Also in connection with my Training

Gov. Stanford. The sire of Electioneer was Risdeko's Hambletonian. The dam
of Aplos Chief was sired by Speculation;

so it will be seen that Aplos is an in-
bred of Hambletonian.

service; and all mares failing to be with foal will have the service of the horse the next season free of charge.

WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy;
the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint ill-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy.
The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest.
After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times;
the blood becomes thick and stagnant;
the whites of the eyes become tinged
with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success,
because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well;
for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake
of this disease and require a remedy
that will act upon all at the same time.
Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm
in this class of complaints, giving almost immediated relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Hartill, near Sheffield:
—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills.
The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 417, York Street,
Belfast.—I have sold a large quantity,
and the parties have testified to its being
what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:
—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many grosses.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover.—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland.—
I find that the trade steadily increases.
I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire,
Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir,—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most patient medicines die out with me, but Mother Se

PUBLIC DISCUSSION.

"Publicity is the breath of freedom," was one of the striking phrases uttered by a statesman of another country in discussing secret societies. This is a truth that needs to be laid to heart by the people of this country. Things of great importance to the public are too often done in a corner. One of the results is to make those who dissent from particular lines of state policy assume, on their part, an air of mystery, and express views under breath which should be proclaimed openly. To the reticence practised by rulers regarding the results of their secret councils, many people oppose profound reserve respecting the whispered consultations of parties interested in the main question of the hour, whatever it may be. A secondary and more undesirable result is that persons lacking in moral and mental balance, failing to obtain material for a discussion of the merits of the question, but desperately determined to display more than ordinary devotion to the public interests, attack with intemperate bitterness, or even scurrility, every person whom they can connect with the actions or policy that they disapprove. It thus frequently happens that the responsibility for what is wrong is placed upon shoulders that have no right to bear it, and that a good cause is injured by its being advocated in the language of the slums. Why cannot such a question, for instance, as that of the currency, be discussed upon its merits, without crimination and recrimination of persons who are only indirectly connected with the matter? Apologists for the Government—for defenders or exponents of its currency policy, or want of policy, it has had none—are primarily responsible for the nasty things that have been said upon that question, in having stigmatized as "conspirators" some of the foremost business men of the country, and abused them for having got the better of the Government in its admittedly illegal arrangements with them. All the unpleasantness engendered by the currency question might have been avoided had the Government from the outset taken the public into its confidence. As the first of December approached and the merchants were obliged to set their houses in order for the inauguration of the gold standard, they were left in doubt as to the Government's own preparedness for the change. Consequently their arrangements were of necessity founded upon conjecture, and their decision was qualified by an "if." "If the Government evince a reasonable desire to carry out the law, provide a gold deposit approximating to the amount of certificates redeemable in gold, and engage to preserve the equilibrium between gold and silver in circulation as the law directs, then we shall treat the certificates as tender for gold and assist as far as possible the execution of the law." That was the decision of the chief private promoters of the Currency Act, and we think it was acted upon so long as there seemed to be any probability of the conditions being fulfilled. Yet, when doubt was cast upon the fidelity of the Government, did the Government attempt to show that the doubt was unfounded, by a frank statement of what its intentions were in the matter? It does not appear so. Instead, its apologists tried to throw all the blame for the confusion that had ensued on account of a lack of gold in the treasury, upon certain business firms. Hence, the acrimony and irrelevant personalities of the past few days. Verily, there is need for "the breath of freedom" to course through the public affairs of the nation.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

At a meeting this forenoon the Chamber of Commerce decided to send a committee to confer with the Cabinet upon the currency. It is to be hoped wise counsels on both sides will rule the conference, and bring the present lamentable deadlock to a satisfactory close.

Professor Agassiz's lecture upon the modern theory of coral reefs will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Hall on Friday evening. The professor's investigations in these Islands during his present visit will enable him to speak with confidence upon the origin and comparative size of the group, and upon the probable manner of the introduction of vegetable and animal life. We understand that in spite of the weighty authority of the Genealogical Report to the Legislature, he is unable to support the theory of a sunken continent.

GEORGE AUGUSTUS SALA.

This distinguished journalist, who has written for one paper alone, 7,000 editorial articles, spent over three hours in this city yesterday. It was known when the Alameda arrived that he was on board the Australia. A committee from the representatives of the press in Honolulu should have welcomed him, but when the BULLETIN reporter went to the wharf he was surprised to find only one editor present. The steamer was nearing the wharf, but long before it got up this lonely-looking editor jumped into a boat, followed by the reporter. A glance at the upper deck being made, sure enough, there was Mr. Sala, wearing his toilet trade mark—a white waistcoat. Three minutes more and we were alongside the great writer, grasping him by the hand and extending an aloha. He expressed himself delighted with what he had already seen of the Islands from the vessel. On being asked whether he intended to stay over, he replied, it was impossible, as he had to meet his wife in Melbourne on a certain day, and as she ruled the roost he must be there. The pictures we have seen of him are pretty correct. He has somewhat of a ruddy face and nose, showing that his attention to cookery has not been lost on him. Mr. Sala is a very entertaining conversationalist, full of anecdote and prolific in striking remarks, and soon makes you feel quite at ease in his presence. The steamer was now alongside the wharf and other journalists were quickly on board to welcome him. He brought with him presents and letters to His Majesty the King and H. M. Queen Emma from the Baroness Burdett Coutts. Mr. Sala was first taken to the Palace where, in the absence of Major Purvis, Vice-Chamberlain, he was conducted into the presence of His Majesty by the Adjutant of the Household. He was delighted with his short visit, and thought His Majesty very entertaining and well-read. Mr. Sala had previously met the King at a dinner in London. The residence of H. M. Queen Emma was next visited, where he simply left his commissions and card, not seeing Her Majesty. After satisfying a wish of his to have a branch of the Bougainville vine, he was next driven to the vicinities of the Chinese Theatre, Oahu Prison and the Fish Market. At the latter place he alighted and inspected the different kinds of fish and was also shown some poi. He finally pulled up at the store of Messrs. Geo. W. Macfarlane & Co., where a number of gentlemen were waiting for him. Mr. E. C. Macfarlane at once telephoned to the Hawaiian Hotel Stables for a coach, and soon afterwards Mr. Sala, accompanied by several gentlemen, were on the road to Waikiki, the beautiful seaside residence of Col. Geo. W. Macfarlane being reached in nineteen minutes. After a glass of fine champagne, indulged in by all save a member of the cold water brigade, the party took a turn round the Park and then returned to the wharf, where the distinguished visitor got aboard the Australia. After many warm alohas and wishes for a pleasant voyage the party bade farewell and the noble ship soon left her dock to proceed on her journey to the Colonies.

OBITUARY.

We regret to announce the death of Capt. J. M. Oat, Sr., which took place at his residence this afternoon, thirteen minutes past one o'clock. The deceased has been failing very fast for the past two weeks, and his death was not unexpected. Mr. Oat was born in Philadelphia, Sept. 25th, 1809, consequently was seventy-five years and five months old. He arrived in these Islands April, 1855, and at once commenced business as a sailmaker, which he carried on with great success. On the 18th of December last he celebrated the anniversary of his golden wedding. The deceased leaves a widow and four sons, who have the entire sympathy of the community. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at half-past three o'clock, from his late residence, Punchbowl street.

These lots are situated just in the centre of Kalaokahua Plains, on the principal street leading from Honolulu, and are within twenty minutes' walk from town, as well as being upon the omnibus route to Panahou.

I shall offer them on very favorable terms for purchasers, namely,

One-Fourth Cash, and balance in equal payments of one, two, three and four years, with interest at 7 per cent, secured by mortgage.

This division of payments, and low rate of interest, allows one for a comparatively small sum annually paid for four years, to become the owner of a beautiful homestead lot.

Parties desiring lots must make early application, as we shall sell at private sale to those who first apply.

Plans of the property can be seen at my office.
Deeds at purchaser's expense.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

LATEST foreign news on our fourth page. THE Alameda will sail on Saturday at noon for San Francisco. TO-NIGHT is ladies' night at the skating rink.

CHARLES Williams, storekeeper, district of Hamakua, has been adjudged a bankrupt on his own petition. Chief Justice Judd orders that all creditors shall appear before him Tuesday, March 3rd, at 10 o'clock, and prove their claims.

If you want to have a photograph or tin type taken, the best place to go to is the Sun Pearl Gallery, corner King and Fort streets. Mr. Severin, the proprietor, turns out a splendid picture and his rates are most reasonable.

Mr. J. W. Hingley, the popular connoisseur of the "weed," has fitted up, in rear of his tobacconist and soda stand, 84 King Street, a room where his patrons can enjoy a rest, a friendly chat, a look at late papers freely provided, or a diverting game of innocent description.

THE Alameda brings the news of the death of Dr. George L. Mathies, formerly Government physician at Kaneohe the other side of this Island, which took place at St. Paul, Minnesota, from consumption. The deceased gentleman was very talented in his profession and made many friends while here.

WHEN George Augustus Sala was in Chicago, his manager decamped with all the proceeds from lectures, and left bills unpaid to the amount of $150, which Mr. Sala had to pay. He delivered two lectures in San Francisco under the management of Mr. De Vivo, which netted him $750.

A GENERAL attendance of the members of the Bethel Union Church is requested to-morrow (Wednesday) evening at the vestry, to hear the reading of the charter, to vote upon the rules, reported by a committee for the government of the church, and to elect a Board of Trustees for the ensuing three years.

IN the Police Court this morning Kakiuna, for assault and battery on Hattie, a gaily dressed wabine, was fined $5 and costs. Three drunks added $19 to the Treasury fund. Kaleawahi, for disturbing quiet of the night, forfeited bail of $10. Koe, for assault and battery on a small Chinese boy without provocation, was fined $7 with $3 costs.

It appears that the decomposed body found at Hanalei, Kauai, last week, was that of a Chinese who had been missing for several weeks previous to Chinese New Year. His friends on Kauai thought he had gone to Honolulu. The man who won the money is all right. An inquest was being held when the steamer Planter left.

THERE was a tremendous crowd at the band concert last evening at Emma Square in honor of Washington's Birthday. The programme contained principally American national music. After the concert was over, the band boys were treated to refreshments by Mr. T. K. McDonald, an old soldier, who was wounded in the Mexican war, and is at present staying in this city.

A VERY well-attended meeting of the members of Kaumakapili church was held last evening. His Majesty the King presided. It was decided to hold a fair in May or June to raise money to complete the church externally and internally. Committees were appointed and other arrangements made. Their Majesties the King and Queen have been placed at the head of two committees.

A GENTLEMAN, engaged in sugar planting on the Island of Hawaii, writes us as follows: I have obtained 5 1/2 tons of sugar to the acre from my cane, and realized a decent profit from my investment. Money most undoubtedly can be made in the sugar business of this country; but the successful man is only to be found when he has a thorough knowledge of it and watches with an eagle eye the going to and fro of the dollars and cents.—S. F. Merchant.

LAST night between ten and eleven o'clock, an express which is known, containing men and women, stopped at the corner of Piikoi and King streets. It stayed there for a few minutes, and during that time the most disgusting and filthy language was heard from the parties inside. Some of the voices were recognized. The occupants and driver were probably in such a state that they did not know that the Police Justice lives at the corner of those streets.

SOME people are very careless in the manner in which they address letters to go through the mail. The other day a letter was found in the office with a two cent stamp on it, but with the simple address of Mrs. A. Brown. Of course the officials could not know where to send it. It was opened and proved to have been written by one of the smartest young business men in town, who, when he was shown it, confessed that he had forgotten to address it. Such cases frequently occur, and the officials are blamed when they are faultless.

NEWS was received by the Alameda of the death of Mr. C. H. Alexander of Makawao, Maui, which took place at the Insane Asylum, Napa, California, Sunday morning, February 8th. Last September, Mr. Alexander fell from his horse, but he did not appear to suffer from the effects of it until about six weeks later, when he acted strangely. He was brought to Honolulu and soon after taken to the Napa Asylum. About a month ago word was received that he could not live many weeks. His wife left by the Alameda and arrived at his side the evening before he died. He was conscious that evening for about an hour. The remains of the deceased were interred in the family lot at Oakland, by the side of his father.

A DESPERATE-LOOKING Chinaman, wearing prison clothes and having a ball and chain attached to his leg, was in the Police Court this morning. His name is Chung Hook, the man who broke into Mrs. Lack's store some time ago. He escaped from the chain gang but was recently arrested on Kauai. The following sentences have to be served by him: two months and a $50 fine for having opium in possession; two years for breaking into Mrs. Lack's store; three years and $100 fine for larceny on Kauai. On being asked this morning why he escaped, he said he did not understand the laws very well, and thought he had a right to run away. His Honor gave him an additional six months.

THE Custom House authorities have made another seizure of opium, hauling in 40 half-pound tins. Early this morning a boat containing one person was seen in the harbor near the Alameda, when a custom house guard approached him and asked what he was doing. He replied, "fishing." However, the guard noticed a parcel floating behind the boat and hauling it in found the opium. The man, who gave his name as Peter Johnson and is a sailor on the schooner Mille Morris, was taken along with the opium to the Station House. He says it was given to him by a sailor on board the Alameda, who probably has been interviewed ere this.

A scientific writer asks how to "diminish the frequency of storms." Pay what you owe and keep your wife in pin-money will aid materially.

The land "boomers" of Indian Territory, U. S., are being treated as insurgents, and troops are concentrating to drive them out. A SKILFUL SURGICAL OPERATION.

The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Kasson, has lately forwarded to his Government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna, which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, involving nearly one-third of the organ—and, strange to say, the patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed.

The disease for which this operation was performed was cancer of the stomach, attended with the following symptoms:—The appetite is quite poor. There is a peculiar indescribable distress in the stomach, a feeling that has been described as a faint "all gone" sensation; a sticky slime collects about the teeth, especially in the morning, accompanied by an unpleasant taste. Food fails to satisfy this peculiar faint sensation; but, on the contrary, it appears to aggravate the feeling. The eyes are sunken, tinged with yellow; the hands and feet become cold and sticky—a cold perspiration. The sufferer feels tired all the time, and sleep does not seem to give rest. After a time the patient becomes nervous and irritable, gloomy, his mind filled with evil forebodings. When rising suddenly from a recumbent position there is a dizziness, a whistling sensation, and he is obliged to grasp something firm to keep from falling. The bowels costive, the skin dry and hot at times; the blood becoming thick and stagnant, and does not circulate properly. After a time the patient spits up food soon after eating, sometimes in a sour, and sometimes in a condition, sometimes sweetish to the taste. Oftentimes there is a palpitation of the heart, and the patient fears he may have heart disease. Towards the last the patient is unable to retain any food whatever, as the opening in the intestines becomes closed, or nearly so. Although this disease is indeed alarming, sufferers with the above named symptoms should not feel nervous, for nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of a thousand have no cancer, but simply dyspepsia, a disease easily removed if treated in a proper manner. The safe and best remedy for the disease is Seigel's Curative Syrup, a vegetable preparation sold by all chemists and medicine vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White (Limited), 17, Farringdon-road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it, root and branch, out of the system. St. Mary-street, Peterborough, November, 29th, 1881.

Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I feel quite cured.

I am, Sir, yours truly, Mr. A. J. White. William Brent.

September 8th, 1883. Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues: one customer describes it as a "God-send to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence.

Faithfully yours, (Signed) Vincent A. Wills, Chemist-dentist, Merthyr Tydvil To Mr. A. J. White, Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition. They cure costiveness.

Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies, Oct. 24, 1882.

Dear Sir,—I write to inform you that I have derived great benefit from "Seigel's Syrup." For some years I have suffered from liver complaint, with its many and varied concomitant evils, so that my life was a perpetual misery. Twelve months ago I was induced to try Seigel's Syrup, and although rather sceptical, having tried so many reputed infallible remedies, I determined to give it at least a fair trial. In two or three days I felt considerably better, and now at the end of twelve months (having continued taking it) I am glad to say that I am a different being altogether. It is said of certain pens that they "come as a boon and a blessing to men" and I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of the statement. I can truly say, however, that Seigel's Syrup has come as a "boon and a blessing" to me. I have recommended it to several fellow-sufferers from this distressing complaint, and their testimony is quite in accordance with my own. Gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the excellent preparation, prompts me to furnish you with this unqualified testimonial.

I am dear Sir, Yours ever gratefully, (Signed) Carey B. Berry, A. J. White, Esq. Baptist Missionary.

Preston, Sept. 21st, 1883.

My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible. The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it." The sale keeps up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great.

I am, dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) W. Bowker. To A. J. White, Esq.,

Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16, 1882. Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health.—I remain, yours respectfully, (Signed) John H. Lightfoot. 765 1y 3
