WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and has evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become costive; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in Dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Harthill, near Sheffield:—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills. The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many grosses.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—I find that the trade steadily increases. I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

N. Darroll, Cism, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Jos. Bulkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstrong, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir:—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills. Most patent medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel's has had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.

A certain minister in my neighbourhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to costiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying. Mother Seigel's Pills do not leave a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.

Yours very truly,
William S. Glass, Chemist.
(Signed) A. J. White, Esq.

15th August, 1883.
Dear Sir:—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life.

Yours truly,
(Signed) N. Webb,
Chemist, Calne.

BRITAIN AND THE BEET BOUNTIES.

In nothing does Great Britain show her greatness more than in her maintenance of her position as mistress of the seas and of commerce. Nothing within or without shakes her confidence in free trade. Her policy of unrestricted commerce with all the world, so far as her part is concerned, is based upon the scientific principles of political economy, and was adopted after a prodigious struggle with home interests that had long exacted heavy tribute from the people under a different policy. During the recent world-wide commercial depression, an attempt to revive the protection theory in Great Britain, under the taking name of "fair trade," seemed for a time to have been developing threatening magnitude, but Mr. Gladstone and his Liberal associates, with the more judicious of the Conservatives, held the movement at bay until the revival of trade made it hopeless. The attitude of British statesmen toward the unscientific system of sugar bounties, adopted by other countries to force the growth of industries that cannot be established or maintained upon a natural basis, is consistent with the fixed policy of the nation. A recent article in a leading journal of Canada, a British dependency which gave way a few years ago to the clamor of manufacturers for protection, administers a scolding to the British Board of Trade (a department of the Government), for having declined to consider a proposal to impose countervailing duties to offset the bounties under which beet sugar manufacture lives in other countries. One of the grounds taken why the mother country should so deviate from her true and tried policy, was that the British West Indies were entitled to such a protection of their sugar market on account of their being large consumers of British manufactures. The bounty-fed competition was driving the West Indian consumers of British goods either out of the country or into industries that would yield nothing like the profits sugar-raising had. To have their interests ignored in the manner shown would make the West Indians feel that they would be better off as citizens of a nation whose remotest part was as well cared for as its innermost county. What would Great Britain do if the bounty system was applied against her own chief manufactures? She would probably "awake to the criminal folly," and so on.

Such talk is truly surprising if it emanates from persons with any reputation for good sense. It is ridiculous to suppose that the policy established for half a century, under which all the material interests of the nation have grown enormously, should be departed from to relieve a single colonial industry from the effects of the foolish expedient of certain foreign countries to support the beet-sugar business at the expense of their own people. It would be most unstatesmanlike on the part of British statesmen to do so if the bounty system were deemed to have prospect of only a short life, for then they could better afford to wait for the issue than to institute a retrograde precedent. It would be equally unworthy of scientific government if the bounties were to be perpetuated by their authors, for then the imposition of duties would have to be maintained, thereby following the example of the other countries in making the whole people pay tribute to sustain a particular industry. Still more ridiculous, to the extent of puerility, is the warning of what might happen if the bounty system were brought into play against leading British manufactures. If other countries choose to make the attempt of lifting themselves into industrial eminence by their boot straps, by compelling their people to support particular industries, Great Britain can probably stand the artificial competition longer than they can, and survive with resources intact when they have crippled themselves hopelessly.

Instead of the policy of expediency recommended them by short-sighted economists, the British statesmen have taken a course that is likely to produce good results, not only to their own sugar-raising dependencies, but to every cane-growing country in the world. They are endeavoring to induce the abandonment of the bounty system by those countries which have adopted it, and their delegates to Germany for this purpose, according to recent accounts, are meeting with gratifying promise of success. They have secured the co-operation of the workingmen's section of the Liberal party, and been assured that a strong effort will be made in the German Parliament to overthrow the system, which is proving a serious source of oppression to the working classes. Further progress of the plan adopted by Great Britain, which in going straight to the bottom of the evil is more worthy of a great nation than weakly bending under its pressure, will be watched for with interest in succeeding mails. This Kingdom may have great cause of gratitude toward the British nation, in relation to this matter, before very long.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

In Victoria, Australia, dogs coming into any port by sea must serve six months in quarantine. It is recorded that recently the Governor of the Colony, Sir H. B. Loch, brought with him to Melbourne a very fine canine companion. No relaxation of the rule being obtainable even for the Governor, the difficulty was got over by proclaiming the Governor's back yard as a quarantine station. That was all right so far, but the next thing was, a number of dog fanciers wanted their back yards constituted quarantine stations. What Honolulu needs is some sort of public doggerly where all ill-kept dogs could be washed, given a square feed, and muzzled, at their owners' expense, their hides to be tanned to defray costs in case of default of payment.

A new process of preserving meat consists in injecting a solution of boracic acid into the blood of an animal immediately after it has been stunned, and before the heart has ceased to beat, the whole operation, including the removal of all the blood and chemical fluid from the body of the animal, only taking a few minutes. A demonstration of the effects of this process has been given at the Adelphi Hotel, London. The joints cut from a sheep, which had been hanging for more than seven weeks at the House of the Society of Arts, were cooked in various ways, and those present agreed that the meat was equal to ordinary butchers' meat. The foregoing, which we clip from a foreign paper, may convey a useful hint to meat raisers and sellers on these Islands. If some such process were successfully introduced here, abattoirs might be erected on Hawaii and on the stock ranches on this Island, and better, fatter and more tender meat sent to market than is now the case.

MUSICAL NOTES.

At the recent musical congress held in Brussels, two of the resolutions fixed upon were, firstly:—That musical elementary education was to be introduced into all public schools, and that a national "pitch" was to be fixed upon through Belgium for the guidance of all musical matters.

Abbe Liszt has promised the musical world a new work from his pen next year.

Verdi is seventy-three years of age, white-haired and bearded.

A new tenor has been discovered in a wine shop in Bordeaux. He has a magnificent voice, and has been taken in charge by a professor to have it cultivated.

Julius Metz, of Brooklyn, died on the 12th inst., in his 84th year. He was the oldest musician in America.

Rubenstein has composed a new opera, "The Parrot."

Mlle. Nevada will sing during the present season in the States in opera for $1,500 a night. She is an American girl with a splendid voice and cultivation.

King Oscar, of Sweden, has, in his office as president of the Academy of Music in Stockholm, delivered musical lectures on different occasions. These have just been published in a volume.

A statue of Weber, the composer, is to be erected at Entin.

We hope our Symphony Club is hard at practice. A concert is looked for very soon.

This wet weather is very trying to musical instruments. Those who have them should be doubly careful.

"I always loved music," said Luther, "and would not, for a great matter, be without the little skill which I possess in the art."

Music is the divinity of all the arts, and must ever remain so.

DIDN'T WANT TO DIE THERE.

One day during a noted Kentucky campaign, and while the Confederate army was passing through Allen county, Gen. Breckenridge, approaching Gen. Hindman, said:

"We are only a short distance now from Bear Waller, and are not very far from Jintown."

The solemnity of his manner attracted Hindman's serious attention, and regarding Breckenridge with a long look of inquiry, he asked: "But, General, why does our nearness to those places so concern you?"

"Well, you see," Breckenridge replied, "I fear it will be my fate to be killed in an action in Jintown or Bear Waller. Bear Waller?" he repeated. "The thought of being killed at a place bearing such a name makes me sick."

IT is a shame to give licenses to Chinamen to drive horses, as they know no more about a horse than a monkey does. They can't drive straight, and the frames of animals some of them harness between the shafts are only fit for the boneyard. Let us have only competent drivers.

IN the Intermediary Court Thursday morning, Justice Austin presiding, the case of Ah Kee and Ah Chow, charged with having opium in possession, was heard. It was an appeal from Koolaupoko. His Honor found them guilty, and sentenced them to 15 days' imprisonment and pay a fine of $60. Ah Kee appealed, but Ah Chow cried content.

THERE is a law compelling all who drive at night to carry lights. The law calls for expressmen to have their number shown distinctly on the lamp. How is it about private teams? Some people tie a lantern underneath the carriage, while others have it in the carriage with them and the light is hardly seen. Ought not they to be compelled to show lights on both sides?

THE boys who deliver meat, milk and ice early in the mornings are warned not to follow in the footsteps of Mukini, who, when delivering meat, stole a shirt, and is now wearing one of Capt. Tripp's two-colored suits, and will live at the stone mansion over the reef for the next six months, for the offence. He was convicted in the Police Court, but appealed. However, a Supreme Court Jury confirmed the Police Court sentence.

IN the Police Court yesterday morning W. J. Cropley, for driving over a bridge faster than a walk, forfeited $5 bail. Wm. Kahlbaum and Hinoka, for the same offence, were fined $5 and costs. Bills, for larceny of a coat valued at $4.75, was remanded until to-morrow. Ah Po and Ah Chew, for affray, the prosecution was discontinued. Kekua and Kualai, for truancy, the former was sent home, the latter remanded until Saturday.

DEFICIENTLY pre-paid letters and parcels for the Australian Colonies will hereafter be forwarded, but those to whom they are addressed will be taxed double postage, thus following the regulations of the Postal Union. Letters not stamped at all will not be forwarded, neither will newspapers deficiently stamped. Postmaster Whitney has been in correspondence with the various offices in the Colonies, and has got them all to agree to his request.

A MEETING of representatives from each of the boat clubs in the city was held last evening at the boat house of the Honolulu Club, to make arrangements for the regatta to be held on the 17th of November. After some discussion a representative was selected from each boat club to make all necessary arrangements as follows:—Iolani, Col. C. P. Iaukea; Honolulu, W. L. Wilcox; Piolani, George Cavanagh; Myrtle, M. D. Monsarrat; Eclipse, H. J. Mossman. The racing courses were settled upon.

WHILE Judge Bickerton was holding court yesterday morning, a tremendous loud groan was heard from down stairs. Deputy Dayton jumped up as if a bumble bee had stung him and went down the stairs at a 2.06 gait, followed in an alarming manner by Sam McKeague, who, however, had to stop half way to regain his breath. The cause of the disturbance was found to be produced by a Chinaman who had been gently knocked down, and by making a big noise was trying to make believe he had been seriously hurt. In doing so he failed, and was ordered to leave the premises, which he did with a face as long as Berger's big fiddle.

JUDGE Bickerton had a full house this morning, even the passage ways crowded. Chinese predominated, but there were also present Hawaiians, Portuguese, Germans, Irish, English, Yankees, a Scotchman and a Norwegian. The case that attracted attention was that of Akiona, a policeman under suspense, who was charged with assault and battery on a Chinaman, Lu Go. After hearing the evidence His Honor fined the defendant $50 and costs $1.20. Mr. Russell, who appeared for him, noted an appeal. John Hapa, for larceny of a coat, was remanded until to-morrow. Six Chinamen were charged with waylaying and assaulting a fellow countryman, and remanded.

SODA WATER.

To the uninitiated the name Soda Water conveys the idea of a cooling, frothy, fizzing drink, into the composition of which enters the common Baking Soda of our kitchens. This is a mistaken idea. The water proper is, or should be, simply pure filtered spring water, confined in suitable vessels, into which is passed carbonic acid gas until sufficient pressure is attained. This forms the plain soda. In order to make the drink to which we are accustomed, a sufficient quantity of the variously flavored syrups is measured into the glass and then the plain Soda Water turned in. The purity and healthfulness of this drink depends wholly on the syrups. Probably nine-tenths of all the syrups, like raspberry, strawberry, lemon or pine-apple drawn from soda fountains are made by adding artificial fruit essences to a syrup formed from white sugar and water. The artificial fruit essences are prepared from various ethers known to chemists, with the addition of coloring matter to give them semblance to the fruit. It has been decided by physicians that these artificial fruit essences are very detrimental to the health. In order to be able to dispense absolutely pure beverages from the magnificent apparatus in their store, the enterprising firm of Benson, Smith & Co. have imported from New York a full line of McKesion & Robbins pure fruit juices, which are simply the undiluted juice of the fruit or berry. The flavor of syrups made from these juices is incomparably superior to those prepared from artificial essences, and are also free from the objectionable and dangerous chemicals which these contain. "BAZAAR."

(Thoroughbred.)

By Jack Malone, he by Lexington, 1st dam, Ivy Leaf, by imported Australian; 2nd dam, Bay Flower, by Lexington; 3rd dam, Bay Leaf, by imported Yorkshire; 4th dam, imported Maria Black, by Philo da Putah, etc., etc.

Bazaar was bred at the great Woodburn Farm, near Lexington, Ky., by the late R. A. Alexander, and was sold to W. L. Fritchard, of Sacramento, Cal., for $5,000. He stands 15 1/2 hands, weighs 1,065 lbs., and is a bright chestnut color. During his racing career he downed many a favorite, and won many a hatful of money for his owners, and proved himself one of the greatest of horses over a distance, most of his races being at two and four miles. He has already sired several colts in California that are winners, among which are Lizzie Danbar, Young Bazaar, Sophia, and another called the Bazaar. Minerva Colt, he being out of Minerva by imported Lexington, the sire of Parole and Inouah. Lizzie Danbar greatly distinguished herself last year in her two-year-old form by defeating one of the largest fields of two-year-olds that ever started in California, among which were the two beautiful fillies brought here last Spring by Mr. Agnew, distance 5/8 mile, time, 1:04 1/2, the fastest time on record for two-year-olds at the distance. This year she has won several important events, and has proved herself to be a crack three-year-old.

Bazaar has now been brought back to Honolulu, and will remain here the balance of this year, and breeders, horse owners and stock raisers should avail themselves of the opportunity to obtain his services while they have the chance. Terms, $10. Payable at time of service.

The imported Clydesdale Stallion Donald Dinnie, Jr., will stand at the same time and place at $30 for the season. He was bred in Canada, sired by imported Donald Dinnie, and out of an imported Clydesdale mare. He is a beautiful deep grey, 16 hands high, and weighs 1,400 lbs. He is very active, and as fine a large horse as could be found anywhere.

Also, the fine large imported Kentucky Jack Sampson. This is one of the largest Jacks that we could find in California, and is an animal of immense bone; is a very sure breeder, and should be liberally patronized, as he is one of the very best animals of his kind. Terms, $30 for the season.

The public are cordially invited to call and inspect the above animals.

A SKILFUL SURGICAL OPERATION.

The American Ambassador at Vienna, Mr. Kasson, has lately forwarded to his Government an interesting account of a remarkable surgical operation lately performed by Professor Billroth, of Vienna, which, wonderful to tell, consisted in the removal of a portion of the human stomach, involving nearly one-third of the organ—and, strange to say, the patient recovered—the only successful operation of the kind ever performed. The disease for which this operation was performed was cancer of the stomach, attended with the following symptoms:—The appetite is quite poor. There is a peculiar indigestible distress in the stomach, a feeling that has been described as a faint "all gone" sensation; a sticky slime collects about the teeth, especially in the morning, accompanied by an unpleasant taste. Food fails to satisfy this peculiar faint sensation; but, on the contrary, it appears to aggravate the feeling; the hands and feet become cold and sticky; a cold perspiration. The sufferer feels tired all the time, and sleep does not seem to give rest. After a time the patient becomes nervous and irritable, gloomy, his mind filled with evil forebodings. When rising suddenly from a recumbent position there is a dizziness, a whirling sensation, and he is obliged to grasp something firm to keep from falling. The bowels costive, the skin dry and hot at times; the blood becoming thick and stagnant, and does not circulate properly. After a time the patient spits up food soon after eating, sometimes in a sour and fermented condition, sometimes sweetish to the taste. Oftentimes there is a palpitation of the heart, and the patient fears he may have heart disease. Towards the last the patient is unable to retain any food whatever, as the opening in the intestines becomes closed, or nearly so. Although this disease is indeed alarming, sufferers with the above named symptoms should not feel nervous, for nine hundred and ninety-nine cases out of a thousand have no cancer, but simply dyspepsia, a disease easily removed if treated in a proper manner. The safest and best remedy for the disease is Seigel's Curative Syrup, a vegetable preparation sold by all chemists and medicine vendors throughout the world, and by the proprietors, A. J. White (Limited), 17, Farringdon-road, London, E. C. This Syrup strikes at the very foundation of the disease, and drives it root and branch, out of the system.

St. Mary-street, Peterborough, November, 29th, 1881.

Sir,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you of the benefit I have received from Seigel's Syrup. I have been troubled for years with dyspepsia; but after a few doses of the syrup, I found relief, and after taking two bottles of it I feel quite cured.

I am, Sir, yours truly, Mr. A. J. White. William Brent.

September 8th, 1883.

Dear Sir,—I find the sale of Seigel's Syrup steadily increasing. All who have tried it speak very highly of its medicinal virtues; one customer describes it as a "god-send to dyspeptic people." I always recommend it with confidence.

Faithfully yours, (Signed) Vincent A. Willis, Chemist-dentist, Merthyr Tydfil.

To Mr. A. J. White, Seigel's Operating Pills are the best family physic that has ever been discovered. They cleanse the bowels from all irritating substances, and leave them in a healthy condition. They cure costiveness.

Spanish Town, Jamaica, West Indies, Oct. 24, 1882.

Dear Sir,—I write to inform you that I have derived great benefit from "Seigel's Syrup." For some years I have suffered from liver complaint, with its many and varied concomitant evils, so that my life was a perpetual misery. Twelve months ago I was induced to try Seigel's Syrup, and although rather sceptical, having tried so many reputed infallible remedies, I determined to give it at least a fair trial. In two or three days I felt considerably better, and now at the end of twelve months (having continued taking it) I am glad to say that I am a different being altogether. It is said of certain pens that they "come as a boon and a blessing to men" and I have no reason to doubt the truthfulness of the statement. I can truly say, however, that Seigel's Syrup has come as a boon and a blessing to me. I have recommended it to several fellow-sufferers from this distressing complaint, and their testimony is quite in accordance with my own. Gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the excellent preparation, prompts me to furnish you with this unsolicited testimonial.

I am dear Sir, Yours ever gratefully, (Signed) Carey B. Berry, Baptist Missionary.

Preston, Sept. 21st, 1883.

My Dear Sir,—Your Syrup and Pills are still very popular with my customers, many saying they are the best family medicines possible.

The other day a customer came for two bottles of Syrup and said "Mother Seigel" had saved the life of his wife, and he added, "one of these bottles I am sending fifteen miles away to a friend who is very ill. I have much faith in it."

The sales keep up wonderfully, in fact, one would fancy almost that the people were beginning to breakfast, dine, and sup on Mother Seigel's Syrup, the demand is so constant and the satisfaction so great.

I am, dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) W. Bowker.

To A. J. White, Esq., Hensingham, Whitehaven, Oct. 16, 1882.

Mr. A. J. White.—Dear Sir,—I was for some time afflicted with piles, and was advised to give Mother Seigel's Syrup a trial, which I did. I am now happy to state that it has restored me to complete health—I remain, yours respectfully, (Signed) John H. Lightfoot.
