OUR LADY OF ROSARY.

GRAND FESTIVAL GIVEN AT KUAU CATHOLIC MISSION.

IMMENSE CROWDS ATTEND.

Nearly 100 First Communicants
Generous Hospitality of Paia
Portuguese.

The Church of Our Blessed Lady of Rosary at Kuau, Paia, was the scene of very beautiful and impressive ceremonies on last Sunday, that occasion being the anniversary of the Feast of the Rosary.

Special trains were run from all points on the K. R. R. Co.'s line, including Kihai, to Paia, and an immense congregation, principally of Portuguese, assembled to attend the services and take part in the procession in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary. The services began at 8:30
a. m., with Holy Mass by Rev.
Father Charles, followed by a special sermon in Portuguese addressed to the children who were about to celebrate their first Holy Communion.
Ninety five children of whom forty were boys and fifty five were girls were participants. At the conclusion of these services, the children were ushered two long tables spread in the church yard with a bountiful feast of delicious food, supplemented by ten gallons of milk through the thoughtfulness and generosity of Hon. H. P. Baldwin, music for the intermission being furnished by the Wailuku Brass Band which had kindly volunteered its services for the day.

At 11 o'clock High Mass was celebrated by Father Justin, who delivered an eloquent sermon in Portuguese, the topic being Our Blessed Lady of the Rosary, the sermon contrasting her divine attributes and her helpful personal attributes.

It was 12:30 p. m. when the services
closed, and the immense and hungry audience gathered about the church yard. They did not remain hungry long however, for the over generous members of the congregation had prepared substantial food enough for everyone, and immense trays of bread,
meat, cakes and fruit were distributed until everyone was more than satisfied, with plenty left. Two immense barrels of iced lemonade were served with the food.

At two o'clock everything was in readiness for the procession in honor of Our Lady of the Rosary, which slowly emerged from the church and wound its way across the grassy lawn to the sea beach not far distant. The young communicants marched at the head of the processions followed by an "army with banners" of the lady members of the church, and they by many other who joined the procession,
while here and there holy images were borne on the shoulders of the devout men of the congregation.
The procession was some two hundred yards in length, and presented an imposing appearance.

On reaching the sea beach the Miserere was sung and prayers offered for those who have lost their lives at sea, and devotions were renewed to our Lady of the Rosary.
The procession then returned to the church and the congregation
was dismissed from a day of thoroughly enjoyable devotion.

A picture of the young communicants was taken between services in the morning, the boys arrayed in neat black coats and white trousers,
with a white badge about the left arm, and the little girls all in white and adorned with long graceful veils,
making a beautiful and touching picture of our future American citizens and their wives, when a few more years have opened them into men
and women.

There were a number of prominent people from central Maui present and the generous courtesy and hospitality which they experienced at the hands of the Portuguese citizens of Paia, Makawao and Hamakuapoko
will not be soon forgotten.

Kuau Church was founded eighteen years ago, and has been in charge of Father Charles, a devout and energetic priest, since last November.

It was formerly in charge of Father James, who was at much expense in decorating and furnishing the church and altar, over $6000 having been spent for the latter purpose. It is to be exceedingly regretted that much of the costly, imported wood used for the altar has been seriously ravaged by Island insects, from whose depredations it seems impossible to protect them.

The festivities of the day in connection with the procession, although given at the church, and under the auspices of the Mission were really given by the prominent Portuguese
citizens of Paia, Hamakuapoko, Makawao and Puunene. Two committees on preparations and reception,
one from Hamakuapoko, consisting of A. M. Seipeira, J. Souza, J. N.
Seipeira and J. J. Mattos, and one from Paia, consisting of N. Nunes, John Medeiros, M. S. Deponde, Capellas and John Sousa, were appointed to arrange for the day, and it was to their zeal and energy, as well as to the generous and liberal donations
by the up country Portuguese citizens that the affair proved to complete a success.

Sanitation on Maui.

L. E. Pinkham, president of the Board of Health, arrived on the S. S.
Claudine Wednesday morning on a tour of inspection as to the sanitary conditions of the various islands.

During the forenoon he visited various points making a most thorough investigation of conditions, as they exist and the proper remedies necessary to improve them.

President Pinkham will take in not only all hospitals, public and private, but will look into the sanitary conditions of the various towns and plantations.

Mr. Pinkham will remain on Maui
until the arrival of the Kinau next Tuesday when he will continue on to Hawaii.

This is his first visit to Maui as an official of Territory and naturally he wished to thoroughly acquaint himself with the local conditions thus being better able to cope with any questions, relative to Maui, which might come up before the Board.

In speaking of the settlement and the applications of the nominees on the various tickets, to be permitted to visit and speak to the people, Mr.
Pinkham said that he felt fully justified in refusing to grant the permission asked for and had done so in-respective of any politics.

To those of the candidates who applied personally for the necessary permit he courteously explained his position and remarked that one and all had as fast as the matter was thoroughly looked into acquiesced.

STONE MASONS PAU.

Seven stone masons quit work on the new school house last Thursday evening.

It was not a case of difference between the contractor Jordan and the masons, or a strike, but a case of completion of their part of the work.
One man will be kept on for a time
"cleaning up" and painting up the stone work.

A radical change in lighting, which will be a great improvement, will be made by taking out the cleats, technically known as Louvers in the six windows on both sides, substituting frames of glass hung either on hinges or a pivot, thus giving a better light without sacrificing ventilation.

Contractor Jordan, on being asked when he expected to have the building completed, would not state positively, but hoped that in another thirty days time it would be ready for acceptance by the Board of Education.

FELL FROM WAGON.

Iokua, a Hawaiian, suffered severe injury on Tuesday afternoon by falling from a wagon, the wheels of which ran over his left wrist and ankle lacerating the flesh and crushing the bones of his arm and leg.

He was driving a plantation wagon from Wailuku to Wahee, and when just beyond the big cut the accident happened. Another native took charge of the team, and Mr. Hugh Coke, who happened to be passing summoned assistance. The plantation office, the Sheriff's office and Mr. Frank Summerfield, head luna at Wahee, were notified by telephone, and assistance soon arrived.
The injured man was conveyed in a hack to the hospital where he is being treated his injuries.

AN AMENDED OFFER.

By Wednesday's steamer a letter
came from Honolulu to the Stars amending the conditions under which the Mailes will play the Star team.

The present proposition modifies
their first offer to the Stars of expenses to play one game to $150.00
for two games and the Stars pay their own expenses.

Such a liberal offer as this to the team which holds the best record of all the nine of the islands should be passed up by the Stars without further consideration.

If the Mailes mean business let them stick to their original offer at least.

FROGS FOR COAST

Honolulu Oct. 4.—The oil steamer Argyll when she sails tomorrow, will have the distinction of taking away
the first large shipment of Island frogs. She will carry no less than a hundred dozen fat, green, sweet-voiced batrachians who are destined to soothe the demands of mainland gourmands with their tender hind kickers. The frogs are held captive in two large crates the tops of which are furnished with wire netting.

Appreciative Words.

Kinney on Democracy

Mr. Kinney's great speech at the orphanage has reached us and we have carefully perused its contents.

That Kinney is a Democrat is true and that he is an idealist it is also true. His sentiments expressed therein express his high ideals and are not backed up by his party. While we will not agree with all his sentiments, and Mr. Kinney will kindly excuse us for that, yet some of his statements were just the policy of the Republican party. He says he is not seeking office for himself, but he does not go farther and state that none of his friends are after office. We have known Mr. Kinney from boyhood, and have always a high regard for him as a true friend of Hawaiians. He would not knowingly do anything to injure Hawaiians. There are many other island boys born here of foreign parents, who feel exactly as Mr. Kinney towards Hawaiians. Messrs. Dole, Garter, Baldwin, and a galaxy of other brilliant Republicans all have the same warm aloha for Hawaiians.

Governor Carter is taken to task for demanding undated resignation from district magistrates. There are two sides to this question, and its evil yet has to be proved. It was never intended, if done at all to coerce the magistrate to acquit all Republicans and fine all Democrats and Home Rulers.

That there must be a divergence of opinion on this matter we must expect. But the Governor's action will never lead the magistrates to commit corrupt judicial acts, but on the contrary it will tend to keep them in check.

"We claim that the present conditions in this Territory show that it is high time that the Democratic party took a leading part in local politics," says Kinney. This is an admission that the Democrats have been hibernating during the last four years, and never did anything for the country's good. The Democrats have been playing hide and seek in the ranks of Home Rulers during these long years because they realized their weakness. Weakness because it was never a party of the people. How can the Democratic party then at this late stage come out and acclaim themselves as the people's savior, having done nothing for the people whom they now profess to love and cherish.

If as Kinney claims that the Home Rule party has been an ignominious failure in the past as a political factor is not the same true of the Democratic party who were co-partners in misery? Whatever benefits Hawaii has reaped ever since annexation has been received through the Republican administration.

Kinney further says: "In the first place it (Democratic party) stands for no abridgement of the franchise and settling aside of the Hawaiian and is against any legislation looking to that end." This is Kinney's personal feelings and is not voiced by his party who averse to extension of franchise to those of the dark races. The Democrats opposed annexation because as Tillman (Democrat) of South Carolina said they did not want any more nigger votes. That is the national policy of the Democratic party in a nutshell. The Democratic National Convention did not have any colored people in their convention at the St. Louis convention in 1894. That body is the controlling Democratic power, and the wishes of the island democrats in favor of extending franchise to natives will never be permitted by the National Committee. It is true that Lauken and Lyons were at St. Louis but they were mistaken for pure whites.

Republicanism as Mr. Dowsett puts it.

"With the price of sugar at 4.25 and the Republican party in power what more can a citizen of Hawaii in his senses want? A person unacquainted with our conditions here might ask, what one of these conditions has to do with the other? I make the assertion that Republican rule the cause of our good price for sugar. All who know anything know that sugar is the backbone of the country, and that the sugar industry has been built up by the protection policy of the Republican party. Remove the tariff imposed by the Republicans in America and you reduce the price of sugar fully one-third. I ask you what will happen then?"

"There is no one in Hawaii who does not depend on sugar, and if the tariff were removed, our mills would be closed, our steamers would go out of commission, our factories would stop, and nothing but fish and poi would be left to us. Gentlemen, the prosperity of twenty-five years is the result of Republican laws.

"What would be the result if the Democrats were restored to power? In Parker's letter of acceptance, he advocates a revision of the tariff. In 1896 the Democrats denounced the tariff as the robbery of the many for the enrichment of the few. A Democratic election means the destruction of our industry and the impoverishment of the islands.

"The platform adopted at Hilo stands for one thing that vitally affects us all. Our candidates are pledged to carry it out. That one thing is county and municipal government for these islands; when we were annexed we became an integral part of the great states, and we knew that American institutions were bound to come. The greatest of these is county and municipal government. Local rule is something that must come before we can hope to have statehood.

"Now, gentlemen, on local matters, I urge you to stand solidly back of Kuhio. Though criticised for what he has not done, he has done hard and definite work in Congress. He needs another term to complete the work already under way. He must have the solid backing of the Republican party. He must have assistance from outside organizations. The citizens must work through the Delegate in Congress, then we will get what we want.

"Our ticket may not be entirely of experienced men. We are plain business men and expect to be able to grapple with some of the problems that arise. I feel sure that we have not a man on the ticket who is not worthy of your confidence. Remember that loyalty to party is better than loyalty to persons; loyalty to principle better than loyalty to opinions."

We are quoting the foregoing speech to emphasize the facts it contained and to bring home to the people of this island beyond cavil and doubt the fact that the prosperity of these islands is securely linked together with the protection given under a Republican tariff to the sugar industry. Without that protection the price of sugar would be fully one-third lower than what it is today.

To us here on Hawaii cheap sugar means industrial depression and hard times. And no true Hawaiian in his right senses would knowingly strike a blow at our main industry, and yet the man who votes against the Republican party is striking a blow at the solar plexus of our insular prosperity, is encouraging the enemy of republicanism to strike off law books those republican laws under which the prosperity of the nation for the past twenty-five years were achieved.

A Profane Jester.

The Home Rule Democrats held a meeting to a slim audience at Hana last Monday night. The meeting was held at the residence of Mr. Haiwale. Among the speakers were: J. L. Coke, J. E. Kekipi, George Kaui, G. P. Kaui-makaole, C. L. Kookoo, and W. White.

Mr. Coke was the first speaker and he roasted Kuhio for mistreating Keohokalole. He likewise told the natives that Kuhio did not deserve their votes because he was arrested in a saloon brawl for over indulgence. Mr. Coke begged the natives to vote for them because the poor should always help the poor, and that it was only the poor that would look after their kind. Poor Mr. Coke! Alas, he was too poor to go to St. Louis; but hush, we have never heard from Mr. Hearst yet. Oily Bill White was interpreter, and such a flow of gasoline oratory. Most of the audience were however at a safe distance,--they were outside the fence.

Mr. J. E. Kekipi, once a Honolulu hack driver, but now a self constituted pastor of the sect known as "Hoomana Naanao" of Pauwela proved that he was an infidel by telling the people that the officers of the Home Rule Party were: President Jehovah, Secretary Christ, Treasurer Holy Ghost.

Mr. Kekipi should have been jeered and hissed for using profanity, for if his remarks were not "exposing the triunity to contempt or ridicule," we don't know what ridicule is. There are some men among Home Rulers and Democrats whose sterling qualities we admire, but Kekipi is not one of them.

Our Candidates.

Hon. Philip Pali the popular republican nominee for the lower House from the ancient town of Lahaina, is a most popular candidate among the voters, and a reliable supporter of republican principles. As a stump speaker with the happy knack of saying the right thing at the right time he is winning votes for the party. Lahaina is justly proud of her favorite son, whose record and conduct is such that Lahaina Home Rulers have been persuaded to leave off groping after false leaders and follow a man of such sterling worth and unquestioned capacity as the Hon. Philip Pali.

Republican candidates are bright men of the right kind who deserve success at the polls. Geo. Copp, Makawao's favorite son, is one of the small farmer class, and a man whose word is as good as his bond. The republicans of his district made no mistake in inducing him to accept a nomination on the ticket. While not classed as an eloquent speaker his plain common sense talks are giving him a favorable reputation among the electorate of the third representative district which is helping the ticket along immensely.

Hon. Wm. P. Haia, who earned the sobriquet of "the watch dog of the house" during the last legislature is a man to whom the republicans of Hana justly point with pride, and winal a favorite with the Maui electors, as a strict party man with him republican principles are everything and economy in public expenditures is his watch word.

The republican candidate from the Molokai district, Moses K. Nakuina is a bright intelligent young man, whose experience in the various public offices which he has had the honor to fill will serve him in good stead in looking after the actual requirement of territorial department. As a favorite son of Molokai the election of Nakuina would be an honor to the land of precipices.

A most popular favorite son of Lahaina among all classes and parties irrespective of political affiliation is Mr. A. N. Haysolden, the West Maui candidate for the Senate. Even Lahaina Home Rulers will vote for him in spite of party oaths and the lash of Home Rule henchman.

A story is told that during the last county election a body of the rank and file of the unwashed at Lahaina waited on their Home Rule leaders and craved permission to vote for one nominee on the republican supervisor ticket which was refused as a matter of course. The disaffected men then set about to give their leaders a surprise party, but the leaders getting wind of the movement promptly called for another conference to ascertain who this one popular republican nominee might be and was told that the men wanted to vote for A. N. Haysolden. To forestall the threatened bolt the astute Home Rule leaders told the men that they themselves preferred to have two Lahaina men on the Board and had no objection to A. N. Haysolden, and advised the malcontents to scratch one of the numerous Wailuku men on the ticket, particularly Ben Lyons the Democrat, for the reason that Wailuku was having too much representation on the Home Rule supervisor ticket. The proposition was accepted and the men remained in line to support the rest of the ticket with their votes, and, with the intention of giving Wailuku a throw down, Lyons received the smallest vote of any Home Rule candidate from the bread fruit town.

Another young man with a good head for politics, and there are many of them on Maui, is Rev. Jno. Kalino of Paia. Beaten by rivals for political honors in political conventions and with a large following at his beck and call he has bided his time and consistently remained in the ranks as a faithful party man freely giving his services for the success of the party nominees. As a bright, active, intelligent republican the Rev. Jno. Kalino is a name to conjure with, and a tower of strength to the party. The nomination tendered to him almost unsought, was a fitting recognition of his faithfulness to the party in the past. It is an honor to have the privilege of voting for a man of such unquestioned integrity and sound republican principles.

Last, but not the least among the many, is the senatorial candidate from Central Maui. Having served his constituents faithfully and well in the lower House of the last legislature, the republicans of Maui feel that in nominating Hon. S. E. Kalama for the senate they are only giving him just recognition for his services to them.

The Hon. S. E. Kalama is well and favorably known to the voters of the second senatorial district and will surely get the solid republican vote and many complimentary votes from disaffected Home Rulers and Democrats alike.

Is He Crazy?

After the blasphemous utterance of one Rev. J. E. Kekipi, an alleged parson of the Hawaii Christian Wisdom faith made in a political speech at Hana it becomes our duty to ask that he be taken in hand by the local authorities and examined as to his mental condition, for surely no minister of the gospel in his right mind would knowingly proclaim in public such sacrilegious words as Rev. Kekipi has done. We ask this in the interest of public decency and public morality, and for the Territory excludes lunatics from the Legislature. We think that when a man who has been masquerading in the character of a minister of the gospel makes a public speech ridiculing his Maker and the holy trinity it is but charity to ascribe the cause of utterances entirely at variance with his professions to mental aberration produced by undue political excitement and perhaps the bad company he is in. But as the petition to have his name placed on the official ballot has already gone forward we are therefore constrained to ask the Secretary of the Territory to hold up said petition and to have Rev. J. E. Kekipi examined as to his sanity before the third representative district should suffer the humiliation of having Kekipi's name appear on the official ballot.

A religio politico crank of the Rev. J. E. Kekipi type is by no means a harmless person as it might appear to those who are unaware of the antecedents of this peculiar sect of faith healers. Rev. Kaona, one of the founders of the new faith to which the Rev. J. E. Kekipi belongs inaugurated a fanatical religio-politico crusade in Kona, Hawaii, during the year 1868 causing murder and violence to such an extent that troops and artillery were requisitioned from Honolulu for its suppression. It is within the range of human possibilities that Rev. J. E. Kekipi may be aspiring to acquire the notoriety of Rev. Kaona and mentally unbalanced, feels that he has but to proclaim some fanatical doctrine born of a disordered mind in order to get a seat in the Legislature, let alone what the consequences might be to his dupes.

Home Rule Harmony.

The Home Rulers have patched up their differences and are now out stumping East Maui in the interest of their party, if such an aggregat on may be dignified as a political party. Senatorial candidate Coke, C. L. Kookoo and J. E. Kekipi formed the first party Oily Bill White and Geo. Kaui following.

From the nature of the campaigners' canvas for votes it appears that Coke went ahead of his partner to do a little missionary work on the side for Laukea, the Democratic nominee for congress. White being a staunch Notley man, would not permit anything to be done in favor of Laukea if present. The report is that Honouaulea Home Rulers are willing to try Laukea much to the disgust of White who is laying all this change of heart among Home Rulers at the door of gentlemanly "Jimmie" Coke, the Democrat.

White is finding more work than he had bargained for in the effort to restore a nonentity like Notley to Home Rule affection. Though aware of the source of the Laukea influence White has nothing but praises for his political running mate in public, but, privately, in heart to heart talks with simon pure Home Rule, White's dictum is Vote for White never mind any haole partner, for he is a Democrat.

Col. Jno. Richardson, the democratic nominee for the house, being well aware of White's mischievous proclivities, has remained behind in order that he may have a chance to undo Mr. White's work. But the Colonel will find his Roland in D. H. Kahaulelio who has also stayed behind to accompany the next stumping party.

Genial W. J. Coelho returned to town last Saturday smiling and pleasant as ever. Billy is a sure winner for the votes are coming his Campaign Notes.

In contrast with republican money and united loyal support the rank and file for the Maui republican ticket is the conduct of goody goody stay at home so-called "better class" people of Hana who are now voicing their satisfaction over the Oahu republican ticket through the P. O. advertiser. If the so-called "better class" element had made themselves felt at the precinct printing some of the "good" men representing their wing of the party have gotten on the ticket in place of the ones they now decry. I believe nominations is the time for action; after nomination the same thing for republicans to do to support the party ticket.

We compliment candidate J. Shaw of the republican representative ticket of the Fifth District the display of good common sense he has shown in withdrawing the party ticket in the interest of harmony. A man of his standing among his neighbors who has an irreproachable life for the twenty years should not be taken and abused because of some indiscretion committed during his youth.

The way Democratic candidates are breaking away from the Democratic ticket in Honolulu in all sorts of pretexts and excuses to take the first opportunity seem to indicate the need of a political nurse for Democratic aspirants for legislative office, where they may be lured away from contaminating republican influences and fed on democratic principles from the little, and then nurse Kinney will sure that his charges won't gobble on him when they are needed the political stump.

Not a few of the staunchest Home Rule leaders of Waikapu who had followed J. Kahookole's action and have sworn their allegiance to Home Ruleism and all other Home Ruleism for ever. They are now fighting the good fight on the side of right Republicanism for even Straight forward republican talk by our party workers did the who's next?

The mule which that disciple Jeffersonian principles "Jimmie" Coke took along with him to see the useful purpose of burr bearer, and Democratic mascot his stumping tour showed a ke appreciation of the purity of Democratic principles and resented the humiliation of having to herd with such strange bed fellows as Koo et als when joined by the Home Rule aggregation of stump orators at Makena, Maui. Like Balaan ass, in a similar situation, he lashed and refused to go on, but being gifted with human speech was unable to inform his master the error of his ways in requiring intelligent Democratic mule to associate with a lot of Home Rulers.

Gentlemanly "Jimmie" Coke in due time, feel under obligation to his many friends, who will vote against his ambitious aspiration for the senatorial toga, for saving him from the humiliation of a political partnership with Oily Bill. Think of "Jimmie" Coke trying to talk democracy into the deaf ear of a republican sonate depending on Oily Bill, who is on the look out for graft, for help.

After the experience with the inefficient set of County officials elected by the Democratic Home Rulers last year the ardor for County Government on Maui has somewhat cooled, still Maui republicans are prepared to support the party platform on the subject of County Government. We have faith in the ability of our party leaders to frame a safe County law which will protect tax payers from the blunders of an inefficient County Administration.

LOCALS

Preserve your eyes by securing proper glasses from Sanford, the Honolulu optician.

Ring up the Bismark Stables, if you want the best rig, team and driver in Waialuku.

Continued dry weather on central Maui is interfering seriously with the planting of seed cane.

The Board of Registration closed their work today with a total registration of 2599 voters.

The police department deserve credit for the neat and clean appearance of our streets.

Quite a number of Honolulu traveling men are on Maui this week, and report business fairly good.

The News is issuing 1500 extra campaign sheets and will continue to do so through the campaign.

High class job work turned out promptly at the News Job Office. Ring up, call or send in your work.

The Ladies' Guild of Waialuku will meet at the residence of Mrs. G. B. Robertson on next Tuesday afternoon at the usual hour.

Ladies on Maui should write to E. W. Jordan & Co., Honolulu, for catalogues and samples of the famous McCall patterns.

Next Thursday evening is the regular meeting night of the Improvement Association, and a full attendance should be on hand.

A sisal plantation and a $10,000 sisal manufacturing plant in the Kula District is a strong probability in the reasonably near future.

The Republican Executive District Committee held a meeting at Waialuku on Monday, at which much important business was transacted.

There should be a public school established at or near Puunene, as there are many children there who should now be attending school.

What Waialuku needs now more than any thing else is an electric light plant. Such a proposition would pay here if rightly handled.

The tramp of the Alpine Club to Belle Falls planned for last Sunday morning was postponed on account of rain, but will occur shortly.

The October term of Circuit Court begins at Waialuku on next Wednesday, October 12, at 10 o'clock, with a long calendar to be disposed of.

Quite a number of Waialukans have purchased high priced gramophones, and the night air is resonant with strenuous if not melodious strains.

The republican candidates left for Molokai early on Monday morning and spent week there successfully, winning many votes and much aloha.

A handsome banner, containing a portrait of Delegate Kubio on either side, and also the names of the Republican legislative candidates, was hung across Market street last Monday.

The republican candidates are to be complimented on the clean, manly fight they are making, and if reports are true, they will win out on election day.

Now is a good time to begin to save money, and at glance at the ad. of the First National bank, in this issue, will furnish a valuable hint in that direction.

The citizens of Maui should make a concerted move in the direction of getting an official survey and plans for new macadamized roads through out the Islands.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor meet at Kaahumanu Church tomorrow evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. Mr. Frank Atherton will address the meeting.

Zamloch, the magician, has made a deserved hit in Waialuku, and will doubtless draw a big house at K. of P. Hall tonight, as this is his last entertainment at Waialuku during this trip.

The Waialuku Brass Band were in attendance at the church services and festival at the Paia Catholic Mission, last Sunday, and received many compliments for the high class music they furnished.

News is coming from all parts of this legislative district that prominent Hawaiians, who have heretofore voted the home rule ticket are coming out and declaring themselves in favor of the Republican platform candidates.

If you want the best smoking in town, you can get it by dropping in at the Maui Hotel Office.

Zamloch Entertains.

An enthusiastic audience greeted the return after eight years of Zamloch the wonder worker at K. of P. Hall last Thursday evening. The spectators were all attention long before the curtain went up; even a slight movement of the drop curtain, caused by a gust of wind, put every one on the quiver.

Zamloch has not paid one iota in the cleverness of his various tricks and has added many new ones. He held the attention of the spectators from the time the curtain went up until the final new sensation called Asa.

Some little timidity was shown by a few present, but the feeling gradually wore off, and they became as enthused as the rest.

Friday night a still larger and even more enthusiastic house witnessed Zamloch in an entire new change of program and his final act "A Visit to Inferno" is a very clever piece of work and is done with a finish and vim which only Zamloch can execute.

The program was augmented by selections on the piano between and during the acts by Bandmaster Shraeder.

Tonight is his last exhibition with still another change of program and an overflow house may be looked for. Seats are on sale at the Bank.

Monday and Tuesday nights Zamloch will show at Puunene, afterwards taking in other principal localities of Central Maui.

Zamloch and The Kahuluis.

The News has the pleasure of announcing that tomorrow afternoon at Wells Park will take place one of the most interesting games of base ball of the season.

Zamloch will play with the Kahuluis, against the Morning Stars aggregation.

This is not Zamloch pere, the wonder worker, but Zamloch the crack pitcher of the Elks ball team of Honolulu.

Thus will the sport loving public of Maui have the opportunity of seeing this crack player in a Kahului uniform.

The Stars are itching for a practice game before going to Honolulu the later part of this month, and it is just such material as Zamloch is capable of handing out that the Stars want to go up against to put them in the pink of condition if they wish to shut out the Mailes. Game will be called at 2.00 p. m. sharp.

LAHAINA LINES.

Zamloch, the magician, gave entertainments on Saturday and Monday evening.

The funeral of Beatrice Buchanan took place on Sunday afternoon at the Roman Catholic cemetery. She was 10 years of age.

Alice Oponui had her arm broken some days ago, while playing with a schoolmate.

Two boys were arrested for stealing last week, and one of them was sent to the Reform school for three years.

Miss A. Z. Hadley was entertained at Lahainaluna on Saturday last.

Mrs. Nicklas entertained several friends at the Pioneer Hotel on Sunday afternoon.

Lau Cheong, the Chinese artist, went over to Waialuku on Monday morning.

Dr. A. J. Derby, the Honolulu dentist, is at the Pioneer Hotel.

The bark Albert, Captain Turner in command arrived on Wednesday afternoon. The vessel brings 225,000 feet of lumber, consigned to the Lahaina store.

Mr. D. Taylor, Jr., is now teaching school at the northern end of the island.

The Spelldancers.

The republican nominees on both the Senatorial and Representative ticket held a rousing meeting at Lahaina Thursday evening to an enormous crowd. Fred Eckley who is running independent is following up the republican spelldancers and if reports received are true, he is popping. hat shot in the Home Rule camp.

SHIPPING NEWS

The S. S. Nevada from San Francisco via northern ports is due in Kahului next week.

The well known oil carrying steamer Argyll arrived from Kahului early this morning.

The arrival of the Argyll at this port was rather a surprise to waterfront people as she was expected to discharge her cargo at Kahului and Kihai. The steamship was, however, a victim of unforeseen circumstance which forced her to come to this port.

She discharged 6000 barrels of oil at Kahului Thursday and on Friday morning started for Kihai, for which port she had a large shipment of oil. The Argyll got her hose and pumps connected in good shape, but when the pumping started it was found that the hose could not stand the pressure and the task of transferring the oil to the shore tanks had to be given up.

The Argyll accordingly started back to Kahului, where she began pumping her cargo ashore. Yesterday morning the weather, which had been rough when the steamer arrived became worse and interfered with the work. Finally the spindle which is fixed on the reef to hold the hose in place was broken by the surf. This made it impossible for the Argyll to do any further work at Kahului.

She had on board about 12,000 barrels which she is now pumping into the tanks by railroad wharf. Advertiser.

The arrival of the bark Mohican, which is now out twenty days from San Francisco, is anxiously awaited by Kauai people, for there is famine in the land. The people have plenty to eat, however, for the famine is one of blasting powder. The big Miniditch which was recently completed is the cause of the shortage, for nearly all the powder in Honolulu was used in the blasting operations there. As soon as the Mohican arrives here the steamer Waiakale will make a special trip to Kauai ports to take the powder over. Several big blasting jobs are being held up on account of the lack of explosives.

San Diego, Sept. 19.—It is reported here that the Santa Fe is shortly to resume Oriental traffic through this port, putting a line of French steamers to ply between San Diego and Chinese ports. The report originated in Los Angeles.

The Santa Fe once attempted to run an Oriental line with San Diego as a Pacific Coast terminus, under the name of the California Oriental. This was discontinued about two years ago, as it was stated that the line did not pay.

Prof. Higgins sent a large shipment of alligator pears on the Mongolia to a member of the United States Agriculture Department in New York. This is in the nature of an experiment, and if successful, will open up a new field for the distribution of Hawaii's tree delicacy.
