LATEST FROM THE LAVA FLOW.

ENVOI GAZETTE.—Hilo rejoices in the hope that Madame Pele has ceased her efforts to destroy our little town. I say hope, as it is not certain yet that the flow has stopped for good. There is still fire to be found on the flow, though no running lava has been seen for some days. Occasionally a spurt of smoke is to be seen along the line of the flow. Our weather has been so cloudy that the summit crater has not been seen for several days. By way of the crater of Kilauea, good authority says that there is still heavy action at the summit crater and light was seen there as late as Monday night. One thing I feel is pretty certain: if there should be increased activity at the summit, there would still be no danger of the flow near as breaking out anew, as the channel from Mauna Kea by this time is pretty thoroughly cooled and filled up; and a surface overflow would again take months to reach us. The flow is still very hot, hot enough to light cigars from and to burn up coats and handkerchiefs laid on it. It is wonderful to walk over the flow so near to us and see how it piled up and spread over the country back of the hills. One thing is sure that a flow will turn a lava flow, as far as this one is from its source.

The flow had reached well into the Aleaia or what is more widely known as the Kilauea peninsula and was not over 500 feet or so from the main one of the Hiale hills. The branch that ran down the Kalaupapa gulch is perhaps 1,500 or 1,500 feet from the bridge on the volcano road.

The last effect of any magnitude made by Madame Pele was above Hale Lanuana, where she crossed over the old flow in a stream a thousand feet wide and ran into the woods on the Hiale side.

But as I said before we hope, and the probabilities are, that the town is in no further danger from the flow, unless a tremendous overflow should start down the mountain side. As we look over the black devastation spread over so large an area of land so near us, our thanks arise to a Heavenly Father who has spared us from its deadly embrace.

I am in hopes that much has been learnt in reference to lava flows by the close observations that have been made in this one by many interested observers.

Hilo, August 23d, 1881.

P. S.—Since writing the above I find that the lava is still flowing slowly in the woods above John Hall's.

D. H. H.

Hilo, Friday, 3 p. m., August 23d.

ENVOI GAZETTE.—Three o'clock on the day of the sailing of the steamer is a poor time to begin a letter to you, but in Court time, sometimes such things must be.

Of course the lava flow is the great subject of interest there as well as here. It is impossible to say whether it is dead or not. I have just returned from the flow at about the lower line of the woods, near John Hall's late residence. The two "blue holes" of which you heard last week are still there and full of fern life. There has been no outbreak at any of the lower lines of the flow since Tuesday or Wednesday, 20th or 21st, but the source crater continues intensely active and the occasional breaks through the surface of the flow indicate an intense heat and life below. In the lower end of the two holes we could see the lava flowing downward, say fifty or sixty feet below the surface. Of course if this continues so there must be an outbreak somewhere before long; but in general there is greater quiet and less signs of life than at any time for so long before. A little way above John Hall's the lava is hot, just below the surface, so that a stick thrust in a foot or two, burns at once into a violent flame—and a constant mass of steam and vapor pours up from all over the long line. A column of smoke was seen far up in the woods this morning which may indicate a new burst out at the side of the great body still in the woods.

Mr. Wilder deserves great credit for the care and attention shown to tourists. The steamer made good time and pushed along so that the really great crowd of visitors are taken rapidly to the looked-for destination.

The Court met on Thursday, and by this time has cut into the large volume of business material.

The Man of the People.

"HARDY IN ALL," J. SAUNDERS.

In what a delightful variety of characters the editor of the P. C. A. presents himself before the public in his last issue.

No. 1 is the stirring journalist, gratifying his tastes (but how about other people's?) and filling his pockets by his masterly use of the pen, and who nobly declines a post to which he had never been gazetted, because he feels his first duty to the public is as editor of his paper. Then he blows a loud blast on his own trumpet (this he does well; never having had a trumpeter) and lets everybody know that "had he taken the matter in hand, there would have been a very thorough investigation and a carefully prepared and just assessment." Doubtless!

This character is a little overdrawn, a thriving man need not blow his own trumpet and state what he would do with a post which he has declined to fill. There seems to be just a touch of sarcasm in the grapes here.

No. 2 represents an "invariably loyal" martyr who receives $1,000 to do certain work in the printing and publication line. He does work to the amount of $2,000, and hard-earned, attorney authentic inside on the return of the balance of $1,000. Here is a man who has been in the country twenty years, "invariably loyal" all the time, and now receiving to be so in the future. He did not profit one dollar by the contract business, and yet the $1,000 was taken from him. It is a mystery to us. His loyalty to the Hawaiian people and Hawaiian independence cannot be affected by the having or denial of any office, job, emolument, or contract whatever.

No. 3 we have a champion for the King, ready to throw down the gauntlet to all comers. Rather a cringing champion it is true, but still, one after that positive style. The unfortunate mistake in this character is that the King is in no need of any valiant knight, and should such occasion arise he would doubtless prefer one passé parat and republic.

No. 4 "The Inquisitive Scribbler," bores on the ridiculous. The I. R. must be a descendant of one of the followers of Hardy Gante. The fact-finder went into the tide question. The inquisitive tries to do. No. 1, R. no, although the Minister is appointed to guard the order and well-being of the country during the King's absence, he cannot stop the lava flow, or save the "disinclined grounds and overgrown homesteads," by going up to Hilo to observe. The right man was up there, I. R.

No. 5. The man of the people. What a crowd of hills and seek it when "we" (the man of the people) seek to represent public opinion. Now the "dilettante dramatic critic" "social critics," a "bank owner critic" are all portions of the public. Is the feeling of "Pariah" that makes "the man of the people" seek at them. Is he jealous of a central administration society (if such society exists) because he is obliged to pay the game alone, and finds it a trifle slow. If he would not set up such a dismal howl, he might be forgotten, but every now and then he gives tongue, and the critics, critics, etc., are reminded that the "Pariah" still exists under the character of The Man of the People.

Letter from Kohala, Hawaii.

Kohala, Friday, Sunrise.

DEAR ENVOI.—Kohala looks green at sunrise. Let me advise you to try it. The green mountains at that hour are so green, the balmy winds so balmy, and the early Chinese look so picturesque. All Nature looks so bright that you wonder you don't feel bright too, and you discover you have waked and risen at an unusually hour, and that Nature within most conspicuously and "adorable nature" for three or four hours in breakfast bed. Early rising is a good thing, well spoken of by Aristotle, proved by poets, and commended to the reason. Let us hope you are up to a very good thing; but to see sunrise here, from a viewpoint of view, would be a new experience. You would look upon the glorious testimony as specially created to grow green, as in a fair some-year property, to be found here with, if it does not pull up from the sea a few showers, and send them down to wash and vivify the fields. Just now rain is the desire of the people here. If only you could send them a moiety of your Honolulu showers, you would be a benefactor, and perhaps would get a diamond ornament or better still a testimonial from a grateful people. Last Monday Kohala did get rain, but it was not spread out enough. It was dumped down at the rate of 2 1/2 inches in a day. It was through and done, and the thirsty ground took in the fact. The sun rising in tears, or looking through a drip is now what these residents long for, to the stranger this would not be personally agreeable. Kohala in a down pour is not attractive, the roads are a fashion of becoming sloughs of mud, locomotion impossible, and the streets of rain, swamping along the mountain slope tolerably disgusting, after being watched three or four days. You can fancy it, therefore the subject is dropped.

Yours,
V. L. T. M.

CEO. F. WELLS.

Honolulu, June

Late Foreign News.

Europe.

LONDON, July 21.—The steamer Paradise has landed the shore end of the new Atlantic cable near Land's End.

BREXIT, July 21.—One authority reckons the amount of capital lost to the Fatherland by emigration to America to be 12,000,000 marks. Many regard the west tide of emigration, not as an unalloyed evil, but as a purifying stream. They contend that Germany is suffering from over-population.

LONDON, July 25.—The Globe this evening says: We are officially informed a report has reached the Indian Office representing that the army of the Ameer of Afghanistan has been completely defeated by the forces under Ayoub Khan. The same journal learns from another source that serious troubles have arisen in consequence, and the Ameer and the Indian Government are greatly concerned at the gravity of the situation. The dispatch says a battle was fought yesterday between the Ameer and Ayoub Khan, during which one of the Ameer's regiments deserted and went over to his enemies. Thereupon the Ameer's troops fled, leaving their guns and baggage on the field.

The Viceroy of India telegraphs that the Ameer of Afghanistan has been totally defeated at Karazi Alta. His baggage and eighteen guns were taken. A Kelat regiment and his Candahar horse deserted to Ayoub Khan. The Ameer's Generals fled toward Cabul. Sirdar Shamsuddin is still at Candahar with 400 Cabulis and some police.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 25.—The actual murderers of Abdol Aziz have been exiled to the province of Hedjaz, in Arabia, apart from the accomplices. Midhat Pasha has been exiled to an island away from all the others.

PARIS, July 26.—A Cabinet council was held yesterday for the purpose of definitely fixing the time of the new elections.

The Senate and Chamber of Deputies passed the budget of the Chamber.

The duties were increased from 1,000,000 francs to 6,000,000 francs.

A grant was asked for extending the Algerian Railway from Kreider to Mechraia.

LONDON, July 10th.—Dean Stanley died last night of erysipelas. The Archbishop of Canterbury arrived in time for a few parting words. Dean Stanley's sister, Canon Farrar and James, and several members of the Dean's household, were present at his deathbed. He remained for some time in a semi-conscious condition until he died. The news says no living divine will be more deeply regretted or widely missed than Dean Stanley. The Dean will be buried by the side of his wife in Westminster Abbey.

LONDON, July 19th.—In a conversation to-day, the Archbishop of Canterbury said the last audible words of Dean Stanley were: "I have labored amidst many frailties and much weakness to make Westminster Abbey the great centre of religious and national life in a truly liberal spirit."

LONDON, July 23.—The London Lancet says of Garfield's case: A portion of the dress may have been carried into the wound, and each of the abscesses that forms is not only a direct source of danger from the pain and fever, and the danger of its spreading deeply, but with each there is a fresh liability to blood-poisoning. It is quite impossible to feel any certainty that we may not hear of another abscess or relapse, and it is of great importance that the patient's constitutional vigor should be maintained at as high a pitch as possible in view of future troubles. The absence of fever and severe exhaustion removes any cause for any immediate alarm, but until the wound is quite healed and the bullet either removed or safely incased, there will be a liability to recurring abscesses, each attended with risk of blood-poisoning.

LONDON, July 26th.—In the Commons to-day Lord Hartington, Secretary of State for India, said: Since Ayoub Khan's victory over the Ameer's force, on Wednesday, fighting has been heard in the direction of Candahar. General Hume has been instructed to concentrate troops at Quetta. They number from five to six thousand. Marquis Ripon, Viceroy would consider what steps were necessary and communicate with the Government. The loss on each side in the last battle was from 200 to 400. The nearest British outpost is seventy-eight miles from Candahar.

ROME, July 23.—Signor Mattiacci and Mashari telegraphed the Royal Geographical Society, announcing the complete success of their expedition across Africa, from Egypt to the Gulf of Guinea.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 23.—The Pasha who were condemned to exile for the murder of Abdol Aziz, on arriving at Jeddah, Arabia, will be escorted to the outskirts of Jeddah. They will there be delivered to the Mecca authorities, who will be held responsible for their safe-keeping.

American.

ALBANY, July 22.—The Joint Convention re-assembled at 4 o'clock and voted for United States Senators, with the following result: Senate—Lapham 22, Potter 20, Assembly—Lapham 20, Potter 21. Total—Lapham 42, Potter 41; necessary to a choice 68. The Chair announced the election of Eldridge G. Lapham in place of Roscoe Conkling, resigned, and the Joint Assembly dissolved.

On motion of Senator Winslow, Eldridge G. Lapham's nomination was made unanimous, amidst three cheers.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Blaine cabled to Lowell to-day as follows: The President's condition is reported entirely satisfactory. A slight return of fever is expected later in the afternoon, and will, probably, for some time be a daily accompaniment at this stage of his progress.

This evening the following cablegram was sent: "The President's afternoon fever was less to-day than yesterday, and at this hour, 11:30 a.m., it has almost disappeared. His temperature is very nearly normal. His wound is in a healthy condition, and he is doing well in all respects. His physicians are greatly encouraged."

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, July 23.—11:30 p. m.—The President has had a very favorable day, and there is a marked improvement in his condition to-night as compared with that of three days ago. He has taken in the past fifteen hours his full allowance of nourishment, and there has been a slight increase in his physical strength. The febrile rise, which came on as usual, this afternoon was less strongly marked than yesterday, the maximum temperature being about half a degree lower. There was a free discharge of pus at the evening dressing of the wound, and it was of a perfectly healthy character. Shortly after the evening examination the fever began to subside, and the patient fell asleep and has slept most of the time since. He is now free from fever, with his pulse below 100, and temperature and respiration normal. The surgeons report his condition in every way satisfactory.

Professor Bell is working hopefully on his invention for locating the bullet, and has an ingenious contrivance already. The President was propped up in bed by his own request to-day, sitting nearly upright for half an hour. This eased him, and he soon fell asleep. There were very few visitors to-day. James and Collector Robinson called together. The physicians all talk hopefully and confidently. He is impatient to get out of bed. No abscess is now feared. The President decries the painful operation of dressing the wound every evening.

W. DE FRIES, VETERINARY SURGEON, WILL ATTEND TO ALL SICK OR INJURED HORSES & CATTLE. Office and Stalls at Hawaiian Hotel Stables. Orders left at "The Showman's Shop" will be attended to.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY! MUTUAL.

ORGANIZED 1843. Cash Assets $45,000,000 Annual Income 10,000,000 Cash Surplus 9,000,000

WILLIAMS, DIMOND & CO., General Agents, S. A. SWALM, [General Manager For San Francisco, Australia, Japan and Hawaiian Islands.

EX-GOVERNOR FRED'K F. LOW, Pres. of Local Board in San Francisco. H. HACKFELD & CO., General Agents, C. O. BERGER, Special Agent, For the Hawaiian Islands.

ALL FORMS OF Life Insurance Policies Issued. EXAMINE THE NEW TONTINE INVESTMENT INSURANCE.

[Extract from a letter of Hon. F. F. Low.] I certify that I have taken out a "Tontine" policy in the New York Life Insurance Co. for $20,000; that I regard it as the best and fairest plan of Life Insurance, and that the principles embodied in the new plan, after a careful examination, have removed the objections I have heretofore entertained against "Life Insurance."

I have steadily declined to insure until the "Tontine" was presented to me. Yours very truly, F. F. LOW.

It provides for one's family at ordinary life rates, and the money returned with interest on arriving at a certain age. IT OFFERS ADVANTAGES Far in excess of those realized from the investment of equal amounts in savings banks or corporate stocks offering equal security.

SEE LIST OF POLICY HOLDERS! Each of whom have insured on this plan for amounts ranging From $5,000 to $20,000.

H. A. P. Carter, J. C. Glade, Samuel Parker, Williams, Dimond, F. T. Lenehan, W. W. Hall, A. McWayne, D. K. Pyffe, G. W. Macfarlane, H. B. Macfarlane, F. W. Macfarlane, Albert Jaeger, F. A. Schaefer, C. O. Berger, Jol. Hoting, Wm. G. Irwin, H. W. Schmidt, J. T. Waterhouse, E. C. Damon, S. K. Kail, J. J. Dowsett, Jr., Henry Berger, J. W. Pfinger, E. O. Waller, Cecil Brown, H. E. Whitney, M. Green, R. W. Laine, Aug. Unna, G. S. Wilcox, Mark Robinson, and many others.

Which is sufficient guarantee as to its merits. For full information, apply to H. HACKFELD & CO., or C. O. BERGER, 25 & 26
