Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Colds, Coughs, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Influenza, and Incipient Consumption, no remedy approaches Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It has long been the most popular and successful anodyne expectorant in Pharmacy, and is everywhere approved and recommended by the Faculty. It soothes the inflamed membrane, breaks up irritating mucus, allays coughing, and induces repose. As a family emergency medicine, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral takes the lead. For the relief and cure of croup, whooping-cough, sore throat, and all the pulmonary troubles to which the young are so liable, it is invaluable.
No household is quite secure without

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

THE REPUBLICAN PROGRAM

HOW THE TARIFF BILL IS TO BE PUT THROUGH.

Majority of Republican Senators Favor an Amendment Continuing the Hawaiian Treaty in Force.

A careful reading of the exchanges received by the last two mails from the Coast does not show any valid reasons for the present alarm over the probable fate of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty. If there was any certainty that it would be thrown out, the papers would have something to say about it, especially those who are opposed to the treaty and annexation and who are in the pay of the sugar men.

If there is any one paper more than another devoted to the sugar interests and the personal welfare of the Spreckels family it is the San Francisco Call, nominally owned by Charles M. Shortridge but really by John D. Spreckels, and yet a careful perusal of its columns shows nothing for the people of Hawaii to worry about but rather the opposite. Here is an extract from a double column leader on "The Tariff":

Reports from Washington concerning the outlook for a speedy adoption of a tariff bill are so conflicting it is difficult to arrive at any conclusion concerning them. We are assured by some correspondents that a poll of the Senate shows that a majority is in favor of adopting the bill as reported to that body, but others, who are equally well informed, state that strong opposition will be made to it; that it will have to be materially amended before it can pass even the Senate; and that after leaving that body it will meet with strong opposition in the House.

"The changes in the bill which have attracted most attention are those omitting from the revised report the clause referring to Hawaii and that dealing with the subject of reciprocity generally.
It is understood that the Republican members of the Finance Committee who revised the bill are not opposed to the Hawaiian treaty nor to the principle of reciprocity, but have deemed it best to report the bill without them in order that they may be taken up separately and dealt with on their merits."

In a short editorial note, the same paper says:

"The vote in the Senate in favor of an appropriation for Pearl harbor doesn't look as though our interests in Hawaii were to be allowed to go by default."

In the Washington dispatches to the same paper, under date of May 5, is found the following plan of the campaign to be adopted by the Republican Senators in the management of the bill:

"Some of the Republican members of the House are very sarcastic in reference to the tariff bill to be reported to the Senate.

"Grosvenor of Ohio, a member of the Ways and Means Committee, and quite generally regarded as a spokesman of the administration, says the bill as at present framed can never pass the House.
But Grosvenor may be mistaken.

"It was learned today that the Republican Senators have already outlined the plan they will follow in passing the bill. Their plan is to keep the bill before the Senate constantly after it is called up for consideration on the 18th, and by beginning daily sessions at an early hour and continuing them at night to complete the consideration of the bill if possible before the end of the fiscal year.

"The bill will then be sent to the House, and if a conference committee is asked the Senate will decline to appoint and the House will thus be forced to the necessity of accepting the Senate bill or prolonging the contest in-

EDMUND P. DOLE'S STORY

GOOD LITERARY WORK BY OUR DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Tells of Two Stalwart Men on Two Sides of a Prohibition War in Maine.

"Mr. Dole is Assistant Attorney-General of Hawaii, and a cousin of President Dole. He is the author of a book entitled 'Talks About Law,' but in the present volume he has ventured into an entirely different field.
'The Stand-by' is a story of life in a New England village, and the action centers about a vigorous fight on the prohibition question.
The hero wins the name that is taken for the title of the story during his college days, when he leads his crew to victory in an exciting boat-race. He becomes editor of a reform newspaper in a Maine town, and soon finds himself at the head of the prohibition forces. The battle is desperate, for the town is despotically ruled by a rich brewer, who is a man of indomitable character and fertile in resource. The temperance question is fairly treated, for the autocrat has himself put down all of the worst abuses, and the struggle merely revolves about the matter of principle and the enforcement of existing laws. The romantic element enters into the story in an attachment that grows up between the hero and a daughter of the brewer. The announcement is made that the story is founded upon fact."

The foregoing is a memorandum to editors supplied by the Century Co., publishers, in presented the volume, "The Standby," for review. It is 12 mo., 230 pages, price $1.25. Mr. Dole has a clear, strong and dramatic style as an author, and this story will hold its own as literature apart from its instructive quality.

There is a passing across the stage through a period of years of two unusually strong characters in antagonism—all the more fierce on account of mutual appreciation of each other's noble qualities—with the support of at least two others whose devotion to duty is no weaker than that of the ones first in account to their views of principle. The book is of evenly sustained but never slight interest to the very end. Its woof of romance richly colored with incident and episode is struck into a warp of informing fact relative to one of the leading questions of the age. No theory seems endeavored to be promulgated, yet the story will strengthen varying preconceived opinions. An appendix is printed in the volume, made up of sentiments gathered from the sayings of great authorities, sacred and secular, bearing upon the liquor question.
This seems liable to be even more baffling than the story to anyone who is undecided as to how far legal intervention for the welfare of society may encroach upon the boundaries of individual liberty.

NAVAL STATIONS.

Leslie's Weekly Makes a Plan for Reciprocity on Their Account.

Leslie's Weekly, in a late issue, argues for the revival of the late Secretary Blaine's policy of reciprocity, saying in that connection:

"The opportunity consists in the incorporation in the legislation relating to reciprocity treaties that nations on this hemisphere, favored especially by us in trade agreements, shall grant us in return the right to establish coaling stations for our navy, such stations to exist so long as the treaties shall remain in force. For thirty years we have been trying to secure these coaling stations by the round about methods of diplomacy, and we have failed. The one coaling station of importance that we have, that, at Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian Islands, we secured through reciprocity legislation.
Our navy is helpless, except for purely defensive purposes, without these stations. The value of a man-of-war in these days depends entirely upon its distance from a coal supply.
No ship can carry more than a week's supply when steaming at full speed. On paper the United States is the fourth or fifth naval Power. This is simply from a defensive standpoint. From an aggressive standpoint this nation has not yet become a naval Power of any consequence, and will not become one until it shall have coaling stations in the zone where it must do its effective work."

Camarinos Taken to Agawes.

P. G. Camarinos, the wellknown planter of Honolulu and brother of D. G. Camarinos, the ex-Greek Consul, had to be sent to Agawes yesterday, says a late Call. He arrived from Honolulu on the steamer Alameda and his brother took him to Sausalito. Returning to this city on the Rafael yesterday morning he went violently insane and had to be strapped down. As he got no better he was taken in a hack to the new City Hall and there Judge Belcher consigned him to the insane asylum.
The general opinion seems to be that Mr. Camarinos' malady is only temporary and that in a few weeks or a month at the outside he will be out and attending to business again.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Japan Does not Wish to Make Trouble Over Hawaiian Grievances.

Washington, D. C., May 5.— Mail from Consul-General Mills at Honolulu received at the State Department today contains no reference to the reported excitement about the attitude of Japan.
From this Secretary Sherman believes that the alarm of the Hawaiian Government has abated.
According to the statement given out by the Japanese Minister here, his Government is disposed to settle the controversy over the refusal to allow Japanese immigrants to land without recourse to a threatening naval demonstration.
The State Department is hopeful that no trouble calling for intervention by the United States will result. The present intention, however, of the administration is to have at least two warships there until all danger of Japanese interference has passed.

POLICE COURT MATTERS.

On Trial for Conspiracy in the Third Degree.

In the police court this morning Judge de la Vergne's time was largely taken up with the trial of three Chinese, charged with conspiracy in the third degree by maliciously combining and concerting together to accuse one Ah Hock of the offense of having opium in possession and causing him to be arrested and prosecuted therefor. The defendant pleaded not guilty. Detective Kaapa, Officer Chun Poon and the complaining witness had been examined previous to the noon recess. The case is being

Yes, It Will be Tens.

A recent hurried trip through Olaa by the writer made evident one of the jolliest, most contented lots of planters to be found anywhere. There is a different atmosphere in Olaa than that noted a year ago. Then there was hope borne up by the wish that coffee was all right. Now the Olaa coffee man talks coffee, berries, sacks, pulper, polishing, etc. He has trees. There is no mistake about it. They are spending their evenings wondering how they will invest the profits.—Hilo Tribune.

FRANK MCINTYRE'S FID.

Mrs. P. C. Jones Wants an Owner for a Little Waif.

When Frank McIntyre went home to lunch he found a little child about two years old lying fast asleep under a big mango tree in his premises on Nuanu street. The child was covered from head to foot with mango juice and had evidently had a good time.

Mr. McIntyre tried to find out from the child where it lived and questioned it in English and native but met with no response. His Portuguese boy then tried the Portuguese language but with no effect. Frank then brought his knowledge of German to the front and asked

"Sprechen sie Deutsch?"
"Yah, yah," replied the child, but as this was as far as Frank's knowledge of German extended the conversation came to a sudden stop.

Mrs. P. C. Jones kindly volunteered to take charge of the waif until it is claimed, and Mr. McIntyre reported its finding at the police station. The child has fair hair and blue eyes, is not over two years old, and is evidently of German or Norwegian parentage.

Masonic Hall at Hilo.

The contract has been let for a fine two story business building on the northwest corner of Bridge and Waiuanu streets, the site made vacant by the removal of the Japanese church. It will cost $3000, and Mr. Pratt has the contract; operations will be started immediately. Two stores facing on Waiuanu street will occupy the ground floor, and a staircase will lead up stairs to handsomely furnished quarters for our Masonic Lodge. This is one of the finest corners in Hilo, and will make good business locations.—

For more than fifty years has PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER stood the test against all remedies prepared to eradicate pain, and today stands at the head of the list among the medicines that are so essential to keep at hand in the home.

It is not a new fangle remedy nor do the proprietors lay claim to any wonderful revelation of the ingredients that enter into the manufacture of this ever popular remedy.

It is perfectly harmless, you need have no fear of becoming habitually inclined to its use.

For Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, Colds, and all painful affections, a few doses will certainly give relief. You cannot afford to be without a bottle in the house.

Your forefathers used it and found it beneficial.

Why experiment with some remedy that is new and its effect on the system unknown?

WHAT SHALL I DO?

What shall I do best life in silence pass? And if I do And never prompt the brain of noisy brass, Remember eye the ocean deeps are mute,
The shallow's roar, Worth is the ocean. Fame is but the brink Along the shore.

What shall I do to be forever known?
Thy duty ever.
This did full many who yet slept unknown—Oh, never, never!
Thinkst thou perchance that they remain unknown?

Whom thou knowest not?
By angel trumpets in heaven their praise is blown.
Divine their lot.

What shall I do to gain eternal life?
Discharge aright
The simple duties with which each day is rife, Yea, with my might.

Ere perfect scheme of action thou devise Will life be fled, While he who ever acts as conscience cries Shall live, thou dead. —Schiller.

THE RETIRED BURGLAR.

He Tells of Some Very Unpleasant Experiences With Mirrors.

"I have had," said the retired burglar, "some very unpleasant experiences with mirrors. I think I have told you how I once fired at my reflection in a mirror, mistaking it for another man—a mistake that I thought I should never make again. But within two years after that I struck a man in a mirror, and smashed the glass and smashed my hand and made myself uncomfortable generally. It may seem strange to you that a man could make such mistakes, but in a dim light, and where everything is strange to him, and he's all sort of keyed up himself, I don't know as it is after all. Still, after that last experience I did think it would be some time before I had any more trouble with mirrors. But within a year I had an experience that was a great deal worse than either of them.

"When I came out of a room in a house I was in one night, on the second floor, looking down the hall—this was pretty near the front where I was—I saw the figure of myself in a mirror at the other end. It was plain enough, even in that light, but it startled me a little at first, and I threw up my gun at it. Of course the figure's hand went up and down, just the same as mine did, and it made me kind of laugh to think of it, and I could imagine the shadow laughing, too, at a man who was afraid of his own shadow.

"Then I went into the next room, and when I came out of that into the hall again my eyes sought the mirror again. It wasn't very pleasant to see yourself in the dark in that way, but it would have been a mighty sight less pleasant not to. But then I was all right, and I stood and looked at it a minute and threw up my arm at it same as before, just up and down, a sort of unnecessary test, but it made me feel just a little easier, and up went the arm in the mirror with mine, but this time, when mine came down, the arm in the mirror staid up.

"Now, don't raise your hands," the man said, covering me with a gun in his upraised hand, voice kind of drawing, but meaning business, you know. You know when a man means business, and this man did mean it, and I kept my hands down.

"Oh, Bill!" he says, not moving a muscle and not shouting it out, but just kind of drawing it out like the other.

"Then a man appeared beyond the man that was holding me, up, coming toward him and me. He walked right through the mirror, past the other man, and kept coming. It was all plain enough then. In fact, I'd guessed at it before, as may be you have. The mirror wasn't a mirror at all, but a doorway, an opening midway of a long hall, and the frame was the frame of the doorway. There were rooms beyond, just the same as those on the side where I was, and it was the doors of those that I had seen in the mirror and not the reflection of those on my side. And it was out of one of those doors that Bill came. The man with the gun had been ready for me the first time I looked, but it must have been that Bill wasn't then. But Bill was ready now, and he came on past the other man, careful to keep out of his range, of course, making for me, and he came around behind me and took two or three turns of a rope around my body and arms. Then the man with the gun came up, and between them they tied me up good and strong. And that was a matter of some four years."—New York Sun.

On Wednesday, July 28, 1897, at 12 o'clock noon, at the front entrance of the Executive Building, Honolulu, will be sold at Public Auction, the Hawaiian Hotel Premises at Honolulu.

These premises are centrally located in the city, in the centre of the block bounded by and with entrance drives from Hotel, Richards, Beretania and Alakea streets, and the grounds contain an area of 17-10 acres.

The Buildings consist of the Hotel proper of two stories and basement; built of brick and concrete with broad verandas at front and rear of each story.

There are also Four Cottages on the premises with ample provision for bath rooms and closets.

The Main Building contains a spacious Parlor, Public and Private Dining Rooms, Large Billiard Hall and Bar Room, and Forty Sleeping rooms. The Cottages contain about twenty additional sleeping rooms.

A water tank with capacity of 10,000 gallons is placed on a tower at an elevation sufficient to give a good water pressure in second story of the Main Building. This tank is supplied from an Artesian well on adjoining premises, owned by Dr. J. S. McGrew.

The buildings and grounds are thoroughly lighted with Electric Light.

Plans of the Buildings and grounds can be seen at the office of the Minister of the Interior.

Terms of Sale are Cash in United States Gold coin.

Upset price: $60,000.00.

In case there is no bidder to purchase the property at the above upset price, a lease of the same will immediately be offered for sale at an upset price of $4000 a year for a period of thirty years under the conditions set out in Act 7, Laws of 1896—and more particularly of Sections 2 and 4 of said Act which reads as follows:

"Section 2. Every such lease shall contain a covenant on the part of the lessee that he shall, during the first four years of the term of the lease, cause to be erected upon the leased premises a fire proof building of Brick, Stone or Metal, in a workmanlike manner, satisfactory to the Minister of the Interior at not less than a stated cost; and keep the same suitably insured at not less than two-thirds of its value for the benefit of the lessor; and shall keep the building in good repair during the remainder of the term of lease, reasonable use and wear thereof only excepted; and in case of damage or destruction of such building by fire, shall make good such loss or damage by the necessary repairs or reconstruction or else surrender the insurance to the lessor.

"Section 4. Every such lease shall also contain a covenant on the part of the lessor, that upon the request in writing by the lessee or his representatives, before the expiration thereof, the premises with the improvements, shall, if all of the conditions to be performed by the lessee have been satisfactorily performed, be put up at auction for a lease for a term of not over twenty years; unless said premises shall be required for public uses, of which the lessee shall receive at least one year's notice. Such auction sale shall be held not more than six months nor less than one month before the expiration of said term."

The cost of building to be erected in accordance with Section 2 as above quoted, is placed at $50,000.

TREATY REVISION.

Hawaii ought to have a new treaty with Japan. The statesmen and other intelligent people of Japan will see the reasons fast enough, if they study the situation of these islands with minds free from covetous ideas. This country simply cannot assimilate the Japanese into its civic population for the present. There are three languages now required for public discussion of political questions when the people are called on to elect their houses of legislation. Supposing Japanese were entitled to the franchise on exhibiting the literary as well as other qualifications, for a long time to come there would be a majority in thousands of that nationality here—even if no more immigrate—who would fail to qualify. This overwhelming majority not voting themselves would, there is no doubt, have great influence over the comparatively small number of their countrymen who held the privilege of the ballot. There would be mass meetings conducted in the Japanese language, and mostly consisting of headstrong aliens without votes, dictating the vote of the Japanese electors, and these electors might hold the balance of power. Representative government in the true sense would be impossible under such conditions. Apart from the question of the franchise altogether, however, Hawaii might not long be able to maintain its presently existing institutions if the Japanese continued to pour in at the rate that has been seen for the past few years. Numbers must tell in peaceful as well as in warlike invasion. Slight disputes over questions of individual rights, in isolated cases even, might easily grow into serious differences between the authorities and the mass of the Japanese throughout the group as a whole. The recent uprising of Chinese laborers against a license tax imposed by the Municipality of the Foreign Settlements of Shanghai furnishes an example of what might happen in these islands any day even now. Many similar episodes have arisen in connection with the rule of European minorities in Oriental communities. The conditions for such trouble in Hawaii are quite enough developed now. The ship is full to the danger load line. Many thoughtful minds regard it as overloaded. We may not be able to jettison any of the cargo, but we may be able to refuse more. This through a revision of the treaty with Japan.

Official notice is being given in different capitals that the Government of Sweden and Norway purpose sending a balloon expedition toward the North Pole for exploration in the interests of science. The balloon will carry three Swedish scientists, headed by Professor Andree, and an assistant. Should any accident befall the explorers and should they arrive in any locality, having lost the balloon, the inhabitants are asked to give them all possible assistance. The expedition will start from Spitzbergen about the first of July next. No notice has been issued at Honolulu, but it is just as likely as anything else that Charlie Peterson, the lookout on Diamond Head, will be the first man outside of Norway to see the balloon.

Mrs. Nakaina, one of the most highly esteemed ladies of the land, over her own signature, in this morning's Advertiser, charges W. T. Brigham, curator of the Bishop Museum, with causing several other highly respected ladies and herself to be grossly insulted on the grounds of the museum yesterday. The insult went to the extent of actual assault, a laborer having thrown one of the ladies out of a chair. Public opinion demands an explanation and an apology from the curator.

Uncertainties and a Certainty.

The attention of the public is now fully occupied and diverted in the consideration and discussion of several important current and prospective happenings. Annexation, as yet unsecured, Reciprocity threatened; the coming of the Naniwa, and her mission after arrival; the outcome of the war between Greece and Turkey and, whether or no, all Europe will eventually become involved; the settlement of the quarantine squabble—are all themes of much conjecture and uncertainty, and while opinions are freely offered, none can accurately foretell the outcome of any of these matters. Nevertheless, it is becoming more apparent, as each day passes, that Buffalo and Hoffbrau are the favorite brews, and it is gratifying that assurance is given that regular shipments of these wholesome and strengthening beverages can be depended upon, and that they will, as heretofore, be dispensed at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons, and that the interchangeable check system is an established fact.

Honolulu Cricket Club.

The advent of the Wild Swan this morning has again whetted the appetites of local cricketers and Secretary W. Thompson is endeavoring to arrange another series of matches with her officers. The Honolulu Cricket Club boys have been practising along quite merrily since her last visit and some of the players are in fine form. This is especially so of Dr. Murray, Capt. Herbert and bowler Hatfield. For the benefit of the members the selection committee wish to state that it would be manifestly unfair to make up the team from any but those who regularly practise.

Practise days are Wednesday and Friday from 4 to 6, on ground opposite drill shed.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

makes the mare go, is a well-known saying. We have something that will make the sorriest old nag ever hitched to a wagon go at a regular racing gait, and for very little money at that. Our Carriage Whips can be had in almost any quality and price, from $1 to $3.50.

We have still a good stock of Cart and Buggy Harness to suit the purse of anybody; we sell a first-class harness for $16 and then "there are others" better in quality at $25, $30 and $35.

Young men like to take their best girl out for a drive, and the beautiful moonlight nights we are just now enjoying, invite amorous swains to go a mooning with their lady loves.

We have a dandy looking Dog Cart that is just the thing for a drive around the park; it is easy riding, comfortable, with plenty of room for two. It is the only one of its kind in Honolulu, and as we are not in the carriage business, we do not intend to get any more, so you do not run the risk of having the same style as everybody else. Will be sold very cheap.

By the last Australia we received a lot of Brass Stirrups, light and neat looking, and besides carry a full assortment of Carriage Sponges, Chamois Skins, Lap Robes, Bits, Buckles, Etc., Etc.

Difficult Collections a Speciality

Have You An Account?

This is a serious question, one at which some folks take offense, yet salesmen are under the necessity of asking it. Some folks deal near home, settle infrequently, never investigate to see whether they pay more than they should and too often allow their accounts to go long over due. If you don't care what the family expenses are it's a poor way to do if you want to leave your children in affluent circumstances when you are gone. Now it is quite an advantage to have an open account at a well-known house, who can execute your order promptly. Often persons say they don't want an account and will pay in a few days. But we cannot keep memoranda of charges; it isn't safe or good business. The stock found in ordinary stores is usually stale, uninviting and inferior, while the stock in our store is turned so frequently and so carefully watched that it is at all times fresh. Our stock in trade consists of the luxuries and delicacies from every civilized nation. Send for our catalogue and prices and note the variety offered. Telephone us—240. We supply all nationalities.

THE TROUBLESOME MOTH.

How to Deal With This Destroying Insect In Furniture and Carpets.

Furniture is one of the favorite hiding places of moths. The worms seldom attack the covering, the hair constituting much better food. Benzine and liquids of a like character are frequently used to drive out the pests. This softens the hair and is at best uncertain. Upholstered furniture should be treated each spring with a mixture of borax and powdered tobacco leaves. By removing a few tacks from the bottom covering a half ounce or so of the powder is easily dusted in. This will effectually preserve the hair from attack. The outside covering of furniture not in use during the summer is best protected by being dusted with borax and then completely covered with old newspapers. Furs, being worn only during part of each year, are exceedingly subject to destruction by moths. A cedar closet or chest is usually considered proof against attack. It is, however, of little avail if the moth eggs have been deposited in an article previous to its packing away. Beating ruins fur and does comparatively little toward removing the eggs, which are laid at the root of the hair, where the natural grease of the animal is most abundant.

Hot, dry air is the most effective means of destroying moth eggs. Materials to be treated should be hung on chairs in a small room heated by furnace or steam. Windows and doors being closed, the drafts are turned on full force. From 24 to 48 hours of this treatment will be necessary, according to the temperature and dryness of the air. By the end of that time embryo insects will be dead. The eggs may then be removed by brushing. If cedar chests are available, the furs must be sprinkled with borax, wrapped in newspaper and packed in a tight trunk or box, which should not be opened again until all its contents can be removed.

Whenever possible, carpets should be subjected to the purifying influence of heat and dry air, then sprinkled with finely powdered tobacco and borax. It is well to cover them with crash during the summer. If this is done, the powder may be left on. If covering is impracticable, the mixture should be brushed off lightly after 24 hours. Enough will remain in the nap to prove an effective safeguard. Curtains, portieres and other hangings may be treated in a similar manner.

Mending China.

One of the least known though also one of the simplest and most effective of cements for this purpose is white oil color, such as is usually sold in tubes, from which it is squeezed out in the desired quantity. Broken things should always be mended as soon as possible after the accident, but of course there are occasions when this is not feasible. In such a case, without any previous preparations of any kind, merely paint the broken parts with the oil, press them into position, tie them in position or otherwise secure them, if possible, and the operation is complete. The only precaution to observe to insure perfect success is to put the mended article away to dry thoroughly for six weeks. After that period, however, neither heat nor cold nor moisture should affect the cement. If, after complete drying, any color remains, having possibly oozed out, it must be carefully scraped off with a knife before the article is taken into use again and after it has dried.

How to Make a Pretty Toilet Table.

Have your carpenter manufacture a circular or square table, as you desire. Tack a piece of cloth around its edge deep enough to come down half way to the floor. Saw to this a floss of the crepe paper, covering the rest of the distance to the carpet. Cover the top of the table with the paper and finish it with another floss of the paper deep enough to overlap the lower one. Set it off with a liberal number of paper bows or rosettes, and the effect will be really astonishing.

THE VERANDA.

How to Furnish This Attractive Spot For Ease and Comfort.

The idea of converting a deep veranda into a sort of summer sitting room is a good one if not overworked. If such an attempt is made, great care must be taken not to shut the piazza in too closely by draperies and screens, and not to overload it with furnishings.

If a screen of any sort is desired, growing vines should answer the purpose admirably. A Japanese screen or curtain of slender bamboo rods is not objectionable, and if a drapery of any sort is considered necessary the furnishing stores are offering some very pretty and inexpensive curtain stuffs that will answer the purpose.

In the actual furnishing of the veranda comfort should be the first consideration. Accordingly a hammock should be the first thing bought. This should be as long and capacious as possible, and it should be swung across the sightliest corner of the veranda, so that everything may conduce to the absolute comfort of its occupants.

Veranda chairs should be roomy affairs of wicker bamboo or of pretty green rush wood, and each should have its own supply of cushions. Do not force summer loungers to sit upright in a narrow, straight chair, and, on the other hand, do not stow them away in rocking chairs, for there is no place where the sharp points of rockers are likely to cause more annoyance.

Two or three bamboo stands or tables are indispensable to the proper equipment of a comfortable veranda. One is for the magazines and summer novles, while another must stand ready for the lemonade or other refreshment that veranda existence so frequently demands.

How to Make Cream Candy. Place over the fire a vessel containing 2 large cupfuls of granulated sugar and half a dozen tablespoonfuls of water. Let the mixture boil until, when a little of the sirup is dropped into a cup of cold water, it will harden. The moment it will do this add 2 teaspoonfuls of vanilla and a small teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Then turn into a buttered dish, and when cool enough to handle with the hands pull it until it is white, cut into short lengths and set away to get cold.

How to Clean a Goatskin Rug. They can be cleaned by washing or with naphtha. Wet a small part of the rug with naphtha and rub with a soft cloth until that space is clean, then clean another place, continuing until the entire rug has been treated in this way.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO. Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

Order your soda-water for Sunday from the Hawaiian Soda Works. Tel. 632. Mechanics' Home, corner Hotel and Nuuanu streets, lodging by day, week or month. Terms: 25 and 50 cents per night. $1, and $1.25 per week.

If you are interested in the subject of enlarged portraits, it would be worth your while to see the samples at King Bros. at prices ranging from $5.00 to $10.00 frames and all. They can't be beat.

Printed ducks are just as good, if not better than anything else for boys' shirt waists. They wash and wear well, two very important considerations. Kerr has them in a large variety of patterns at eight yards for one dollar.

Five War Vessels in Port—H. B. M. S. Wild Swan and U. S. S. Adams Arrive—Other Jottings.

The schooner Ka Moi brought in a full load of No 1 circle D sugar this morning.

Tomorrow, high tide large 7:10 pm; high tide small 7:05 a m; low tide large 11:32 p m; low tide small 2:05 a m.

The American four-masted schooner W H Talbot, Bluhm master, sailed at noon for Port Townsend, in ballast.

The U S S Adams arrived from Hilo this morning and anchored in naval row. There are now five war vessels in port: U S S's Philadelphia, Marion and Adams, H I J M S Naniwa and H B M S Wild Swan.

Wild Swan Returns. H B M S Wild Swan sailed from Honolulu April 27; arrived at Christmas Island May 4, leaving same evening for Fanning Island.

Fanning was reached May 6, and left again the next day. Washington Island was visited May 8, and Palmyra the following day, when the ship was headed for Honolulu. On the southward passage, fair wind was experienced all the way. On the return passage, steam and sail were both used, head winds and seas being had the first three or four days, after which fine weather was the rule to Honolulu.

The people of the islands were all well. At Fanning and Washington, the officers and crew of the Wild Swan were treated royally by the Greig family. Natives of Fanning Island visited the warship, singing and dancing for the entertainment of the crew. The people supplied the ship with coconuts and other fruit. On Fanning Island there are forty-two people. At Christmas Island there are six men and one woman. The Wild Swan will probably sail soon for Esquimaux. She has begun coaling. An effort is being made ashore to have her stay for the Diamond Jubilee.

Legal Equality.

The women are again moving in the state of Illinois in the interest of equality before the law. God bless them and God speed them in their righteous quest! The shame is that it is left for the women to lead. Let the men inaugurate the movement that will make for justice. This cause has lost its newness. It has had to pay full price for the cruditics and extravagances that gather around every reform, but at the core the demand is a righteous one, and it must be heard, and ultimately it must triumph. Let no one lose heart and let no one delay any legitimate effort. Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and Idaho have fully enfranchised their women. "Eastward the star of (this) empire takes its way." —Chicago New Unity.

Mineral Wool.

She—What is this mineral wool one reads so much about?
He—Mineral wool? Why, that's the wool they shear from hydraulic rams. —New York Times.

Caps of linen, wool, straw, bark of trees and leather were extensively worn in Egypt and Arabia in early times and were usually of a pointed or peaked shape. The variety of headresses used by the Egyptian ladies was very great.

There are more than 200 lakes within the boundaries of Venezuela, one of the largest being 1,600 feet above the level of the sea. The Orinoco river, the largest in Venezuela, is 1,160 miles long.

Reasons Why

There are two reasons why people are now paying car fare all the way from Waikiki to the Palama Grocery and back. Reason 1. It is the only place on the Islands where the celebrated Salvation Army tea is sold. Reason 2. After paying car fare both ways patrons find they are money in pocket by dealing at this "live and let live" establishment. We also deliver goods between Diamond Head and Moanalua free.
