

WHAT WILL THE LAWYERS DO TO-MORROW?

BAR ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT NOON TO CONSIDER THE MATTER OF RE-APPOINTMENT OF CIRCUIT JUDGE ROBINSON—WILL PROBABLY REPEAT THEIR ENDORSEMENT AND EXPRESS DISAPPROVAL OF THE GOVERNOR'S ACTION IN THE MATTER.

The Hawaiian Bar Association meets at noon tomorrow, to consider the matter of the reappointment of Circuit Judge Robinson. It appears to be the general impression that the members of the bar will repeat their endorsement of the judge, and it is also said to be very likely that there will be some expression on the subject of the governor's action in withdrawing his recommendation of Robinson at Washington.

of members, and this meeting is to be held tomorrow. It appears to be practically impossible to find anyone, whether in the Bar Association or out of it, who approves the action of the governor in the Robinson matter. Honolulu sentiment is practically unanimous among all classes. Among attorneys, even those who hold that Judge Robinson was indiscreet in the action complained of by Carter, take a firm stand that there was no indiscretion which was anything like a cause for the action of the governor.

NICK PETERSON TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE

SWALLOWED A BOTTLE OF CARBOLIC ACID THIS MORNING FOLLOWING A PROLONGED SPREE—IS TAKEN TO THE QUEEN'S HOSPITAL WHERE LITTLE HOPE OF HIS RECOVERY IS HELD OUT—HAS BEEN HERE THIRTY YEARS.

After a prolonged debauch, a debauch which has practically lasted for three months, Nick Peterson, the well known hackman, attempted suicide this morning and the probabilities are that before this is in type, his effort will have proved successful. Peterson while always a drinking man seemed to begin to lose his grip of himself about six months ago. He went on a number of periodic sprees but was able to do some little work. For three months this state of affairs kept up and then he quit work altogether. He has done practically nothing but drink and for some weeks he has been on the border line of delirium tremens.

drifted into the bar of the Honolulu Hotel on Nuuanu street. He asked for liquor but was refused so he went over to a chair and sat down. No particular notice was taken of the man until he suddenly screamed out in agony, stood up and then fell on the floor. A McDowell, proprietor of the hotel ran to his assistance and immediately saw the cause of the attack in an empty bottle, which had contained carbolic acid and was clenched in Peterson's hand. It was an ounce bottle and the man had apparently swallowed all of the contents. A hack was at once summoned and the poisoned man was driven to the back stand at the corner of Fort and King streets where he used to work and Manuel Reis took charge of him. He took him to the police station and thence to the Queen's Hospital. The usual antidotes were used and there is just a chance that the alcohol which Peterson has been imbibing so freely may counteract the effects of the acid. He was alive at noon but no great hope for his recovery was held out by the doctors.

Nothing more was heard of him until shortly before eleven o'clock when he

SERIOUS ACCIDENT NARROWLY AVERTED

DREDGER PACIFIC FAILED TO GIVE MONGOLIA PROPER AMOUNT OF SPACE TO PASS THIS MORNING—BIG STEAMER ALMOST RAMMED THE BARK KAULANI—HAD TO RISK STRIKING DREDGER WITH STARBOARD PROPELLER.

But for some very fine work on the part of Captain Lorenzen the local pilot, there would have been a costly accident this morning in the harbor. The big S. S. Mongolia came within an ace, in fact a hair's breadth with such a huge craft, of ramming the bark Kaulani. Had the steamer ever shoved her nose against the sailing craft like it seemed she was certain to do, thousands of dollars would have been required to repair the damage if indeed the Kaulani would not have

DO NOT WHISTLE JUST FOR FUN

FOUR BLASTS ARE REQUIRED TO GET THE DREDGING PEOPLE TO LOWER THEIR LINES.

"What are you steamer men making such horrible noises for these days?" was asked of Captain Parker of the S. S. Claudine this morning. The question was prompted by a series of discordant hoots which assailed the ear and which obviously came from the direction of the harbor. "You mustn't blame the steamship men," said the Ancient Mariner. "Put the blame on the dredging people. You see they have their lines out and when a vessel has to cross the dredger's lines must be stopped. It has been arranged that four whistles shall be given by any ship wishing to cross and that the dredger shall answer with four. That's what has caused all the extra whistling. See?"

DEFENSE OF SANTOS BEGUN

JUDGE ROBINSON DISALLOWS A QUESTION WHICH CREATED A TEMPORARY SENSATION.

"Do you know the difference between a spade and a club?" was the question upon which Attorney Hogan came to temporary grief in the Santos trial before Judge Robinson. The question came like a bolt from a clear sky during the cross examination of a witness. After recovering from the shock nearly everyone in court gave way to laughter. Fleming rose to protest that the question was immaterial and the judge agreed with him. Later his supposed relevancy appeared when Hogan tried to show that a card game was the cause of the row which is said to have caused Santos to commit an assault. The prosecution closed yesterday afternoon, and the defense began this morning. The first witness, Joe Ferreira, was brought into court by Deputy Sheriff Cox, under a bench warrant, having failed to answer a subpoena from Waiialua. He told the court that he hadn't the price of a railroad ticket, and was thus purged of contempt.

COOPER WILL SIGN TODAY

PRELIMINARY NEGOTIATION FOR ACQUISITION OF THE KUNST PROPERTY ARRANGED.

County Attorney Douthitt has looked upon the Kunst lease to the beach property and has seen that it is good. He has therefore drawn up papers which will be signed by Judge Henry E. Cooper this afternoon for the transfer of the property to the County of Oahu. Cooper is attorney for Adolph J. Baetcke, the Hawaiian executor to the Kunst will, and for Gustav L. Albers and Karl Klanke, the German executors.

PRESENT FOR HIM

Today is the birthday of Dr. David Starr Jordan, the president of Stanford University. When High Sheriff Henry arrived at his office he found an envelope, bearing an inscription: "In celebration of Dr. Jordan's birthday." Inside was a Stanford brand cigar. The report that Henry cabled his good wishes to Dr. Jordan is denied.

CANNOT GET CASE INTO COURT

DAMAGE SUIT AGAINST FORMER DEPARTMENT HEADS IN WHICH EXECUTIONS ARE SOUGHT.

The Supreme Court has denied a motion to place on its calendar the case of David K. Baker vs. A. T. Atkinson, A. M. Brown, Lorrin Andrews and Kanauho, appealed from the Third Circuit Court, in which there was a judgment for $2,500 damages against Atkinson, $500 against A. M. Brown and $1 each against each of the others. The suit was for damages for ejecting Baker and family from property claimed as a school house, when Atkinson was Superintendent of Public Instruction, Brown was High Sheriff and Andrews was Attorney General. The suit was tried about a year ago.

Though an appeal was noted, the case has never got to the Supreme Court, owing to the failure of defendants to have a transcript prepared. C. W. Ashford, attorney for plaintiff, moved to have the case placed on the calendar, in order that he might have the appeal dismissed and secure an execution.

WILL PROSECUTE POISON SELLER

JAPANESE DRUGGIST WHO SOLD CARBOLIC ACID TO NICK PETERSON HAS BEEN ARRESTED.

E. Iwashita who is connected with a Japanese drug store at the corner of Beretania and Nuuanu streets, was arrested this afternoon by Assistant Sheriff Vida on a charge of violating the health regulations regarding the proper labelling of poisonous drugs. Iwashita sold a bottle of carbolic acid to Nick Peterson the hack driver who attempted suicide this morning by swallowing the acid. The Jap admitted to the police that it was apparent that Peterson had been intoxicated since last night but in spite of this fact sold him the poison.

MONGOLIA HOVE TO

BIG STEAMER ENCOUNTERED ROUGHEST WEATHER IN HER HISTORY ON RECENT TRIP.

Rough weather kept the S. S. Mongolia back several hours on her trip from Yokohama to this port. She left Yokohama January 10 and the second day out encountered very rough weather, the roughest that she has met since she has been in commission. There was a strong sea running and the wind was blowing a gale. Captain Porter had to leave the vessel to for a couple of days before reaching Honolulu and was not sighted until 8:30 o'clock this morning. Owing to the rough weather outside of the harbor, the customs, immigration and quarantine officials did not board the vessel until after she had entered the harbor. The result was that she was alongside the Hackfield wharf for some time before pratique was granted her.

The vessel brought 1213 tons of freight for this port and had 271 Japanese and one Chinese in the Asiatic steerage for Honolulu. She brought four cabin passengers and also had six Chinese and Japanese in the European steerage. The cabin passengers who stopped over at Honolulu were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Spencer, tourists, and Mrs. P. Umbson and Miss E. Umbson of San Francisco, who have been touring the Orient. For San Francisco the vessel has 5,500 tons of freight, 67 cabin, 16 European steerage and 150 Asiatic steerage passengers.

The vessel has a good sized crowd of through passengers, many of whom are quite interesting personages. Among those passing through is Captain James Rennie, formerly of the S. S. Mariposa, and later on the S. S. Australia when she was captured by the Japanese about the end of the war. There is also aboard Captain Thomas Reilly master of the S. S. Mantara which was captured by the Japs. Both the Mantara and Australia were sent out from San Francisco. H. S. Scott was attached to the S. S. Dumbarton which went out of San Francisco with supplies for Saghalien and was wrecked on that island some months ago. He is also a passenger.

EX-GOVERNOR PEABODY POISONED.

DENVER, January 19.—Ex-Governor Peabody and his wife and daughter were poisoned while at breakfast in their home yesterday. The daughter is dangerously ill. Peabody was Governor of Colorado during the labor troubles in the state, and recently received letters threatening him with the fate of Steunenberg.

On December 31st ex-Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, was killed by the explosion of a dynamite bomb, it being suspected that the crime was committed by some member of the miners' union. He had been Governor of Idaho during the mining troubles in the Coeur d'Alene, and the union took grave umbrage at the position taken by him at that time.

In Colorado, during the last great strike in the Cripple Creek district, Peabody, then the Governor, declared martial law in all that region and kept the troops under arms for months. It was Sherman Bell, Peabody's adjutant, who was instrumental in the deportation of many of the labor leaders among the miners from the state. Peabody was a candidate for re-election to the office of Governor of Colorado in 1904, and was beaten by Adams, his Democratic opponent. Peabody contested the election, and it was claimed that he entered into an agreement by which he agreed to resign within twenty-four hours if he was seated. Whether such a deal had been made or not, Peabody won his contest, was seated and did resign within twenty-four hours. The Lieutenant-Governor-elect then became Governor.

NICHOLAS FEARS GUNS OF HIS OWN TROOPS.

ST. PETERSBURG, January 19.—The Emperor will not come to the Capital tomorrow to witness the ceremony of the blessing of the waters of the Neva. This will be the first time in two hundred years that the Czar of Russia has failed to be present upon this occasion. Last year the chapel reserved for the Czar during the ceremony was fired into.

At the blessing of the waters of the Neva a year ago the Czar's chapel was riddled with shot from the guns of a crack battery of his own soldiers. Nicholas and the Czarina were in the chapel at the time, and escaped death by a miracle. It was said that the affair was an accident, the soldiers having by mistake loaded with ball guns that had been intended merely to fire a salute with blank cartridges.

The Delegation To Washington

on congress, perhaps the best thing they could do would be to stay at home. There is a feeling in the community, that perhaps this is a case where too many cooks may spoil the broth. The effort made to antagonize Delegate Kalaniana'ole and to belittle his secretary, who has undoubtedly shown discretion and ability in handling Hawaiian matters in Washington, has not helped the refunding measure any, nor opened up the way for the delegation to help things along.

Ignoring The Delegate

there are influential bodies here which have more confidence in Hatch than in Kuhio, but the unwisdom of publicly ignoring the delegate and turning matters over to the man whom McClellan calls a "paid lobbyist" (certainly with much more truth and decency than McClellan is called "Kuhio's Valet") was apparent at the time. When The Star pointed it out haste was made to remedy the matter, and there is no reason why there should be any further trouble over it.

If Hatch is not a "paid lobbyist," what is he? Certainly he is not working for nothing, and if he is not lobbying, what is he doing for his salary? The dictionaries describe a lobbyist as one who tries to influence the votes and actions of members of a legislative body from the outside. If Hatch is not doing this doubtless his employers here would like to know what they are paying him for. However, it must be admitted that a more dignified term might have been applied, and it is to be hoped that hereafter McClellan will call him the Unofficial Delegate, or Commissioner, or something of that sort. Locally, the lesson to be learned, as The Star pointed out at the time, enjoying the unusual experience of approval by the Advertiser therefor, is that when Hawaii wants anything at Washington the delegate is the man to work through, no matter who he may happen to be. If Hawaii wants to give him assistance, well and good, but Congress will stand by him to a man in resenting being ignored.

Delegate Kalaniana'ole very naturally insists on being recognized. He was elected by the people of this territory, and he cannot, on their account, yield his duties or his rights as the people's representative to the agent of a special interest. Besides that, Delegate Kalaniana'ole is justified by his success in securing from congress legislation favorable to the territory in insisting on his rights.

In this matter he has the solid support of every member of congress. There isn't a congressman who hasn't knockers in his district, and those who are trying to butt in on his work for their own aggrandizement or his discomfiture, and naturally every congressman has a fellow feeling for every other having the same experience. Congressmen can be depended on to stand by one another when it comes to matters of right or prerogative. It was the height of folly, therefore, as The Star pointed out at the time, to even seem to ignore the Delegate in a matter of legislation that affected every individual in the territory.

Secretary McClellan has said nothing in this so-called "private" letter, which the delegate did not say in his letter to The Star published day before yesterday. Both the Delegate and his secretary have very frankly, but very courteously stated propositions which everyone at all familiar with legislative matters ought to know. There ought to have been no occasion for any statement on the subject. The occasion was created right here. Neither the Delegate nor his secretary have said more than the occasion demanded and justified.

Bushwhacking Or Open Fight

planters felt that their interests were jeopardized by the Philippine bill they should fight it by secret means and agencies, by means and agencies that would not disclose that their motive and sustenance came from the planters.

The Star strongly opposed such policy. It held and stated that if the planters felt that their interests required that they should fight the Philippine bill, that they should fight it openly as they were doing. The Star took the ground that every American instinct was against the underhand, secret, from behind cover fighter; that though naturally in the stress and struggle and contention for the boon or benefit of legislation, those who were antagonized would fight back in order to gain what they were after, there would be none of the bitterness, or angry feeling against an open fighter that there would be against the secret, underhand fighter who in the end is always found out. There has been nothing transpire to throw doubt on the good sense of that position. It is not unnatural that the friends of the Philippines, Governor Wright and others, should fight us, if we are fighting them. But they would fight us much more bitterly if we were attempting any secret or underhand fight such as the Advertiser advocated.

The attitude of Congressman Payne toward Hawaii may be due to the attitude of Unofficial Delegate Hatch toward the Philippine bill. There has been nothing so far, however, to indicate that it is. It is more likely to be based on opposition to the general theory of refunding any part of the federal taxes to the territory wherein it is collected, which is in effect to depart from the old established principle of making revenue laws apply equally in all parts of the states and territories of the United States. Or it may be due to the settled policy of the controlling element in congress to keep down appropriations, and therefore they do not propose by this refunding measure to authorize appropriations for Hawaii which would not have any show on their merits in view of the policy of retrenchment and economy. The attitude of Hatch on the Philippine bill may have absolutely nothing whatever to do with the attitude of Congressman Payne toward Hawaii. There is nothing to show that it has.

But in any event is it to be supposed that we are to get everything we want without opposition? We may set it down in the first place that we will not get all we want in the matter of legislation from congress. In the next place we will not get all of what we do get without opposition or without fighting for most of it. In the next place if we ever acquire the reputation for secret and underhand fighting, we will get very little, if anything that we want.

If the seventy-five per cent delegation is to meet a snarl on going to Washington, perhaps they hadn't better go. If there is no show for getting the measure through, or if it can be gotten through better without a descent on congress, perhaps the best thing they could do would be to stay at home. There is a feeling in the community, that perhaps this is a case where too many cooks may spoil the broth. The effort made to antagonize Delegate Kalaniana'ole and to belittle his secretary, who has undoubtedly shown discretion and ability in handling Hawaiian matters in Washington, has not helped the refunding measure any, nor opened up the way for the delegation to help things along.

Secretary McClellan's comments on the meeting here which proposed to consult Hatch and utterly ignored the elected delegate to Congress, set forth a state of affairs which The Star at the time predicted would develop. Perhaps there are influential bodies here which have more confidence in Hatch than in Kuhio, but the unwisdom of publicly ignoring the delegate and turning matters over to the man whom McClellan calls a "paid lobbyist" (certainly with much more truth and decency than McClellan is called "Kuhio's Valet") was apparent at the time. When The Star pointed it out haste was made to remedy the matter, and there is no reason why there should be any further trouble over it.

If Hatch is not a "paid lobbyist," what is he? Certainly he is not working for nothing, and if he is not lobbying, what is he doing for his salary? The dictionaries describe a lobbyist as one who tries to influence the votes and actions of members of a legislative body from the outside. If Hatch is not doing this doubtless his employers here would like to know what they are paying him for. However, it must be admitted that a more dignified term might have been applied, and it is to be hoped that hereafter McClellan will call him the Unofficial Delegate, or Commissioner, or something of that sort. Locally, the lesson to be learned, as The Star pointed out at the time, enjoying the unusual experience of approval by the Advertiser therefor, is that when Hawaii wants anything at Washington the delegate is the man to work through, no matter who he may happen to be. If Hawaii wants to give him assistance, well and good, but Congress will stand by him to a man in resenting being ignored.

Delegate Kalaniana'ole very naturally insists on being recognized. He was elected by the people of this territory, and he cannot, on their account, yield his duties or his rights as the people's representative to the agent of a special interest. Besides that, Delegate Kalaniana'ole is justified by his success in securing from congress legislation favorable to the territory in insisting on his rights.

In this matter he has the solid support of every member of congress. There isn't a congressman who hasn't knockers in his district, and those who are trying to butt in on his work for their own aggrandizement or his discomfiture, and naturally every congressman has a fellow feeling for every other having the same experience. Congressmen can be depended on to stand by one another when it comes to matters of right or prerogative. It was the height of folly, therefore, as The Star pointed out at the time, to even seem to ignore the Delegate in a matter of legislation that affected every individual in the territory.

Secretary McClellan has said nothing in this so-called "private" letter, which the delegate did not say in his letter to The Star published day before yesterday. Both the Delegate and his secretary have very frankly, but very courteously stated propositions which everyone at all familiar with legislative matters ought to know. There ought to have been no occasion for any statement on the subject. The occasion was created right here. Neither the Delegate nor his secretary have said more than the occasion demanded and justified.

Some time ago when it was announced that F. M. Hatch, the special representative of the Planters at Washington was fighting the Philippine bill, the Advertiser urged that it was bad judgment to do this openly. It held that if the planters felt that their interests were jeopardized by the Philippine bill they should fight it by secret means and agencies, by means and agencies that would not disclose that their motive and sustenance came from the planters.

The Star strongly opposed such policy. It held and stated that if the planters felt that their interests required that they should fight the Philippine bill, that they should fight it openly as they were doing. The Star took the ground that every American instinct was against the underhand, secret, from behind cover fighter; that though naturally in the stress and struggle and contention for the boon or benefit of legislation, those who were antagonized would fight back in order to gain what they were after, there would be none of the bitterness, or angry feeling against an open fighter that there would be against the secret, underhand fighter who in the end is always found out. There has been nothing transpire to throw doubt on the good sense of that position. It is not unnatural that the friends of the Philippines, Governor Wright and others, should fight us, if we are fighting them. But they would fight us much more bitterly if we were attempting any secret or underhand fight such as the Advertiser advocated.

The attitude of Congressman Payne toward Hawaii may be due to the attitude of Unofficial Delegate Hatch toward the Philippine bill. There has been nothing so far, however, to indicate that it is. It is more likely to be based on opposition to the general theory of refunding any part of the federal taxes to the territory wherein it is collected, which is in effect to depart from the old established principle of making revenue laws apply equally in all parts of the states and territories of the United States. Or it may be due to the settled policy of the controlling element in congress to keep down appropriations, and therefore they do not propose by this refunding measure to authorize appropriations for Hawaii which would not have any show on their merits in view of the policy of retrenchment and economy. The attitude of Hatch on the Philippine bill may have absolutely nothing whatever to do with the attitude of Congressman Payne toward Hawaii. There is nothing to show that it has.

But in any event is it to be supposed that we are to get everything we want without opposition? We may set it down in the first place that we will not get all we want in the matter of legislation from congress. In the next place we will not get all of what we do get without opposition or without fighting for most of it. In the next place if we ever acquire the reputation for secret and underhand fighting, we will get very little, if anything that we want.

But certainly, if the planters felt that the Philippine bill would be more of a detriment to them than the refund measure would be a benefit, it was only natural that they should seek through their representative to defeat the Philippine bill. If in that particular the interests of the planters and the interests of the rest of the community clashed, the rest of the community had the same right to get in and fight for its interests that the planters had to fight for theirs. But in any event the planters having decided to fight the Philippine bill, greatly strengthened their position now and in the future, by fighting it openly.

It is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance of the members of the Bar Association at the meeting which is called for tomorrow at noon. The question of the re-appointment or otherwise of Judge Robinson is one which vitally affects the credit of the local bar. He had been unanimously endorsed by the Association and now that an attempt has been made to besmirch his character it would certainly seem to be the duty of the Association to resent the interference which has come from other quarters.

It is to be hoped that the Washington delegation will "keep an accurate account of its expenses."

Henry Gets a Strange Complaint

MAUI MAN WANTS PROTECTION FROM CATTLE WHICH INJURE HIS PLANTS.

High Sheriff Henry has received a complaint from Maui couched in the following terms:

"High Sheriff Henry, Oahu Jail.

"Dear Gentlemen:

"Please forgive me for my trouble her today at the district of Kawaloa, Hana, Island of Maui about the cattle business going acres to acres. I want to know how I can do for it. To save all our Potatoes and plants. We have lots of Cattle captures last few days ago. But I don't know how to rules over it. This law business for a Cattle to be paid and lost of the plants which the Cattle distories. I only want to know about the law End.

"Yours truly,

"SOLOMON KEAUPUNI"

The sheriff has sent a reply giving information as to the law on the subject. "I think the fullest publicity should be given in such a case" said Henry, "in order that owners of cattle may be warned that they must be careful how they allow their cattle to injure the property of others. The man who cultivates land and plants crops is doing good to the community, and certainly he should be protected from depredations of cattle."

when the news was broken to her. "Nick had been drinking for a long time, three or four months," she said. "Monday he was very bad. He got a pistol and shoot it off here in the house. I told him not to do that because perhaps he hurt somebody. He said he would not hurt anybody unless himself. My oldest boy took the pistol away from him. Tuesday he wants to go down town and I talked to him saying what was the use of his going on drinking like this. He didn't like that and he go away mad. He never came back since. No, we never had a fight. We always lived together nicely. He got mad though when I ask him to quit drinking like that."

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

been sunk. Those who witnessed the occurrence declare that the steamer drifter Pacific which is at work in the Ewa end of the harbor, was partially to blame for causing a condition that nearly resulted in serious damage.

The Mongolia sounded four whistles before she rounded the lighthouse this morning, to notify the drifter that she was approaching and wanted to pass the line of pipes on the pontoons. She received within a short time, four whistles in response from the Pacific, which signified that the way had been cleared for her through the pipe-line. But a proper space had not been prepared to admit the vessel through. On an ordinary day with the wind not blowing too hard the space this morning would have been all right but not so with such high wind from the west that prevailed this morning. It was impossible for the vessel to be stopped after she rounded the lighthouse point for the wind would have driven her up against the Oceanic wharf or else caused the huge ship to drift around on the mauka side of the harbor off the Brewer and Sorenson wharves. Captain Lorenzen had to take the vessel along. The result was that when she began to pass the drifter which was on the steamer's starboard, side, the wind drifted the steamer so close to the drifter and a pontoon that was there, that the starboard propeller could be used with only a great risk of striking the pontoon or even the drifter. However it was a question of getting the big ship into the slip or allowing her to drift broadside past the slip, so the chance had to be taken.

As it was the steamer entered the slip at an angle and as she went forward approached dangerously close to the stern of the bark Kaulani. Fortunately several bow lines were cut and these lines were hauled taut on the Hackfeld wharf and the vessel's engines were reversed and she was checked in time to avoid ramming the Kaulani. Her bow was within eight feet of the steel sailing ship when she was checked. Had she struck the bark she would have smashed the smaller vessel like an egg shell. The Mongolia hit the end of the wharf a blow broadside and also brushed against the drifter.

This is not the first time that complaint has been made against the people aboard the drifter Pacific for failing to give vessels sufficient room in which to pass. Several island steamers have run aground in avoiding a collision with the dredging outfit and complaint has been made by the local harbor of Masters and Pilots, to Lieutenant Slattery the army engineering officer who is in charge of the dredging of the harbor for the United States government. The drifter Pacific is not operated by Slattery but is in charge of the concern that has the contract for deepening the harbor.

M'CLELLAN SENDS A LETTER

SECRETARY TO DELEGATE KUHIO WRITES A PRIVATE MISSIVE WHICH IS MADE PUBLIC.

The Advertiser this morning heads a story regarding a letter from G. H. McClellan, "Kuhio's Valet Calls Hatch a Paid Lobbyist." G. H. McClellan, an everyone knows, is private secretary to Delegate Kuhio and the paper alleges that he has written a letter in which he makes a "fierce attack" on "his employers" for ignoring the delegate. The Advertiser makes the extraordinary statement concerning the letter that "though the missive is marked as personal, its direction is official and its contents more so"—whatever that may mean.

In addition to being private secretary to the Delegate to Congress, McClellan is the representative of the Merchants' Association in Washington so that any official communication may reasonably have been expected to go to that body, but none has been received. "I have not received the letter from McClellan," said President George W. Smith of the Merchants' Association, "nor have I heard of any such communication. I read the article over but fail to see that there is anything in it to cause any excitement. It seems to me in line with the general policy of the Advertiser to try and belittle Kuhio and McClellan by any means that come handy, that's about all there is in it."

Secretary Paris and former Secretary Lansing were equally in the dark as to the communication.

President Lowrey of the Chamber of Commerce had never heard of the letter nor had Secretary Spencer.

While there is every reason to believe that the letter from which the Advertiser quotes excerpts was really written by McClellan, the opinion generally expressed by business men was that it was a private communication written by him to some person and not an official communication either in its source or destination. However there is in it little that the Delegate himself has not said in substance over his own signature through The Star.

The paragraphs from McClellan's letter which the Advertiser quotes are as follows:

"The Honolulu papers of December 14th and 15th arrived today, and the Delegate has spent a considerable part of the evening here at my house discussing the accounts of the joint meeting of the two commercial bodies.

"The calm assumption of the meeting, that the entire destiny of this measure depended on the work and judgment of Mr. Hatch, was both absurd in itself and exasperating to the Delegate. It is just the sort of treatment that is calculated to make any self-respecting member of Congress resent any interference by a paid lobbyist, and even to decline the aid of a delegation whose avowed object is to aid, not the Delegate to Congress, but a special representative of particular interests.

"The Delegate has started out with a very friendly attitude toward Mr. Hatch, which I have shared and sought carefully to promote; but any thoughtful person can see at once that acts of this sort must inevitably destroy that cordial working relationship, and in the end injure Mr. Hatch's usefulness far more than it will harm the Territorial Delegate.

"As a matter of fact Mr. Hatch is at present very much of a stranger in Washington; there is hardly a prominent official in the entire executive department of the government who was here when Mr. Hatch was here. Many of the prominent heads of committees in Congress are also strangers to him, and he does not even know them by sight.

"Mr. Hatch was at first opposed to having a delegation come, and it was only because of my urging it that he consented to the plan.

"But I am frank to say that if a delegation is to come on with the idea that they are to work wholly or even chiefly through and with Mr. Hatch, they would much better remain at home; for they would simply create dissension that would be very likely to defeat the main end that we all desire to achieve.

"You will believe me when I say that this is not written out of any envy of Mr. Hatch, with whom my relations are very friendly; neither is it because of any personal desire for public credit for the work so far done and to be done for this measure. It is because the opportunity is an unusual one and the entire matter one requiring such carefulness of handling, that I can not see its prospects threatened without speaking out frankly. I accordingly send this personal line to you in order that you may fully understand the situation.

"The Delegate has increased prestige in his second term in the House, and the time has gone by when he can safely be ignored and flouted by those who desire legislation."

BIG BOATS WILL CALL

POSITIVELY DECLARED BY EMPLOYEES THAT DAKOTA AND MINNESOTA WILL STOP HERE.

According to well defined rumors in the Orient, the Great Northern S. S. Company is to run its two big vessels to Honolulu this year on the homeward trip to Seattle. Both the Minnesota and the Dakota are to come to Honolulu. News of this probability was brought today by the S. S. Mongolia.

According to the report given to the officers of the Mongolia, and it came from a man in the service of the other company, who would be in a position to know, the next homeward trips of the big vessels were to be by way of Honolulu. The schedules of the Great Northern S. S. Company give the sailing date of the Dakota for Seattle direct, as February 10 and that of the Minnesota as March 20. It is on these trips that the two boats are to call at Honolulu. From Honolulu they will go direct to Seattle, not touching at San Francisco. The purpose of coming to Honolulu is said to be to secure the travel of the Japanese laborers to these islands. The boats would probably not enter this harbor as they are too big.

ALAMEDA DUE TOMORROW. The S. S. Alameda is due tomorrow morning from San Francisco with four days later mail from the mainland. She may be reported this evening but it is not thought she will be along until tomorrow.

Must Pay Alimony At Once

CIRCUIT JUDGE LANDSAY GIVES A SEVERE ROAST TO JOHN DICKSON.

John Dickson spent a very uncomfortable half hour before Circuit Judge Lindsay this morning. He was sent for to answer for contempt for failing to pay his divorced wife alimony and although he told a hard luck story he went forth with an order to pay $10 within 48 hours or go to jail for contempt.

Dickson looked the picture of bad luck. Judge Lindsay asked him why he had failed to pay alimony as ordered. He said he had been sick and hadn't been able to get work, and had no money. The judge asked if drink hadn't caused the sickness and Dickson who is 63 years of age, said an accident to his leg in youth was troubling him. "Were you not convicted of drunkenness a couple of weeks ago," asked attorney Douthitt, who appears for the woman.

The defendant admitted it, and then the judge opened up on him. He told Dickson he ought to be ashamed of himself, and that a man in his position ought not to touch a drop of liquor under any circumstances. The divorced wife, it appears, has a young daughter and a son who has been forced to stop work by reason of an accident, and she is supporting the home and trying to keep up a mortgage by sewing and nursing. For four months Dickson hasn't paid a cent said Douthitt. "We don't ask him to keep up $10 a week as ordered, if he is hard up, but we have asked him to try and do something and he has said he won't. The little girl went to him on a recent Saturday to see if she couldn't get a few dollars to keep up with and she was met with curses."

"I am very sorry for you," the judge said "but natural sympathy for one of your age in your condition is not to be heeded in view of your actions. It is evident that the trouble is due to drink. The divorce in this case was granted on the grounds of habitual intemperance. "The court will give you 48 hours in which to pay your wife ten dollars and if at the end of that time you have not done so, you will be sent to jail."

"I don't know how to get it," said Dickson. "Well, you have 48 hours in which to find out where, or be committed for contempt. That is the only way in which the court can enforce its orders. If in the future there is another citation and complaint that you have neglected to make an effort to pay, you will be committed to jail."

Dickson is a carpenter by trade.

PROFIT ENOUGH EITHER WAY. To the grafters: You may plunder all of the people part of the time; you may plunder part of the people all of the time; but you cannot plunder all of the people all of the time.—Kansas City Star.

Owing to the heavy weather at Kahului the S. S. Alaskan did not depart for that port yesterday afternoon. She is waiting here for a change of the weather as she could not get into Kahului with the weather that is now prevailing. The vessel finished loading 5,739 tons of sugar at this port yesterday and is now ready to go to Kahului for about 1,500 tons more. After loading the Kahului allotment, she goes to Hilo for the remainder. The strike at Waipahu plantation will delay the ship Erskine M. Phelps.

THE WHITE TIGRESS IS A SUCCESS

WHOLESALE THOUGH EXCITING MELODRAMA HOLDS BOARDS AT THE ORPHEUM.

Despite the inclement weather a good sized audience witnessed the opening of "The White Tigress of Japan" at the Orpheum last night, and were well rewarded for the play in all that was claimed for it. The scenery was magnificent and there were several very pretty stage pictures. Mr. Clemons, the scenic artist, is deserving of great praise for the fine work he is turning out.

The first scene represented a Japanese garden with the city of Nagasaki and its harbor in the background. The painting was from actual photographs and it is doubtful if as good a setting has ever before been seen in Honolulu. Again the costuming was fine and the characterizations true to life.

On the whole "The White Tigress of Japan" is the best melodrama so far given. The situations are original and call for real acting. As "The White Tigress" Miss Hayward, who carried off the honors, gave a performance of great merit and revealed glimpses of rare genius. Mr. Buhler, as the young American Lieutenant, was up to his usual good standard. The part was heroic and his every appearance called for applause. Miss Fowler, Miss Chandler, Messrs. Lowell, Earl, Wilkes and Drum were all well cast and each deserving of special mention. The comedy was looked after by Henry Auerbach who is always good.

The play deals with incidents of the late Japanese-Russian war in which the cruelty of the Russian and bravery of the Japanese is shown. It appeals especially to the Japanese who were present in large numbers. The plot is consistent, and the entire production worthy the patronage of the public.

This sailing craft is to receive about 1,000 tons from that plantation but with the plantation stopped work a delay is inevitable. A similar condition confronts the bark Kahului. She is waiting for sugar from Waipahu preparatory to sailing for San Francisco. The bark Gerard C. Tobey began to take Waialua and Ewa sugar today. She is to sail about Tuesday for San San Francisco.

The bark George Curtis will start loading sugar for San Francisco about Wednesday. The Kenilworth is preparing to take sugar. She will begin about Monday to take on 1,000 tons of ballast for Hilo.

WORK FOR CHILDREN

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FREE KINDERGARTEN AND CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY.

The annual meeting of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society was held this morning at 10 o'clock in the assembly room of the Y. M. C. A. There was a very good attendance of members and friends. Bishop John W. Hamilton of the Methodist church made the opening prayer and an interesting address on Kindergartens and their relation to other work in behalf of better humanity.

Mrs. E. B. Waterhouse presided. There was an exhibition given of games and songs by children from some of the kindergartens. Mrs. U. Thompson the sanitary officer of the association made a report showing the work her department had done in relieving much suffering due to insanitary conditions, and teaching parents in the principles of everyday sanitation, hygiene and physiology.

Reports from the affiliated kindergartens were all of an encouraging nature. The Castle Kindergarten has been doing good and efficient work.

The total enrollment in all the kindergartens of the association during the year was 548. The average attendance was 266. Mrs. Swanzey, the treasurer reported that the expenses for the year have been $678.21. Miss Hopper, the financial secretary reported that the receipts of the year were $651.76 in addition to the balance that was on hand at the beginning of the year. There is now on hand in bank, $329.15, and cash in hand $118.50.

Rev. F. W. Damon and Rev. A. V. Soares made brief addresses. The following officers for the year were elected: President, Mrs. E. B. Waterhouse; Vice-President, Mrs. S. B. Dole; Second Vice President, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey; Third Vice-President, Mrs. Theodore Richards; Recording Secretary, Miss Elizabeth M. Waterhouse; Financial Secretaries, Miss Margaret Hopper, Mrs. W. F. Frear; Treasurer, Mrs. F. M. Swanzey; Auditor, W. L. Howard.

WAIPAHU STRIKE STILL ON.

Twenty-five police officers went to Waipahu Plantation last night at the request of the plantation manager, to assist in preserving orders at that place. The Japanese were still striking and the indications were that they might cause trouble if some show of force was not made. This morning a telephone message was received at the police station to the effect that the strike was still on but that affairs were quiet.

CONCORD AT KEALAKEKUA. A traveler from the Kona side of the island reports the presence of a vessel of the navy, supposedly the cruiser Concord in Kealahou bay, engaged in beautifying the grounds about, and giving what attention is needed to the monument erected to Captain Cook's memory. The British took this care of the monument formerly, but since annexation the United States has assumed the responsibility for the monument's preservation.—Hilo Tribune.

Attorneys Talk of Scrapping

DR. WALTERS ON THE STAND AS AN EXPERT ON KNOCK OUT BLOWS.

Dr. Walters was an expert witness on knock-out blows on the law, in Judge Robinson's court yesterday, in the case of Santos, who is charged with an assault which broke the jaw of his alleged victim and consequently raised the charge to that of mayhem. Before the doctor got through the attorneys were discussing whether they ought to land on one another's jaws or not.

The doctor testified as to the fractured jaw, and on cross-examination Hogan secured a statement that a blow on the jaw of sufficient force to produce a fracture usually caused unconsciousness or at least semi-consciousness. Then Fleming took the witness and began eliciting an opinion that semi-consciousness would not necessarily be produced. "If John L. Sullivan landed," began Hogan. "We don't want to know about John L. Sullivan landing," interrupted Fleming. "If he landed on you you'd be down and out."

W. W. HARRIS IS THE PRESIDENT

REJUVENATION OF THE BUILD-ERS AND TRADERS' EXCHANGE COMMENCED YESTERDAY.

The process of rejuvenation for the Builders and Traders' Exchange was formally begun yesterday afternoon when the following were elected officers for the ensuing year.

President, W. W. Harris.
First Vice President, Stanley Stephenson.
Second Vice President, James Nott,
Jr.
Secretary and Treasurer, E. G. Keen.
Directors—J. S. Dillingham, J. Emmeluth, A. D. Scroggy, A. Humburg, G.
F. Bush, E. R. Bath, Thomas Sharp,
A. Gartley and A. F. Clark.

The retiring president John Emmeluth made an address expressing his confidence in the incoming administration at the annual meeting which was held last evening. Director Sharp moved that a committee be appointed to revise the rules. The motion carried, President Harris stating that he would name the committee later.

President Harris made a suggestion that the Exchange should secure down town quarters on a lower floor which could be open all the time. The suggestion was heartily endorsed.

After a general discussion in which the members evinced an intention of working together for the good of the Exchange an adjournment was taken at the call of the chair.

RATH AND THE DEVIL.

J. A. Rath, superintendent of Palama chapel, spoke before the Thursday club at the Y. M. C. A. last evening and took a fall out of his satanic majesty.
His subject was "How the Other Half Lives." The other half, it appeared from Rath's remarks, does not live particularly well Ewa of the Nuuanu stream. It gets drunk, and if gambles, and it does all sorts of things which are not mentioned in polite society. A vote of thanks was accorded the speaker.

PROSECUTION APPEALS.

Attorney General Peters has perfected his appeal to the Supreme Court in the case of Takada, who was charged with assault and battery. A demurrer to the indictment was sustained, in accordance with Judge De Bolt's ruling that an indictment containing the words "whose true name is to the Grand jurors unknown" is defective.

APPEAL TO WASHINGTON.

An appeal to the United States Supreme Court has been taken in the matter of the Lahainaluna school. The suit is one against the Territory, by the American Board of Foreign Missions, for $15,000 claimed as a forfeit for alleged failure of the Territory to comply with an agreement to teach the "faith of the fathers" at Lahainaluna.

PEACOCK VS. GARVIE.

R. W. Breckons, C. W. Ashford and Samuel Nour, counsel for W. C. Peacock in the quo warranto suit brought by the latter against Alexander Gar-vie, yesterday filed with Judge Lindsay a brief covering eight or nine pages.
It is contended that the meeting of stockholders at which officers of W. C.
Peacock and Company are claimed to have been elected was illegal and that therefore Peacock is still president.

THE GREAT QUESTION.

The statesmen at Washington are all talking about the "most important question that confronts the American people," but none of them has defined it correctly. Just now the most important question is how to get the money to pay those Christmas bills.—Colorado Springs Gazette.

CITY OF ARMOR PLATE.

New York has been trying to poke fun at Pittsburg. Who cares? Pittsburg is armor-plated.—Pittsburg Gazette.

COLDS.

Colds are quickly cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, effecting a permanent cure. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children like it. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Company, agents for Hawaii.

A cablegram received by the Chronicle from Paris confirms the rumor that has been current for the past few days of the engagement of Miss Lurline Spreckels and Spencer Eddy. Miss Spreckels is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. August Spreckels and has been a great belle since her debut a few seasons ago. To the regret of her many friends here most of her time has been spent abroad or in New York for several years, but she was here last summer for a brief visit, during which time she was extensively entertained. Spencer Eddy, who comes from Chicago is a brilliant young diplomat, at present Charge d'Affairs at St. Petersburg. News has not yet reached here as to the date and other arrangement of the wedding.—S. F. Chronicle.

MONGOLIA MAY BREAK THE STRIKE

JAPS WHO ARRIVE BY THAT VESSEL TODAY ARE GOING TO WAIPAHAU THIS AFTERNOON.

Hundred and fifty Japanese will go to Waipahu today by the afternoon train to go to work on Oahu plantation. They arrived from Japan today by the S. S. Mongolia and will go in the double capacity of strike breakers and raw recruits. They will be escorted to Waipahu by a force of local police.

Assistant Sheriff Henry Vida was advised by telephone today that affairs at the plantation were quiet and that some of the force of local police that went to Waipahu yesterday could turn to the city. Five of the men are expected home this afternoon.

CRUISER LENA NOT REPORTED

HAD NOT ARRIVED IN VLADIVOSTOK AND MAY HAVE HEADED FOR THE BALTIC SEA.

The S. S. Mongolia brought no news of the whereabouts of that mystery ship the Russian converted cruiser Lena. It will be remembered that she sailed from this port with three thousand tons of coal aboard bound ostensibly for Vladivostok but it seems pretty sure that she never was intended to arrive there. She was of an and in good condition and would easily have reached there before the Mongolia left the Orient but no work of her appearance has ever been recorded.

The officers of the Mongolia incline to the belief which was expressed here at the time of her unexpected arrival, that she took on her coal with the intention of proceeding back to the Baltic over the route which Rojstvensky went to his ruin.

MIKAHALA WAS LATE ARRIVING. Some anxiety was felt today over the failure of the steamer Mikahala to arrive at Kaula this morning from Honolulu. She left here last evening about 5 o'clock. A wireless message was received, stating that she reached there shortly after 11 o'clock this morning.

MAUNA LOA DELAYED SAILING. The departure of the steamer Mauna Loa was postponed until noon tomorrow owing to the rough weather. She would be unable to make any of her Hawaii ports with the present weather prevailing, so is being held until the weather subsides.

OBJECTS TO SALE OF BEACH

SENATOR LANE THINKS A MIS-TAKE IS BEING MADE IN KOOLAULO.

Senator John C. Lane has some very pointed objections to the proposed government sale of Hauula, Koolauloa, beach lots, which is being advertised in the land department. The lots in question are the last pieces of public property along the beach on the other side of the island, says Lane, and in selling them the authorities are simply repeating their error made in Honolulu and Waikiki, by reason of which private ownership or leaseholds have shut the public entirely out of the seashore. "I think the government would show more foresight in holding some of this land for a public beach frontage," said Senator Lane. "In Honolulu the supervisors are paying $18,000 to get back a lease so that the people may have access to the beach. At the same time on the other side of the island, the government is apparently about to part with the last pieces of beach property it has.

"How are the people of Koolauloa going to get to the beach when these sales are completed? I suppose that in a few years the supervisors of Oahu county will be trying to buy some Koolauloa beach land back, in order

SOUTHWEST WIND MAKES A RECORD

FORTY-THREE MILES AN HOUR WAS THE VELOCITY REACHED DURING LAST NIGHT'S BLOW.

At 9:15 last evening the wind blew harder than at any previous time since the United States Weather Bureau was established here in Honolulu. Thirty-six miles an hour was the biggest previous record, surely a balmy zephyr as compared with the 45 and 70 mile blasts of old Boreas' icy breath which the unfortunate New Englanders get.

Last night however there was something doing. The wind rose steadily after sun set. At 6:45 it had topped the record by scoring the 38-mile mark from the south. Still the velocity increased and at 7:35, still from the south 40 miles was registered. Then it began to veer to the west and at 8:55 the northwesterly wind blew 38 miles an hour. At 9:15 the mark of 43 miles was reached and after this the velocity began to drop off. At 6:05 this morning it was blowing 36 miles but the highest velocity reached since 8 this morning was 30 at 10:40 and 11:40.

Despite the wind from the ocean the rainfall was light, only 35-100ths of an inch falling during the night.

"We are not troubled with very heavy winds here," said Observer Ashley this morning, "that is as compared with other places. During the Galveston hurricane, for instance, the records showed a velocity of 120 miles an hour. I don't know how much harder than that it blew as the instruments were all blown away when it reached that."
