PROGRESS.

The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, MAY 12 1894.

AT LAST.

A P. G. Plan to Get Coin

The taxes are to be raised. The Executive Council has considered the all important subject today. After having brought the country to ruin and made the government bankrupt the only salvation lies in an increased taxation. But now do you suppose it is contemplated to accomplish it? By adopting the income-tax! By taxing sugar or by changing the time of assessing sugar from June—when the crop is exported—to January, when the crop is here? No! and No! again! The popular (!) government of Hawaii proposes to raise the POLL-TAX so that we in the future will have to pay $7.00 a year instead of $5.00. What say you now you poor laborers and working men, who sport the annexation badge and shoulder the p.g. rifle? Hawaii for sugar, for the rich and for the classes! The poor be d——

NEARING THE END.

The Constitutional Convention

A proclamation has been issued from the great provisional President, Mr. Sanford B. Dole, calling the convention which is to frame a constitution for Hawaii together, on the 30th of May this year. We hesitate in noticing the somewhat remarkable coincidence, that the opening of Mr. Dole's convention takes place on the day, when "we decorate our graves." Perhaps Mr. Dole has overlooked the fact. Now, this convention, composed of a number of semi-educated, wholly incompetent men, is to frame a constitution which is supposed to be decidedly based upon American principles, and adapted so as to bring happiness and prosperity to this country. Some change is undoubtedly needed to ameliorate existing circumstances. The revolution any junta, when placed in power, by Mr. Stevens and the American troops, found a prosperous community, although the "hard times" felt all over the world had touched or fair shores. They found a happy and satisfied people, a stable government and a well-filled treasury. They may have found faults and misuses common to any government, but as a whole the country could celebrate Thanksgiving's day with an honest heart and without artificial exertions. The provisional government papers spoke on behalf of the junta in paternal although triumphant tones. The government was the guardian of the poor kanakas. The foreigners, who sympathized with and supported the kanakas were called "the scum of the earth," "needy adventurers," and the "devil's own." The "paterndl" government under Mr. Dole's presidium, assisted by L. A. Thurston—the ex-partner of the devil—was ready to place the treasury and the country on a sound footing, and a hearty Te Deum burst forth from the lips of the saintly crowd, who hold seats in the Central Union Church—and offices. And behold! the provisional government ruled the roost for fourteen months, and it disappointed one and all of its supporters, but not its enemies or opponents. It existed, not through the will of the people, not through the spontaneous desire of even a class of unselfish, truly patriotic men—no, it had to expend nearly a quarter of a million of dollars for the purpose of upholding a military oligarchy. It had to surround its trembling members with special guards, with spies and with the very scum of the earth, even as it surwith rounde its official buildings cannons and sandbags. The taxpayers money floated away on such measures of self-preservation while roads and wharves, public improvements and schools were all equally neglected. The uncertainty of affairs caused a wave of depression to sweep over the land. Store upon store closed up. Family after family sold out and left for pastures new. Starvation, want, and need stand the laboring classes in the face to day, but the p.g. sat high in office and allowed the money to roll, and roll on into the pockets of the needy adventurers who only wanted enough to pay their passage and get from the Hawaiian Republican Eldorado. But the day came, when it was learned that annexation was hopeless. At the same time it was learned, that there soon would be no more money to roll out from the treasury. So the wise men betook themselves to their secret chamber and they sent for Thurston and they said "Lorrin! where are we now?" And the man with the gigantic brain and a dime-museum record hummed to himself, "way up in the sky!" But aloud he said: "Form a permanent government. Drop the p. g. racket. Call a convention and become a republic and if you get two-thirds of the Hawaiian vote, I will guarantee you that Cleveland and Gresham will recognize you." And they were very much comforted and they sent out words to their slaves, the office-holders, and to their friends, the planters, and they said; "go out and threaten or or bulldoze or bribe the kanakas to vote, that we may have two-thirds of them on our register." And the office-holder looked stern and threatened, and the planter cracked his whip and promised golden acres and silver dollars, but the mule of a kanaka stood sullenly by and said: "I vote not against my Country, my flag and my sovereign. Starve me, punish me, throw me into the street, but I do not become Traitor to my native land as you, renegade American, has become when you forswore your allegiance to the Stars and Stripes for the purpose of gaining a paltry advantage in these islands." And Mr Dole and the office-holder and the planter grieved sorely, because they knew that they were beaten. And then the convention was called. The constitution that will never be submitted to the people for approval is ready. It provides for a most objectionable oligarchy and it will become a source of interest and amusement to the student of history. Many and difficult are the problems which have to be solved by the tinkers and shopkeepers who are to frame it. Japan demands equal rights for its residents here. The Chinese colony, paying one-fourth of all the taxes, insists in being recognized. The illiterate Portuguese superciliously declare that they propose to run the shop, while the white workingmen and mechanics who hold the guns and the fighting qualities dictate the future of the country. The Advertiser and the Cocoanut club entangle matters still more by insisting in the right of suffrage for white women while the Star nobly espouses the cause of its personal friends the 'wahines.' And, in the meantime, poor old Dole presses his hands to his aching head and exclaims; "Holy Smoke! what have I got into Holy! Poker! how am I to get out of it again!" And Lorrin smiles his wicked smiles, dives into the cash-office and counts how many bright dollars he, not the stockholders, have made out of the Cyclorama Company, the Volcano House Company, the Midwinter Fair Company and the Soper Freak Company. And yet the convention will go on!

Why This Secrecy.

THE San Francisco News Letter is possessed with one of the lying devils that have taken up their abode in all royalist newspapers. It says that only 500 persons registered for the late election; 4000 is the real number.—P. C. Advertiser.

The Advertiser published the about statement a few days ago. We beg to call the attention of our esteemed contemporary to the fact that the San Francisco News Letter never said anything of the kind. It stated that at the time of the mass-meeting on Palace Square only 500 had registered and we do not see how the Advertiser can take exception to such a statement, which it knows to be a fact. It is too bad that the Royalist papers have a monopoly on the "lying devils." When the Advertiser says that 4000 voters registered for the late election, we are inclined to believe that the morning organ has infringed on the patent right of the Royalist papers and "borrowed" one of the lying devils. But who can know! The government preserves the deepest silence in regard to the results of the election. Not a syllable is published to show how many registered, who they were, how many are now ex-Americans, who took the oath "before Almighty God" with a protest and a saving clause, how many voted and how many used the cummulated ballot. After any previous election full statistics have been prepared and published as soon as the returns were in, but in this instance the government wraps itself in its cloak of grief and disappointment and preserves a sullen silence. Of course there can only be one reason for such an attitude and that is that the government is heartily ashamed of the results and feels humiliated by coming forward with cold figures that will stamp it before the world as an unscrupulous, lying junta that has used all means and every falsehood to create the erroneous impression abroad that it controlled the majority of the legitimate voters in Hawaii and was backed by the PEOPLE. Hardly 2000 legitimate voters went to the polls and in that amount are included every government official, every beneficiary of the treasury, every bull dozed employee in private annexation firms and the usual gang of hypocrites, lick-spittles and sycophants who hang on to the tail of every rising meteor and drop it as soon as the flimsy fabric is in its descent The government is afraid of furnishing the official results of the last election. It hides itself in a most cowardly manner behind all kind of subterfuges and lame excuses, but, nevertheless, the American people knows today that Commissioner Blount was right when he said that in case of an election not one in ten would vote for annexation or for the p. g. Away with secrecy, Mr. Dole, the country is entitled to see what your government is doing, what it is worth, and of what kind it is If it is backed by a majority, however small, let it remain as long as that majority is willing, but if it is, as indications show, based upon a most insignificant minority of aliens and only existing by being propped up by the bayonets which Stevens stole and handed to the mercenary hirelings that follow those in power, then let it disappear quietly and peacefully before it is wiped out in as ignouminously a manner as that in which it was created.

AT a meeting of the Executive Council yesterday a letter from Mr. Hastings was read. It It is understood that nothing of an important nature came up, and nothing will be given out for publication.—Star

If nothing of importance came up why not give it out for publication.

WHY do they ex-Americans, like the Castles and Cookes and Halls yet fly the Stars and Stripes over their buildings? Do they still believe it to be their flag!

Japan and Hawaii.

The HOLOMUA a while ago called the attention to the fact that there exists an understanding between Japan and Hawaii in regard to the further importation of Chinese coolies to these islands. We mentioned the fact, because, we thought it absurd and useless for the councillors to spend their valuable time in discussing a Chinese immigration act that never could come to anything, because Japan would not allow Hawaii to resume the Chinese immigration. We knew what we were talking about while our wise men eminently respectable in their different little phases of life were as ignorant of the true state of affairs as existing between Japan and Hawaii as they are in regard to everything pertaining to the government of this country. The Hon. R. W. Irwin arrived here today, and we recommend the members of the councils to ask him if the HOLOMUA was not correct when it asserted that Japan will protest against Chinese immigration. His answer will be in the affirmative, and the Councils can then realize that they have been treated like a pack of fools or children by the minister who brought in the Chinese immigration act and who must have known that it was impossible to get any Chinese introduced here, never mind what kind of law was made. If Mr. Irwin should have forgotten the agreement between Japan and Hawaii in this matter—we don't for moment believe that he has—we will refresh his memory by printing the following letter from him written to His Excellency Samuel Parker minister of foreign affairs on Dec. 26th 1891. After mentioning other matters Mr. Irwin writes:

"I would most respectfully call your Excellency's attention to a matter which has much exercised the Japanese government. It was a condition of the Emigration Convention of March 6th 1886, that, if sufficient Japanese laborers were obtainable, no more Chinese laborers would be imported. This was solemnly promised by His late Majesty King Kalakaua and by Premier Gibson. Events have proved conclusively that a sufficient supply of Japanese agricultural laborers have been obtained and can be obtained. So I trust hereafter that no more Chinese will be imported by either our government or planters. The Japanese government considers it a danger to their relations with the Chinese government, which are always very delicate. The same reason, in my opinion would apply to Indians and other coolies. I mean in the view of the Japanese government." This seems plain enough, and we expect that the fact brought now to the knowledge of our government will make them kick themselves—and each others—for having wasted time and breath, and quarrelled over a Chinese bill which never could gain any practical importance. In the future the Councillors had better listen to the HOLOMUA, at least as far as Japanese affairs are concerned. We are pretty well posted.

The "Ferguson" Scheme.

Our readers doubtless remember the sensational accounts recently published by the vernacular press and reproduced with sceptical comments in these columns with reference to alleged hardships and cruel treatment suffered by Japanese immigrants in Guatemala. In consequence of these stories, Mr. Chinda, Japanese Consul in San Francisco was sent to examine and report, and his account, an epitome of which now appears in the Nichi Nichi Shimbun, not only dispels the illusion that Japanese laborers have been subjected to any ill-treatment, but also shows that their employers have been kind and even liberal towards them. There are at present 140 Japanese laborers in Guatemala, and their work contrasts so favorably with that of the indolent natives of the place that no disposition exists to treat them harshly. It is true that the lazy habits of the natives have induced employers to resort to methods of punishment of a more or less questionable character, among which are included imprisonment in cells constructed on the plantations and reductions of the daily ration of food. It seems very probable that the Japanese objected to a form of employment which included such contingencies, but certainly no special harshness was resorted to in their case. Moreover, the great majority of them have become free laborers, so that only 30 now remain under contract. One result of this is that the Japanese labourers have acquired exceptional influence. They know how to use their strength too, and instances are not wanting of their combination for purposes of intimidation. So far, therefore, from being in a state of semi-slavery, they really control the situation and command conciliatory treatment. The true origin of the complaints that have reached this side of the water seems to be financial. A labourer's pay is ten American dollars a month, of which about one half is required for food and clothing, so that no very large sum can be laid by in the course of a year. There is also some trouble apparently with respect to food. The universal custom of the country is two meals a day, and employers of Japanese labour conform, of course, to this custom. But the Japanese like three, and sometimes four, meals a day, and though arrangements have now been made which permit them to indulge this propensity their frequent recourse to food seems to have discredited them in the eyes of the natives. Coffee-planting is the work upon which the Japanese are employed. The locale is a plateau from three to five thousand feet above sea-level, so that the climate offers no course for complaint. The Japanese come from Hawaii with a good reputation which their conduct in Guatemala has hitherto sustained. But there are evidently some abuses connected with their transfer from the former place to the latter. Thus, agents through whose intervention they are brought over receive, it is said, in some cases a commission of as much as eighty dollars a head, and moreover make twenty dollars out of the sixty which they charge for passage money. These large gains have so exited their cupidity that they search far and wide for Japanese, going even as far as San Francisco to find them. Mr. Chinda, in his report, warns his countrymen against being deceived by these agents, for it is not to their interest to engage themselves as contract laborers in Guatemala. He thinks that there is a good prospect for free labor, above all if it be accompanied by capital for although coffee-planting as carried on there is profitable, no returns can be expected from a plantations until five years after it has been laid down. Moreover, the coffee-planters appear to maintain severe competition among themselves, and any man settling in Guatemala must be provided with means to work quite independently of his neighbors. In a word, the conditions existing in Guatemala do not differ materially from those in Mexico. Capital is nine-tenths of the battle.—Japan Weekly Mail.

THE street-sweeper, lately imported by Soper's brother-in-law, should be educated in the ethics of time at least, if not in place and opportunity. The work of the ancient article comes under the head of "deeds of darknes," with night-soil men etc.

Revs. Hyde, Bishop, Emerson, Iosepa, in company with injudicious Judd, are reported to be thinking seriously of following in the footsteps of that biblical personage who is related to have "gone on and hanged himself."

Americans that were loudest in their annexation talk are now the mildest in their claim for nationality.

Hawaiian Hardware Company

The Advertiser who catches a persons eye usually wins a customer. Many different styles of advertising have been adopted and with more or less success, by the believers in the use of printers ink. The manufacturers of Pears Soap, for instance, occasionally buy paintings that have been on exhibition in the Paris Salon and have lithographs made from them for the purpose of bringing their product before the people. In addition to such side issues, Pear spends hundreds thousands of dollars annually among the newspapers and magazines. Some years ago the Agents of certain article on sale in New York made a hit in advertising by having on Broadway during business hours two fatluessly dressed Negroes wearing very high collars, on the backs of which was printed "Use Smiths Pills." The idea was novel and the public caught on. Rising Sun Stove Polish has been kept before the public for years through persistent, and sometimes expensive advertising. Twenty odd years ago the manufacturers of this polish started half a dozen men across the ornament to paint signs on rocks and fences. The Aermotor Co., of Chicago have increased its sales more than five hundred per cent in two years by the use of printers ink. We believe we have been instrumental in increasing the sales of the Aemotor by keeping everlastingly at it in Hawaii.

We do not wish to say that advertising will sell any manufactured article; there is no use spending money in advertising "cheap and nasty" goods because the people will not be hoodwinked. If Haviland China was not the superior article it is, all our advertising of it would not have sold the thousands of pieces that we have. We simply call the attention of the people to it and its superior quality is apparent to the customer directly a piece of it is examined.

Printers ink has helped the sale of the James Locked Fence but it would not have dones so if it had been as flimsy as the ordinay wire fence. First; the economy there is in building it recommends it to the plantation manager and then its durability clinches the the sale. If the stays and washers cost as much as an ordinary redwood post our sales of the material would not have reached such enormous proportions.

Our average sale of the Pansy Iron Stove is about two a day the year round. If was not the best iron stove on the market we would not sell that many in six months. Advertising is the tip to the public the good points in the article sells it just as the good qualities of the Fischer Steel Range make it a desirable article for people who wish to economise in the use of fuel.

We buy only what has proven good after people in the United States or Europe have given it a trial; we profit by their experince if the articles are goood we buy and sell them; if they are poor we steer clear of them. When we advertise an article it is to attract attention to it; the newspaper is the button we push, the salesman does the rest.

Persistent advertising coupled with the article being a superior one has sold thousands of the Frank Walcot Emory File. If it had been no better than an ordinary scythe stone we probably would not have sold twenty. When a man finds out that his table knives may be kept sharp at all times at an expense of fifty cents and a very little elbow grease he is quite willing to try the experiment.

It is rumored that work in p. g. circles along the water front has been stopped.

The Claudine brought 16 cabin and 29 deck passengers to port yesterday morning.

No news from the Marshal yet. The date of his return to labor is not mentioned.

The long-time-neglected Palace Walk is now receiving much needed attention from the street cleaners.

The baseball game was a pleasurable treat last Saturday on account of the absence of the p. g. band.

There are quite a number of p. g. officials who still retain office and who did not take the required oath.

The Saturday evening programmes stated that there would be a performance at the Opera House this evening.

The chief, or senior captain, of the police officers of Honolulu has just returned from a short vacation at his Maui home.

Hon. R. W. Irwin who arrived by the Gaelic has rented Judge Widemann's house at Waikiki. Mr. Irwin will remain here for some time.

The Dailey Company is to play but six more performances and leave by the "Mariposa." "Celebrated Case" and "Michael Strogoff" will probably be in the last week's roster.

The Honolulu Atheletic Club, to prove worthy of its name, should send a representative nine into the baseball field before next Saturday.

Do not forget the lecture in aid of the Historical Society, tonight, at Kawaiahao Church. A worthy object and an interesting subject.

The rag on the so-called Executive building and that on the Annexation Club-house are very indicative of the wind-tossed patriots of each building.

Rumors were quite prevalent this morning that an ex-U. S. Naval officer had arrived by the Gaelic to take charge of p. g. troops. The wish was father to the thought, emanating as it did from p. g. circles. There is no truth in the rumor.

The well-known play of Uncle Tom's cabin held the boards at the Opera House on the afternoon and evening of last Saturday. At the Matinee, a large audience was present; at the evening performance there was a small number of people. On Tuesday next East Lynne an interesting drama will be given.

BASEBALL.

The Second Game—Hawaiis vs. Crescents.

The baseball match at the Recreation grounds last Saturday afternoon between the Hawaiis and Crescents, was won essily by the Hawaiis in eight and a half innings by a score of 9 to 4. The Crescents displayed a noticeable lack of good team work and also an inability to bat the Hawaiis pitcher. Following is the score.

"East Lynne" To-morrow.

This staple and pathetic story by Mrs. Woods will have a presentation tomorrow evening at the Opera House with Miss Nannary as Lady Isabelle; Mr. Vinton as Archibald Carlyle; Mrs. Bates, Cornelie; Mr. Snow as Sir Arthur Levinson and the minor roles well fitted. There is a charm around Lady Isabelle's woes that attract the ladies who will doubtless attend in goodly numbers.

A Festive Event.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell was christened today. The occasion was celebrated by a luau at which Mrs. Campbell in the most hospitable manner entertained her numerous friends The palatial residence on Emma street was most beautiful decorated with Hawaiian flags and floral devices in the royal colors of red and white. Long life to Miss Royale Campbell.

A Burglarious Deed.

A robbery is reported to have occurred at St. Andrew's Priory on last Friday evening, and the perpetrator of which is now being looked for by Detective Larsen and his force. The circumstances reported in connection with the matter, are to the effect that; a subscription fund, for a very worthy object, had been under way for some time past the young ladies giving their mites freely. The coin was deposited in a box in an inner room. On Friday evening, or night, one of the boarders reported a figure passing her window which she judged o be a wh ite person but with face blacked. In the afternoon the robbery was discovered. Search produced, later on, the box, broken open, with eighty-five cents therein and a hatchet used in opening, underneath the chapel of the Priory. The sum abstracted is judged to be about $20—may be less, and does not look like the work of a stranger to the premises.

A Sunday Performance.

The "Holy Ghost" received an ovation yesterday afternoon in a private house almost within the shadow of the missionary walls of Punahou and at which a large number of Portuguese gathered together to celebrate the occasion. Illegal permission was given by the Attorney-General, one of the Puritan fathers, to permit the playing of band music throughout the day and evening, and an auction was held later at which considerable money was obtained for some purpose. The same performance will be given next Sunday, but then on Punchbowl street.

The Gallagher Case.

The case against Ben Gallagher for mayhem, was called this morning. After numerous challenges a jury was obtained at 12 o'clock noon, consisting of Messrs Mett, Scott, J. T. Waterhouse. Van Doorn, G. Harris, J. Lucas, J. Dowsett, Wilkinson, Cluney, Armitage, Von Harm and Frank Hustace. The court adjourned till 2 p. m., when the prosecution opened by calling Mr. Wm. Love. The next witness was Peter Lucas. W. Kinney appears for the prosecution and Gallagher is represented by Cecil Brown and C. W. Ashford.

A Dancing Novelty.

Precocious little Josephine Gassman, who has gained many admirers since her stay here will execute the latest terpsicorean craze in America, the Serpentine dance on Thursday evening during the performance of "The Shaughran."

It has long been demanded and the amusement patrons will receive the announcement with pleasure.

Cricket.

The Honolulu Cricket Club met a team of cricketers from H. B. M. S. Champion at the old recreation grounds on last Saturday afternoon and suffered defeat in one innings by a score, for the Champions men of 53: Honolulu 17. Benwell of the Champion's and Stanley of the Honolulu's carried their bats "out." A return match may be played next Saturday at the same place.
