THE NEW YORK MEDDLER.

What He Has to Say to the Open Letter of Bishop Willis.

Bishop Potter of New York has replied to the letter which Bishop Willis sent out, relative to the alleged interference of the New York prelate into the Hawaiian Episcopal Church trouble. The New York Evening Post quotes Bishop Potter in an interview as follows:

"The worthy Bishop of Honolulu must be out of his mind. This is the kindest interpretation to be put upon his conduct. When Hawaii was first annexed, it became at once apparent to every one but him that the Episcopal Church there must pass from British to American control. It was, of course, expected that he would resign. As time passed, and he did nothing, we learned to our surprise that he proposed to stay where he was.

"The case was a peculiarly perplexing one, as there was no organization through which the matter could be adjusted. The Church of Hawaii is theoretically under the jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, but he actually did not have the power to remove the Bishop. The Bishop's salary was paid by the Society for the Promotion of the Gospel in Foreign Lands. Of course, this society saw the necessity of turning the Church over to us, and learning of the strange attitude of the Bishop, informed him that his salary would be stopped in six months. And it was stopped over a year ago.

"So the matter stood until last year, when we induced him to attend, at our expense, the Episcopal General Convention held at San Francisco in October, and talk the matter out. As a result of frequent conferences he agreed to resign. We made up a purse for him, but I understand he has ample private means.

"The power of the Bishop is not despotic but constitutional, and it has always been held that a clergyman may properly claim legal protection against a tyrannical Bishop. And it is well that this is so."

MONEY FOR FIRE CLAIMS

Delegate Wilcox Introduces a Bill in Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 8 — Delegate Wilcox on March 27 introduced a bill providing for the settlement of fire claims during the year 1900 of the Territory of Hawaii. This bill was referred to the Committee on Claims. The text of the measure is as follows:

"Be it enacted, etc., that the sum of $3,000,000 is hereby appropriated, out of any money not otherwise appropriated, for the settlement of the fire claims for the destruction of properties in the city of Honolulu during the bubonic plague in the year 1900.

"Section 2. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby empowered to pay out of the Treasury the above sum to the commissioners of the fire claims of the Territory of Hawaii who have the adjusting of the said fire claims under the authority of an act of 1900 therefor."

Mr. Wilcox states that he will appear before the committee and urge the favorable reporting of this measure, and believes that in all justice to the people whose property was destroyed for the purpose of preventing the spread of the plague and the probable extension of the same to the United States, the money should be appropriated. The committee has called on Surgeon General Wyman for a report on the matter.

NOW IS THE TIME!

The Advertiser knows nothing of the Wendelin case further than appears in the Board of Health report and it has made no insinuations on the subject. If there are any charges against the priest we suppose the board will let them come out at the proper time.—P. C. A.

And what does the Advertiser consider to be the proper time? Twenty years after Father Wendelin's death? As the Rev. Father Valentin says in his rebuke to the morning paper, published this morning, the public, that is, the "general public" does not want a repetition of the Father Damien affair, which was revived again last week by persons interested in the discredit of the Roman Catholic Church.

If charges are to be brought, by all means let them be brought now, while Father Wendelin is alive and very well able to defend himself. Let him be summoned before the Board of Health, in an open and public meeting, and let him know what he is accused of. If he is guilty, then let him be removed, as Reynolds and Dr. Oliver were removed, in a regular or public way. No star chamber and mysterious proceedings are wanted in this community. If Father Wendelin must be punished in order to soothe the wounded feelings of ex-superintendent Reynolds, the public wants to know it and will know it.

Gentlemen of the Board of Health, the eye of the public is upon you Act, and act quickly.

An American Bible for Americans, is the announcement of a Methodist publishing company. But what is an American Bible, anyway? Do please tell us.

Justice Galbraith has the satisfaction of knowing that he has been mentioned for Governor. He may not be so ambitious, but Judge Little is, alias Smith, his former law partner in Hilo. It is much better to be slightly mentioned incidentally than to be not at all. But where, oh, where is that Little at, Governor or Justice, which is it to be?

No man can serve two masters at one and the same time, much less can he serve God and Mammon together. We feel that he must let go of one in order to do the one he retains properly and well. The Rev. Alex. Mackintosh (now Canon), should by all means "take up his roots" of either one of the two positions he holds, whether that of an educator or a pastor. Come, shake off!

A better man might have been found in C. B. Wilson for the position of Superintendent of the Leper Settlement, but his application was unanimously sidetracked for one fraternally connected. Still we are hopeful that the one who has been preferred will do his best and improve his opportunities, and in so doing gain the good graces of those who are there as inmates of that "hell on earth." He will be watched as has been his predecessor, and don't forget it.

Believing that the Board of Health is the sole executive master of the situation at the Leper Settlement to permit a person to stay there, or to ask for his summary withdrawal when his presence became most objectionable, but still it is due to that man to have charges preferred and he given a chance to defend himself rather than see him condemned without due trial and to go about with an odium and a blemish upon his character. It is due to those "fundamental principles of Anglo Saxon liberty" that such should be the case, and nothing more nor less is demanded but justice.

THE INDEPENDENT seems to have stirred up a hornet's nest with its campaign for Justice at the Leper Settlement. Ex-Superintendent Reynolds now claims that the Attorney General was biased by a determination to clear his own department of blame, and that he was animated by some personal prejudice which ought to have been left out of the case. The head of the Department of Public Instruction through his organ makes a sweeping and wholesale condemnation of his "conferees" of the Board of Health and the end is not yet in sight. It is a pretty family quarrel and eloquently demonstrates the kind of harmony which reigns in the different departments of Gov. Dole's administration.

Bishop Willis needs no defense from our feeble way, for he is quite capable of doing that himself, as he has shown that sufficiently to be in the past. He has all the staying qualities inherent in a true Anglo-Saxon, not a hybrid one, and is able to "defend the right" against all his adversaries in a most gentlemanly fashion, open and above board. It is not in him to say "die," nor will it be "hardly ever." He goes forth most triumphant and very buoyant in the thought that those principles he strenuously fought for will be retained and maintained. "Thou good and faithful servant," thy reward awaiteth thee where moth and rust doth not corrupt, and where all will be "peace, perfect, peace" in that "everlasting bliss."

The appointment by the Board of Health of J. D. McVeigh to the superintendency of the Leper Settlement is a step in the right direction. Knowing him well, it is safe to say that he is well aware of Hawaiian ways and customs to a certain extent, and he is in a way in touch and sympathy with them, feeling as much as they do. But of course, he may not be one as might have been expected. And we fear though that he will finally fall into the boots and ways of the late Superintendent, both having been in close touch more or less these many years. No other applicant could have expected to have been appointed, for remember the new incumbent and the rest of the Board of Health are brother Masons, and they are therefore quite fraternally in touch and sympathy one with another.

The Advertiser knows nothing of the Wendelin case...and it has made no insinuations on the subject.—P. C. A.

THE INDEPENDENT is glad to know that the morning paper knows nothing of the Wendelin case and will take cognisance of the admission. As far as insinuations have been made the Advertiser, as a newspaper, may be innocent of the charge. A member of the reporterial staff of that paper, however, has thrown insinuations as to the charges against Father Wendelin. He has stated that to his knowledge, the charges were of a serious nature, and if published would bring discredit upon the Catholic Mission. How and where did the reporter get his information? Let him speak out. If the information came to him in the regular course of duty, let him publish it. Insinuations and insinuations will not do, but facts are wanted.

Paralysis

is sometimes caused by overwork, either mental or physical. There are many other exciting causes, such as exposure to cold, excesses, emotional influences, etc. The approach of the disease is generally gradual. Frequently the first warning is a vague feeling of headache, vertigo and muscular weakness.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People restore the nutrition of the nerves and have cured many cases of paralysis when all other remedies and methods of treatment have failed. The record of this remedy entitles it to a thorough trial.

Perhaps there is no man better known in the city of Lawrence, Kansas, than Mr. G. H. Snyder. To a reporter Mr. Snyder related a wonderful story. He said:

"I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs until it reached my body. I grew very thin in flesh, my appetite was very poor and I did not relish my food. At last I became so bad I was unable to move about. I consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me that I had locomotor ataxia, another that I had creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but they did me no good and I continued to grow worse.

"One day a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I immediately commenced their use, throwing all other medicines away. Before I had finished my first box I found that they were benefiting me. I used twelve boxes in all and was perfectly cured."

—From the Journal, Lawrence, Kan.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold by all dealers, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c. a box or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room, where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases.
Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

Rumors of Domestic Troubles

The rumors of another dark and fair alliance are not so rose-hued, and all sorts of things are whispered in the letters coming from Honolulu.
It seems a pity that the Harry Macfarlane's dream of love could not last. Some say it is another case of half-caste blood cropping out where least expected. In spite of the denials of Mrs. Dole, who but recently became the bride of General Dole of Honolulu, those who are close connected with her declare she and her husband have practically separated. There are various reasons assigned for the domestic trouble.
One is said to be that the bride found upon her arrival in Honolulu the usual appendages to an Hawaiian household and objected to being confronted with so many seemingly little living likenesses of her bridegroom. Another story is that the Doles enlivened their bridal passage across the Pacific with wordy differences of opinion, the husband objecting to his young wife's high spirits on board ship.

Cambridge Won by Five Lengths

PUTNEY, England, March 22.—The Cambridge crew today fulfilled the expectations of the prophets and won the fifty-ninth boat race with Oxford as they liked. The time was nineteen minutes, nine seconds. At no time throughout the race did Oxford in the slightest degree flatter the hopes of the supporters of the dark blue. Any possible chance which the Oxonians might have had was shattered by the result of the toss, giving the light blues (Cambridge) all the advantage of station.
Immense crowds, as usual, turned out to view the contest, and the weather, though showery, was not so inclement as it had been most of the previous years.

Further Marine Damage Suits.

Two new suits were instituted yesterday against the schooner Frank W. Howe, David Hall and Ed. Woods, the sailors who obtained judgment for $480 for short rations a few days ago, now claim to be suffering from scurvy, and claim the sum of $5,000 damages. Three more members of the crew of the Howe also put in claims for short rations allowance yesterday, amounting in all to $1211 Gill and Farley are the attorneys in this case.
