Admiral Terry Receives Cable Notice To Hold Mail For Fleet

Admiral Terry has received a cable-gram from Admiral Evans, who is in command of the United States fleet in Asiatic Station, requesting him to hold in Honolulu the mail for the following warships: Kentucky, Wisconsin, Oregon, Albany, New Orleans, Cincinnati and Raleigh.

This clearly indicates that the vessels named above will constitute the fleet which is to come to Honolulu, and also that Admiral Evans expects to leave Yokohama before the Gaello arrives at that port. The Gaello is due at Yokohama about December 2. Should the fleet leave Yokohama November 30 or December 1, giving the ships fifteen days to make the voyage, the fleet should arrive here on or about December 15.

The ships and commanders are described by the last official Navy list as follows:

ASIATIC SQUADRON.
Rear-Admiral Robley D. Evans, commander-in-chief.
Lieut. Frederick L. Chapin, Flag Lieutenant.
Lieut. Thomas Washington, Aid.
Lieut. (Junior grade) Frank E. Evans, Aid.
Kentucky—(Flagship of Commander-in-Chief) First class battleship, 22 guns, 11,525 tons, 12,318 horse-power, twin screws. Captain Robert M. Berry, commanding.
Wisconsin—(Flagship of Commander of Northern Squadron) First class battleship, 18 guns, 11,525 tons, 10,000 horse-power, twin screws. Captain Will Sebree, commanding.

Oregon—First-class battleship, 16 guns, 10,288 tons, 11,111 horse-power, twin screws. Captain William T. Durwell, commanding.
New Orleans—Protected cruiser, 10 guns, 3,427 tons, 7,500 horse-power, twin screws. Gottfried Blocklinger, commanding.
Albany—Protected cruiser, 10 guns, 3,427 tons, 7,500 horse-power, twin screws. Commander John A. Rodgers, commanding.
Raleigh—Protected cruiser, 11 guns, 3,213 tons, 10,000 horse-power, twin screws. Commander Arthur P. Nazaro, commanding.
Cincinnati—Protected cruiser, 11 guns, 3,213 tons, 10,000 horse-power, twin screws. Commander Newton E. Mason, commanding.

As will be seen from above list there will be three first class battleships, the Kentucky, Wisconsin and Oregon, and four protected cruisers, the New Orleans, Albany, Raleigh and Cincinnati. The combined tonnage of the battleships is 33,338 tons and that of the cruisers 13,290 tons. The combined tonnage will thus reach 46,628 tons. Counting the complement of the battleships at 600 officers and men each will make the total complement of the battleships 1800. Estimating the complements of the cruisers at 350 officers and men each will make their total complement 1400. The full number of officers and men of the entire fleet will therefore be in the neighborhood of 3200 men.

As the war vessels will all have to procure fresh meat, vegetables, bread, etc., in this port and as the men will undoubtedly spend quite a bit of money while in port, the importance of the arrival of the fleet from a commercial point of view is of the greatest benefit and importance to local merchants and the community in general.

NEWS COMES OF ADACHI'S ARREST

A private letter was received by a prominent Japanese resident of this city by the China's mail yesterday stating that Adachi, the Japanese interpreter who was implicated in the "Ten dollar club" investigation and who left discreetly in the Siberia, was arrested immediately upon the steamer's arrival at Yokohama. He is now being held in custody by the Japanese authorities.

NAMING PRESIDENT OF HEALTH BOARD

Physician or Business Man is Point at Issue.

COOPER OR WINSTON IS THE PROBABLE CHOICE

MR. WINSTON CANDIDATE UNLESS CHOICE FALLS TO A PHYSICIAN—HE THEN FAVORS COOPER.

The matter of the Board of Health presidency still hangs in the balance, nor is it believed that Governor Carter will make any appointment until the question has been considered by the Central Committee of the Republican party.

The whole question rests on whether there shall be a medical or a purely business man at the head of this most important department of the government and that is probably what the committee will have to give the greatest attention to.

If it is to be a medical man, it is very certain that Dr. C. B. Cooper will be reappointed to the office since his regime has been a most successful one. If it is to be a business man, E. C. Winston, member of the Board of Health and of the Central Committee of the Republican party, is looked upon most favorably. In fact, he is the only one so far who has been announced as a candidate.

There were many rumors about on the streets Wednesday and yesterday with reference to this appointment and this morning Mr. Winston called on Governor Carter to learn what he could about the matter. Mr. Carter indicated by his answers that he was not quite ready to make any announcement and that he would like to hear further from the Central Committee before announcing his final selection. He would say nothing further than that.

On starting out on his career as governor of the Territory of Hawaii Mr. Carter announced to the Central Committee that he did not intend to do anything in the way of an appointment to office under the government without first consulting the Republican Committee. This course he has stuck to consistently and his announcement that he intends referring the Board of Health appointment to the committee is in line with the policy which he has promised to follow.

Asked this morning about the appointment to the head of Board of Health affairs, Mr. Winston said this morning: "Yes, I am a candidate if it is to be a business man. On the other hand, if it is to be a medical man, I shall support Dr. Cooper for he certainly deserves it."

"Yes, I called on the Governor Carter this morning and talked over the situation. There is absolutely nothing new. The matter stands in statu quo."

The rumor was current on the street yesterday that Governor Carter had decided to reappoint Dr. Cooper to the presidency of the Board of Health. (Continued on Page 4.)

A 'FRISCO TRAGEDY

It was reported in the cable despatches yesterday morning that Alexander Garnet had fatally shot Major McClung in San Francisco while the latter was attempting to save the life of Mrs. Lillie Hitchcock Coit at the Palace Hotel.

Mrs. Coit, nee Lillie Hitchcock, was one of the best known women in San Francisco. She was known for many years as the fire girl, on account of her peculiar penchant for attending fires. She was a member of the California No. 1 Volunteers and was as agile as any of the boys when it came to climbing ladders to put out a fire. She married Mr. Coit, caller of the San Francisco Board of Trade, who received a salary of $1,000 a month for his services. Mrs. Coit is now between 50 and 60 years of age.

WANT CONGRESS TO PASS COUNTY ACT

F. M. Hatch who left in the China yesterday, goes to Washington to secure the passage of the County law as an act of Congress. Tee matter was discussed at a recent conference called by Governor Carter. United States District Attorney Breckons was asked to go but the great volume of work now in his hands prevented him from accepting.

The object is to settle for all time the continuous possibility of an attack on the County Act as passed by the last legislature. There has been much talk of late on the part of enemies of the County Act of having the law brought into the courts. Once passed by Congress, there will be no more threats of this nature and county government will be assured of stability. If Mr. Hatch's mission is successful the Board of Territorial Institutions will be revived.

OFFICERS' CLUB

SAYS CARTER MAY HAVE TO MOVE

Speaking of appointments this morning Governor Carter stated that J. W. Pratt, who has been appointed Commissioner of Public Lands, was at present consulting legal minds as to the advisability of his immediately vacating the position of tax collector and assessor to take up the duties of the land office.

A question has arisen in connection with Pratt's appointment—a question in relation to legal proceedings to collect taxes commenced in Pratt's name as collector and it had to be determined whether Pratt's resignation as tax assessor and collector would affect these suits.

Nothing definite would be known in regard to when Pratt would take up his new duties until these legal questions were satisfactorily settled, said the Governor.

The Governor is anxious that land matters be taken hold of by the new administration as soon as possible, business pending being of the utmost importance.

Governor Carter has informed Superintendent of Public Works Holloway that he desires a new arrangement in the matter of offices in the Capitol, requesting him to consider the advisability of establishing the Public Works office in the basement of the Capitol or in the bungalow, in the latter event taking the entire building for the purposes of the department of Public Works.

"Said the Governor: "The Capitol is especially designed and adapted for the legislative and, when we are crowded, the departments should be the first to be required to change their business location. The room at present occupied by the Public Works office should be the Senate chamber. If Superintendent Holloway finds it inconvenient or impossible at this time to move his offices to the basement or the bungalow he may occupy the present quarters temporarily, with the understanding that that chamber be given up to the Senate as soon as that body requires quarters."

"In suggesting the bungalow as a possible place for the public works, or as quarters to be used by the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, I had in mind the fact that there was need of a change, the Senate having no home as it is, and that, if the departments needed more room the offices club could better get along without the bungalow than one of the public departments."

"No! This suggestion was not made with any idea toward getting the officers' club, as such, to move away. I consider that the officers' club has done a great deal of good, serving to maintain a desirable esprit de corps and

HOLLOWAY CLEARS DECKS FOR ACTION

New Public Works Head Today Besieged by Bidders.

IMPORTANT MATTERS FOR SUPERINTENDENT'S ACTION

HARBOR DREDGING AND OTHER BIDS WILL PROBABLY BE OPENED ON MONDAY—FIRST DAY'S WORK.

Superintendent of Public Works C. S. Holloway took his seat at the desk recently resigned by Henry E. Cooper, for his first real day's work this morning, having received his commission Wednesday afternoon when Governor Carter introduced him to his fellow heads of departments as the new Superintendent.

A long line of business callers waited to see the new Superintendent when, at an early hour, he arrived at his post.

Many of these visitors were men interested in bids for public improvements, bids which had not been opened and which had been advertised to be opened days, and, in some cases, weeks ago, but which were held up by the change of administration. Cooper going out when Dole resigned the Governorship and became Federal judge and there being no head to the Public Works department from the 17th inst. until Holloway's appointment Wednesday afternoon.

Some of these bidders had come from San Francisco expecting bids to be opened as advertised and, naturally, were anxious to know when they were to know the results. Bids for dredging Honolulu harbor for the construction of the Normal School and for other important works remain open in the Public Works office.

When seen this morning Superintendent Holloway stated that all bids to have been opened before this date, according to advertisements, would be opened early next week.

"We will attempt to get at these bids on Monday," said Mr. Holloway, "is only fair to the bidders that they should know the results as soon as possible and we shall endeavor not to keep them waiting any longer."

"There are many matters of great importance and they will meet the careful consideration which they require. No hasty action will be taken in anything; at the same time business will be transacted with as much speed as is consistent with its proper treatment. The bids, of course, require immediate attention and will be opened as soon as possible."

"We are getting things in shape; beyond that, just at present, while I am just taking hold and looking over matters as they stand, I do not know as there is anything further to say."

William Fisher, manager of the Liliuokalani plantation store, is here on business.

GEORGE SMITHIES GOVERNOR'S AID

Governor Carter, supported by Enoch Woods and George E. Smithies, this morning received in the executive chamber in the Capitol, Admiral Terry, General McArthur, Lieut. Commander Rodman and others of the U. S. Army and Navy.

The Territorial band in the grounds greeted the distinguished callers with inspiring music as Mr. Smithies, appointed for the occasion by Governor Carter as his aide, met the officers at 11:30 at the steps of the executive building.

Those who witnessed the preliminary reception on the steps of the old Palace noted the change in style from the recently departed administration. There was an absence of gold braid and toy sword. Smithies being clothed in frock coat and white vest, in "Jeffersonian simplicity" as he expressed it afterwards when asked where was his uniform.

Governor Carter stated to a reporter that he took great pleasure in appointing Mr. Smithies as his aide on this occasion. Officials calling on the executive were always glad to meet a Hawaiian and, besides, an appointee in this capacity, if such as Mr. Smithies, who was a good demonstration, to folks who were unfamiliar with Hawaii and her advanced conditions, of the fact that we were not prehistoric in our manners.

The reception lasted nearly one hour and was most pleasant.

H. A. C.'s Defeat Mailes

By a score of 18 to 0 the H. A. C. football team yesterday afternoon defeated the Maile-Himas, having to fight hard for their victory and at no stage of the game finding their opponents easy to vanquish.

Over one thousand people assembled in the grand stand and at the side lines to witness the great game. From the first kick-off to the calling of time great enthusiasm prevailed and the flutter of the colors of favorite teams, the constant tooting of horns and the yelling and cheering of the crowd, made a scene of liveliness that was only exceeded by the rush and struggle, twist and wriggle on the gridiron, where the sweat of the "players" mixed with the red dust raised by their feet and faces as these extremities plowed the ground, and made mud.

Even after losing some of their best men, the Mailes made a splendid showing and went to defeat fighting gloriously. The greater weight of the H. A. C. team carried them through on their backs.

The Territorial band was in attendance.

FIRST HALF.

H. A. C. winning the toss and choosing the mauka goal. Maile kicked off, James sending ball 45 yards, Blaisdell gathering it to him and making most of 20 yards before being buried. Kanae worked between Maile's right guard and tackle, carrying 8 yards, 4 4 yards and 7 yards. Kanae gained 4 more beyond the line and then ran with the ball 24 yards around right end. Here Blaisdell took it for a gain of 5 around left. H. A. C. commenced bucking. Fernandez, Kanae and Sullivan gaining a few yards at a time. It was a signal for great cheering when Blaisdell managed to make ten yards, was tackled, and then Houghtalling dragged Blaisdell five yards further on. A moment later Right Tackle Allen of the Mailes was hurt and replaced by Tilton.

Beyond the 25 yard line Joy and Houghtalling were brought back, Mailes could not hold the H. A. C.'s. The ball was carried over for the first touchdown by Fernandez, 7 minutes and 9 seconds after the kick-off. Blaisdell kicked goal.

Houghtalling kick off. Buckle dropped on it within 12 yards. James at Simpson's end run. Kanae tackled well, forcing the runner back. Heilbron won 3 yards around left but H. A. C. captured the ball. Blaisdell made 6 yards around left end. He tried to repeat the play but ran afoul of one of his own players. In a moment the Mailes had the ball and made things exciting for a spell.

Simpson bucked for a short gain. Then Clarke distinguished himself by a splendid run of 32 yards around right passing all his opponents except Blaisdell who tackled with a will. Clarke needed a doctor and one was called. His nose was cut but he resumed playing after adjusting a guard to the damaged feature.

Mailes went through the line of H. A. C.'s gaining a little. Kanae and Simpson finally fell on the ball, both sides claiming it. Mailes got it. Sullivan made a fine run around left, gaining 24 yards. Then the Mailes lost 5 yards on an offside play. The H. A. C.'s lost 20 for holding.

Blaisdell kicked 30 to James, the latter making 5 yards. Fernandez was forced to go out of the game on account of injuries. Kanae moved to his place and Rensar stepped in at full back.

James kicked 10 yards to Blaisdell who carried back 3 yards. Blaisdell made a quarter back run of 12 yards. When time was called H. A. C. had the ball on the Maile 41 yard line.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half Vida took Hatfield's place and Desha took Heilbron's.

Joy kicked off. James secured the ball and made 5 yards. On the next pass the ball went wide. James dropped on it; Maile kicked it over the side line. H. A. C. took the ball on the Maile 45 yard line. Trying the double pass, Rensar won 11 yards. Houghtalling and Joy were brought back and another touchdown was made. Rensar attempted to score but hit the goal post. The ball lacked but half a foot of the goal. Sullivan scored on the next play; 8 minutes and 45 seconds after kick off the touchdown was made.

James kicked 42 yards; Blaisdell caught and ran 21 yards; Rensar won 8 between left guard and tackle and Blaisdell made 7; H. A. C. lost 10 yards on off sides; Blaisdell kicked 40 to James; McCarriston won a yard or so; James kicked to Sullivan. In the bucking that followed Robertson was injured and replaced by Goldwater. A rush was made to score before the ending of the half; the Maile line was pounded; Rensar carried the ball over for the third touchdown, 2 1/2 minutes before the calling of time. Blaisdell kicked goal.

Enos took Lane's place and Crook replaced Jarret. James kicked off; Maile lost 5 yards on offside; the ball was again kicked; H. A. C.'s center blocked; Goldwater secured ball and made 5 yards; Kanae made 6 yards around left tackle and Rensar made 6 more on a buck. When time was called Desha of the Mailes had bucked with the ball for five yards and then fumbled.

BUNGALOW IS TOO ROTTEN FOR BOARD

Governor Carter took occasion, at the meeting of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry, in the Capitol on Wednesday afternoon, to introduce to the members a new member, by virtue of his just-acquired office, Superintendent of Public Works C. S. Holloway.

Mr. Holloway took his seat among the agriculture enthusiasts, forest protectors and anti-post crusaders, entering at once upon his duties as an arm of the Board by listening patiently to all the immediate wants and needs of the farming branch of the Government.

First the Board decided to engage Forester Hosmer as Superintendent of Forestry in this Territory. Superintendent Holloway immediately cabled Hosmer to start on his journey here. Hosmer was highly spoken of in a letter of Forester Hall, who made a preliminary investigation of these islands. The letter was read. Hall wrote that Hosmer could commence work next month. Hosmer is at present in Massachusetts.

L. A. Thurston suggesting a resolution of thanks to Alexander Crow of California, at the head of agricultural work there, to Captain Howard of the O. S. S. Co., and to J. L. Cowell, executive officer of the S. S. Ventura, for valuable assistance in transporting Prof. Koehls's insects to the islands, was adopted.

Governor Carter here entered to state that Mr. Kay of Kohala was present to protest against a proposed exchange of government lands for forestry lands owned by the Woods es-

Ask For Help

A Postal Will Bring You a Way to Get Well.

Think how often you have read this offer. Why do you wait, while thousands write me and get well?

If you sick ones could only know what I know, you all would write.

I will mail you an order—good at any drug store—for six bottles Dr. Sloan's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself—and your mere word shall decide it.

Whatever your prejudice or doubt, you must know this:—If the remedy did not succeed, the offer would ruin me. It must be apparent that I have learned how to cure.

When I have the faith to take all the risk, won't you merely write a postal to get well?

I have spent a lifetime in learning how to strengthen weak inside nerves. My Restorative brings back that power which alone operates the vital organs. I treat a weak organ as I would a weak engine, by giving it the power to act. My way always succeeds, save when a cause like cancer makes a cure impossible. And most of these chronic diseases cannot be cured without it. You'll know this when you read my book.

Simply state which book you want and address Dr. Sloan, Box 311, Raleigh, N. C. Book No. 1 on Dyspepsia Book No. 2 on the Heart Book No. 3 on the Kidneys Book No. 4 for Women Book No. 5 for Men (sealed) Book No. 6 on Rheumatism. All cases not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. All druggists.

LOCAL BAR PROTESTS

WANTS SELF GOVERNMENT IN HAWAII JUDICIARY

WILL MOVE TO HAVE SALARIES OF CIRCUIT JUDGES RAISED FROM $3,000 TO $4,000 PER ANNUM.

At its quarterly meeting held Wednesday afternoon, the Hawaiian Bar Association concluded to forward to Washington a protest against the passage of the Mitchell amendment to the Organic Act providing that writs of error and appeals from the decision of the Supreme Court of the Territory may be taken to the Supreme Court of the United States as in judgments of Supreme Courts of Territories in all cases involving over $5,000.

S. M. Ballou presented F. M. Hatch's objection to the protest. Mr. Ballou also found some objection. The association manifested the same attitude in relation to the Mitchell amendment providing that Supreme judges shall be citizens either of this Territory or of some State or Territory of the United States, instead of confining the eligibility, under the Organic Act to citizenship in this Territory.

The Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' Association, Builders and Traders' Association, with the Bar Association, will sign this second protest. President W. O. Smith, Judge Hartwell and W. A. Kinney will draw up the protest.

L. A. Thurston thought that allowing appeals from the local Supreme Court would involve great expense and much time and would practically deny justice to the poor man. Incidentally the regular calendar of the U. S. Supreme Court was two years behind time and was rapidly becoming congested.

W. A. Kinney believed it would be suicidal for the Bar Association to throw away the great privilege of self government in the judiciary. Judge Hartwell said it would be a great mistake if the Association did not protest against the amendments.

F. M. Hatch was of the opinion, said S. M. Ballou, that the filing of briefs at Washington would carry a case to the end without personal supervision. Numerous members strenuously disagreed with this statement. Committee on protests reports at a meeting to be held Wednesday next at 4 p. m.

It was said at the meeting that two of the judges of the circuit court may resign owing to insufficient salaries. Each judge receives $3,000 a year; this is considered small in proportion to the work required.

Judge Stanley brought the matter before the meeting. He thought the Association should move to have the salaries increased; that a request should be made to Congress to this effect; appropriation bills are soon to be presented and considered in Congress.

By unanimous vote the Bar Association agreed to make the request for $4,000 instead of $3,000. The matter was referred to the committee already named.

SHORT STORY FOR EVENING HOURS

A FAILURE TO PROMOTE MATRIMONY

"Cesar! Cesar!" exclaimed little Mme. Chantepeulet, bursting into the room in which her husband was enjoying his usual afternoon nap, and banging the door behind her. "What is it fire?" her husband cried, sitting up suddenly and staring at her.

"What is it? Success! Victory at last! I've got him! But why do you stare at me in that bewildered fashion? One would imagine that you did not understand."
 "No more I do," rejoined Cesar, with some heat. "You have a delightful way of waking a man up and firing conundrums at him."

"I woke you up to—, I really beg Monsieur's pardon, but I was in haste to tell him the great news."
 "And what is your great news?" The little woman stood stiffly erect and said with great dignity: "I have the honor to announce the approaching marriage of Mlle. Juliette, your daughter, to M. Albert Liredeux, of the department of public works."

"Ah! So you have rented the room," exclaimed Juliette's father, with a grip of amusement.
 "This was the great news that had interrupted the ex-optician's stesta. 'Don't be too sanguine, ma bonne amie,' he said, noting his wife's enthusiasm. 'It remains to be seen whether the young people will like each other.'"

"They are made for each other," Madame asserted, with conviction.
 "He may be engaged already," continued the good man, who was not easily excited.
 "Engaged? Nonsense! He is only a boy."
 "Very well, my dear, only don't count your chickens—you know the maxim."
 "There is another which says: 'God helps them that help themselves.' I helped myself, and Providence has come to my aid."

But the ingenious Mme. Hortense was forced to admit to herself that the wedding was yet a long way off. Fortunately, however, she could count not only on Providence, but also on Angèle, who had once been Juliette's nurse, and had ever since been a member of the household. She found the tenacious fidelity of a Newfoundland dog. She loved Juliette, and regarded her mother as a superior being. When the Machiavellian plot was unfolded to this faithful retainer, she entered into it heart and soul.
 So it came to pass a few days after M. Liredeux's installation, that he found his water jug empty. Being of a philosophic and easygoing nature he simply took it to the kitchen to fill it, whereupon the faithful Angèle, despite his protests, possessed herself of the vessel, and in so doing contrived to knock down half a dozen pots and pans, the clatter of which naturally brought Juliette upon the scene, arrayed in a most becoming negligee and innocently asking what the matter was. Nothing was broken except the ice, the fracture of which had been predicted.

After several such incidents the young man insensibly fell into the habit of stopping to chat with the ladies in the family apartments, and one day his well-deserved compliments on Madame's housekeeping gave her a convenient opportunity to ask him to dine with them that evening. He excused himself on the plea that he was already dined with his uncle, who was in poor health. That evening Madame said to her husband:
 "Juliette is in great luck. She won't have long to wait for her uncle's legacy, I fancy."
 "What uncle?"
 "Why, M. Liredeux's uncle, of course. He is an old gentleman, very ill, and very rich, and he idolizes his nephew."
 "Oh! But Juliette is not yet Mme. Liredeux."
 "Not yet, but—, You must be blind

This cruel remark fell on the poor birds' heart like a cold douche. She never forgot it: It became a nightmare to her, and when Juliette told her, she vowed that at her marriage it should not be said: "At last! It is high time!" but rather: "What! So high time!" So when Juliette was sixteen soon? So when Juliette was sixteen her mother began her campaign. She cultivated new acquaintances, had her "day," and even gave little dinners. But by a mockery of fate, it happened that none of her new acquaintances had marriageable sons.
 "Isn't it just my luck?" moaned the unhappy woman. "My poor Juliette will be an old maid like her mother!"
 This dreadful thought so excited the poor lady that she plunged headlong into the most fantastic schemes.
 One day she had a brilliant idea. "It is very simple," she said to her husband, "We will rent our spare room to a young, good-looking and prosperous bachelor. No others need apply."

"A good idea," Cesar admitted. "I have no other kind," Madame proudly responded.
 She did not advertise in the papers, but told some solid business men, and thereby secured several ineligible applicants, whom she cleverly and politely eliminated. At last appeared M. Albert Liredeux, a handsome and alert young man from Pontarlier, who had just been appointed to a government clerkship. He successfully passed Mme. Chantepeulet's inspection, and, as she was pleased with the accommodations offered and amazed by their cheapness, the bargain was soon completed.

"This was the great news that had interrupted the ex-optician's stesta. 'Don't be too sanguine, ma bonne amie,' he said, noting his wife's enthusiasm. 'It remains to be seen whether the young people will like each other.'"
 "They are made for each other," Madame asserted, with conviction.
 "He may be engaged already," continued the good man, who was not easily excited.
 "Engaged? Nonsense! He is only a boy."
 "Very well, my dear, only don't count your chickens—you know the maxim."
 "There is another which says: 'God helps them that help themselves.' I helped myself, and Providence has come to my aid."

 "Oh! But Juliette is not yet Mme. Liredeux."
 "Not yet, but—, You must be blind

Cesar! Just ask Angèle. She will tell you how devoted he is." At that moment Juliette entered. "Is it not true, Juliette," her mother asked, "that M. Liredeux is very attentive?"
 "Attentive? To me?" said Juliette. "I really hadn't noticed it, mamma. He is polite enough, but he has never even paid me the smallest compliment. If you call that being attentive—"
 "But his eyes his eyes, little goose! Can't you see how they speak for him?"
 Then Angèle came in and said that M. Liredeux wished to speak with Madame.
 "Oh! You see! Madame exclaimed, and she left the room, radiant.
 After a quarter of an hour she returned pale and "all unstrung." She dropped into a chair and stared at her husband without uttering a word.
 "Good heavens! What is the matter?" cried Cesar.
 "M—Monsieur Liredeux!" she stammered.
 "Well, what of him?"
 "He is m—m—m—married!"
 "Oh!"
 "Married, I tell you! Oh, laugh at me if you choose! I feel like a fool. There I had been fondly picturing—the wretch! Why didn't he wear his wedding ring? Married men should be compelled by law to wear their wedding rings."
 "Calm yourself, my dear! Come what did he tell you?"
 "He told me coolly that he intended to leave us within two weeks, as he had rented a suite of rooms. His wife remained at Pontarlier, it appears, to welcome an addition to her family. And the monster had the assurance to ask permission to present his wife to us!"
 "Which you granted, I hope."
 "Of course, I don't want him to suspect anything."
 "Well, no harm is done, my dear. We have gained two desirable acquaintances—and perhaps they have relatives."
 "Wise and precocious Cesar! M. Liredeux presented his charming young wife and the two families soon became as intimate that within a year Juliette found her Romeo in the person of Mme. Liredeux's brother, a handsome and thriving young apothecary. And so she escaped the fate of becoming an old maid like her mother.—From the French of Henri Renou, by Lawrence B. MORTIMER SNAP AND THE SNAP HE HAD Thanksgiving!

 The Snap family were gathered around the home table for the national celebration of the yearly square meal. Little Rubifom Snap sat in her high chair at one end of the table while Master Penryn Snap faced his sister at the opposite end. Mamma Snap presided over the vegetables and "trimmings" and Papa Snap was delegated to conquer the innocent looking, poor, dead turkey. He faced Mamma Snap.
 Papa Snap was not a religious man nor was he very wicked, but on this festive day he laid aside all prejudice and asked the blessing. This over, he looked at his family and—the turkey. He proceeded to sharpen the carver, and as he was about as handy with a big knife as a boy playing marbles he cut the index finger of his left hand.
 Not a word from him as he suffered to be bound by the tender fingers of his better half.
 "Did you cut your finger Pa?" asked young snap after the ceremony was over.
 Pa glared.
 "No, only playing cut," replied Pa and son knew enough to keep quiet.
 Then Pa started to carve. What he didn't do and what the turkey didn't do to this day. The show wound up in a riot as the turkey, slipping in the gravy, made a peek at Ma, then shied off at Rubifom, upsetting her. It then conceived a sudden affection for Master Snap and gracefully soaring toward him met him straight in the face and besmeared him in true artistic style. Then the turkey rested and gave thanks.
 "Pa," softly said Penryn, "were you playing cut then?"
 Pa was not religious and as son sat down in the evening to try and solve the B. A. P. prize puzzle, he was tenderly reminded of Thanksgiving and gave thanks that it only came once a year.

HARRY W. FLINT LOSES APPEAL

Appealing from the refusal of the circuit court to grant him a divorce, H. W. Flint loses in the Supreme Court.
 On Wednesday an opinion unanimous, written by Justice Galbraith, on exceptions of libellant in H. W. Flint vs. Nina J. Flint, was rendered, overruling exceptions.
 Syllabus and opinion contain the following:
 An exception to a decision of a Circuit Court in a divorce suit on the ground that it is contrary to law and the evidence and the weight of the evidence, is not well taken when the decision is supported by the evidence.
 It is not error for trial court to sustain an objection to a question on cross-examination on the ground that it is "incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial," if the evidence is incompetent for any purpose.
 This is an action for divorce on the statutory grounds of cruelty and habitual temperance. The Circuit Court found that the evidence was "quite conflicting" and that the libellant had failed to make out his case and dismissed the bill. An exception was saved to the decision of the Circuit Court as well as to other rulings in sustaining general objections to certain questions propounded to witnesses.
 The exceptions to the rulings on objections to testimony are all of the same character and are based on the same ground, namely, that the court erred in sustaining objections to testimony on that ground that it was "incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial."
 The court has the power to exclude incompetent evidence of its own motion without objection, and as a matter of course can exclude it when objection is made although the form of the objection may be general. It is possible that the court considered the evidence excluded as immaterial for any purpose. No authorities have been cited that sustain the contention of the libellant on this point and we think it unsound.
 There is another reason why these exceptions cannot be sustained. The law is well settled in this jurisdiction that the manner of the introduction of testimony and the latitude to be allowed counsel particularly on the cross-examination of witnesses is largely vested in the discretion of the trial court and that this discretion will not be reviewed by the appellate court except in clear cases of abuse. The record in this case not only fails to show any abuse of discretion but proves that the trial court allowed to

BOARD OF HEALTH DOES VERY LITTLE

Very little business was transacted at the regular meeting of the Board of Health held Wednesday afternoon at the usual time and place. Those present were: Dr. C. B. Cooper, president; Fred C. Smith, M. P. Robinson, Dr. W. H. Mays, and E. C. Winston, members; Dr. J. S. B. Pratt, chief health officer.
 On recommendation by the Board of Medical Examiners licenses to practice were granted to Dr. Hasegawa and Dr. Kurisaki.
 In the matter of salaries of the Board of Health Inspectors Dr. Cooper reported that the inspectors would be paid $90 for November and $100 per month after that.
 The committee of the medical members on regulations for Lahaina asked for further time to prepare a report. This was granted. Rules for the sale of fish at Kalaupapa were adopted and will be submitted to the Governor for approval.
 Dr. J. M. White, of the Quarantine service, reported as follows:
 Hongkong, two weeks to October 31, 1903—Plague cases, 1; death, 1.
 Shanghai, two weeks to October 24, 1903—Cholera cases, 2; deaths, 0.
 Nagasaki, two weeks to November 24, 1903—Cholera cases, 115; deaths, 59.
 Yokohama, two weeks to November 9th, 1903—Plague cases, 4; deaths, 5. Doubtful cases, 3; deaths, 1.
 Kobe, two weeks to November 6, 1903—Clean.
 Dr. Mays reported that 200 pounds of pork had been procured for the Thanksgiving dinner for the inmates of the Insane Asylum which he thought would be found more suitable than the regulation turkey. Dr. Mays further reported that certain sanitary conditions at the Asylum were in a deplorable state.

BARRY WHIPS CANE

On the evening of the 10th inst, when the big fight between Britt and Sieger took place in San Francisco, the second preliminary was between Dave Barry, the man who is coming here to fight Jack Weday, and Maxey Cane. The Chronicle of the 11th contains the following on this fight:

The second preliminary, between Dave Barry and Maxey Cane, was stopped by Referee Spider Kelly in the second round, and the decision given to Barry. Cane, who had come with a flourish as the "Champion of Manila," was built with shoulders and neck of Sharkey proportions. But he couldn't fight. Barry rained blows upon him in the first round, and Cane covered up and took them until the time was up. At the opening of the second he ran around the ring to get out of the way, and when he couldn't do that he covered for the punishment. "Aha! Joe Grim!" said the crowd. Kelly gentle but firmly stopped the slaughter.

It is Admiral Terry's intention to take General MacArthur on an official tour of inspection of Pearl Harbor in the U. S. S. Iroquois next Monday.

WORK FOR TOURISTS

The rooms of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee in the Young building are at present being ornamented by a very interesting exhibit of Hawaiian products such as cane, fruits, berries, etc., which was turned over to the committee by the Board of Agriculture and Forestry. The exhibit has been arranged and placed on shelves and will undoubtedly be of great interest to the tourists who come to see the tropical products of Hawaii. Next to this exhibit is a collection of slabs of 25 different kinds of Hawaiian woods. E. M. Boyd has been very busy sending out descriptive matter by the mail. He expects to send to about 4000 addresses by the next steamer.

A new folder is now at hand, which is intended for distribution on the Pacific coast only. It calls attention to the excellent climate of Hawaii and briefly mentions the principal attractions and show places. It is the wish of the committee that people writing to the coast include these small folders in the letters, which plan would secure the widest possible distribution. The folders are of such a shape that they can easily be contained in an ordinary letter. They can be had at the office.

THE PIONEER BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF HAWAII

pays its withdrawing members at the end of six months or a year not only the cash paid in by them but Seventy-five (75%) per cent. of the profits. It retains Twenty-five (25%) of the profits for the benefit of the Stockholders remaining.

COLONEL FITCH LOSES HIS FEE

By unanimous decision the Supreme Court, on Wednesday afternoon, dismissed writ of error of Thomas Fitch, plaintiff in error, vs. E. M. Watson, next friend of Rebecca Panoa, defendant in error.

W. R. Fleming appeared in the appellate court for Fitch; Watson appeared in person.

Colonel Fitch losing in the endeavor to save his attorney's fee for services alleged to have been performed in Rebecca Panoa's suit to remove J. Alfred Magoon as her guardian.

Justice Garbraith, writing the opinion, says, in part:

A motion to quash a writ of error on the ground that no such suit or proceeding as that described in the writ is now or ever was pending in the court to which it is directed, being supported by the return of the clerk and not controverted, is granted and the writ dismissed.

The defendant in error appeared "specially in his own behalf" and presented a motion to quash the writ issued in this case on two grounds, namely: (1) Because he is not now and has never been a party to such a proceeding as that described in the writ of error, the notice or the citation served on him; (2) Because there is not now and never has been pending before the Circuit Judge of the First Circuit at Chambers, in Probate, any such proceeding as that described in the writ of error.

The return is not controverted nor is there any showing made that there was a mistake in the description of the cause or of the parties, although it was suggested by the attorney for the plaintiff in error, at the oral argument, that there was a mistake in the name of the parties and in the title of the cause as set out in the writ and a request was made to be allowed to amend the writ in these particulars.

The facts supporting this suggestion do not appear of record nor are they set forth in a written motion supported by affidavit as required by Rule 6 of this court. Nor does it appear that the writ would have been amendable even if this showing had been made. We could not substitute a new writ for the defective one on this application for permission to amend. This is sufficient reason for denying the request.

Under our statute a writ of error in civil cases issues as a matter of right upon application to the clerk of the court, by any party to the original cause or of any personal representative of a deceased person" (Section 448, Civil Laws). It has been held that it is not the duty of the clerk to prepare the writ and that the attorney for the party seeking the writ should "prepare it and see that it is issued." (Ahlb vs. Widemann, 7 Haw. 355, 355.)

If there was a mistake in the preparation of the writ issued in this case, either in the name of the parties, the title of the case, or otherwise, the plaintiff in error, who was acting as his own attorney, is alone responsible for it and has no just cause of complaint if left to bear the burden of his own error, if any.

The motion should be granted and the writ dismissed.

It is so ordered.
