PLOTTED TO KILL EMPEROR BOSS M'CANDLESS' ISLAND TOUR PLAN

$11 a Square Foot For Fort St. Land

Federal Appropriation Of $350,000 Is On Basis Of $600,000 An Acre For Business District

In appropriating the sum of $350,000 for acquiring the Fort street business property necessary to provide an entire block for the Federal building site, the United States government has placed a valuation of over $600,000 an acre upon the business property of Honolulu. Calculations have been made at the Capitol that emphasize the high valuation that has been placed upon the Fort street property, the immediate condemnation of which is asked for by Governor Frear and Delegate Kuhio. In the property affected by condemnation proceedings there is a total area of 24,538 square feet, which at the rate of $350,000 would amount to about $14 a square foot with improvements. With the improvements, valued at $75,000, excluded from the calculations, the value of the land would be about $11 a square foot, considerably more than has ever been paid for business property in Honolulu. These figures show that the Federal government has been particularly liberal and supports the contentions made by the Territorial government and Delegate Kuhio that the $350,000 appropriated is sufficient for the purpose.

ASSASSINS MARKED JAPAN'S EMPEROR; NATION AROUSED BY DISCOVERY

(Associated Press Cable.) TOKIO, Sept. 21.—A great sensation was created here today by the exposure of a plot to assassinate the Emperor of Japan. The first intimation of the unsuccessful plan to destroy the life of Japan's ruler was given the public through the details published today in the Hochi Shimbun. The would-be assassins are Japanese, and they have all been apprehended. Many arrests have been made, and the government believes that it has placed in custody all those involved. According to the Hochi, all the culprits will be executed after a trial, all the details of which will be secret.

"Boss" Talks On His Hobby

Worries Seasick Passengers With His Immigration Views—His Plans For Island Tour

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.) LAHAINA, Maui, Sept. 20.—Candidates Boss McCandless and Charles Notley made a very jolly combination for the politicians who left Honolulu on the Mauna Kea on Tuesday. McCandless is accompanied by G. K. Keaweakua as Hawaiian interpreter and campaign manager. The Boss says that "Canon Ball" Kanho and Makekaiu will meet him at Hilo and together they will make a tour of the island of Hawaii, the trip occupying a week. After completing the tour of Hawaii the Boss and Keaweakua accompanied, possibly by Kanho and Makokai will go to Maui where they will probably spend a week before returning to Honolulu. On Wednesday the Democratic County convention will be held in Hilo at 10 a. m. A mass meeting will be held in the evening at which McCandless will be the principal speaker. As soon as he is through with his speech, the Boss and his lieutenants will start out for Hamakua where they will hold meetings at places designated by the campaign committees. McCandless is talking immigration all the time. He tried to interest people on the steamer, but they were either not interested or too sick to listen.

ALL HAWAII POSTS PUT UNDER ONE COMMAND

(Associated Press Cable.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—General Leonard Wood has made a recommendation to the President that the four military posts in the Territory of Hawaii be placed under one command. This is in line with the proposal of General Barry, recently commander of the Department of California.

HAWAII NEEDS INFANTRY TO DEFEND TERRITORY IN CASE OF WAR, DECLARES BULLARD

"Hawaii needs infantry more than anything else to defend the Territory in case of war," declares Col. R. L. Bullard, U. S. A., who is in charge of the militia instruction camp at Fort Shafter. And in accordance with the opinion expressed above, Colonel Bullard this afternoon started giving the Territorial militia officers some straight talks and practical plans for maneuvers in case an attacking enemy should be actually landed near Honolulu. The colonel's declaration that Hawaii needs a lot of infantry and that the militia will be called upon to supply that need, is based on his study of local conditions since coming here to direct the instruction. The topographical conditions of the country around Honolulu in particular, as well as of all the islands in the group, make cavalry of comparatively little use. He is of the opinion that cavalry might be called upon for short dashes, but that the Territory will have to look principally to fortifications and infantry for protection in case of war, and he is anxious that the Territorial militia get an insight into what would be a strategic plan of battle in case of an attack by land. All of this has led to thorough course of instruction in "tactical walks," as the branch of work started today is termed. To many of the army officers as well as of the laymen here to direct the instruction. (Continued on Page 2)

HAMAKUA SEES M'CANDLESS' FINISH—FURTADO PREDICTS KUHIO A SURE WINNER

"We'll elect Joe Pritchard supervisor and vote to a man for Delegate Kuhio," said Representative Furtado of Hamakua, who arrived in town this morning from Hamakua. Mr. Furtado is the Hamakua man who deserted the Democratic party on account of the attempted thumb-screw manipulation of Boss McCandless, and he is now in the ranks of the Republican workers, working with all his might and main. "Up our way there is no special interest in the immigration question. Of course, M' Candless can hope for no votes from the Portuguese, and the Hawaiians are not aroused as McCandless would like to have them. They wouldn't think anything of it if McCandless did not tell such foolish stories. "But we will finish the Boss up in our section. We don't like his style. The Democrats wanted me to run for the Senate, but, of course, I would not. The Republicans also offered me a nomination, but that is out of the question. I prefer to stay with the workers, as I can't afford the expense of a legislative session. And you can believe that we are going to put in some good work for the Republican candidates out in Hamakua this fall. "As far as I can make out, everything seems satisfactory. The boys seem to be feeling all right, and we'll make McCandless feel all wrong when the votes are counted."

KEKAHA HAS BANNER CROP

Introduction of Clearer Water and Addition to Fields Shows Up in Sugar.

Kekaha plantation ground the last cane of its 1910 season last week, finishing operations at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening. The crop was the largest ever taken off, being 11,650 1/2 tons, an increase of more than three thousand tons over last year's crop, which was 11,154 tons, that being the record up to that time. The large increase in the tonnage of the plantation is due principally to the considerable addition to the area of its cane lands from the planting of the thousand acres or so of land on the bluff, which has been made possible by the new Kakaha ditch, brought around the cliffs of Waimea Canyon and up on to the fertile highlands extending up to Puu o ka Pele. The substitution of the pure and fresh water of the upper Waimea River for the brackish water obtained from the pumps on the Kekaha and Mana plains is also responsible for a good increase in the tonnage. —Garden Island, September 17.

CAMPAIGN HAS BEGUN ALREADY

Republican Sub-Committees Meet Jointly and Plan Active Work.

Republican campaigners got busy in earnest today when the two district campaign committees met in joint caucus in the Republican headquarters and proceeded to outline a tentative plan of battle. William Henry was made chairman of the joint committee and frequent meetings will be held from now on. As outlined yesterday in the Bulletin, W. C. Achi and John Wise are to be made executive secretaries of the district committees. The campaign finance, it is planned, will be handled through a sub-committee of four, consisting of the treasurer of the county campaign committee, R. W. Shingle, the treasurer of the district committee, F. C. Smith and Albert Waterhouse, and a fourth from the territorial executive committee yet to be appointed. Chairman A. L. C. Atkinson called a meeting of members of the executive committee of the territorial central committee this afternoon to discuss plans for the coming campaign. Around Republican headquarters everything is busy and there are more smiles than anything else. The campaign will be active. (Continued on Page 2)

DESHA-LYMAN PEACE IS MADE

Warm Opponents For Short Time But Now Good Friends.

Political differences between Stephen Desha and Supervisor Lyman have been patched up, according to a wireless sent from Hilo last evening. What the trouble was all about is told in correspondence received from Hilo by the Bulletin. Another political fight has broken loose during the last few days. This time nothing less is involved than the control of the Republican Hawaiian paper, Ka Hoku, which has been run by Stephen Desha for the past couple of years. Recently the Hoku came out strongly against Chairman Jim Lewis of the Board of Supervisors, and in the past it has also been sending some hot shot into the camp of the Lyman faction. Under these circumstances the news that Lyman and Lewis are pretty close to having control, either by direct purchase or

SUPERVISOR WEDS TODAY

McClellan and Miss Emma Clark Married at Cathedral.

W. H. McClellan and Miss Emma Clark were married this morning at the Cathedral, the ceremony being performed by Bishop Liebert in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. Mrs. McClellan is the daughter of Charles Clark. The many friends of the couple extend to them most hearty wishes for their happiness. (Associated Press Cable.) ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 21.—Complete returns from the primaries held yesterday show that Congressman Tawney was defeated for renomination by over 2000 votes. All the other Republican incumbents were renominated. (Associated Press Cable.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 21.—Official reports received here announce the appearance of cholera in Kobe. The devil's will sustained lack is because he never procrastinates.

JOHNSON WANTS LANGFORD TO ANTE

(Special Bulletin Cable.) BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 21.—Jack Johnson, the pugilist, refuses to have anything further to do with fighting Langford until the latter makes a deposit forfeit. Johnson says he will immediately cover it.

COLORADO STANDS FOR ROOSEVELT

(Associated Press Cable.) COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 21.—Colorado Republicans went on record here today in favor of the Roosevelt insurgent principles. The State convention is being held, and the platform adopted today gives a sweeping endorsement of the Roosevelt insurgent movement. When Miss Marguerite Barbois of New York becomes the wife of Gilbert Compton Elliott, near Geneva, Switzerland, she will display among her wedding presents a Farman airplane. This was sent to Miss Barbois's sister, the Baroness Andre de Neufville. Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the New York county Republican committee, was arrested for automobile speeding as he whizzed through Bridgeport, Conn., trying to beat a train bearing his wife into the city.

NEW MAN FOR DRAKE'S PLACE

(Special Bulletin Cable.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Your correspondent learns from an authoritative source that a successor will be appointed to Collector of Internal Revenue Walter F. Drake. MONK.

TAFT IS AGAINST GROUCH METHODS

(Special Bulletin Cable.) CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 21.—President Taft made a rousing address here today, in which he strongly opposed dealing out appropriations for river and harbor improvements in piecemeal lumps.

CROCKER HEIRS NEED THE MONEY

(Special Bulletin Cable.) NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The stepchildren of George Crocker are contesting the bequest of a million dollars, by the millionaire, to the Columbia College which was to be used exclusively in research on cancer.

TRACTION CARS COLLIDE AND KILL

(Special Bulletin Cable.) KINGSLAND, Ind., Sept. 21.—Thirty-eight people were killed here today in a head-on collision between traction cars.

POPULAR LINER SAILS AWAY

Sierra Took Eighty in the Cabin for San Francisco.

There were eighty cabin passengers on board the Sierra when that vessel pulled away from the dock this morning and turned her nose for the open sea and San Francisco. There was the usual crowd on the wharf to bid Godspeed to the departing ones, and they sailed away from Honolulu to the strains of Berger's band, rendering popular airs from the dock. The Sierra took out a general cargo, and besides the large number of passengers in the first cabin there were a number of steerage, many of them being Hindus who have come to Honolulu and passed the immigration authorities here as being preferable to signing the gambler in San Francisco, where there is a great deal of prejudice against their race. There were not many Russians in evidence at the departure of the Sierra this morning except those who were working as stevedores in loading the vessel. Evidently the word has come back here that conditions on the Coast for Russian laborers are

HAWAII DEMS ARE NOT HAPPY

Can't Get Candidates They Wish For Local Offices.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.) HILO, Sept. 19.—According to the present plans the Democratic County convention will open at 10 o'clock tomorrow, when the preliminary work will be done. A recess will then be taken until 10 o'clock Thursday morning, when the real show will begin. The Democrats on this island are not feeling particularly chipper this year, owing to the fact that while they have some candidates of whom they feel quite proud, the party is on the whole suffering from a lack of available good material for its ticket. According to Boss David Ewaliko the fight for the supervisor nomination from North Hilo will be between Keaki and Dr. Archer Irwin. From South Hilo Ewaliko says W. H. Johnson will be the candidate, although a few other names have been casually mentioned. Kalaiwa will again run for supervisor from Kona, while Shigban will carry the party's standard in Kau. Thomas Nalelehu will be the candidate for supervisor from Hamakua. There will probably be no candidates

"BOY ORATOR" IS ON RAMPAGE

Mixes Things By Independent Candidacy—Desha and Affonso.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.) HILO, Sept. 19.—While the harmony which prevailed at the Republican convention last week was a source of great satisfaction to all those who had the real interest of the party at heart, it seems that this condition was altogether too good to last long, and no sooner had the convention adjourned before things began popping away at a lively rate.

First of all Bernard Kelekolo, the "Boy Orator," who had been seated in the convention, where he was a candidate for the House, came out as an independent candidate. In a letter to the electorate, contained in Ka Hoku of last week, he announced his independent candidacy. He stated that in the various caucuses which had been held prior to the convention he had received the highest vote, and that he was really the choice of the people, although he had actually failed to land the nomination. The many friends of the young man who have his best interests at heart are hoping that he will reconsider his rash decision before it is too late, and there is a hope that he will change his mind before the election and preserve his good standing in the party, rather than to throw away everything by chasing a will-o'-the-wisp.

But the big trouble lies in a fight which has cropped up between Representative Affonso and Stephen Desha. This was very unexpected, breaking loose on the party leaders like a flash of lightning from a clear sky, and it seems likely to assume serious proportions unless it can be put down. Various reasons are given for the fight, none of which seems very satisfactory, but the reason most likely to be the main cause lies in the allegation that Affonso made a statement in the course of his fight prior to the convention against Vasco Orosio, in which he spoke in a slighting manner about certain Hawaiian women. Affonso strenuously denies having made the remark, but the report has spread like wildfire, and it threatens to be the cause of a war between the Portuguese and a Hawaiian faction. Campaign Manager Smith has a big mission on his hands in his role of angel of peace, but in view of his success with the convention it is likely that he will be able to cope with this situation also.

In the meantime the war is a bitter one. Stephen Desha says flatly that he is out after the scalp of Affonso. Affonso's friends say they will fight. One of the most prominent of these last Saturday made a statement which indicated strongly that his faction, as it would not be able to reach Desha, as he is not a candidate, would endeavor to hurt him by knifing Delegate Kala, himself.

"Desha is fighting Affonso in his paper, but we will be able to get back at him," he said. "If he keeps this up we will knife a friend of his."

"Who, J. P. Hale?" asked a bystander. "No, not J. P. Hale," was the reply. "It will be a man who is a slight more important than Hale."

Carl Smith and a number of the Republicans had a meeting last Friday evening at which various phases of the situation were discussed. Lyman brought up the matter of the administration of land affairs, voicing a protest against the manner in which the new law was being carried out, but nothing came of it. Nothing definite was decided in regard to when the campaign should be started, and it is probable that a short and sharp campaign will be decided upon.

The Antarctic exploring ship Terra Nova, under the command of Captain Scott, has arrived safely at the Cape, and Captain Scott has lately been engaged in giving a series of lectures to those who are interested in the project in which he is engaged.

There was considerable anxiety felt for the safety of the ship and crew from the fact that no word was heard from them after they left Madeira on June 27, and when they did arrive at the South African port they were many days overdue.

At Capetown the Terra Nova will be fitted out in the most complete way for her trip to the south pole. Captain Scott has great hopes of making a point further south than did Explorer Shackleton.

HAWAII NEEDS INFANTRY

(Continued from Page 1) men, the term will mean little, for tactical walks, says Colonel Bullard, are a late addition to army instruction, and many of the officers at Fort Shafter have never taken them.

Colonel Bullard's methods are simple. He took the militia officers out into the open and laid before them certain problems. For instance, leading the group of guardsmen to a knoll near the camp, he would put a mythical enemy in front, attacking, and a mythical regiment of Territorial guard coming up a valley or down from a hill, and then would ask the officers what they would do under such conditions.

The lessons are practical in the extreme, and are problems, he says, that would probably come up in actual fighting.

The country immediately surrounding the camp is admirably adapted for tactical walks, as it is quite diversified, with level ground, hills, valleys, ravines and long stretches of broken ground leading toward the sea. This part of the work is interesting even to the casual observer, and the militia officers were quite engrossed in it.

The militia officers are now a day and a half ahead of their schedule, and Colonel Bullard expects to get two extra days of work. The instruction has proceeded without a break, even during bad weather. This morning a number of the officers took up quartermaster and commissary work under the direction of Lieutenant Rogers at Fort Shafter. Captain Koester is giving a talk on the relation of infantry and cavalry, and Lieutenant Watkins is proceeding steadily with his map-making instruction.

JAPANESE MEETS WITH BAD ACCIDENT

Bucket of Coal Falls and Hits Stevedore, Who Is Nearly Killed.

This morning at eleven o'clock a serious accident occurred on board the ship Selodon, which is laying at the Channel wharf. It appears that a Japanese named Kubo was working discharging coal, and just as a load of bucket was sent aloft, the hook gave way and the tub descended on top of Kubo. In some way the edge of the bucket struck the unfortunate man between the legs, and the consequence was a terrible injury.

The police patrol was telephoned for and the man taken to the Queen's Hospital where he is at present confined. Should the man die an investigation will be undertaken by Coroner Rose, and the matter of how the hook came to slip will be looked into.

BRECKONS WILL PUMP GRACE

Men Who Helped the Negro Evade Police Will Probably Be Jailed.

United States District Attorney Breckons is determined to get the true story of Grace's five months of liberty, and is going to find out who helped the escaped murderer while he was at large.

There is not much doubt in the minds of the police that Grace was helped and fed by some friends, and that the three men McDuffie arrested three weeks ago on suspicion of harboring the negro, were in the habit of placing food where Grace could get it. It would have been impossible for Grace to subsist on wild fruit and sugar cane for so long a time as five months, and it is thought that it was only for a few weeks past that he has been really hard put to it for food.

Yesterday afternoon Breckons called and interviewed Grace, and during the conversation the negro claimed that he had fever. Breckons then produced the watch that used to belong to the man who was murdered by Grace and with that relic took the beat of the murderer's pulse.

The reward question has not yet been settled, but the general opinion is that the five hundred dollars will go to Luna Off, who was the one to supply information that led to Grace's arrest. The placard stated that $500 would be paid on that condition, and it is thought that that settles the matter. In the meantime Washington is being communicated with, and rumor has it that the amount of the reward has been cut down.

BOURBON BOSS BUYS LAND

McCandless Pays $12,000 for Property Held By Rooke Trustees.

L. L. McCandless, the boss of the Democratic party, is not letting the demands of political activity incident to the work of a party boss, interfere with his work of acquiring more land.

McCandless has just paid the sum of $12,000 for property on the west side of Liliha street, the deed covering the transfer of the realty to the Democratic boss having just been filed with the Bureau of Conveyances.

The property for which McCandless pays $12,000 is purchased from the trustees of the estate of the late Cresswell Keane Charles Rooke. The trustees named in the deed are Cresswell Pailet Rooke of Monks' Horton, Colchester, Essex, England and the Archdeacon Edward Ambrose Hardy of the Holy Trinity Vicarage, Coventry.

HILL MAY FORCE AN ENTRANCE INTO SOUTH

LOS ANGELES, September 19.—Well informed railroad men believe that to all intents and purposes James J. Hill has already, or is about to force a way through to this coast for his trains. Hill has for some time controlled a line to Benson, A. T., within 500 miles of this city. He is master of the Burlington, reaching with its main line to Denver, and the Colorado and Southern, from Denver to Fort Worth. Handing the reins of the latter line to Hill was one of the biggest mistakes ever made by Harrison, because at Dallas the Colorado and Southern crosses the Rock Island, which operates over the Phelps-Dodge road, the El Paso and Southwestern, to El Paso, whence trains come over the Southern Pacific. The Phelps-Dodge line continues, however, to Benson, and its owners have arranged to build to Phoenix.

These interests are at war with the Southern Pacific, and it is understood they have a track-right arrangement with the Santa Fe, which will be highly advantageous to the latter when the new link is built. There is every reason to expect, authorities declare, that from that connection Hill, through his Phelps-Dodge influence, will operate to this coast over the Santa Fe via the Parker cut-off.

The German army is using paper kettles which are said to be of Japanese invention.

ENTRIES ARE IN FOR HALL CUP

Twenty-One Players Have Put Down Names for Handicap Tennis Play.

Play for the Hall Cup tennis tournament will start up tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and the matches will be played on both the Neighborhood and Beretania courts. Twenty-one entries have been received for the tournament, and the only players of note missing are A. L. Castle and Captain Low.

The following men have put down their names for the play: R. A. Cooke, A. M. Nowell, G. R. Warren, H. S. Gray, C. G. Bockus, W. G. Singlehurst, W. L. Stanley, W. A. Wall, Jack Guard, J. T. Waterhouse, F. E. Steers, W. T. Schmidt, Noel Deerr, H. E. Savage, F. E. Greenfield, W. N. Eklund, P. D. Collins, Gerald Irvine, Atherton Richards, Theodore Richards and R. Sinclair.

It will be noted that both Punne and Ewa are represented. The former country club has Savage to fight for the honors, and Ewa has no less than three members in the tournament, viz., Greenfield, Eklund and Collins.

The tournament promises to be a really good one, and as it is a handicap affair, everybody will have a chance of winning. The scratch men will probably be R. A. Cooke, Nowell and Atherton Richards. Captain Low did not enter for the matches, and it is to be regretted, as he is a fine player. The drawings will be made this evening and the handicaps announced as soon as possible.

COST OF LIVING GOING HIGHER, WARNS WILSON

ST. PAUL, Sept. 4.—"The cost of living is bound to go higher," said Secretary of Agriculture James A. Wilson today, who will speak at the conservation congress this week on "Farm Conservation."

"The money that is now supplied by the thrift of the farmer we take to Europe," he said. "To buy diamonds and other luxuries and do not add to the wealth of the nation."

"Very little of the money received from the soil goes back into it to conserve its productiveness. We can no longer claim distinction as an exporting nation."

"This is partly due to the fact that we have received a tremendous immigration, but it is also due in a very large measure to the fact that the farmers can no longer secure the heavy yields from their fields. Meats have not only gone high, but they will go higher."

WATERFRONT NOTES

SATURDAY MORNING at daylight the Pacific Mail liner Asia, Captain Gaukroger, is due off port at Honolulu according to a wireless received by Hackfeld and Company last night. The Asia is bringing 600 tons of Oriental cargo for Honolulu and a few passengers. Her passenger accommodations are all taken from the Orient to San Francisco as this ship is popular with the traveling public. It is probable that the Asia will be dispatched for San Francisco by four o'clock Saturday afternoon although she may not sail until five o'clock.

THIS AFTERNOON the American-Hawaiian freighter Alaskan will sail from Honolulu bound for Seattle via Hilo. The Alaskan brought a general cargo to this port but will sail from here and from Hilo with but little cargo as there is but little sugar at this time practically the whole crop having been shipped.

SAILING FROM Port Harford on September 19 the American steamer Santa Rita, in command of Captain Boyd made a fair trip to Honolulu arriving this morning. The Santa Rita is at the railroad wharf discharging her cargo of oil and will return to the coast when discharge is completed.

THE W. G. HALL arrived this morning from Kaula ports bringing five cabin and 14 deck passengers and a general cargo consisting of 50 cases of honey, 30 packages of sundries and a quantity of empty casks. The Hall experienced light winds and a smooth sea during the trip to the neighboring island.

SIXTY-TWO DAYS from Newport News the British freighter Masunda arrived this morning in command of Captain Robert Burns. The Masunda brought a full cargo of coal consigned to the navy, and makes the fourth vessel flying the British flag to arrive with coal within a few days.

MORE THAN one hundred passengers arrived in Honolulu this morning by the Inter-island steamer Claudine which arrived at an early hour from Hawaii and Maui ports. The Claudine brought 25 hogs, and a general cargo of wool, corn, potatoes, honey and sundries.

THE CLAUDINE reports that at Hilo Monday there were anchored the barkentine Irmgard, schooner Camano, Borealis, Ethel Zane and steamer Columbian. At Kahului yesterday the ship H. T. Lucas was discharging coal.

CAMPAIGN HAS BEGUN ALREADY

(Continued from Page 1) Campaign is moving smoothly and with the organization of the sub-committees will proceed rapidly. The sub-committees have started work early and will be at least a week in advance of the Democrats.

Democratic headquarters have been dull since Link McCandless left on his tour of Hawaii. The lack of a leader is painfully evident. Democratic leaders were casting about today for a campaign manager and a number of names were suggested, but it is hardly likely that the vacancy will be filled before next week and perhaps not then unless the untried show more signs of living up to their party appellation.

EWA PLANTATION HAS AN EXTRA MELON CUT

Ewa Plantation Company voted an extra dividend of 2 per cent. this morning, adding another to a long series. The one this morning was expected, and another will probably be voted soon. This makes a total of 20 per cent. in dividends so far this year voted by the big company. The company is capitalized at $5,000,000.

CALIFORNIA IS SECOND AS AUTOMOBILE STATE

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—According to a table compiled by the automobile directories company of this city, there are $600,000,000 worth of automobiles in this country. New York State leads with 60,000 machines, but California is second with 55,000.

In Minneapolis, it is said, one auto firm holds mortgages on 1500 homes. In Wisconsin the mortgages on automobiles and other property for the purchase price are estimated at $4,000,000. Nebraska has $9,000,000 in mortgages based on automobile purchases; in Kansas the estimate is $4,000,000 in the last three years. The money tightness in Iowa is charged to the same condition.

GIRL THOUGHT "TEDDY" WAS AN HONOR TITLE

Ex-President Shocked at a Cheyenne Hotel by a New Arrival from Sweden.

DENVER, Sept. 1.—While Col. Roosevelt was in Cheyenne he stopped at the Inter-Ocean Hotel. His meals were served to him in his room, and as a servant he had a Swedish girl, who has been in this country but a short time.

Whenever he asked the girl a question she answered "No, Teddy," or "Yes, Teddy," to the amazement of the Colonel.

Her manner was so ingenious, however, that he decided that she was innocent of intentional disrespect. Finally he made inquiries and the mystery was solved.

The girl thought that "Teddy," which she had heard so frequently, was "some sort of title, such as king." He laughed heartily when he heard the explanation.

If some people were as free with their money as they are with their advice, what a lot of good they might do in the world. You usually can tell by the way a girl smiles to herself if she is in love. The man who pays as he goes sometimes goes dead broke.

LIVELY MEETING AFTER STARTING

Supervisors Held Up By Bridegroom for Half an Hour.

After finally getting together last evening the Board of Supervisors transacted all the business brought before it in just twenty-five minutes and adjourned until September 23 at 12:15.

It was a strenuous struggle to have a meeting as Bill Aylett was not to be found and Supervisor McClellan was on the eve of his wedding day and was also absent.

The Board minority members sat around for half an hour, then decided that they could do nothing and postponed the meeting until today at 3 o'clock. Just as this had been decided upon and everybody was leaving McClellan showed up and then the former action was expunged from the record of the Board and the meeting went merrily on.

Little but routine business was taken up, several reports were read and accepted.

C. A. Peacock asked permission to install an overhanging electric sign at the corner of the Criterion saloon and this was referred to the road committee. George Sherman wanted the stone crusher to make some rock for him to use on a private road and this matter was referred to the same committee.

Wade Warren Thayer, representing Alewa Heights Improvement Club, wrote to the board regarding the condition of Alewa Road, which he said was being washed out by the heavy rains as the ditches were grass grown and could not take away the storm water. Jim Quinn said that no damage had been done yet but that today a gang would start in to clear the gutters of grass.

General Edward Davis in a communication to the Board stated that a light was needed Waikiki where the Irwin property joins Campbell Estate as it is so dark that people living in that neighborhood now are obliged to use lanterns to get to their neighbors except on moonlight nights. The matter was referred to the electric lighting committee.

Superintendent of Public Works Campbell communicated to the Board that Kuweli fish ponds at Iwilei were to be filled as a contract had already been let, and this would do away with the most insanitary place in that section. A road was needed over the property which he hoped the Board would build.

Bids for supplying 8,000 pounds of No. 6 wire were opened and the contract awarded to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, whose bid of $16.85 per hundred pounds was four dollars lower than that of the nearest competitor.

This completed the regular business of the Board and then Fire Chief Thurston addressed the august body asking for some new hose. Bids which had been received showed that Honolulu Iron Works were the lowest bidders for first class hose and it was ordered that the contract should go to them.

Then just as everything was pax Quinn got up to call the Board of the fine work which had been done by the storm sewers which had been installed by the present board. He said that all had taken care of the heavy rain which fell on Sunday afternoon and that nowhere was there any overflow except for a few minutes during the heaviest of the downpour.

not all that the minds of the optimists pictured, and those now here are not anxious to jump another 2000 miles with no security of landing a job when they reach the shores of California.

There were a number of prominent Honoluluans and those from other islands among the departing ones this morning. J. Jorgenson, accompanied by his wife and child, being among those leaving.

Frank Thompson sailed for San Francisco on the Sierra and will return on the next trip of the steamer. Miss Maud Rockwell, who came to Honolulu with the Casino Musical Comedy Company, and who has been singing in picture theaters since that organization returned to the Coast, was an outgoing passenger on the Sierra, accompanied by her friend, Miss Gladys Clifton.

J. D. Tucker of the land office went to the Coast by the Sierra and will there attend the meeting of the grand lodge of Masons.

Dr. St. D. G. Walters and family also left on the steamer for San Francisco, and Elder S. E. Wooley of the Mormon church was a departing passenger on the Sierra.

That Little Hacking Cough

Hard coughs are bad enough, to be sure. But it's often the little, hacking, tickling, persistent cough that means the most, especially when there is a history of weak lungs in the family. What should be done? Ask your doctor. He knows. Ask him about the formula on the label of every bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask him if this medicine has his full approval for throat and lung troubles. Then do as he says.

HAWAII DEMS ARE NOT HAPPY

put up for the Board from Puna and Kohala.

The most interesting contest will probably center on the nomination for County Attorney, which will fall to either Harry Irwin or W. H. Heen. Both have strong backing, and the fight should be a very interesting one. Ewaliko will be nominated for County Clerk, Maguire for Auditor, George Richardson for Treasurer, while the office of Sheriff will be left blank.

The Democrats feel particularly happy over their selection of candidates for the Senate, for the men who will probably run for the upper house are D. E. Metzger of Hilo and Frank Woods of Kohala. The party distinctly feels the loss of Palmer Woods, who would be sure of election if he could be induced to run, but the leaders hope that his brother will be able to follow in his steps.

The nomination for the House from Hilo district will be the cause of another contest in the convention. Jim Kepoo, J. A. M. Osorio and William Campbell are the prospective candidates. Puna will be represented in the House by Kealawaa. Kaniho, who since his spectacular exit from the Home Rule party, has lit in the Democratic camp on a so-called fusion proposition, will run for the House from Kohala. M. de Mello and J. K. Alpa will probably be the candidates from Kona, and J. N. Kamoku will without much doubt be chosen to represent Kau. There will be no candidate from Hamakua.

by securing options, of the other shares needed. There are two hundred shares altogether, and yesterday it was reported that the Lyman hui had ninety shares in its control, and possibly more.

That control of Ka Hoku by its former victims will mean that Desha will retire or be retired from the scene as the editor, may be taken as a foregone conclusion.

Desha stated yesterday that in such an event he will want to be considered as released from a promise he made recently, to the effect that he would support the candidates nominated by the Republican convention. Of course, this means more particularly Lewis and Lyman. Desha says that the action of the hui shows that it has not dropped the fight, but wishes to carry it on to the bitter end.

"In such case I consider it a challenge to me, and I am willing to accept it," said Desha. "As a matter of fact, I have a number of friends who have assured me that if I am ousted from Ka Hoku, they will back me in the starting of a new paper."

Desha added that the majority of the subscribers of Ka Hoku took the paper on account of him, and that if he started a new sheet they would leave the Hoku and follow him.

Israel Brandt, an engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad, saved his trainload of sleeping passengers as he was entering Pittsburg, when he stuck to his post and closed the throttle after a cap in a steam pipe had blown off. He suffered burns.

Plans are under way for a great display of Spanish art in many of the large cities of the United States.

SEVEN JERSEYITES ARE SEEKING UNITED STATES SENATORIAL TOGA.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 27.—At least four Republicans besides himself are seeking the place of Senator John Kean in the United States senate at the hands of the next New Jersey legislature, and two Democrats have filed petitions to have their names placed on the primary ballots. Three of the Republicans have filed petitions. They are former Governor Franklin Murphy, former Governor Edward C. Stokes and Congressman Charles N. Fowler. Senator Kean, who wants to be re-elected, did not file a petition, as he decided to leave his fate in the hands of the legislature direct. The same stand was taken by David Baird of Camden who also wants the seat. The Democratic candidates for the toga are Frank M. McDowell of Newark and James E. Martine.

Many people lead bad lives that would gladly lead good ones, but do not know how to make the change.—Franklin.

Anyone believing in Anderson Grace must be crazy.

Most every cur thinks of those he doesn't like, as yellow dogs.

Aggressive work is the greatest promoter of harmony that has ever been invented.

Voting down Bossism is the particular business to which the people should devote themselves this year.

If you are honestly opposed to boss rule you will line up with the forces actively supporting the Republican ticket.

Mr. Bryan having refused to accept any office is now perfectly free to flock by himself and not worry anyone in particular.

Hamiltonian Graft would be a pretty good name for the new club to be organized by United States Senator Lorimer and his friends.

Not for the last fifty years have there been such large numbers of distinguished ex-Congressmen tagged previous to the election.

The Chinese Prince travelling across the continent with Charley Schwab makes it clear that some of those new Chinese warships will fail to the lot of the Steel Trust.

Japan has been so busy looking after revolutionists in its newly annexed territory, that it has been almost taken by surprise by the dangerous spirit that is abroad among its own people.

"Roosevelt Insurgents" appears in the platform of Colorado Republicans, and it begins to look as if the Empire State of New York might follow up the good example set by the pioneer spirit of the West.

All the leaders of the War Department have united in recommending a more important rating for Hawaii's military establishment and we can hardly imagine President Taft doing other than giving his approval.

Warden Henry's luck changed the day he was given control of the Republican organization in his district. So the kahunas have a perfect right to predict a victory for the Republican party on account of the capture of Anderson Grace.

"For bad whiskey to make myself known in Thirtieth district $140." This is the way a defeated candidate in San Francisco fled one of his items of election expense. He probably realizes now that he would have been more successful had he made himself known by either good whiskey or none at all.

BOSS McCANDLESS' ISSUE.

Boss McCandless starting on his island tour, immediately on boarding the steamer, regaled all whom he could bring within hailing distance, with HIS views on the immigration question.

Thus we find the Boss incessant and untiring in his attack on the prosperity of the Territory, merely because he is fired with the hope that he can fool the people and gratify his passion for office.

In one respect the citizens may consider themselves fortunate in this campaign. The true character of the man dictating the opposition is brought into the open early in the proceedings. The Boss having whipped his party into line, and a great number of the reputable voters out of it, is losing all his future prospects on his ability to fool the people that he may later boss them.

Immigration has been one of the cornerstones of Hawaii's development. Continuation of the immigration is absolutely essential to the preservation of the present standard of prosperity for the workingman. Capitalists who have made two fortunes and are able to retire to California if a period of depression strikes Hawaii, might not have the same interest as the citizen who has to support his family by returns from his manual labor.

But the Boss is striving to make it appear otherwise. He is banking his desire to rule on his success in fooling the average workingman of the land.

Shall he be allowed to do it? That's the issue before the people. And the people usually vote right when they have a definite, clear-cut issue on which to decide.

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANISM WINS VICTORIES.

Defeat of Cannon himself would be hardly more disastrous to the "stand pat" wing of the Republican party than the failure of Congressman Tawney to receive the endorsement of his party in the form of a renomination.

This, coupled with the failure of the Vice President to carry his home district in party organization representation puts a most dismal finishing touch to the control of the combination that has held the Republican party

MANY ACCIDENTS

The Interstate Commerce Commission gives the total number of casualties to passengers on railways for the year ending June 30, 1909, as follows: Killed, 253; injured, 10,311. During the preceding year the record was: Killed, 381; injured, 11,556.

ty in the hollow of its hand for so many years.

The political revolution that was referred to as remarkable when the returns from Kansas and California primaries came in, is now rising to stupendous proportions.

Some believe that this upsetting of the old order in the Republican ranks, means assured success for the Democrats. In this they are deceiving themselves. The revolt in the Democratic party has been going on for several years. It is now intensified by the refusal of Bryan to follow the way that has been marked out for him by his party. Just what Bryan will do no one will attempt to forecast. But the liberal Democrats, or more correctly the Insurgent Democrats, are working along much the same lines as the Insurgent Republicans. There is a new spirit abroad in the land, and the tendency of Insurgent Democrats to the ranks of

The Insurgent Republicans will unquestionably be more marked and effective than the movement of disgruntled Republicans to the Democratic party.

The recent result in Maine may be presented as disproving this conclusion. But Maine had no well defined Insurgent Republican candidates in the field. Furthermore Maine is struggling with the ancient and farcical Prohibition law. The Republican party under the sway of the Old Guard endorsed the Prohibition law flatly. This gave the Progressive element, the young Republicans, no other choice than to vote for the Democratic candidates who are pledged to secure a resubmission of the Prohibition clause of the State constitution to a vote of the people.

Except where there is some local issue as existed in Maine, the Insurgent Republicans and Insurgent Democrats are making common cause, and the whole movement is crystallizing under the leadership of the Progressive Republicans.

Standpatters will be few and far between in the next Congress but the control will be in the hands of the Progressive Republicans whose cause is one that appeals to a steadily widening circle of thoughtful citizens.

Progress, progress with real life in it, is the spirit of the hour. Democrats tied up to boss rule and Democrats blatantly declaring for a policy that will bring on an era of depression, are struggling to perpetuate terrible errors in government, and at the same time are moving against the current of public opinion. They will not succeed.

POLICE COURT GOING SLOW

Only Few Cases of Any Interest Heard at Morning Session.

This morning at the police court, there were only a few small cases, and, beyond the fining of a Japanese who pleaded guilty to selling liquor without a license, there was nothing doing. Morihata threw up the sponge as regards defending himself on the charge of running a blind pig, and Judge Andrade soaked him $100 and costs.

Another case that at one time promised to be interesting was that in which a Porto Rican named Antonio Ramon, was sentenced to three months' jail for vagrancy. The man was said, by the police, to have been living a disorderly life at Iwilei. One of the witnesses in the case was a Porto Rican woman and she, upon leaving the witness stand, was threatened by a lady friend of the prisoner. The assertion was made that the friend had a razor concealed in her garter. Judge Andrade at once ordered that the woman be searched for the weapon; the judge meant for the matron to undertake the job, but the Porto Rican dame promptly elevated her skirts in the courtroom and displayed her bosom.

The judge flushed and the court officials stood as if mesmerized till a police officer grabbed the lady and conducted her down stairs. A razor was found by the matron, but the woman was booked for investigation by Chief McDuffie.

Another case that lasted some time was that in which a stage driver was charged with stealing some twenty-five pineapples from a Japanese farmer. The evidence was clear enough but Lightfoot Jr., who appeared for the defense claimed that pineapples were stolen all the time by tourists who passed the complainant's ranch on the Waiialua road.

The Japanese said that he knew tourists took a pineapple or so sometimes, but that the accused had taken twenty-five on this occasion, and that the complainant, had no doubt that the alleged thief had carted away dozens in the same manner.

The case was not finished at noon time, but a decision will probably be given this afternoon some time; C. F. Chillingworth is appearing for the prosecution.

Ten alleged gamblers appeared in court but only one of them convicted; he was fined $10 and costs, and the rest of the bunch were allowed to go free. One drunk, Souza the boozier, paid his respects to Judge Andrade, and he decided that four dollars would about meet the case. All the other cases were sent over and court adjourned till this afternoon.

LORIMER RESIGNS CLUB MEMBERSHIP

Illinois Junior Senator Squirms Under Smart of Roosevelt Stinging Rebuke.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A terse note of resignation from the Hamilton club, of which he had been a member many years, was the reply made here today by United States Senator William Lorimer to the action of the club president, John H. Batten, in withdrawing his invitation to the Roosevelt banquet Thursday night.

While Senator Lorimer urged that his resignation be accepted immediately, it is said his friends on the club board of governors probably will refuse to vote its acceptance.

The correspondence from President Batten to Senator Lorimer revealed, it was shown today, that the Senator was to have been one of the guests of honor at the banquet. This correspondence also showed that it had been the hope of the club to make the dinner notable as a harmonious occasion at which all factions of the Republican party could break bread together.

At least three invitations were sent to Lorimer, each urging him to attend the banquet, and to the last of these he sent his acceptance.

Engineer Timothy Bunker was killed and his Bremen seriously injured near Albany, N. Y., when their engine, hauling a New York Central freight train, plunged with the cars into the Hudson river.

VICE-PRESIDENT SHERMAN TO SPEAK AMONG INDIANS.

VICE-PRESIDENT JAMES S. SHERMAN

UTICA, Sept. 5.—Vice-President James Schoolcraft Sherman has taken the stump for the Republican party in the middle west, commencing at Clinton, Ill., Aug. 27. The recent connecting of his name with the alleged attempted bribery of Senator Gore has evidently not deterred the vice-president from going into the heart of the Indian country as will be seen from his itinerary as announced by the Republican congressional committee. He will speak at least four times in Oklahoma, and it is thought likely that he will have something to say about graft charges. He will also speak in the same general territory as Colonel Roosevelt, who is responsible for most of the latest news in connection with Mr. Sherman's selection as temporary chairman of the New York State Republican convention.

LIEUT.-COLONEL BULLARD'S ADDRESS TO OFFICERS

Lieut.-Col. Bullard, U. S. A., who is in Honolulu in charge of the school of instruction at Fort Shafter for national guard officers, delivered a notable address Saturday afternoon to the officers assembled in the special camp. His address dealt with the ideals of military department. Col. Bullard said:

Military Department.
In the civic rank in the peace period, even in the soldier whose heart is not whole and from whose in the soldier's work, the mere expression, military department, arouses prejudice, hostile criticism. To such it stands for nothing, monkey business, fooliness. On the other hand, to the trained soldier and knower of men to a natural man,—that is, to a man whose mind has not been perverted by a lot of place theory to the student and observer of realities, military department signifies. It stands for training and discipline, the power of man and wisdom of man.

I have not set myself the task of telling you the thousand things in which military department consists, or of discussing and deciding for you the countless doubtful points and questions that may occur to you under this heading. That would take too long. I shall have to be general. For details I refer you to that excellent publication, Capt. J. A. Moss' Officers' Manual. I shall here feel that I have touched success if I can but show you the reason, reach and power and leave conviction of the need, the utility and dignity of the thing called military department, its worthiness of your attention and practice.

The first necessity in his military training yet always the hardest thing with the civic-loving American is to get him to come, even in his own mind to anything like a full and adequate acceptance of military department. This is why I shall devote my time discussing out in detail the things that make it up.

We Americans pride ourselves upon our contempt of all form and manner. That has been our boast and glory. For the opposite opinion in any one we have neither regard nor patience. Less and less hereafter can that be our view or practice; because it is a sign of crudeness, of national inexperience. Form and manner are really laws of life which, in the history and progress of every people, grow up and become more and more necessary and valuable as men increase in number. They are conditions of population and civilization. They are the necessary outgrowth of the close association of men, the product of the experience of living together. Their origin is proof enough of their necessity and value. Until lately our country in general has not needed them because we have not lived in thick communities. The army is the exception. There men have always been and still are associated more closely and intimately than in civil life and have consequently needed form and manner. This is why when the rest of our countrymen are priding themselves upon rejecting these, soldiers have been guiding their lives and regulating their intercourse by the system of rules which we call military department.

If we wish to remain freemen, all conventions are to be questioned. They should be required to approve themselves to us before we accept them. I would not anywhere make or preserve unnecessary ones even under the guise of military department. That is the wise course always. They are burdensome and when once they are fixed upon us, our institutions, especially continuous ones like an army, all tend to saddle them upon us to a time and extent far beyond our ability to shake them off or even detect their rise, reason or present utility. But experience shows that those conventions that make up military department are not a lot of meaningless observances that can be lightly thrown off, as may be easily proven by any soldier. Try it, violate them a few times for yourself, and your resulting dilemma and confusion will teach you their reason and their value. There will be no doubt in you that you have made a mistake. He that breaketh a hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

Notwithstanding our dislike of manner, form and ceremony, these foundations yet have their deep-laid seat in our human nature. Those organizations and institutions that most use them make the most general and effective appeal to humanity; they reach and control men. Witness the most formal and ceremonious of our organizations the one which we have always before our eyes the Catholic Church. The results it attains come in two ways, first, from the outward effect upon the world and, second, the reflex personal effect upon the actor himself. All its ceremonies and repetitions work to this end. The reverent attitude, the repeated prayers and piety-breathing words are both contagious and reflexive in action. They appeal to all observers and they work upon the worshipper too. Military department operates in like manner; it affects the peer and the doer. That this is so, but let a well set up soldier pass before our eyes and we will see. All spines straighten and, shoulders go back, and the man too knows and feels it. It moves his pride and self respect and he feels worthy of his department. For this multiple effect, military department is a thing of far-reaching power. The reasons for its observance are sound. "Men live more by example than even by reason." Nor is it any 'mad commentary' upon mankind that it imitates in this; for, example is action and action—is the finest most attractive thing in nature. This power of military department for influencing others constitutes for the officer its strength and value. Leading, influencing is the officers' business. If he is military, correct gentlemanly, precise in his deportment, he affects his men to the same thing, you will see it in the company, battalion or regiment. The commander of men who neglects it is a fool.

From a consideration of its object we may arrive at a fair conclusion as to what constitutes military or does not constitute department.

The object of military department is the preservation of such agreeable relations between military men as will secure the smooth, orderly, courteous, prompt and efficient discharge of business. Whatever in personal or official conduct conduces to this end is military department and the duty of the soldier; what does not, is nothing, empty form, not military department.

The element of promptness is of the first importance and the reason is plain—1st. If it is war, the enemy will beat you while you are dawdling. 2nd. If it is peace, you waste the time not of yourself alone but of every man you are called upon to work with. If you are the captain of a company of 100 men and you are two minutes late for drill you have wasted 120 minutes—two hours of the government's time divided up among those 100 men.

For an orderly and agreeable discharge of duty, as a prime element courtesy must enter; for an efficient discharge, a sense of duty, a punctiliousness in rendering to others what is due them and a firmness in requiring of them what is due us.

These four things, promptness, courtesy, sense of duty and firmness, constitute the worth and the dignity of military department. Of the second element, "Courtesy," say the Army Regulations, par. 4, "is indispensable to discipline; respect to superiors will not be confined to obedience on duty but will be extended on all occasions." This regulation speaks a volume in three lines. To attempt to add to or explain it is but to take from its clearness scope and strength. I may only remark that it shows the wide range of conduct outside of the official, that military department touches. In military courtesy the soldier can never be "off duty."

Military department excludes both looseness and martinetery. Of looseness I will not speak. The "easy" officer or soldier is no soldier and not the subject of this talk. As to martinetery it is military department gone mad. No madman should have anything to do with directing or supervising the lives or conduct of others. A martinet is a madman left in military authority; nothing else. He is a worse curse to the military service than a fanatic is to religion. Unfortunately he is often pointed to as an example of military department because he shows its extreme. Extremes are fair examples of nothing.

Military department is again nothing less than the outward visible mark and sign of the soldier's discipline, his training, his preparation and of his heart and fitness for his work. It is at once the means and the exponent of discipline, that thing which the world is coming more and more to recognize as above money and above price, the basis of all national strength and power; there is none other. Power does not rest in superior numbers, nor a just cause, nor in greater riches for even in a willingness to fight, but in discipline that force which directs all efforts to one end. Military department in its best sense stands for this, for discipline.

Whether we are instructing our soldiers in the military art or our sons in the daily duties of their lives, there is one thing that we always try to inculcate. It is self-respect. Ask yourself what in your common experience as a soldier oftenest and most regularly leaves you with the greatest feeling of self-respect. Is it not the consciousness of having adhered upon any occasion to a worthy, becoming dignified military department in whatever you have had to do? I feel sure it is. It is preeminently the means of imparting to men that prime quality of the soldier, self-respect. For this there is nothing else that comes near it, not more pay, not better food, nor less work, not coddling nor all the liberty that the most exacting can demand.

Finally, gentlemanliness is inseparably connected with military department. It matters not who he has been or from what class he comes, the officer who but tries to be military

BISHOP HONDA GIVES LECTURE

Many Local Japanese Ministers Gather at Meeting For Instruction.

Bishop Honda, who arrived on the last steamer from the States, gave the local Japanese ministers a most instructive talk yesterday in the Japanese Y. M. C. A. building on Kukui street. Many of the local Japanese ministers have never been to the States and the lecture, by Bishop Honda, as to the status of the Christian church on the mainland gave them an insight to things of which they had no previous knowledge.

The Bishop referred to the popular laymen's missionary movement as another evidence of the growth of the church along wholesome and intelligent lines. This great movement is an eloquent argument against the criticism so often hurled against the church, to the effect that the churches are composed mostly of women and children. The laymen may not always be on hand in large numbers when the sabbath bells ring, but they are usually in their places and meeting their responsibilities when duty demands it.

The Bishop is a fluent speaker and every word of his lectures is of interest. He will preach in the South King street church tonight.

POSTER PRIZE FOR SEATTLE

Committee Makes Selection After Careful Study of Designs.

The floral parade poster design prize has been awarded. It goes to Maring & Blake of Seattle.

The committee composed of D. Howard Hitchcock, J. T. Warren and Ed Towse gave the poster copies that were submitted a most careful examination and the selection went to the one that represents a girl in a green robe in the fashion most in effect here in the islands, and festooned nearly to her feet with a lei of leaves. The figure is standing beneath a palm tree with the whole representing a typical island scene.

There were quite a number of other designs offered but they fell short of what was desired by the committee, some containing too much coloring and others not enough, while others took on the complexion of advertisements to such a degree that they could not be considered.

The awarding of the prize to Seattle is quite satisfactory as it is thought that it may have a good effect in the way of bringing Hawaii more vividly before that part of the world.

THIS LEPER IS RECOVERING.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 4.—Mrs. Providencia Masagni, who was removed to quarantine last May suffering with leprosy, has improved to such an extent, according to a report by Thomas L. Rickardson, quarantine physician, that she may be completely cured by Christmas.

In his department, thereby appears and in fact is made more of a gentleman. Consult again your observation and experience; you will find this true. This effect alone would justify us in the observance of a far more elaborate military department than we do observe; for there is nothing else, absolutely nothing, not better social standing, nor brains, nor knowledge, not even bravery, that the soldier no much demands in his officer as being a gentleman. It is for this reason that the Articles of War and military customs everywhere do not allow you to separate the words officer and gentleman. It is for this reason that until recently when war became a real science, the Englishman's idea of being an officer was almost filled to being a gentleman. It was for this reason that the German Emperor could and did a few years ago declare the officers of his army of the grade of nobility. Gentlemen, you see the lesson.

I have now given you the reasons, the grounds, the general outlines and where you can find the details of military department. Study up and practice for yourselves those details.

Ask Her This Question

"Do you know of any woman who ever received any benefit from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?"

If any woman who is suffering with any ailment peculiar to her sex will ask her neighbors this question, she will be surprised at the result. There is hardly a community in this country where women cannot be found who have been restored to health by this famous old remedy, made exclusively from a simple formula of roots and herbs.

During the past 30 years we have published thousands of letters from these grateful women who have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in all that time have we published a testimonial without the writer's special permission. Never have we knowingly published a testimonial that was not truthful and genuine. Here is one just received a few days ago. If anyone doubts that this is a true and honest statement of a woman's experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound write and ask her.

Houston, Texas.—"When I first began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had been sick for three years with female troubles, chronic dyspepsia, and a liver trouble. I had tried several doctor's medicines, but nothing did me any good.

"For three years I lived on medicines and thought I would never get well, when I read an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was advised to try it.

"My husband got me one bottle of the Compound, and it did me so much good I continued its use. I am now a well woman and enjoy the best of health.

"I advise all women suffering from such troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. They won't regret it, for it will surely cure you."—Mrs. Bessie L. Hicks, 819 Cleveland St., Houston.

Any woman who is sick and suffering is foolish surely not to give such a medicine as this a trial. Why should it not do her as much good as it did Mrs. Hicks.

FORT SHAFTER NEWS

Privates Patrick Long, Company F; Frank H. Smith, Company G, and William Snapp, Company H, who were selected as dining-room orderlies in connection with the camp of instruction for militia officers, have been detailed on special duty in the same line by special orders from headquarters. These men will stand reveille and 11 o'clock p. m. inspection of quarters.

Orders Changed.
The special orders for Privates Jesse Nuckols, Company E; Harney Okrey, Company F; Frank Miller, Company G, have been amended, and instead of these men being excused from all calls they will stand reveille and 11 o'clock inspection of quarters.

Bowling.
The game of bowling is getting to be a popular game at this post. Each afternoon and evening the men of the different companies get together and some good scores are made. Private Brown of Company G is in excellent form and makes some high scores. Bowling should be made a competitive game between the different posts on the island, as well as baseball or any other sport. The Y. M. C. A. could possibly furnish a few good players.

Plans are already under way to repair the alley at this post, and when this is done and some new balls and pins purchased, then Fort Shafter will be a fine place to hold tournaments.

Guard Mounting.
Owing to the fact that Company E is not in the post, guard mounting is making a rather hard strain on the men of the different companies. Each day for three days, Companies F, G and H mount the whole guard company at a time. This means that instead of three, four or five men from each company going on guard, the entire guard of about seventeen men comes from one company. Some of the men are "getting in" but three nights, and this, with other regular duties, makes it hard on the men.

Field Practice.
In spite of the rain that has been very much in evidence for the past few days, making the roads muddy and hard to travel, Company G took its regular weekly hike on Tuesday. The company formed in light marching order and at 7:30 a. m., under the command of Captain Estes, left the post. The subject was a difficult one, but worked out all right. It was to be assumed that the reserve was stationed at Pearl City, with one battalion located at Fort Shafter and the enemy somewhere in the vicinity of Diamond Head. Information was received that the enemy had sent out parties into Kalih Valley and that they were making maps of the surrounding country. Company G, acting as the battalion, was ordered to either capture or drive out the enemy from the valley.

Up Kalih Valley.
The company, in column of squads, marched up the Honolulu-Pearl City road to where the different roads lead up the valley. Advance guards were sent out and every precaution was taken to surprise the camps, were any located. After marching about four miles up the valley a camp was discovered, and part of the company, under command of Lieutenant Chilton, was sent out as flankers and to surprise the camp from an unexpected direction. The remainder of the company kept the road to shut off retreat. After marching through a gully and fording a creek, Lieutenant Chilton's party came up directly in back of the camp. A line of skirmishers was formed and a charge made. This was done successfully. The camp proved to be that of the engineers, but it no doubt proved helpful in the experience.

Return Home.
After this was done the company formed and returned to the post. The march was not hard and the company arrived at the post about 9:30 a. m., wet and muddy, but the swimming tank is close at hand, and the men made good use of it.

Company H Hikes.
With blanket rolls and full field equipment, Company H made its weekly hike on Tuesday. Under command of Captain Mearns, the company left the post about 7 a. m. It went down through Moanalua Park and took the railroad up into Kalih, where the men switched off and followed the road up Kalih Valley. The company was instructed in field practice and returned to the post. The men were more or less tired and muddy, having carried the blanket roll during the trip.

ROOSEVELT AND LABOR LAW

Tells Hearers Whole Industry Should Pay for Deaths and Accidents.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 1.—Colonel Roosevelt ended his Kansas invasion with an address in Kansas City, Kan., shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, and then crossed the Kaw River to plunge into an active day on the Missouri side.

His address in Kansas City, Kan., was delivered before an assemblage composed chiefly of workmen. He endorsed the passage of a Federal workingman's compensation act, which is one of the chief planks in the present Kansas Republican platform.

Colonel Roosevelt explained that Government supervision of industry would not mean cutting of wages, but the improvement of working conditions. He continued:

"Take such questions as what is called the employer's liability. I do not like that expression, because I think the term should be 'the compensation of employes for injuries.'

"I feel very strongly that in every industry where there is the slightest risk of life or limb, that in the event of loss of life or injury we should not leave it to lawsuits to determine what shall be done, and least of all should we allow the whole weight of the burden to fall upon the shoulders least able to bear it.

"If a man is killed in an industry, instead of leaving his widow and children to bear the whole burden, I would have it distributed over the whole industry by making the employer pay a certain amount of compensation. It is not fair that a man working on a railway, who loses an arm, should pay all the penalty by being crippled all his life while the railway pays nothing.

Pleads for Women Workers.
"It is not fair that a girl working in a factory, which renders her liable to suffer injury, shall go on in life maimed and no one else bear the burden for her. The burden should be distributed when a working man is injured or killed in his employment.

"There should be no question of responsibility. He should receive compensation for the injury he has suffered, and if he is killed his family should receive such compensation. It should be the duty of the Government to see that he is paid, too. He should not be left to bring a lawsuit.

"We should have the compensation act so fixed that the wage worker's child gets his share and none of it should go to a man who gets him into the lawsuits in connection with it.

"I do not want to penalize the corporation by making it pay an excessive amount. I want to see that what is paid goes to the injured man and to the injured man's family. Therefore I want to eliminate the lawyer totally from the transaction.

"I am emphatically for progressive legislation as regards the control of the corporation and as regards the adjustment of our relations with the corporation. But friends do not forget that no legislation will ever avail unless we have the right type of men and women on whose behalf the legislation is invoked."

"That is the keynote," shouted a man in the rear of the audience.

"Yes, that is the keynote," continued Colonel Roosevelt.

Character Needed.
"Do not trust any man who tells you that any change in the law will bring about the millennium. That is some distance off yet. Do not trust him if he tells you that any system of law will serve as a substitute for both men and women doing their duty in the position which they occupy."

"I want to see the woman's burdens lightened as far as possible. I have no sympathy for the man who is always complaining about the social injustice to which he is exposed, and at the same time is in idleness while his wife takes in washing."

"I think we all know certain men to be found about the corner grocery and in saloons who declaim on the injustice of our present civilization, but somehow leave their wives to do all the work for that particular 'workingman.'

"It is well to think of one's rights, but it is still more important to think of one's duty."

"Do not misunderstand me. There are plenty of people, plenty of wealthy men who will seize on what I have said and say, 'that is what I have told you—it depends upon the individual!'

BIG PREHISTORIC FISH PETRIFIED IN TUNNEL

JACKSON, Sept. 10.—Giant petrified fish of prehistoric times have been found in a tunnel of the Bonvier mine in Calaveras county. The Bonvier is a gravel mine and has been worked for years.

In digging an extension to the tunnel the miners struck what appeared to be cement, but after they had gone through the men discovered that they had broken into a large fish. It proved to be 37 feet long. The scales, fins and all were perfect. A short distance farther another petrified fish about 15 feet long was found.

One of the New Hats Turned Up In Front

THE very latest hat turned up smartly in front is here illustrated by a pretty chorus girl from "Girles," the Frederic Thompson summer production. The hat is made of the new metallic braid, and the willow plume is placed rakishly at one side.

Seen at the English Race Tracks Don't Be Lazy With Your Correspondence

An odd effect in black and white was recently seen at the races, in which a gown of lustrous black moire was draped tunic fashion with a white crape shawl.

A GOOD LETTER WRITER HAS NO TROUBLE IN MAKING FRIENDS.

WHEN you reflect on your own pleasures when you receive a letter it is easy to guess that of others when they hear from you.

The art of letter writing is one of the greatest a woman can have, for it gives perhaps the most pleasure of any.

It is also a sure way of making friends. A little note sent at the right time means everything in the world to people.

Do not let yourself grow lazy as regards your correspondence. Answer letters promptly and you will save yourself tedious excuses and your friend's hurt feelings.

Never write personalities in a letter unless they are utterly without sting. Even the most discreet of people are careless about their letters and apt to leave them lying around.

Never write mournful notes when you have the blues. That is selfish and infinitely worse than telling your troubles because you forget words, but a letter lives until it is destroyed and repeats over and over again inked words of doleful sentiments.

Try to make the person you write to feel happier after she has read your letter than before. Use tact and kindness in whatever you have to say, and never, never, quarrel in writing.

Be sure to remember the different members of the family in closing. People are flattered to think they are remembered and occasionally say nice little things about them.

Do not write illegibly. Take your time and write a shorter letter, but do not make it a Chinese puzzle. Nothing is more exasperating than to have to decipher lazy, careless handwriting. Reading a letter under these circumstances becomes anything but a pleasure and defeats its own end.

When hanging pictures don't drive in nails at random, but seek out the crevices between the bricks with a drawing needle. If the needle won't penetrate the wall don't try to drive in the nail, but seek another spot for it. In this way trouble is saved and also damage to the wall paper.

Zinc is easily cleaned with whiting and water mixed to the consistency of cold cream.

BASEBALL AT NEWPORT IN BATHING COSTUME

Miss Eleanor Sears Is Said to Have Been Organizer of Mixed Team.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 2.—"Who organized the mixed baseball team at Halley's Beach here two Sundays ago?" is the question being asked at the social gatherings in the cottage settlement. It is generally believed Miss Eleanor Sears of Boston was the organizer, for she was the star pitcher on the sands of the beach and none of the ladies could find her curves.

The team was regularly organized, and when the bathers had finished and left the beach the baseball playing started, the game lasting for an hour or more with the players of both sexes in their bathing costumes. The teams as made up included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas, Mr.

and Mrs. William Goadby Loew, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Biddle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scott Burden, Mr. and Mrs. Paulding Foadick and others.

Miss Sears scored several home runs and Mr. Biddle was the only player who seemed to be able to find Miss Sears' curves. The ladies slid bases just like the men and ran the bags splendidly, according to an eyewitness, who gave the whole secret away today. Miss Sears captained one side and Mrs. Norman Whitehouse the other.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—Mrs. Andrew Branderberger, sixty years old and weighing 170 pounds, swam five miles today in the height of one of the heaviest rainstorms in this city's history. She swam from the east end of the Eads bridge, in the heart of the business section, to the St. Louis Altemheim, at 5408 South Broadway.

Love may be blind, but the girl's little brother sees things.

Rules For Sea Bathing

HOW TO DERIVE BENEFIT FROM YOUR DIP IN THE OCEAN.

THE reason why some women are benefited by bathing and others are not may be found in the manner in which different women take their ocean baths.

When one has not been in the ocean for a long time one should go in for only a few minutes at a time, gradually increasing the length of the bath.

Do not go in at all on a damp or windy day. The bright sun is as much of a tonic as the water.

Before and after the bath lie down on the sand and enjoy the sun, being careful to shield the head with an umbrella. Do not eat either directly before or directly after bathing.

Bathe in the morning whenever possible.

Do not wear corsets in the water, or any tight belt.

When you enter the water wet your shoulders and chest thoroughly.

If you wish to get the full effect of the bath do not use the spray afterward, but merely wipe yourself dry with a towel, leaving the salt to penetrate into the system.

Never stay in the water after you are chilled, but get your circulation back immediately by running up and down the beach.

A nap after the bath, followed by the noon meal, will be found a beneficial arrangement.

SPINACH FRITTERS.

Take one pound of spinach, a pinch of carbonate of soda, yolks of two or three eggs, half an ounce of butter, pepper and salt, breadcrumbs, frying batter and slices of pickled gherkins.

Wash the spinach and put in a saucepan without more water than has adhered to the leaves. Boil till it is tender with a pinch of soda and a little salt. When the spinach is cooked drain it thoroughly and rub through a sieve into a basin. Take the yolks of two or three eggs and work into the spinach, also a tablespoonful of butter, pepper and salt to taste and add a squeeze of lemon juice. Form the mixture into flat, round cakes, dip into frying batter and cook in boiling oil till a golden color. Drain the fritters till dry and crisp on paper by the fire and serve with a garnish of pickled gherkins and cut into thin slices.

CHEESE STRAWS.

Take two ounces each of grated cheese, butter and flour, cayenne.

Rub the butter into the flour, add the cheese and cayenne and work all into a paste. Roll out to one-quarter of an inch thick, cut into thin strips three inches long and bake. Tie in bundles of four on a stick with string and serve cold.

SEARCH IS ON FOR JOHN D'S FATHER

Relatives Determined to Find Sire, Dead or Alive, of Oil King.

NEWBURGH, Sept. 9.—That hundreds of John D. Rockefeller's relatives have been conducting a secret investigation to learn whether the oil king's father, William Avery Rockefeller, is still alive, and that they possess information which leads them to believe he is living in a western city, were facts brought out this afternoon at Newburgh at the annual reunion of the Rockefeller association of the United States, of which John D. is not a member.

Stetted by the refusal of John D. Rockefeller and his sister, Mrs. William P. Ruid of Cleveland, to fill in the spaces in the genealogy blank reading "father's place of residence if alive," and "father's place of burial if dead" and "date of death," and settle the famous mystery, Dr. Henry O. Rockefeller of Jerome street, Brooklyn, a cousin of John D. far removed, and secretary of the association, instituted an inquiry by mail to learn the desired details. The strange reply received from one of these, William Avery Rockefeller, points, he believes, the answer to the question raised three years ago.

The investigation is also being pursued by a man now employed by John D. and his brother, William Rockefeller, to write a history of the Rockefeller family. This man is Aaron B. Lewis, a handwriting expert of New York. Lewis, according to the declaration of Doctor Rockefeller, plans to get his book into shape upon the point concerning John D.'s father, when he will put the matter squarely before him, William Rockefeller and Mrs. Ruid.

"We are about to publish a book on the Rockefeller family," said Doctor Rockefeller. "It will appear in about a month. I feel that we are on the right track at last, and that it will be proved that a William Avery Rockefeller, living in a small western town, is John D. Rockefeller's hidden father."

SHERMAN MEETS DEFEAT

(Associated Press Cable.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—One startling result of the primary elections today was the defeat of Vice-President Sherman in his own district, in spite of which Timothy Woodruff predicts that he will be elected as temporary chairman of the State convention to assemble at Saratoga on Tuesday next.

Sherman will attend the convention at the head of the delegation from the First Oneda district, while Colonel Roosevelt, who will contest the election and the control of the convention with him, will come at the head of the Nassau delegation.

Today was an exciting day in the Empire State struggle between the Rooseveltians and the Old Guard partisans.

Chairman Griscom of the State central committee, who is a Roosevelt man, claims 570 of the 1915 delegates to the convention are for Roosevelt for temporary chairman, against Vice-President Sherman. This claim of a small margin for victory is just about matched by the other side, which claims 560 votes for Vice-President Sherman.

PHONE COMPANY BRIBER ON TRIAL
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 20.—Theodore V. Halsey, general agent of the Pacific States Telephone Company, will face his judges tomorrow on charges of bribery, made against him over three years ago in connection with the general bribery scandals of the San Francisco supervisors. Halsey had ten indictments returned against him early in 1907, being charged with having bribed the supervisors to favor his company against the Home Telephone Company. He fled to Manila, but was arrested there by secret service officers. Detective Burns meeting him in Honolulu on his way back and bringing him here.

SOUTHERNERS LYNCH ITALIANS.
TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 20.—Gastagne, Picarotta, Angelo and Albano, four prominent Italians of this city, who have been conspicuous during the strike of the cigarmakers, were today taken from the charge of deputy sheriffs and lynched. It was charged against them that they had been accessories to the recent shooting, in which a number of the strikers were wounded.

The lynching of these men has recalled the trouble that followed the lynching of a number of Italians in New Orleans some years ago, for which Italy demanded reparation and over which incident the relations between the two countries were strained almost to the point of war.

BRYAN OBJECTS TO DAHLMAN.
LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 20.—William Jennings Bryan today bolted the Democratic party of his State, announcing in an authorized interview that he would not support Dahlman, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Nebraska. Mr. Bryan bases his objection to Dahlman on the fact that the latter is not in favor of local option or prohibition.

Dahlman was nominated at the State convention that refused to accept the local option plank presented by Bryan.

HAMILTON CLUB NOW SPLIT.
CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—The board of governors of the Hamilton Club has accepted the resignation of Senator Lorimer, tendered because of the request of the board that he return an invitation sent him to attend a dinner given in honor of Colonel Roosevelt, who had refused to sit at the same table as Lorimer. As a result of the incident, a new club is to be started, founded by members of the Hamilton Club who have likewise resigned owing to the Roosevelt incident.

PROGRESSIVES DOWN TAWNEY.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 20.—The returns from the State primaries so far indicate that Sidney Anderson, progressive candidate for nomination to the House of Representatives from the First District, has defeated Jas. A. Tawney, the standpat candidate for reelection. The four insurgent Congressmen from this State have been renominated.

SHORT STORIES FOR EVENING HOURS

HER STARTLING COLOR SCHEME.

"Have you ever noticed," inquired young Mrs. Allison aggrievedly, "that if there is one particular point of your reputation which is specially dear to you some perverse fate inevitably leads you to destroy it?"

"What a pessimistic theory," commented the fluffy-haired blonde.

"Really, Celeste, you ought to take a tonic!"

"My dear," said young Mrs. Allison, loftily, "you may sniff if you please, but the next time you catch yourself talking to some one who has always spoken admiringly of the purity of your English, or when next you hear yourself making sarcastic remarks to an old friend who has flattered you on the beauty of your disposition, just recall my theory."

"Very likely I shall," said the fluffy-haired blonde, coolly. "But tell us all about your latest mishap and ease your mind."

"You see," said young Mrs. Allison, rolling up her embroidery, "there is nothing that tickles my vanity so much as to have any one compliment me on my sense of color harmony which I show in my clothes. Every once in a while some kind acquaintance repeats to me some pleasant remark on the subject made in her hearing and cheers me on."

"Only last week I was told that Mr. Stowe—that dark, aesthetic-looking artist, you know—had said I displayed the nicest taste in color combinations he had seen in America. I positively strutted for days after I heard that." She sighed and stirred her tea in silence.

"Well," demanded the fluffy-haired blonde, impatiently, "what troubles you then?"

"It was yesterday," said young Mrs. Allison, taking up her tale of woe with resignation. "The left shoulder of my new spring suit has never been just right, so I decided to take it back to the tailor and see if he couldn't fix it. I wanted to wear it to a recital last night and thought if I took it down myself directly after luncheon he might get it done in time. You all know that suit," she added. "Bright cobalt blue—you remember?—chiffon broadcloth."

"The others nodded.

"Well," went on the victim of circumstances, "it was a warm day and my blue cloth dress to the suit was too heavy and I wanted to go straight from the tailor's to an afternoon affair at the Loyds', so I put on my coral foulard and carried the blue coat. It looked horridly, but the tailor's wasn't far off and I decided to risk it."

Just as I was ready to start, Mother Allison ran across, looking hurried, and with her helicopter wrap over one arm.

"Celeste," she said, "I remembered that you were going to the tailor's this afternoon and I thought I'd ask you to take this with you and have him put on new buttons. I've just discovered how worn they are and he can't match it without the color."

Young Mrs. Allison paused tragically.

"Of course," went on the injured one with forced calm, "of course, I took them both! When I got on the car with my coral gown and my bright blue coat and Mother Allison's helicopter wrap, the conductor looked as if he wanted to laugh. I'd have complained to the company if he had, but my nerves were so ragged! I went in and took the only vacant seat and when I looked up it was to recognize the aesthetic Mr. Stowe beside me!"

She passed again. There was a murmur of sympathy from her listeners.

"I couldn't get up and jump off the car," she went on, "so I sat and answered Mr. Stowe's polite remarks and ignored his shocked glances. How I hated that man for daring to exist! I was painfully aware, of course, that my rainbow clothes made my complexion a sickly green, but I was too mad even to explain to him!"

"Mr. Stowe assisted me off the car

NIGEL JACKSON WOULD RUN KAOO BEFORE KING ARRIVES

MARATHON KID HAS PADDY WALSH TO TRAIN HIM—MEETING TO BE HELD AT WHICH ARRANGEMENTS WILL BE MADE FOR RACE.

Marathon Jackson was seen last night in connection with the proposed race with Kaoo. "Yes, sir," remarked the wonderful New Zealander, who so astounded the people of Hawaii a little over a year and a half ago, when he won the first Haleiwa marathon, "I was pleased to see that Kaoo's manager came through and accepted my challenge to a race over fifteen miles, and for a purse of $100 a side. Let me introduce you to my manager, Mr. Paddy Walsh; he is looking after my affairs just now." There was no need of an introduction, however, as the old Irishman, who won innumerable races in Australia years ago, was well known to the Bulletin man.

Once the runner, manager and newspaper man got together, there was much talk of what Jackson had done in the past against Kaoo. Jackson has it all figured out that he is too good for the old Waiataua Horse, and that if the proposed race is run about the middle of October, the native wonder will be beaten.

"I want to meet Kaoo's manager," said Nigel, "and then we can talk over the affair from start to finish. I will get $100 and put it up if Kaoo does the same. A race between us should draw a big crowd. I fancy the Athletic Park as the place to pull the race off at. However, the league grounds would do just as well if everybody wishes it so. I consider that I should have a chance at Kaoo over fifteen miles, and then, if I beat him, I should have a go at Soldier King, who is to arrive in Hawaii on October 24."

Jackson Is Determined. Paddy Walsh has arranged a schedule for Jackson's training stunts, and it looks like a railroad timetable. Every second of Nigel's time has been arranged for, and it he sticks to the figures that are made out, he can not but help landing in first in the fifteen miles race, with a margin of 19 2-5 seconds to spare!

Jackson is a determined man once he settles down to proper training, and as all thoughts of oxygen have been eliminated, the prospects are that the man who won three marathons will turn out on the track in better condition than he did when last he met Kaoo and a bunch of others at the league grounds early in the year. Kaoo is still down at Waiataua, but is kept in touch with things by Simerson, who is acting as the old champion's manager and trainer. Antone is working hard at his calling as a fisherman, and he is glad to hear that he will have a chance of going up against the Soldier Wonder, who is reported to be such a good man. Kaoo thinks he can lower the colors of the pride of the army, and he will have all Hawaii rooting for him in the most important race of his career.

Kaoo is a Wonder. It has been the regret of everybody that Kaoo was not taken in hand years ago and matched against the best long-distance runners in the world. The man is a natural-born runner, and even now, at forty-six years of age, he can beat everybody in Hawaii over the marathon distance. And as far as other distances go, the old fellow would make a huge success of the game if he were to run matches against other men at every distance from one hundred yards to the full marathon distance. It would be a safe bet that Kaoo would win over 90 per cent. of the races he took part in—as long as there were decent intervals between.

Anyone who saw Kaoo sprint the last hundred yards of the ten-mile race against Tsukamoto, the Japanese champion, must realize that the old man is very fast over the hundred.

Long-distance running has drawn large crowds to the different grounds, and now that a good man from the mainland is coming to compete, the game should boom along as if it were just starting here. "All the races here before have been between local men, and even then the interest has been well sustained.

The chance of seeing Antone Kaoo go up against a man of Soldier King's reputation should be grasped by everybody on Oahu and the other islands, too; the race should be a beauty, and all Hawaii will pin their faith on Kaoo.

Paddy Walsh and Simerson will get together tomorrow or the day after, and then the details of the race between Kaoo and Jackson will be seen to.

COMING EVENTS. Secretaries and managers of athletic clubs are invited to send in the dates of any events which they may be getting up, for insertion under the above head. Address all communications to the Sporting Editor, Bulletin.

AQUATICS. CANOE RACE ON SATURDAY

HAOLE CREW AND KONAS WILL TRY AGAIN

Everybody Resting Up After Regatta Day—Healanis to Settle Down to One Year's Hard Work.

There is much speculation as to how the haole crew of canoe paddlers will fare with the Kona bunch of huskies when they meet on the harbor next Saturday. The youths from Waikiki feel confident that if they had the Prince's canoe on Regatta Day they would have figured nearer the first place than third.

The Kona men, on the other hand, think that the canoe made little difference, and they are going to do their best to defeat the haoles once more. It may be that the men from the Big Island are right in their guess, but there is sure going to be a great struggle before the race ends. Things have quieted down a lot at the boat sheds, and except for the usual bunch of men who are trying to keep in shape all the time, there is not much doing.

The Healanis are going to put in extra licks this coming year, and when they have mastered the new stroke and have secured crews from which to pick, the Myrtles will have to look to their laurels. The new blood that has been introduced into the club will not be so green at the game by this time next year, and then the Healanis will not only see the clean sweep as they did last Saturday, but they will make their opponents fight hard to avoid defeat.

The regatta was a very successful one, and although some of the races were rather one-sided, the sport was good and everybody had a good time. These annual reunions are always very pleasant, and they give men who do not see much of one another during the year, a chance to meet and talk.

Charlie Chillingworth and Frank Thompson are looking as well as possible, and the same may be said of the Prince and the Judge. The training stunts they did were just the thing for them, and it looks as if the race will become an annual affair.

DOTS AND DASHES. Many tennis players are getting into form rapidly, and by the time the Hall Cup is disposed of, there will be a fine lot of experts in the pink of condition for the Manoa electric light tournament.

On Sunday evening at the rink, George Wilkinson and M. Freitas will race on skates, and the go should be a good one.

The horses that are to race at Kapiolani Park in the near future are all doing hard work every morning on the track.

BASEBALL. LAUPAHOEHOE VS. HONOKAA

GREAT GAME PLAYED ON HAMAKUA COAST

Lap. Town Team Beats Honokaa Nine By 12 to 11—Big Luab Follows Game—Very Exciting Finish.

On Sunday last there was a fine game of baseball at Laupahoehoe, and the teams that put up the battle were the Honokaa nine and the Laupahoehoe Juniors. The home team won by a score of 12 to 11, and the finish was exciting enough for anybody. The Honokaa bunch tied the score by making two runs in their part of the ninth. Then the Laupahoehoe men woke up and scored one run in the last half of the ninth and won out as related.

The Honokaas started things going in the first, when they piled up three runs in quick order. The Lap Town brigade replied with two runs, and then, preventing the visitors from scoring in the second, added two more to show what they could do. Two more to Laupahoehoe in the third left the score at 6 to 3, and as the home team knocked out three in the fifth, things looked serious for Honokaa.

The visitors made two runs in their sixth, but Laupahoehoe came along with two in the lucky seventh, and the scoreboard showed 11 to 5. It was in the eighth that the Honokaas did their best work, and they hit up no less than four runs in that span. The home team failed to score in the last half of the eighth, and as Honokaa added two more runs in the ninth, the game looked as if it would run on for a week. However, the boys from the big gulch made the one run necessary to win in the last half of the ninth, and the game ended.

An invitation was extended to the visitors to attend a luncheon, and soon after the game was finished a big crowd sat down to a fine spread of pig and pol. Then the game was talked over again, and all the "ifs" discussed. Everybody had a good time, and the visitors left for home feeling that although they had been beaten, it was by a good crowd of sports. The lineups of the two teams were as follow:

Honokaa—Ceel Rickard, c.; Broderick, p.; John Rickard, 1b.; George Spencer, 2b.; Henry Rickard, 3b.; Pauline, ss.; Fred Clinton, rf.; Tom Rickard, cf.; Willie Meyer, lf. Laupahoehoe Juniors—Alfred Awong, c.; Carlos Nobriga, p.; Paul Nobriga, 1b.; Abel Ah You, 2b.; Seichi Mukai, 3b.; George Pohful, ss.; Harry Kanalu, rf.; John Akiona, cf.; Manuel Martinez, lf.

It was officially gazetted in Berlin that two cases of Asiatic cholera had developed at Spandau. Precautionary notices to the public were issued.

Four Games In Morning and Afternoon—Big Crowd Expected for Opening of Second Series—Two Umpires.

On Sunday next the Oahu Baseball League will start up its second series, and some good games should eventuate during the six weeks that the schedule is being pulled off. The Athletic Park has been in a bad way lately, owing to the heavy rains that have fallen, but it is hoped that by Sunday next the ground will be fit to play on.

There will be four games on Sunday—two in the morning and two in the afternoon. The morning double-header will be between the Asahis and the Palamas, and the Muhocka and the C. A. C. Juniors. The Juniors play good ball, and they always attract a big morning crowd.

At half-past one o'clock in the afternoon the Marines and Japanese Athletics will hitch up, and then at 3:30 the C. A. C. nine and the Portuguese team will try conclusions. The Oahu league has delayed starting its second series owing to various causes, but now everything except the weather is settled, and some good ball games should be seen at the park on Sundays.

The umpiring difficulty has been overcome, and Henry Chillingworth, assisted by Desha, will hold down the responsible job. "Kiddo" is a good, square and fair umpire, and the league is lucky to get him; Desha is also a good man, and he should do well.
