RACE DAYS OF THE PAST

Review of Regatta Days Since Inauguration by King Kalakaua—Victories Won and Races Lost by Boys Now On the Lists of Old Timers—Complete Review of Aquatic Sport and Its Steady Growth in Popularity.

All other sports in Honolulu have had their periods of rise and fall but aquatic excitement never to be tired of. Baseball was at one time Honolulu's favorite sport, but now it is only kept alive through the determination of a few enthusiasts who have formed teams and play whenever they can get a chance. Football aroused enthusiasts while it was in full swing but this did not last long and now, the game is what may be called make. Tennis lasted a little longer but, in even that sport, interest has relaxed. Cricket seems to struggle along and golf is just beginning.

With boat races, it seems to be different. Even so early as the late '70's boat racing was indulged in at various periods during the year but it was not until the early '80's that regular regattas were held. These took place on the birthdays of King Kalakaua (November 17) or on other holidays and the events from year to year having been encouraged by him, he was looked upon always as the prime mover in boating events.

First Regatta

In 1884 was held the first big regatta. The Myrtle boat club had been in existence a little over a year and this lent added interest to the racing.

The Bulletin of November 17 has a detailed account of the events, mentioning that two marches "La Hano o na Mo" and "The Winning Boat," composed expressly for the 48th anniversary of the birth of Kalakaua by Professor Berger, were played in Etna square in the afternoon. Continuing, the Bulletin says:

Those who were awakened at sunrise on Monday morning, by the thundering out of a royal salute from the shore battery, opened their eyes upon the glorious prospect of a fine day.

Strange as it may seem, regatta days in Honolulu have ever dawned bright and clear as if lending encouragement to those taking part and those out to enjoy themselves.

The steamer Planter, the flag boat of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club and A. F. Cooke's steam launch are mentioned. The harbor is certainly a little better off today when it is a question of steamers and launches.

It was in that year that Judge W. L. Wilcox called the Healanis and beat the Pauline and Haumea with what the Bulletin terms "ridiculous ease." The six-oared sliding seat race was the event of the day. Unlike today, there were five boats in the race and the Myrtles in the Stranger won by ten seconds. Their crew was as follows: O. Branch, stroke; H. Robertson, P. Wundenburg, C. Purdy, A. Lyle, J. Savidge and J. L. Torbert, coxswain.

Contest of 1884.

The Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club was organized in March of 1884 and on the same date, a year later, an anniversary regatta was given under the auspices of that organization. In the six-oared junior race, the Myrtles in the Stranger beat the Honolulu. A. W. Carter, stroke; F. D. Whitney, W. Monarrat, W. McBryde, A. M. Brown, J. L. Torbert and W. F. Love, coxswain, composed the Myrtle crew, while that of the Honolulu was made up of E. Low, stroke; L. A. Thurston, C. W. Macfarlane, Guy Wodehouse, W. W. Diamond, O. Stillman and F. Whitney, coxswain.

The race of the day was between the six-oared gigs of the Myrtles, H. Y. & B. C. and Iolani Boat Club. These were the days when the Poomakelanis was in good shape, the Stranger of the Myrtles beat her by about only a boat length.

Shell races were the thing at that time and the Bulletin speaks of J. H. Seely winning easily from George Markham. It was during the races of this day that the Myrtles won two out of the three cups offered.

Yachts Races in '85.

On November 6, 1885, there were fifteen races on the regatta program. The Pokil was in the first class yacht race but she was beaten by the Healanis. The Pokil is still in existence but she is by no means in the first class today. The Lanai of F. H. Hayselden and the Healanis of the Iolani Boat Club were in the whaleboat race but Fred of Lanai wasn't in it.

In this year, the Myrtles had the Alice M. and they put her in the six-oared sliding seat race against the Poomakelanis of the Iolani Boat Club and the Who'd A Thought It of the Kapiolani Boat Club. This was the Alice M.'s first race and she was beaten badly by the Poomakelanis on account of having shipped a heavy sea. The Alice M. was again defeated in the junior race by the Kalulani of the Kapiolani Boat Club. In the four-oared senior race, the Myrtles in the Alf Rodgers beat the Poomakelanis of the Iolani. In the four-oared race for junior crews the Kalulani beat the Alf Rodgers of the Myrtles.

The launch race of that day was an intensely exciting affair. On account of mistakes in the turning points, the race was called off. A fine race between launches now in the harbor might have been arranged for today, but it is too late now. It is to be hoped that the men in charge of the races next year will remember that a launch race would be watched with a great deal of interest.

Navy Events in '88.

On July 4, 1888, there was one rowing and one yacht race in the harbor. The Vandalla and Mohenn of the United States Navy and the Cormorant and Hyacinth of the English Navy, were then in port.

In the six-oared race the Myrtles won from the Honolulu. The latter claimed a foul and there was a lot of wrangling but the judges would not go back on their decision. By the way, Dr. Trouseau (deceased), Capt. J. A. King (deceased) and C. E. Wilson were the judges. In the first class yacht race the Pookil came out winner.

On July 4, 1889, the Alice M. with the following crew, beat the Honolulu Liliuokalani in the six-oared match race: H. Vida, H. Gunn, W. H. Wright, R. L. Gilliland, G. R. Grau, Jas. Spencer and Chas. Herrick. Spencer and Herrick are now with the Healanis. The crew of the Liliuokalani was made up of the following: W. H. P. Greig, A. Wansey, E. L. Stiles, M. Keohokalole, Carl Widemann, D. K. Morton and A. Atkinson.

On August 24 and September 7, 1891, there were races between the Alf Rodgers of the Myrtles and the Healanis Boat Club's Poomakelanis. In both events, the Myrtles won.

First at Pearl Harbor.

In 1892 were first instituted the regattas at Pearl Harbor. This was on March 17 and to show that the events were popular, there were over two thousand people in attendance.

Captain Griffith, one of the few sea captains who have taken an interest in local sports of all kinds, was one of the judges. The popular captain is now in port with his staunch bark Albert and he will be on hand today to watch every move in the races. Whether by hook or by manipulation of the winds, Captain Griffith always manages it so that he can be in port for Regatta Day.

Only the Hawaii and Healanis were entered in the first class yacht race. The latter was beaten 11 minutes and

PROMOTERS OF REGATTA DAY

SCENE - ON - THE - WATERFRONT - DURING - REGATTA - RACES

HELANI BLUE RISES TRIUMPHANT

Regatta Day opened with cloudy skies, from which fell occasional drizzles. It goes without saying, however, that all Honolulu turned its face to the water front and mostly in good time for the first race at 9:30.

At the Myrtle and Healanis boat houses, both clubs having published omnibus invitations to all their friends, there are gay throngs of people. Women and children have at both places excellent points of vantage for viewing the races, with choicest refreshments well served thrown in at the resting hour. The balconies of both houses exhibit a kaleidoscopic mass of vibrating a fluttering holiday millinery and drapery.

The boat houses are less profusely decorated with flags and streamers than on some former occasions of the kind. The same remark is true of the shipping in the harbor, although a few large vessels are in full dress. The float of the judges is, however, far superior in appearance to any that has been seen in previous regattas. It has a symmetrical awning of pitched roof form all over it. The scheme of bright colored bunting decorating the float makes it the most beautiful object in sight.

All the wharves and vessels lying thereat are swarming with people of all races. The Government band is stationed on the Kinau wharf, whence its inspiring music sounds clear to every gathering place of the multitudes.

As the forenoon wore on the sky lightened, and at this writing the prospects are for a brilliant day's enjoyment. The unfortunate double accident in the barge race elsewhere reported, it is to be hoped, will have proved the only unpleasant episode of the aquatic carnival—the most generally popular event in Honolulu's sporting calendar.

Below is a list of the officers of the day who are making such a success of today's events:

Judges—Capt. C. J. Campbell, C. J. McCarthy and C. W. Macfarlane. Starter—C. B. Wilson. Timekeepers—L. P. Scott, F. E. Harvey, Capt. Griffiths and Chris Willis. Clerk of Course—Capt. E. H. Parker. Regatta Committee—A. A. Wilder, J. C. Lane and A. L. C. Atkinson

Recorder—J. F. Soper and C. Charlock. Secretary—J. W. Smithies.

Judges' Barge.

Through the kindness of Captain Merry of the Naval Station, the judges and other officers of the day succeeded in getting coal barge No. 14 for their use. This was towed to the regular position in the stream, opposite the Inter-Island wharves, at about 8:45 o'clock, the tug Eleu doing this work. Aboard the barge were Captain Harry Evans and S. E. P. Taylor, together with a force of about fifteen natives. An anchor was dropped and, assisted by the wind, the barge was soon in position alongside the Dunregan.

A temporary framework on the barge was covered with canvas. From an improvised flag pole at the fore was set the American flag while a Hawaiian flag was in the same relative position astern. From each mast to the corners and across the top, from pole to pole, were strings of flags and pennants kindly loaned by captains of various vessels in port.

Six Oared Sliding Seat Barge

Prize, $30 trophy. Course, from Judge's stand out the channel to bell buoy, keeping spar buoy on port side; turning bell buoy same on port side; back to channel, keeping spar buoy on starboard side; thence back to start. To start at 9:30 a. m. Entries: M. B. C.; Healanis, H. Y. & B. C.

Myrtle—Allan Judd, stroke; Geo. Angus, No. 5; P. Lishman, No. 4; Geo. Fuller, No. 3; Albert Judd, No. 2; Sam Johnson, bow; Wm. Love, coxswain. Healanis—Paul Jarrett, stroke; Dan Renear, No. 5; Pat Gleason, No. 4; G. J. Bolsee, No. 3; James Lloyd, No. 2; W. Williams, bow; Chas. Reynolds, coxswain.

The Myrtles won the toss and took the inner course that is, the course next the judges stand. The two boats got up on the line in fine shape and started absolutely together. The Myrtles took a small lead but the Healanis were soon abreast. On nearing the lighthouse, a small boat was seen to be directly in the course of the Myrtles but the rower succeeded in getting out of the way in time. The Myrtles seemed to be pulling a different stroke to the one used at Pearl Harbor last Tug of War.

In the tug of war of two-oared shore of Kupihe and Mahuka was too strong beat Paiko and Sey after about a minute and a half pull. Paiko and Sey put up a plucky fight but the even work boats, Kupihe (Big Jim) and Mahuka for them.

An Unfortunate Accident.

An unfortunate accident happened near the bell buoy so that the race could not be finished. Major McCarthy, who was out on the tug tells the following story:

"The tug was following the boats along, just a little past the spar buoy, a Japanese fishing boat got in the way and forced the Myrtles to go far to leeward in order to avoid a collision. This gave the Healanis the advantage, and they gained about two lengths. The Myrtles pulled up into the course again and started in to pull in good shape.

"Just as the boats were a hundred yards or more from the bell buoy, the Healanis boat was swamped on account of the very rough sea outside. The Myrtles kept on pulling and smiled a very broad smile as they passed the wearers of the blue in their crippled condition.

"The Myrtles rounded the bell buoy and just as they reached the place where they smiled their smile, their boat also was swamped.

"The Kinau lowered a boat and went to the assistance of the boys. Commodore Beckley was in command. Another boat picked up the Myrtle boys, while the Kinau boat rendered what assistance they could to the Healanis."

The tug boat brought in the Healanis crew with boat. Upon arriving near the Healanis house the boys jumped overboard and took their boat off. She was found to be badly broken.

The Myrtles got the water out of their boat and rowed in slowly, going directly to their quarters.

This race is off.

No one hurt in the accident.

Five Oared Whale Boat Races.

Five-oared whaleboat race. No spoon oars. First prize, $30. Second prize, $16. Course, from judges' stand and around spar buoy, keeping same on port side in turning, thence back to start. To start at 10 a. m. Entries—Honolulu, Sharky; John Currie, H. Evans.

There were four boats entered in this race but only the Honolulu and John Currie started. The race was very close throughout. Half way up the channel, the Honolulu pulled ahead wonderfully and won by about a half minute. The Honolulu is the police boat.

White Winged Yachts.

The first class yachts were off on time, the Eva, Bonnie Dundee and Helene crossing the line in the order named. At the spar buoy the Bonnie was seen ahead and the Eva second. Helene was in third place when the bell buoy was reached.

In the second class race the Marlon did not start. The Hawaii and Dewey alone competing. They started almost together. The Dewey, however, was a little ahead. At the spar buoy she increased her lead and was to windward of the Hawaii.

The third class boats got off in a rush, the Myrtle far in the lead, with is the strongest and most serviceable cement made and will permit the admixture of a larger amount of sand or gravel, with less loss of strength than any other brand. It is therefore the most economical. ALSEN has NO EQUAL IN COLOR, FINENESS AND SAND CARRYING CAPACITY. RACE DAYS OF THE PAST seconds by the Hawaii. Were the Healanis in the races today, history might repeat itself for Judge Wilcox will handle the tiller of the Hawaii.

In the six-oared sliding seat race the Kalulani and the Stranger and Alice M., the latter two of the M. B. C., were entered. The Alice M. took first place, and the Stranger second. There was only one place left for the Kalulani.

In the six-oared (stationary seat) race the Kapilolani, a boat from the U. S. T. S. San Francisco and the Kanoelani, were entered. The Kapilolani's crew, made up entirely of natives, won easily over the Americans Apaki, one of the big fellows of the crack pilot boat crew, was in the boat. The Alf Rodgers, Alice M. and Kalulani were in the four-oared sliding seat event. The Alf Rodgers won. The Bulletin of the day after the races contains the following:

"When the yacht races were nearing a finish, the yacht Helene came sailing majestically into the harbor, presenting a beautiful spectacle. She had on board His Excellency Sam Parker, Hon. W. G. Irwin, Hon. Paul Neumann, Mr. Fred Whitney, Mr. Lanz and others."

On May 24 (Queen Victoria's birthday) there were several aquatic events in the harbor. The yacht race between the Scottish Lassie (sailed by Judge Wilcox) the Hawaii and the Healanis the Scottish Lassie won with the Hawaii a close second.

It was on this day that the Carl W. (Carl Widemann) of the Healanis, was first put into the water. She was pitted against the Alice M. and the crews were as follows:

Myrtle—O. Sorenson, stroke; W. D. Armstrong, George Angus, Chas. Crane, H. A. Giles, Ruby Dexter and A. A. Wilder, coxswain.

Healanis—L. de L. Ward, stroke; James Spencer, Chris. Holt, A. L. C. Atkinson, C. Walker, Frank Woods, and Chas. Herrick, coxswain. The Healanis fouled the Myrtles near the lighthouse but they were far enough ahead so that this did not prove a disadvantage. The Myrtles won in 26 minutes and 35 seconds. There was a big celebration at the Arlington that night.

Healanis' First Victory.
The next regatta was on Queen Liliuokalani's birthday, September 2, 1892. In the first class yacht race the Bonnie Dundee made her first appearance. The only other boat in the race was the Hawaii. The Bonnie was unlucky in this race for she went aground at a point about three-quarters of a mile from the starting point, remaining an hour and five minutes. The Hawaii kept on and won easily. Governor Dole was in the Dundee. L. A. Thurston sailed the Hawaii. There were two other yacht races and then came the rowing races. In the first of these, the Alice M. and Stranger were pitted against each other. The former won easily. In the four-oared race, the Alf Rodgers won from the Alice M.

At Pearl Harbor on October 8, 1892, there was an exciting race between the Myrtles and Healanis, the latter winning by only four seconds. The crews were as follows:

Myrtle—W. Wright, bow; Alex. Lyle, Arthur Brown, C. Crozier, E. Wodehouse, C. Crane, stroke and Arthur Wilder, coxswain.

Healanis—C. Macfarlane, bow; W. H. C. Greig, H. J. Gallagher, J. Holt, C. Holt, James Spencer (stroke) and Charles Herrick, coxswain. "Healanis the best!" was the yell after the race was over and the town was painted blue. This race may be said to have been the first of the championship events at Pearl Harbor.

It was a different story on October 7, 1893, for the Myrtles won "hands down" and, in celebration of the victory, the hue of the paint that daubed the town was changed from the blue of the preceding year, to red.

In 1893 and 1894 came the troublous times in Hawaii so that there were no boat races. On July 4, 1895, there were a few events. In 1895 came the cholera and so there were no races until May 9, 1896. The five events took place at Pearl Harbor. The Myrtles won both junior and senior events.

Regatta Day Established.
In June of 1896, A. G. M. Robertson as a member of the Legislature, introduced a bill, making the third Saturday in September a public holiday to be devoted to aquatic sports. This was one of the many liberal movements that so greatly added to Mr. Robertson's popularity. On September 19 of the same year, the first Regatta Day was observed in Honolulu and it proved a success in every sense of the word.

In the first class yacht races, the Bonnie Dundee won from the Helene, Hawaii and Rescue without any trouble whatever. Her time was 3 hours, 41 minutes and a few seconds. The Helene was second.

In the four-oared shell race, the Myrtles won, having simply to row over the course. The Healanis claimed they were fouled and did not finish the race but rowed immediately to their quarters.

The Myrtles in the Alf Rodgers beat the Healanis in the Poomakelan in the four-oared barge race. The U. S. S. Adams boat was beaten by the Aloha in the ten-oared whaleboat race. This was the year that a shark appeared in the harbor and frightened Captain Campbell so that his hat fell overboard.

In October, 1896, George Carter took charge of the Healanis and, since that time, there has been better work by the wearers of the blue, all along the line. This boom has not died out and now that A. L. C. Atkinson has taken charge of the affairs of the Healanis, still better work is expected.

On the night of February 4, 1897, the M. B. C. gave a smoker in celebration of the fourteenth anniversary of the organization of the club. Even the invitations were in red.

In the Pearl Harbor championship races of September 11, 1897, the Myrtles won both races as they did in 1895. The Lailanis was only in at the start. The finish of the Lailanis is a forbidden subject. Over 1500 people were at the races. This was the year that C. S. Desky's launch "Star" went ashore.

Regatta day fell on September 18 in 1897. In the first class yacht race the Bonnie Dundee won again. The other yachts showed plainly their inferiority to her. The Myrtles won the six-oared large race. In the events of this day, Kimokeo triumphed over Renear, the California champion, in the 100 yards swimming contest. It was certainly a great day for the natives. The Lailanis won the four-oared barge race from both the Myrtles and Healanis.

On September 23d of this year the Myrtles beat the Lailanis in a special race. Prince David was the stroke of the latter crew. It was directly after this, that Vanderveer, the ship's writer of the U. S. S. Philadelphia composed the following march which he dedicated to the Myrtle Boat Club:

We belong to the crew of a club not new,
And we're Myrtle boys full of joy,
We'll flaunt the red until we're dead,
With bending oar, we'll keep to the fore,
As we easily slide, through the water glide,
The people cry as we go by
That they'll bet their coin while our rivals learn
That as birds we simply fly.

The music is by Prof. Berger and has been played so often that everybody can whistle it.

The Healanis made a clean sweep of the championship races at Pearl Harbor on September 10, 1898, and there was such a predominance of blue that it was apparent even in the camp of the Myrtles. This was the first year of the connection of F. W. Klebahn, the German champion oarsman, with the Healanis crews and, in his capacity of trainer, he certainly made his work tell. The time in the senior race was exceedingly close. The Healanis passed over the line in 10:05 2-5 and the Myrtles in 10:05 4-5, so the race was won by two-fifths of a second. No closer race has been recorded during the history of racing in the Islands.

It was after these races that Klebahn was dubbed the Admiral Dewey of Hawaiian waters. The Myrtles attributed their defeat to the fact that their boys did not board at the Arlington. However, those are things of the past.

In the Regatta Day events of September 17, the Healanis added another victory to their list by beating the Myrtles in the six-oared barge race. Kimokeo was again pitted against Renear in the swimming race and once more did the native come out victorious. In the four-oared barge race, the Myrtles beat the Alf Rodgers. In the first class yacht race, the Hawaii won over both the Bonnie Dundee and Marlon.

Both championship races at Pearl Harbor on September 9, 1899 were won by the Myrtles. The time was much slower than that of the previous year. This was the day that Bill Larsen with his puffing launch carried the judges over the course and that A. L. C. Atkinson, J. O. Carter Jr., and James Lloyd had to walk to town on account of a bet—the wrong way. This was also the day that the heoloku was bet against a hat that the Healanis would win and that, strange to say, the lady most concerned, refused to give up her dress. The alalauwa, the royal red fish, also appeared in great numbers in the harbor.

Regatta Day, the following Saturday, was another great day. Immense crowds thronged the water front. The Healanis reversed matters and made a clean sweep in the races in which they and the Myrtles were concerned and, whereas the Bulletin on the previous Saturday, published an extra edition in red, it published another extra on the following Sunday, in blue.

The events at Pearl Harbor last Saturday are still too fresh in the minds of boating enthusiasts to need very much mention. The Myrtles easily defeated the Healanis in the junior race but were themselves defeated by a very narrow margin in the senior event. Both clubs were jubilant but the Healanis were more so because the senior event was counted the most important and bets on the basis of 10 to 7 on the Myrtles had been very freely made. It was really expected that the Healanis would win the junior and win the senior race.

True to the inherent loyalty and enthusiasm for aquatic sports, Honolulu citizens are devoting their undivided attention to the contests of Regatta Day.

SECRECY IN GOVERNMENT.

One of the most unfortunate features of the present Territorial administration, a characteristic that seems to be coexisting with the Governor's council, is the continuation of the old system of observing the strictest secrecy in the discussion of matters that concern the interests of the people.

This has been brought particularly to notice in connection with the varying requests now before the Territorial administration for obtaining the water privileges of the Kaukoehoua stream on his island.

It is now known that the administration has under contemplation the granting of rights to the water of this stream to certain private individuals.

The Bulletin requested the correspondence bearing on the subject. Governor Dale stated that the disposition of this matter was still under advisement by the "government" and he did not consider it advisable to make the correspondence public.

With all due respect to the Governor, the Bulletin submits that his attitude in this affair is not in keeping with the liberal methods of American government.

NO SESSION OF THE FEDERAL COURT

Judge M. M. Estee held a session of the United States District Court at Hilo on Thursday. The Court opened at 10 a. m., and with recesses between and again at 2 and 4 p. m.

The first thing done was the appointment of W. C. E. Brown as court officer and bailiff to act whenever the Court sits at Hilo.

Carl S. Smith was appointed United States Commissioner for the island of Hawaii.

Thos. C. Ridgway was appointed Referee in Bankruptcy for the islands of Hawaii, Maui, Molokai, Lanai and Kahoolawe. He filed a bond of $2000 with E. E. Richards and E. D. Baldwin as sureties.

Carl S. Smith, Chas. F. Parsons, Thos. C. Ridgway, John U. Smith and W. S. Wise were admitted to practice in the Federal courts.

Forty-one persons were naturalized, including the following well known people: Albert J. W. Mackenzie, C. C. Kennedy, Chas. H. Frazer, Andrew Chalmers, Wentworth K. Andrews, John D. Kennedy, Thos. Mutch, William Fuller, E. von Arnswaldt, Oswald A. Stevens, James Webster, William Silver, Leon Masters, Lawrence S. Canairo and John Holtenberg.

Judge Estee was very much pleased with his visit. He said to a Bulletin reporter this morning:

"Hilo is at least ten degrees cooler than Honolulu. Although it rains there on the slightest provocation, I consider it a very attractive place."

Miss Ray, the Marshal's daughter and clerk, took the opportunity of visiting the volcano.

Judge Estee will resume the session of his Court at Honolulu in the new courtroom on Monday morning. He is well satisfied with the way the place has been fitted up and furnished.

Thieving from Grocery Wagon

Yesterday afternoon a grocery delivery wagon was serving customers in Victoria street. A boy scarcely in his teens was observed by two ladies passing in a carriage to clamber on the wagon from behind. This was no unusual sight, for stealing rides on all sorts of vehicles is half the life of your Punaebowl slopes gamins.

But when the youngster in this case began stealthily to unload the wagon the observers became interested. He took some tinned goods out of an open box and threw them out at the corner of Kinau street.

When the driver turned his head that way the boy jumped off and ran. He thought the driver had not discovered the loss of the goods, so only went round the next corner into Lunalloo street and waited for an opportunity to return for the booty.

The driver at a signal from one of the ladies, however, whipped up his horse in pursuit of the thief. As he came into view the boy sprinted up Lunalloo street. The wagon was driven after him at a rattling pace, but how the chase ended has not at this writing been learned.

NATURE'S PROVISION FOR MAN.

When Nature designed man she provided ample things for his preservation. Man was intended to live and be healthy on vegetation; that was the natural way. The only way to be healthy or to regain lost health is by using nature's remedy and great blood purifier—Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. This is the great Indian remedy, taken direct from nature's unerring laboratory. It is made of simple herbs, roots and barks, and always acts naturally. It searches out the disease; finds the cause of it; slays it, and restores the body to a normally healthy condition. If your liver is sluggish, drowsy, or inactive; if your heart doesn't pump right, palpitate, thumps, sometimes vigorously; and sometimes faintly; if your bowels are inactive, or overactive; if your stomach fails you; if your kidneys fail to act naturally; there is still help for you if you will take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa. You must act quickly. Disease is progressive; you must stop it at once. Kickapoo Indian Sagwa will do it. Holbron Drug Co., agents for the Kickapoo Indian Remedies.

Gibbons Discusses The New Woman. In a vigorous and eloquent manner Gibbons preached to a large and fashionable congregation.

The Cardinal, by inference rather than by set words, gave his audience to understand that he had no sympathy with the woman advocates of woman's rights.

"The Holy Spirit in the Old Testament," he said, "pays a beautiful and well merited tribute to woman and to woman's position in society."

"Does He admire her because of her social triumphs; because she is brilliant in her leadership of society? "Does she commend her because she is an advocate of certain so-called female privileges?"

"Does He commend her because she goes about from place to place, ascending here a rostrum and there a rostrum, and advocating the rights and privileges of women?"

"Not at all. The Holy Spirit does aver that she is simply a loving wife, an affectionate mother, a benevolent mistress to the members of her household; as the guardian of the domestic arrangements she is ever faithful; she looks well to the requirements of her household. She attends to the little things of this life, and she does them well."

"He had done all things well," said Cardinal Gibbons in commencing his sermon. "The multitude came to our dear Saviour and they praised him not because of the great exploits he had accomplished as the conqueror of men, but because he did all things well for the glory of his Father and the welfare of humanity, small as well as great."

"I propose to make a special plea in behalf of the small things of life. I hold that our sanctification here and our salvation hereafter do not depend upon the accomplishment of great achievements, but rather upon the faithful, diligent performance of the commonplace daily duties of our life—our public and domestic duty, the manner in which we go about our daily avocations, the attitude we maintain in society, our conversation one to another, and the way in which we conduct ourselves during the recreation which we are enjoying here in this beautiful world."

"I hold it is an axiom that we can sanctify all this work. It matters not to God whether we are a king or a clown on the stage of life; the great object is to fill faithfully the post to which God has assigned us."

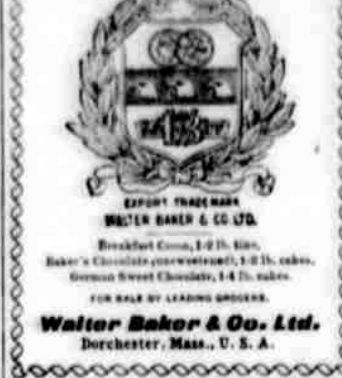

"How many a brave Briton and Boer sheds his blood and goes down to his grave in South Africa unwept, unhonored and unnamed! Yet it is the rank and file that accomplish the victories for which generals receive the praise."

"When the traveler has approached Mount Lebanon, in Syria, and beheld in admiration in the distance those tall, majestic cedars that crown that mountain, he pays no attention at all to the grass that has grown around those trees. True, when he approaches the summit those grand trees afford indeed to him some shelter from the rays of the sun, but the little blades of grass perform a noble and more important duty, because they give food and refreshment to the beast of burden. It is the little deed well done that adds much to the sum of human happiness."

"Those little acts of Christian courtesy that we show to one another; those little acts of benevolence and of thought; those kindly acts of politeness that are inseparable from polite society—these do more to cement together the bonds of social and family life than the most brilliant achievement ever accomplished."

"We are too much given in this world to do honor to those who pride themselves on the great works they have performed, while we neglect and forget those who accomplish meritorious though comparatively small deeds. But that was not the case with Christ."

as was instanced in his words to his disciples concerning the widow who distributed her mite at the temple. "People come to me and say: 'Cardinal, if I were a rich man or a rich widow I would give many presents and I would endow an university. I would found a hospital. I would make my name conspicuous by the great works I would accomplish.'"

"These remarks do not do any good. They do not boil the kettle. They are a waste of words. And I notice that these people who make these hypothetical protestations do not, as the widow did, give the little they possess. They exempt themselves from contributing even a farthing according to their means."

The Cardinal told anecdotes of great men to illustrate the lesson he was endeavoring to inculcate. He spoke of the diligence, patience and persistence of Michael Angelo, of the attention to details paid by Isaac Newton and of the pains bestowed upon his work by Lord Tennyson.

The Cardinal closed his sermon with a few words of admonition. "Let me admonish you to begin each day as a rational Christian man by consecrating that day to God," he said. "Thus you will sanctify all the actions of the day."

Model Tenements. A group of model tenements is to be built in New York according to the plans of R. Thomas Short, who won the first prize at the tenement house committee's recent competition. His was the favored plan out of 390 submitted. The new tenements will be built on 70 per cent of the ground space, leaving 30 per cent for light and air. There will be no light or air shafts. The building will be fireproof throughout. Each room will have a window opening into the outer air. Each apartment will have a private hall and baths, play grounds, clothes drying chambers and baby carriage and bicycle storage rooms provided. The cost will be such that the rentals will average $1 a week for each room, and still yield a profit—Public Opinion.

Pugilists Have All Made Good Money

New York, Sept. 10.—This is the first week since 1895 in which no fight is scheduled in the metropolitan district, and for the reason that prize-fights are now misdemeanors.

Tom Sharkey has a house in Sheepshead Bay and can write his checks for at least $20,000. Corbett has not had so many opportunities proportionately as some of the others, and $45,000 might be set down fairly as his earnings.

McCoy might be placed at close to the same figure, and Peter Maher says he has a home in Westchester and can live until the Horton law comes around again.

Terry McGovern's share is thought to be larger than that of any of the others. He has managed with great skill. He will not approximate his earnings, but they were probably quite large.

HEALANI BLUE RISES TRIUMPHANT

Optical second and the new boat 171-ke, third. The Kaka, Matt-Smith's boat did not seem to be ready and started by herself far in the lead. The Myrtle kept going and boated a lagoon in just as the line was crossed, thereby increasing her lead quite a distance.

In the fourth class, the boats started out in the following order: Abbie M., Edith L., Polli and Anna. The Abbie M. was far in the lead.

Japanese Fishing Boats.

First prize, $20, second, $10.

Course—From Judge's stand to and around "knuckle" buoy and back to starting point. The two blue boats pushed out ahead and kept the lead. The other two were too slow, Masuda finished first with Matsumoto a pretty close second, the other two boats were out of it.

Healoni Old Timers Win.

The Old Timers race, came in after that of the Japanese fishing boats. The Myrtles, Healani and Carl W. were the boats in the race. The Myrtles came in ahead but the two Healani boats fouled near the lighthouse and were almost piled up on the Myrtles. The judges declared the race off and the crews went out again.

The Healani won the race in 5.16. The Myrtles came in next with the Harvard men (Walter Dillingham, Harding, "Pop" Atkinson and others) closely following.

The winning crew was as follows: Kiehani, Waterhouse, Clancy Rhodes, Isomson and Herrick, coxswain. The Myrtles finished in 5.29.

Notes.

The tug Elen had all her decorations astern.

The Eva was the first yacht to show her sails in the harbor.

Doc Monarrat was out with a khaki coat, a red necktie and a camera.

Arthur Wilder of the Regatta Committee is handling the megaphone on the tug Elen.

All the men who have pulled in Myrtle senior races before, were out in red coats.

Captain Merry, Lieut.-Com. Pond and party are cruising about the harbor in the Naval Station launch.

The schooner Lady with a cargo of lumber sailed out of the harbor just previous to the start of the first race.

Although the Alice Cooke is on the marine railway, Captain Penhallow has not forgotten to hoist his flags and pennants.

A. L. C. Atkinson, captain of the Healani's and a member of the Regatta Committee, was stationed on the Young launch.

The Union Express Co.'s launch was hired by the Regatta Committee to do work in the harbor. Bill Larsen attended the engine.

The inter-island steamers all moved out into the stream this morning in order not to in any way interfere with the boats entered in the races.

Caterer Chapman is again presiding over the refreshments on the judges' stand and as usual, he is being praised on all hands for the excellence of his arrangements.

Captain Harry Evans, although not a member of the Regatta committee, not yet an officer of the day, helped out in great shape on the judges' stand. Harry is always willing to work in the interests of sport.

GOT TEN YEARS.

The W. G. Hall brought the news from Lihue, Kauai, this morning that Kaapa, the sailor of the steamer Nihau who, in a state of drunkenness, beat a Japanese to death on the road from Lihue to Hanamaulu some weeks ago, was given ten years' imprisonment at hard labor by Judge Little, acting in the place of Judge Hardy.

The Rio de Janeiro arrived in port at about 11 a. m. today. She sails for San Francisco at 8 o'clock tonight. Mr. Chairborne is the only passenger for this port.
