WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

6 May 1977

Mr. Masao Miyamoto
Scoutmaster, Troop 10

Dear Mr. Miyamoto:

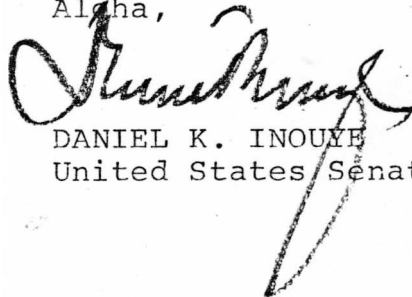

I am most pleased to extend to you and all the members and friends of Troop 10 my warmest aloha and congratulations on the landmark 60th anniversary of the founding of Boy Scout Troop 10.

I also wish to take this opportunity to commend you for a most impressive record of volunteer service to Scouting which spans more than 53 years. During your long tenure as Troop 10 Scoutmaster, you have been a valuable source of leadership, guidance and inspiration for hundreds of boys in the Kaimuki community. I am certain you have played prominent roles in the lives of the Scouts, encouraging them to be skillful, self-reliant leaders with a lasting commitment to public service.

Troop 10 has been among Hawaii's premier Scout troops, and I am confident the enthusiasm of the Scouts, the leaders and parents and the support of the Kaimuki Lions Club will perpetuate its fine reputation in the years ahead.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful anniversary celebration and for continued success in Scouting.

Aloha,

DANIEL K. INOUE
