The Honorable Shunichi Kimura
Chairman, County of Hawaii
Hawaii County Building
Hilo, Hawaii

Dear Mr. Chairman:

I regret my inability to join you and the people of the Island of Hawaii on this landmark occasion of the dedication of the new County building.

The County of Hawaii can be justifiably proud of its beautiful edifice which will be the focal point of the social and economic development of the island. I note also that the surrounding Kaiko'o area is on its way to being the hub of governmental and commercial activity. It is a model development for all other counties in the State of Hawaii to admire and emulate. It is a testament to what good administration and government can do for the socio-economic progress and well-being of its people.

Congratulations and best wishes to you and the people of Hawaii.

Warmest aloha.

Sincerely,

DANIEL K. INOUE
United States Senator
