TRIED TO COMMIT SUICIDE

It turns out that there was another peculiar case Saturday in which a Chinese woman was concerned. The woman referred to is Ah Kiu, a well educated Chinese, the wife of Mon War, the Chinese clerk in Attorney Paul Neumann's office. Early Saturday morning she was found in her room near the corner of Nuuanu and Vineyard streets very close to death. She had tried to commit suicide by hanging. A mounted patrolman got to the house in time to save the woman's life. She is now at the home of her stepfather, Chong Mei Hing on Fort street, and the police are investigating the case as rapidly as possible. The woman is in a very dangerous condition. The story of Ah Kiu is substantially this. It was reported at police headquarters Friday morning that the woman was very sick. A captain of police was sent to the place. Ah Kiu consented to be removed to the hospital for treatment and got dressed while the captain waited. She was then taken to the father's house. The parents signified their willingness to the plan and the woman was removed to the hospital. She had not been there very long before Mon War put in an appearance and took the woman back to the house. On Saturday morning she tried to commit suicide. She says that her husband has been cruel to her. When Captain Holi tried to take her away from the house, Mon War did try to persuade her not to go but he was soon pushed aside.

Among the passengers in the Kinau for Maui and Hawaii ports this noon were the following: Mrs. J. A. Hassinger, A. B. Loebenstein, F. M. Wakefield, Col. Albert Whyte, Geo. Davis, A. Lindsay, Dr. Raymond, Sam Parker, J. T. Crawley, R. Ivers, Andrew Moore and C. G. Campbell.

THE BANNER PLANTATION

The three new pumps to serve the big irrigation ditch and reservoirs on Spreckelsville will start up the 15th of May. Mr. Lowrie is treating large fields with fertilizers after his mode at Ewa, which brought forth record yields and there is some splendid cane maturing. There is no doubt that in a little while, and for a little while, the old H. C. & S. Co. will displace any other plantation in the islands for amount of production.

THE OLAH LANDS.

Probably but One Plantation and Public Have Chance at Stock.

Mr. Thurston says there was no meeting of the Olah plantation promoters yesterday. There are a thousand and one details to be completed. So many landholders have to be negotiated with, it will take time to transact all the preliminaries.

It is admitted by Mr. Thurston that there is a question as to whether there will be one or two plantations organized out of the Olah lands. However, it might be taken as practically decided that there would be only one plantation.

Although applications for shares cover the capital stock over and over, it is intended to offer a large block for public subscription. The allotment would be made pro rata to individual subscribers.

J. L. Notley of Olah has sold his coffee plantation of 200 acres for $18,000 to the Olah Sugar Plantation. Mr. Notley will soon leave the district.

E. D. Baldwin and W. A. Hardy have spent a portion of the week in the new Olah section appraising the lands soon to be put on the market by the government.

Captain Fitzgerald, who bought the Borden land at Kaunama recently, has sold the same to Mr. Bashaw for $4000.

WHITE LABOR PROPOSITION

Colonel Whyte Submits His Plan to Planters' Association.

California Colonists on Ewa Plantation Will Give Testimony—Colonel Whyte Soon Goes on Mission.

Colonel Albert Whyte, promoter of the Hilo Railroad Company, left in the Kinau for the scene of operations. He goes to look after some preliminary details. After he returns from Hawaii, Colonel Whyte will leave immediately for the Northwest in the interest of his American labor proposition.

This morning Colonel Whyte delivered to C. Bolte, secretary of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association, the plan of action in this matter. As stated in the BULLETIN last week, this includes a form of agreement to be submitted to the men desired to be enlisted. Details are for the present confidential. They may be given out after submission to the trustees of the Association.

Colonel Whyte will take away with him on his mission letters from members of the California colony installed on Ewa plantation by Mr. Lowrie shortly before he removed to Spreckelsville. These letters will describe the experiences of the colonists and state their views upon the experiment as affecting themselves.

In conversation with a BULLETIN reporter before leaving for Hilo, Colonel Whyte spoke in substance as follows:

"Hawaii stands in a better position for labor than any State or Territory on the mainland. The twenty-five hundred miles of water intervening between here and there makes rather bad walking. This fact will go far toward eliminating the tramp element.

"The danger at present is from the quieting down of the labor scare by the Government's retracting of its refusal to grant permission for further supplies of Japanese contract labor. This respite is liable to cause a lull of interest in the movement to procure white labor from the Coast.

"In my opinion, this easing down of the situation ought to be taken as the opportunity for the work in the interest of American labor. Otherwise, when the change of system does come, the planters will be just as badly prepared for it as they were when the Government the other day announced its policy since abandoned.

"These islands may obtain good material for citizenship in a labor supply from the Coast, for the reason I have given. I tell you, I saw a Chinese camp on Maui for which I should not become responsible for all the sugar stock in the Hawaiian Islands. The Asiatic dress!"

Same Old Grievance.

The Road Supervisor, instead of sending a construction gang in the wake of the pipe layers of the Superintendent of Water Works, only sent the steam roller. In consequence the streets in question, from being among the cleanest and smoothest driving in the city, are now among the dirtiest and roughest—dusty in dry, muddy in wet weather, and with awful ruts at the crossings. It is the same evil that has existed from time immemorial in much greater cities, one branch of public service tearing up the expensive work of another, and proper repairs awaiting some indefinite time in the future.

Chinamen and others are being roped in at the Police Station for non-payment of taxes. It is a rather peculiar fact with many Chinese that they neglect to pay their taxes and then when they are arrested and confined at the Police Station, it does not take long for some friends to present themselves and pay the required amount.

PRESIDENT DOLE TO THE PLANTERS

President Dole kindly permits the publication of the text of his letter to the plantations on the matter of labor. It appears below. The deserts on which information is sought are those occurring the first three months of this year:

"Since the meeting of a committee of the Sugar Planters' Association with the Executive Council on the 17th inst., the President has received advices from the American Government which justify a change of the contemplated policy of the Hawaiian Government in regard to labor immigration.

"All applications for labor immigration permits filed before the end of this month, accompanied with the additional statements as heretofore requested in regard to desertsions and number and nationalities of employes, as of the 31st day of March last, will be considered.

"A further statement is also requested with such applications, showing any contemplated extension of present area of land devoted to sugar cultivation, and other particulars which deal with the actual necessities for the applications presented."

Case of Salvador.

The case of Salvador, a Spaniard, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on Moses Kahalehili during the early morning of April 1, came up for trial in the Police Court this morning after a delay of nearly a month, made necessary by the detention in the hospital of the native who was the victim of the assailant's knife.

Salvador stated that he was too drunk at the time of the assault to know if he committed it or not. The native went on the witness stand and testified to the assault. The sweater and the undershirt through which the knife had passed, were offered as evidence. Then the chest of the witness was bared at the request of the prosecution and the wound, an ugly gash across the breast bone, was shown. Judge Wilcox sentenced Salvador to six months' imprisonment at hard labor, saying that he would have made the term longer but for the fact that he had already been imprisoned for about a month. Drunkenness was no excuse for the use of a knife.

The Orpheum License.

Judge Perry has signed a decree in the matter of the petition of Chas. S. Desky for a writ of mandamus to compel the Minister of the Interior to issue a license for the Orpheum theatre. The petition is dismissed, and the alternative writ dissolved. Mr. Desky has the way open now to appeal to the Supreme Court. His demand is for a license to the end of the year for the fee of five dollars claimed by the Minister for a single performance. He holds that the tax imposed is excessive and therefore unconstitutional.

ANOTHER HORSE RACE.

Another race is on the tapis for Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Jim Quinn's Violin and Wm Norton's Directress are the horses; $400 the purse. The outcome of last Saturday's race was by no means satisfactory to either of the horse owners and they have decided to try it again, with the prospect that the public will witness one of the greatest horse races seen on the Kapolani park track. Quinn feels that the public has been harsh in its criticism of last Saturday's race, but it will take a good deal of criticism for him to lose any confidence in his horse.

Looking After Water.

The Superintendent of Water Works has been requested to report on a proposition made by John Ena, in regard to water rights and a reservoir site in Manoa valley. Also, on water rights in Pauoa valley now in the market."

W. O. Smith leaves for Lahaina in the Claudine this afternoon.

The Helene is expected in from Hawaii ports tomorrow morning with a full cargo of sugar.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods left for their home in Waimea by the Kinau this noon.

A surprise party was given Mrs. Craig in Pensacola street last night by a few of her intimate friends. It proved a very pleasant event. The occasion was the intended departure of Mrs. Craig in the Moana on a visit of three months to her old home in Canada.

Hit with a Belaying Pin.

The second mate of the Fresno presented himself at the police station this forenoon with the intention of swearing out a warrant for the arrest of the first mate on the charge of assault and battery. The poor fellow was covered from head to foot with blood that flowed from a deep wound on his head, caused, as he stated, by a belaying pin in the hands of the first mate. The two had gotten into trouble about a little matter.

While the man was awaiting for the warrant to be fixed up, the captain appeared and told him to be present at the consul's office at 1 o'clock. Then the captain and man went outside. Deputy Marshal Chillingworth sent an officer after the sailor who, when he appeared again, was of a different mind, stating simply that he did not care to make any fuss and also that the captain had promised to pay him off and free him from the ship. That was all he desired.

Profit Sharing on Spreckelsville.

Manager W. J. Lowrie has now eleven companies of Japanese working each a field of cane on Spreckelsville plantation upon the profit-sharing system. He allowed three Japanese all the time they required to go to Ewa to look into the system. When the delegates returned they took up the system eagerly with the result stated. Mr. Lowrie is ready to give the same privilege to laborers of any other nationality.

The Molooa Scheme.

It is authoritatively stated that the Molooa plantation scheme, Kanai, will not mature for some months to come. Even the promoters cannot know much about the proposition until they receive a report from M. D. Monsarrat, surveyor, who is now engaged in prospecting surveys. Then there will be a host of leaseholders with whom to treat.

Road Contract Awarded.

The contract for the second section of the Olah road has been awarded to J. E. Gamalielson at $7524. Other bidders were N. K. Lyman, J. D. Supa, H. Eldarts, J. P. Amaral and Sam Kumukau, their bids ranging from $7761 to $12,500.

Beach Boulevard Named.

What has been called the beach boulevard—the new shore road to Waikiki—has been named by the Executive as "Ala Moana."

Mr. Starkey Appointed.

Thos. M. Starkey has been appointed a member of the Board of Immigration. There is another seat yet to be filled on the Board.

SCHOONER FROM SAN DIEGO

Has Crew of Eight Men and Tonnage of Sixty-eight.

Comes Consigned to H. Waterhouse & Co.—Has Cargo of Fertilizer, Salt, Dry Fish, Etc.—Captain a Portuguese.

There arrived in port at about 10 a. m. today the trim little American schooner T. S. Negus, Frank J. Manha master, from San Diego, Cal., with a cargo of about sixty-five tons of fertilizer, salt, etc. She cleared from the port above mentioned on the 4th inst. but did not sail until two days later. A fine trip was the experience of the vessel. She is consigned to Henry Waterhouse & Co. The Negus is now anchored in the stream near the light-house.

The little schooner was at one time a pilot boat doing duty on the Pacific Coast. She had the same name when bought by the present captain and his brother during the Klondike boom. The Negus was counted one of the smartest vessels of her kind. She is built very much like a yacht and is a beauty throughout. There have of course been a great many changes in the interior of the vessel in order to make her a paying investment by carrying freight between Southern California ports and San Diego. The price paid for her was $3300.

The captain stated that he believed this trip of the Negus to Honolulu would be a losing proposition for his brother and himself. He only gets $4 per ton for the freight she has aboard and as there are but 67 tons aboard, the whole cargo stands the owners in about $282.

The Negus cleared from San Diego with nine men but one deserted just before leaving. This is an unnecessarily large crew for such a small vessel, her tonnage being but 68. To what use all these fellows could have been put is hard to see. The oldest man aboard is a gray bearded fellow who is down on the ships papers as being but 42 years of age. The others are all able bodied men from 32 to 45.

Captain Manha is a Portuguese. In speaking about his countrymen on these Islands he asked if it was possible for him to get freight enough to make it pay for him to trade between these Islands, which would go to show that there was some intention on his part of making Hawaii lei his home.

At the Orpheum.

There was an excellent attendance at the Orpheum last night. The various artists did their work well. Miss Myrtle Graham captured the house when she sang her favorite Italian song. She had already appeared three times but the audience demanded a fourth appearance. Jim Post was as full of life and fun as ever, calling forth laughter and applause. Miss Violet Dale in her dancing act was better than usual. Included in her act was a bit of gymnastic work that surprised the audience.

brought to the production of this great medicine the best results of medical research. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a modern medicine, containing just those vegetable ingredients which were seemingly intended by Nature herself for the allevia-riches the blood, tones the stomach and digestive organs and creates an appetite;

it absolutely cures all scrofula eruptions, boils, pimples, sores, salt rheum, and every form of skin disease; cures liver complaint, kidney troubles, strengthens and builds up the nervous system. It entirely overcomes that tired feeling, giving strength and energy in place of weakness and languor. It wards off malaria, typhoid fever, and by purifying the blood it keeps the whole system healthy.

and the men in the ranks have also told him their stories. His articles are the first notable articles on the great historical struggle around Santiago.

WITH the single exception of Napoleon's Russian campaign, there has never been a military expedition fraught with personal distress
equal to those endured by Shafter's army. The case is all the more striking
from the fact that after a most brilliant victory
the army was compelled to retreat in the face of an enemy more terrible than Spanish bullets. The physical wrecks of this army which had been spared by the Mausers
at Santiago reached Camp Wikoff, Long Island, between the 15th of August and the end of that month, and I consider it the happiest episode of my career as a writer that I was commissioned to go to Montauk and spare neither time nor expense nor labor in covering the camp from end to end in order to glean from the lips of participants of all ranks the true story of Shafter's campaign at Santiago.

The moment I stepped from the cars
into a throng and jam of war worn figures clad in stained and begrimed uniforms around the landing at Montauk, the 33 years that have elapsed since I marched with the conquerors of Petersburg, back from Appomattox over the blood stained course to the army landing on the James, were wholly obliterated. It seemed that I was a soldier again, touching elbows with heroes, thinking their thoughts and sharing with them the after emotions of events seldom finding parallel in the life of one man. From that time on until the camp was practically abandoned I lived among the soldiers, sharing the tents and the fare of officers and men. Around their campfires on the chilly nights and under the welcome shade of canvas in the heat of the August days they told me of the battle, made sketches of the position and explained the movements of the regiments, brigades, divisions
and the vantage ground of batteries.
There came together to take part in these recitals officers who had not compared notes since the fight of July 1.

Whenever there was doubt or controversy upon any point, absent officers or soldiers who could testify in the matter were summoned. Moreover, soldiers of every rank finding the strain of weeks lifted at last were in the mood to recall stirring incidents which, when passing, had left no impress except as they hurt or startled. In point of fact, I found the army emerging from a horrible nightmare and for the first time feeling that it was all over and time to take an account of what had happened.

I was conscious from the first moment of my entrance to Camp Wikoff that I was in the midst of a superior body of soldiers. The type I could recognize as having existed in 1864-5, but the army has kept pace with the march of improvement, and the ideal soldier of 1865 is the real and universal soldier of Shafter's regular regiments today.
There was no posing in the camp, no standing hat in hand to be gazed at and applauded as hero, but a bustling, dead earnest, soldierly activity, which,
with cool self control, was broken off long enough to sit down and discuss the details of the campaign. There was no difference whether the soldier interviewed was the leader of a battalion or a regiment or a commander of a brigade or division; no, not excepting the chiefs of the corps, two of whom were in command during my stay in camp—that is to say, General Shafter and General Wheeler.

As this is to be a story of the fighting
as the soldiers in line of battle remember it, it is not necessary to discuss moot questions, but I could not better preface the stories of the marvelous deeds of Shafter's army than by saying that it had a leader who in the opinion of a host of the best soldiers in the service was in every way worthy of it.
Whatever he may be or may not be,
whatever he may have or lack, he has qualifications for a high command.
William R. Shafter is no accident.

I was so fortunate as to pass a whole forenoon in General Shafter's headquarters tent the second day after he took

EVENING BULLETIN.

Published Every Day, except Sunday, at 210 King Street, Honolulu, H. I., by the BULLETIN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1899.

The interest taken in the matchless race indicates that Honolulu will have a sharp appetite for the June race meeting.

Stock dealing in its relation to the discussion emanating from the churches stands on just about the same basis as card playing.

Perhaps it is for the benefit of the territory that the stock market in Honolulu is a little slow.

There's no gainsaying that Col. Whyte as an advance of white labor doesn't waste any words in expressing his opinions.

When imperialism in the United States signifies in fact a positive foreign policy, the calamity howlers have little success in frightening the people.

One day the Advertiser "calls down" an esteemed contemporary for taking a fake as the basis for moralizing and the next day the Advertiser takes a fake as the subject for a wise editorial.

As a post or department commander Gen. Charles A. King is not a howling success, but there's not a man in the country who is unfair enough to offer any criticism on the general's work.

The Planters Association objects to matters between the Executive and itself being made public because it is a business affair and the public is not interested.

By no means the least important industry resultant of the war in Cuba is the manufacture of war relics. Blood stained machetes, bibles with flattened bullets in them and a hundred and one relics of army and navy conflicts may be had by the dozen or the hundred according to the supposed gullibility of a local market.

Senator C. D. Clark says the talk of Hawaii being made a colony of the United States is "alarmist talk." At what station on Senator Clark's line of thought do President Dole and his Cabinet get off?

American champions of Aguinaldo find great solace in saying, "Americans fought for national independence, why should the Filipino be condemned?"

Now the movement to establish a bank in Hilo takes definite shape. Thus the progress in financial circles keeps pace with the industrial development of the territory. While the Hilo bank is a direct result of the increase in the railroad and plantation operations of the big island it is by all odds a most important factor in guaranteeing the prosperity of the people living in Hilo.

Promoters of the Associated Charities plan will doubtless have to rest on the laurels already gained for some time to come. It is not an easy task to upset the customs of the various societies although it seems apparent that the proposed change will accomplish the greatest good to the largest number.

A Japanese admiral describing Sanmun Bay the center of Italy's sphere of action in China says: "The bay is very spacious, but for the most part it is exceedingly shallow. The only available places for anchorage are a space of one by five nautical miles off the south-western side of the bay and the part fronting the southern side of a small island named St. George, very nearly right in the centre of the bay.

FAKE ABOUT KILTS.

EDITOR EVENING BULLETIN:—The Advertiser gives a column of "funny" editorial to repeat a fake story about a Scottish society at Patterson, N. J., and the Y. M. C. A.

Comments were made on the story across the Atlantic only about two months ago, so that it has just the degree of embalmed mellowness to suit an Advertiser editorial today.

WELL LOOKED AFTER.
Officers of New Garrison Taking Strict Care of the Men.
An orderly of the battalion of the Sixth Artillery, forming the new garrison at Honolulu, has been going from house to house along the Waikiki road, seeking information and leaving a request for further information when such may be available. People are asked if they have been missing any green fruit. A number of the men had been taken ill from what was suspected as that cause. The major was determined to prevent the indulgence. People would confer a favor if they promptly notified headquarters of any instances of soldiers asking for or taking fruit without the asking. Also, of any sort of misconduct on the part of the men belonging to the command. This action shows the difference between the care taken of their respective men by regular and volunteer officers.

The Pali Road.
Superintendent Rowell says the building of the Pali road is being pushed with a large force of men. The work is being done by the Government, since the contractor has let go. There will be no stop made until the road is completed.

The Japanese rioting case was on all morning in the Police Court and is still on this afternoon. It will probably be two or three days before it is finished. Several witnesses have been examined but they are still a great many to be put on the witness stand.

In the Police Court this morning Piipilani Mitchell, charged with cruelty to animals, was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs. Miss Helen Wilder, the humane officer, was the principal witness for the prosecution. As the case was not a very bad one, the fine was made very light. Attorney De Bolt appeared for the defendant.

The band boys are still practising in the drill shed as no other place has yet been prepared for them. The main part of the shed was so hot that the boys have taken to the platform which they find very much more comfortable. It is not yet known how long the band will have to practise in the shed. A room for the music and surplus instruments is still retained in the old barracks.

SHAFTER AND HIS ARMY.

command of the camp at Wikoff, where I could witness his method of administering affairs calling for prompt and energetic action. The business of the administration being over, he devoted more than an hour to a general and off-hand elucidation of the difficulties of the Santiago campaign.

As to Shafter's army in the Santiago campaign, I could not help saying to myself again and again at Camp Wikoff that the equal of his corps as I saw it, barring the fever wrecks lying on the ground and in the hospitals, could not have been paralleled by any single corps in the Army of the Potomac in 1864. This notwithstanding the fact that at the beginning of the Wilderness campaign the Army of the Potomac was thoroughly reorganized and consolidated.

In the first place, this country has progressed more than a quarter of a century since that time. Military ideals have been fostered and followed up to their very highest point, and the very elements of choice American bone and blood and sinew and brain which went to the creation of the crack corps of 1864 have entered into the make up of those matchless regiments of regulars who stormed and carried the heights of El Caney and San Juan in the face of a foe the equal in courage, in equipment, in position, of any troops that ever stood for battle.

Shafter had the pick of the regular army with him at Santiago. This was stated to me again and again at Camp Wikoff, and I think no discrimination was intended against the regiments that were not there. The fact seems to be that those regiments which were selected happened to be without a single exception, up to the very highest standard of efficiency. The soldiers had passed through just the experiences in the west which would fit them for a hard campaign. They were well officered, well disciplined, rugged, "gritty" men. In the Army of the Potomac in 1864 the very best of the army corps had regiments and sometimes whole brigades of raw and untried material and scores and scores of green officers. One needed but to see the regulars in Camp Wikoff to recognize at once the fact that the veterans there had not evolved in a single month's campaign from the standard of the militia volunteer.

In the twenty and odd regiments whose camps I lingered round not a single one but what was commanded by a veteran of the civil war. In many cases these commanders were majors. The field officers above them, absent on account of wounds or promotion were war veterans, and in several instances the commanders held the rank of captain and were war Veterans. It seems that there are now something like 65 captains in the regular army who served in the civil war. The importance of all this will appear during the battle narrative, where the leaders will be named in connection with their war record.

General Shafter says that after Sampson located Cervera's fleet in the harbor of Santiago and had looked the ground over he cabled to Washington that an army of 10,000 men could take the city at one blow. Shafter was already getting together an expedition for the invasion of Cuba somewhere. He was directed to embark 10,000 men and proceed at once to Santiago. Owing to some difficulty in the way of forwarding certain supplies or other elements in the expedition to the point of embarkation at Tampa there were empty transports in the harbor after the 10,000 had gone on board. Shafter ordered these empty transports to be filled with troops, and as a result he took something like 16,000 or 17,000 men to Santiago. He said, and General Wheeler, who was present at the conversation, agreed with him, that had the expedition gone with 10,000 men it would have ended in a horrible disaster. In confirmation of the statement about embarkation is the story of the Ninth infantry, of San Juan fame. On the night that it embarked at Tampa an orderly dashed up to the headquarters with a message to the effect that if the Ninth regiment was not on board the transport within a limited time given it would be left behind at Tampa and not go to Cuba. The point was that the material which had been ordered forward to Tampa might arrive and be loaded ahead of the regiment, and so it was really a race between soldiers and some other necessary part of the expedition. The Fifth corps as it fought at Santiago on July 1 was as follows: WHEELER'S CAVALRY DIVISION. Sumner's Brigade.-3d U. S. cavalry, 4th U. S. cavalry, 9th U. S. cavalry (colored). Young's Brigade.-1st U. S. cavalry, 10th U. S. cavalry (colored), 1st U. S. volunteers (rough riders). There were only two squadrons of each regiment at Santiago, one squadron being left at Tampa with the horses and baggage.

FIRST DIVISION OF INFANTRY, GENERAL H. J. F. KENT. Hawkins' 1st Brigade.-6th U. S., 16th U. S., 71st N. Y., Pearson's 2d Brigade.-2d U. S., 10th U. S., 21st U. S., Wikoff's 3d Brigade.-8th U. S., 12th U. S., 24th U. S. (colored), GENERAL H. W. LAWTON'S SECOND DIVISION. Ludlow's 1st Brigade.-8th U. S., 23d U. S., 2d Mass., Miles' 2d Brigade.-25th U. S. (colored), 4th U. S., 1st U. S., Chaffee's 3d Brigade.-12th U. S., 17th U. S., 7th U. S.

Strength about 12,000 in line of battle. ARTILLERY AND MACHINE GUNS. Grimes', Parkhurst's, Best's and Capron's batteries, U. S. artillery, 4 guns each. Captain Watson's, 4 Hotchkiss guns. Lieutenant Parker's, 4 Gatling guns. These troops figured conspicuously in the battles to be described in the articles upon the Santiago campaigns. GEORGE L. KILMER.

The two-year-old son of W. L. Ferguson, of Bolton, Miss., had whooping cough. "After several physicians had prescribed for him, without giving relief," writes Mr. Ferguson, "I persuaded my wife to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first dose had the desired effect, and in forty-eight hours he was entirely free from all cough. I consider your remedy the best in the market, especially for children and recommend it at all times." 50 cent sizes for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., General Agents.

KAIMUKI.

This tract of most desirable Suburban property now being opened up with residence sites, lies about three miles from this city, in a northeasterly direction.

It has an elevation of over 200 feet above sea level, commanding a magnificent view of the Ocean, Koko Head, Manoa and Palolo Valleys, with the City of Honolulu, Ewa and Oahu Plantations, and Pearl Lochs, at its feet. It is entirely removed from all planting of rice or taro, thereby obviating the possibilities of ague and fever. Twelve broad streets give access to the property, and are crossed by six avenues. Seven of these Boulevards are now opened up, the balance in course of construction.

From its position it is entirely removed from the high winds and heavy showers of Manoa and Nuuanu Valleys, guaranteeing from its soil ocean breezes a salubrious climate.

A pumping plant, in the course of installation, settles the question of water, which will be furnished to purchasers of this property at Government rates; this flow of water being assured from two 12-inch wells which under measurement show nearly 4,000,000 gallons in twenty-four hours.

These lots contain an area of 15,000 square feet each, and are of two sizes—100 x 150 and 75 x 200.

TERMS: $400 per lot, $50 additional for corners, spot cash. $500 per lot, $50 additional for corners—$20 cash, and $10 monthly installments per lot.

THE BREW OF OLYMPUS.

THE "HOFFMAN," corner of Hotel and Nuuanu streets, claims to be the "Banner" resort for gentlemen and holds the flag. L. H. Dee, the proprietor, has attained success in his line, by specially supervising everything connected with his establishment. He now introduces to his patrons "Olympia Beer." This brew is from the "Capital Brewing Co." of Olympia, the capital of the State of Washington, and was received by the "Garonne." Mr. Schmidt, the leading spirit of this corporation is a practical Chemist and Brewer, and after years of search and investigation located his plant at Olympia, on account of the peculiar qualities of the water of the Tum Falls, a stream that is noted for its distinctive qualities of clearness, coldness and lack of mineral and decaying vegetable impurities. Pure beer can only be made with pure water, and Tum water is traditional in Washington with the Indians and original white settlers. The "Olympia Draught" is under the special control and agency of Mr. Dee and he invites his patrons and friends to a personal test and is willing to abide by their judgment on the merits of his latest venture.

ITEMS FROM HARBOR FRONT

W G Hall 10 miles east at 2:45 p.m.

The Alden Besse sails for San Francisco with a full cargo of sugar tomorrow morning.

The J A Cummins discharged her cargo of sugar into the Alden Besse in the stream this forenoon.

The Mariposa is due from San Francisco tomorrow morning early. She will bring several days' later news.

The schooner Lavinia sailed for Maunalei plantation this morning with a full cargo of lumber with which to begin plantation building.

Captain Benneche of the W H Talbot reports a pleasant trip from Newcastle. The cargo of coal, he has is consigned to order.

The Fresno sails for San Francisco this afternoon. She is at the old fishmarket wharf at the present time.

There was a stowaway on the Fort George, a white boy who thought he could find a more congenial atmosphere down here in Hawaii.

The American schooner H D Bendixsen came in from Newcastle with a full load of coal at about noon today. She had an uneventful passage.

The W G Irwin will not be able to get away for San Francisco until tomorrow sometime as she has been unable to get her last installment of sugar.

The schooner Waiakua will be unable to get away today on account of the large amount of cargo she will have to take. She sails tomorrow morning.

The Henry B Hyde sailed from Hilo for New York April 21, taking a cargo of 64,363 bags of sugar weighing 4040 tons and shipped as follows: Waiakua, 12,300 bags; Pepeekeo, 12,230; Hilo Sugar Co, 8880; Hakalau, 8787; Onomea, 16,320; Honou, 5846. The total valuation is $324,372.60.

The American four-masted bark Fort George, Morse master, arrived in port late this forenoon. She brings besides a very large cargo of general merchandise, 311 hogs and 8 horses. Light winds were experienced throughout the trip. The captain is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

morning. The ship has finishing discharging and is now in the stream. She will sail for Kahului to load in a few days and the men, not wishing to sail in her, took the very first opportunity that presented itself to desert ship. This leaves the captain very short handed.

The Iwalani and Kinau got away about the same time today. The Kinau left the wharf about four minutes after the Iwalani but when she got out of the channel she started after the latter with a will. There is no doubt that the Kinau will beat the Iwalani to Lahaina by a big margin as the latter boat is very dirty. Under ordinary circumstances she would give the Kinau a good tussle.
