chairman, and the nominees as chosen accepted as the nominees of the party for senatorial honors in the Fourth and fifth districts.

A recommendation will be also made by the committee that type written ballots be dispensed with and pencil ballots on papers of uniform size and thickness substituted.

Wedding at The Central Union Church

A fashionable assembly filled the auditorium of the Central Union church last evening at the wedding of Miss Kathryn Widdfield to Byron Baird. The Rev. J. P. Erdman officiated at the ceremonial. Lieut. Widdfield, brother of the bride, gave her away, her sister, Miss Mary Widdfield being maid of honor. Harry Wilder acted as best man and the ushers were J. Tarn McGrew, R. W. Shingie, Lieut. Newton F. E. Thompson, B. G. Holt, and E. M. Watson. The bride's dress was of white tulle over white satin, her bouquet white roses. A reception was held later at Aiea, the country residence of the McGrews.

KOREA IS DUE FRIDAY

BIG VESSEL IS EXPECTED FROM COAST.

Thought Certain That She Left San Francisco on August 30 on Her Initial Run.

The S. S. Korea will in all probability arrive some time tomorrow from San Francisco on her initial run to the Orient. She was scheduled to have left San Francisco August 29, four days behind her proper sailing date. She was held in order to have a Chinese crew put aboard her. Whether the United States government permits Chinese to be transferred from the Gaelic or not, the Korea will no doubt, be dispatched on August 30, even if she be manned by a white crew.

While it is not probable that Captain Seabury will go out to make a record on the present trip, it is not unlikely that he will let the boat out a trifle in order to make up the time lost in sailing from San Francisco. The vessel will probably be reported some time tomorrow afternoon. She will have the members of the Frawley company aboard, in addition to a large crowd of passengers for Honolulu.

The Korea will be docked at the Pacific Mail wharf, where she is to be thrown open to the inspection of the general public. The vessel can come down from San Francisco under five days if shoved along, but it is hardly probable that Captain Seabury will set this mark with her just yet. That he will try on the present trip to make up the four days lost seems probable.

The Korea will bring some weeks' later mail and news files. She will probably sail on Saturday for the Orient.

CHARGED WITH GROSS CHEAT.

G. Kelly was arraigned before Judge Wilcox this morning to answer to a charge of obtaining a small sum of money from Mrs. Q. H. Berry, by false pretenses. It is claimed by the prosecution that Kelly represented that the money was urgently required to enable him to bury his child. The money was not needed for such purpose however as the child had not died it is claimed.

PRESENT PLIGHT OF GARIBALDI WILCOX

DEMOCRATS WANT THE DELEGATE AS THEIR MAN—HE IS BETWEEN TWO FIRES—WHAT REPUBLICANS ARE DOING.

Will Robert W. Wilcox endorse the Democratic platform and declare himself a Democrat? Is a question that is being discussed a good deal among local Democracy. The delegate is the center of some very lively discussion in two quarters. One is the Home Rule committee which he did not consult before he went into the fusion deal, and the other is the Democratic party, in which there are many who demand that Wilcox run as a Democrat if he wants Democratic votes.

The Home Rule party committee has not yet taken any action in the matter. The fusion so far consists of simply the deal put up by Wilcox alone and agreed to by the Democrats who attended the Democratic meeting last Monday evening in Waverly hall. If Wilcox does endorse the Democratic platform, when it is made up, and declares himself a Democrat, he may have further trouble in the Home Rule committee. If he does not, he will certainly have trouble with a lot of Democrats who do not propose to support another party's candidate.

In Republican ranks there is talk today of C. A. Long for Senator from Oahu. He is in the Fourth district, from which it is understood that one senator is to be named. In the Fifth, where two senators are likely to be put up, Senator Kanaha is talked of. Both are Kuokoa men, who bolted with C. A. Long from Wilcox's Home Rule convention.

The Fifth District can have two of the senators to be nominated on Oahu this time by the Republican District Conventions in joint session. If the Fifth can agree upon the men. This was decided in caucus of the Fourth District last night, but the committee of the Fifth only kept up a warm scrap, in accordance with their reputation, over the matter of a choice.

The Lane-Huddy faction is fighting hard against the nomination of Achi and McCandless for the Senate, and some of them have also sent up a howl because Winston was placed on the Central Committee. "We have 16 votes in the District Convention," said Charley Clarke, "and they won't give us any representation on the committee. If they don't we shall withdraw and let them try to elect Achi and McCandless. There will be no Republicans elected in the Seventh if this policy keeps up."

The Fourth District Republican Committee convened in executive session last evening. A communication from the Fifth calling for a joint convention of the two bodies and asking for the appointment of a committee on arrangement was first taken up and acted upon. Chairman Cooke nominated James Nott, G. B. McClellan and William Aylett for that purpose.

The committee then went into executive session for the purpose of considering a proposal from the Portuguese Political Club in which Camarugo was announced as sole choice of that organization. A lengthy and animated discussion resulted in the resolution of the committee to insist upon receiving a list of more than one name from which they could choose the man they wanted. It was further decided that should the joint districts in the committee convention agree upon two candidates for the Senate, those nominees should be appointed without protest.

GRAHAM WAS SUICIDE.

A coroner's inquest was held last evening to determine the cause of the death of John Graham who died in a lodging house on Vineyard street yesterday morning. The evidence went to show that Graham had been a victim of the use of morphine for some years and had attempted to take his life on several previous occasions. The jury returned a verdict to the effect that the deceased had come to his death from the effects of a dose of morphine taken with suicidal intent.

MAGAZINE BLEW UP

DETAILS OF LOSS OF CHINESE CRUISER KAICHI.

Crew Were Getting Charges for a Salute When the Explosion Took Place—Large Number of Lives Lost.

A correspondent on board the Japanese warship Atago gives further particulars of the destruction of the Chinese cruiser Kaichi at Nanking on June 22. He says:

"We arrived with this ship on Sunday at Nanking and anchored two cables' lengths away and on the port quarter of the Kaichi at 12:25 p. m. We had just given our ship her cable, and while I was looking at the Kaichi suddenly her port side blew out, then immediately the whole poop, main and mizzen masts were shattered; in fact, the whole of the after part of the vessel from the mainmast was blown to pieces. This was followed immediately by volumes of smoke and flames as high as the mainmast, and a terrific report followed. The concussion was great, and men, spars, deck, boats, cabin fittings, doors, furniture and effects were blown into the air several hundreds of feet, with numerous shells exploding in our beam and dangerously near some fishing boats. The Kaichi sank at once, even before some of the debris came down. We were enveloped in smoke and debris so much so that the captain gave orders to the men to run for shelter.

"When the smoke cleared away a little there was nothing to be seen but a huge mass of floating wreckage, with only two men to be seen. One of the Atago's boats showed one of these men, a sailor, who was blown out of a port on the forward lower deck. The other man was a carpenter, whom I have not seen; a native lifeboat saved him. The United States man-of-war Helena was anchored about three-quarters of a mile off, and all her boats were immediately sent to assist, but there were no lives to save. A quantity of stuff fell on our deck, and among it was the log book of the unfortunate vessel. On the bulk Quashing a portion of a man—the trunk—fell on the roof and a number of pieces of human bodies were seen floating on the wreckage. All the glass, lamps and some of the crockery were broken on board the Quashing. They felt it badly, as they were lying off the port beam of the cruiser.

"The first portion of the vessel that was blown out was a piece of the main deck with beam attached to one angle iron, weighing about three hundred weight. This and a piece of iron plate distant from the wreck. Another piece was reported to be found much further away. A quantity of glass was broken at the custom house, which was three-quarters of a mile away, and the shock was felt at the British consulate, over six miles off. Two sampans that were alongside the cruiser at the time were destroyed and the occupants killed. For three hours the ram and jib boom were showing out of water above twenty feet. She was anchored in twenty-two fathoms of water, so half of the vessel must have been completely blown away and the forward half was standing on end perpendicularly till 3:30 p. m. when it tumbled over.

"The number of lives lost is estimated at about 140 to 150. The captain had just landed and three officers were in Shanghai, leaving four officers on board. Some of the men were on shore on leave. Undoubtedly it was the magazine that blew up.

"Upon inquiry I learn that she had four tons of gunpowder on board. The captain (L.), seeing us coming in when she landed, left word that his men were to return the salute of the Atago, so I surmise they were in the act of getting the necessary charges from the magazine for this purpose when, through some carelessness, perhaps, the explosion took place.—Washington Star.

WHITE MUST PAY.

Judge Gear has decided the case of Emmeluth & Company vs. B. T. White, appealed from Judge Dickey. The lower court gave a judgment for the defendant for $8.20 costs, but Gear gave judgment for plaintiff for the full amount asked, $126.50. White contested the case on the ground that Emmeluth owed him some money, but Gear held that this did not affect a debt owing to Emmeluth & Co., incorporated.

PREPARATION.

There is the greatest activity among the Republican party and the Home Rulers have received a jar which has set them to work trying to make up lost ground.

The more the Prince is known, the better he is liked and the more thoroughly is appreciated. The Republican nominee for Delegate will grow more and more in popularity as the campaign goes on.

The Hawaiian voters listen to these two men from two very different standpoints. Wilcox plays the mountebank and the vituperator. He is amusing when he talks, and he tickles the ears of the groundlings. When he abuses prominent men, nicknames them, imitates them and is both clown and villain in one. He raises a laugh quickly and his stump speaking is practically a vaudeville show.

Ranged as the parties are at the present time, the Republican party has far the better line up of forces. A well conducted and aggressive campaign is what will be required, so as to keep up the spirit of our rank and file.

COMING PLEASURE.

It is pleasant sometimes to turn from the clash of politics to something which all can enjoy, to something where the bitterness of faction can be forgotten, and where Republican and Democrat, Home Ruler or Kuokuan can unite upon a platform of common pleasure and common interest.

Sandwiched into the period when biennially we are busy with the election struggle comes Regatta Day, a regular people's holiday, a day, too, that is indelibly connected with the name of A. C. M. Robertson, through whose efforts the holiday was put upon the statute book.

Regatta Day gives more variety of sport, and places it more easily within the reach of all than the great cup day which is held at Pearl Harbor in July.

One Democrat yesterday stated that the fusion with the Home Rulers would enable his party to get in two good men "and then of course they will vote with the Republicans upon good measures."

It may be a cold-blooded way of looking at such things, but in cases such as that of Graham, the suicide, it does seem as if it were not worth while to try and save life.

Democratic candidates in South Carolina oppose child labor legislation on the ground that the next step would be compulsory education, which would result in Negro supremacy.

tator can go and come as he desires. Then there is so much variety to please the eye. The very setting is gay. The deep sea ships and the island coasting fleet are all decked out with many colored flags.

The most brooding of politicians must throw of his cares for such a day, and welcome his political foe not as an enemy but as a fellow man who can enjoy and help to enjoy. It is inevitable that men should disagree, it is inevitable that they should be dissatisfied with their own acts, for they are ever fallible, it is inevitable that the cares of commercial life should sour them, for they will follow the God Mammon, and have long discarded the advice of Him who said, "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow, they toil now, neither do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

labor idea. About one-fifth of the cotton operatives in the South are mere children, they work from eleven to twelve hours a day, for which toil many of them receive but ten cents for the day's work, not one in twenty of such toilers can read or write.

The Territory owes a great deal to Dr. Cofer, who is in charge of the health of this port. He has been most untiring in the performance of his duties, and has been most loyal to the best interests of the Territory.

PRIMO LICENSES ABOUT TO EXPIRE

Today is the last day for Camarinos' Primo saloon, as the license began to run on the 4th of last September. Camarinos as well as a number of others are making a vigorous fight to keep open under some kind of a license, but it is understood that the governor refuses to extend the limits.

The Brooklyn license expires next week, and by the end of this month everyone of the 25 Primo saloons opened in Honolulu will have closed up on account of expiration of licenses. A proposition was made to Treasurer Wright by Camarinos that he pay $1,000 for a full license and put up a bond to sell only Primo, but it is claimed that this agreement could not be enforced. The latest scheme is to run some of the places as restaurants, and serve Primo in them under restaurant licenses. The High Sheriff will be consulted as to his attitude on this proposition, and if he decides against it a test may be made on the proposition of selling lunches and giving away Primo to those who buy.

This evening Cammy will close up with funeral ceremonies. He will decorate with crepe and have a sign painted with suitable inscriptions, to the memory of the Primo Tropical Garden, born September 4, 1901, and departed this life September 4, 1902.

Hawaii Pictured

We call attention to our new line—Island views. We have half a thousand different glimpses of Hawaii, its people, public buildings, street scenes, public events of note, in fact every thing interesting for the past quarter of a century. You can obtain these pictures no where else. Some of the plates from which these photos are taken are very valuable, as the people or historic scenes are now gone.

Pictures at popular prices are what the public want. Here is where we meet your wants. A 4x5 photo, printed on non-fading paper, at 10c. each. By the dozen $1. Then we have larger ones, 5x7, at 25c. By the dozen $2.50.

These are not amateur photos but work of the best professionals. We would invite you to call and look them over.

If you are wanting anything in the photo line come and see us. We have some new goods sure to please. We have the popular Poco cameras and the wonderful little Snappa plate camera. We like to show them. May we have the opportunity?

Our developing and printing customers are increasing all the time. There's a reason for it—good, careful work that pleases.

GEORGE FERRIS TRIAL

ATTORNEY REYNOLDS ASKS FOR ACQUITTAL.

Alleged Irregularities in Case Since Defendant Was First Brought into Court—Government Wants Verdict.

The trial of George Ferris, for murder in the first degree, began this morning with a motion for an instructed verdict of acquittal, based on many alleged irregularities in the case since Ferris was first brought into court. E. H. Paris, was excused as a juror when court convened, and F. E. Richardson was chosen in his place, making the jury consist of Fred West, John Hillis, Harry Juen, David Hoopill, George Roenitz, S. A. Walker, W. A. Love, Frank Duro, George H. Paris, Thomas Lloyd, Thomas Lucas and F. E. Richardson. G. H. Green was excused because he did not believe in capital punishment.

The court was at a loss for a place in which to house the jury while the trial is on. There is no statute in Hawaii providing for feeding and housing jurors, said Judge Gear, and under this state of affairs the common law is to be followed. Under the old common law jurors were locked up without food or water or lights, until they agreed on a verdict. This is not done on the Mainland, and Gear said some way would be found to provide food.

The High Sheriff was asked if he could furnish beds, etc., in which case the court room may be transformed into a large dormitory. "Lycurgus" establishment will be asked to feed the jurors and wait for payment.

Deputy Attorney General John W. Catcart opened the case for the prosecution. He made a statement to the jury of what the Territory proposed to prove, going over the story of the quarrel between the defendant and John Watson, culminating in Watson being stabbed through the heart. Catcart said that he would ask the jurors to return a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree.

Alfred Krohn was called as a witness, and then Attorney Reynolds for the defense made his motion that the jury be instructed to acquit. There was a long list of alleged fatal irregularities in the former proceedings in the case, during the last term of court, according to Reynolds' contention. The motion set forth that Ferris had been deprived of his constitutional right to be present and to have counsel, at the impaneling of the grand jury which took up his case. The motion also declared that Ferris had never been arraigned at all, and that the endorsements on his face were untrue, one of them being to the effect that Ferris had entered a plea of guilty. A fourth ground was that Ferris had been deprived of a trial by the jury regularly impanelled for the term business, that jury having been dismissed and a new one summoned.

An affidavit by Ferris was introduced in support of the motion. It set forth that he had not been allowed to be present when the grand jury was impanelled, and that he had had no counsel present. It denied that he had ever pleaded guilty as endorsed on the back of the indictment, and also denied that he had ever been arraigned. The indictment was "read to him," said the defendant, by one E. A. Dou-thitt, but the latter was not at that time a Deputy Attorney General.

After lengthy argument, Judge Gear denied the motion to instruct the jury, and ordered the trial to proceed. Jailer Henry was put on the stand during the argument, to confirm the statement in Ferris' affidavit, that he had not been brought into court on the first day of the term, when the Grand jury was impanelled.

FEARLESS MAKES TOW.

The tug Fearless returned yesterday Honolulu to Kaanapali. The tug left this port at 3:30 p. m. last Tuesday and arrived at Kaanapali the following morning 1:30. The tug started back in half an hour after the schooner had been safely moored, arriving here at 4:30 p. m. yesterday.

The Honolulu was very foul and towed hard. More over, her starboard anchor could not be raised and half of the trip was made with it dragging. There was a northeast by north breeze blowing but the crew of the schooner was so busy trying to raise the anchor that only the mainsail and one jib were set.

THE WEATHER.

Weather Bureau, Punahou, 1 p. m. Wind, light, northeast; weather, clear. Morning minimum temperature, 71; midday maximum temperature, 85; barometer, 9 a. m., 30.91, steady, (corrected for gravity), rainfall, 24 hours ending 9 a. m., 0; dew point, 9 a. m., 70; humidity, 9 a. m., 66 per cent.

JURORS EAT IN JAIL.

In future, jurors in criminal cases The jury will be lodged in the court in restaurants. They will be fed at the jail. High Sheriff Brown will take charge of the jury in the Ferris case and give them their first meal tonight. They will not enjoy the hospitality of meals room tonight and during succeeding nights. Cots and mosquito netting will be made necessary by the lack of bed made necessary by the lack of court funds with which to defray such expenses of boarding and lodging criminal jurors in the regular manner.

INVENTOR'S TROUBLES.

Professor Bell had a strenuous time over his invention of the telephone. He took the first working model of his instrument to John A. Logan of New York, and offered him a half interest for $2,500, saying that it would do away with the telegraph, and that there would be millions in it. Logan replied: "I dare say your machine works perfectly, but who would want to talk through such a thing as that, anyway? I advise you to save your money, young man." Bell then offered a tenth interest to an examiner in the Patent Office for $100 in cash. It was refused. That tenth interest was worth $1,600,000 in 15 years.

Race To Be From Harbor Around Rabbit's Island and Back to Light-house—Will Revive Old Days.

A big yacht race is in preparation for Saturday, September 13, which will revive old yachting days and memories of the islands. The affair is a challenge race and will be the first deep sea contest held under the auspices of the Hawaii Yacht Club.

Ralph Turner challenges with the sloop La Paloma, any yacht sailing in Hawaiian waters for a trophy of the value of $75 to be subscribed as hereinafter set forth, for a race from the lighthouse in Honolulu harbor, around the island to the islet known as Rabbit's Island and back to the lighthouse. The conditions are few. The number of the crews will be limited to the yacht club rules, allowing eight to craft of the size of the Gladys, Helene, La Paloma, Hanny Dandee and Hawaii or Dewey. Racing sails are not barred. All speed is to be made by the use of whatever sails the various skippers see fit. It is hoped that several boats will compete, possibly all of the above named and others that see a chance. In that case, the money will be pooled for the trophy. If three boats enter, $25 a piece will be put up, the winner getting all. Other boats entering will each deposit $5 as entry before starting, the entire amount of pooled money going to purchase the trophy for the winner. The course will take in about fifty miles of actual sailing though the distance would be about forty. A nine hours time-limit will be set. There are two entrances in the reef that guards the big bay seen from the tall where Rabbit's Island rears its conical little head to the westward.

The name of Clarence Macfarlane is not mentioned in the challenge but he will probably be on the deck of the vessel when she sails although Mr. Turner asserts that his skipper will be a dark horse. It is hoped that the Helene and the other larger craft will enter. Commodore Hobron has already accepted the challenge and will enter the race. In the event of only two boats the loser pays for a $75 trophy which the winner, in any event, will choose and purchase himself.

Since the La Paloma has been stoop rigged, she has never been thoroughly tried out. On a fresh wind, her big sail area will push her along in magnificent style and she can probably on the level outfoot all competitors. The Helene has a very swift pair of heels as well as the Gladys, and the chief beauty of the contest lies in the fact that the probable contestants are so evenly matched, averaging all lines of sailing, that the competition will be practically one of judgment and seamanship between the skippers.

The Honolulu Dredge is now on the rail-road being cleaned. It is rumored that a mahini of yachting propensities has chartered her. The ten days before the race will give all an opportunity for cleaning up. The Helene was lately overhauled and should need but little attention. The Gladys has been in Pearl Harbor. The La Paloma has accumulated little vermin. The La Paloma, fresh from her round-the-island trip will need some scraping, and the Hawaii, if Judge Wilcox brings her out, will probably need most attention of all.

FIRST VICTORIA CROSS.

The first officer to receive the coveted Victoria Cross was Rear-Admiral Charles Davis Lucas, who resides in London. He won the Cross on June 21, 1864, during the Crimean war, when a mine shell struck his vessel, but before it could explode young Lucas coolly took it up in his arms, ran to the side of the ship, and threw it overboard.

WE KINGS.

Lewanika, King of Barotseland, who has arrived in England for the Coronation, is quite satisfied with his regal estate. Asked the day before he left his capital by the chief of the French Evangelical Mission if he would not feel embarrassed in the presence of the British Sovereign, he replied, calmly: "Oh, dear me, no. When we kings meet each other we always have plenty to talk about."

GOOD MUSICIAN.

Paderewski, the celebrated pianist, is an excellent man of business. All the money he earns by his profession, and it is said to exceed $20,000 a year, is invested to the best advantage. He is said to be a large shareholder in a well-known piano firm, as well as proprietor in one of the chief hotels in Warsaw. Paderewski has been heard to say that he has never had a single serious financial loss during the time he has conducted his own investments.

IROQUOIS AT KAUNAKAKAI.

The government tug Iroquois, Captain Rodman, is now at Kaunakakai, Molokai, where she will be boarded by U. S. Senator John W. Burton and party today, who have been on Molokai since last Tuesday on a hunting trip. The party will be brought to Honolulu by the Iroquois. The vessel will probably arrive early tomorrow morning.

TOUCHING VARIOUS TOPICS.

A pretty girl is always willing to admit the intelligence of a homely one. The best brand of resolutions will shrink a little if the occasion requires. After a girl reaches the age of 25 her birthday anniversaries occur three years apart.

THE CHILDREN.

An adult may be at once thin and healthy, but a baby, or a young child, should be plump, and well covered with fat. Yet how many gaunt, emaciated, thin-blooded babies and children we see, chiefly because the nutritive machinery of their bodies is in some way out of order. Or they may be scrofulous or the victims of some subtle wasting disease. Nauseous and bad tasting medicine is objectionable and a horror to children. No doubt its frequent lack of good effect is, at least partly due to the disgust it excites in them—the shock to the system. This is true of cod liver oil in the form of the ordinary old-fashioned mixtures so often forced upon them. The old terror of this valuable, yet offensive drug vanishes with the transformation it has undergone in WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION which is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Krickets, and Bone and Blood diseases, nothing equals it. Its tonic qualities are of the highest order. It creates new blood, strong muscles, sound teeth, solid bones, and enables them to grow up into healthy men and women. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never failed us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia. The children like it, they love the taste of it, it looks good to them, and it builds up their bodies; many little children owe their lives to it." Effective from the first dose. Sold by chemists.

Impure Blood

Impure blood will always make you sick. You suffer from headache, great depression, indigestion, sleeplessness, a bad skin, extreme exhaustion, and you can hardly drag yourself about.

Read what Mr. H. J. Matthews, of Wellington, New Zealand, says about this. He also sends his photograph. 'I have suffered a great deal from impure blood, especially from boils on my arms and back. I felt weak all over and was greatly depressed. I began to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking only a little of it I felt better, and soon my troubles disappeared. I believe this medicine is the best blood-purifier and the strongest tonic that any one can buy.'

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas." Be sure you get Ayer's.

Use Ayer's Pills every time your bowels become constipated, or when you are bilious or have sick headache. They cure quickly.

CORPORATIONS HOSPITALS.

It is stated at Philadelphia that a hospital for the treatment of emergency cases will be established on the grounds of each of the 22 plants of the American steel and wire company. The plans for the buildings, which will be as nearly uniform as conditions will permit, are being prepared by a Philadelphia architect, and the total cost to the company of buildings and equipment will be not less than $300,000.

RURAL DELIVERY.

"Tom" Watson of Georgia offers $1000 for proof that he was not the author of the free rural mail delivery. "On May 28, 1892," he says, "I introduced into the House of Representatives, advocated and got passed a resolution appropriating money for the free delivery of rural mails. This was the first resolution and appropriation Congress ever passed upon that subject, and the present system now called rural free delivery had its origin in that resolution.

IN CASE HE FAINTED.

A story is told of an Irishman who enlisted in one of the smart British cavalry regiments. The fencing instructor had experienced rather a difficult job in the matter of explaining to him the various ways of using the sword. "Now," he said, "how would you use the sword if your opponent fainted?" "Bedad," said Pat, with gleaming eyes, "I'd just tickle him with the point to see if he was shamming."—Denver News.

Strange that it didn't occur to Neely to demand interest on that money he stole.—Atlanta Journal.

RELIGIONS OF INDIA

HINDUISM STILL LEADS BY A GREAT MAJORITY.

The Faith Numbers About 70 Per Cent of the Aggregate Population—Only 3 Per Cent of Christians.

The recent Indian census has revealed many interesting facts concerning the religions of the country. The adherents of Brahmanic Hinduism have declined from 207,638,000 in 1891 to 207,075,000 in 1901, and it is a strange circumstance that the diminution is in males alone. The decline, it can hardly be doubted, is due, not to decay of faith, but to the severe famines of the decade. Hindus, being most numerous among the famine-stricken population, have suffered proportionately. The precise figures for the separate administrations are curious. In the British provinces there was an increase of 3,400,000 in the number of Brahmanic Hindus, despite a falling off of 1,120,000 in Bombay and the central provinces, where famine was most severe.

The growth of Hinduism was especially noteworthy in Madras, Bengal and Assam. But the increase in British provinces was more than counterbalanced by the reduction in the native states, especially in those of the Deccan and Rajputana. The total decrease in native state was 4,013,000, of which 2,102,000 must be assigned to Rajputana. In strong contrast is the growth in the second great religion of India, Mohammedanism, the Mussulmans showing an increase from 57,231,000 to 62,458,000, or 9 per cent. In Bengal Mohammedanism grew twice as fast as Brahmanic Hinduism during the decade, while its progress in Madras was also very marked.

In Baluchistan were enumerated nearly 600,000 Mussulmans who were not returned in 1891. The growth in the number of Mohammedans has been attributed in part to the relative prosperity of the regions where they mostly reside, in part to conversions. A large increase in the population of Burma has been accomplished by a still greater increase in those professing Buddhism, the increase in Buddhists being from 6,888,000 to 9,184,000, or over 33 per cent. India proper, it may surprise many to learn, has only 263,000 Buddhists. The total population of Sikhs is 2,195,000, a rise of 287,000. Of these no less than 2,103,000 are to be found in the Punjab and its native states.

One branch of the orthodox Jews still keeps up the custom which seems more than thirty centuries old. It is the laying of a dead man's head upon a pillow filled with earth, and placing upon his face of an earthen plate or saucer broken into three pieces, one for the nose and one for each eye. Where a family is very wealthy the earth is brought from the Holy Land, and the mortuary plate from a potter's kiln not far from Jerusalem. It is made of a reddish clay, and is similar to those now dug up by the Palestine exploration fund laborers. To make the pillow and to break the plate into the three conventional pieces demand considerable practice if not skill, and give steady employment to a little wizen-up, long-bearded Polish rabbi, who lives down in the "Bend" between Park Row and the Five Points. For the opulent he has earth which he claims to have imported from Palestine and odd plates which look as if they might have been made by the potters of King Solomon. But the well-to-do follow out the old customs, the few in number and the majority of the faithful are not blessed with an excess of worldly goods.

For them he has clean earth taken from a field of growing grain and plates made in some pottery not far from the city. There is no set rule respecting the earth. It may be laid in the coffin beneath the head of the dead man, and so form the pillow, which is usually provided by nature herself. Or it may be the filling of a linen or silken case on which is inscribed a line from the Torah or a figure of King Solomon's seal.

How he breaks the plate is a secret which has come down to him through many generations. It formerly was done by a sword, afterwards by a towel, but today by a small hammer. When the blow is struck the fractured pieces should not be of the same size. Two should be small and somewhat circular in outline, so as to cover the optic orbit, while the third should be rather long and reach at least from the eyebrows to the end of the nose. The first part of the ceremony is easily understood. It expresses the tradition of saying, "Try pillow shall be earth," but what the meaning or origin of the three pieces of plate is is not known to the official himself. He says, "It is the law of our fathers, and I follow the law."

According to one of their scholars, there was a superstition once that the pieces of earthenware protected the soul when it made its final exit from the body, which was supposed to occur within a short period after physical death, but there seems more reason for believing that the custom was of the same nature as the practice still extant among some people of laying coins upon a dead man's eyes.

The Jains, like the Hindus, suffered severely from famine in Bombay and its native states, and in Rajputana, where (and in Central India) they are mainly located. Their numbers fell from 1,417,000 to 1,334,000. The Brahmo Hindus (Brahmo Somal) who have excited some interest in this country,

LANGUAGE OF THE CHINESE

Mr. Charles Neuser, United States consular agent at Cera, in an official communication to the State Department advocates the study of the Chinese language as a means of extending American trade in the Chinese empire. "While China is considered the land of promise for our farmers and manufacturers," says he, "the importance of the knowledge of the Chinese language is greatly undervalued. I submit the details of a recent interview with a linguist who has given special attention to this subject. It is well understood that in order to enter into permanent commercial relations with a foreign country it is indispensable to know its language. When Russian industries began to develop the Germans recognized that in order to engage in profitable trade in that country it was necessary to learn Russian, and there is now no country where the Russian language is so much taught as in Germany.

The Chinese language is ideographic. It conveys the idea and not the word for the thing, as the figure "8" represents the idea and not the word. The Chinese have invented more than 40,000 marks for their writing. In the opinion of my informant, it will require only about 3,000 marks for mercantile correspondence, and it will be easier to learn them than the words of an ordinary foreign language.

Russian is more difficult for Americans than Chinese. It takes much longer to learn the spoken language, because of the variety of dialects; but any one can learn enough of the writings to answer ordinary purposes in a few months and have his knowledge perfected by a linguist within about a year. An exact instruction in one of the Chinese languages can only be given by a Chinaman.

This method has been adopted in Germany. Besides the professor for the theory of language there are four Chinese linguists in the Oriental Seminary of Berlin teaching the business style and the language of Peking, Shanghai and Canton. It is not intended to fit pupils for the diplomatic service, but for commercial work.—Washington Star.

PANEE SPENDTHRIFT TRUST.

Tom Fitch filed his answer yesterday to Magoon's brief in the matter of the Rebecca Panee spendthrift trust. He declares that Becky has been shown to be fit for freedom from the trust and that there is no reason why she should be compelled to live cheaply on half her income, in order that she may increase her estate, as she has no one to leave it to when she dies. Fitch waxes very sarcastic over Magoon's having stood as a "father" to Becky and says that the only time when she had reason to accumulate money was when she had made a will, since destroyed, leaving all her estate to Magoon.

GERMAN BULLS.

The Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, who is the next heir to Queen Wilhelmina, is a wealthy young Prince. He is 2 years of age, and unmarried. In Germany it is said, he has a reputation for "bulls" worthy of an Irishman. Once, while visiting a public school, he noticed two boys of striking similarity in appearance. "Why, what a remarkable likeness!" he exclaimed; "these lads must be twins!" "Yes, your Royal Highness," remarked the principal, and he beckoned the two frightened youngsters to him. "Ah, my son," said the Prince, placing his hand on the head of one of them, "what is your name?" "Erich," "And how old are you?" "Six." "And you?" he said, turning to the other boy. On another occasion his kind heart took pity on a murderer sentenced to imprisonment for life, and he proposed to remit the "last three years of the sentence."

number only 4,000, while the Orya Hindus, founded by a Brahmin about 25 years ago, form a sect of 67,000. Some details have already been given in the "Times" of the Christian population, which has been returned at 2,923,000.

The active race of commercial people, the Parsis, has grown from 83,500 to 94,200, and the Jews have advanced from 17,194 to 18,228. The head "animistic" comprises 8,584,000 persons, a reduction of 696,000 on the figures of 1891. The tribes whose religion is thus described are chiefly found in the hill country of Bengal, Assam, the central provinces and its states, Central India, Madras, Burma and Baroda. To sum up, Hinduism, in spite of a decline in the decade, is still predominant, its adherents numbering 70 per cent of the aggregate population, as against 21 per cent who profess Mohammedanism. Of the rest of the population about 3 per cent are Buddhists and 3 per cent animistic, leaving only 3 per cent for Christians and all others.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR DYSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford Co., Pa., U. S. A. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when Editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy and this time one dose cured me." Owing to rough weather the steamer Lehua was unable to land freight or passengers at Halaiva this trip.

The steamer Kaula will again take the Mikahala's Kaula and Niniau run this afternoon, sailing at 5 o'clock.

Diver Herb Young is to go to Kahuiki shortly to attend to shifting and otherwise changing the big moorings at that port.

Seats sold aside for the Frawley performance will be held for one hour after the steamer is sighted; if uncalled for in that time, they will be sold.

J. J. Dunne has become associated with Tom Fitch in the appeal against the income tax law in the United States court.

The Ross of Killarney and Ping Pong, two selections that are all the rage in San Francisco, are now being played by Berger and his band.

The Mauna Loa will sail on her regular run a week from today. The W. G. Hall is due from the Mauna Loa's Maui and Hawaii run next Tuesday.

High Sheriff Brown conducted the prosecution of cases in the police court this morning owing to the absence of Deputy High Sheriff Chillingworth in the Circuit Court.

The case of profanity against W. R. Sims, the Kailua politician, and that against J. Bergin, the conductor, for assault and battery, will be heard this afternoon by Judge Wilcox.

POWER OF THE LEGISLATURE

The legislature of the Territory of Hawaii has the same power as a State legislature on the mainland, according to the contentions of Attorney General Dole this morning, in the hearing of the income tax case before United States Judge Estee. This is the suit which Col. Fitch brought in behalf of about fifty local firms and individuals, to declare the income tax law unconstitutional and restrain Tax Collector Pratt from collecting the tax this year.

Attorney General Dole also contended that the decision of the Hawaiian supreme court sustaining the act, should govern the federal court. He said that the Congress had given Hawaii's supreme court the rank of a state court, and that it was the rule that federal courts should follow the state courts in such matters, unless their decisions were very plainly against the law. The attorney general's contention as to the legislature of Hawaii making as a state legislature, was in reply to the plea that it had not the power to pass such a law as the income tax law of 1901.

SLASHED HER THROAT.

Jealous Japanese Tried To Kill His Inamorita.

The Japanese working on the Wailua plantation seem to be quite a jealous lot. Last night another cutting affray occurred on the plantation, in which a Japanese woman was the victim. News of the affair was received by the police today.

It appears that one of the Japanese laborers has been admiring the wife of a countryman. Whether she returned this admiration or not is not certain. In any event they quarreled for she told him not to come around. Last evening he visited the house while the husband was absent. The woman was outside of the place washing some clothes. The lover called her inside the house and as soon as she appeared, he attacked her with a cane knife. He made a savage slash at her throat. She threw her chin down and the blade cut that portion of her face, but missed the throat. Her assailant was placed under arrest. Dr. H. Wood attended the woman.

FIRE INQUEST TODAY.

High Sheriff Brown has been busy with the fire inquest to determine the cause of the fire in G. Dole's place on Nuuanu street last Saturday. The jury will probably return a verdict this afternoon.

Many dollars are turned away annually by The Star in rejecting offensive and improper advertisements offered for insertion in its columns.

This is a cogent reason why The Star's advertising columns are so generally used and so widely read.
