THIS DAY'S DOINGS.

MORNING. Meeting Stock Exchange, at 11. EVENING. Harmony Lodge, I.O.O.F., 7:30. Algaroba Lodge, I.O.G.T., 7:30.

THE ONLY ANSWER.

Manager DAILY BULLETIN.—Sir: Please discontinue our advertisements in your paper and oblige Yours Respectfully, H. HACKFELD & Co. Honolulu, Sept. 15th, 1883.

The above is the only communication we have received in reply to our last remarks, relative to the proposed five dollar payment.

ROUGH WRITING.

We believe in honest, outspoken, fearless journalism, and advocate candid, straight-forward, impartial criticism of the public acts and motives of public officers. All free, honorable, educated, and intelligent men believe in this style of journalism and approve this method of criticism. But no man with the breeding and instinct of a gentleman would ever countenance the unbridled blackguardism and vulgar scurrility of some modern so-called exponents of public opinion. It must be confessed that this pernicious class of newspaper literature was long almost unknown in Honolulu, but the last two or three years past have produced a signal and hurtful change. At the present time it would be difficult to find newspapers in any part of the world more fluent in the use of pot-house slang and more fertile in tap-room epithets than some Honolulu journals. For the latest, brightest, and greatest specimen of this kind of journalism see a recent issue of The Saturday Press: It was never excelled by the San Francisco Chronicle in its worst days. "Government mule, unscotched viper, branded scawag, brigand of journalism," etc, are familiar and pleasant terms to the mouths and ears of low-bred people, but men of culture and women of refinement shudder at their sight and sound with instinctive horror. Again in the Advertiser speaking of the Gazette we see "despicable system of chicanery," "glaring prevarications," "baffled, blundering and malicious contemporary," its rancor utters anything that satiates its disappointed lust for place.

TRADE UNION.

A meeting of the Trade Union was held at the Hawaiian Hotel Saturday night, Mr. Goldsmith was in the chair and explained the objects of the Union.

About thirty five members signed the roll. Mr. Charles Carson of the Advertiser acted as secretary assisted by Mr. C. Cavenagh. Mr. Godfrey could not accept as he had not signed the roll. Considerable discussion ensued over the election of a committee to draw a constitution and by-laws, but finally Messrs. Goldsmith, Carson, Cavenagh, Z. Y. Squires, Wallace, Burns and Reed were elected. Mr. Carson said they were all brothers in a good cause and should be friendly without disagreement. Mr. Murray objected to Mr. Burns being on the committee as he was a boss.

Mr. Carson moved that they should vote by affirmation to save time. Mr. Carson moved that one man should be elected at a time, and said that some of them had republican sentiments.

Mr. Carson said, when some members showed a disinclination to be appointed on the committee, that having signed the roll they must not refuse, but there was nothing compulsory in the brotherhood. Mr. Cuthbert moved that the Committee have power to appoint their own chairman and secretary. Mr. Murray told him that every Committee had power to do so. Messrs. Murray, Buckley and Cuthbert were appointed a Committee to arrange a time and place for a future meeting, after Messrs. Carson and Goldsmith were objected to because they were on another Committee. Mr. Kohn refused to take office and Mr. J. Jordan couldn't because he had not signed the roll.

Mr. Carson promised to give notice, through the papers, when the next meeting would be held and also undertook to notify the Committee when they would be required to meet. A vote of thanks to the chairman closed the business.

THE OTHER ISLANDS.

From Our Own Correspondents.

WAILUKE.

A big reform is needed here in our police matters. A man named Lucas was fined for being drunk in a public place (a butcher's store); Dr. Enders, Mr. Armstrong, Mr. F. W. Hardy, and the Messrs. von Tempsky, swore that the man was sober, but the word of some natives was taken against them all. It is a well known fact that one native policeman, John Kini, gets intoxicated, and that, upon recovering from one of his sprees, he arrested and dragged to the Station House a Japanese who had, unfortunately for himself, not recovered from his inebriation. We wish the Marshal would make some inquiries into the condition of our local police matters.

PAHALA.

Heavy rains fell here on Sunday night August 26th, and on the Monday 27th, it was general throughout the district, it was badly wanted and everybody is jubilant, the cane has improved much and its appearance indicates a good crop in the future.

Mrs. C. N. Arnold and Mr. and Mrs. Coan of Hilo arrived here on Monday evening on their return from a trip round the island, they started for Hilo Tuesday morning.

The mill is still engaged in grinding the burnt cane, the weather has been favorable, so the cane has not soured quickly as it would have done under less favorable circumstances, hence a heavy loss is not expected.

Several visitors for the volcano arrived by the Iwalani on Thursday, this is becoming quite a favorite route for Kilauea.

MAUI.

Thomas Shaw, engineer at the Waikapu mill on Maui had his leg broken last week. He with some other men was slinging a smoke stack when it swung out; Shaw jumped backwards out of the way but unfortunately jumped into a pit that had been dug for the boilers and his leg doubled under him. The doctor says that four inches of the bone is pulverized and that the leg must be taken off at the knee.

NORTH KOHALA, HAWAII.

Mr. Frank Spencer of Waimea had a horse stolen a few weeks ago. The thief who sold it in Hamakua has since been arrested and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment.

A quantity of liquor has been seized by the police in North Kohala, but, as they had no secure place in which to keep it, six cases have been stolen.

In North Kohala a policeman went with a warrant to arrest a Chinaman named Aku who presented a pistol and threatened to kill him having previously discharged some of the barrels at other men. Aku was charged with assault with a deadly weapon, no use was made of the evidence of the men he had threatened, and as through the carelessness of some person, Aku was charged under the wrong section of the Penal Code he was discharged.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Correspondence is solicited on the topics of the day, or what may become so. We reserve the right to excise purely personal matter. We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.—Ed.

Mr. Editor:—Please allow me a little of your valuable space to present one argument in favor of the use of tobacco. So much has been said on the opposite side of the question of late that I think a few words in favor of the manly habit will not be out of place.

A short time ago it was my privilege to travel on a small steamer with a number of gentlemen who occupied the windward side of the vessel, and drove dull care away by inhaling (and exhaling) the fumes of the fragrant weed. Now if I had been trained up properly, I could have joined them in their filthy luxury, but as it was I had to suffer for my bad breeding. A lady passenger also seemed not to enjoy the various odors with which the air was freighted, because she had not learned to smoke.

In view of such occurrences, and such are by no means rare, is it not plain that the young of both sexes should be trained in the art of making chimneys of their noses?

The mechanism worked well and the entertainment was much better than the first one, deserving a much larger audience than was present.
