LAKE BAIKAL WHERE THE RUSSIANS HAVE BUILT A RAILROAD ON THE ICE

LAKE BAIKAL on the FROZEN SURFACE of which HUNDREDS of RUSSIAN SOLDIERS PERISHED

Lake Baikal is in southern Siberia between the 100th and 110th meridians of East Longitude and the 50th and 60th parallels of North Latitude. It is nearly 400 miles long and stretches nearly its entire length right across the course of the Trans-Siberian railroad. To go around the lake would be to add greatly to the length of the road. In summer trains are ferried across the lake. But in winter the lake is frozen over, and this winter the Russians have built a railroad across the lake on the ice, by means of which they are transporting their men and supplies to the scene of the war with Japan.

SPENDING LOAN MONEY

LARGE NUMBER OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE WITH MONEY SECURED FROM BONDS—WORK PROCEEDING UNDER OVER THIRTY CONTRACTS AND A DOZEN OTHERS HAVE BEEN CAPTURED.

Forty-one contracts in all have been made by Superintendent of Public Works Holloway under the appropriations for the million dollars of loan money. TRAVELED AS HENDRY

"E. R. Hendry, age 21 years," is the name which appears in the records of passengers on the China, supposed to represent Henry Kapea, who skipped on that steamer and is now in Japan. This is the name on the official list of the steamship company. It is the name given by a passenger who is believed to have been Kapea. Why the alleged embezzler should have given the name of Hendry is a mystery, as it is a name which would about as quickly lead to discovery as any he could have chosen. Everyone at this end knows Hendry, who has lived here for years, and since his recent trip after Adachi Hendry is also known at Yokohama.

JONES TRIAL MAY FAIL

SLOW PROGRESS STILL THE RULE IN GETTING JURORS AND THE TRIAL MAY NOT BE FINISHED BY THE END OF THE TERM—FIFTY CITIZENS SUMMONED AGAINST OBJECTIONS BY THE DEFENSE.

The Jones case closed another week today. There are now only two weeks left of the term and it is regarded as doubtful whether the case can be finished even if a jury is secured. Objections were made by Attorney A. G. M. Robertson this morning to the fifty men who were summoned on the open venire issued yesterday. Robertson claimed that there is no authority under the jury law for such a venire. He also objected on the ground that all the fifty men were from Honolulu instead of from the entire circuit and that they were summoned by the High Sheriff, who is not an impartial person in the matter being representative of the prosecution. The objections were overruled. The examinations of jurors proceeded with the usual failure to get jurors to sit. The term will close at midnight on Saturday April 2, or two weeks from today and night sessions

ROCKEFELLER'S ONE REQUEST

WHAT IT WAS AND WHY IT WASN'T GRANTED—THE MALCONTENTS WOULDN'T LET HIM.

All that John D. Rockefeller asked of the country by the year 1885, was to be let alone. He had completed one of the most perfect business organizations the world has ever seen, an organization which handled practically all of a great natural product. His factories were models of their kind, managed with the strictest economy. He owned outright the pipe lines which transported the crude oil. His knowledge of the consuming power of the world was accurate and he kept his output strictly within its limit. At the same time the great marketing machinery he had put in operation carried on an aggressive campaign for new markets. To China, Africa, South America, as well as to remote parts of Europe and the United States, Standard agents carried refined oil. The Standard Oil Company had been organized to do business, and if a company did business it was this one. From Mr. Rockefeller himself, hidden from everybody but the remarkable body of directors and heads of departments which he had "acquired" as he wiped up one refinery and one pipe line after another, to the humblest clerk in the office of the most remote marketing agency, everybody worked. There was not a lazy-bone in the organization, nor an incompetent hand, nor a stupid head. It was a machine where everybody was kept on his mettle by an extraordinary system of competition, where success met immediate recognition, where opportunity was wide as the world's craving for a good light to cheer its hours of darkness. The machine was pervaded and stimulated by the consciousness of its own power and prosperity. It was a great thing to belong to an organization which always got what it wanted and which was making money as no business in the country ever made it.

What more, indeed, could Mr. Rockefeller ask than to be let alone? And why not let him alone? He had the ability to keep together the widespread interests he had acquired—not only keep them together, but unify and develop them—why not let him alone? Many people, even in the oil regions, were inclined to do so. Some because they feared him—rumor said Mr. Rockefeller was vindictive and never forgot opposition; others because they were canny and foresaw that some day there might be a chance for them in the Standard Oil Company; still others because criticism of success is ungracious business and arouses a suspicion that the critic may be envious or bitter. But there were a few people, as there always are, whom no cowardice, self-interest, or fear of public opinion could keep quiet, and these people insistently urged that the Standard Oil Company was a menace to the commerce of the country. These people went over again and again the steps by which Mr. Rockefeller had reached his height. They began to point out a result of his success less apparent than now; that a monopolization of one great industry means gradual control of others. We have been and are being wronged, they repeated. We have a right to do an independent business. Interference to drive us out is conspiracy. Let Mr. Rockefeller succeed in the oil business and he will attack other industries; he will have imitators; in 50 years a handful of men will own the country.

Only the few irreconcilables withstood his sphinx-like attitude, and yearly, after the compromise of 1880, their warnings and accusations became louder and more fierce. Probably the greatest trial Mr. Rockefeller has ever had has come from the persistency with which malcontents have kept him before the public. They have interfered with two of his great principles—"hide the profits," "say nothing."—Ida M. Tarbell in March McClure's.

EXECUTIONS AT SEOUL.

Associated Press, Morning Service.
SEOUL, March 19.—Thirteen accomplices in the murder of the Queen in 1895 and twenty-two highwaymen have been executed here.

Six months after the treaty of peace between China and Japan had been signed at the close of the Chinese-Japanese war of 1895 an anti-foreign mob, accompanied by mutinous Korean soldiers, stormed the palace at Seoul. They sought the Queen, who was reported to be favorable to foreigners, and murdered her, two of her court ladies sharing a like fate. It was charged at the time that the murder was committed by Japanese soldiers but a few days after the murder was committed the King took refuge in the Russian legation and while still residing there, and after having given the Russians permission to reorganize his army, the King, on November 22, held an impressive state funeral over the remains of the Queen. Later it was charged that Korean court officials under Russian influence, had been responsible for the Queen's death.

THE ABUNDANT LIFE IN CHRIST

SERMON BY ARCHDEACON WEBBER AT THE BEGINNING OF HIS MISSION AT ST. CLEMENT'S.

Archdeacon P. C. Webber began his mission in Honolulu with a sermon at St. Clement's church last evening. The church was well filled. The lesson was read by the Rector, Rev. John Osborne. Bishop Restarick introduced the missioner as an old friend through whom some in the audience in other places had received much spiritual uplift.

Archdeacon Webber began by explaining what a mission is, in his view. Its prime purpose, he said, was to revitalize the churches, quoting the late D. L. Moody as to the importance of this. It was to bring home to the Christian the possibility of intimate friendship with Jesus; the deity of Jesus, and the opportunity for working together with him.

The theme of the sermon which followed this introduction was the Life and the abundance of life, which Christ brought within the reach of those who loved him. This idea of the richness and fulness and abundance of life which Christ brought was enforced with many striking illustrations, as when the irrigating stream is brought into the desert, it might say: "I have come, O desert, that ye might have life and have it more abundantly."

The Archdeacon has a rich voice, careful enunciation, a flowing style, and an amplification and suggestiveness of ideas, that makes him a most entertaining speaker.

His services today and each week day up to and including Wednesday of next week at St. Clement's church and after that at St. Andrew's Cathedral, are: Holy Communion at 7 o'clock; a short service at 9; a service at 4; and a service at 7:30. Tomorrow his services at St. Clement's will be: Holy Communion at 7; morning prayer at 11; evening prayer at 7:30. He will speak at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 4 o'clock tomorrow.

TO BE OR NOT.

To be or not to be. Will the Governor call the Legislature together in extra session or will he not? The weight of advice to him is certainly against such a call if it can possibly be avoided. Of course if the test case which has been brought before the Supreme Court goes against the government, the Legislature will have to be called, for there would then be no appropriation bill.

That a policy of retrenchment must be carried out is plain. It has to be all along the line. The country cannot go on for ever with a deficit. There has been a steady progress down hill, financially, and we shall come up with a bump and a smash some day. The Legislature which would be called together was one which voted expenditures in excess of the income. Would it be likely to reverse its policy now? The Legislature elected in 1902 was antagonistic to the administration, would it be less so now? Would it not rather be more so, since members of it have been indicted by the Grand Jury and are being prosecuted by the law officers of the Territory, while the clerk of the House is under two indictments, one before the Federal Court and one before the Circuit Court? These certainly are questions of grave consideration.

F. W. Macfarlane, when discussing this matter with the Governor, announced himself as strongly opposed to calling the Legislature together. The present Legislature does not represent the people in this matter. It was not elected upon the retrenchment issue. Now in this matter of retrenchment the people should have a full voice. They should elect their representatives upon that issue. That the taxpayers will instruct these representatives to vote for economy and retrenchment can not be doubted. The present Legislature is not representative and it would be unfair upon the people to be judged at this crisis by the acts of men who do not represent them.

Further it is pointed out that the amount of time saved is small. We are now at the end of March and the present Legislature expires early in November. Taking away the time which would be consumed in calling it together, and the time occupied in organization, and there would be very little time for any effective work. The new Legislature to be elected in November could be convened at once after election and could go to work long before the date of the regular session.

That retrenchment will hit a large number of people very hard is quite true, but other countries have retrenched and have been successful. A few years ago in Japan, no less than 2,000 government employes were let out. It was a drastic measure, but it was necessary and it was accepted. According to the cuts proposed by the department heads the reductions will be from 70 per cent in some departments to 20 per cent in others. If the retrenchment is made by the Governor and the department heads, it can be done without expense. If the Legislature is called together there will be large expense. There the question rests. There are arguments pro and con. It rests purely with the Governor to decide what to do.

PROCEEDINGS IN ENGLISH.

The Grand Jury has made a report which is a scathing criticism of some of the members of the last Legislature. To be told officially that "they betrayed their trust to the enrichment of their personal friends," is pretty strong reproof, and brands them as grafters. The report goes into details of expenditure and shows how unnecessary many of them were. In point of fact the friends of the legislators fairly wallowed in soft snaps. These details were published yesterday and are familiar to all readers.

One of the most important recommendations of the Grand Jury was on interpreting. It points out as this paper has frequently pointed out, that carrying on the proceedings in Hawaiian is contrary to the Organic Act. The proceedings should be in English and there should be no interpreting allowed. The law courts are enforcing this upon the jurors. If a jurymen cannot intelligently and satisfactorily understand English, he is disqualified. If a legislator cannot intelligently and satisfactorily understand English, he should be disqualified by the voters, but if the voters insist on electing him, then they would lose their representation in the House because such a man would not understand the proceedings. A lesson or two of this kind would very soon put an end to sending such men to the Legislature.

The cost of translating is very heavy and the taxpayers should not have this expense inflicted on them. Moreover it fully doubles the cost of printing and of typewriting, since most of the documents have to be printed and typewritten in both languages. This is a strong stand for the Grand Jury to take and will be heartily endorsed by the taxpayers.

A SUGGESTION.

The Grand Jury among matters of investigation took up the subject of the social evil. It is not a pleasant topic but it is one that has to be faced. President Roosevelt told one of our most prominent citizens that if we could put a stop to it, it was more than what they were able to do on the mainland. The Grand Jury has approached the subject in a calm and judicial manner and has not become hysterical over it.

In the course of the investigations medical testimony was called, and there was strong proof that since the abolition of the act to mitigate there has been a great increase in disease. This is very unfortunate, for disease of this kind goes down to posterity and results in weakly and scrofulous progeny, being a veritable case of the sins of the fathers passing to the children to the third and fourth generation.

The suggestion of the Grand Jury is to restrict the evil to well defined limits. It is a remarkable thing that this suggestion should come from such a representative body of men. There was the bitterest attack made upon such a course sometime ago, and it was used for political purposes. But since we cannot legislate for ourselves upon the matter, it may be the sole solution for the present. At all events the Grand Jury in making this recommendation shows that it has the courage of its opinions.

THE WAR.

The war situation is nearing a crisis now. The viceroy has telegraphed that the Japanese have occupied Ping Yang in force, and that a portion of the army was three miles from Anju. This means an almost immediate clash between the two armies. The Japanese were evidently preparing some great coup, and it was for that purpose that they sent back the war correspondents. It is significant that the first news we get of the Japanese army is from the Russian side, moreover we do not hear of scouting parties, but we hear of the great body of the army.

The Russians will now have that opportunity which they have so much boasted of, of crushing the Japanese, a feat which, according to General Kuropatkin, his nation regards as easy. But there are others who have sold the skin of the lion before killing him, and there is every reason to believe that the Japanese will be far from crushed, and that the crushing will go the other way. At the commencement of the Franco-

The Jones case will pretty surely not be tried this term. The laws' power of delay in criminal trials is very great.

Kapea the embezzler cannot be extradited since the Japanese treaty only covers the embezzlement of public funds. The case will probably bring about a revision of the treaty.

There will be rejoicing in France, Germany and England over the failure of the cotton speculators. Last year there was a very bitter feeling against those who manipulated the cotton market. It led to the formation of those societies which are now striving to raise cotton in various colonies, so as to be emancipated from dependence upon the American cotton market.

The question of the Newfoundland fisheries has been long a vexed one between France and England. The settlement of the matter is highly satisfactory. There has been much dissatisfaction among the Newfoundland fishermen over the capture of their bait by French fishermen, which has led to serious breaches of the peace.

In the multitude of counselors there is wisdom, says the old proverb. Certainly Governor Carter must be seeking wisdom, for he has called many gentlemen together to consultation over the present financial difficulty.

Prussian war all Paris was shouting "to Berlin!" and that city was to be occupied by French troops and the Germans were to sue for peace. It turned out differently and it was the French who had to sue for peace, and the Germans who occupied Paris. General Kuropatkin's boast that he will occupy Tokio and make the Japanese sue for peace there, may have a somewhat similar fate. The Russians make the fatal mistake of despising their foe. It will lead to humiliation and disaster.

The news which comes from Port Arthur relative to Japanese disaster at sea, and the statement that a thousand wounded Japanese are in hospital must be taken with a large grain of salt. What the Japanese fleet is doing is somewhat puzzling, but we shall hear of it in a day or two no doubt, and it will be acting to some purpose. It would not be at all surprising if it should be at the mouth of the Yalu River.

The Russian Ministry of Finance has just published an interesting description of the Russian silk industry. The yield is not very great, hardly exceeding during the last few years 16 tons of dried cocoons, representing a value of from 30,000 to 40,000 rubles ($16,400 to $20,000). A Moscow mill buys up the greater part of the supply. A small part is worked up locally, but the small local factories are gradually losing ground in their competition against the big mills. The production of the Caucasus amounted, during the last few years, to about 2,539 tons of dried cocoons. Kutais and Elizavetpol are the governments in which sericulture has progressed best. In the towns of Nucha and Schuscha there are about fifty factories, which consume the whole cocoon supply of the eastern part of Transcaucasia. There is, therefore, no export of cocoons from this district. Although no reliable statistics are available regarding the cocoon of central Asia, it is estimated at about 2,179 tons, of a value of about 5,000,000 rubles ($2,575,000).

JAPAN SHIPS VAST FORCE

HAS SHIPPED 200,000 SOLDIERS TO THEATER OF OPERATIONS SINCE OUTBREAK OF WAR.

LONDON, March 19.—The Express correspondent at Nagasaki, under date of March 8th via Shanghai March 10, cables: Ten divisions, or in round numbers 200,000 troops have been shipped from Japan since the commencement of hostilities. This is a record in transport which any Western power would find it hard to beat if not approach. A fleet of transports with a portion of the Second Army Corps is now on the way to Korea. This force will probably be landed to the north of Fusan.

The Russians are reported to be heavily mining the roads in the vicinity of the Yalu.

The Hupeh Corps of the Chinese army, which is modern armed and well drilled has arrived to the north of Tung Ching, in the Hupeh province, and is waiting for arms and ammunition preparatory to continuing the march.

Following the bombardment of Dainy by the Japanese fleet there has been an exodus from the town. It is reported that a further force of Japanese has landed to the south of Vladivostok.

A dispatch to the Graphic from Sebastopol says: It is stated that Admiral Skrydloff will command the Russian Baltic Squadron which will sail for the Far East in June. The dispatch adds that naval officials there are depressed by recent events. There is a harassing suspicion that the conduct of the naval war on Russia's side with the exception of the Varieg's engagement, will be regarded by foreign navies, especially the British, as being worse than blundering.

JAPANESE MAKE GOOD PROGRESS

VESSEL ARRIVES THIS MORNING FROM SOUTH—BROUGHT FEW PASSENGERS FOR HONOLULU.

For the first time in months the S. S. Moana Captain Carey, stopped at this port and entered the harbor on a regular schedule. The vessel had to cut out Honolulu as a regular calling place on her last down trip to the Colonies as she had been detained over a month having repairs made. She struck a rock while entering Victoria on her last regular up trip. On the downward trip to the Colonies last month, the Moana called off the port to be reported, but she did not stop in. On the trip up from Sydney the vessel encountered very fine weather throughout her voyage. She met some head wind from Brisbane to Suva. She sailed from Sydney March 3, Brisbane March 6 and Suva March 11. She had a fair sized crowd of passengers.

Madam Stupoffski is a grand opera artist of much ability who is to stop over at Honolulu to give a number of concerts in this city. She is under the direction of M. B. Curtis the theatrical

WHILE WINTER IS RELAXING ITS GRIP ON THE YALU THE ROADS ARE OCCUPIED BY THE TROOPS.

LONDON, March 11.—A dispatch from Tokio says: The transportation to North Korea of three divisions of Japanese troops is now completed, and they are beginning to advance. The second army corps comprising ten divisions, is already mobilized. Two submarines have arrived by rail at Vladivostok from Port Arthur.

Bennett Burleigh in a dispatch in the Telegraph from Seoul, dated March 9th says: Winter is relaxing its grip at Ping Yan and on the Yalu, but a fortnight must yet elapse before spring begins in earnest. Meanwhile the Japanese are making steady progress in their movements on land, and the roads are occupied by their troops.

MAUI GRAND JURY MAKES HOT REPORT

Finds Honesty But Extravagance and Lack of Discipline in the Police Force.

WAILUKU, March 18.—The Maui Grand Jury made its report which among other things contains the following:

In regard to your Honor's charge to the Grand Jury in the matter of alleged irregularities in Public office, we find:

(1) Police Department: That it is customary for members of the Police force of Wailuku to be offered and to accept free drinks in the various saloons, we also find that where officers have been detailed to perform certain detective work they have forthwith proceeded to warn those whom they were set to detect. That policemen on duty have been found intoxicated. It appears to your Grand Jury very forcibly that there is an extreme lack of discipline and loyalty in this department.

We find on investigation that the Sheriff's department have names on the (Special Police) pay rolls in whose names warrants are drawn and who are not actually connected with the police force, this was explained to us by the Sheriff and his clerk as a matter of convenience in order to obtain funds for that part of the service which were not obtainable otherwise. The obtaining of such funds may be necessary but the methods by which such funds are obtained we most severely condemn.

(2) Jail and Jailors Department: After a thorough investigation we find the Wailuku Jail in a very unsanitary and unsafe condition. In this department also discipline is extremely lax. We find that the sides and the front of the cells are so rotten that by a slight pressure of the hand they can be shaken. The fence around the jail yard is in a most dilapidated condition. The sills of a portion of the jail are so rotten that it is really unsafe. On inspection of the jail yard and out buildings the unsanitary condition of the place became most apparent. The jailor on being questioned stated that the leper cells were never fumigated, only white-washed. The leper waterclosets was resting on long sills over an open vault very much larger than the building; tin can, rubbish, etc., were so conspicuous that it appeared to your Grand Jury that the yard had not been swept or cleaned for months. In regard to care of prisoners. We find that the care and discipline is extremely lax. Prisoners have been taken by the jailor on Sundays to Iao Valley to gather guavas to make guava jelly for the jailor's private use. The prisoners are allowed Sundays to roam promiscuously over the country without a guard on an excuse of looking for a suitable place to cut grass for the police stables, and on one occasion a prisoner returned intoxicated; prisoners are also sent Sunday morning without guards to Kahului with policemen's horses to bathe them. Regarding to distribution of prison labor—We find that the Sheriff has had from August 11th, 1903, to December 31st, 1903, the sum total of 420 men, or an average of 3 men per day for the above period. The Deputy Sheriff has had the services for his private use of one prisoner each day. In this case the prisoner some times returning to the jail as late as 9 o'clock p. m. There are 3 grass cutters and one stableman for the police stables which consists of a stable for the free care and feeding of the department's private horses, grain however for these horses is not furnished by the government.

TEN DEFENDANTS

Ten defendants against whom indictments were returned yesterday by the Grand Jury were arraigned this morning Judge Robinson's court. Kaanana whom a crowd in Kakako recently attempted to lynch, pleaded guilty to an indictment charging an unnatural crime. He will be sentenced on Monday. The other defendants are Sata, grass cheat; Lum Tak Kee, selling liquor without a license; Eugita, stealing chickens; S. Kaupani, criminal assault; Ventura Garcia, larceny; Wong Kau, assault and battery; Chisaki, rape; Pedro Ica, assault with a razor; Yami et al, conducting a lottery.

DANCE AT THE YOUNG.

There will be a dance at the Alexander Young Hotel this evening complimentary to the Raymond & Whitcomb party which arrived by the Alameda and to the large party which returned by the Kinau this morning from the Volcano, and the other stranger guests of the hotel. Manager Lake extends a cordial invitation to townspeople to attend. There will be music at dinner.

COMPANY CAN'T KEEP CONTRACT

SENATOR PLATT MAKES A SENSATIONAL STATEMENT IN RESPECT-ENCE TO THE PANAMA CANAL.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—"Not only is the Panama Canal Company unable to deliver the goods, but there is no certainty that it will be able to do so on March 25th, when the United States has arranged to make a payment, or at any other time in the near future," said Senator T. C. Platt of New York today. Platt is acting chairman of the Senate Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals. He said all legislation would be held in abeyance until the title to the canal had been completed by the new Panama Canal Company.

A prominent member of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce expressed doubt of the ability of the French company to perfect title to the satisfaction of the United States.

"According to Mr. Cromwell's own statement of the case," he said, "all in the world that the new Panama Canal Company has from the old company is a contract with the receiver of that corporation by which they are given the right to go ahead and build the canal, to pay out of the proceeds of the canal after its completion the running expenses and interest on certain indebtedness, and divide all proceeds over and above this amount with the old company, giving it 60 per cent and retaining 40 per cent.

"Under this arrangement, and according to all the new Panama Canal Company has to show at this time, it positively cannot deliver the canal over to the ownership of the United States. All it has to sell is this contract, and if the United States should pay it $40,000,000 it would be buying the right to build the canal and to retain 40 per cent of the profits after expenses were paid. They would be acquiring no property and would receive nothing except a partnership with the old Panama Canal Company.

JAPAN URGES KOREA TO ACT

FAILURE TO PUBLISH NEWS OF THE NEW TREATY DETRIMENTAL TO TWO COUNTRIES.

TOKIO, March 16.—Minister Hayashi has informed the Korean Foreign Office that the delay on the part of the Korean Government in publishing in the official gazette news of the protocol with Japan is causing among foreign representatives a misunderstanding detrimental to the friendly relations between Korea and Japan, and prompt action is urged.

It is believed in diplomatic circles here that Janguis Ito, who is to leave Tokyo, March 15th, for Korea as a special ambassador from the Emperor of Japan to the Emperor of Korea, will be able to allay the doubts and imagined dangers which are reported to be haunting the Korean Emperor.

The Japanese Government expects to realize $5,000,000 by increased taxation.

The Emperor and Empress have donated $50,000 and the Crown Prince and Crown Princess $150 for the relief of the widows and orphans of Japanese soldiers.

The Japanese journalists are rejoicing at the friendly tone observable on the American papers which have just been received in this country.

A Bad Skin

Prick your skin with a needle. You will see it is full of blood, full all the time. But what kind of blood? Rich and pure? Or thin and impure? Pure blood makes the skin clear, smooth, healthy. Impure blood covers the skin with pimples, sores, boils, eczema, eruptions, tetter, salt-rheum.

Mr. Frank Hewitt, of Kaloolea, W. A., sends his photograph and tells what cured him. "When a boy my skin broke out in bad sores about my hands. After trying a great many remedies in vain, I took Ayer's Sarsaparilla and was quickly cured. Recently I was troubled again with severe boils, but one bottle of the same old remedy completely cured me. It's the greatest blood-purifying medicine in the world."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

There are many imitations "Sarsaparillas," to be sure you get Ayer's. Aid the Sarsaparilla by keeping your bowels in good condition with Ayer's Pills. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A.

BISHOP WILLIS AT WORK IN TONGA

HAS TRANSLATED AND HAS IN PRINT THE PRAYER BOOK—IN TRANSLATING HYMNS.

An appeal for aid to Bishop Willis in his work in Tonga has been issued, and some copies have been received here. Included in the appeal is the following account of the work by the Bishop himself.

"Nukunono, Tonga, May 11, 1905. The Tongan Government that is, the King and Sateki, the Prime Minister, continue to refuse to give land to the Anglican Church, although by the constitution every religious body is entitled to a site in every township in which it has thirty members. The opposition has given me time to become acquainted with the language, so as to amend and complete the translations I found in use. I have now in print in Auckland the first edition of a Tongan prayer-book, containing Calendar, Morning and Evening Prayer, Litany, Collects and Order for Holy Communion. The Catechism was printed last year. Another advantage of slow progress caused by governmental opposition is, that it is giving time for my five Lay Readers to understand the Church's system, and instruct the people in it. The Church's seasons are quite a revelation to them. The Wesleyans kept Christmas Day and Good Friday after a fashion, that is, they would have one service at eight or nine a. m. and then have a picnic. No wonder one of my Lay Readers said that hitherto he had no idea why Good Friday was kept.

"As you will no doubt be glad to watch the gradual growth of the Church in the several centers, I append to this a table showing how we stand, asking all readers not to despise the day of small things.

"I may add that a beginning has also been made of supplying Church Hymns, by translations, or rather, adaptations, of some of Hymns A and M. It is enough to mention that such a simple phrase as 'Give us' which is only two syllables in English requires ten syllables in Tongan, to show the impossibility of translating verse for verse. The Tongans have a tonic sol-fa system of their own, into which they transpose our music, which very few can read. My Chinese pupil from Iloilo, Yin Sang Mark, has become quite expert at transposing. For every hymn I write according to the meter in hymns A and M, he writes out the tune. He then writes the whole on the mimeograph and takes off 75 to 100 copies, and so the congregations are supplied. There is no public printing press in Tonga so I must wait till I have a complete selection of hymns before sending them to Auckland to be printed.

"A clergyman in the United States has offered to come out and help me, if I can find the means for his passage, so I trust some whom this letter reaches will be moved to assist me in planting the Church in this part of the Pacific, that has been so long neglected. At present there is no Episcopal stipend.

"Although these islands happily escaped the hurricane that wrought such havoc in the Pamoos in January, they experienced a stiff blow in February, which has done more damage than was at first supposed. The salt spray driven across the narrow islands destroyed both the bread-fruit and yam crop in Hanabai, where I found the people short of food on a recent visit; moreover, there was a great loss of nuts all through the group, so that the supply of copra, which is the principal source of the natives' income, will be very limited. Hence I cannot expect the native contribution to be as large as it otherwise would be."

On a visit to the Vavau group at the end of October the Bishop found the members of the Anglican Church standing firm in spite of their disappointment at nothing having been done to enable them to have a proper Church. Five men at Laba, confirmed by him in 1902, made their first Communion; two infants were baptized, and two men from a neighboring island were received into the Church.

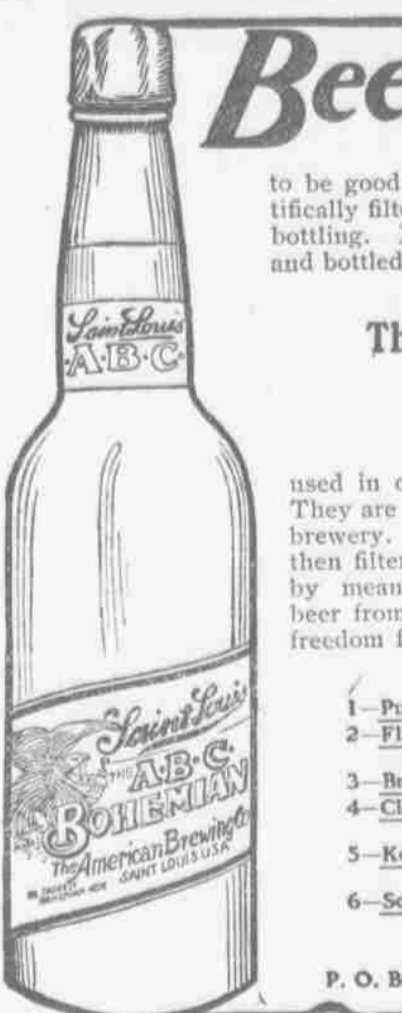

DEATH CLAIMS ROBERT TABER

ACTOR AND DIVORCED HUSBAND OF JULIA MARLOWE SUCCEUMS AT SARANAC LAKE, NEW YORK.

SARANAC LAKE, (N. Y.), March 9.—Robert Taber, the actor and divorced husband of Julia Marlowe, died here last night.

Taber and Miss Marlowe were married in Philadelphia in 1894 and starred together for two seasons. Then they separated and young Taber went to London. He had some trouble in getting an engagement, but upon his first appearance won very favorable criticism. Forbes Robertson and Mrs. Campbell took a fancy to him and selected him for Macduff in their elaborate revival of "Macbeth." The venture failed, but Taber made a great personal success, and Henry Irving took him into the Lyceum company. He made another hit in "Peter the Great" and was re-engaged as Irving's leading man for the ensuing year.

One day Marlowe reached Paris. Her husband who was in that city, filled her room with flowers; he met her at the railway station and accompanied her to the house. He left her at the door and started immediately for London. Julia Marlowe proceeded to London later and returned to America without seeing him there. He sued for divorce in 1899 and obtained it. Taber then took a theater in London, which he managed.

Beer must be pure to be good; must be brewed only from the best materials; must be scientifically filtered, thoroughly aged, bottled at the brewery and sterilized after bottling. It must always be shipped in the bottle, for beer shipped in bulk and bottled at supply depots is sure to absorb impurities.

The Famous A·B·C Beers

are guaranteed absolutely pure and free from all preservatives and chemicals used in other brands of bottled beers, which are injurious to the health. They are never sold in bulk—are the only beers bottled exclusively at the brewery. Made from the finest Bohemian hops, they are aged for months, then filtered and piped direct from the brewery vaults into bottles by means of hermetically closed filling machines. This prevents the beer from coming in contact with the outside air, and insures absolute freedom from bacteria. It also preserves its natural effervescence and zest.

- Six Points of A·B·C·Excellence
- 1—Purity. We absolutely guarantee the purity of all our beers.
 - 2—Flavor. This is the distinctive, individual characteristic of any beverage, peculiar to it alone, and is the quality that has made A. B. C. Bohemian Beer famous.
 - 3—Brilliance, clearness and polish, proving perfect brewing and fermentation.
 - 4—Clean Taste. No disagreeable foreign or aftertaste, proving scrupulous cleanliness during brewing process.
 - 5—Keeping Quality. The most trying test for bottled beer. A. B. C. Bohemian will keep and retain all of its qualities under varying conditions.
 - 6—Solid, Creamy Foam, denoting body age and excellence of brewing materials.

SOWING SEDITION AMONG RUSSIANS

REVOLUTIONISTS TRYING DISCREDIT GOVERNMENT BY DECLARING JAP WAR IS UNJUST.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 10.—Dissatisfaction at the early and unimportant mischances of Russia in the Far East is being vigorously exploited by the revolutionary party, with the object of arousing want of confidence in the Government. Thus last night an appeal to all citizens of Russia, signed by Russian Democrats, was distributed by thousands throughout St. Petersburg. In many cases it was posted up at street corners until removed by the police. In this appeal all citizens were warned against making contributions in behalf of the Government on the ground that "it brought about the war furiously for dynastic objects. The war will cost thousands of thousands, doubtless, and ruin the country. Such a Government must be swept away to give place to a stronger one, bringing civilization in its train."

This appeal is a characteristic sign that the war excites but little popularity. One frequently encounters in society a strong feeling of mistrust in the Government, which has been fostered by early losses and the clumsily worded dispatches of Alexieff. This want of confidence, however, is already vanishing, as it is gradually being ascertained that Japan's losses, which have been carefully concealed, are, so it is believed here, far greater than those of the Russian side. As to the appeal, and, generally speaking, the agitation of revolutionists, whose influence is greatly overrated abroad, there is little prospect of success. The strength of the Government is too great for these discontented elements to effect anything.

TROOPS PLAN TO WITHDRAW

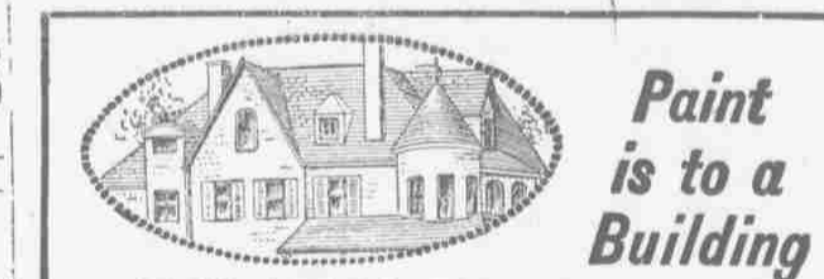

RUSSIA PREPARING TO MOVE ALL SUPERFLUOUS MEN FROM PORT ARTHUR TO HARBIN AND KIRIN

LONDON, March 11.—A Tientsin dispatch says: The Russian authorities are reported to be withdrawing all superfluous troops of the Port Arthur garrison to Harbin and Kirin, owing to the shortness of provisions. Supplies of cattle are being obtained surreptitiously from Shanikwan. It is also stated that explosives are being placed in houses at Dalny, in preparation for the occupation of the town by the Japanese which is apparently regarded as inevitable in the near future.

The Russians at Newchwang are prepared to block the river and scuttle the gunboat Sivouch in the event of a Japanese advance on that town. It is probable that they will be able to hold either Newchwang or Port Arthur against a resolute attack. Besides 30,000 troops at Newchwang, under General Konrativitch, there are said to be 20,000 at Port Arthur, while Kinshau and Fuchau are both strongly held, thereby commanding both banks of the mouth of the Liao river where heavy guns are mounted.

At the same time, it is reported that starvation, cold and harsh treatment by their officers have broken the spirits of the troops who are largely recruits. Many Russian soldiers who have arrived in Newchwang from the country are dying of frostbite. Russian losses on the Yalu are reported to number 2000.

Paint is to a Building

what clothing is to the body. It is just as important. You should take as much care in selecting the paint to clothe your property, as you do in selecting the material to clothe your person. Paint preserves the building. Paint gives beauty to the building. In painting the labor costs more than the paint. There will be a large waste if the right paint is not used.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINT

is made for painting buildings. It is not a low-priced paint, but it is cheap because the best. It is made of the purest materials—that wear the longest. The colors are bright and handsome.

BUSY TIME IN SHIPPING CIRCLES

ISLAND STEAMERS ARRIVE—MOANA ARRIVES AND DEPARTS—SAILING VESSEL GET TO SEA.

This has been a very busy day in shipping circles. The S. S. Moana arriving from Sydney, Brisbane and Suva. She sailed for Victoria and Vancouver a few minutes after 1 o'clock today. She took a fair sized crowd of passengers from Honolulu. Half a dozen passengers stopped over from the vessel.

The steamer Kinau arrived earlier than usual this morning with a very large passenger list. She came from Hilo and way ports. Many of the returning passengers had come from visiting the volcano. The steamer Helene arrived this morning from Hilo, Hamakua ports and Kawaihae. She brought cattle and a full load of sugar. The sugar is being discharged into the schooner W. H. Marston.

The steamer Kaula arrived this morning from Eleale and Wahiawa. She brought sugar and cattle. The steamer Nihau arrived from Hamakua ports with a very large cargo of sugar.

The ship I. F. Chapman finally got away for Delaware Breakwater this morning. She took about 3,500 tons of sugar. She did not encounter much wind outside of the harbor and the tug Fearless gave her a tow far out to sea. The barkentine S. G. Wilder departed this afternoon for San Francisco with 900 tons of sugar and 10 tons of canned pineapples. She took several passengers.

The Chilean bark Othello sails today for Port Townsend.

MAY HAVE STOLEN INSTRUMENTS

POLICE OFFICER CHASES CROWD NOW THOUGHT TO HAVE STOLEN MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Officer John Kaana fired three or four shots in the air early this morning to try and frighten five men and youths into stopping in order that he could ascertain what they were doing out so late, but the fellows sought safety in flight, leaving several musical instruments behind.

From circumstances later reported to the police this morning the indications seem to be that the quintette were guilty of robbing a music store just before they were seen by the officer. J. Silva appeared at the police station this morning and reported that some one had broken into his store on Bostons street near Alapai, and stolen a number of musical instruments. The instruments that the men had dropped when the officer ordered them to halt were shown Silva, and the latter identified them as belonging to him.

Silva says that last night three Portuguese and two native youths entered his store, picked musical instruments and asked him where the Chinese wash house was located. Their actions aroused his suspicion. He is of the opinion that they are the same parties who later entered his store and robbed the place.

Certainly the movements of the men seen by the police officer would be such as might be taken by thieves escaping from the neighborhood of Silva's store. The police officer saw the crowd sneaking across the vacant lot where the Honolulu Stock Yards Company was formerly located. He noticed they carried bundles and commanded them to halt. All escaped. The police will probably be able to apprehend the men.

ATTACK RAWLINS' COMMISSION

LAWYERS IN WAILUKU SEEK TO NULLIFY HIS ACTS AS DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL.

WAILUKU, March 18.—All the attorneys that are in attendance at this term of the Second Circuit, joined hands in moving the Court to nullify all the acts of the Grand Jury, by reason of the presence of William T. Rawlins during their deliberations. The attorneys are J. L. Coko, J. M. Vivas, C. W. Ashford, J. L. Kaulikou, W. F. Cockett and D. H. Chase. On Tuesday morning, as had been anticipated, this motion was before Judge Kaula for a ruling, on the ground that the commission issued to Deputy Attorney General Rawlins was not valid. After long arguments on the motion pro and con, the Court ruled that the commission was valid, and thus settled all further possibility of questioning Rawlins' commission. However, in every criminal case which has been tried, and which has been lost by a defendant, the attorney representing the defense in every case, noted an appeal, basing the contention on the illegality of the commission issued to W. T. Rawlins, as a ground for such appeal.

In the case of Territory of Hawaii vs. John Keawe, charged with manslaughter in the first degree, and against whom a true bill was found by the Grand Jury, two attorneys were assigned to Keawe. However, the eagerness of the six attorneys to test the commission, induced them all to assist in the defense, and this same question of the commission of William T. Rawlins will be brought up in court again. The matter will most likely be brought to the Supreme Court for final decision.
