

Supreme Court Gets After The Attorney General

ADMINISTERS A REPRIMAND TO HIM THIS MORNING FOR ADVISING THAT THE LANAI EXCHANGE COULD BE MADE BEFORE THE DECREE IN THE APPEAL FROM JUDGE DE BOLT'S DECISION, HAD BEEN ENTERED.

By far the most interesting proceedings that have yet marked the Lanai injunction case, occurred this morning before the Supreme Court when the motion of L. L. McCandless the plaintiff in the case, for a decree was presented for the consideration of the court, to enable the plaintiff to take an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. The Territorial Supreme Court was confronted with the rather peculiar condition of being asked to sign a decree, continuing the injunction when the government had gone ahead and done exactly what the injunction was supported to restrain them from doing.

Fear and Justice Hartwell. It was stated by the attorney, that a long period would not be required to permit the appeal to be perfected and the papers sent to Washington. Robertson stated that about twenty days would be required as the attorney general would not oppose that feature of the matter. Attorney General Peters stated that so far as the form of the decree was concerned he had no objection to offer further than were contained in the written objections filed with the court. The attorney general stated that he had advised that the deal could be made and it had been made immediately following the rendition of the opinion by the court, February 1. F. W. Milverton of the attorney general's department read the objections which held that an appeal did not lie, as it had not been shown that there was $5,000 involved in the case or that there were any Federal questions involved in the case. It was immediately following the reading of the objections that the court handed the roasts to the attorney general. "That is the question," said Chief Justice Frear. "Of course the attorney general would have no right, as a right, to be heard on this question as to the propriety of extending the injunction for the purpose of an appeal. For instance, if a writ of error or appeal were illegal. Robertson presented the motion for a decree, the decree setting forth that the injunction, which had been disregarded, was continued in force. In reply to questions by Chief Justice

MARDI GRAS REVELS OF THE MERRY FOLK

The Mardi Gras came and it was a great success. Fully a thousand people visited the Moana Hotel last evening to view and take a part in the Mardi Gras Carnival given at that place last evening by the ladies and gentlemen of Honolulu for the benefit of the Kiloahua Art League. Everything went off according to the schedule and a most enjoyable time was had by all who attended. The festivities were kept up until an early hour this morning and it was only the announcement that the last car for town was about to leave that the crowd got away for town. The Moana hotel was most beautifully decorated for the occasion with foliage and electric lights. All about the lanais strings of colored lights were strung and these strings entwined with male the effect being very beautiful. While the approach to the ball room of the hotel was beautifully decorated the main effort was made upon the ball room itself, here the decorators excelled themselves and formed the large room into a veritable bow of love-liness. About the walls of the rooms between the large windows overlooking the sea palm leaves in great profusion were placed. Upon these were masks and bunting symbolic of the occasion. From all about the room to the chandelier in its center great streamers of malle were strung. Upon these more masks were to be found. For the splendid artistic and financial success of last night's bal masque great credit is due to Mrs. William Montrose Graham, who has been indefatigable in her efforts. She has looked after everything and has the satisfaction of a thoroughly successful affair. D. Howard Hitchcock, the president of the League, has likewise been a worker whose efforts added very much to the success of the affair. There are others whose aid has been indispensable. The various committees have as a rule done their work promptly and efficiently.

To Avert Yellow Fever

PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH SPEAKS OF DANGER AND HOW TO PREVENT IT. President Pinkham has prepared a report to the board of Health relative to the danger of a yellow fever epidemic at this place. His views upon this score are as follows in his communication to the board this afternoon.

Artillery Officer To Lend Aid

CAPT. CHAMBERLAIN ARRIVED BY THE LOGAN AND WILL WORK ON NEW FORTIFICATIONS. Among the arrivals by the Transport Logan for this port is Captain William Chamberlain of the Artillery Corps, U. S. A. who comes here to give his attention to the work of constructing the new fortifications where artillery is used, which the government has begun work upon.

Owing to the improvements undertaken by the Mexican government at the port of Mexico (formerly Coahuacalcos) and Salina Cruz, the ports of the new Tehuantepec route and the proposed precautions of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company and the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service it is very doubtful if infection from yellow fever will reach this Territory from this line of communication.

It is highly probable that Captain Chamberlain will work in conjunction with Captain Otwell and that the work will be carried on rapidly until it is completed. Captain Chamberlain has in the past been connected with the general staff of the War Department. It is reported that he has a brilliant record in his service for the government in the artillery.

Our danger lies in the irregular and fore or less irresponsible steamers and vessels that are sure to touch at our ports direct, the only precaution probable being interception at our quarantine.

Although I am assured the residents of this Territory will never again lose their control and cool judgment as in 1899-1900, it is my belief were a case of yellow fever to appear off our harbor within our city the populace would show acute alarm and wasteful expenditure take place.

The agent and medium of yellow fever infection is our striped day mosquito called Stegomyia. To its destruction the board will use its limited means. Individual interest and effort is erratic and difficult to maintain.

I believe it the duty of the Board of Health to at once perfect an organization to aid in the prevention and suppression of conditions favorable to yellow fever and to enter active work

Noah's Ark To Molokai

PEOPLE OF SETTLEMENT WANT TO PURCHASE ANIMALS AND AMUSEMENTS OF THE ZOO.

Noah's Ark in the Sandwich Islands! This sounds romantic, but is nevertheless seriously considered. Not that the old ark of Noah is to be restored, but that the people of the leper settlement on Molokai are thinking of acquiring zoological gardens of their own and want to buy, with the help of friends, the animals and pleasure equipment of the Kaimuki Heights Zoo, in event of which purpose some inter-island steamship would play Noah's Ark in the transportation of the menagerie from Honolulu to Kalaupapa.

One of the inhabitants of Kalaupapa has started to canvass the settlement for subscriptions for the purchase of the zoo on this island. He wants to see how much money the lepers themselves can raise toward buying the animals and he hopes that some philanthropically inclined citizens will come forward with contributions to make up the difference. The Kaimuki Heights Zoo, which is for sale, has been notified of the desires and intentions of the people of Kalaupapa.

The acquisition of a zoo would be a great means of entertainment at the settlement. The Kaimuki Zoological gardens at present hold bears, wildcats, emus, foxes, possums, rabbits, guinea-pigs, wallabies, parrots, cockatoos, donkeys, swans, ducks, geese, monkeys, pigeons, doves, canaries, white-nice and a lot of other birds and beasts.

In addition to the interesting live stock there is a merry-go-round, a skating rink, a camera-obscure, saws, swings and other gymnastic machinery, all of which would be much enjoyed at Kalaupapa.

SOCIAL GAMESTERS NEED NOT FEAR

POLICE DIRECTING ATTENTION TO THOSE WHO MAKE GAMBLING A BUSINESS. "Those who make a business of gambling are the people we are after," said Sheriff Iaukea today. "It is not the church fair or the man who plays a social game, that we are directing our attention to. The thirty-two Chinese arrested yesterday were playing at a place we have every reason to believe is a regular gambling place. Incidentally, they were not the Chinese who entertained us in honor of the Chinese new year, and the statement to the contrary in the Bulletin was incorrect.

Japs May Buy Zoo For School

DIRECTOR OF COMPANY ADMITS THE GARDENS ARE FOR SALE OR LEASE—THREE ACRES.

A syndicate of Japanese is seeking to purchase several acres of land at Kaimuki and representatives of this body of men have approached the Kaimuki Heights Zoo Company, Limited, with a view to buying or leasing the land now occupied by the Zoological gardens, for the purpose it is said, of establishing there a Japanese school or college.

A. V. Gear, one of the directors of the Kaimuki Heights Zoo was seen this morning by a representative of The Star.

"The zoo is for sale or lease," said Mr. Gear, "and has been for some little time. There have been various propositions made and one of them is an offer from certain Japanese. The possibility of the establishment of a college was mentioned, and I know little or nothing of the purpose for which the land is required. The zoo has for some time been unappreciated by the public and is running at present without profit.

The zoo land covers a little more than three acres and is on the Waiālae side of the Kaimuki ridge, on a line and only a little distance from the land purchased by the United States government for fortification purposes.

OLD HAWAIIAN KILLED BY DRAY

SKULL FRACTURED—HORSES FRIGHTENED AT FIRECRACKERS—VICTIM WAS KAPONO.

At the morgue there lies the body of a Hawaiian man advanced in years whose name was Kapono. The skull is crushed and death is supposed to have been the result of contact with a runaway team of horses attached to a dray operated by a Chinese, Ah Choy, early this morning.

Ah Choy or Ah Hoy had his dray, when last seen, in the alley near Love's bakery shortly after 5 o'clock this morning. He was collecting slops, says Police Officer Luahiva. Later, going up Nuuanu, the horses became frightened at Chinese New Year's firecrackers and ran away, bolting toward Pauoa road.

The old Hawaiian was walking, it is said, without noticing the dray which is supposed to have knocked him down and crushed the back of his head, stones in the roadway making a couple of penetrations. He was removed to the Queen's Hospital where he died between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning.

A newsboy, David Pahi, saw the injured man right after the accident and reported the matter, but no one seems to have seen the accident.

Kapono worked for Edgar Henriques and was identified by a handkerchief bearing that name found in a pocket.

GAMBLERS ALL FINED. The 22 Chinese gamblers arrested yesterday on Maunakea street were this morning fined each $3 and costs in police court. A dozen Chinese gamblers from Moiliili were each fined $4 and costs.

SURVEY RECORDS FOR HAWAII COUNTY

CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN HILO BOARD OF TRADE AND TERRITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

HILO, February 7.—County Clerk S. K. Pua has received a reply from Surveyor Wall to the letter recently written by him at the request of the Hilo Board of Trade, regarding maps and records which the Territorial Bureau was asked to leave in Hilo. These are records which have been in Surveyor Baldwin's office but were ordered sent to Honolulu.

The reply to the request sent at the instance of the Hilo Board of Trade does not definitely refuse to allow the records to remain here, but apparently means the same thing. It says that when the county or the legislature provides for a county engineer of Hawaii, or establishes a survey office, the Territorial survey department will do all it can to supply complete records for such office or department.

The records in question, however, were shipped to Honolulu, by order of the Territorial Bureau over a week ago. According to the statements of the Hilo Board of Trade there are duplicates of them in Honolulu, and the copies are very necessary to local business men. It was suggested that the copies here in possession of Baldwin be placed in the local land office, in charge of Land Agent Williams, but the suggestion did not do any good. County Clerk Pua has transmitted to the Board of Trade the answer sent by Surveyor Wall, ignoring the specific matter of the records taken away, but promising to do all the department can to supply complete records when a county engineer's department or a survey office, is established here.

MUST PAY THE COSTS. Judge Lindsay assessed the costs in the case of J. E. Fullerton vs. W. Pearce, amounting to $11 to the plaintiff.

MARDI GRAS REVELS OF THE

At the makai end of the room were placed the boxes for spectators. These were upon a raised platform and were also decorated.

These boxes last evening were crowded to overflowing by spectators.

At the makai end of the room was the throne. Here upon a raised dais under a white canopy the Queen and King were seated during the latter part of the evening. They were surrounded with potted plants of all descriptions which were banked around the throne in front profusion. The effect was most beautiful.

The big crowd began to gather as early as eight o'clock and continued to arrive with every car, the largest number being reached probably at 11 o'clock.

At twenty-five minutes after nine o'clock the trumpet at the entrance to the ball room heralded the approach of the King and Queen. First came the Pierots who cleared the path for the royal procession. Then came James Wilder, master of ceremonies who announced to all the fact that the king approached.

Attended by ladies in waiting and by the Queen of the Carnival, Miss Lorna Lauken, entered led by the King of the carnival, Dr. George Herbert, and was taken to the throne where she and the King seated themselves.

The grand march was the next event of the evening. Jamie Wilder assisted by the Pierots put the maskers through all sorts of different marches. Finally the marching ceased and the King arose and bade all to enjoy themselves. Then the dancing was begun.

The ball room at this time was crowded with spectators who gazed for some time upon the many costumes and then repaired to the verandas outside to await the time when they could dance, after the unmasking.

It was about 11 o'clock when the prizes were awarded and supper was announced. The entire party at that time then visited the drawing room of the hotel which had been fitted as a dining room where a collation was served.

The award of the prize for the wearer of the handsomest ladies costume to Mrs. Charles Chillingworth met the approval of everyone present. She wore a most handsome and sumptuous gown of a Japanese lady of rank. It was perfect in every particular and of gorgeous material heavily embossed with gold, a triumph not alone of the costumer but of the student of Japanese dress.

The prize for the best gentleman's costume was awarded to A. J. Blackman, and it was well worthy of it, though there were many who would have awarded it to Captain Sam Johnson. Mr. Blackman was attired in the court costume of a Daimio of the sixteenth century. It was of gorgeous gold wrought cloth. The head dress was a marvel, and the sword in keeping with the costume and the period. Captain Sam Johnson represented a Daimio in armor of about the same period. He wore no mask but his face had been made up with Japanese pigment and Japanese hirute adornment into a marvelous copy of the portrait of a celebrated Daimio. The armor was perfect in every respect, of splendid and ornate workmanship, highly wrought with inlaid work, and beautiful and harmonious in its combinations of color. It was because Mr. Blackman's being a court costume was, as a costume, more gorgeous than armor, even a Daimio's armor, that Mr. Blackman was awarded the prize, the elements in which it surpassed Johnson's being the determining elements in the conditions of the award. These three Japanese costumes, in sheer gorgeousness, certainly surpassed everything else at the carnival.

The prize for the best sustained character was awarded to Mrs. A. G. Hawes who represented the Evening Bulletin. She and Mrs. Avery were costumed alike, white satin gowns Mrs. Avery's being printed in fac simile of the Advertiser, and Mrs. Hawes in fac simile of the Bulletin. They wore large white cockade hats with black ostrich plumes, long black gloves and black slippers. They passed through the crowd of maskers calling out their respective papers in caricature of newsboy style. The judges held that Mrs. Hawes had best sustained the character, and awarded her the prize. In the opinion of very many this prize for the best sustained character should have gone to Mrs. George Cooke who represented a Chinese lady of the Mandarin class. Her costuming, and particularly her makeup was widely commented on and everywhere praised. It is said that the reason she was not awarded the prize was that she danced which was held out of keeping with the character, though it seems a rather fine drawn condition.

The award for the most comic costume was with universal approval awarded to Mrs. Harley Waity who appeared as a great white rooster. The conception of the character was striking and the working out of the costume both highly ingenious and highly artistic. Mrs. Waity also designed several other characters and costumes, all of which were among the striking ones there.

The gentlemen's prize for the most comic character was fitly awarded to W. Chillingworth, as "Skidoo-22." He appeared in a kimono with a mask that presented a tremendous sized head with a bland, inoffensive face.

For originality of costume the prize was awarded to Mrs. W. W. Harris who appeared as a beautifully gotten up Columbia with a costume made entirely of long strands of sisal. Even the heraldic devices she carried were of sisal, though the liberty cap she wore was not.

Harry Davison took off the part of a hobo. His makeup was exceptionally good and he defied recognition even by closest friends. He wore a battered derby hat and the remnants of a dress coat. His trousers were out at the knees and were several inches too short. His shoes were worthy of the most hard up of hobos. Mr. Davison put considerable acting into his part and his greeting of the Queen was most comical. In his hand he carried a battered suitcase which he opened from time to time to see if his cooking utensils were still intact. He obtained first prize for the best sustained character by a gentleman.

The gentlemen's prize for the most original character was awarded to Harry Simpson who appeared as a bottle of champagne.

Among other beautiful or effective costumes worn was a butterfly make-up by Mrs. Hough. The foundation color was a soft brown and on this was wrought combination and figures of color and outline and proportion of wings that was most artistic.

Mrs. William Montrose Graham was beautifully gowned as "Morning," a star on her forehead giving vigor to the personation.

Miss Constance Restarick was striking as Cleopatra, the salmon pinks and blue greens in her costume blending beautifully.

Miss Edmunds was cleverly gotten up as a Spanish peasant.

Miss Molly Grace was a charming and effective milkmaid.

George Angus hid his identity under the stripes of a convict suit. S. H. Derby as a policeman wore the benign aspect and the whiskers of Judge Dole, and though he made no arrests he handed out cards of suggestion as to how to treat the police in order to get favors.

Six very satanic looking individuals who kept together and added color and life to the throng were Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. Hattie Scott, Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. J. S. Walker, Mrs. George Potter and Miss Scott. They wore red costumes asimps with horns and pitchforks.

There was a bright boy of school girls, with slates and candy and chewing gum which included Mrs. E. A. Douthitt, and the Misses Dee.

E. A. Douthitt appeared as Peter Pan.

Spencer Bickerton dressed to represent George Washington and the impersonation was very good. Dressed in lavender clothes cut in the style prevalent in Washington's time, with his powdered wig he looked much as a gentleman of that time suddenly stepping into present life. He sustained his part well.

Harry Wilder was dressed as a cowboy and he added a taste of the wild west to the scene. His leather chaps, his gloves and his big sombrero became him well and set off his large figure to perfection.

Mrs. Samuel Johnson made a fitting mate for Mr. Wilder, being dressed as a maiden of the prairies. Her cowboy hat, her riding whip, leather leggings and leather riding skirt gave her an air of the west and caused her to be admired wherever she went in the ball room.

C. A. Brown wore the uniform of a court officer of King Kalakaua. His uniform was a more elaborate one and was not lacking in a single detail. Upon his breast were four orders and upon his shoulders huge gold epaulettes. He sustained his part well carrying himself throughout the evening in the most courtly manner.

Sam Walker as Charles II was a great success. Dressed in knee trousers of black velvet and with a cloak cut according to the time of Charles II, trimmed with red velvet, he made a handsome appearance. His sword assisted materially in helping him look the part. His air was most courtly and his elaborate courtesy was manifest when ever he greeted a lady. He acted the part most successfully.

Dr. Fitzgerald was a success in dressing to represent an Indian Sikh. He was completely in white from his turban to his shoes. He even had his face whitened to more successfully carry out his part. Upon the front of his turban was a huge clasp of ivory such as Indian Sikhs wear and this gave a touch of distinction to his costume.

Mrs. James A. Wilder wore a striking and novel costume. She represented Black and White. One half of her costume was entirely white and the other entirely black. The color line extended from tip of her hat to her feet, even her hair being white on one side of her head and black on the other. She attracted much attention during the evening.

Miss Schaefer as Carmen excited the admiration of all wherever she appeared in the ballroom or upon the lanais of the hotel. Her costume was elaborate and was most tasteful. She also was clever in carrying out her character. As a foil to her character and costume she was accompanied by a distinguished Toreador.

Miss Muriel Campbell in a costume of white made a most charming appearance. She wore a large hat trimmed with white ostrich feathers and had her hair powdered so as to carry out the idea of appearing entirely in white. She was well disguised.

Mrs. Fanny Moir as a Puritan maiden was becomingly gowned and sustained her character very well.

Miss Agnes Buchanan represented a fencing girl and bore herself very well.

Let Us Have Law Not Caprice

The proposal to give any official, or any official board, discretion to grant or refuse liquor licenses is a most mischievous one.

The people through their representatives in the legislature should determine the personal qualifications required in those asking for a license and the conditions under which it shall be granted.

Let the legislature say what classes of men may be granted licenses, eliminating all who have been convicted of crime, or of violation of the conditions of previous licenses, or who may otherwise be disapproved of for moral or economical reasons.

The law ought to be so certain that the question of whether a license should be granted to any particular applicant or not should be one purely of fact.

White House Intimations

There has been a disposition in Hawaii to privately accept, but publicly deny the reports of Japanese preparedness in these islands to take advantage of conditions should war arise between Japan and the United States.

The Los Angeles Times in some of its utterances on the subject may be taken as typical. The Los Angeles Times is a staunch supporter of the administration.

The practical conclusion of these reflections certainly would be that the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippines, and the Pacific Coast cities cannot be put into a state of defense a moment too soon.

Allowing for some undoubted exaggerations even of matters discovered and published here, this important fact remains, that the Los Angeles Times, the most influential paper in Southern California, and one that stands in peculiarly harmonious relations with the administration, declares positively that intimations have been given purposely from the White House confirming in general all that has been said of Japanese preparedness in these islands for eventualities.

TERRITORY WON BIG APPEAL TODAY

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINED RECENT DECISION OF JUDGE HARDY IN MAKEE CO. TAXES.

The Territory won quite a big suit in the Supreme Court this morning. It was in the case of an appeal by the Makee Sugar Co. from a decision against it for taxes given by Judge Hardy on Kauai. The suit was brought by J. K. Farley, as tax assessor and collector, to recover about $7000 taxes from the Makee company. The appeal was argued on February 11 and decided two days later. The opinion is written by Justice Wilder and was concurred in by the others, the opinion which is as follows:

"This suit is a suit to foreclose a tax lien pursuant to section 1366, T. L., as amended by Act 89 of the Laws of 1905. The hearing was had on December 1, 1906, at the conclusion of which the circuit judge found in favor of the plaintiff. On December 14, 1906, the circuit judge filed what was called a 'judgment' reciting the proceedings, finding a certain sum to be due by defendant to plaintiff, and adjudging and decreeing that the plaintiff recover that sum from and adjudging and decreeing that the plaintiff recover that sum from defendant with costs. On December 18, 1906, the circuit judge filed as of December 1, 1906, a 'supplemental decree,' which recited the prior findings in more detail, declared a lien on the property of defendant against which the taxes were assessed, and decreed the sale of the property through a commissioner as in ordinary foreclosure proceedings. On December 19, 1906, the defendant, apparently without knowledge of the entry of a decree on the day before, appealed to this court from the judgment of December 14 above referred to.

"The judgment of December 14 may be treated as an order making certain findings prior to the entry of a final decree or as a part of the final (although erroneously headed supplemental) decree filed December 18 as of December 1, in either of which cases the appeal will have to be dismissed, in the first case because without consent of the circuit judge one cannot appeal from a decree which is not final (see R. L. Sec. 1359 and note), and in the second case because one cannot select a part of a decree and appeal from that part alone. The fact that defendant had no knowledge at the time of filing his appeal that the final decree had been entered is immaterial. "Appeal dismissed."

M. F. Prosser, Deputy Attorney General, appeared for plaintiff.

R. W. Breckons for defendant.

CHINESE ATHLETES SHOW PROWNESS ON FIELD AND TRACK

FIELD MEET YESTERDAY WAS A GRAND SUCCESS—EN SUE DID GREAT WORK.

Urged on in their efforts by the cheering of hundreds of their fellow countrymen the Chinese athletes of Honolulu yesterday demonstrated their prowess on the track and field. And their prowess there is not to be despised, some very creditable records being made yesterday at the field meet held under the auspices of the Chinese Athletic Club, at the Boys' Field.

The day was all that could be desired. The sun shone for the most part bright and clear, occasionally being obscured by drifting clouds which tempered its heat. A light breeze was blowing, not enough to hinder the athletes in their runs, but enough to bring them speedy relief after the exertions of a long run or difficult track event. The only thing in connection with the weather which could be complained of was the condition of the field. Recent rains were still in evidence underfoot and much inconvenience was experienced by spectators who chose to witness the events from the field instead of from the grand stand. With this one exception however there was absolutely nothing which marred the pleasure of the day.

Early yesterday afternoon Chinese, old, middle aged, and young, began to gather at the field and soon the grand stand, which was beautifully decorated with palms and flags, was crowded to overflowing. There was some delay in getting the events started but once set going, the ball rolling merrily along until the finish of the day's events.

Charles P. En Sue captured five first places for himself yesterday winning twenty-five points for the Chinese Athletic Club against the other Chinese Clubs entered which were the Alliance and Mu Hock. En Sue was in exceptionally fine form and balked at nothing. The events in which he took first place were the 50 yard dash, the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, the broad jump and the 120 yard hurdles (Cov). These are the only events he entered with the exception of the relay race which his team won.

Mon Yin was another athlete who did some splendid work. This young man is but little over four feet in height yet he made the larger boys work to beat him out. In the first heat of the fifty yard dash he won first place with the time of 5 4-5 sec. This was the time made by En Sue in the final heat. A bad start caused Mon Yin to fall to equal his first effort. In the 100 yard dash Mon Yin got third place after being set back two yards for false starts. He did some tall running also in the relay race and it was due to his work in the relay team that his team won. He took about four feet as a start in his division of the half mile and held it against his competitor until the point.

Lo On and John Lo are two other boys who are well up in athletics. Their abilities are great and they made good showing yesterday.

An account of the meet would not be complete without a mention of Aloy Soong. This youthful straggle was into everything and made much fun for the crowd. His efforts in the mile walk were strenuous but to no avail. His finish was remarkable for the form he displayed. Aloy is a great little bunch of enthusiasm and he is worth a whole rooting section of ordinary people when a team needs cheering. Aloy did not win any event yesterday—he entered nearly all of them—but he has great hopes of getting third place in the mile walk in next year's meet.

The prizes were distributed by Madame Cheung Tso Fan, Mrs. A. K. F. Yap, and Miss Mabel Kau. They fulfilled their duties to the satisfaction of all.

Rev. E. H. Turner as started was a great success. The time keepers R. Clarke and Mr. Jeffries, did good work.

Other officials did their work in a manner which caused not a single kick to be registered during the entire meet. The Chinese Consul, Ching Tso Fan, honored the games with his presence. He exhibited the greatest interest in matters pertaining to the meet and his enthusiasm was unbounded. His presence greatly encouraged the boys who arranged the meet.

The winners of each event were: 100 yards dash—1st, Charles P. En Sue; 2nd, Hang Cheuk; 3rd, Mon Yin. Time 11 1-5 sec.

High Jump—1st, Lo On; 2nd, N. Y. Ching; 3rd, John Lo. 5 feet.

One mile run—1st, C. Wah Kai; 2nd, Won Sui; 3rd, Loo Yip. Time, 5 min., 32 3-5 sec.

50 yards dash, first heat—1st, Mon Yin; 2nd John Lo; 3rd John Woo. Time 5 4-5 sec.

50 yards dash, second heat—1st, C. P. En Sue; 2nd, En Pul; 3rd, Chang Yen. Time 5 4-5 sec.

50 yards dash, final heat—1st, En Sue; 2nd En Pul. Times 5 3-5 sec.

Tired Nervous Women Make Unhappy Homes

MRS. NELLIE MAKHAM MRS. GEO. A. JAMES

A nervous irritable woman, often on the verge of hysterics, is a source of misery to everyone who comes under her influence, and unhappy and miserable herself.

Such women not only drive husbands from home but are wholly unfit to govern children.

The ills of women act like a fire brand upon the nerves, consequently seven-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, the "blues", sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some organic derangement.

Do you experience fits of depression with restless alternating with extreme irritability? Do you suffer from pains in the abdominal region, backache, bearing-down pains, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, and almost continually cross and snappy? If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous troubles of women than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Nellie Makham, of 151 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I was a wreck from nervous prostration.

I suffered so I did not care what became of me, and my family despaired of my recovery. Physicians failed to help me. I was urged to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I want to tell you that it has entirely cured me. I think it is the finest medicine on earth and I am recommending it to all my friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Geo. A. James, a life long resident of Fredonia, N. Y., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I was in a terribly run down condition and had nervous prostration caused by female trouble, in fact I had not been well since my children were born. This condition worked on my nerves and I was irritable and miserable. I had tried many remedies without getting much help but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me back to health and strength. It has also carried me safely through the Change of Life. I cannot too strongly recommend your medicine."

Mrs. Pinkham's invitation to Women: Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to communicate promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

TALKED ON THE SUBJECT OF PRAYER

REV. JOHNSTON DELIVERED A MOST INTERESTING ADDRESS LAST NIGHT.

Rev. Dr. Johnston delivered a very successful address last night at Central Union church on the subject of "Intercessory Prayer." Prior to the address Rev. Edwards of the Christian church read the fifteenth chapter of St. John. After a brief prayer Miss Gomerod of Maui sang "Thou Art Our Father."

During the course of his address, Dr. Johnston said:

"The great problem in the psychology of prayer is, What about the power of the man to give the Holy Spirit? Note the picture of the man who does not intend to bend for this intercessory prayer. Jesus shows how this man overcomes his will in the contrary."

"Ask and it shall be given unto you, seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you." But what can be the lesson. Surely it can only be this: the man keeps on asking until he receives; he seeks until he finds; he knocks until it is opened unto him.

"I illustrated last night that it was just what they did at Barnabae's school. They proposed to pray until they received and they received it—they always do."

"Paul says, 'We do not know how to pray as we ought.' We surely thought Paul knew how to pray. But he himself says that he did not know how to pray 'as he ought.' But the spirit maketh intercession for us, 'Christ ever liveth to make intercession for us with groanings.' Intercession can not be obtained otherwise. Paul knew it, and he wrote of what he had experienced."

WEEKLY WEATHER BULLETIN

For the Week ending February 11, 1924. HONOLULU, T. H., FEB. 11, 1924. GENERAL SUMMARY.

The southern minimum was reported from Kapaemahu. On Kapaemahu the total amount for the week ranged from 1.28 to 5.28 inches; from 1.28 to 2.58 inches on Maui; 1.28 to 6.28 inches on Oahu; 2.93 to 2.93 on Molokai and 2.93 inch to 1.43 inches on Kauai. Currents similar to the section reported less than 100 feet of rainfall in the 72 hours for the week.

At stations having a record of ten or more years the rainfall was above the average for the week at all stations on Hawaii, except at several in the Hilo district; at 10 on Oahu and in 10 a Konamohaka of Maui. to 2.41 inches. The greatest deficiency occurred from -1.42 to -2.41 inches and was reported from the Hilo and Waikua districts of Oahu. The monthly rainfall figures for the Kona district of Hawaii, and from Kapaemahu, are:

The monthly temperature for the week was higher than during last week at all stations in the section, excepting one in the Kona district of Hawaii—the difference ranging generally from 1.0 to 2.0 F.

The following table shows the weekly average of temperature and rainfall for the corresponding periods and for the group:

Station	Temperature, Fahrenheit	Rainfall, Inches

Maui	71.2 deg.	2.74 in.

The prevailing wind direction was S, with an average hourly velocity of 1.4 miles; mean relative humidity, 72.8 per cent; average cloudiness 2.0ths and the total rainfall 4.77 inches, 1.37 above the normal for the week, and 2.37 above that during the preceding week, on the 1st, 4.25 inches of rain occurred.

BACKACHE.

Delicate women who are nervous, suffer from backache, bearing-down and periodical pains take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and find in them a pleasant and sure relief. They cure by their soothing influence upon the nervous system. They do not affect the bowels in the slightest degree, and are perfectly harmless. 25 doses, 25c. Never sold in bulk.

After hearing some men talk you are surprised at the small hats they wear.

THE INTELLIGENT MIND.

Whenever we go to buying the big bargains we have the idea of the largest and best quality of the goods, and the quality of the goods is the first thing we look for. We do not buy the goods until we are sure that we are getting the best quality of the goods at the lowest price.

Who can say that either of us did not know where to buy, and did not buy a good?

We do not wish the lowest price, and it is not our duty to pay with the little life and energy and fight to keep the price as low as possible.

These mysterious things make us think in our human brain.

Note: "How do you know it was the same quality?" Because they were not another anywhere about our sitting; and it was the same size and age! Only a minute older, time of 1000 years!

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST CONSUMPTION.

It should be born in mind that consumption is a germ disease. It is not caused by a cold but as a rule starts with a cold. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germ of that disease which otherwise would not have found lodgment. Give every cold you take the attention it deserves and you will be much less liable to contract consumption. This is especially true when you associate with any one who has that disease. To cure a cold use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

Shirtwaists

PRICIAL DRESS No. 1

Most nice shirtwaists made in this country are the ones made with long sleeves. It is just in fact a tendency with progressive prices that these shirtwaists were so attractive.

Very often the waist is returned not properly stretched and the line is torn and folded over at the edges and all folded dices with starch. This makes a beautiful hand-stitched waist look like an old city vest stock waist.

The Hawaiian Steam Laundry employs Hawaiian women to starch and iron all shirtwaists by hand. These girls do nothing else. We see to it that they do them the way you want them.

Our prices for shirtwaists are from $1.50 to $2.00 each.

WHAT PETERS HAS TO SAY

ATTORNEY GENERAL STATES HIS POSITION RELATIVE TO THE SUPREME COURT.

Attorney General Peters says that he regrets that the Lanai deal was put through so rapidly.
 "I regret exceedingly" said the Attorney General "in view of the statements by the Supreme Court this morning that the Lanai deal was put through in the way it was. I regret that we did not await the filing of the decree but after consultation with the members of my department I thought that we were acting perfectly within our rights in the matter and I so advised the land commissioner.
 "But as the Supreme Court has held otherwise I am exceedingly sorry that the thing occurred. There was no injunction upon my part to show any disrespect to the honorable court or in any way to disregard its rights. Their opinion stated that the bill in equity brought by Mr. McCandless, was dismissed. The injunction had been based upon this bill. With the bill dismissed I did not see how the injunction could still be in force and I supposed that it had no existence with the original bill dismissed."

TRYING TO WORK UP DAMAGE SUIT

Complaint has been received by the Detective bureau from Pearl City to the effect that danger lights placed on the government road, where the O. R.
 & L. Co's pipe line crosses it, have been removed on several occasions at night, and last night one was found smashed.
 It seems that some person has a grudge against the railroad, according to the wording of the complaint, and is looking for a damage suit against the line.

 district court, in his case against the Kaluku Plantation Company, Ltd.
 The Hawaiian Trust Company Ltd., has filed notice that it will petition for an order, to compel the executors of the will of George Galbraith to render an account. The matter will be presented February 15.

MOUNTED POLICE TO WATCH VEHICLES

Mounted Patrolmen will be sent out tomorrow to observe the manner in which the law of the right of road is observed, the Sheriff, as stated yesterday, having made up his mind to enforce the rule that requires vehicles to keep to the right of thoroughfares.
 "This applies just as much to automobiles as to other rigs," said the Sheriff this morning; "indeed the autos are the ones most to be looked after, many of them evidently being run with the idea that they own the whole road, risking life and limb. There are cases, of course, where the roads are so bad on one side that all traffic has to confine itself to the other side."

TO AVERT YELLOW FEVER

 should that disease appear. I therefore presume to make the following suggestions which are to apply to all ports of entry within the territory.
 First: That these cities or towns be divided into suitable small districts.
 Second: That every part of such districts and the buildings thereon be closely inspected and a record be made of any existing or possible breeding places for mosquitoes or places in any way dangerous to public health.
 Third: That a memorandum be made of all measures and means necessary to be put into force in each district in case of an emergency.
 Fourth: That all necessary means be secured and stored ready for immediate action should occasion require.
