

Nov. 26, 45.

Chaplain Ingal York,
5, Chestnut Ave.
Nazareth, Penn.

Dear Sir,

In behalf of my mother & myself, Spude, brother, we wish to extend our sincere thanks to you and all the boys of the 100th Co. A. & 442 for the very thoughtful conscript in honor of our late beloved, son, Sadeo J. Munemori. who was killed in action in Italy, which you readily are very well acquainted. Now that the war is over, expect you are home on U.S. Soil again and feel a mite safer.

I can readily understand the position & service you rendered in the capacity of Chaplain to the boys of the 10th & 44th at Dyakteny Reg.

Yes the going was the tightest where the battle for Florence & the Po valley was under taken. So many fine young men gave their lives on the North Riquarian Coast.

Yet it's just that epistle time was up in this world of ours & some day, somewhere I'm sure we will be able to see him again, maybe not in this world.

but in the world beyond.
Sooner or later we must all go & it just happened that he went first.

Just & hope that all the boys who withstood the terrible onslaught & who sailed home on their own feet & otherwise are all well & happy & in the best of health.

Again may I take this opportunity to thank you for remembering our son & beloved father. Hope this letter finds you well & happy.

Respectfully,
Robert J. Menemow.
