stantinople watched by only 8000; the Caucasus occupied, and the Turkish frontier in Asia Minor observed by 50000; in the whole of Transcaucasia, along the huge expanse, only 50000; and in the fortress of Vladivostok some 12000.

While such is the disposition and amount of the Russian forces on a peace footing, their numbers when mobilized for war and all the resources called out reach a total of 2,222,335, with 680,000 horses, and 5420 guns. From a consideration of the above, three points of vital importance are clear.

The first of these is that Russia is straining every nerve to mass every disposable force of her huge army on her Polish frontier, so as to be able, in conjunction with France, to crush Germany, even though aided by flanking Austria and distant Italy.

The second is, that to do this she has determined, until this contest is over, to give up the idea of seizing Constantinople.

The third, that she has no present intention of making any move upon Afghanistan or India.

In regard to the second point, we fully believe that Constantinople is, and always will be, her ultimate aim, but the time and the mode by which this is to be carried out have both been altered. She now sees her time to effect this great object is when (and not till then) the Triple Alliance has been either defeated by the united power of France and herself, or has, from internal jealousies, broken up.

The political party kaleidoscope of the passing show is about to experience another shakedown. It would seem from the annexation organs that the wire-pullers, realizing the moribund condition of the Annexation Club, are resolved to make a supreme effort to experiment with ward "machinery." A NEW MOVEMENT.

The political party kaleidoscope of the passing show is about to experience another shakedown. It would seem from the annexation organs that the wire-pullers, realizing the moribund condition of the Annexation Club, are resolved to make a supreme effort to experiment with ward "machinery." The following are the reasons advanced for a "more comprehensive and united organization."

WHEREAS, Circumstances do exist in this country that a committee of the Annexation Club, appointed for that purpose, deem it inadvisable that they adopt any plan of party organization; and

WHEREAS, The tendency now appears to be manifest among Annexationists to division into leagues and clubs mutually independent of each other; and

WHEREAS, Such division is conducive to antagonism and conflict of interests, and would subordinate essential issues and injure our cause; and

WHEREAS, Such division would leave numbers of loyal Annexationists and supporters of the Provisional Government unrepresented by any official organization; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this body of loyal Annexationists, as a nucleus, do hereby present to the public a political party broad enough to admit loyal citizens of all classes and nationalities.

What a "broad" political party it must be which can muster less than five hundred, as witness the late gathering in the drill shed on the occasion of the election of D. B. Smith. To admit "only" loyal citizens of all classes and nationalities, which will include every bench comber who merely signs for a nomination, while nine-tenths of the legitimate voting population of the country, who stand for independence, are excluded, is a political party of magnificent proportions worthy of being the dictators of Oahu, Island or French Frigate Shoals.

It is significant that every name of the twenty-five committees are those of reform men, who have failure written all over their past efforts, and all but six are in receipt of Government pay. Is there no spark of common decency in the Government camp to save the leaders of the party from the humiliating exposure that none but those in receipt of Government "pap" will help or yell, or even organize for the oligarchy.

Ten days' loss of time on account of sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas, was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success, I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first had it not been for the use of this remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip attacks the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectively give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Bew. Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

MR. AND MRS. W. P. BOYD.

The Bride's Reception at the Bridegroom's Old Home.

Vice Consul-General Boyd of the United States and his Honolulu bride have arrived safely at Mr. Boyd's old home, and received a hearty welcome according to the following report from the Daily Democratic News of Marshall City, Missouri:

One of the most fashionable entertainments that has ever taken place in Marshall society was that on yesterday in honor of Mrs. Wilson Porter Boyd, given by Mrs. Col. Sam Boyd, Mrs. Frank H. Boyd and Mrs. Frank P. Sobree, at the commodious mansion of Mr. Frank H. Boyd.

The hours of reception were from two to eleven p. m., and arranged in the following order: The elder matrons who are friends of the family, first; then the married ladies of medium age, and succeeding these, the married and single ladies of the age of her in honor of whom the reception was given. At night, the attendances was by the male friends of Mr. Porter Boyd.

By the excitation of natural light, all the rooms used for the reception of guests were, by drapery and artificial lights, decorated in most all the beautiful lines that are pleasing to one's sense of sight, and were in exquisite harmony with all other pleasing features of the occasion. From an adjoining room to those filled by the guests, sweet strains of music constantly poured forth from the Marshall orchestra, and the different colored rooms and the sweet music lent a peculiar fascination and enchantment to the occasion, making one realize that fantasy of feeling and happiness which only such music and its accompaniment in the way of brilliant scenery could inspire.

The occasion, too, was heightened in its agreeable impress made upon the guests, by the loveliness of the pretty girls who assisted in the entertainment. They were Misses Kate McMahon, Maud Striker, Minnie Hoy, Louise Noble, Pear Parish, Maud Hughes and Florence Yerby.

The new Mrs. Boyd, to whom the reception was given, is a native of the Island of Hawaii, with the young republic of which the United States is now having complications in a diplomatic way. Mr. Porter Boyd is consular clerk to that country from the United States, and it was not until he went there in his official capacity, less than two years since, that he ever saw her who is now the partner of his honors and joys and sorrows in life. His wife, whose maiden name we cannot now call to mind, is of Anglo-Saxon extraction, and of the most respectable lineage of that best race of people on earth. Her ancestors, we learn, back to the third generation, went to Hawaii to teach that race of which the deposit of power is now in the Christian religion, and the wrongs of cannibalism.

Mrs. Wilson P. Boyd is a beautiful and full type of a brunette. Her voice has that sweet musical accent peculiar to the Southern clime. She belongs to that type of women in whose faces is easily read their spirituality and cultured mind; their intellectual attainments, her natural refinement and grace are all in striking harmony with her beauty. Her husband, Porter Boyd, whom all Marshall people have known from his birth, is personally a cultivated and most attractive young gentleman.

DOLE'S LETTER OFFENSIVE.

Mr. Willis Instructed to Demand Its Withdrawal.

The following despatch has appeared in the Montreal Witness: WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. The President is much annoyed by the tone of President Dole's letter to Minister Willis under date of Dec. 27, and incidentally by the Minister's course in allowing it to pass unrebuked. In his judgment, Mr. Willis ought to have responded with a sharp note demanding an immediate retraction of the insult cast upon the Government of the United States, and, if it had not been at once forthcoming, should have demanded his passports and left Hawaii without delay. It would not be astonishing to learn at any time of the severance of diplomatic relations between the Provisional Government and our own. A particular cause of the President's displeasure is the free and easy, un-diplomatic way in which Minister Thurston has been sprinkling interviews all along the route of his trip across the continent.

It is reported that the latest instructions to Mr. Willis are to demand an immediate withdrawal of President Dole's offensive letter; and if this be not complied with, Mr. Willis is to ask for his passports and Mr. Thurston will simultaneously give him his. It is thought that when the Provisional Government finds the islands cut off from their natural ally and protector, it will come to the conclusion that it has rather overdone the insolent business.

A DARING EXPERIMENT.

Morphine Taken With Impunity to Test an Antidote.

Dr. William Moor of New York discovered that permanganate of potash was an absolute antidote for morphine poisoning. At a meeting of his brother he propounded his theory and proposed to prove it by taking what ordinarily would prove a fatal dose of morphine, and then cured its effects by swallowing the antidote. The medical men present endeavored to dissuade him from so risky an experiment, pointing out that it could be quite as convincing to give his. It is thought that the lower animals. However correct the theory might be, and however successful it could be shown in a glass that permanganate of potash was capable of destroying the fatal properties of morphine, there was a possibility that the chemical contents of the stomach might interfere with its successful working and lead to fatal results.

JUDICIAL JOTTINGS.

Portuguese Paper Proprietors Protecting a Spendthrift.

The common nuisance case against the owner of a Portuguese paper, on account of allegedly immoral language in it, is having the defendant's side heard before Judge Whiting this afternoon. It has been on trial since the opening of Court yesterday afternoon.

In the matter of guardianship of Kalua Kapukini (w.), the petition of J. A. Magoon to be appointed guardian was granted by Judge Cooper. There was a counter petition by the ward to have Robert Makahalu appointed. Magoon was guardian during the ward's minority, and now that she is of age, she is kept under guardianship because she is a spendthrift. The estate is valued at $5000 and the guardian puts up a $2000 bond.

He measured himself out three grains of morphine, three times as much as is necessary to produce death. The deadly drug was put in a spoonful of water and then swallowed. It was a most dramatic moment. Two of the spectators, unable to bear the tension of feeling, left the room, while the others look on to measure out the poison. Some of the gentlemen went so far as to personally inquire Dr. Moor not to persist in his rash experiment, but he assured them that he had the utmost confidence that there was no danger.

The Backdown.

The Advertiser is authorized by the statement that the American League has rescinded its action in reference to the pledge which the League demanded from him. The next step will be that Mr. D. B. Smith will be influenced to retire from the field as a candidate, and the principal orators of the League will be asked to lambast, for the very solid reason that the patronage of the bosses of the League would be exerted in a most persuasive direction. Police stars can be transferred as well as other work, to say nothing about those little paper obligations upon which imperative action could be a mighty persuader.

The Advertiser advises the League to abandon its "untenable, unpopular and un-American position" of secrecy and throw its doors open to the public, which advice is sound only on the assumption that the League was in sympathy with the public.

Why should not the Advertiser go a little further and condemn the entire star chamber style of legislation. Is it only when the conclusions of a league of radicals come into conflict with the secular ideas of the dilapidated stockholders of the organ of monopoly, on socialism and other subjects affecting the status of the workman, that secrecy is immoral?

When the American League will abandon its untenable and impossible platform of supporting an oligarchy that represents the impossible and the impracticable, as well as the dishonest, it will then be acting in the true interests of the class it should represent, and in such a course alone will it find true strength and harmony. The present attempt to start the independence of this nation could not be executed in the line of devising anything un-American and unpatriotic, and a League of American workmen should be the last to countenance the outrage.

Reply of the Manager.

So as to correct a misapprehension with the least possible delay, I took the liberty with your private consent to reply to your correspondence of yesterday, "A Resident," in this morning's Advertiser. Kindly allow a few further remarks. I shall have been here three months before I leave, and might have given three concerts a week if I found it would have paid. In cities with a much greater population, however, my seasons have usually been three-concerts. At the six nights the Misses Albu have sang I have noticed myself almost the same audience. It is unreasonable for any individual to imagine that all in the world are gifted with intellect to appreciate the talents of one such as I am honored by representing. For my own part (looking at the matter financially), I wish they were. As regards what I did say in the reported talk, I paid a really high compliment to the supporters of talent at the Opera House, and shall do so "abroad" not for being asked, but to please myself. I am traveling from place to place, and will be glad to say a good word for Honolulu wherever I go.

Prevention is Better.

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure and free from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Serravallo's as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also for every form of strophala, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

NOTICE.

ALL BILLS DUE AGAINST THE HONORABLE BOEHLER IN FUTURE are requested to be presented at the office of the Road Supervisor of Honolulu on the 20th of each month, otherwise they will be excepted from the month's estimate and likely not to be paid for one or two months after. By order of the Honorable Road Board. W. H. CUMMINGS, Road Supervisor, Honolulu.

WAIKAEAKUA NOTICE.

ALL PARTIES DESIRING TO GO TO Waikaeakua Falls in Maunaloa Valley are hereby requested to obtain a permit from the undersigned, otherwise they will be prosecuted for trespass if found on the premises without such permission. Hawaiian Hardware Co., Ltd.

Saturday, Feb. 17, 1894.

For about a year we've been selling a French rat trap that will catch as many as nine rats at one seance. Some people, those who have good dogs, prefer this trap because it provides amusement for the canine as well as the owner, the rats being caught alive. The only objection to this sort of trap is the price. People who have no particular interest in live rats objected to the price of the French process of catching them. A cheaper variety, and a most excellent one, is called the "Little Giant," which is bound to kill every rat or mouse that sticks his nose against the bait. We have set six traps in a night and found a dead rat in each one the next morning. They are really very good—and cheap.

The consumer in Honolulu may not have felt it but there's been a shortage in charcoal irons in this city during the past six weeks. These things come from Europe generally and the tardy arrival of ships around the Horn caused the shortage. We have a few for the retail trade and if you happen to be in need of one now is the time to subscribe.

By the "Alden Besse" we received a number of very pretty porcelain shades for lamps. These are handsomely decorated and are suitable for small lamps for any room in the house. Some very pretty and novel table bells came to us by the same vessel and from their appearance we don't imagine they will be long in stock. These include the popular electric bell that rings the same as if you touched a button.

Hunter's flour sifters have taken first place in the kitchen for sifting flour. They are a convenient article and the flour is made very much finer than by any other sort of sieve. Honolulu is very much like some cities in the United States. At least one day in the week the whole town is on wheels. It don't make much difference whether your horse is good, bad or indifferent a whip and a cheap article is worthless. We have recently added some very good ones to our stock which we sell at reasonable prices; you cannot fail to be pleased with the one you get of us.

NOTICE.

Having sold our Entire Stock to Messrs. Hoke & zur Oeweste Our Stock will be sold out at greatly reduced prices till March 21st next when "Ka Maui" will resume business and be succeeded by the above firm.

MRS. G. E. BOARDMAN, Proprietress.

WHY LUCOL IS THE BEST PAINT OIL.

Dries perfectly solid inside of twenty hours. Forms a durable and elastic, not a brittle coating. Retains its gloss longer than any other oil. Resists the action of acids and alkalies better than any other oil. Flows freely from the brush without running and spreads well. With the addition of litharge, yields a hard surface, suitable for floors, steps, etc. Mixes readily with pigments ground in oil in paste form. Brings out the real shades of the colors and keeps them unaltered. Is a solvent for the most delicate of the new coal tar colors. Added to varnish greatly improves the working of the varnish. Does not darken white lead or any delicate colors. Has greater body than any other oil. Requires one-third less pigment than any other oil. Can be added to linseed oil and it will greatly improve the finish. Can be thinned with turpentine. By actual tests, has outlasted the best linseed oil. Therefore, is the best paint oil ever manufactured.

Direction for Use.

Use Lucol in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more Lucol to the same quantity of pigment than you would of linseed. In using metallic, Venetian red, the ochres, and other dry pigments, it is advisable to mix up the paint at least one day before it is to be used, then add a third more Lucol and the paint will be found to cover well and have a good gloss. NEVER USE JAPANS. Where hard surfaces such as floors, steps, etc., are required use litharge only, never use Japans. LUCOL MIXES WITH VARNISHES and assists their working and improve their appearance BUT THEY SHOULD BE USED SAME DAY THEY ARE MIXED, otherwise the gum of the varnish may be precipitated or the mixture curdled. The addition of from 1/4 to 1/2 of Lucol to varnishes does not reduce their fire or retard their hardening and drying and it prevents their cracking.

A cheaper variety, and a most excellent one, is called the "Little Giant," which is bound to kill every rat or mouse that sticks his nose against the bait. We have set six traps in a night and found a dead rat in each one the next morning. They are really very good—and cheap.

The consumer in Honolulu may not have felt it but there's been a shortage in charcoal irons in this city during the past six weeks. These things come from Europe generally and the tardy arrival of ships around the Horn caused the shortage. We have a few for the retail trade and if you happen to be in need of one now is the time to subscribe.

By the "Alden Besse" we received a number of very pretty porcelain shades for lamps. These are handsomely decorated and are suitable for small lamps for any room in the house. Some very pretty and novel table bells came to us by the same vessel and from their appearance we don't imagine they will be long in stock. These include the popular electric bell that rings the same as if you touched a button.

Hunter's flour sifters have taken first place in the kitchen for sifting flour. They are a convenient article and the flour is made very much finer than by any other sort of sieve. Honolulu is very much like some cities in the United States. At least one day in the week the whole town is on wheels. It don't make much difference whether your horse is good, bad or indifferent a whip and a cheap article is worthless. We have recently added some very good ones to our stock which we sell at reasonable prices; you cannot fail to be pleased with the one you get of us.

NOTICE.

Having sold our Entire Stock to Messrs. Hoke & zur Oeweste Our Stock will be sold out at greatly reduced prices till March 21st next when "Ka Maui" will resume business and be succeeded by the above firm.

MRS. G. E. BOARDMAN, Proprietress.

WHY LUCOL IS THE BEST PAINT OIL.

Dries perfectly solid inside of twenty hours. Forms a durable and elastic, not a brittle coating. Retains its gloss longer than any other oil. Resists the action of acids and alkalies better than any other oil. Flows freely from the brush without running and spreads well. With the addition of litharge, yields a hard surface, suitable for floors, steps, etc. Mixes readily with pigments ground in oil in paste form. Brings out the real shades of the colors and keeps them unaltered. Is a solvent for the most delicate of the new coal tar colors. Added to varnish greatly improves the working of the varnish. Does not darken white lead or any delicate colors. Has greater body than any other oil. Requires one-third less pigment than any other oil. Can be added to linseed oil and it will greatly improve the finish. Can be thinned with turpentine. By actual tests, has outlasted the best linseed oil. Therefore, is the best paint oil ever manufactured.

Direction for Use.

Use Lucol in every respect in the same manner as you would linseed oil, with the single exception that you may add fully one-quarter more Lucol to the same quantity of pigment than you would of linseed. In using metallic, Venetian red, the ochres, and other dry pigments, it is advisable to mix up the paint at least one day before it is to be used, then add a third more Lucol and the paint will be found to cover well and have a good gloss. NEVER USE JAPANS. Where hard surfaces such as floors, steps, etc., are required use litharge only, never use Japans. LUCOL MIXES WITH VARNISHES and assists their working and improve their appearance BUT THEY SHOULD BE USED SAME DAY THEY ARE MIXED, otherwise the gum of the varnish may be precipitated or the mixture curdled. The addition of from 1/4 to 1/2 of Lucol to varnishes does not reduce their fire or retard their hardening and drying and it prevents their cracking.

AT LARGE NINE MONTHS.

Recapture of an Escaped Chinese Convict and Hard Case.

Ah Mun alias Kum Wun, the notorious Chinese burglar who escaped from Oahu Prison on May 11, 1893, was captured by Detectives Larsen and Neil Boyle in a house on the Sunny South premises, on the Waikiki road, early this morning.

On May 22, eleven days after the escape, a reward of $150 was offered for Kum Wun's arrest, and the city was scoured by specials. Outgoing foreign and inter-island vessels were watched, and the fugitives supposed resorts searched, but nothing could be learned of his whereabouts.

Kum Wun was convicted of a burglary at Waikiki. He was supposed to have committed a series of robberies at the same place a year or two previously, and to have severely wounded J. F. Brown who grappled with him on finding him in his bedroom. He has been nearly nine months at large, never so far as known, making an effort to leave the country. Much credit is due the detectives for the recapture of the robber, as it is believed that he has been pursuing his unlawful vocation since. He will be decorated with a striped suit and a ball and chain hereafter.

Kum Wun will appear in the District Court on Feb. 21 for additional sentence.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Penalty on a Chinese Dealer Entrapped Selling Opium.

Chun Wa Hung was before the District Magistrate this morning to answer to a charge of selling opium on Jan. 31 in Honolulu. Witnesses for the prosecution, who acted as informers, testified that they had bought opium from defendant at his place, King and Maunakea streets, on the date mentioned, the purchase money being furnished them by Captain Andrews. Captain Andrews, who made the arrest, stated that he sent witnesses to the den to purchase opium, giving them a marked quarter and a marked half dollar. When the officers entered the room the witnesses were lying on the bed smoking opium and defendant was sitting down with a tray in front of him and a box beside him. The seals, nuts and tin containing opium were on the tray. The marked money was found in a pouch on defendant's person.

Defendant was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and be imprisoned at hard labor six months.

Before Princess May became the bride of the Duke of York she had an ardent admirer in the person of an errand boy. He wrote her a letter declaring his affection, and the Princess promptly handed the epistle over to her father. The Duke of Teck sent for the young lover and told him it was unmanly conduct to propose to a girl unless he was prepared to support her in the style to which she was accustomed. Whereupon the lad withdrew his suit.

O. W. O. Hardman, Sheriff of Tyler Co., W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds." For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

SMUGGLER AND SLASHER.

Murderous Assault on Native Detectives by a Ship's Cook.

Joseph Casiero, cook on the bark S. C. Allen, has got himself into a very serious predicament. The man was known to the police both in Honolulu and San Francisco as an opium smuggler, and only on Jan. 24th in the latter place he was arrested in company with J. Lario, with thirty-five tins of pressed opium unstamped in their possession. The San Francisco officers believed that the men were about to secrete the opium aboard the vessel to be smuggled ashore at Honolulu. When the Allen arrived the Honolulu police kept their eyes "peeled," and a Chinese informer gave Detectives James Kaubane and Herman Kaouli a pointer the other day. The officers watched the vessel and yesterday evening, shortly before 7 o'clock, saw Casiero come ashore from the Allen, lying at Fishmarket wharf, and start uptown. He was followed by Kaubane and Kaouli till near the corner of King and Maunakea streets, when Kaouli made an attempt to arrest him. On learning that Kaouli was an officer, Casiero took out a long knife from some part of his person and made a lunge at him. The knife caught Kaouli under the left arm between the elbow and shoulder, creating a gash an inch deep and two and a half inches long. Kaouli grappled with the cook, when the latter stabbed him again. The officer received an ugly gash in the left thigh four and a half inches long and three inches deep. The muscles of the leg were laid open. Blood flowed freely and Kaouli feeling weak called out for help. Kaubane in the meantime had jumped and just managed to get hold of Casiero by the back. Kaouli ran off to a telephone and rang up the Police Station.

As soon as Kaubane got a hold, the cook lunged the knife at the officer backward, inflicting on his right leg a wound six inches long and three inches deep. A second lunge was made, making a gash over the left knee three inches long and an inch deep. Kaubane was unable to get a good hold on the cook's arms, as the scoundrel was wriggling about and slashing with the knife all the time. He finally threw Casiero on the ground face downward with tremendous force, nearly smashing the rascal's head in the concussion. Then the officer laid blow after blow on Casiero, who must have thought his head was going through a threshing mill. A ragged wound was made over his left eye, beside which two scalp wounds and sundry bruises were bestowed on the knife-wielder.

Help arrived from the Station and Kaubane was found almost unconscious from loss of blood, holding down Casiero. Officers and prisoner were conveyed to the Station, where the wounded policemen fainted from loss of blood. Casiero was unconscious, but came to shortly after arrival. Dr. Cooper attended to the injuries of the cook, and Kaubane and Kaouli were sent to the Queen's Hospital, where their wounds were stanced and dressed. Both were very weak from loss of blood.

When Casiero was searched at the Station four tins of opium were found on his person. It was known that he brought twenty tins of opium ashore from the Allen, but with the exception of the four they were all lost in the struggle, being probably picked up by Chinamen, who were present in large numbers.

Casiero was charged with smuggling and assault. He is the same man who defied arrest some time ago on the bark Ferris S. Thompson, wrapping himself in an American flag. He brought his wife and family with him this trip from the Coast.

Jim Kaubane is well-known in Honolulu. He arrested Chun Hook, the notorious Chinese burglar, in face of a drawn pistol in 1886, receiving for his bravery a gold watch from grateful residents. Herman Kaouli has been on the force several months. Both men are under Capt. William Larsen.

The weapon with which the deadly work was done is twelve or thirteen inches long and two inches wide at the hilt. It tapers to a needle point and is razor sharp. It is an ugly looking weapon.

Mrs. Casiero and family visited the prisoner this morning. He is a dark-looking fellow, evidently of Italian origin. He has a dark mustache and a villainous demeanor.

Kaubane and Kaouli are resting easy this afternoon, the latter being the worse of the two. Kaubane was able to read a paper.

Casiero, who did the slashing, is to be admitted to bail.

The trial of Jos. Casiero for assault with a deadly weapon and opium smuggling, has been set for Feb. 22 in the District Court. It is believed, however, the wounded officers will not be able to leave their cots by that time, so that the case will be further remanded.

Miss Louise Morris of Baltimore, whose engagement to Frederick Gohard has just been announced, has, ever since her society debut three years ago, been a reigning belle. So perfect are her figure and face that she has been written and talked about probably more than any other woman. She is now about 21 years old, of medium height, beautifully molded figure, rich chestnut hair, dark-colored eyes and an exquisite complexion. At her home she is known as one of the "big five," a term applied to five of the most beautiful girls in Baltimore.

By Hood's Sarsaparilla-Blood Poisoned by Canker.

Read the following from a grateful mother: "My little boy had Scarlet Fever when 4 years old, and it left him very weak and with blood poisoned with canker. His eyes became so inflamed that his sufferings were intense, and for seven weeks he could not open his eyes. I took him twice during that time to the Eye and Ear Infirmary on Charles street, but their remedies failed to do him the faintest shadow of good. I commenced giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and it soon cured him. I have never doubted that it saved his sight, even if not his very life. You may use this medicine in any way you choose. I am always ready to recommend the praise of

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE BEEN APPOINTED SOLE AGENTS FOR these SHREDDERS and are now prepared to receive orders.

The great advantages to be derived from the use of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER are thoroughly established and acknowledged by Planters generally.

The large number of Planters using them in the United States, Cuba, Argentine Republic, Peru, Australia and elsewhere, bear witness to the above claim.

The use of the SHREDDER very largely augments the quantity of cane the mill can grind (25 to 50 %) also the extraction of juice (5 to 12 %).

It is a great safeguard, making known at once the presence of any pieces of iron, stakes from cars, or anything which would be liable to damage the mill, and allowing ample time to remove same before damaging the mill.

The SHREDDER is very strongly made, and from the manner of its operation it cuts or tears these pieces of wood or iron without often breaking the SHREDDER; and if anything breaks, it is simply some of the knives or cutters, which can be quickly and economically replaced. The SHREDDER, as its name indicates, tears the cane into shreds of varying lengths, perfectly opening it and allowing the mill to thoroughly press out the juice without requiring the immense extra power necessary to grind or crush the whole cane. The SHREDDER spreads the shredded cane uniformly and evenly to the mill rolls, and does away with the necessity of spreading the bagasse by hand between the mills, where regarding is in use. No greater amount of boiler capacity is required to operate the SHREDDER than that which was sufficient for the mill, for the above reasons. We furnish full working drawings for the installation of our SHREDDERS, enabling any competent engineer to successfully install and start them.

In ordering SHREDDERS from us, please send small sketch, showing the diameter and width of the mill rolls with which SHREDDERS is to be connected, also the side (either right or left hand as you face the delivery side of the mill), upon which the mill engine is located, also the height from floor line to center of front mill roll shaft, and distance center this shaft to front end of bed plate. These SHREDDERS are now being used by the Hilo Sugar Co. and Hawi Mill, Kohala, where they are giving great satisfaction.

Prices and further particulars may be had by applying to

The Prize Awarded!

Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co. Wins the Prize at the World's Fair with their "EAGLE" Brand Beer.

St. Louis, Oct. 28, 1893. Messrs. MacFarlane & Co., Ltd., Honolulu, H. I.

Dear Sirs:—We have mailed you a copy of the Globe-Democrat announcing the great victory won by the Anheuser-Busch Association with their "EAGLE" Brand of Beer.

(Special Dispatch to Globe-Democrat.)

WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 28. — No award has ever been made so gratifying to St. Louis people and so justly merited as the one given today by the Columbian jury of the World's Fair, consisting of connoisseurs and chemists of the highest rank, to the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association. By methods of unrivaled business enterprise, and by using the best material produced in America and Europe, excluding corn and other adulterants or surrogates, the different kinds of the Anheuser-Busch beer have become the favorites with the American people, and have now conquered the highest award in every particular, which had to be considered by the Columbian jury. The high character of the award given today by the jurors will be better understood when it is known that the different beers exhibited by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association had to compete with hundreds of the most excellent displays of other brewers. The fact that no other concern has received so many points for the various essential qualities of good beer confirms anew the firm's reputation as the leader of all American beers, and Mr. Adolphus Busch can feel proud over this result so justly merited.

The above is a fac-simile of the label of the "EAGLE" Brand which took the Prize.

In ordering this Beer be sure to ask for the "EAGLE" Brand.

BLOUNT'S DEFENDER.

Mr. Reader of Iowa stands in With the Paramount.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—F. W. Reader of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was before the Hawaiian Investigating Committee to-day as a zealous defender of the Administration and Blount. He is in Honolulu at the time of the revolution. He declared there was no occasion for the landing of American troops; that everything was quiet and peaceful, and that American interests were not endangered.

Reader also failed to see any excuse for the declaration of an American protectorate over the islands except for the purpose of preserving the Dole Government. He declared that the natives preferred the native Government, and as the voters among them numbered about 12 to 1 of the whites, he was of the opinion that they should control. He did not think, after her effort to subvert the Constitution, that the Queen should have been permitted to continue her reign. She should have been arrested and punished, and her niece raised to the throne. Call, Jan. 31.

Canadian Australian Line.

A late London despatch says: The Canadian Australian line of steamships is attracting more and more attention here. The interview of Sir Charles Tupper and the agents general with the Marquis of Ripon, Secretary of State for the Colonies, on Monday, has been a subject of interesting conversation, and I have it on the best of authority that the Imperial Government will grant an interim subsidy for the Fiji service at once. The question of a permanent subsidy of £25,000 will, it is said, be considered at the next cabinet meeting. I have it from an undoubted source that the Marquis of Ripon personally favors the granting of the subsidy.

The experience of Geo. A. Apgar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one small bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by all dealers.
