RETALIATION AGAINST DUTCH

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WILLEMSTADT, Dutch West Indies, July 27.—Derens, the minister from the Dutch Netherlands to Venezuela, who was expelled by President Castro for personal reasons last Wednesday, has reached this city and been ordered to the Hague. The Netherlands has been ordered to Venezuela to protect Dutch citizens and property, which are now under the care of the German minister.

A mob yesterday attacked Venezuelan Consulate in Curacao, Dutch West Indies, and the consul took refuge in the German consulate.

IT COST $100,000

THE MINIMUM ESTIMATE OF LOSS CAUSED BY DELAY OF KAPAA LAND NEGOTIATIONS.

The records of appeal in the case of the Makee Sugar Company vs. J. K. Farley, tax assessor of Kaula, were filed in the Supreme Court this morning. The record is interesting in relation to the Kapaia land exchanges which were recently refused by the sugar company and as the result of which refusal and the negotiations which took place the court deducted the sum of $100,000 from the valuation placed on the property by the tax assessor. In spite of this fact the plantation has appealed the case to the Supreme Court. The returns of the plantation showed the valuation of the property to be $86,180.90, which amount was increased by the tax assessor to the sum of $1,000,000.

The decision of the tax appeal court states that on account of the uncertainty of the releasing of certain lands from the government much less planting has been done in the past two years than the size of the mill would justify and that in this manner the production of sugar by the plantation is reduced by at least one half. On this ground the assessment was reduced by $100,000, but not enough to suit the "Kaula barons."

PREFERRED THE JAIL

WM. KAANAANA VOLUNTARILY PLACES HIMSELF WITHIN SCOPE OF THE EDMUNDS ACT.

An unusual proposition came up before United States District Attorney Breckons this morning when William Kaanaana came into his office and practically asked to be placed under arrest for violation of the Edmunds Act. His wishes were acceded to without much difficulty and warrants were issued for his arrest as well as the arrest of Sarah Mann, with whom he has been living, and another Hawaiian man named Keohohou.

Kaanaana's story was to the effect that he had been living with Sarah Mann, a married woman, for the past six years and that recently she had left him to live with Keohohou. She had tired of this and wished to come back to live with Kaanaana once more but he was unable to see it that way. She insisted on it, however, and the only way that Kaanaana could find to get out of the matter was to file a complaint with Breckons. Of course when he acknowledged having lived with Sarah for six years, he placed himself in as bad a position as she was, but that did not seem to make any difference and his complaint was made.

The American Dreadnaughts to Leave Atlantic

NAVY MEN FEEL ATLANTIC FLEET WILL STAY IN THE PACIFIC—DREADNAUGHTS OF AMERICA ORDERED TO RENDEZVOUS IN INDIAN OCEAN—SUEZ A TICKLISH PROPOSITION—ARMADA MAY RETURN TO HONOLULU—MAY NOT VISIT JAPAN.

Sperry's ticket is not punched beyond Manila. There he will have to get a new passport. The orders of the Atlantic fleet do not take the sixteen battleships, which recently made Honolulu sit up and take notice, beyond the principal port of the Philippines and the visit to Japan, where great demonstrations of welcome await, just as a welcome awaited here and everywhere else where it was advertised that the American armada would call, is all in the air.

There is nothing official about the fleet calling at Japanese and Chinese ports, any more than there is anything official about the fighting machines going through the Suez canal back to Hampton Roads to arrive home on Washington's birthday of next year. The information comes from wise men aboard the battleships themselves that there are no actual orders of which the fleet itself is aware to go beyond Manila and whether or not the Atlantic battlers ever go home is a large open question.

In this light the Milwaukee, now here, is looked upon as on scout duty and the cruisers Washington and Tennessee, which are to come here from Bremerton early next month, will be on earnest duty. What it all means outside of practice, outside of a world demonstration, outside of a peace patrol, remains to be seen.

CREW OF HAWAII DECORATION

Special Order No. 81 of the U. S. Navy Department provides for the issuance of campaign badges with ribbons to officers and enlisted men of the Navy who served in Cuban and Porto Rican waters and were attached to certain vessels in the Spanish war and this order brings a decoration to a well known local man, James Walter Wall Brewster of The Star battery of writers, inasmuch as he, with credit, served during the Spanish war aboard the St. Paul.

PLAY MILWAUKEE

The Santa Clara and U. S. S. Milwaukee baseball teams will play on Wednesday afternoon at the league grounds commencing at four o'clock sharp. The other games for Saturday and Sunday will be decided upon at the meeting of the league tomorrow.

The Hawaiian band did not play at the reception at the Chinese consulate on Saturday for the reason that His Excellency the Chinese Consul, was recently rendered a widower.

P. M. S. S. Siberia arrived yesterday morning from the Orient and sailed at 5 p. m. for San Francisco, disembarking a number of passengers here and taking away a crowd. She brought 900 tons of general Oriental merchandise for this port.

DOLDRUMMING ABOVE THE BELT

FLEET SPARKS FROM OVER THOUSAND-MILE MARK AND MINNESOTA STERN-CHASING THE FLOCK, WIRELESSES THAT SHE'LL OVERHAUL THE BUNCH TOMORROW NIGHT—NEPTUNE WILL BOARD ARMADA SOON—TWO OPERATORS ON ONE MESSAGE.

The Star is in receipt of the following wireless message from the Atlantic fleet now en route to Auckland, New Zealand, and 1,028 miles out at the time the message was received at Barber's Point last night shortly before midnight: "Aboard U. S. S. Connecticut, at sea, July 26.

"Our position at 8 o'clock this evening was 5-54 and 164-13 (five degrees and fifty-four minutes north and one hundred and sixty-four degrees and thirteen minutes west.) We are in the doldrums with occasional squalls of rain. We expect to receive Neptune aboard all the vessels of the fleet on crossing the line and there will be a great welcome awaiting him. We are 1,028 miles from Diamond Head."

And the following was received from the U. S. S. Minnesota: "Minnesota expects to get up with the main body of the fleet in the evening of Tuesday and deliver mail. Making a little under fourteen knots. Weather moderate with light squalls and very warm."

There was something peculiar about the receipt of the above message, inasmuch as a portion of the first message was received direct from the Connecticut, 1,028 miles away and the latter portion of the same message was received from the Minnesota, which is giving the Connecticut a warm stern chase. The operator, Charlie Mulleiner, at Barber's Point, picked up the first portion of the message direct from the flagship and then the Minnesota butted in and sent to Barber's Point the message where the Connecticut had left off.

MR. TRUE GIVES POLITICAL TRUTH

TELLS JUDGE DOLE THE AMERICAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT IS THE BEST ON EARTH.

Three new citizens of the United States were created this morning in the United States Court. Rev. Samuel Edward True Simpson was one of these and when asked by Judge Dole for his opinion of the government of the country stated that he believed that it was the very best form of government in existence particularly for a new country and was one which would gradually be adopted by the whole world. One of Mr. Simpson's witnesses was a lady, an unusual thing to see in a naturalization case. William L. West and Charles K. Simpson were also admitted to citizenship.

WOOD PAVEMENT

The work for the placing of a wooden block pavement on Queen street was commenced this morning by the road department. A scarifier and steam roller started the job by tearing up the pavement from the junction of Queen and Nuuanu streets and found that it was all that they could do to loosen the closely packed macadam. The work will be pushed through as rapidly as possible and it will not be long before Honolulu will have at least one section of the best pavement to be found in the world.

THE LOG-BOOK

The Navy Department has approved the survey of the cruiser San Francisco at Norfolk Navy yard. She will be used for laying mines.

The Navy Department has approved the survey of the cruiser Raleigh at Mare Island with reference to installing general repairs.

Captain Harris of the yacht Hawaii has resumed his former position as mate of the Inter-Island steamer Nilhau.

The bark Mohican sailed from Mahukona for San Francisco on July 19.

The crew of the U. S. S. Iroquois are taking care of the pet dog which Lieutenant Commander Carter intended taking with him aboard the battleship Georgia but could not find when he was about to depart. The dog was lost for a time but was found after the Georgia left.

Barber's Point wireless station was in touch with the Atlantic fleet Saturday night, receiving messages from the flagship at a distance of 775 miles. Last night messages were received from 1909 miles away.

Four sailors from the cruiser Milwaukee figured in a wreck yesterday afternoon on Beretania street at Aala Park. They were suffering from warm weather under their hats and the sailor at the helm dropped the wheel a minute to raise his hat to let in some cool air or to wave it as a signal of distress, or something, and in endeavoring to recover the lines he climbed out forward over the bowsprit, being thrown to the shore and knocked silly when the horse, already frightened, took a new start and dashed into a Japanese hack. The foreign craft was smashed in the collision, but the only member of either crew damaged was the steersman of the Milwaukee rig.

The approach to the Hackfeld wharf is full of holes and nearly worn-through planks and is highly dangerous to man and beast.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The United States' cruiser Tennessee and Washington departed yesterday for Bremerton, from which point they will sail for Honolulu early in August. One hundred prisoners from the naval prison at Mare Island were aboard the cruisers. They will be confined in the prison at Bremerton.

It is generally believed along the water front that the revenue cutter "Daniel Manning," which put to sea recently, is under orders to intercept the British tank steamer "Pinna," bound to Gaviota from Yokohama. It is thought that the oil steamer has been bringing Japanese to this country and smuggling them ashore by landing them in small boats. The "Pinna" is under charter to the Toyo Kisen Kaisha in the oil trade.—Shipping' Illustrated.

The American Museum of Natural History is arranging for an expedition to Vancouver Island and the Arctic to study the habits and character of the whale. Roy C. Andrews, of the Museum, has the work in hand, and expects to make photographs of the cetacean and gain much new knowledge on the subject.

ENVOY SAYS JAPAN STOPS EMIGRATION

Ambassador O'Brien Thinks Mikado Is Trying to Enforce Recently Made Treaty.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—"The Japanese Government is trying hard to enforce the emigration laws," said Ambassador Thomas J. O'Brien yesterday on his return from Tokio on the liner Korea for his vacation. "It will take time to get the laws under the treaty now in force in full working order," continued Mr. O'Brien. "The steamship companies got good revenue from the former passenger traffic, and have brought pressure to obstruct the emigration laws."

Mr. O'Brien also told that when he left Tokio no preparations had been made to receive the Atlantic fleet on its visit to Japanese waters. The fleet will arrive about the time of the Japanese annual naval mobilization, and the Mikado's navy will doubtless act as escort to the American battleships.

Ambassador O'Brien is en route to his home in Grand Rapids, Mich., where he will visit his relatives. He will then go to Europe, where his wife now is, and both will return to the Orient on the Siberian Railroad in time to greet the Atlantic fleet in Japan.

FIJI DISAPPOINTED

It was a great disappointment to the citizens of Suva, the capital of Fiji, to learn, through a cablegram from Admiral Sperry to the colonial secretary,

JAPANESE LABORERS STILL COME

WASHINGTON, July 13.—There is every disposition on the part of the Administration to believe that the Japanese Government is faithfully trying to live up to its agreement to issue no passports to Japanese laborers to come to the United States.

It was found by the agents of the government that some of the Japanese who come to this country as members of the exempt classes eventually turned up in menial occupations, and there ensued correspondence between the two governments as to what constituted laborers. Japan, it is understood, has accepted the definition of laborer submitted by the State Department, but in the meantime there seems to be no way to deport those pseudo merchants, students and others who got into this country on passports and subsequently went to work as laborers, and the only hope is that the Japanese government will henceforth cause even greater caution to be exercised in issuing passports. In the meantime all immigrants will be under surveillance by the government agents in order that it may be known what becomes of them after they come to this country.

The report for the fiscal year just closed is not yet out, but taking the twelve months ending May 30, 1908, and comparing that period with the twelve months ending May 30, 1907, and it is seen that the immigration for the latter period to Hawaii and the United States from Japan amounted to 30,435 as compared with 19,575 for the former period. When the incoming stream of Japanese really began in December last immigration to the mainland fell from 1170 for December, 1907, to 717 for December, 1908.

For the next five months the figures were as follows: January, 1907, 1350; 1908, 495; February, 1907, 812; 1908, 463; March, 1907, 1023; 1908, 491; April 1907, 728; 1908, 602; May, 1907, 952; 1908, 648.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—At a meeting of the Immigration Commission in New York last Saturday it was agreed that Professor W. C. Mitchell in charge of the immigration work on the Pacific Coast, with headquarters in San Francisco, should be authorized to employ twenty additional men for field work. Part of these are already on the rolls and the balance will probably be selected from among the many applicants who have already filed requests for employment.

Professor Mitchell reported progress in the work assigned to him. He is looking up immigrants to this country and ascertaining their sociological condition. Some progress has been made with the Italians, Mexicans, Russians, and other nationalities in finding out to what degree they are becoming assimilated with the population.

During July especial attention is being paid to the fruit interests and the employment afforded by them to alien labor. Dr. Rorotha Moore is gathering data for the Commission in Los Angeles and Iro Cross has been sent to San Jose to investigate the labor conditions in the Santa Clara fruit orchards and canneries. Acting Secretary of Commerce and Labor William R. Wheeler says he is well satisfied with the progress being made in this work in California.

CHINESE BOYCOTT HAS ONLY BEGUN

That's What Baron Utsumi of Tokio and Other Arrivals From Orient Declare.

EVEN COAL IMPORTATION ENDS.

Deposits in Flowery Kingdom To Be Opened—Match Factories Are Planned.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 15.—Passengers who arrived yesterday on the steamer Korea from the Orient say the boycott of the Chinese against everything Japanese has scarcely begun. Steamship lines owned by the Japanese are apparently the greatest sufferers, but the ramifications of the great boycott extend to all kinds of commerce throughout the length of the coast and are growing toward the interior of the Flowery Kingdom. The movement will have one great result, say the observers who have returned from the Far East, and that will be the opening up and development of some of China's greatest natural resources.

United States Consul Leo Allen Bergholtz from Canton, Baron Katsufu Utsumi of Tokio, Missionary Alfred Alf from Canton and S. Silverstone, Pacific Mail agent at Hongkong, were among those who spoke of the boycott, though some of them spoke more freely than the others. All admitted that it has become serious. Baron Utsumi, who is the son of the late Tadakatsu Utsumi, Minister for Home Affairs in Japan, is a young man on his way to attend school at Fitchburg, Mass. He is accompanied by Professor F. A. Shattuck, who is an instructor in the Keiojigaku University of Tokio where there is an attendance of 5000 students.

"The steamship business of the Japanese has been already practically ruined," says the passenger. "The matches used by Chinese have heretofore come from Japan, where they were manufactured by Chinese labor, and now the Chinese at Canton are preparing to open their own match factories on a great scale. It will be the last of matches from Japan for the great empire when the Cantonese begin manufacturing."

"The hardest part of it all for the Chinese has been the boycott against Japanese coal, which has constituted the principal fuel for the Chinese coast points. But in spite of this fact the boycott has stood, and the effect is to be the opening of vast coal supplies in China. Steps in this direction were under way before the Korea left the China coast."

"At Canton and other cities merchants burned their stocks of Japanese goods rather than handle the stuff. But there has been no molestation of the persons of the Japanese, who go everywhere. The Chinese have been strictly enjoined to let the Japanese alone, except in a commercial way."

MRS. LONGWORTH IS CRITICISED

Kentucky Delegation at Prohibition Convention Objects to Inviting Her.

ONE LONE WOMAN ACCUSER.

Delegation Says President's Daughter Attends Races, Smokes, and Puts Tacks in Chairs.

COLUMBUS, (Ohio), July 14.—In caucus this afternoon the Kentucky delegation to the National Prohibition convention, which will open in Memorial Hall here tomorrow morning, refused to invite Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth to attend the convention as Kentucky's honored guest.

The reasons the delegates gave for this action were:

First—That Mrs. Longworth attended the Lexington horse races and sat besides Boss George B. Cox of Cincinnati, a well-known man of the world.

Second—That she smokes cigarettes.

Third—She placed a tack on a chair in the gallery of the House at Washington, causing much pain and annoyance to a diplomatic visitor.

Without consulting their fellow-members in the delegation, H. W. Davis of Louisville, T. P. Demaree of Wilmore and H. S. D. Wright of Louisville took it upon themselves to write to the daughter of President Roosevelt and ask her to grace their convention as she had the national conventions of the Republican and Democratic parties. They told her that Kentucky would be delighted to act as her host.

Not until this afternoon did the trio make known their pleasant little secret to the delegation as a whole. Promptly and peremptorily the motion was voted down on the grounds already stated. In vain did Mr. Demaree and his two friends argue that the action of the delegation might be construed and accepted by President Roosevelt as an insult to his daughter.

WOMAN STARTS OPPOSITION.

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchant, the only woman member of the Prohibition National Committee, was the delegate from Kentucky who started the protest against Mrs. Longworth.

"Of course," she said, "I cannot prove of my knowledge that the things which have been said about Mrs. Longworth are true, but even though they be gossip pure and simple, Kentucky and the Prohibition party can afford to take no chances."

When the doors are opened at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning the convention will be without a platform of any description. Up to 10 o'clock tonight it was stated upon trustworthy information that there are seventeen candidates for the presidential nomination in the field.

"EXALTED SERVANT."

The foreigners who grow sarcastic over the reference in the republican platform to the President as the people's "most exalted servant" place all the emphasis on "exalted" and ignore the significance of "servant." The phrase is really the neatest straddle in the platform.—Springfield Republican.

MONSTER WARSHIP

Great Britain is leading the nations a merry chase in the contest for naval supremacy, says the San Francisco British-American. Endeavoring to catch up with her in quality of warships, at least, all the first-class powers are building imitations of the Dreadnaught. Having allowed them to get fairly started on their prodigious and costly task, Britain now allows it to be known that the Dreadnaught type of battleship is already obsolete.

The dispatch says: "Great Britain is constructing a new type of battleship that will be able to send the huge Dreadnaught to the bottom as easily as the Dreadnaught can sink the Russian type of ironclad. The new ship will be called the Foudroyant, and she will cost $12,500,000, which is $2,500,000 more than was expended on the Dreadnaught."

The new monster will have no funnels, and will make no smoke. Her engines will be driven by gas, which, beside taking up less room than steam engines, will allow a greater speed. She will be 550 feet long and will mount 12 great 13.5 guns, while no other battleship now building provides for guns larger than 12 inch. These new weapons are the outcome of years of experimental work that has been going on in the British arsenals, and when they get into action, nothing now afoot can stand up against them.

"As the Foudroyant will not burn coal, she will be able to creep up closed to an enemy without being detected than any other warship except a few torpedo boats can now do. On a dark night the Foudroyant will be able to get among a hostile fleet and put her terrific battery into action before any of the enemy has had an inkling of her whereabouts. The armor on the Foudroyant will be 12 inches thick, and she will have a speed of 23 knots an hour." Richmond Times-Dispatch.

SEARCHING FOR A SIMILE.
The supreme modesty of the republican platform can be compared to nothing except the timid violet.—

HAWAIIANS AND THE RACE LINE.

The cry that Hawaiians are banding together to vote strictly on race lines is an old one and a disagreeable and hurtful one, because the very accusation tends to produce such an alignment. In the first Territorial election was the strongest effort to produce such an alignment, and it was more nearly successful than any since. Since then the tendency has been away from race issues, though there has never been a time when some agitators have not tried to use the issue and when enemies of Hawaiians have not charged that it was going to do dominate. But the results, so far, have not shown that the Hawaiians can be herded into any such movement, though in some districts on other islands there has been considerable success in this sort of move.

An additional and perhaps even worse feature of this sort of political campaigning is found in the charges of secret society politics. This cropped up on Hawaii a couple of years ago, and is now stated to be having considerable vogue here. It matters not what races compose it, a secret political society is un-American and disastrous to the only kind of politics that should exist, which is an open, free, honorable public discussion of issues and men. To some extent, the local Civic Federation has assumed a position at times which may be used as an example of white citizens violating this rule, for it appears to have a secret membership list and it acts in secret. But its membership is not restricted to any race—and it is a local political truth to state that its notorious lack of political support among citizens who are quite in sympathy with all of its aims and most of its policies, is due to this closed-door method. It is certain, however, to be cited as a white secret political society, though known to be merely a Good Government club.

The Star does not think that the race movement can be made successful this time more than before. The Hawaiian, we repeat, has shown that he cannot be herded politically. His record as a voter under the American system is a good one. There is no reason for a change. Both the Republican and Democratic parties give fair proportion of recognition to Hawaiians on their tickets, and in both conventions just held the proportion of Hawaiians was perhaps larger than ever. Race agitators we shall always have, but they cannot reach the majority of common sense voters. The Hawaiian who urges members of his race to vote on race lines is attempting to foster a movement which if successful would end in complete political disaster to his race, for it may be plainly stated that the white retaliation to a native race-line vote would be swift and effective.

LIVING 200 YEARS.

The versatile Wu Ting Fang has been announced as discovering the secret of living 200 years and some of us just born may survive to see how nearly he manages to do it. In any event his plan is of interest. Here is how the distinguished diplomat proposes to delay the final summons:

- "(1) I have given up my breakfast, taking two meals a day, lunch and dinner.
- "(2) Abstain from all flesh food; my diet is rice, or, when I go out to dinner, whole wheat bread, fresh vegetables, nuts and fruit.
- "(3) I avoid all coffee, cocoa, tea, liquors, condiments and all rich foods.
- "(4) I have given up all salt also, because it is found that salt makes one's bones stiff.
- "(5) I masticate every mouthful of food thoroughly before it is swallowed.
- "(6) I don't drink at meals, but between meals or one hour after meals.
- "(7) I practice deep breathing.
- "(8) I take moderate exercise."

CHINESE QUESTION IN FIJI.

Fiji has a Chinese labor question in about the same stage as that of Hawaii in the eighties, and an attempt to settle it as was done here, among the last measures before the overthrow of the monarchy, recently failed by a close vote in the legislature council. By ten to eight the following resolution was defeated:

That, in the opinion of this Council, Chinese should not be introduced into this Colony as agricultural laborers except under indenture and proper labor laws, and should on the expiration of their indenture be either reintroduced or repatriated.

This is the same plan as that adopted through a constitutional amendment which was passed by the Hawaiian legislature for the required second time in the closing days of the monarchy. Under it Chinese immigration to these islands was restricted to those accepting contracts for plantation or domestic labor terminating in three years, the laborers having the privilege of renewing their contracts. Those not doing so had to return to China, their passages being covered in the meantime by deposits of a percentage of their wages with the Government. Thus the Chinese fund originated, of which a balance of $17,000 and odd was embezzled by Treasurer Wright, who absconded to the Coast.

The plan worked smoothly under the Provisional Government and the Republic, until one fine day Japan put a velvet gloved paw upon it. Japan informed President's Dole's government that an understanding existed, in connection with Hawaii's labor immigration convention with Japan, whereby the number of Chinese in the Hawaiian Islands was not to be increased above that obtaining when the said convention was concluded. The number was about 22,000 and the objection of Japan suddenly ended the privilege of varying their labor supply by importations from China which the planters had enjoyed. Of course with annexation there came complete exclusion of Chinese labor.

Reverting to the question in Fiji, the reasons for exclusion are familiar ones of the eighties in Hawaii. There is a notable difference in the championship of the cause. Here the planting interest succeeded in delaying the constitutional amendment for two years. Mr. Withrow, who moved the abortive resolution in the Fijian legislature, is a planter, as the following extract from his remarks shows:

"As honorable members are aware, the question of the free admission of Chinese into this country was a very live one at the recent elections. I do not exaggerate when I say that the feeling against them being allowed to land without restriction was universal throughout the whole group. It was not the mere clamor of an hour. It was made a strong point with the planters, who felt if aliens were to be allowed to enter the colony without restriction that a great injustice would be done. But this question does not confine itself to planting alone. It affects everything. There are mechanics, carpenters, etc., working in the colony. The carpenters are erecting buildings at a weekly wage that would not keep the European carpenter for a day. In other colonies this question has been dealt with and legislation has been introduced to deal with it. It must not be overlooked that we are a British colony and our first duty is to see that our own people are not subjected to an injustice to the benefit of the alien. As a planter I have no hesitation in saying that the more laborers we have here the better be they Indians or Polynesians, or any other nationality, but do not let us cut our own throats by allowing them to enter into competition with us. I fully recognize that there are Chinese merchants whose advent into a colony could mean nothing but good, but is so hard to differentiate between them that I prefer to leave my motion in the present form."

Both Fiji and Samoa are becoming alive to promoting tourist business. New Zealand's successful movement begun some years ago is cited as an example by the Western Pacific Herald, Suva, which advocates encouragement to "the recently formed Fijian Society, one of whose objects is to make a collection of various weapons and utensils of the primitive native. To this might be added," the Herald says, "natural history specimens and perhaps an aquarium similar to the one ever talked about by visitors to Honolulu."

BAD FAITH IN THE LEGISLATURE

KAUAI TAX APPEAL IN A PINEAPPLE LAND CASE BRINGS OUT AN UNUSUAL CONTENTION—NO RIGHT TO TAX LANDS IN 1907 AFTER PASSING A FIVE-YEAR EXEMPTION LAW OF 1903—KAUAI COURT SUSTAINS THIS PLEA.

The record of appeal from the decision of the Tax Appeal Court of Kauai was filed with the Supreme Court this morning in the matter of the assessment of the Kaula Fruit and Land Company vs. J. K. Farley, the Kaula tax assessor. A new question is brought up in the matter which may prove interesting. According to the assessment made by Farley the value of the property possessed by the fruit company is about $23,000 from which the sum of $5,274 is deducted as exempt under the law of 1907, leaving an assessable value of $17,726. The company claimed a total exemption.

In the decision made by Charles S. Dole and the other members of the tax appeal court the contention of the plaintiffs is upheld. Although this is the fourth or fifth pineapple case which has been brought before the tax appeal courts in the Territory, it is the first on which it has been decided against the Territory on a ground of bad faith.

The contentions of the plaintiffs, which have been upheld are to the effect that the Legislature showed bad faith in the making of the law of 1907 and that as the result of this it cannot go into effect till the next taxation period, that of 1909, when the five years during which exemption was allowed by the law of 1903 will have expired.

The closing paragraph of the decision of the Kauai tax appeal court reads as follows:

"The decision of this court is that the exemption from taxation granted the pineapple industry by the law of 1903 applies to the taxation period for which assessments are required to be made on the first of January, 1908, and that the law of 1907 will not apply to said industry until the next taxation period—that of 1909."

OXYGEN A CURE FOR PERITONITIS

RESULTS OF EXPERIMENTS LEAD TO BELIEF THAT DISEASE MAY BE FOUGHT.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Remarkable results attained in treatment of peritonitis with pure oxygen at Beth Israel Hospital have raised hopes that a way has been found at last to combat this dread disease, which places the stamp of death upon 95 per cent of its victims. A striking illustration of the efficiency of oxygen was given when there was discharged from the hospital Mrs. Anna Abias, a sufferer from peritonitis, whose case upon her admission was at first given up as hopeless.

On the day when she was taken to the hospital, two and a half weeks ago, Dr. William Scamman Bainbridge had been discussing with Prof. Henry Mansfield Silver, the hospital chief surgeon, a theory that oxygen, if tried, would prove a cure for peritonitis.

An hour afterward Dr. Silver received the summons to make a heroic effort to save the woman's life. When he reached her side he found she was suffering with general peritonitis and that her temperature was 103 degrees.

Seeing that the old method of draining off the bacterial substance in the region of the peritoneum would be without avail in her case, he resolved to follow the suggestion given by Dr. Bainbridge.

After an abdominal cut had been made and the usual treatment given, the wound was so sutured that it left room for a small tube. This tube was connected with a tank of oxygen, which was run through water to thoroughly purify it, and after the flow had continued for three minutes the tube was withdrawn.

Mrs. Abias evinced such remarkable improvement in the very start that other peritonitis sufferers were similarly treated. There are now at the hospital four other persons who were given the cure. All have shown improvement, equally as great as that of Mrs. Abias, and it is expected that when they, too, have been in the hospital for two weeks and a half they will be able to go home as well as they ever were.

NOVEL STUDY OF HIGH ALTITUDES

KING OF WURTEMBERG BUILDS AN OBSERVATORY SIMILAR TO THAT OF BLUE HILL.

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, July 11.—The inauguration of the King of Wurtemberg of the new Government observatory for the study of meteorological conditions by means of captive balloons took place here today in the presence of a brilliant assemblage of officials and scientists representing the entire empire. This new observatory in its workings is based upon certain ideas successfully carried out in America. Abbott Lawrence Rotch of the Blue Hill Observatory, near Boston was especially invited to attend the inauguration.

This observatory is one of the best-equipped in the world. It is provided with a special boat for the purpose of carrying out experiments over Lake Constance. Kites will be sent aloft from the boat to a height of 20,000 feet, carrying registering instruments. It is hoped by this means that atmospheric records of the greatest value will be obtained.

EXERCISE TO SUPPLANT "REST CURE" FOR NERVES

International Medical Congress Defines Nervous Breakdown as Oxalic Acid in Blood.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Dr. Gustave Bear of Portland, Ore., was an arrival on board the North German Lloyd liner Kaiser Wilhelm II. Dr. Bear was one of the American representatives at the International Medical Congress, just closed at Vienna. He said that a new disease had been defined during the conference.

This disease is scientifically termed "oxaluria" and relates to the secretion of oxalic acid in the blood. It was the opinion among the delegates, Dr. Bear said, that these secretions are the cause of the majority of cases of nervous breakdown.

There was a radical condemnation of the "rest cure" for nervous attacks during the congress. Dr. Bear said the general treatment eventually would be to clarify the blood and take an abundance of muscular exercise.

CURIOUS TANGLE OF MAN'S RELATIONSHIP

BERLIN, July 11.—A queer genealogical tangle is reported from Mayence, in Germany. A sausage-maker of that town, Fritz Fluhrer by name, married a widow of 37 named Garrecht, who had a daughter 18 years old, Madeline Garrecht. His father, Georges Fluhrer, a widower of 61, then appeared on the scene, fell in love with Madeline Garrecht and married her; so that, at one and the same time, Frau Fritz Fluhrer became daughter-in-law and mother-in-law of Georges Fluhrer.

But things did not end there. Georges Fluhrer had a son, Hans, who is at once brother to Fritz Fluhrer and his grandson through Madeline Garrecht, his stepdaughter. To make confusion worse confounded, Frau Fritz Fluhrer also had a son, Johann, and so Fritz Fluhrer became brother to his own child.

Thus Fritz Fluhrer is his mother's brother-in-law, his wife is her own son's aunt, Johann Fluhrer is grandson of Georges Fluhrer, and Fritz Fluhrer, states the Globe, is his own father-in-law.

AIRSHIP TO STAY IN AIR ALL DAY

COUNT ZEPPELIN HOPES TO WIN THE HALF MILLION DOLLAR PRIZE.

BERLIN, July 13.—Count Zeppelin's announcement telegraphed from Friedrichshafen that, weather permitting, he will attempt a twenty-four hour flight tomorrow with his mammoth dirigible balloon, has wrought up interest in the airship question to the highest pitch. According to experts, the day is likely to mark an epoch in the development of aeronautics should Count Zeppelin succeed in meeting the prescribed conditions and earn the prize of $500,000 by remaining an entire day in the air, an enormous impetus must be imparted to experimentation in this field. The airship question has become a veritable craze. One private company already is building airships, ostensibly for commercial uses, and another is said to be organizing for the same purpose.

The fact that the German Government already possesses six dirigible balloons and stands in the forefront of the world in this domain is cited as evidence of an impending innovation which will not be without important political aspects.

EX-PRESIDENT

SCENE I.—The Top of the World. After a gallant battle the good ship Roosevelt could force her way no farther through the ice and Peary and his companions prepared for their dash across it to the Pole, the Pole!

With a murmur of sorrow that so much ice should be devoid of even a single bottle of champagne, the little band set forth upon their dare-devil dash. For days they pressed onward slowly, passing only to fry an occasional snowball or purchase a new dog whip.

Suddenly the leader gave a loud cry and pointed excitedly to the snow.

"There the little band perceived a footprint!

Some one was before them, although they were now far beyond any point ever reached by previous explorers.

The men's blood ran cold.

They thought of ghosts and unearthly guardians of the great white North, but at the word of their gallant leader they pressed forward once more.

Forty-eight hours later they sighted the top of the Pole, and in six hours more they were within fifty yards of it.

"Why are you?" huskily demanded Peary.

"I replied the figure—"I'm Theodore Roosevelt, ex-President of the United States."

SCENE II.—The Heart of the Jungle. The Earl of Piccadilly was stalking a huge elephant.

He was 1,500 miles from the nearest ice box. His longing for a brandy and soda was overwhelming, but with English dislike of appearing human he repressed his desire to sigh or swear.

Suddenly a large gorilla reached down from a tree and seized the Earl by the collar of his hunting jacket.

"Jenkins," quietly remarked the Earl to his valet, "you may—er—shoot this impudent creature."

A shot rang out, and the enormous brute fell to the ground dead.

The Earl arose and Jenkins proceeded to brush the dust off his master's clothing.

"Aw, the animal ripped my sleeve slightly. Have you another jacket?" said the Earl.

"Yes, m' lord; there's a riding coat, m' Lord," answered the valet, unpacking the trunk he carried.

"Jenkins, Jenkins!" said the Earl in a tone of reproof. "I cannot hunt in a riding coat. Nor can I walk in one, so go back to Mombesi and bring me another hunting jacket."

Standing behind a tree so that not even a gorilla could see him in his shirt sleeves, the Earl waited ten days until Jenkins returned.

"A little behind the style," remarked the hunter, donning his new jacket, "but 'twill have to do."

Saying, they marched forward. Pointing out a large elephant, the Earl commanded Jenkins to aim at it.

"All ready, m' lord," said Jenkins. Just as the Earl reached his finger leisurely toward the trigger, a form sprang from the jungle, grasped the elephant by the trunk and checked it to death.

"Aw—er—find out who that person is," commanded the Earl.

"Go are you?" demanded Jenkins of the stranger.

"I—er—replied the unknown—"I am Theodore Roosevelt, ex-President of the United States."—Wex Jones.

KEY TO THE FUTURE.
The election of Taft means peace and prosperity. It means that the job will again begin to seek the man instead of the man the job. It means an end of harmful wrangling and a fair chance for orderly progress to make headway. It means the preservation of all the good that is in the Roosevelt administration and the elimination of that which is bad. It is not strange, therefore, that as Roosevelt and anti-Roosevelt republicans supported Secretary Taft before his nomination, so now every faction of the party, each finding abundant reason for sympathy, is ready to salute him.—New York Globe.

EXCITEMENT AT THE BALL GROUNDS

Punahou and Santa Clara were the victors Saturday afternoon at the league grounds, the Puns easily defeated the Keios by a 5-0 score, and the Kams went down to defeat at the hands of the collegians by a 13-3 score. Both games were brilliant at times, with good plays, although the games were not as good as they might have been. The Kams were certainly in bad luck, Reuter being as wild as a March hare and for that reason the Santa Clara players had little trouble in hitting him at will. Hart, the St. Mary College pitcher, who is playing with Punahou, pitched a beautiful game, striking out sixteen men.

Albright and Steere handled the indicators well, although some of their decisions were hoisted, but that has to be expected in a baseball game. The summary of both games follows:

lulu picked team and the team from the Milwaukee was as good a game as any one wished to see, and for eleven innings both teams played hard for the victory which came to the local boys by a 8-3 score. The locals made three runs in the first and none until the first half of the eleventh when they sent five men around the bases and the game was theirs. The sailors scored in the second and fifth, but were unable to overcome the lead made by their rivals in the last half of the eleventh. Several times during the game kinks were made at the umpire's decisions.

INDEPENDENCE CANDIDATES

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Delegates to the National Independence League were elected at a mass meeting here tonight and were instructed to vote for the nomination of William Randolph Hearst for President and John Temple Graves of Virginia for Vice-President.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Indications of an active contest for the nomination for President at the National convention of the Independence party to be held in Chicago July 28th and 29th developed today. Four active candidates are now in the field and the friends of these men are to open headquarters in Chicago within the next few days.

Thomas Hixson of Massachusetts, who was the candidate of the Independence party for Governor of Massachusetts last fall, has already been endorsed by several States, and his friends in New England are determined to conduct an active contest for his nomination.

On the other hand, Howard S. Taylor of Illinois, M. W. Howard of Alabama and Charles A. Walsh of Iowa are active candidates also, and will conduct a thorough canvass to obtain the nomination. The convention is to be held in Orchestra Hall, and every State in the Union will be represented with a complete delegation.

The convention of the Independence party will establish a new record in disposing of its business in two days instead of three and four days required by the two old parties. The first day will be devoted to the organization of the convention, the reports of appointments and reports of committees, while the second day is to be devoted to the adoption of the platform and the naming of nominees for President and Vice-President.

COULD NOT GET MONEY ENOUGH

WHY THE ALAKEA STREET WHARF BIDS WERE ALL TURNED DOWN.

The turning down of all the bids for the new Alakea wharf shed has caused some comment in this city and John Hughes, who was the lowest bidder, feels very much aggrieved at the action taken by the Superintendent of Public Works. It is understood that the trouble was caused by the failure of a certain steamship company to keep up to an agreement which had been tentatively made.

The money available from the appropriation by the Legislature amounted to $44,000. In addition to this a liberal fund from the steamship concern, which would derive great benefit from the new structure, was expected, but did not materialize. With the additional money which was expected from this source there would have been enough to complete the work. Without this money the plans must be changed, for the Attorney-General has held that the Superintendent of Public Works must not contract for a greater amount of work than he has money available.

An attempt was made to scale the figures down to an amount which would come within the sum which could be used, but this was found impossible and new bids will be called for on modified plans. This will be done as quickly as possible.

CHINESE RECEPTION.

ABOUT FRANK HARVEY.

Mr. Harvey, one of the delegates from Hawaii, is the pride of his associates from the island, who say he is one of the best possible examples of the self-made man. Allen Herbert pronounced the eulogy, and the other delegates, James L. Coke, C. B. Gona-gle and O. T. Shipman, added their endorsement to the Herald. Mr. Harvey has the swarthy skin of tropical lands, and believes cordially in the future of Hawaii. The great hope of the white citizens of the island is that there shall be a strong influx of good American blood to bring about a quick development of the island's resources.—N. Y. Herald.

GRAND HISTORICAL PAGEANT IN QUEBEC CELEBRATION

GIANT WARSHIP TAKES THE WATER

BATTLESHIP SOUTH CAROLINA, A SECOND DREADNAUGHT, IS LAUNCHED.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11.—Amid the din of steam whistles ashore and aloft and the cheering of thousands of persons assembled to witness the event the "all big gun" battleship South Carolina was launched at 12:05 p. m. today at Cramp's shipyard on the Delaware river.

As the latest addition to the American Navy slipped into the water, Miss Frederica Calvert Ansel, daughter of Governor Ansel of South Carolina, broke the traditional bottle of wine against the prow of the great hull and then gave the big sea fighter its name. Surrounding the pretty girl stood a group, including her father and his military staff, many officials of the Navy Department, the commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, officials of the city, officials of the Italian war ship Ettore Fieramosca, now in port and hundreds of invited guests.

There was not a hitch to the launching, and after tugs had warped the big hull into the docks the invited guests proceeded to the famous mold-loft of the Cramps where many a launching feast has been spread, and sat down to luncheon.

The christening party sat at a center table, and the usual toasts to the new ship, the President of the United States, to the Navy and to the fair sponsor of the ship were drunk.

The South Carolina is the second of the two all big gun battleships authorized by Congress, the other being the Michigan, which recently was launched at Camden, N. J.

The new vessel will carry eight twelve-inch breech-loading rifles. The general dimensions of the South Carolina are as follows: Length on load-water line, 450 feet; extreme breadth, 80 feet; draft, 24 feet 6 inches. Total coal bunker capacity, 2200 tons. The hull is of steel throughout. The contract calls for a sustained speed of eighteen and one-half knots an hour for four consecutive hours.

Besides the eight twelve-inch guns, the main battery will include two submerged torpedo tubes, and the secondary battery will consist of twenty-two three-inch, fourteen and one-half pounder rapid-fire guns; two three-pounder semi-automatic guns; two three-inch field pieces; four machine guns of thirty caliber. The twelve-inch guns will be mounted in pairs in four turrets on the center line, two forward and two aft.

The hull will be protected on the water line by a belt of armor eight feet wide, having a thickness of eleven inches throughout the machinery spaces and twelve inches at the magazine spaces. For a height of eight feet above the main belt there will be the casement armor, eight inches thick at the top and ten inches thick at the bottom. There will be a complete protective deck from stem to stern. The magazines and shellroom will be so arranged that about one-half of the total supply of ammunition will be carried at each end of the ship.

The engines will have a combined indicated horse-power of 16,500. Each engine will be located in a separate water-tight compartment. Each of the two funnels of the vessel will be 100 feet high above the base line. The crew will number fifty-one officers and 758 men.

CANNIBALISM IN SOUTH SEAS

A horrible story of murder and cannibalism was brought to Sydney by the steamer Prinz Sigismund, of the North German Lloyd Line. The victims were three boys belonging to the Methodist mission in the Bismarck Archipelago.

From the particulars obtained from Mr. Findlay, a resident of the islands, who arrived by the Prinz Sigismund, it appears that about the middle of last month a native teacher arrived at the mission station in charge of Rev. W. W. Danks, son of Rev. B. Danks (president of the New South Wales Methodist Conference), with a report that three of the boys belonging to the Baining mission village had been caught by the bush tribe and killed and eaten. The boys had gone into the bush from their station, which is right on the coast, and they were suddenly surprised by the hill tribes and killed. The bodies were carried into the mountains, where fires were kindled and the remains roasted and devoured.

When the news reached the Baining mission station a native teacher was dispatched along the coast to report the massacre. He succeeded in reaching Mr. Danks, who proceeded to Mr. Findlay's residence, and telephoned the report into the German Government station at Herberloff.

The news created some excitement among the white residents, and steps

FOREST NAMED FOR CLEVELAND

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT CHANGES TITLE OF THE SAN JACINTO RESERVE.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—President Roosevelt has ordered that the San Jacinto forest in California shall be named anew in honor of the late President, Cleveland National Forest. It is understood that he has consulted Mrs. Cleveland regarding this tribute to the President under whom the first national forests were created, and although official notice has not yet been given, his purpose is known.

It was through the National Academy of Sciences that the present forestry policy was adopted and in compliance with the recommendations of that organization President Cleveland created thirteen national forests containing something like 23,000,000 acres on February 22, 1897, in honor of Washington's one hundred and sixty-fifth birthday. They were the San Jacinto and Stanislaus, in California; Bitter Root, in Idaho and Montana; Priest River, Idaho and Washington; Black Hills, S. D.; Uintah, Utah; Olympia and Rainier, in Washington; Big Horn, Wyo.; Teton, Wyo.; Flat Head, Montana; Lewis and Clark, Montana.

Owing to opposition all of these reserves were abandoned except the San Jacinto and Stanislaus, but later the others were again withdrawn from entry.

At once taken to send out a punitive expedition. The Governor, Dr. Hahl, was away at the time in the yacht Seestern, paying an official visit to the Caroline group, but when the Prinz Sigismund left Mr. Full, the deputy, who had just returned from Aloka, was preparing to proceed to the scene and punish the natives.

YOU WANT The News First.

You Want Your Ads Read

Here Is Some Advice

Honolulu more than any other city in the World, is a place where the Evening Paper gets the news first. The clock here is over two hours behind the clock at San Francisco, four hours behind Chicago, five hours behind New York and ten to eleven hours behind the clocks in the European capitals.

This means that when The Star is going to press THE DAY IS CLOSED in Washington, Chicago, New York and Europe and almost over in San Francisco. The news of the day is here for The Star.

Under modern conditions it takes practically no time to prepare and transmit news and THE STAR gets every evening the cable dispatches giving

The News Of All the World For The Day Just Ended--

Here are some of the features that go to make the evening paper the predominating factor in an advertising campaign:

It is delivered at the home each night when the whole family has plenty of time to read it.

It is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it stays there. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The evening paper is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all the advertisements receive their share of attention.

It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

The evening paper presents the news the day it happens. The morning paper the day after.

The evening paper presents the news first. The morning paper merely elaborates it.

The evening paper prints daylight news. The morning paper takes what is left.
