HONOLULU TERRITORY OF HAWAII, FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1907

Appeal To Patriotic Spirit Of Hawaii

KUHIO PRESENTS ATKINSON TO HILO AS "NEXT GOVERNOR"

(Special Bulletin Wireless)
Hilo, Hawaii, May 24.—The largest meeting ever held on this island assembled last evening in the Hilo Armory for the public reception to the visiting Congressman. All elements were represented in the assembly and in the list of speakers.

Delegate Kuhio caused the people to prick up their ears when introducing Secretary Atkinson, the first speaker. He used the phrase "Our next Governor."

Other speakers were Congressman Alexander, County Clerk Pua, Congressman Capron, Editor A. F. Atkinson, Rev. S. L. Desha, and Congressman Cole.

The Congressional speakers gave strong assurances that the Hilo break-water would be built. They also in their talks made particular appeals to the people to be loyal to the flag and all it represents that is best.

Slight fire reappeared in the crater of Kilauea on Wednesday evening, but Congressman Fitzgerald was the only one to see it, the others having returned to Hilo. The whole party leaves Hilo today on board the Kinan.

MRS. ENA FLEETS TO TAKE DOWER RIGHTS

Declines To Abide By Provisions Of The Will

Maria K. Ena, widow of the late John Ena, refuses to abide by the provisions of the will and elects instead to take her dower rights. A paper to this effect was filed with the Circuit Court clerk this morning by A. G. M. Robertson, attorney for Mrs. Ena.

This decision on the part of Mrs. Ena does not mean that there will be any contest of the will. Under the law, a wife of a deceased husband is entitled to one-third of the estate, and if she chooses to take this instead of what she is given by the provisions of the will, there is no room for a contest.

According to the terms of the will of John Ena, the estate was created a trust, with Father Valentin and the Hawaiian Trust Company trustees. The income from the estate was to be equally divided among the widow and the seven children, and Mrs. Ena was given in addition the sum of $999 a year and the right to occupy the Pacific Heights homestead during her lifetime. The sum of $2000 was left to the son Thomas F. Ena, $1000 to the daughter Mary, and $500 each to the other children, to be paid to them on their becoming of age. After the death of the widow and all the children the estate was to be divided among the children's children.

A. G. M. Robertson stated this morning that he understood that there had been some trouble over the appointment of an administrator in California, but that this had been satisfactorily settled.

The value of the Ena estate is in the neighborhood of $150,000, which would give Mrs. Ena about $53,000 as her dower right.

GRAND LUAU AND BAZAAR TOMORROW

The Luau and Fair to be given Saturday afternoon and evening on the grounds of the Prince and Princess Kawanuaokoa will be one of the most elaborate affairs ever held in Honolulu. The booths for the various attractions, the dancing pavilion and the luau tables are now being erected, and by tomorrow the splendid grounds, always attractive, will be a veritable bower of beauty and pleasure.

The money from this event is to go toward providing for Hawaiian women. It is a most worthy cause in worthy hands and should be generally supported.

STAND BY THE FLAG

(Special Bulletin Wireless)
Hilo, Hawaii, May 24, 2 p. m.—As the steamer Kinan with the Congressional party on board was leaving the Hilo wharf this forenoon, there were cries of "seעה" from the wharf.

Congressman Fitzgerald, the only Democrat, was put forward by his colleagues to respond. This he did as the steamer was drawing away from the wharf. After expressing the warm thanks of every member for the courtesies showered on all sides, he appealed to all residents of the islands to be strong and faithful in their patriotism and support at all times the cause of the American nation.

As his speech came to a close, the cheers from the crowd on the wharf mingled with the equally loyal cheers from the people on the steamer.

CONGRESSMEN FIND HAWAII'S DEMANDS ARE ALL JUSTIFIED

The first members of the Congressional party to return from the trip to Maui and Hawaii arrived this morning in the Manna Loa, and are at present quartered at the Young Hotel. They speak in high terms of praise of their travels and of what they have seen, and are all ready to help Hawaii out when it comes to the securing of the things which she most desires.

It is quite evident that the helpful way in which the Congressmen have been approached on these subjects has made a good impression on them, and that Hawaii has thus gained far more than had the visitors been constantly importuned about our wants and needs. As Representative Webb expressed it this morning: "The people of the islands are no grifters. They are a set of people whose demands are absolutely just."

All these members will remain here as long as the rest of the party will the exception of Webb, who will sail for the Coast in the Doric this afternoon. As this vessel flies the British flag he will have to pay the usual fine of $200, and will thus set a very practical demonstration of the absurdity

Plan Made For New Excursion

Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee states that he has received advice from the Coast which indicate that the proposed excursion from Southern California will come off. It has been planned to secure the services of the steamship Sierra, whose present schedule on the San Francisco-Honolulu run only goes as far as July 3, on which day she arrives at the former port, and the Oceanic people seem to be inclined to entertain the proposition. The tentative plans for the trip are as follows:

The Sierra will leave San Francisco July 29 and go to either San Diego or San Pedro, where she will take on board the passengers from the southern part of the State. She will then proceed to Hilo, where a stop will be made to allow the excursionists to visit the Volcano. After that she will come to Honolulu, and several days will be spent by the visitors seeing the city and the Island of Oahu. On the return trip the steamer will call first at one of the two southern ports and will then proceed back to San Francisco.

FREAR DOES NOT WANT THE POSITION

"I do not care to say at this time what I should do if there should be occasion for me to decide between the Chief Justice-ship and the Governorship," said Chief Justice Frear this afternoon. "I hope I shall not have to make the decision, for I do not want the position, and I do not believe that I shall ever have to make any decision."

"But I don't care to discuss the matter now. It will be time enough to do so if the Governorship is ever offered to me."

"But it is the opinion in some quarters," said the reporter, "that you are the man whom Governor Carter has decided to nominate as his successor." The Chief Justice merely smiled.

No coral in front of the Seaside, no blinding glare from the ocean. No heat or other discomforts.

WHARFAGE RATES MAY BE INCREASED

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway is contemplating making some radical changes in the regulations governing steamers at the wharves and docks of Honolulu and other Territorial ports which, if carried into effect, will increase very considerably the revenue derived from the shipping of the various Territorial ports.

One of the changes most liable to be made, and which will, if made, most greatly increase the income of the port, relates to the rates for wharfage. Under the present regulations, steamers pay dockage only while actually working, loading or discharging cargo. No charge is made for a vessel lying at a wharf if she is not working. Superintendent Holloway finds that this is not the rule elsewhere. In San Francisco, for instance, vessels lying at a wharf and not working, pay half rates. They pay the same while loading cargo.

A rather different view about the wharfage rates charged in Honolulu is that the big sailing vessels, like the Phelps, for instance, pay a much higher rate than do the steamers. This is due to a law passed back in 1892, which was meant to encourage steamships coming to this port. Of course, this is unnecessary now, as the steamers come anyway.

In Honolulu no charge is made for lighterage, even though the vessel be lying at a wharf. In San Francisco a lighterage charge is imposed of 1 cent per ton net per day for vessels lying at a wharf, whether discharging cargo or not.

Both the matter of dockage rates and of lighterage are under the supervision of the Superintendent of Public Works of the Territory and he has full power to make such regulations and changes in the rates as he may deem advisable. Mr. Holloway

Escaped Prisoners At Large

Two prisoners, August Martin and Eddie Fragas, escaped from the prison gang with which they were working at Kapiolani Park this forenoon, and are now at large. The prisoners were working under the supervision of Guard Jones. The two young men were employed at some distance from the rest of the gang, and the fact that they had escaped was not noticed before noon, when it was found that they had disappeared. Search is now being made for them by the police, and a reward of twenty dollars has been offered for their apprehension.

Both the prisoners are between 18 and 20 years of age, though one of them looks much older, the premature wrinkles of his face having earned for him the popular sobriquet of "Monkey," by which he is generally known among his associates. They were both sentenced for larceny in the second degree, their offense consisting in having robbed a couple of pigeon-roosts on Judd street.

This, of course, is bound to meet with strong opposition from the steamship companies. On other occasions

Strong Pull For Pinkham

It has developed that L. E. Pinkham is being quietly but strongly boomed for the governorship. The exceptional executive abilities which he has demonstrated during his term of office as president of the Board of Health and his general all-around capacity have made him the choice of many who wish to see a strong man in the gubernatorial chamber, and judging from present appearances it seems that Pinkham is one of the strongest men who has been spoken of for the position so far.

It seems quite likely that if the plans of those who are in favor of Pinkham as a candidate are successful, he will have a stronger endorsement than most of the others will be able to muster. His backers want A. G. M. Robertson to endorse him as National Committeeman, and if he does so the plan is to have the endorsement strengthened by those of the Republican Central Committee and of the various precinct clubs under it.

CROOK WILL TAKE AWAY CAMP M'KINLEY TROOPS

MAY PREVENT CLUBS SELLING LIQUOR

It is up to the Attorney General to decide whether or not, in his opinion, the new liquor law shuts out clubs from furnishing intoxicating liquor to their members. The matter came up before the Board of License Commissioners at the meeting held yesterday afternoon through the following motion made by Chairman Ballentyne and carried:

"That the board request a written opinion of the Attorney General as to whether Act 119 of the Session Laws of 1907 repeals Act 25 of the Session Laws of 1905 relating to club licenses."

There appears to be considerable doubt as to what effect the new law will have in this regard, for although it does not expressly repeal the 1905 club liquor license provision, it does say:

"Section 2.—No person shall sell, or expose, or keep, or offer for sale, any intoxicating liquor, except as authorized or licensed so to do under the provisions of this act."

But the provisions of this act shall not apply to a duly licensed pharmacist making sales upon prescription or order of a physician duly licensed to practice medicine in this Territory."

SHOWERS OF BALLOTS FROM ALL ISLANDS

Maui again looms up in the Pacific Coast Tour Contest as well as in the Governorship race.

The people of the progressive island sent in upwards of ten thousand votes for Miss Hart this week. Miss Hart has been receiving a very fair vote all along but nothing to make the competitors look up and take notice. This week a bunch came in which surely indicates that Maui does not intend to be figured out of the list by any means.

There are comparatively few other changes this week. Mrs. Clinton changes place with Miss Clark and Rose Aloiau of Kanai moves up three places, while Miss Haia takes the place previously occupied by Miss Defries.

The voting has gone forward steadily, and this week is another with a big record for individual ballots clipped from the Bulletin. One young lady had nearly a thousand single votes, another had nine hundred and still another about six hundred. This shows that the Honolulu young women particularly have many personal friends who are turning in a good lot of votes to their credit.

The Congressional party has so taken up the time of the people while touring the other Islands that favors for this splendid outing for the young people have not had the center of the stage, but that has not prevented the friends of Miss Todd depositing the usual number and Miss Saffery and Miss Hapai moving forward well up in the list.

Among the Honolulu young women Miss Callie Lucas is booming to the front in splendid style. She is just short of one hundred thousand this week, and is one of the contestants who will stay near the front if all that is said by her supporters proves true. Mabel Ching Kau's friends are very active, and Miss Green is slated as assured of many votes.

The matter of the care of the young ladies has naturally deeply interested many of the mothers. But they will be looked after in the best manner possible. Not only will Mrs. Weathered constantly be on guard for their comfort and well-being, but it is also known that in case some of the young women in the list win, the mothers will accompany their daughters because it will be such a splendid trip to see the country under the best of circumstances. No party of young women ever left Honolulu under such favorable conditions as will attend the winners of the Pacific States Tour. They will be looked after in every way, and they will be received by the best people of the cities and towns through which they travel. It will be a great trip and the young ladies will be worthy representatives of the Islands.

GREW MISS CARROLL'S HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and wholly dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutrition, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.

FREE To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

FRIDAY, MAY 24, 1907. Tired and happy seems to be the advance guard of the returning Congressman.

The bulletin believes the Government should go to a man who wants K. These shy but willing candidates are hypocrites to begin with.

Students of the sugar market promise the sugar-producers are due for a long period of good prices. Every crop report sustains the verdict.

It is strange how what untold fields of doubtful prospect for success some men will allow ambition to lead them. This is not intended for any particular candidate for Governor.

Honolulu honestly regrets that Congressman Webb is called home. But since it must be, at least one member of the delegation will know how it feels to have ships passing and be unable to use them without payment of a fine.

Abel Ruef says that he pleads guilty although he is not guilty as charged. The gist of his confession is that he is admitting what he knows to be false regarding himself in order that he may pay up a few old scores against his former associates.

KEEP PROMOTION MOVING. Shriners believe the trip of the Arab Petrol to Los Angeles was good promotion work for Hawaii.

There is no doubt of it. Unless Honolulu sees completely to sleep, there will be great benefits and permanent benefits reaped from this trip and other efforts that have been made to inform the great tide of tourists that Hawaii is on the map and a beautiful place for a home or a winter's outing.

What Honolulu needs to do is to keep up the enthusiasm and continue the work. Conditions are now so improved that splendid results may be expected. More people know what is here. The steamship service bids fair to be put in much better shape locally than it has ever been. All of which creates a situation that will reward this city and the islands with the population so earnestly sought.

The Oceanic line will certainly maintain a first-class service locally, and the American-Hawaiian line will have its steamer as promised. And although the suspension of the Oceanic through service has been most unfortunate, this Australian travel is bound to be cared for by the Canadian line. The crowded condition of the Canadian boats proves the business it is to be had—passengers are seeking transportation. Steamers will be furnished and every passenger-boat that goes from the North American Coast to Australia will stop at Honolulu.

The prospects for the business that will be the salvation of the mercantile business men of this city were never better than now—provided the country is not allowed to prevail. Promotion has paid, promotion will pay. Every more thing has been done than has been a great investment. Honolulu stands for it.

prospects by getting into a dead-end and deciding that the passenger-ships are the pictures of a mirage and the passengers dolls stuffed with seaweed.

Keeping everlastingly at it will win out for this city and this Territory. A strike in San Francisco will not kill the tourist trade as long as there are floods of tourists pouring in every other city of the Coast, and with turn to San Francisco in a very short time.

CONGRESSMEN FIND (Continued from Page 1) of actuality, the operation of the coastwise shipping laws so that they affect this territory.

"I have enjoyed the entire trip immensely," said Representative Webb when upon this morning. "It was strenuous, and the committee certainly took us about to see everything there was to see, but we were treated splendidly everywhere we went, and this outweighed the hard work of the trip."

ENJOYED VOLCANO. "We were amazed at the big ponds on Maui, and when we came to Hilo we were treated with royal hospitality. The same was the case with the Volcano House, where we were wondrously well treated, for although we saw no lava, we saw a lot of smoke, and many of us expressed the sentiment that they would have been glad to walk the whole way to see the lava. However, the thing which struck me the most was the excellency of the Honolulu road on which we went by stage from the Volcano to the port where we saw the steamer. You have certainly not some very excellent roads on Hawaii. We drove through the coffee district and were much surprised at the way in which the coffee grew approximately right in the lava rock. There seems to be a bright future ahead for that industry."

HARBORS NEEDED. "There is certainly a great need of a breakwater at Hilo, and if such is provided that place will have a fine harbor. All the members seemed to be in favor of it. I took a good look at the place where it is proposed to make the breakwater, from the deck of the Mexican, and I had a man who knows all about the proposition point the whole thing out to me. I do not wish to have any committee be carried on without it, at a matter of fact you need harbors all over the islands in order that your commerce and industries can be developed and encouraged."

ISLANDERS NOT GRATERS. "I have been especially struck with the fact that so few demands have been made to us, and we have heard of none which was not just. The people of the islands are not graters. They are a set of people whose demands are absolutely just."

"I had that I will have to pay a fine of $200 for traveling on the boat as the law is broken bottom. That certainly belongs the utter absurdity of the extending of the operation of the coastwise shipping laws so as to take in these islands, home to me in a very practical manner. I am emphatically in favor of repealing that law as far as it includes Hawaii in its operation on the passenger traffic, at least for a term of from five to ten years, in which time Americans can have a chance to build up a fleet of vessels of their own."

IMPRESSED WITH SCHOOLS. "One thing that I do not wish to omit in the school system, in which I took especial interest as a member of the Education Committee. I think that we saw every school of importance in the islands, and I must say that the behavior of the scholars was better than I had ever expected to find it. The system seems to work like a charm and there seems to be no trouble whatever caused by the mixture of so many different races."

AGENTS' DUES WISE LAW. "I had that I will have to pay a fine of $200 for traveling on the boat as the law is broken bottom. That certainly belongs the utter absurdity of the extending of the operation of the coastwise shipping laws so as to take in these islands, home to me in a very practical manner. I am emphatically in favor of repealing that law as far as it includes Hawaii in its operation on the passenger traffic, at least for a term of from five to ten years, in which time Americans can have a chance to build up a fleet of vessels of their own."

HAWAIIANS INTELLIGENT. "The trip was a pleasant one in every way," said Representative McGowan. "What struck me as especially funny was the impression which most people in the States have about the Hawaiians as being an inferior race. I saw very much taken with those people. They are a hospitable and generous race, and they average as well in point of intelligence. As a matter of fact they compare exceedingly favorably with any people that I know, as I know of no place where the percentage of illiteracy is so small as it is here."

"The schools and their attendance were a marvel to me, and I struck me as nothing short of wonderful how discipline could be maintained with such a mixture of races. The exhibitions of both teachers and scholars were highly commendable."

"Hilo is in the same fix as the other islands. Harbors are needed and they certainly ought to have them. I am personally in favor of the Hilo breakwater."

"I was much surprised at the progress which has been made by the islands and the high degree of development which has been attained," said General Kiefer. "The Volcano was a sight which was well worth seeing, but what interested me more was to see what was doing in the various industries. I was especially delighted with seeing the coffee and pineapple districts. There is certainly room for a lot of development along these lines."

"Hilo should have a permanent breakwater. I was in favor of this, as well as of coast defenses, and had spoken in favor of these things before I ever came to the islands. I have been greatly pleased with the way we have been treated. Everyone has done the best they could to please me."

PAPERS IN AN ACTION FOR EJECTMENT have been filed by Elizabeth K. Booth against J. H. Schnack and Manuel Silva. This is the same case that was begun in Judge Lindsay's court early in the week and was non-suited when it was discovered that the plaintiff should be Mrs. Booth instead of Mr. Booth. The property in question is located in Honolulu. In addition to ejectment, damages are asked for in the sum of $500. The case promises to be a lengthy and hard-fought one.

DECREE IS AFFIRMED BY SUPREME COURT. The Supreme Court this morning affirmed the decree appealed from in the case of H. Hackfeld & Company versus Monsarrat. This, Chief Justice Frear announced, made it unnecessary to pass upon the motion to postpone the sale of the property, which was advertised to take place tomorrow. The case was an action to foreclose a mortgage. The Chief Justice announced that a written opinion will be handed down later.

LANAI CASE WILL BE CARRIED UP. The Lanai land case is not to be dropped on account of the death of Judge Genar, who was handling it as attorney for the complainant, Link McCandless. A statement to this effect was made this morning by A. G. M. Robertson, who has been acting as associate counsel in the matter. He says that he understands that the appeal to the United States Supreme Court was drawn up by Judge Genar before his death. The papers have not yet been turned over to Mr. Robertson, but the latter states that he had a conversation with Link McCandless a day or two ago, and McCandless expressed his determination of carrying the contest on to the Federal Supreme Court. The papers will probably be turned over to Mr. Robertson soon, to be filed with the court.

THE opinion is expressed in some quarters that McCandless is sorry he ever got into the case. It is a good deal of a white elephant on his hands and must have cost him a pretty good sum already. It is possible, of course, that he will forget about it and let it drop.

PERSISTENT LOVERS WERE FOUND GUILTY. The Federal court jury which was trying Tsuga Ogawa and Takao, charged with adultery, returned a verdict of guilty against both defendants yesterday afternoon after being out 45 minutes. The two prisoners are the ones who were found guilty of the same offense about a year ago and served terms in prison for it. The trial which ended in their second conviction yesterday lasted for three days, in spite of the fact that it, at first looked like a small case.

This morning the trial of Kinooki Yamamoto for perjury was begun. The alleged perjury was committed at the Immigration Station.

MUSIC LOVERS ENJOY CONCERT. Mackenzie Gordon knows how to reach the hearts of his audience. Without a trace of affectation and with a voice of marvelous purity and power he captivated completely the large and fashionable gathering that assembled at the Hawaiian Opera House last night to hear his splendid program. Every seat in the spacious Opera House was filled, including orchestra, dress circle and balcony; and a large contingent from one of the schools availed itself of the opportunity of using the gallery.

Mr. Gordon has reason to be proud of his audience of last night, for not in many years has a gathering so representative of the culture and refinement of this fair city been brought together. Beautiful toilettes were in more noticeable profusion than at any time since the days of the Monarchy and it seemed that society with one accord had decided to be present.

Mr. Gordon appeared to be at his very best. It would be difficult to imagine a more perfect rendition of the songs he gave. He poured out his soul in songs of sadness and added his magnetic gentility to the songs of mirth. He showed his great versatility in the remarkably varied selections, singing songs in various tongues in a manner to delight the representatives of the several nationalities present. His thoughtful discrimination in choosing songs of lighter vein instead of too many grand opera selections pleased the audience exceedingly.

His two French songs, "Obstination" and "Le Roi D'Ys" were beautifully sung and the splendid Spanish selection "La Partida" was full of sentiment and power. The German songs were given with sweetness and vigor.

The Neapolitan "Carmela" was romantic and full of sentiment and was well sustained by the delightful guitar accompaniment on the piano. The beautiful "Arioso," from "Pagliacci," gave evidence of the dramatic power and temperament of the singer and was one of the most heartily applauded numbers on the program. The five English songs were admirably chosen and each one was sung with deeply expressive emotion. The words of "Mother O'Mine," by Kipling, with musical setting by Tours, and "Because" won the plaudits of the listeners and aroused the greatest enthusiasm.

The delightful Irish ballad, "To My First Love" and the bright "Donnovans" were enthusiastically received, as were also the stirring Scotch "Loch Lomond" and "Border Ballad." By request from friends in the audience, Mr. Gordon sang three short selections at the end of the program—one a droll little thing called "Disappointment," in which the accompaniment brought in the Chopin Funeral March, another a dainty lullaby "The Mother Seal," and, finally, "Annie Laurie."

Mrs. Lucia Burnett proved herself a pianist of great talent and it is Honolulu's misfortune that she has not been heard before. She has studied under Sherwood and other famous masters and gave the audience a very charming interpretation of her Chopin numbers.

Mrs. W. L. Whitney accompanied Mr. Gordon with even more than her usual ability and was in herself a very important factor in the success of the evening.

Requests for a second recital have been so numerous that Mr. Gordon will sing again at the Opera House next Monday evening with an entire change of program with the exception of possibly one or two request numbers. He will sing also a couple of Hawaiian songs during the evening.

LANAI CASE WILL BE CARRIED UP. The Lanai land case is not to be dropped on account of the death of Judge Genar, who was handling it as attorney for the complainant, Link McCandless. A statement to this effect was made this morning by A. G. M. Robertson, who has been acting as associate counsel in the matter. He says that he understands that the appeal to the United States Supreme Court was drawn up by Judge Genar before his death. The papers have not yet been turned over to Mr. Robertson, but the latter states that he had a conversation with Link McCandless a day or two ago, and McCandless expressed his determination of carrying the contest on to the Federal Supreme Court. The papers will probably be turned over to Mr. Robertson soon, to be filed with the court.

PERSISTENT LOVERS WERE FOUND GUILTY. The Federal court jury which was trying Tsuga Ogawa and Takao, charged with adultery, returned a verdict of guilty against both defendants yesterday afternoon after being out 45 minutes. The two prisoners are the ones who were found guilty of the same offense about a year ago and served terms in prison for it. The trial which ended in their second conviction yesterday lasted for three days, in spite of the fact that it, at first looked like a small case.

This morning the trial of Kinooki Yamamoto for perjury was begun. The alleged perjury was committed at the Immigration Station.

NEW PAPERS FILED. Papers in an action for ejectment have been filed by Elizabeth K. Booth against J. H. Schnack and Manuel Silva. This is the same case that was begun in Judge Lindsay's court early in the week and was non-suited when it was discovered that the plaintiff should be Mrs. Booth instead of Mr. Booth. The property in question is located in Honolulu. In addition to ejectment, damages are asked for in the sum of $500. The case promises to be a lengthy and hard-fought one.

DECREE IS AFFIRMED BY SUPREME COURT. The Supreme Court this morning affirmed the decree appealed from in the case of H. Hackfeld & Company versus Monsarrat. This, Chief Justice Frear announced, made it unnecessary to pass upon the motion to postpone the sale of the property, which was advertised to take place tomorrow. The case was an action to foreclose a mortgage. The Chief Justice announced that a written opinion will be handed down later.

MUSIC LOVERS ENJOY CONCERT. Mackenzie Gordon knows how to reach the hearts of his audience. Without a trace of affectation and with a voice of marvelous purity and power he captivated completely the large and fashionable gathering that assembled at the Hawaiian Opera House last night to hear his splendid program. Every seat in the spacious Opera House was filled, including orchestra, dress circle and balcony; and a large contingent from one of the schools availed itself of the opportunity of using the gallery.

Mr. Gordon has reason to be proud of his audience of last night, for not in many years has a gathering so representative of the culture and refinement of this fair city been brought together. Beautiful toilettes were in more noticeable profusion than at any time since the days of the Monarchy and it seemed that society with one accord had decided to be present.

Mr. Gordon appeared to be at his very best. It would be difficult to imagine a more perfect rendition of the songs he gave. He poured out his soul in songs of sadness and added his magnetic gentility to the songs of mirth. He showed his great versatility in the remarkably varied selections, singing songs in various tongues in a manner to delight the representatives of the several nationalities present. His thoughtful discrimination in choosing songs of lighter vein instead of too many grand opera selections pleased the audience exceedingly.

The Hammond boy did not really want to fight, but, thus goaded, he suddenly gave Bradley a violent push with both hands. The next instant both youngsters were elated tightly together, gripping each other about the neck and wrestling savagely. In a moment they fell with a thump and rolled over and over, pounding, kicking and scratching. The snow flew, and the crowd whooped and pushed and strained to see better.

Then there was a rush, a frightened scurry, and both combatants were pulled apart and jerked to their feet, while Mr. Daniels, holding each by the coat collar, glared down upon them.

"You may come with me," he said, with chilling calmness.

The scene in the schoolroom that followed was brief, but exciting. Bradley held out his hand and bit his lip stubbornly while the female descended—once, twice, twelve times.

"There!" said the teacher. "Now, you may take your seat. For a new scholar you begin extremely well. Now, Samuel!"

The Hammond hand having received its share of beating and its owner also sent to his seat, Mr. Daniels said: "Both of you will lose your afternoon recess. I shall also give each of you a note, telling of your punishment, to take home."

At half past 4 that afternoon Bradley, with the note tightly clasped in his hand, walked dully up the walk to the Allen back door. The thought that he had disgraced himself forever in the eyes of his protectors burned like a fire under his new cap; also there was a bitter feeling that Gus, the cause of all his trouble, had not been near him to console or ask pardon.

It was typical of the boy that he had not thought of destroying the note. He handed it to Miss Prissy the moment he opened the door. She read it and sat heavily down in the chintz rocker.

"My soul and body!" she wailed. "Tempty Allen, come here this minute! Here, for mercy's sake, read this!"

Miss Prissy's agitation was even more marked than that of her sister.

"Oh, oh, oh!" she cried, waving the condemning sheet of paper like a distress signal. "How could you? How could you? I don't believe a relation of the Allens was ever whipped in school before. What shall we do, Prissy? And his first day too!"

Bradley, with dreful thoughts of self destruction in his mind, twisted his new cap into a ball, but said nothing.

"He says you were fightin' and there was somethin' else," said Miss Prissy. "Tell the whole story now—every word."

The boy began slowly. He told of shutting the dog in the closet, but was interrupted by the older sister, who demanded to know whose dog it was.

"Whose was it?" she asked. "Why don't you answer? Don't you know?"

"Yes'm."

"Then whose was it?"

Bradley shifted his feet uneasily on the mat.

"I ain't goin' to tell," he muttered sullenly.

"Ain't goin' to tell? Why, I nev'—"

She was interrupted. The door behind Bradley flew open, and Gus appeared, tearful, but determined.

"Miss Prissy and Miss Tempy," she began, "don't you sold Bradley—don't you, now, a bit! It was all my fault, every mite of it. Oh, dear, dear!"

And, with sobs and amid the ejaculations of the astonished sisters, she told the whole story, omitting nothing and sparing herself not the least. When the recital was finished Miss Prissy was the first to comment upon it.

"Well," she exclaimed, "this is the most I never did—Thee, Tempy, if this ain't a lesson in keepin' bad company, then I don't know. Augusty, you'd better go home, I think."

Gus looked at Bradley appealingly, then at the sisters, and, with another burst of sobs, flung herself out of the door and slammed it behind her.

"That awful dog girl!" spluttered Miss Tempy. "I knew what she was from the time she spoiled this very floor with her dreadful cravers. Bradley Nickerson, don't you ever speak to her again. Now promise."

But that promise the boy would not make, although the argument lasted for an hour and ended in his being sent to his room without his supper.

"It looks to me," said Miss Prissy that night, "as if we'd got about as much on our hands as you and me could handle, Tempy."

"It certainly does," agreed her sister nervously. "I think it's our duty to ask Cap'n Titcomb's advice right off."

"Think you'd have licked him?"

answered with a sheepish grin: "Don't know. Guess I'd have tried mighty hard."

The captain roared. "I presume likely you would," he chuckled. "I understand you've sort of took that little Baker craft next door in tow. She seems like a smart girl. Do you like her?"

"Yes, sir."

"I judge Prissy and Tempy wouldn't enter her for the cup. Now, Brad, mind I ain't coaxin' you to go back on a friend, but the old maid—that is, your ladies at home, have set out to make a man of you. They're your owners, and you're expected to sail 'em in to their orders. If there's one thing that I've always stuck to it's 'Obey orders or break owners.' Sometimes owners' orders don't jibe exactly with your own ideas, but never mind—they pay the wages, see?"

"She's a good girl," said the boy stoutly. "She came in and took my part when she didn't have to, and I like her. And I won't promise not to speak to her, neither."

The captain looked down at the lad's square jaw and whistled.

"Well," he said, "I don't believe you need to promise, but don't whoop too loud about it. Run as close to the wind as you can, and don't carry all sail in a two reef breeze jest to show you ain't afraid to. Catch my drift?"

"Yes, sir," answered Bradley, rather doubtfully. "You mean be chums with the girl, but don't tell Miss Prissy and Miss Tempy about it."

"No-o," Captain Ezra looked somewhat put out by the literal interpretation. "That ain't jest it. Be—well, by easy, and— Oh, thunder! Lot it go at that. I guess you know what I mean. How do you think you're goin' to like your school?"

SUBMARINES GO ON 24-HOUR DIVE

Newport, R. I., May 15.—The submarine boats Lake and Octopus were submerged late today near the naval coaling station at Bradford for their twenty-four hours' submerged ability test. The members of the trial board decided not to go down, but will remain on the surface until the submarine tender Nina. There are also men on board the Lake and Octopus. At the point where the boats went down the water is from twenty-four to twenty-nine feet deep.

JOHNSON'S MANAGER WRITES

The following letter was received from A. A. McLean, manager of the colored lighter, Jack Johnson. The same sets forth the differences of the manager and fighter that occurred while they were on their trip to Australia.

It goes to show that everything is not so lovely for a manager of a prize-fighter as many might think.

San Francisco Cal May 2 '07.

Dear Sir:—I understand Johnson threw a lot of hot air at you regarding the statements I made to you when we were there and denied all I said. I wish to tell you that every word I told you was nothing but the truth. I stated he jumped his Board by beating N. S. W., at Sir Joseph Banks Hotel amounting to $22 and I had to pay it or else they would have him arrested for same and I paid it so as to keep it from the press as we had not fallen out at that time also $12.50 at the Prince of Wales Hotel, Burke at Melbourne which I paid and sold receipts for the same now he also owes me $110. I loaned him to pay his board in Boston, Mass., last Aug. & Sept. and I hold his note for the same and he refused to pay me beside trying to beat me for $500. In Australia just as I told you. And I told him about it on the ship after leaving Honolulu and he could not say a word only that he would punch my face for me the first time he caught me alone. I told you I had a contract stating while we were travelling together that we should divide the net profits equally which he refused to do and I will tell you the truth 95 per cent of his winnings would not pay any white man to travel with him and do for him like I did, for his blacker in the heart than I am in the face now if you can find space in your column to-for this letter I would thank you if you would kindly use it. And if Johnson wishes he can take me into court and if I cannot prove every word of this, I have property at Revere Beach and Chelsea, Mass., and he knows that and he can have it all if I cannot prove every word I say.

Thanking you for the many favors of the past.

A. A. McLEAN.

P. S.—I see he claimed he did not hit me well that is just as hard as the rest of his statements he got only

NEW SHOOTING GALLERY

In connection with the many other amusement features at the Hotel Bath the shooting gallery is to be installed. This gallery will be placed alongside the bowling alleys and in a very convenient place.

A very nice little range can be had and up-to-date targets and guns will be found there.

Tournaments will be held at intervals and valuable prizes offered. Just at present there is much interest in rifle shooting and such a gallery will be an interesting feature for the shooters.

COLLEGE BOYS BOWL

Yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Bath the Oahu College Team Tournay was completed and the Hash Eaters were declared the champions by defeating the Strikers. It was a good close game throughout.

The next tournament among these boys will probably be a double event, in the hand-pump tournament Chas. Weight defeated W. Winter yesterday.

RELAY TEAMS WILL MEET

When the Y. M. C. A. holds its final swimming meet at the Hotel Bath on June 1st, the Diamond Head Athletic Club team will again have the fast lads from Oahu College and another fast race may be expected.

In the last race between these two teams the race was so close that it was hard to pick a winner and "Black" Waterhouse was thought by some for giving the event to the college boys. This coming race will decide as to which is the fastest team.

All of the boys who are to participate in this swimming meet are working hard to get in shape and some real good races may be looked for. The 25 yard dash between Chulia and Ost promises to be very close.

There are many entries in the plunge and this also promises to be keenly contested.

Gold and bronze medals are offered for all the events.

Commissioners' Sale OF Valuable Real Estate

SITUATE ON Union Street and Adams' Lane in Honolulu, Island and County of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii.

Pursuant to a Decree of Foreclosure and Sale made by the Honorable W. J. Good Results In Lung Trouble

Mrs. Victor A. Beaucaire, a prominent club woman of Chicago, Ill., contracted a severe cold from being exposed in bad weather which resulted in serious lung trouble.

Mrs. Beaucaire, after taking several doses of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, says it has helped her wonderfully, brought the color to her cheeks, and that she would not be without it.

She pays high tribute to the world's greatest tonic stimulant in the following letter:

"As I am a member of the Hull House Women's Club, I was called out many times when the weather was very bad and so caught a very hard cough, and doctors claimed that my lungs were affected; in fact the left lung was almost gone, but since I have taken your valuable DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY, I feel better and would not do without it. I have not been taking it very long, but I am sure of good results; I have good color in my face and feel that I can work with a great deal more ambition. I cannot praise it too much. I have recommended it to several of my friends and they, too, are thankful for the benefit they have already derived from it." Mrs. Victor A. Beaucaire, 255 Ogden Ave., Chicago, Ill. May 4, '06.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

If you wish to keep strong and vigorous and have on your cheeks the glow of perfect health, take Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey regularly, according to directions, and take no other medicine. It is dangerous to fill your system with drugs, they poison the body and depress the heart, while Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey tones and strengthens the heart action and purifies the entire system. It is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has stood severe tests for fifty years and has always been found absolutely pure and to contain great medicinal properties.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. It's the one absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey and is sold only in sealed bottles; never in bulk. Look for the Trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Price $1.00. Illustrated medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

NEW INDUSTRY MAY OPEN UP

The attention of paper manufacturers of the States has been called to the large amount of material here on these islands that could be used in the making of paper.

These passed through here last week on the Siboria, Mr. A. J. Jordan, a representative of the Paper Manufacturers' Association of America. Jordan is on his way to the Philippines with a view to purchasing fibrous material for the manufacture of paper. When he has finished his mission in the Far East he says that he will return here and look into the possibilities of obtaining a supply of material at this port. Cane tops, rice straw, pineapples and refuse from sisal can all be used to advantage in the manufacture of paper.
