OUR "JACK" IS TO REPRESENT THE BOARD OF IMMIGRATION ABROAD—A THOUSAND FAMILIES OF PORTUGUESE FROM THE AZORES ARE EXPECTED TO BE SECURED WITHIN A VERY SHORT TIME—PLANTERS MEET AND ACT.

At a meeting of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association held this morning in the headquarters at the Judd Building, it was decided to take steps immediately for bringing one thousand families of Portuguese to Hawaii from the Azores. The one thousand families will include with the women and chil-

PLANTERS MAKE OFFER PUBLIC

THE PLAN BY WHICH THEY HOPE TO GET PORTUGUESE COMMUNICATED TO THE BOARD OF IMMIGRATION—SECRETARY ATKINSON MAY BE SENT TO EUROPE IF THE GOVERNOR CONSENT—OTHER OFFERS FILED FOR IMMIGRANTS.

A special meeting of the Territorial Board of Immigration was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Merchant street rooms for the purpose of receiving the news of the intentions of the Planters' Association regarding the importation of Portuguese, which is referred to in another column.

There were present Commissioners Carden, in the chair, Craig, Cooke and Secretary Crabbe.

Cooke plunged into the middle of things by reading the following resolution which he said, had been passed by the Planters today:

"Resolved: That we hereby favor the importation of 1000 agricultural Portuguese families, not to exceed 5000 people, from the Azores or Madeira islands at the earliest possible moment and that we are prepared to contribute to the Board of Immigration sufficient funds for carrying out this immigration."

"We thought it best to give this information of the action of the Planters to the public at once," said Cooke. "The labor committee of the Board can now get to work and prepare a letter to the Planters explaining exactly what the opinion of the Board is as to what should be offered the prospective immigrants, the pay, the question of labor, of land, and so on and the Planters can then reply to this letter."

"As to the question of a man to send away to Europe, we are at present up against it. Wodehouse was suggested but he explains that he cannot possibly go. Secretary Atkinson has been suggested and in my belief if he can get away he would be an excellent man. The matter rests of course with the Governor as to whether he could spare Atkinson. I do not see that he would have to resign the secretaryship to accept the mission but that is for the Governor to say and a committee has been appointed to wait on him regarding the matter.

"The man who is sent will need two assistants: One a member of the Portuguese community here of first class standing who can explain to the people the exact condition of affairs and the other a person of good business ability who will stay in the Azores or elsewhere and see that the people are properly shipped. All emigrants would have to be examined as to their strength, health and fitness."

"The man we send would proceed to the Azores and Madeira to see if the number of families can be obtained and then after ascertaining, go to London to make arrangements for a ship. The people should be brought here through Mexico, not through the United States."

At Carden's suggestion Cooke said that Italians might be included in the Planters' resolution in case sufficient labor could not be secured from among the Portuguese.

Craig insisted that the Planters' propositions should be of the cast iron style as he would not be a party to any scheme by which immigrants could be hoodwinked. He also stated that he had received a letter from a man who had a friend in the Azores who wished to undertake the shipping of people here.

Secretary Crabbe reported that a man named Bray would call on the Board to state that he could get 1000 families of Norwegians and Swedes from Washington, Oregon and Nevada to come here as they had been driven from railroad work by the influx of Japanese.

The meeting adjourned after it had been agreed that the labor committee should communicate its views to the Planters.

Garter's Views On Loan Items

EXPRESSIONS OF HIS OPINIONS AS CONTAINED IN HIS REPLIES TO PETITIONERS.

Governor Carter this morning gave out the "petitions" which are referred to in the McCandless protest against the $750,000 loan, as urging him to spend the appropriations as made. Aside from the correspondence with the Hilo Board of Trade, which has already been published, the most interesting part of the documents are Carter's replies to the petitioners in which he sets forth reasons for his policy and tells what he intends to do.

There were two petitions from Maui, one headed by C. Copp and signed by 25 persons and the other bearing 50 signatures, with the name of H. P.

THE END NEAR

The evidence in the Takada murder trial, which is in the middle of its fourth week, is drawing to a close this afternoon. The direct examination of the defendant was closed today and this afternoon Deputy Attorney General Fleming is finishing the cross-examination. Takada shows a fairly clear recollection of what took place up to within a short time of the stabbing of Fujita, but he fails to recollect any stabbing and says he does not know what took place. The case is likely to go to the jury tomorrow.

PATRIA SOCIETY CELEBRATES WELL

CAPTAIN BERGER GIVES HIS IMPRESSIONS OF THE BIG PORTUGUESE HOLIDAY.

Weeks and even months preparation were made by the newly formed Portuguese society Patria, to celebrate this December 1, Portuguese Independence Day. Hand work for the big Bazaar, were numerous and the recitation and singing by the children showed they were well drilled by the new lady teacher from Portugal. Musicians were pressed into service, and Captain Berger wrote and arranged new patriotic airs for the celebration.

Every Portuguese of Honolulu and vicinity was there on the eve of that day and as it was Thanksgiving Day the attendance was larger than ever. In the evening the grand bazaar opened with beautiful gifts and prizes and at 7 to 9 the Hawaiian band gave a patriotic concert at the grounds of the Lanihana hall, which were beautifully decorated and lighted. Then came the big ball in the hall, which was attended by an enormous crowd of dancers. Friday morning, the real day with bombs in the morning and in the afternoon another patriotic concert by the Hawaiian band at the grounds, with speeches; appropriate for the day.

Friday evening came the climax, at the literary and musical exercises. The hall was filled early and there was an immense throng outside on the veranda and grounds. Mr. Durao opened the meeting and then came the Consul General for Portugal, Mr. Canavarrro, who took the audience by storm, with his patriotic sentences. About thirty Portuguese girls and boys entered marching to the tune of the Portuguese hymn and sang a beautiful chorus "Patria" accompanied by the orchestra. There were dialogues and recitations by the girls and boys, other choruses, and address by a stranger, a Portuguese traveller, who eulogized the Portuguese nation and Consul Canavarrro. A typical Portuguese melody and dance, sung by eight young Portuguese ladies in costumes followed. The hall was cleared, and there was a dance for everybody. Outside was going on the auction of the remains of the bazaar for the benefit of the Portuguese Benevolent Society.

At midnight, everything was pau and the merry crowd went home, and so ended the first celebration of the new Portuguese society "Patria." CAPT. H. BERGER.

FORTIFY HAWAII

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 5.—The President's message was read in Congress today. In dealing with the Territory of Hawaii the message urges that immediate steps be taken for the fortification of the Territory, for it is hard to overestimate the strategic importance of Hawaii and the need for proper fortifications.

TERRITORY TOO HEAVILY TAXED

The Territory, the message says, is too heavily taxed and Congress should enact laws setting aside a period, say of twenty years, during which time 75 per cent of the internal revenue, and customs receipts of Hawaii should be spread in a fund for education, for construction of public buildings, and the development of the military and naval defenses of the islands.

MUST DEVELOP ON AMERICAN LINES

It must be the aim to develop the Territory upon American lines and no laws should be permitted admitting Chinese of the servile class to the Islands. Nor can the admission to Hawaii of a class of immigrants, denied admission to other states and territories be conceded.

STABLE CITIZENSHIP TO BE MAINTAINED

Hawaii shall never, the message continues, become a territory in which the governing class shall be a set of rich planters who exist by means of coolie labor. Hawaii must have the same basis of stable citizenship that is maintained on the American continent.

TO REGULATE INTER-STATE BUSINESS

In dealing with other public matters, the message favors national regulation of all inter-state business and the modification of the Philippine tariff. Drastic measures against corrupt insurance methods are urged. The regulation of railroad rates is also urged. No immediate change in the general revenue laws is recommended by the message.

ORANGES WHICH HARBORED PESTS

PROFESSOR CRAW FOUND THAT THE RECENT IMPORTATIONS FROM JAPAN WERE DANGEROUS

Superintendent Craw of the Department of Entomology and Chief Inspector of the Board of Agriculture and Forestry more than justified his seizure of oranges imported by certain Japanese on the S. S. Doric. Acting under power of the injunction which was granted last Friday prohibiting Deputy Sheriff Kalakela or the importers from interfering, Prof. Craw and his assistant Jacob Kotinsky commenced a thorough inspection of the fruit with the result that it was found to be absolutely alive with pests. Over two thousand boxes, containing about 113,000 oranges, were taken to the crematory at Iwilei and there burned.

In his report to the Board made yesterday Prof. Craw says:

"There were 2362 boxes, or equivalent packages of oranges containing an average of 50 oranges to the box, or approximately 113,100 oranges in the total lot examined.

"I examined boxes taken at random from each of the eight brands, examining every orange in each box selected for examination.

"On oranges from packages branded (S. B. F.) I found six varieties of scale insects, red spider and two fungus growths.

"On oranges from packages branded (K. L.) I found four species of scale insect and one fungus.

"On oranges from packages branded (Y. O.) I found five species of scale insects, one fungus growth one insect nearly related to the Leaf Hopper.

"On oranges from packages branded (K. O.) I found six species of scale insects, and one species of fungus growth.

"On oranges from packages branded (K. S. K.) I found eight species of scale insects, red spider, two species of fungus growth and one species of fly larvae.

"On oranges from packages branded (K.) I found five species of scale insects and one species of fungus growth.

"On oranges from packages branded (L. K.) I found four species of scale insects and one species of fungus growth.

"There are still 120 packages branded (K.) which are still in the possession of the Custom House authorities and have not therefore been inspected.

"The following are the names of the insects and fungi found on the oranges in question, viz:

1. Scale insects, Chionaspis citri.
 2. Scale insects, Aspidiotus albipunctatus.
 3. Scale insects, Lepidosaphes gloverii.
 4. Scale insects, Parlatoria proteus.
 5. Scale insects, Parlatoria pergandei.

6. Scale insects, Dactylopius sp.
 7. Scale insects, Aspidiotus duplex.
 8. Scale insects, Parlatoria pergandei.
 9. Scale insects, Lepidosaphes pallida.

1. Fungus, Cladosporium citri.
 2. Fungus, black sin speck.
 3. Miscellaneous, red spider, Tetranychus.
 2. Miscellaneous, Psyllid nearly related to leaf hopper.

"Each and every one of the insects and fungi above enumerated, with the possible exception of the fly larvae, as to the species of which I am not quite certain, are insects and fungi injurious to vegetation more particularly fruit trees, bushes and vines.

"It would be impossible to disinfect the oranges in question by any means at my disposal with any certainty of destruction of all of the insects and diseases above enumerated.

"I am of opinion that there would be the greatest danger to the vegetation, more particularly the fruit industry of this Territory, to attempt the importation of his lot of fruit or any part thereof and that its exportation or total destruction is the only way in which the danger therefrom can be obviated.

"I offered the importers the opportunity to re-export the fruit which they declined."

It was sent back by the President, with the above notice that Carter's comment was invited, and that McCandless had been notified of the action taken. It bore the signatures of Senators McCandless, and Lane and Representatives Kalelopu, Mahelona and Long. The grounds of the protest, briefly set

"First. Such bond issue, in the amount and for the purposes for which it is proposed, has never received legislative consideration or approval.

"Fourth. This bond issue in the amount and for the purposes proposed, does not meet the approval of the people of the Territory, as voiced through the public newspapers of the Territory, and as indicated in petitions and communications addressed to the Governor."

Steamer Mauna Loa Arrives This Morning From Her Run to Hawaii and Maui Ports.

Kona and Kau have had no rain the last week. The steamer Mauna Loa arrived this morning from her run to Hawaii and Maui ports, with news of the weather conditions on the Big Island. The weather has been very pleasant throughout the week's trip and the sea was very smooth. In consequence there was no difficulty experienced in loading a full cargo, the vessel bringing a larger assortment of stuff than usual from Hawaii. Her principal cargo consisted of 2,163 bags of sugar and 984 bags of coffee.

Four cane cars got loose last Friday at Pahala and nearly dashed down on to the wharf. The runaway cars, loaded with cane, were seen in time for the switch to be thrown and divert them into the bank. Nobody was injured.

Purser Friel reports that the volcano was still smoking. The Mauna Loa brought a small crowd of passengers. Among them was Captain Niblack, the assistant to the lighthouse inspector, who has been on an official tour of inspection of the lighthouse system of Hawaii.

MARVELOUS AND INGENIOUS USE MADE OF A REMARKABLE VARIETY OF SUGAR BEET.

The following which almost equals some of the Mauna Loa stories in ingeniousness is from the American Sugar Industry.

"Barstyk Vashdyke of New Prague, Minn. has been giving people of that section of the country some astounding manifestations of the wonderful power of growth possessed by his new variety of sugar beets which he raises from seed sent to him by relatives in some part of Poland. They are of stupendous size and grow to their great proportions with a rapidity unequalled by anything in the line of vegetables ever seen anywhere around here.

"Their average length is seven feet and their thickness about seven inches, so that every beet makes a good back load for a man to carry. He sells them here as they are sold in Poland, at so much per cord, in the same manner that cordwood is sold, and they make a very profitable article of agriculture. The principal difficulty with raising sugar beets is the vast amount of weeding the common sorts require, it being necessary to have a great number of persons employed to pluck out the weeds with their fingers, but with the large kind no such tedious personal labor is required at all. The beets spring up above the ground so quickly after planting that they outstrip the weeds and stand up high enough to be cultivated by horsepower machinery before the weeds get a sufficient start to need attention, and after that plow and cultivators keep them in perfect growing condition.

"This kind of beet is the result of many years of the most careful study and experiment, and the crowning beauty of it is that it shrinks slightly in size when it reaches maturity and is ready to pull, and thereby becomes loosened in the hole in which it grew, and can be taken out merely by lifting it up without digging whatever. If it did not possess this characteristic it would be very difficult to harvest, for it grows straight down into the ground four feet, and it would be a very difficult task to dig out such a long, tender root without cutting it, and without expending more labor on it than it would be worth when dug.

"Mr. Vashdyke has made use of this property of the beets in a very shrewd and profitable way, for he hires them out to his neighbors who intend to build fences to dig post holes for them.

"In the spring time persons who intend fencing the land during the year, employ Mr. Vashdyke to plant beets for them, one at every place where a post is to be set, and in the fall, when the beets are ripe, leaving a deep, wide posthole behind them, secured without any labor at all."

A GREAT SUCCESS.

HOLIDAY GOODS COMING IN FAST

MANCHURIA BROUGHT STUFF FROM ORIENT LAST WEEK—KOREA MORE NEXT WEEK.

The bulk of the Oriental Christmas goods arrived by the S. S. Manchuria last week. The vessel brought a larger amount of curios, silk goods and other stuff for the holiday trade, than is usual. The S. S. Korea due here December 11, will bring the last batch of Oriental goods. The stuff received by her can be delivered about December 20 to the consignees.

Many of the local stores have received some of their holiday goods from the mainland but the S. S. Alameda, due next Friday, will undoubtedly bring a large consignment of stuff for Christmas presents.

Britain's New Ministry

The Right Honorable Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, who was summoned by King Edward yesterday to form a cabinet, has a long handle to his name. He was created a G. C. B. in 1895 and he is as well a Privy Councillor, a Master of Arts, a Doctor of Laws, a Deputy Lieutenant of his county, a Justice of the Peace and he has represented Stirling in the House of Commons ever since 1868. He was born in 1836 being the youngest son of the late Sir James Campbell of Forfarshire. He assumed the additional name of Bannerman under the will of a maternal uncle to whose estate he succeeded. In 1860 he married the daughter of General Sir Charles Bruce. He was educated at Glasgow and Cambridge Universities.

He was Financial Secretary to the War Office, 1871-4, and 1880-2; Secretary to the Admiralty 1882-4; Chief Secretary for Ireland 1884-5, and Secretary of State for War 1886, 1892-5. He has been the leader of the British Liberal party in the House of Commons since February, 1899, succeeding Lord Roseberry.

If Campbell-Bannerman succeeds in forming a government it will be the first Liberal government for ten years, and there has been none of any permanence since Gladstone retired from the guidance of affairs. Lord Roseberry was the last head of a liberal government. But it was a short-lived one.

It is difficult at this distance to see what elements Campbell-Bannerman can weld together to form a ministry that will have the support of the House of Commons. If he is not able to form a government having that support, it is probable he will recommend the dissolution of Parliament and an appeal to the country through a general election.

If, as is stated by the cable, the new cabinet includes Morley, Asquith, Elgin, and Gray, it will contain men for whom, in America great consideration is felt. The Earl of Elgin is the grandson of that Lord Elgin who when Ambassador to Turkey collected the Elgin marbles. He was born in Monklands near Montreal. His father was Viceroy of India, and he himself has been Viceroy, preceding Lord Curzon. Morley is perhaps the best known in America, through his literary work which ranks high.

The M'Candless Protest

President Roosevelt has approved the bond issue of $750,000 recommended by Governor Carter, and the measure only awaits the approval of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw to make everything ready for the issuance and sale of the bonds and the expenditure of the money on such projects as the Governor shall decide on. It is to be expected that the approval of Secretary Shaw will be forthcoming.

The protest signed by Senator McCandless and other members of the Hawaiian legislature has not had the effect of preventing the Presidential approval of the Governor's plan. So far as the present is concerned, the Governor carries his point.

Nevertheless, Senator McCandless and those who joined with him in the protest, have a right to feel that they have performed an important public duty. As they point out in the protest it is a matter of small importance whether $750,000 or $1,377,000 is borrowed and expended, as compared with the importance of the principle of the right of the people to direct their own financial affairs through their legislature. As the protest makes clear, the action of the Governor and its approval by the President, unless some other means shall be found to test and rectify the matter, forever robs the people of this Territory of the right or ability to secure any public improvement, no matter how urgent or how much desired, against the whim or caprice of whoever may be the Governor for the time being. The legislature may provide the money and vote it. The Governor may sign the bill approving the expenditure. And then in wantonness or spite, from interested motives or from mere caprice, may give the legislature and the people the merry ha! ha! and refuse to spend the money or provide the desired public improvement, under the precedent now set. The Governor cannot spend money for unauthorized projects; but he can refuse to spend it for projects which the people through their legislature have directed it to be spent for.

A dangerous precedent has been set. But Senator McCandless and those who joined with him have clearly pointed out the danger both to the Governor and to the people. It is not yet too late for the Governor to reconsider whether he wants to take the responsibility of so dangerous a step or not.

The Kealia Lands And Molokans

It is to be hoped that the Russian colony, with which negotiations are now pending for settlement at Kealia, Kauai, are now in progress, will be secured. It will be a decisive step in the direction of settling the Territory with a white population living on and tilling the soil. These people are not coming here—if they come—to make a fortune and leave, nor to send away the money they earn to be spent in a foreign country. They are coming here to found and perpetuate homes. They will come to make this Territory their permanent abiding place, to find here opportunity in the cultivation of the soil to lead the upright, the industrious and the frugal life, and to rear their families according to their deeply religious ideas.

There is no case of land grabbers nor land speculators. Homes are the primal and the principal thing they seek. No conditions of residence and cultivation are too arduous for them to undertake. The only difficulty in the way of securing them seems to be the price at which the land can be given them. Under the law it must be appraised, and at the appraised value and no other, can it be given them. The question is can the appraised valuation be brought within the limits they are willing to pay and at the same time be a full compliance with the law? The value of land here as elsewhere depends on what can be done with it. If any land is sold outright, without conditions, so that the purchaser is free to do with it as he will, to hold it for speculation, to hold it as a non-resident, to treat it as he will, it will bring a higher price than if conditions are imposed as to the use it shall be put to, the requirements of occupation and cultivation, and the final tenure. In the one case the purchaser acquires the utmost potential value of the land, and pays nothing else for it but his money. But if conditions of residence and cultivation are imposed, the purchase does not at once acquire the fullest possible value of the land. Besides his money he must yet give something else. Under the settlement association law not only must the individual give his time and labor in addition to his money, but he must give himself. The community of which he is a part must give itself. If the settlement association is carried out in its spirit, the money paid for the land is the smallest part of the consideration. The country gets what is more valuable than money—citizens tilling the soil, creating wealth, homes, and the framework and the bulwark of the state.

These things must be taken into consideration in appraising the land for purposes of sale to those who will make homes on it. In dealing with these Molokans the appraisement must not be of the value of the land without conditions, but of the value of the land limited by conditions, and the value of those conditions and what they will bring, to the state.

"DONT REMEMBER," SAYS TAKADA

THE ALLEGED MURDERER TELLS HIS STORY ON THE WITNESS STAND IN JUDGE LINDSAY'S COURT—SAYS HE DOES NOT KNOW WHETHER HE STABBED FUGITA OR NOT—DRAMATIC CLOSING OF A LONG TRIAL.

"I don't remember," was Takada's reply on the witness stand this morning, to the question put by his counsel, Judge Perry. "State whether or not you used a knife on him?" (referring to Takada's alleged victim). Takada described a struggle with Fujita and then said that he was drunk and hurt and afraid and become so excited that he does not know what happened.

Using Interpreter Negoro as a model, Takada gave the jury an illustration of the tussle. For about ten minutes he stood in the middle of the courtroom, with Negoro holding his hair and his breast, in the way in which Takada said Fujita held him. Fujita shook him violently, causing great pain where his hair was held. "He said he didn't care if half a dozen men like me came after him," said Takada, "and I shouted to him five or six times to let go."

Judge Perry asked what occurred next.

"I was drunk. I had been drinking

"I don't know what he did or whether he let me go or not."
"Do you remember what you did?"
"When he let me go I don't know how I went home, whether I walked or ran."
"State whether or not you used a knife on him?"
"I don't remember."
"It may be that you did?"
"I don't remember?"
Under further questioning Takada denied that he had come up behind Fujita and stabbed him several times, as stated by other witnesses. He denied that he ever had any intention to kill or injure Fujita, declared he had never had a grudge against Fujita.

Pure blood makes the skin clear, smooth, healthy.

Impure blood blotches the skin with pimples, sores, boils, eczema, eruptions. Mr. G. W. Burtner, Kesletown, Va., tells of the bad condition he was in, and how he was cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Shortly after leaving college, I was troubled with a skin disease which showed itself first at the ankles. Physicians pronounced it eczema, and treated me for that complaint. The eruption crept slowly up my limbs, and on the body, until it enveloped the whole frame. It gave me infinite trouble, with constant itching, casting off of dry scales, and a watery liquid which would exude from under the scales. I treated it for over three years unsuccessfully, and was unable to check it until I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I used three bottles of this medicine, and was completely cured—my skin becoming as smooth and clear as before."

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "AYER'S." Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Sometimes a man pretends to be fooled for the purpose of fooling others. It is seldom necessary to use a microscope in order to see both virtues and vices in your acquaintances.

Flattery never deceives any but those who are anxious to be deceived. Woman's love for dry goods has broken up almost as many happy homes as man's love for wet goods.

FOREIGN NEWS BY CABLE

DE WITTE AND THE CZAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 5.—The city is quiet but the tension is extreme. The strike of telegraph and postal employes is complete. Premier De Witte believes the Czar could restore order by granting universal suffrage. He holds that ready-made constitutions are unsuccessful as are ready-made dictatorships. The striking telegraph operators demand as a condition of resuming work the dismissal of the Minister of the Interior. Conditions in the interior of Russia are growing worse.

It is believed that Bannerman will secure the adhesion of the nationalists. There is talk of an alliance with the Irish and the Labor elements, the combined vote of which is 120.

A WOMAN'S NATURE.

Professor D. P. Cropp of the University of Colorado has invented a machine that increases the height from one to five inches and the chest girth from one to four inches.

"It is amazing," said Professor Cropp the other day, "what an interest people take in any change in their physique—the gain of an inch around the chest or forearm, the loss of an inch in the neck or stomach."

"I know a fat woman who spent July at the seashore, taking an ocean bath and a hot bath daily, so as to reduce her weight."

"The day she was to leave for home she entered a butcher shop and told the old man to cut her off twenty pounds of pork."

"He cut and weighed this great chunk of meat and then said: 'Where, madam, shall I send it?'"

"But the woman, as she feasted her eyes on the pork, replied: 'Oh, don't send it anywhere. I don't want to buy it. You see, I have lost twenty pounds since I have been down here, and I just wanted to see how much it was.'"—Philadelphia Enquirer.

TRENT LIKES THE DECISION

COUNTY TREASURER IS GLAD THAT QUESTION OF BLANKET WARRANTS IS SETTLED.

"I have not yet read the complete decision as rendered by the Supreme Court in the matter of the blanket warrants," said County Treasurer Trent this afternoon, "but I have read the newspaper accounts of it which I have no doubt are correct."

"I have no complaint to make over the decision—quite the contrary in fact for it relieves my office of much work—but I am very glad that the question is finally settled by the highest authority. Supervisor Adams, who fought the thing through, feels the same way. I will not have any sleepless nights thinking that perhaps I might have paid out money which some day my bondsmen would have to make good. The decision is perfectly satisfactory to me."

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

For the Week Ending December 2, 1905.
Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau, Honolulu, T. H., December 4, 1905.
GENERAL SUMMARY.

While rather heavy showers occurred early in the week in windward and southern Hawaii, windward Maui and windward Kauai, the latter portion of the week was marked by settled weather and conditions generally favorable for agricultural interests in nearly all sections of the group, although rather cool nights were generally reported. The advent of drier weather in windward districts has permitted the resumption in force of weeding and cultivation, and, young cane is generally reported as in good condition and making fair growth for this season of the year. Cane in the Kau district of Hawaii has been greatly benefited by the recent rains in that section, but its condition would now be materially improved by more sunshine. 1906 cane is maturing rapidly, and grinding has begun at Puunene, Maui. Plantations in Kauai and central Maui report a satisfactory supply of water for irrigation purposes. Young pineapple plants are in good condition, and the winter crop is now ripening in all sections. Rice in the Hanalei district of Kauai, which was damaged by recent high winds and heavy rains, is now being harvested; the injury is not so great as was previously reported. Coffee picking continues in all sections, and is about completed in portions of Kona, Hawaii, where a fair crop has been secured. Pastures generally are in good condition except in leeward Maui and the lower levels of Kona, Hawaii. A sharp earthquake shock was felt at Kealahou, Hawaii, at 7:50 a. m. of November 27th.

FOOLS NEARLY CAUSE TRAGEDY

CLIMB UPON ROOF OF LAUNCH CABIN, ROCK BOAT AND IT CAPSIZES IN THE SLOUGH.

SAN JOSE, November 11.—The gasoline launch Garden City, George Wade in charge, capsized on the bay near Alviso this afternoon and fourteen persons who were passengers had a narrow escape from drowning. Only the presence near by of Captain W. K. Bennett in a sloop-rigged yawl, prevented a tragedy.
The party was made up of Thomas Stevens, George Nichols, George and Edward Prince, the latter a small boy; Joseph and Henry Mashada of San Francisco, Thomas Solari of this city, John McLeod of Oakland and five men from Milpitas whose names were not learned. Wade's launch was hired by the men to carry them to the ducking grounds. On the return trip three of the Milpitas men, who were under the influence of liquor, climbed on the cabin roof of the boat and began rocking the craft. They were ordered to stop but refused, and within a moment the boat was overturned and the whole crowd thrown into the water. A number of them could not swim and were in great danger.
Thomas Solari got George Prince on his back and held the little boy with one hand and tried to swim ashore. He was taken from the water by Captain Bennett, who was near by and who went to the rescue of the others, most of whom were clinging to the overturned launch. Solari also rescued McLeod, diving for him as he was sinking for the last time.

NATURALLY.

The guide, who was taking a party of American excursionists through the Holy Land, called a halt.
"Here," he said, "is the place where Lot's wife looked back and was turned into a pillar of salt."
"I don't see no evidences of her," objected the tall, slender Missourian with the chin beard looking around searchingly.
"The gentleman will remember," rejoined the guide, "that the incident took place thousands of years ago, and there have been many hard rainstorms since then."—Chicago Tribune.

Miss Elderleigh—When he proposed I kept him in suspense all of ten minutes.
Miss Youngblood—Pshaw! And after his keeping you in suspense all these years?

GAS RANGE COOKING...

How to be Economical
"Be thoughtful. There are so many little ways of saving gas, and just as many ways to waste it. Follow these three simple rules, which cover almost the entire question of economy:

1. Never light the gas until everything is ready.
2. Never use a stronger flame than is necessary.
3. Turn out the gas the instant cooking is finished.

No orders have been received at the Naval Station regarding the transportation of the party of marines to Midway to relieve the men who are now on duty at that place.

Captain Lyon is holding the Iroquois on waiting orders. The vessel can hardly accommodate twenty-one passengers, but by leaving as many of the extra men of the crew as possible behind and filling their places with the marines, it is likely that the Iroquois can be got to take the large crowd to Midway all right. Orders for her to depart to that place may be received at any time from the Navy Department.

Campbell Gives Time For Kicks

TREASURER WILL ADVERTISE ALL APPLICATIONS FOR LIQUOR LICENSES, INVITING PROTESTS.

Treasurer Campbell is advertising an application for a fifth class liquor license by G. Masuda, at Honokawai, district of Lahaina, Maui, announcing that protests to be made against the issuance of such licenses must be in his office by Saturday, December 16, 1906. This is in accordance with a policy the treasurer had decided to adopt of advertising all such applications, so that there may be opportunity for protest.

Under the new law, the treasurer has no option to refuse liquor licenses to qualified applicants who comply with the terms of the law, unless there be a protest, in which case he may refuse, and the applicant may call for a board of arbitration. Under this system there has been a very great increase in the number of licenses of all classes, in all parts of the islands.

"I shall advertise all the applications," said Treasurer Campbell this morning, "so that anyone who wants to protest may do so. The advertisement will be in Honolulu and probably in the district from which the application comes, and it will set a time within which all who wish to protest will have a chance to do so."

THE NEW BONDS.
No arrangements have been made yet for the sale of the new bond issue of $750,000. Local capitalists will be given a chance to bid.

IWILEI POTS AND KETTLES.

The bunch of harpies were in the police court this morning to answer to charges of profanity. Some were fined $2.50 and costs and others $5 and costs. Jennie and Leon charged with selling liquor without a license, were cleared this afternoon.

INSPECTED LIGHTHOUSE SYSTEM

CAPT. NIBLACK RETURNED THIS MORNING FROM AN OFFICIAL VISIT TO THE BIG ISLAND—DROVE 190 MILES.

Captain A. P. Niblack, the assistant to the lighthouse inspector for this district, returned this morning by the steamer Mauna Loa from an official inspection of the lighthouse system on the island of Hawaii. He left for Hawaii by the Kinau last Tuesday and was absent, therefore, one week.

He left the Kinau at Mahukona and drove clear around the island by way of Hamakua and Hilo to Hookena, a distance of 190 miles, where he took the steamer Mauna Loa and returned to this place.

The material for the new lighthouse at Fisherman's Point on Hawaii had been landed and the lighthouse was in the course of construction when the Mauna Loa passed that place. The material for the other lighthouse will be shipped to Hawaii by the next steamer.

Captain Niblack will not make any recommendations for the present for any new lights on the island of Hawaii.

Many Saw An Uncanny Sight

CROWDS VISITED TRANSPORT LOGAN THIS MORNING TO SEE THE FILIPINO DWARFS—BAND PLAYED.

The departure of the transport Logan today was attended with more curiosity than that of any vessel that has left Honolulu in years. The cause of the interest was the presence of the two Filipino dwarfs. The little creatures attracted a large crowd of people to the Naval wharf and for several hours preceding the departure of the vessel there was a constant stream of visitors to the vessel to view the mites. That a pleasant sight was witnessed when the pair was seen is untrue. There is something uncanny about those midgets, and it was a morbid curiosity that impelled people to gaze for any length at them. The disproportioned bodies, the large heads, the little old weezened up faces made a human tragedy. They looked as grotesque as a gargoyle, and seemed as sickening as some horrible fantasy of nature.

But still the crowds went to the transport and looked at the two midgets of nature. A large number of women visited the boat to see the dwarfs. But in addition to those who went to see the dwarfs, there were many others who went to the vessel to see friends aboard the craft. Captain Berger and the band gave a concert aboard the vessel during the morning. The Logan got away promptly at 11 o'clock this morning for Guam, and
