MUSIC AT FUNERAL

BOTHELO'S WILL ORDERED A FULL BAND.

Decedent Also Proposed to Provide Primo—Two Hundred Dollars Left For Prayers of Priests.

The will of the late Francisco Bothelo, who died on June 2, was filed for probate this morning, and contains some unusual features. It is not unusual, however, as it would have been had the deceased had his way, for when he was on his deathbed, he proposed inserting an item for refreshments for those who attended his funeral.

As it was Bothelo ordered that a full band be provided to attend his funeral and left a goodly donation to a priest to say masses for his soul. The will is not unlikely to be attacked, as it provided for the disposition of some donations due the deceased from the Portuguese societies of which he was a member, in a manner that is said to be contrary to the rules of those societies.

The will contains the following provisions:

"I do hereby order that a full and complete band be engaged to render solemn music at my funeral.

"To Gulstan Ropert, as Bishop of this Catholic Diocese and to his successors in office, I give and bequeath the sum of $200 for the consideration of which they are to conduct, spiritual services for the benefit and rest of my soul."

The donations due Bothelo are from the Portuguese Mutual Benefit Society of Hawaii and the Sociedade Portuguesa de Santo Antonio Beneficente de Hawaii. With a note secured by a mortgage, they make his estate amount to $1,500. The will was made on April 25, when the deceased was suffering with his final illness. At the time of making it he suggested that refreshments ought to be provided as well as a band, for the funeral, and proposed a sum of money for Primo, who with to assuage the thirst of the mourners.

Bothelo left $500 each to a minor son and daughter, Antonio and Guilherme and ordered that a guardian be appointed for them. After the payment of these and other bequests, the son and daughter for Joao and Maria, are to have the residue if there is any. Cardello Grillo is named as executor of the will.

Cecil Brown was this morning appointed administrator of the estate of the late Robert Lishman by Judge Humphreys, without bonds, as provided in the will left by the deceased.

Henry Smith has filed his first annual account as guardian of Miriam Naomi Lazarus.

BUILDERS' EXCHANGE.

This is the last day upon which members of the Master Builders' Association can qualify as members of the Builders' and Traders' Exchange without payment of dues by simply signing the roll. Nearly every one of the seventy five members of the old organization have signed the new by-laws, but a few have so far neglected to come up to the exchange and put down their names. This is also the limit at which the $5 initiation fee for new membership expires. Hereafter it will be $5. Applications dated today, however, will be received tomorrow.

The Exchange membership is rapidly increasing but it is the desire of the Directors that every firm or corporation eligible to membership shall join as they have important matters to take up with government officials both here and in Washington which make it very desirable that the membership be as comprehensive and influential as possible.

Increase of tourist traffic, the reservation of government contracts for American citizens and so far as practicable American workmen, complete and adequate building and sanitary laws and other objects worthy of the support of the entire community are on the tapis for this organization to take up as rapidly as possible. The proposed Merchants' fair and the St. Louis Exposition in both of which projects the Exchange is already interested.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia, but for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. TO HOLD WARRANTS

AWARDS OF THE FIRE CLAIMS COMMISSION.

Certificates All Ready and $15,000 Warrants Made Out—News From Pratt Will be Awaited.

Warrants for the Chinatown fire claims will not be issued at once, as had been expected, it having been decided to be better to wait for news from Washington before giving out any awards. The commissioners are entirely through with their work, and the clerk of the court has made out all of the certificates of award.

About 15,000 warrants have been prepared and will be ready to be given out, though not to be paid, if news should come that the efforts to secure help from Washington are a failure. It is thought, however, from the reports that have come so far, that the chances are very good for action favorable to Hawaii in the matter, in which event full payments may be made at once, instead of the claimants being given warrants due one next month and two others, one and two years later.

The certificates of award are all dated tomorrow, July 1, 1902. The auditor has been working on them for some time now, and work is being continued. The warrants may be of no use if Congress makes an appropriation for the payments, but the certificates of awards already made out will in all probability be available for use just the same.

THE MERCHANTS' FAIR

PLANS FOR THE BUILDING ARE ADOPTED.

Will Be On the Drill Shed Grounds Building 60 by 100 Feet—4000 Square Feet of Exhibit Space.

Plans for the Merchants' Fair building have now been practically adopted. The building will be placed in front of the Drill Shed on the open space now controlled by the Army Quartermaster. The building will be a structure 100 by 60 feet extending practically from the Drill Shed to Hotel street. The front will be on Hotel street. There will be two entrances on Hotel street each opening on a ten-foot aisle running the entire length of the building and leading back to the Drill Shed where the Agricultural Fair will be held at the same time. These aisles will divide the space of the building into three parts, giving about 4,000 square feet of exhibit space on the sides and between the aisles.

The building will be so arranged as to secure abundant light and air. The roof will be supported by a row of pillars or posts down the center of the building.

About forty exhibitors are now assured. The Committee which decided on the plans for the building consists of George W. Smith, Robert Catton, John J. Rothwell and W. W. Dimond. Building operations will commence very soon, and the entire building will be in readiness in ample time for the opening of the fair.

Wray Taylor, Commissioner of Agriculture and Forestry, received by the Gaelic proof sheets of the lithographed diplomas and premium awards to be given successful competitors at the Agricultural Fair. They are considered very handsome affairs. The Commissioner today publishes the list of exhibits in which competition is invited and in which prizes and diplomas will be awarded.

BISHOP RESTARICK.

Secretary H. E. Cooper received word from Bishop-elect Henry Bond Restarick, that he expects to arrive here by the new steamship Korea August 8.

Rev. Restarick will be consecrated in St. Peter's church, San Diego, July 2. In connection with the consecration at this time, there will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at St. Andrew's Cathedral, Honolulu, at 7 o'clock on the morning of July 2. There will be services at St. Clement's church in the same connection, the service being at 10:30 o'clock. There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion.

PAIN'S LATEST SUIT

JUDGE ESTEE REFUSES AN INJUNCTION.

Motion Made to Dismiss the Proceeding to Stop Electric Cars on King Street.

The Hawaiian Tramways and Honolulu Rapid Transit company fight was resumed this morning in Judge Estee's court, the contest this time being over the right of the electric road to continue in operation along King street between Thomas square and the Waikiki road. The injunction asked for if granted would stop the Rapid Transit company from operating the road, though the injunction suit was brought while the work of construction was in progress, to stop that work as well.

The old submission to the Supreme court of Hawaii, under agreed facts and an agreement of both the companies to abide by the results, is the main subject of contention, as before. After the reading of the petition for an injunction and the showing of cause why an injunction should not be granted, Judge Estee asked for the original copy of his former decision. In that decision he held that the Hawaiian Tramways company was bound by its agreement to submit to the decision of the Supreme court.

In opening this case Breckons declared that a new question, involving a new part of the street, was involved in the present case in 1901 when Ballentyne and Pain submitted the proposition, the Rapid Transit Company was about to construct a road from Nuuanu stream to Thomas square, and the question was as to its right to use King street in this locality. The question submitted however, was "Has the Rapid Transit company the right to lay rails on King street, for more than 1,700 feet?"

Breckons contended that the present action raises a new question, as to the right of the electric road to occupy King street, between Thomas square and the Waikiki road. He proceeded to attack the Rapid Transit franchise, granted by the legislature in 1898.

"The showing of cause admits," said Judge Estee, "that the Hawaiian Tramways company was bound by its agreement to submit to the decision of the Supreme court in 1898, and no Republic of Hawaii, as is set forth in our petition. Yet the showing declares that the rights of the company to use King street are claimed under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the Republic of Hawaii in 1898, and the approval thereof by the President." Breckons proceeded to discuss the situation as to the legislature, claiming that the Republic of Hawaii was not in existence in 1898, and that it could not grant a franchise.

Judge Estee ruled at once on the proposition of issuing a temporary injunction, denying the motion to issue such an injunction. The court rests on its former decision on practically the same issue.

After the denial of the motion for a temporary injunction McClanahan made a motion to dismiss the suit, and argument was begun on this motion, to be continued this afternoon.

The case is likely to be very quickly finished. There are practically no issues of fact involved, each side admitting what the other claims, as to the construction and operations of roads, the existence of licenses, etc., so that there are only the legal contentions to be made.

WAS VICTIM OF SPITE

SENATOR KANUHA'S PROPERTY MUTILATED.

Doors and Windows of His New House Cut and Slashed With Knife—Lanai Also Damaged.

Senator D. Kanuha believes was the victim of a piece of spite work last week. He has reported the matter to the police and Detective David Kaapa is investigating the affair.

Senator Kanuha has been having a new residence built in Palama. On Friday night some persons visited the structure and did a large amount of damage to the doors and windows. The doors and windows had not been fitted into their places as the construction of the house had not gotten along far enough to warrant it. The panes of a dozen doors were cut and the rest of the woodwork otherwise slashed with a knife. The windows were broken, some of them being completely demolished. The posts on the lanai were also cut and mutilated.

There is no clue as yet to the perpetrator of the outrage, but the attention of the police has been directed toward a certain person who is suspected by Senator Kanuha of having committed the deed. The affair has no political significance, Senator Kanuha thinks, but was simply a case of personal spite work.

KAHAI REPUBLICANS

THE LIHUE AND KEALIA CLUBS ELECT OFFICERS.

Other Districts Wait to Learn More of The Governor's Civil Service Order. The Maui Republicans.

LIHUE, Kauai, June 28.—The Republican Club of Lihue district, Kauai, held its meeting on the evening of Friday, June 28, in accordance with the party regulations, for the election of officers for the ensuing two years. The meeting was called to order by John D. Willard, Republican Central Committeeman, the president of the club W. G. Smith and the secretary, Charles Rice both being absent. Mr. Willard was elected as temporary chairman and H. D. Wisard as temporary secretary of the club being present. The election of officers, the regular business before the meeting, was proceeded with, and the following members were elected to office: W. H. Rice Jr., president; H. D. Wisard, secretary; S. K. Kaeo, assistant secretary; F. Weber, treasurer; H. K. Kabele, first vice-president; and William Fisher, second vice-president.

The meeting was attended by fifty or sixty of the leading Republicans of Lihue, and the meeting for officers was a very interesting one, there being in each instance not less than three candidates for the office. Mr. Rice upon taking the chair as president made a neat little speech, thanking the club for the honor conferred upon him, and asking the hearty co-operation of all the members in the performance of duties which would involve no slight responsibility and no little work upon them all considering the condition of political affairs and the stress of the coming campaign. A general discussion of work and methods took place after the regular business had been disposed of, and many valuable suggestions were made and considered. The meeting finally adjourned with cheers for the Republican party.

The Republican club of Kealia also had a spirited and enthusiastic meeting on the evening of June 27. About forty members were present and the following officers were elected: Prince L. Tople, president; Jacquelin Souza, first vice-president; M. E. Tovey, second vice-president; M. C. Souza, secretary; Joe Rodrigues, assistant secretary; Joe A. Souza, treasurer; F. H. Smith, T. F. Sanborn and Enea Medeiros, Judges of Election, and H. P. Sheldon and Z. Kakuia, Members of the Executive Committee.

Other clubs held meeting last night and adjourned until more definite instructions can be obtained in regard to the rights of Government officials to take part in politics in many communities. It is considered that the government officials are the most intelligent, capable citizens, and to organize without their assistance would be to cripple the precinct clubs. It is hoped that definite instructions explanatory of themselves, will be sent to all officials as soon as possible.

WAS KILLED ON MAUI

PORTO RICAN INJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT.

Was Riding on Train and Cars Jumped Track—Chinese Was Drowned at Maalaea Bay.

Two inquests were held on Maui within the last two weeks. One case was of an unknown Chinese whose body was found in the water near McGregor's Landing, Maalaea Bay, on June 15. The body had been in the water for three or four days and, as decomposition had set in, it was impossible for any one to recognize the features of the Chinese. Two slight cuts were observed on the forehead, but neither of these caused death, drowning evidently having been the cause of death. The condition of the clothes indicated that the Chinese had been wading in the water at the time he was evidently drowned. A verdict in accordance with the evidence was returned on June 25.

THE KAHUNA FAILED

NAME OF YACHT FELL DOWN AS A SAFEGUARD.

The Kahuna Swamped At Sea and Crew Rescued by Pilot—Fearless Brings In Boat.

The Kahuna proved that her name was a false propheet yesterday by filing and swamping about noon off the harbor. There was a stiff breeze blowing and the little green skimming dish was carrying too much sail for the wind.

Attempting to come about, she hung in stays for a moment and the sea came over her gunwale too rapidly to be combated. Skipper "Remington" Harrison and three others who were aboard of her as crew, found themselves in the water while their craft with its smashed boom, like a bird with a broken wing, was helpless in the waves that were running into quite a sea under the strength of the wind.

Captain Lorenson of the pilots was out with his crew returning from a pilot trip and took the unswamped mariners aboard. H. M. Dow who was aboard the Fearless called Captain Olsen's attention to what he thought was a boat in distress. The glass revealed the trouble and the Fearless, then going out after a tow, ran up towards the Kahuna, meeting the pilot boat with the shipwrecked crew aboard. The dripping quartet were taken aboard the Fearless and made comfortable, while the tug went out after the schooner she had started for.

Skipper Remington and the crew wanted to get the Kahuna in the harbor again, but were afraid of salvage expenses. Captain Olsen, however, offered to go out and bring in the yacht for a small sum just covering his expense, and the boys eagerly accepted. The yacht had floated two or three miles southwest with the wind and sea, but no trouble was found in locating her. Remington and his first mate dived over from the tug and carried a tow line to the yacht.

The Kahuna momentarily righted, but the wet mainsail bore her down again, and this time her mast snapped as it hit the sea. The jib boom got under the stern of the tug and also snapped off, but aside from this the boat got ashore without further damage.

A new set of spars will not prove a very expensive item and as the hull and sails are intact the Kahuna will have a chance to redeem herself in the faces on the Fourth.

The crew were fortunate in the accident, not turning out fatally, and have made up their minds not to go to sea skimming dishes after this. A yacht of this type, except when in the quieter waters of the lochs, requires very careful handling in a breeze and a vigilant eye and hand is always requisite for safety at toying left main and jib sheets. Even experienced sailors have been caught napping in this type of craft which very soon passes the angle of safety.

SAW FIRE IN CRATER

LOOKED LIKE SUN'S GLARE THROUGH A FOG.

Big Manifestation on July 4 Seems Hardly to Be Expected—More Smoke Than Anything Else.

S. S. Dickinson of the Mackay Cable Company, who has lately returned from Hilo, was in company with Commissioner E. S. Boyd, able to catch an unusually vivid glimpse of the crater of Halemauau and brings evidence of the actual fire and general condition of affairs.

"It can hardly be called a big manifestation," said he today, "there was an enormous quantity of sulphurous smoke, and where there's smoke, there's fire, you know. When we started out it seemed almost hopeless for us to expect to see anything, but fortuitously, as we entered on the lava beds, the wind began to veer and at the crater was blowing in a fashion that sucked the smoke out of the crater mouth and left it comparatively clear for a few moments.

"Far below, like the sun through a fog, loomed the glow of the internal fires, two vivid cracks of red branching out from the center. It was far down in the pit and with the smoke and mist veiling it, it was impossible to estimate its depth.

"You can hear the molten matter swishing about against the sides of the big cauldron and every now and then a part of the interior funnel would break off and crash down into the depths. Vast quantities of smoke would bech out immediately hindling and choking us. We saw the fire distinctly but it still looks like a long way from a real, genuine eruption.

DEATH OF A CHIEFESS

REPUTED DAUGHTER OF KAMEHAMEHA DEAD.

Found on the Beach at Waikiki This Morning—Thought To Have Succumbed to Apoplexy.

Keanu, one of the high Hawaiian chiefesses, was found dead this morning on the beach just across from the residence of Prince Cupu. Apoplexy is supposed to have been the cause of her death, but no matter what the autopsy shall have been held, this point be positively determined.

The deceased was reported to be the daughter of King Kamehameha V. She was of high rank and had been recognized as such by all of the Hawaiian chiefs, even those of high rank. She had been married, but a number of years ago, her husband went into the mountains on some sort of an expedition, and was never heard of. For a number of years past, she had been living on the premises of Prince Cupu who has been her protector.

This morning a little before 8 o'clock she donned a muumuu and went out to take a bath in the ocean. This was the last seen of her alive. She was found lying in the sand about an hour later, dead. Her face was discolored, a condition which indicates that she had succumbed to apoplexy. There were no marks of violence on the body, and death is believed not to have been due to violence. As it is not thought she was drowned.

A coroner's jury was impaneled and an inquest will be held this evening at the police station at 8:30 o'clock. The deceased left several children. She was about 60 years of age.

WAS A MRS. ESTES WOMAN REPORTED AS ESTEE'S FORMER WIFE. Was the Wife of Judge Frank Estes of St. Louis and Not of the Hawaiian Jurist. On June 18, the San Francisco Examiner published a New York dispatch correcting its former telegraph regarding the death of a "divorced wife" of Judge Estes of Hawaii. It appears that the former dispatch was an error, due to a similarity of names. The later dispatch on the subject is as follows: 'NEW YORK, June 17.—It was learned today that the woman known as Mrs. Sarah Estes, who died suddenly of chronic rheumatism on Sunday at Mrs. Mary J. Seymour's boarding-house, 109 Nassau street, Brooklyn, was not the wife of Judge Morris M. Estes of the Federal District Court in Hawaii, as had been reported. She was the divorced wife of Judge Frank Estes of St. Louis. She was born about forty-five years ago in Memphis, Tenn., being the daughter of Dr. Phillips, a well-known physician in that place. For the last year she had been living in Seymour's house, where comparatively little was known about her. 'Mrs. Estes told Mrs. Seymour that she had two children, a boy named Frank and a girl named Grace, who lived with their father. The woman was buried yesterday in Evergreen cemetery at the request of Judge Estes, who defrayed the burial expenses.'

The ring leaders with gashed heads and carved faces were brought to Hilo to account for their chivalric conduct.—Hilo Tribune. HILO POST OFFICE: Radical changes will be made at the Post Office July 1. Inspector Madden who is here has instructions to overhaul the office. All people owning boxes must deliver their keys and receive new ones, and every effort will be made to return to each patron a box bearing the old number, although this is impossible in all cases. The new boxes will all face on Front street. The delivery windows will all be on the Waiakala end of the building and the mailing boxes will be on the Front street corner. The installation of the new Postmaster will therefore of necessity be attended by more or less confusion.—Hilo Tribune. EARTHQUAKE ECHO: Retalhuleu, Guatemala, the city in which F. Souza and family resided for fourteen years, was destroyed by an earthquake early in June. Mr. Souza, who came to Hilo a few years ago, has many relatives and friends in the destroyed city about whose welfare and safety he is greatly concerned. The city had a population of 8000 and the loss of life is reported as being very great.—Hilo Tribune. CROWN LANDS: The proposed commission to visit Hawaii and investigate the crown lands, in connection with ex-Queen Liliuokalani's claims, will probably not be authorized. During the discussion of the matter in the Senate, Senator Platt of Connecticut opposed the authorization of such a commission. Senator Cockrell, of the committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, also appears to be against the plan. The question is now in the hands of the committee. TRAMWAYS BILL DEAD: The Hawaiian Tramways bill is dead for this session of Congress. Delegate Wilcox and Edgar Cayless have been making strenuous efforts to push the bill and succeeded in having a House sub-committee appointed to take it up. The sub-committee, after considering the matter, decided to report the bill to the general House committee on Territories, without any other recommendation than that the matter go over for the session. Wilcox had a petition from Hawaii in favor of the bill. HILO BREAKWATER: Philip Peck of Hilo has had several conferences at Washington with the Senate Committee on Pacific Islands and Porto Rico, on the subject of the proposed breakwater at Hilo harbor. As it is too late in the session for action at once, Senator Forsaker, chairman of the committee, proposed that a statement of the matter be left with the committee, which will consider the proposition between now and the next session in December. Peck left a statement with the committee, including a memorial from the citizens of Hilo. PUBLIC BUILDINGS HERE: A Congressional commission has been authorized to inquire into the need of federal buildings in Honolulu and Hilo. The matter was presented by Philip Peck of Hilo, to members of Congress and representatives of the Treasury department. LAWYERS' BANQUET: The annual banquet of the Hawaiian Bar Association was held on Saturday evening at the Moana hotel. President W. O. Smith, presided and Governor Dole was one of the guests and speakers of the evening, responding to "The President of the United States." The other speakers were United States Judge Estee, Judge W. J. Robinson, J. T. de Bolt, Chief Justice Frear, United States Attorneys R. W. Breckons and J. J. Dunne and W. L. Stanley. Those present at the banquet were: President W. O. Smith, Governor S. B. Dole, Chief Justice W. F. Frear, Circuit Judge W. J. Robinson, United States District Judge M. M. Estee, Associate Justice Antonio Perry of the Supreme Court, United States District Attorney R. W. Breckons, Assistant District Attorney J. J. Dunne, Attorney General E. P. Dole, W. L. Stanley, E. B. McClanahan, F. E. Thompson, C. F. Peterson, D. H. Case, J. T. De Bolt, Louis J. Warren, T. McCants Stewart, A. G. M. Robertson, Henry Holmes, E. C. Peters, Frank Andrade, L. A. Thurston, W. W. Thayer, F. M. Brooks and Royal D. Mead.

CUBA

The Cuban reciprocity question was not helped much by the President's message to Congress. Indeed such a message was far more likely to antagonize the Senate than to make it subservient. The Senate is very jealous about its prerogatives and resents any effort to coerce its action. President Roosevelt did not air at coercing the Senate, but he aimed at making a certain portion of the Senate change its mind. It has not changed its mind, but has become the more fixed in its former views. The best sugar interests are arrayed most strongly against the measure, and practically control the situation.

Cuba has at large cost to the United States been made an Independent Republic. It has elected its own President, who is a strong sympathizer with the United States. There is a strong annexation party, and there is probably a very much stronger Cuba libre party. The United States has administered the Government of the Island since the end of the war. American affairs have taken the finances in charge and have left a treasury with $800,000 in cash in its vaults and an assured annual income of $17,000,000. Great improvements have been made, the cities have been cleaned, disease has been checked in its ravages, the plantations can go ahead with their work, and a considerable crop has been harvested and ground.

It would certainly be better if Cuba were allowed to show what her capabilities might be in the direction of self government and self management of her financial affairs, before the cry for help came, as it has done. That Cuba will be ruined if reciprocity is not granted, is all nonsense. Cuba is in a better position as far as her agriculture and her finances are concerned than ever before. What she may fall in is the wonderful expansion that the United States speculators calculated upon.

The argument used in the Senate is a just one. The Cuban agriculturalists will not obtain the advantage of the $6,000,000 which reciprocity would give them, the speculators will get it. This has been clearly demonstrated by the fact that over two-thirds of the sugar crop has been stored up on the island, waiting for the action of the Senate. The crop has been raised under one set of conditions, and would be sold under an entirely different set.

That such action would be subversive of the best interests and of Louisiana has been shown, but it would be subversive of our own interests. We are bound by the United States labor laws. Our customs receipts and our post office receipts go into the Federal treasury. Cuba will not be bound by United States labor laws, it has a large field close at hand, besides having a large laboring population on the island itself. Every cent of its income goes into its own treasury. We, an integral portion of the United States, would certainly be discriminated against. This is not the policy of the protectionists. We have been outside the fence ourselves, and now that we are within it, we do not want any holes to be left unguarded or any bars to be taken down.

The indications, when the last mail left the coast, were that nothing would be done this session. It all depends upon whether the President will send a reciprocity treaty with Cuba to the Senate. This will no doubt cause a lengthy discussion. Now the question is, will the President send such a treaty? Upon that hinges a great deal more than the Cuban proposition in all likelihood.

THE CANALS.

The Panama route for the canal seems to be strongly in favor. The volcanic eruptions in the West Indies and the presence of volcanoes in Nicaragua have formed a combination which has given the Nicaragua route a black eye. Admiral Walker and all the members of the Canal Commission with one exception reported in favor of Panama when the French company put their ditch at a moderate figure, and there seems some likelihood that, after the long years of consideration, an agreement may finally be reached, the four hundred year old dream be realized, and the two great oceans may be wedded.

That there should be so strong a difference of opinion with regard to the canal is not to be wondered at. It is a stupendous work, another nation has attempted the work and failed. There has been wrapped around it an immense amount of chicanery which has made people suspicious. It calls for an immense amount of money. In either case, whether it be Panama or Nicaragua, the canal passes through a foreign territory and the governments of those states are practically here today and gone tomorrow. The people of these Spanish-American republics are utterly untrustworthy. Once the canal is completed it will provide an American force of troops to protect it, not from enemies from abroad, but from enemies along either bank. Every one of these considerations, and many others have their influence upon the legislation in regard to the canal routes.

The Panama route has always appeared to be the most feasible. It is much shorter, it is already partly completed, it is not menaced by slumbering volcanoes, it can be more easily patrolled and defended. There are certainly many things to be said in favor of the Panama route. As to the objection about sailing vessels being delayed by calms on coming out of the Panama canal on the Pacific side, that can be dismissed at once. Oceanic canals are not intended for sailing vessels. The canal will foster the construction of large freight steamers, and the sailing vessel will become yet more relegated to the past.

The canal is longed for by us in the mid-Pacific. Given the canal and the Pacific cable, and the value of these Islands will be of the greatest importance. They are important and valuable Islands now, their value and importance will then be easily quadrupled. This will be the entree of an immense trade. It will also be a great base of supply to the merchant navies of the world. Our prosperity will then not depend upon one branch of industry only, viz.: sugar, it will depend upon our commercial interests. There will not be a steamer passing across the broad bosom of the Pacific that will not leave its due toll upon our shores. We shall have to keep large stores of supplies on hand, and we will be able to dispose of agricultural products for which we have now, practically, no market.

The Americanizing of the Hawaiian Islands has been one of the steps in their advancement. It has put us in a position to profit by the canal, when it is built, as we never could have profited by it had we not become a territory of the United States. Everything points to a brilliant future for us. It may take a few years to realize, but it will come most certainly. If it does not come to us, it will to our children. One of the main factors in this future will be the completion of the trans-Pacific canal.

A RUINED CROP.

The recent earthquake, says Consul-General McNally, which totally destroyed Quetzaltenango, the second city of Guatemala, and many of the neighboring smaller communities, visited with awful consequences the prosperous coffee plantations of the Republic. While the coffee trees themselves suffered little damage, the dwellings, storerooms, electric installations, coffee machinery, and other improvements on nearly all the estates were more or less seriously injured; and this will necessarily divert attention from the gathering of the coffee crop to the early repairing of the almost universal damage. Before the catastrophe of April 18, indications pointed to a very large output of coffee next season, but the yield will not be one-half what was expected.

Many things at this time combine to retard even the necessary repairs on the estates. The most serious difficulty is the lack of labor. For many seasons past, the impossibility of securing adequate help for cleaning the coffee trees has been a source of constant loss to most of the coffee planters, and now that the surplus labor of the Republic has been pressed into service to clear away the debris in the ruined cities and towns, the question has become still more serious. The building of new railway lines has also induced many laborers to leave the coffee estates to engage in grading or track laying. To escape compulsory service in the ruined cities, it is said that many laborers are crossing over into Salvador or Mexico. Guatemala is both badly off for crop and for labor. We have much to be thankful for.

Bryan's name is not one to conjure with in Illinois. Before the campaign is out the remaining followers of Bryan will realize this as well as he will himself.

A few people who have been unable to see the glows of the morning, were delighted with them after the ball. The sky assumed a rosy hue and there were some who thought they felt earthquake phenomena.

The question of enlarging the saloon limits will be strongly argued shortly. As to all questions, there are two sides to this. There is what can be done, and what it is wise to do. It is a subject that cannot be settled off hand.

Delegate Wilcox, who may return by the Zealandia, expected today, brings nothing back for Hawaii. Whatever has been obtained has not been through the Delegates' instrumentality, brings coinage bill, which, but for his stupidity, would have been passed last session, has failed to pass this, and we may have trouble over our Hawaiian coin.

The Republican District clubs are now in full working order, and the political working will commence in earnest at once. There is every prospect of a successful campaign for the Republicans. There will be a considerable falling off among the Home Unioners, in spite of their boasting that they will sweep the board.

upon King Edward's life by anarchists from the European continent is not improbable, though it is quite possible to be founded upon the countless rumors which circulate round a great city London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna are full of all kinds of rumors, and these are picked up by correspondents and telegraphed all over the world. Some are contradicted, and some are not even worth the trouble of contradiction. Still the anarchists would regard the assassination of King Edward VII as a great success in their campaign of terror, just as they regarded the assassination of McKinley, or of the Czar Alexander III

YACHTS CLEANING UP.

The small craft are getting on the ways as fast as they can in preparation for the races on Friday. The Gladys was pulled up and found to be wonderfully clean, the waters of Pearl Harbor having left little green on her sides despite the several months she has been in the water. General interest is keen in the coming contest and the Fourth will see nearly all the twenty seven yachts of the fleet lined up for the four events of the yachting.

Private signals seem to be the striking point, the local yachtsmen apparently finding it hard to conform with rules prevalent in all well regulated clubs. The regatta committee will be lenient in such matters and almost any attempt at a private signal will pass muster. Life buoys will be accounted a necessity and the accident in the harbor yesterday helps to point out the wisdom of the rule.

THE LAST WAR.

LONDON, June 21.—The Fortnightly Review, in an editorial article, expresses itself as apprehensive concerning Great Britain's capacity for the self-imposed task of governing one-quarter of the globe and one-third of its inhabitants. The paper hazards the conjecture that the peace agreement at Pretoria marks the limit of Great Britain's expansion and that she has fought her last war of conquest.

KAWAHA SAW THINGS

KAUAI MAN WAS SHOWN SOME STRANGE SIGHTS.

Alleged To Have Been Made the Butt of Rough House in Some Saloons Last Week.

Practically all of the session in the police court this morning was occupied with the trial of George Hartman, a bartender and N. G. Campbell, charged with assault and battery on O. K. Kawaha, an old native man. The alleged assault took place in a couple of saloons last Wednesday, where the defendants sought to have a jark at the expense of Kawaha.

The Kawaha related the circumstances of the joke, of which he was the victim. It appears that he had come recently from Kauai and had considerable money, and also bought some new clothes. He went into the saloon and, during the course of the drinking with the defendants, they took occasion to compliment him upon his fine appearance. One of them, Hartman, cut the black kid gloves of the witness. The sleeves of Kawaha's coat were also cut by some of the crowd. Hartman and Gallagher were alleged to have broken Kawaha's umbrella and amused themselves by shoving the article down his back. Hartman was further alleged to have taken four boxes of cosmetic, two bottles of cologne and a purse containing money from the witness. Campbell also took a hand, so Kawaha testified, by shoving the old man about the place and against the wall.

On the suggestion of the three white men, the old native accompanied them to another saloon, where they took some beer to drink. Campbell then shoved him over to the lunch counter and drove him so hard against it that Kawaha's shoulder was bruised. The trio were all the time talking to Kawaha and while he was being made the butt of their fun, someone, Kawaha testified, that he thought it had been Campbell, set off some fire crackers which had been tied on Kawaha's back. The witness was very much frightened at the two explosions, while the trio danced and laughed, and seemed highly amused and delighted over his troubles. Campbell then poured water on the native and extinguished the fire on Kawaha's clothes.

By this time Kawaha declared that he saw that the men whom he supposed were his friends were not his friends at all, and he managed to break and run away from them.

The garments which the witness had worn at the time of the alleged assault and battery were introduced in evidence and identified by Kawaha. The old Hawaiian said that all of his clothes had been fine garments up to the time that the defendants began to handle him so roughly. The clothes introduced in evidence, certainly looked as if they had been roughly handled, the vest and shirt showing plainly the fire that had caused the old man so much pain.

Charles Creighton, as attorney for the defendants, subjected the old man to quite a severe cross examination, but, in the main, the witness held to the testimony given on direct examination. An adjournment until 2 p. m. today was taken. The case was resumed this afternoon with Kawaha still on the witness stand.

There is an additional case of malicious injury against Hartman and a third charge of larceny was also filed against him this afternoon. The prosecution will ask that the defendants be given imprisonment, if they are convicted, as the case is considered to be flagrant.

THEY KNEW BETTER

LOSING ROOTERS GROWLED AT THE EMPIRE.

Kams Lower the Winning Pennant of The H. A. C's in an Exciting Game.

The Kamehameha playing an excellent all round game brought down the proud percentage of the hitherto invincible Honolulu Athletic Club on Saturday afternoon. Joy for the latter nine was in bad shape for pitching and lost control of the ball towards the end of the game. Lemon for the Kams, replacing Reuter in the sixth inning, proved a puzzle for the Redmen and with the excellent fielding of his team was mainly responsible for the victory. An error at second by Thompson in the fourth came at an opportune moment for the Kams and helped to lose the game for his own side.

The Kamehameha rooters were out in force and there was an exhibition of enthusiasm throughout the game. The Kams flooded the field at the end and nearly tore Lemon to pieces in their appreciation of his work carrying the nine off the diamond in triumph. An exhibition of bad basing was shown by another poring of the crowd who concluded that they were in a better position from the backstop and the score was able to tell a foul ball down at third base, with the catcher and 100 feet intervening, than an unbiased umpire who was on the spot and had a further advantage of not having any money hanging on his decision.

No runs were made in the first innings for either side. Reuter was in the box for the Kams and pitched good ball. In the second Joy, after a two bagger, came safely home, getting to third on a passed ball and coming to the plate on a catcher's fumble. Kekuewa threw a pretty ball to second sending Louis back to the bench in consequence. Reuter made a clever stop of a swift ball. In the first of the fourth, Thompson at second for the H. A. C's made a fatal error and the ball changed four times for the Kams Louis and Hansmann came home for the H. A. C, leaving the score 4-3 in favor of the Kams.

In the second of the fifth Williams and Louis negotiated the four faces of the diamond successfully and the H. A. C. nine had the advantage again by one run. In the second of the sixth a swift grounder flew out to Lemon and caromed from him to Umpire Newton's right ankle.

In the first of the seventh Lemon hit to third and a wild throw to first brought the clever little pitcher all the way round the bases. Louis came home in the second half however and left the Honolulu still in the lead.

In the eighth occurred the exhibition by disgruntled onlookers who had bet on the H. A. C's. J. Kekuewa swatted the ball along the third base line and Lieutenant Newton, was as usual, on the jump for a decision. He called it safe and Jones came home. The little crowd around the scorers' bench, many yards away from the spot where the ball fell, and with the catcher directly in their line of sight objected vigorously to the decision and stated emphatically the exact number of inches outside the line that the ball dropped.

Joy, whose nose too sweet a temper had already been ruffled by his arm having gone back on him, threw down the ball. Newton whose reputation in baseball matters was achieved long ago in the middle states gave him one minute in which to resume play and Joy thought better of it. These most conspicuous in denouncing the decision were, regrettably, officers and members of the league, whose first thought and duty as sportsmen should have been to uphold the umpire's decision. Regrettably also they, hardly without exception, had all wagered money on the game and could not be said to be unbiased in their judgment. The umpire under any circumstances was performed in a better position to judge than any body in the neighborhood of the scorers' table from whence came the uproar of the losers.

Lieutenant Newton, with his introduction of first class base ball methods has done much to better the conditions of the game here and has helped to eliminate the crooked conditions which too often prevailed in former years and were accountable for the temporary decadence of the sport. The very men who were loudest in roaring against his decision on Saturday have hitherto been his warmest champions. It was a case of pocket judgment. Lemon shut out the H. A. C's in the last innings and the Kamehamehas won by a final score of 7-6.

The Maile Hima-Artillery game was none too interesting, the former winning easily by a score of 12-7.

THE COINAGE BILL

Congress Falls To Pass Silver Re-coinage Act.

The bill to recoin Hawaiian silver was defeated in Congress on June 16. It was opposed by Representative Gaines of Tennessee, on the ground that the question of disposing of the Kalakaua coins would solve itself, many of the coins being taken away by tourists. The vote on the bill was 75 to 50 in favor of passage, but as the matter had been brought up under suspension of the rules, a two-thirds majority was needed, and the bill therefore failed to pass.

During the discussion the following letter from Postmaster J. M. Oat of Honolulu was read in the House, by Representative Hill of Connecticut: "Sir: With reference to my letter of November 13th last in re Hawaiian silver coin, I would again call your attention to the fact that some of the bankers here are again agitating the advisability of not receiving Hawaiian coin.

"One bank here has deposited in its vaults about two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) silver, about four-fifths of which is Hawaiian, which they claim cannot be sent to any other part of the United States in payment of debts, leaving only about one-fifth American silver available for that purpose.

"While there is no threat made that they will refuse Hawaiian silver, there is a hint given that they may do so, in which case this office would have to do the same.

"About the first of each month a great proportion of this coin is shipped to the various plantations to pay off employees, but by the middle of the month it finds its way back to Honolulu again, considerable of it through the post office, and is soon piled up in the banks as before.

"I submit the above facts in order that the department may be aware of the conditions that exist here, and perhaps take some immediate action before it is taken up here with perhaps serious results to the community. Respectfully, JOS. M. OAT, Postmaster."

COST OF WAR IN PHILIPPINES

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary Root today made answer to the Senate resolution of April 17th, calling for information as to the cost of the war in the Philippines. It is shown that $50,000,000 was advanced for the expenses of the Philippine Commission originally from the United States this year, but this amount afterwards was reimbursed out of the Philippine treasury. For the transportation of troops and supplies to and from the Philippines since the peace treaty was ratified the cost has been $4,563,448.

Reports from the various bureau officers are submitted to show the cost of the Philippine war, including outstanding obligations, showing that the total cost to date is $176,326,586. The expenditures by years were as follows:

Year 1898 (two months, May and June) expended $2,686,850; liabilities nil. Fiscal year 1899, expended $26,239,673; liabilities nil. Fiscal year 1900 expended $50,865,543; liabilities nil. Fiscal year 1901, expended $25,767,422; liabilities $2. Fiscal year 1902 (ten months, July to April inclusive), $34,499,222; liabilities, $473,069. Total expended, $169,855,519; liabilities, $473,072.

Secretary Root concluded with the explanation that a large part of the expenditures of the past year were for Army maintenance which would have been necessary under any conditions.

SPANISH COURTSHIPS

In Spain the courtship begins with gifts of flowers, and the wedding ends with a shower of blossoms on the couple, who pass into a floral bower on the roof of the new home. The suitor begins his courtship by asking for a scowl of water at the house where the object of his affections lives. If this request is granted he may persist in his attentions, but if it is denied the matter ends there. Later the man calls again, accompanied by musicians and torch-bearers, and while the mandolin players strum their instruments the lover's companion makes his advances. Any time during the courtship the suitor may be rejected by the gift of a pumpkin. Three times he must make formal suit for a wife, as his request cannot be granted at first. But if her father refuses the third time he may consult a magistrate, who demands that the daughter be produced or that her father gives his consent to the marriage—provided he is an honorable man. He can then carry off his bride. But this emergency does not often arise.

No maiden can witness the marriage of an Italian woman, no matter how intimate she has been as a friend, but matrons accompany her to the church. Neither can a girl enter the house of her lover, and so emphatic is this rule that it is considered necessary for a woman to pass by the house of her lover in such a public way that all can be satisfied that she does not enter it. The lover gives presents according to the season—cake at Easter, rosebuds at the feast of St. Marks and almond paste at Christmas. In addition to bonbons and confectionery the groom sends the future bride all the jewelry he can afford, especially finger-rings. Sunday is the only lucky day in the week for wedding, as all others have some ominous meaning. If the wedding is on Monday insanity is threatened; Thursday is witches' day; a Tuesday wedding will bring great suffering, etc. In Venice the bridegroom must furnish the gondolas for the marriage procession, four candles for the mass and plenty of coppers for the swarming beggars.

TO KILL THE KING TABLEAUX VIVANTS.

ALLEGED PLOT DISCOVERED IN LONDON. Reported illness said to have been an excuse for withdrawing from public function.

LONDON, June 17.—A sensational story is current in London tonight of the discovery of a plot to assassinate King Edward. This story has created much discussion in newspaper and other circles, but it is lacking in anything like official confirmation.

According to the current report, King Edward's sudden illness at Aldershot was not due to a cold, but was merely an excuse for withdrawing his majesty from public functions owing to the discovery by Scotland Yard of a plot against his life. The principals in this plot have not yet been arrested.

It is cited in confirmation of this story that King Edward's recovery when he was announced at Windsor Castle was as complete and speedy as his attack had been sudden. On the other hand, it must be pointed out that if his majesty's illness was merely diplomatic, the officials certainly took a great deal of trouble in keeping up the fiction.

At Scotland Yard tonight the utmost vigilance was maintained concerning these rumors. It was noticeable, however, that the chief inspectors, who usually return home at night, were all on duty there, and, while they refused to see newspaper representatives until tomorrow morning, they decline to either deny or confirm the rumor.

King Edward's drive to Frogmore this afternoon in a closed carriage, attended only by a gentleman of the household, was quite unprecedented and a great surprise to the spectators. The sun shone brightly at the time, and his majesty appeared to be delighted to be out again, and bowed graciously and smilingly to the salutes from the crowd.

MISSING TEACHERS. MANILA, June 26.—No trace has been found of the four American school teachers of Cebu, Island of Cebu, who started on a day's outing June 19th, and who have not been heard of since.

SCHLEY'S PAY RAISED. WASHINGTON, June 17.—The Senate Committee on Naval Affairs today authorized Senator Hale to make a favorable report on Senator McCowan's bill giving Admiral Schley the full pay of a Rear Admiral on the active list of the Navy.

CAUGHT SWIPES MAKER. Internal Revenue Officers Make Some Arrests.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collectors Harry Couzens and W. F. Drake Saturday night made a swipes raid on Kakaako and found two places in full blast.

Elaborate dress rehearsals of the Kiohama Art League tableaux, which will be presented this evening at Progress Hall, were held on Saturday evening. On the stage a big frame ten feet high and six feet wide has been placed. Extending from the sides, interwoven palm branches help the setting, while palms and flowers will also grace the proscenium arch.

Across the frame is stretched a filmy veil of gauze softening the tableaux vivants and giving a tone to each presented picture that helps to make it less palpably human, more imaginative and closer to the structure of a picture.

With characteristic enthusiasm, elaborate costuming has been accomplished by the fair participants. Special backgrounds have been painted and arranged by Theodore Wores, and the lighting should look like perfection.

THE CANDY HABIT.

Ever since far-seeing dealers began putting candy into artistic pastebored boxes arranged with intricate designs of paper lace and tied with gold or silver cord, the title of "candy fiend" clinging with inseparable tenacity to the madman girl is not the only one who has a pronounced and assertive sweet tooth.

Another man suffers from what he calls candy apoplexy, and according to his own admission is as helpless when the desire for candy strikes him as the most helpless slave to liquor.

LETTERS IN TURKEY. After looking through the literature in these bookshops which is not written in a genuine, living language, one does not fail to believe that a revival of literature is certainly impending in Turkey.

Even the dress of the women of the harem, said Miss Fensham, shows their growing independence. A few years ago every woman wrapped herself, before going out in an upper garment that completely enshrouded her head and was not to be removed until she was again in the house.

ONE WIFE ENOUGH

"Polygamy is fast dying out among the Turks and not on account of any change in moral standards but because of the attitude of the women themselves. Formerly a man's four or five wives dwelt amicably under one roof, but now every wife demands a home of her own and the impossibility of supporting so many homes is compelling the average Turk to limit his harem to one wife."

Taroena Food Co., Honolulu.
Gentlemen, I wish to say that I have been troubled with dyspepsia for years, and at times could retain nothing on my stomach. Although I have tried a great many medicines advertised to cure dyspepsia they did me no good. A friend told me to try Taroena and it benefited me at once and I was completely cured in a month's time. I hope any one troubled with this complaint will try your food. It is a certain cure for dyspepsia for mine was a very hopeless case.
Yours truly,
F. A. GETZLER,
Stage Manager Orpheum Theater, Los Angeles.

That's the true ring of merit. From all over the states we receive most valuable endorsements of Taroena. Grateful mothers, whose baby's life has been saved by Taroena write us; invalids, unable to eat other foods sing its praises; dyspeptics after years of suffering are cured—what more do you want. Taroena fulfills every requirement for infants, invalids and dyspeptics. Try it.
