DUNREGGAN'S MASTER FULLY EXONERATED

By Court of Admiralty Convened at British Consulate.

DANGEROUS CURRENT OFF DIAMOND HEAD

Captain Dixon Found to Have Used Every Effort to Prevent His Vessel's Stranding--Full Text of Judgement.

A British Court of Admiralty was held at the Consulate yesterday to determine the responsibility of the stranding of the bark Dunreggan at Diamond Head. The court consisted of Consul Robert Hoare, president; Captain Corrance of the Killmory and Captain Jackson of the Hillsdale.

Captain Geo. McLain Dixon, master of the Dunreggan, testified to having used every effort to prevent his vessel's stranding at Diamond Head. Soundings were taken at short intervals, and when the vessel struck four fathoms was found all around her.

FINDING OF THE COURT.

The Dunreggan was a sailing vessel, barque rigged, of 1477 tons registered tonnage, official number 9962, built at Troon in 1892, and belonging to the Port of Glasgow.

It appears from the evidence given before this Court that the vessel sailed from Shields and London, leaving the latter port on the 14th of March, 1900, bound for Honolulu and Seattle, with a cargo of general merchandise and a crew of twenty-five hands all told.

On the voyage the vessel had experienced heavy weather at times, causing loss of some sails, but nothing of serious consequence occurred.

She arrived off Koko Head about 12 miles from Honolulu at 8:29 o'clock on the morning of the 8th of August, 1900, and when she was abreast of the Head by four points bearings and patent log taken by the master, he found his distance from the Head to be 2 1/2 miles.

At 8:40 a. m. he set the vessel's course west magnetic to pass one mile south of Diamond Head. The vessel was then under top sails and fore-topmast and staysail. About 9:15 o'clock when the vessel was noticed to be setting in shore the master ordered the helmsman to keep her off and keep the white streak (meaning the breakers) over the ship's starboard light-house which would place the braced about three points in the starboard bow.

This was done, but notwithstanding this, the vessel continued to set further in shore until at 9:40 o'clock a. m. she struck on the reef. She was subsequently carried further in some distance, where she remained about thirty hours, when she was towed off and taken into the port of Honolulu, having then about twenty-two inches of water in her hold. Shortly before the ship struck soundings were taken by the mate who found seven fathoms no bottom, and immediately after the struck soundings were again taken and four fathoms all round the ship, the ship being to all appearances snug amidships.

The Court having regard to the circumstances above stated finds as follows: That the master having taken bearings when abreast of Koko Head, and finding the vessel was 2 1/2 miles distant from the Head, acted to the best of his judgment in having set the course west magnetic, which would take the vessel one mile south of Diamond Head, which distance would have cleared all danger.

That the stranding of the vessel on the reef off Diamond Head was due to strong currents setting in shore in the vicinity of the Head, which currents were unknown to the master, not being marked on his chart nor mentioned in the North Pacific Directory.

That when the vessel was found to be setting in shore the master ordered her to be headed off, but owing to the current on her port bow she did not pay off in time, and she struck before anything further could be done to avoid the casualty.

That after the vessel struck the master did everything possible by setting sails to drive the vessel off the reef, but that his endeavors unfortunately proved ineffectual. Dated at Honolulu, this 23d day of August, 1900.

(Signed) W. R. HOARE, Her Britannic Majesty's Consul, President of Admiralty Court, THOMAS CORRANCE, Master of the British merchant ship Killmory of Glasgow, official number 9990, member.

MATTHEW JACKSON, Master of the British merchant ship Hillsdale of Liverpool, official number 9190, member.

Two Army Shows.

Two shows for the Quartermaster's department here are now being held at a place near the old Schermerke wharf. The dimensions are the same as those of the navy but are an improvement in more ways than one. The army shows are showed and very powerfully broad and each bolt is dipped before being driven into place. The navy shows are straight up and down at the sides and are not as strongly braced as they might be, while the bolts, after only a couple of years of service, are already badly rusted.

TAMARIND TREE GOING THE BUILDING BOON DRIVES IT OUT

It Thrives on Warm Levels But Not in Cool Valleys--Capable of Being a Profitable Article of Export.

An old resident says the big building boom downtown is knocking the splendid tamarind trees that are scattered over the lower ground. One old giant stands in the premises of H. E. McIntyre just vacated to make way for the young block to extend from King to Hotel street.

The tamarind does not do well up Nuuanu valley or anywhere that the winds are cool and strong compared with the city front level. There is a good deal of the tamarind fruit growers here, and it is in good favor wherever introduced in temperate climates. Nothing is more refreshing for a warm weather drink than the liquor obtained by pouring hot water over the fruit.

Tamarind is green and like other fruits, either as jam or syrup, so as to be capable of exportation. They have had as good a start abroad as any other fruit product of Hawaii to form an important item in the sum of diversified industries.

Perhaps, since the tamarind is being driven out of town, the Department of Agriculture may be able to find warm pockets here and there where its cultivation will be encouraged.

Hollister Drug Co. Again.

Wm. Wynn as manager of the Hollister Drug Co., a corporation, appeared in the District Court this forenoon on the charge of selling alcohol to persons other than physicians. Defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs. It will be remembered that the drug company got off on a technicality the other day. This was remedied and a penal summons issued yesterday.

Police Court Notes.

In the Police Court this forenoon the following cases were disposed of: Three native women and a man, disturbing the quiet of the night, $5 and costs; Ah Choy, leaving his horse unbridled in the street, $5 and costs; Wong Koi, selling opium, continued until tomorrow.

LINEN CENTREFOLDERS.

Iwakami, Hotel street, is offering a new line of linen centrefolders for ladies, embroidered in fancy colors.

GRAND JURY RETURNS FEW INDICTMENTS

Has Made Careful Investigation of All Matters Brought Before It--Waikiki Hotels Guilty on Strict Interpretation--Suggestions for Insane Asylum and Police.

Just before 12 o'clock noon the Grand Jury came into the Circuit Court with their final report. Judge Humphreys was called to the bench to receive the report, as Judge Hillman was at the time trying the case of Kane for robbery.

Judge Humphreys, after the report had been read by the foreman, delivered a congratulatory address of some length to the jury. Among other things he commented on their independence, speaking of the pronouncement of the public to "damn men if they did, and damn them if they didn't." He complimented them on the dignity of their demeanor and the character of their report, and then discharged them for the term.

Hon. A. E. Humphreys, First Judge, Circuit Court, First Judicial District, Territory of Hawaii.

Sir:--The Grand Jury assembled and sworn before you on the sixth day of the current month, having completed their duties long to render their final report as follows:

Seventeen cases have been brought before this jury by the Attorney General's Department, and examined by us with the result of finding for a true bill in fourteen cases, and no bill in three cases.

This jury has also found two true bills in cases brought to the attention of the jury in your charge of August 5, 1900.

We have investigated, so far as possible, into the subjects referred to in your charge to this jury, and also into various other matters to which our attention has been called, and we have examined numerous witnesses.

SALE OF LIQUORS ON SUNDAYS BY THE HOTELS AND RESORTS AT WAIKIKI.

We find that two resorts at Waikiki are operating under special licenses from the Interior Department, a copy of which accompanies this report. These licenses were issued by the Minister of the Interior with the concurrence of the Executive Council of the Republic of Hawaii, under the authority conferred upon him by the Act to Regulate the Sale of Spirituous Liquors. It will be noticed that the privilege is given licensees of selling liquors to guests and their friends, which certainly permits of a liberal interpretation.

The subject of sales on Sundays under these licenses was not considered by the Executive Council when allowing subject to the provisions of Section 25 of the aforesaid Act to Regulate the Sale of Spirituous Liquors, etc., viz:--

"Any holder of a license who shall sell or retail any spirituous liquor in or about or suffer the same to be drunk in his house or premises on Sunday shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars, but this section shall not apply to the ordinary supplies furnished to bona fide boarders and lodgers in the house or premises."

The fact that liquor has been sold at these resorts at Waikiki on Sundays to persons who can in no way be considered bona fide boarders or lodgers, although probably guests or their friends, was voluntarily admitted by the proprietors, their statements coinciding to the effect that they were not aware of any illegal act and thought that they were within the privileges conferred by their license. This jury believes that these places have incurred large expenditures and have acted openly with the full knowledge of the authorities; that they did not intentionally violate the law as to sale of liquor on Sundays, and the evidence before us tended to show that the legislating such sale by respectable hotels and resorts at Waikiki, to guests and their friends would result in lessening illicit trade and drunkenness. The jury also believes that as liberal treatment as is consistent with the public welfare should be extended by the Government to respectable hotels and resorts.

It is not in our province, however, to ignore existing laws, through any question as to their propriety. We found that under a strict interpretation of the law, liquor has been illegally sold on Sundays by the Hawaiian Hotel Annex and Waikiki Inn, and we have brought indictments against these places accordingly.

We failed to find that police protection had been promised or guaranteed to these resorts although we made careful inquiry.

The statement of Mr. H. S. Almy, with reference to the police, referred to in your Honor's charge of August 5, 1900, to this jury, was investigated by the witness claiming a misunderstanding of his remarks, and testimony was to the effect that he used the word "authorities" and not "police."

HOUSE OF PROSTITUTION AT WAIKIKI.

There is a colony of five buildings situated by a high board fence, located at the Ewa side of Iwilei, owned by a local company. These buildings contain 25 rooms and are at the present time occupied by 167 females, of which 135 are Japanese. These inmates are all registered prostitutes under the Act to Mitigate, etc. The condition of the premises and general management, which is conducted under the supervision of the Police Department and the Board of Health, is as satisfactory as could be expected, provided this shameless violation must be tolerated as a necessary evil.

The location of the place could not be improved upon, and the evils of prostitution are now probably largely confined to this locality instead of being distributed about the city.

No evidence whatever was obtained of tending to accuse the Police Department of extorting or receiving bribes, or of abuse of their authority.

Two other collections of buildings intended for prostitution purposes are in course of erection at Iwilei containing about 100 rooms each. We recommend that the number of these institutions be strictly limited.

An arrangement has been made by which the salary of special officers at $15 per month is to be paid by the management of the above first named company. This is of very questionable propriety, although the practice prevails in Honolulu of allowing certain places of public resort requiring special police protection, to bear the expense themselves. We learn upon investigation that the full cost, financial and actual payment of salary of such special officers is in the hands of the Police Department.

We further recommend that the medical examination required by the Act to Mitigate be made at Iwilei.

INSANE ASYLUM, TERRITORIAL PHARM AND REFORM SCHOOL.

The jury in a committee of the whole visited the above mentioned institutions.

The insane Asylum contains some 120 inmates, Hawaiian, Chinese and Portuguese predominating in the order named, with some 20 Americans and Europeans.

The institution seems to be conducted under an efficient and economical management, and the food and general treatment of patients appears to be satisfactory.

We learn that an appropriation for new buildings was made by the last Legislature, none of which has been expended.

GRANTING OF LICENSES TO HACK DRIVERS.

We had a license system existing, which is no doubt indirectly responsible for many accidents. Upon investigation we are convinced that before granting a license a suitable examination of applicants is not made as to their proficiency in driving, or even knowledge of the ordinary rules of the road.

FAVORITISM SHOWN BY THE COURTS OF HONOLULU.

We were formally requested to investigate the following statement made:

"I believe the young man committed suicide. It was his first trip to sea and he always appeared despondent. He could not have gone over the side of the vessel as he could have been plainly seen had he done this. I think there is no doubt whatever that he went over the bow and that the suction of the water pulled him under the ship. He must have been killed by contact with the ship's bottom as there was no motion to the black object I saw astern."

The Carnedd Llewellyn was here last year with a cargo of general merchandise for Theo. H. Davies & Co. She sailed for the Sound on the 23d day of April and from there went to England. Captain Griffith, as gentle an old salt as ever sailed the waters, is still in command.

Returned to Hawaii.

Mr. Moroff, a plantation man here a dozen and more years ago, has returned to the Islands. He is taking up the business situation to see if there is an opening for him. J. H. Schuch, an old friend, has tendered Mr. Moroff the freedom of his office.

BRITISH SHIP FROM HAMBURG IN PORT

Carnedd Llewellyn Makes Fine Trip of 125 Days.

IS BOUND FOR SEATTLE WITH 900 TONS CARGO

Captain Reports Man Lost Overboard May 2--Two Days Heavy Storm at Platte River--Experience Round Horn.

The British ship Carnedd Llewellyn, Wm. Griffith master, arrived in port at an early hour this morning after a splendid trip of 125 days from Hamburg, Germany, with a cargo of 1000 tons of fertilizer, cement, whiskey, etc., consigned to the Hawaiian Fertilizer Co. The Llewellyn has 2500 tons in all aboard. Of this, 900 tons are for Seattle, for which port she will sail when she has finished discharging here. She is at the old Schermerke wharf at present.

Asked why it was that vessels arriving recently from ports in England and Germany have adopted the plan of going from here to Seattle ports with cargo, Captain Griffith replied that the highest here was too high. Money was saved by a vessel discharging most of her cargo here and then going to round ports with enough remaining. Continuing, Captain Griffith gave the following story of the trip:

"We left Hamburg April 20, meeting with fine weather with moderate north-east trades in the English channel. Fine weather continued until we reached the River Platte. Up to that time we did not have our topgallants down once."

"Upon reaching the Platte, the program was changed. We got into an old time squall or southwest gale, which lasted for two days without cessation. Fortunately nothing was carried away."

"From the Platte to Cape Horn we had moderate weather but it took a week for us to round. During that time, we met with very severe weather. There was a lot of snow and it was as cold as ever it was at the South Pole. The wind finally shifted to the southeast and we took advantage of it to get away as soon as possible from the scene of our troubles."

"On the 14th of May we lost overboard a young sailor who joined us at Hamburg. His name was Rudolph Wright and he was only about 19 years of age. How the whole thing happened, no one knows."

"Wright was seen at 7:50 in the morning and, shortly afterwards, he was missed. A search was made but he could not be found anywhere."

"It was just at about 3 o'clock that I noticed something black in the water astern as I was putting the port jack. I thought that something, perhaps an old garment, might have been thrown overboard and continued to pore us and down. No alarm had been given and the vessel was sailing along in the finest kind of weather."

"I believe the young man committed suicide. It was his first trip to sea and he always appeared despondent. He could not have gone over the side of the vessel as he could have been plainly seen had he done this. I think there is no doubt whatever that he went over the bow and that the suction of the water pulled him under the ship. He must have been killed by contact with the ship's bottom as there was no motion to the black object I saw astern."

The Carnedd Llewellyn was here last year with a cargo of general merchandise for Theo. H. Davies & Co. She sailed for the Sound on the 23d day of April and from there went to England. Captain Griffith, as gentle an old salt as ever sailed the waters, is still in command.

JAPAN WILL DEAL GINGERLY WITH THE IMMIGRATION PROBLEM

The Japan Times of recent days speaks as follows of the Government policy restricting immigration: "And the intense excitement caused first by Russia's action in China, and later by the course of the crisis in China is taking, we are apt to forget minor and more homely matters, which, however, may have just as great an effect upon the future of the Japanese nation, as other questions which are more purely international. And, although we notice very little in the rest of the press of late on the subject of Japanese immigration to North and South America, the government itself seems fully alive to the importance of a settlement of the many issues connected with the matter. Both the Japanese Minister at Washington, the Japanese Consul at Vancouver, and the Consul General to Canada are working night and day in order to arrive at some mutually satisfactory and permanent arrangement. It is not surprising, therefore, that the Japanese Government has recently issued an order which will have the effect of suspending the immigration of Japanese to the United States and Canada. This order is a direct result of the recent action of the United States and Canada in suspending the immigration of Japanese. The Japanese Government is determined to deal with the matter in a fair and equitable manner, and is willing to accept any reasonable conditions which may be imposed. It is confident that a mutually satisfactory arrangement can be reached through the good offices of the United States and Canada."

OCEAN RACE PROPOSED.

Clara Macfarlane is trying to arrange for an ocean yacht race between Honolulu and Lahaina, the start to be made Saturday afternoon, September 1, and the return Monday, September 3, (Labor Day). Mr. Macfarlane will enter her yacht, the La Paloma and Prince David Kawananakoa stated this morning that he would race providing his boat, the Vixen, is in good shape to sail at that time. Two or three trial trips outside will have to be made before such a long trip can be undertaken. If the owners of the Ewa and Dewey consent to enter, the race will be a good one.

The proposition is to start here Saturday morning, arriving at Lahaina Sunday morning, remaining there all day and all night and returning to Honolulu in the early morning. As the stores close at 1 p. m. on Saturday and Monday is a holiday, the business of an one interfered with. Hitherto, this has been the cry but it can not be made now.

Schooner Passed By.

Tien Tsin Chinese Now Good Churchmen

Interesting Review of Present Conditions in Captured City—Chinamen Apply to Missions and Wear European Emblems—Looting Has Been Done by Chinese—Bravery of Allied Troops.

A correspondent of the Shanghai Mercury writes in that paper that the place was in the hands of the victors, says:

The storm seems over. For three days we have had no shelling nor bullets being around. The Tien Tsin native city and most of the surrounding forts were taken on the night of the 19th and the early morning of the 20th. The Japanese had the honor of blowing up the gate and first entering the city. The British were close behind. The city and outposts were given up to loot and many civilians as well as the military and bluejackets of all nations were indulging to their hearts content all day on Saturday. After that the British were prohibited from looting but the troops of other nations seem to have given over, theft and avarice were what was chief in demand and from the Salt Commissioner's Yamen about some millions of taels have been taken. The British are having it brought to one common center to be afterwards equally distributed as prizes.

DIFFICULTY OF DISCRIMINATING.
 There is abundant proof from testimony of natives and discarded uniforms that the troops of the Salt Commissioner were chiefly, in the number of thousands, the defenders inside the city. That they made such a good defense was due to the splendid courage of their command. After the gate was blown up they, however, had no objection and there was practically no resistance to the entrance of the main troops. At first everyone was shot indiscriminately, but afterwards only those who had arms. As these were readily discarded together with uniforms and brass emblems it is probable that the thousands of Chinese who at the tail of the foreign troops have been these days so lustily looting on their own account, contain not a few former-time Boxers and troops.

The natives say that on the last day the troops and people turned on the Boxers and slew them by hundreds, with their leader, as responsible for all the trouble come upon them and threatening them. Many Boxer placards and proclamations on yellow paper are everywhere. These stuck on all many houses, seem ridiculous now, when our victory but after defeat has overtaken them. On one occasion, however, the Hates by proclamation announced a great victory and the taels for each man who had been engaged. I hope our men will do as well.

TURNING JAPANESE.
 It is amusing to see how the natives in the city almost all go about with little flags, most of which bear a legend and the national emblem of the Japanese; some few have pieces of paper on which is written France or England, but the many have professedly become "submissive subjects of Japan." I noticed on one house that the legend had been translated by some ambitious scholar into "Large Japan" written in Roman characters. The Japanese, too, have issued proclamations in Chinese characters stating the part of the city and outposts they are responsible for, and announcing that if there be cause for complaint application could be made to their officers. None of the other powers seem to have thought of such a thing yet, things being allowed entirely to drift.

The crowds in the city seemed to be by no means less merry to the foreigners. I suppose they are thankful their lives have been saved and that they have had an opportunity of looting their neighbors. One missionary has already had not a few applications for admission to the church "this very day if possible!"

There is a rumor abroad that Russia takes over the railways in North China and that the band of British soldiers and delivers are returning to Shanghai not wanted. Also that the Japanese has handed over Pechili to the powers by proclamation. You will know more about this than we here, however. We can only hope that there will be no patching up of the present government, but an entirely new state of things, ushered in where bribery, oppression, injustice shall have no place. Some of us feel that to bring about such a little change of the suffering of the past weeks would be gladly done over again. With even Christendom what it is with international justice, it were perhaps futile to expect too much.

In the Honolulu Republican of August 12, 1900: "Every man who knows anything about the Courts of Honolulu in the past knows that favoritism has been open and notorious. A favored few could have cases they were interested in tried immediately or postponed at their pleasure as they would demand. They cannot do this now and therefore 'the same cordial relations do not exist between the Bar and the Court as heretofore.'"

We were asked to investigate this matter from the standpoint of grave public concern and not of private grievance. Considering that this came within our duties under the portion of your Honor's charge which instructed us to investigate any condition which we may deem detrimental to the public good, we have proceeded with the following result:

The Editor of the Honolulu Republican stated that this article was written by himself, on his own responsibility, and was not dictated or inspired by any other person, and that he is not restricted or controlled in any way in his editorial duties. This jury invited testimony in proof of the charges under consideration, but the evidence of the Editor of the Honolulu Republican and also that of the attorneys to whom he referred the jury did not substantiate the charge, and in fact the testimony of the latter was an endorsement and not a condemnation of the integrity of the Honolulu Judiciary. The article in question was evidently written without mature consideration or essential knowledge.

We did not deem it necessary to summon any other witnesses.

While this jury fully recognizes the freedom of the press we condemn such serious charges without evidence to substantiate them.

UNSUBSTANTIATED CHARGES AGAINST THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

A person appeared before this jury and handed in $5.10 which he claimed was received by him under circumstances which if established would have incriminated members of the police force. His testimony was not clear and convincing, and he could not produce any evidence in corroboration. We consequently have taken no action and turn the above amount of $5.10, together with our report.

In conclusion, this body recognizes that it is the pioneer Grand Jury of this Judicial Circuit and will be followed at short intervals by many other juries. It is impracticable and in fact impossible for any one Grand Jury to investigate thoroughly all the different departments of the Government and the matters of public interest which come within its province. We have confined ourselves to the consideration of such subjects as have been brought to our attention and have been actuated by a desire to faithfully and impartially discharge our duties.

Dunnegan Admiralty Case.

In the Federal Court today the Admiralty case of John D. Spruckels & Bro. Co., against the Dunnegan for $20,000 was taken up by Judge Bates. The libelles filed an answer and the Court ordered that testimony be taken before W. J. Robinson, United States Commissioner, acting as referee. F. M. Hatch for libellant; W. A. Whiting and Stanley & Holmes for owner and cargo.

The Empty libel suit was taken up at 2 P. M.

Proof has just been furnished in Chippewa Falls, Wis., that lightning does sometimes strike more than once in the same place, the dome of the Courthouse there having been subjected to its third visitation.
