Plans are now being formulated by the district officials to put on a large "kamatip" or native feast, to welcome the High Commissioner on his visit of 30 June and also to celebrate the completion of the new Native Affairs building. From preliminary reports it is to be entirely old-style Ponapean in nature, with the accompanying dances and ceremonies, and will give the Commissioner a much better insight into Ponapean customs and traditions than if he were to be entertained by the Civil Administration Unit.
