

ATTEMPTED SUBORNATION OF PERJURY

JUDGE ROBINSON TAKES A SERIOUS VIEW OF THE METCALF CONTEMPT PROCEEDING—THE ALLEGED WITNESS-BRIBERY EFFORTS WILL COME OUT IN GODFREY-ROWLAND TRIAL AND CONTEMPT HEARING WILL COME AFTERWARDS.

"Attempted subornation of perjury" is what Judge Robinson this morning called the alleged witness-bribing attempts for which he cited Thomas Metcalf to appear for contempt, and it is stated that the Territorial Grand jury may take the matter up. Metcalf appeared in court in answer to the summons issued as stated in The Star yesterday, and he filed an absolute denial of the charges made by McClanahan.

Attorney F. E. Thompson appeared for Metcalf, and Frank Godfrey, his trustee, was also present. Godfrey made vigorous denials in behalf of Metcalf, declaring that the latter had not had money with which to bribe any witness, and that the charges were a scheme to affect the case of Godfrey vs. Rowland in the jurors' minds. LUCAS REPORTS ON PAELE CASE

FINDS THAT THE SUPERVISOR FROM KOOLAU WAS NOT TO BLAME IN WARRANT MATTER.

Supervisors Lucas and Moore went over to the Koolau side of the island yesterday for the purpose of investigating the charges against Supervisor Paele relative to his having retained $10 of the road boss' wages to pay for shortages.

"We found everything right as far as Paele is concerned," said Lucas, "but I cannot say more for publication. Our report will be submitted to the Board first, of course. I expect that a special meeting will be called to clear the matter up."

DEMURRER IS SUSTAINED AGAIN

PEACOCK'S ACTION AGAINST OFFICERS OF PEACOCK & COMPANY BEFORE DE BOLT.

Judge De Bolt this morning sustained a demurrer in the suit of W. C. Peacock against A. Garvie and others. This is the second proceeding brought by Peacock attacking the right of J. G. Rothwell and others to take over and run the business of W. C. Peacock and Company. The demurrer was sustained principally on the ground that there was a misjoinder of parties. Fifteen days were allowed in which to amend, and an immediate appeal to the Supreme court was also allowed. Attorney Judd appeared for respondents and Ashford for petitioner. The suit is a quo warranto proceeding, to test the right of the acting officers of Peacock and company to act as officers.

There will be a meeting of the directors of the Merchants' Association at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of appointing a special committee to wait on Major General Sumner, U. S. A., with a view to getting his opinions on the establishment of an acclimatization camp in Hawaii.

"Another thing," said President G. W. Smith, "I don't think we have made enough noise over the benefits that will accrue to Hawaii if the President's message bears fruit. If Oklahoma or Arizona or Alaska had achieved as much there would be bon-fires and brass bands every minute. We should not forget that we've got to keep hammering away through with the President on our side we are in great good luck."

A HOLT DECISION

A decision was given by the Supreme Court this morning in the case of C. A. Long, administrator-de-bonis-non-with-the-will-annexed of the estate of R. W. Holt against R. William Holt and numerous other Holt heirs, sustaining the circuit court. The suit was to cancel a lease of Waianae lands for non-payment of taxes. The court holds that the assessment of taxes was illegal, and that therefore the lease cannot be forfeited for failure to pay them. C. W. Ashford and E. A. C. Long appeared for plaintiff and for defendants A. G. M. Robertson, Thayer and Hemenway, E. C. Peters and Smith & Lewis.

NEW CATHEDRAL FOR CATHOLICS

AUGUST DRIER AND BISHOP WERE IN CONSULTATION THIS MORNING.

The sight of Bishop Libert and August Drier in close and earnest conversation on Merchant street this morning naturally enough attracted much attention from passers-by and the story was at once revived relative to the new cathedral building which the capitalist has promised this diocese.

It will be remembered that some months ago Drier announced his intention of building the new cathedral in honor of the memory of his late lamented daughter Juanita. In the absence of the Bishop nothing to further the project could of course be done, but it is surmised that the matter will now go ahead. The new fane will be on the makai Walkiki corner of Fort and Beretania streets.

"There is nothing that I have to announce about the new cathedral," said Bishop Libert when asked about the matter this morning. "I have an accumulation of other work of which I must dispose with all possible celerity first and even now I am tired after my long journey."

SECOND PROSECUTION FAILED AGAIN TODAY

FORTY DEFENDANTS ALLEGED TO HAVE VIOLATED ANTI-GAMBLING ORDINANCE DISCHARGED

The second attempt to prosecute alleged gamblers under the Adams' anti-gambling ordinance fell to the ground this morning in the police court. Forty defendants were charged under the ordinance, with having been present at a gambling place behind barred doors in the Mendocino block last Sunday night. A. S. Humphreys and C. F. Chillingworth appeared for the defendants.

There were a number of technical points raised by the defence but the court overruled them. After the prosecution closed its case, the defence moved for a discharge claiming that the prosecution had failed to prove that the particular ordinance, County Ordinance No. 4, had been properly passed by the supervisors, and been advertised in the official language. Decisions from Kansas were cited in support of this motion. The court discharged the defendants.

In the former case the defendants were discharged as the court refused to take jurisdiction. The Supreme Court overruled the district magistrate and the prosecution today was brought.

HALF OF CHANNEL ENTRANCE DREDGING IS COMPLETED

DREDGERS HAVE DONE VERY SATISFACTORY WORK IN THE HARBOR IMPROVEMENT WORK DURING THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER—A TOTAL OF 198,000 CUBIC YARDS HAS BEEN TAKEN OUT BY THEM—CHANNEL DREDGED TO 36 FEET.

Work in the improvement of the local harbor is progressing very rapidly. Dredging of the channel entrance from Lieutenant Slattery, the army engineering officer, who has charge of the work, is feeling well pleased over the progress.

During the month of November, 198,000 cubic yards of debris were removed by the two dredgers and half of the dredging of the channel entrance from the edge of the reef to the lighthouse has been completed. The bottom has been found to be fairly easy to work. The dredging has been done to a depth of 36 feet while the contract calls for only 35 feet.

The first annual exhibition of the Hawaiian Poultry Association opened in the Herrick building on Merchant street at two o'clock this afternoon and to say that the show is excellent would be but feebly to describe its many good points. The cheery call of chattering reaches the door and the discordance of the crowing is almost deafening when all of the roosters feel impelled towards song. The whole committee was busy up to the eyes this morning getting things in order and assisting Judge Job Batholer in his duties which, to the Wreck Of Martha Davis In Hilo Harbor To Be Removed

LIEUT. SLATTERY MAKES CONTRACT WITH CAPTAIN MILLER FOR $4,000 TO HAVE A SERIOUS MENACE TO NAVIGATION REMOVED—WORK WILL COMMENCE SHORTLY—NINETY DAYS' TIME TO PERFORM IT.

The wreck of the bark Martha Davis is to be removed from Hilo harbor, at least the wreck is to be removed from its present position where it menaces the navigation of that port. Lieutenant Slattery, the engineering officer of the army here, has awarded the contract to Captain Miller of the Pacific Oil Transportation Company and the steamer Lehua to remove the wreck. The price is $4,000. The idea of Captain Miller is to first try to pump out the bottom underneath the wreck so that the hull will settle down to a level with the bottom surrounding it. Thirty feet of water is found about the wreck which is now resting on the bottom. If this plan is unsuccessful then the wreck will have to be broken up. Captain Miller has 60 days in which to start on the work and 30 days in which to complete the work after starting, so he will have 90 days altogether in which to perform the task. He will use the steamer Lehua in the work.

A MEAT RATE WAR IN WAILUKU

PRICE OF CHOICE CUTS REDUCED TO A BIT A POUND—COMPETITION AT WORK.

WAILUKU, December 6.—The public are once more benefited by the meat war that prevails in Wailuku. There are three meat markets in the town of Wailuku. Only recently the Maui Meat Market which is being run by Ah Hoy who has been in the meat business for a long time past reduced the price of choice cuts from 15 to 12½ cents per pound. Circulars were sent out broadcast announcing the change. This was however quickly followed by an ad in the Maui News by the Wailuku market which reads as follows: "Our patrons are notified that we are prepared at all times to furnish meat as good as the best, and at price as low as the lowest." In the meantime the community is reaping the benefit of cheaper beef.

MORPHINE IN COUGH MIXTURES

BOARD OF HEALTH CHEMIST MAKES A LONG REPORT OF ANALYSES.

A long list of cough medicines which contain morphine was given to the Board of Health yesterday by Food Commissioner R. A. Duncan. The list is as follows:

- "Jayne's Expectorant," manufactured by Dr. D. Jayne, Philadelphia, Pa.
- "Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup," manufactured by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Bull, Baltimore, Md.
- "Shiloh's Consumption Cure," manufactured by S. C. Wells & Co., Le Roy, N. Y.
- "Pny-Pectoral," manufactured by Davis & Lawrence Co., New York.

- "Dr. A. Bosche's German Syrup," manufactured by L. M. Green, Woodbury, N. J.
- "Compound Syrup of White Pine," manufactured by Benson, Smith & Co., Honolulu.
- "Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral," R. D. Wynkoop, New York.
- "White Pine Expectorant," manufactured by the Western Chemical Co.

- "Syrup White Pine," Chambers' Drug Co., Honolulu.
- "Brother Benjamin's Cough Cure," manufactured by Benjamin Remedy Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.
- "Dr. Seth Arnold's Cough Killer," manufactured by Dr. Seth Arnold's Medical Corporation, Woonsocket, R. I.
- "Dr. S. Andrew Kilmer Cough Cure," manufactured by Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
- Two samples of baby soothing syrups were found to contain morphine.
- "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," manufactured by Curtis & Perkins, New York.
- "Baby Soothing Syrup," manufactured by Western Chemical Co.

Duncan's report says: In reference to this sample, I may say that a statement of the presence of morphine is given in terms of the French Pharmacopoeia. I consequently call this preparation adulterated, as a clear statement of its contents is not given on the label in terms of the United States Pharmacopoeia. Miscellaneous samples containing morphine:

- "Dr. J. Collins Brown's Chlorodyne," manufactured by J. T. Davenport, London.

"Pain-killer" (Perry Davis) manufactured by Davis & Lawrence Co., New York.

Foods examined were as follows: One sample honey; no adulteration. One sample each of cloves, cornstarch and butter were examined; no adulteration being detected.

Three samples shrimps were examined and found not fit for food. One sample lemon extract, Popular brand, manufactured by Novelty Mills, San Francisco, was found adulterated in not containing any oil of lemon.

One sample vanilla extract, Popular brand, manufactured by Novelty Mills, San Francisco, was found adulterated. This sample was a compound of a mixture of artificial vanilla and coumarin, no extract of vanilla beans being present.

Approximately 100 packages of miscellaneous foods were condemned and ordered destroyed.

Duncan reports having examined 84 milk samples in October of which two were below standard and 69 in November of which seven were below standard. Those furnishing the inferior milk were F. Martens, F. F. Farm, F. Correa, Miyikawa, F. Medeiros, J. Lucas and V. Souza.

THANKSGIVING ON KAUAU

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Coney thought of the dreary life of the unmarried on Thanksgiving and in the kindness of their hearts invited a few of them to help them pick turkey bones on that day. Miss Little Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Robertson, Messrs. E. Cropp, F. Crawford and J. D. Willard with host and hostess made up the merry company.

Probably the largest of all the Thanksgiving gatherings held in Lihue last Thursday took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice Sr. Miss Emily Rice, Harold and Phillip Rice, who are absent from the island were the only one of all the children and grand children not assembled to take a look at the record turkey of the year. The enjoyment was not limited to admiring the extraordinary size, but the quality was also thoroughly investigated and found to correspond to the quantity. Miss C. A. Mumford and Mrs. Christ were invited to assist in the investigation of the noble bird as well as all the other good things, necessary adjuncts to a proper Thanksgiving table. After dinner the whole company took a ride in busses up to call on Mother Rice, who was found cheerful and interested in spite of her advanced age and thoroughly enjoying the pleasant visit.—The Garden Island.

The Use Of Opium In Hawaii

It is perhaps surprising that there is not more opium-smoking than there is in Honolulu. For some years this has been probably the only civilized community in the world which is without laws to suppress or regulate the use of this drug. Under our old government even possession of opium without a license was an offense calling for severe punishment, but when the law was declared to be in conflict with American laws, no new one was enacted to take its place. Since then The Star has several times called attention to the spread of the opium habit among Hawaiians. Such a spread is a natural result of the utter failure of the legislature to provide any regulations.

With our large Chinese population, opium-using is certain to be kept up. It appears that the Chinese is so constituted physically that he does not suffer the same consequences as persons of other races, from use of the drug. But as San Francisco has found for many years, he communicates the habit to others,—the most horrifying sights of San Francisco's slums are dens where white men and women, boys and girls, lie victims of opium. It is only natural that similar establishments should spring up here to an even worse extent, as long as we do nothing to stop them. Though the evil has not grown here as fast as it might have been expected to grow, it is worse than is commonly known, for opium dens grow silently and in dark and secret places.

The Hawaiian monarchy and later the Republic protected the people of the islands from the contamination by Chinese opium-users to which all are exposed now. Under American law, it is not possible to have a law of equal strictness with the old one, for the courts have held that we cannot legally make it an offense merely to have possession of a drug which is an article of commerce. But the use, importation and sale of opium are subject to regulation just the same as the liquor business. One of the first duties of the next legislature will be to enact the severest kind of an opium law that will stand in the courts.

A Sharp Tongue: An Evil Response

The story which came over the wire to the effect that Sarah Bernhardt, "the Divine Sara," has been rotten-egged in Quebec will cause no surprise to those who remember her experience in Canada some ten years ago. The French Canadians are intensely religious and intensely loyal to the Roman Catholic church. The Divine Sara is not so religious—nor is she Roman Catholic to any noticeable extent. Occasionally she has periods of reaction and becomes religious but the attacks are never serious.

On the occasion of her former visit to Canada she had not had a religious fit for some time and in an interview she made remarks about the devotion of the French Canadians to their church very nearly precipitating a riot in Montreal. She played in the French quarter of the city but nearly all of her patronage was drawn from what may be termed the English section. The ultramontane papers denounced her and she declared that she would never visit Canada again.

But she has the woman's privilege of changing her mind and she has gone to Canada again—hence the eggs!

It must be admitted that Sara was unwise in attacking the faith of any people. She is sixty years old now and might have been expected to have gathered some sense but as she has said, her emotions are prone to carry her away—even to the extent of hurting the box-office. Still the Canadians should have shown some of the gallantry for which their race has ever been noted. A guillotine might have been all very well, for better heads than Sara's have fallen beneath the knife, the tortures of the Inquisition would have given her a new sensation, but rotten eggs—! Bah!

De Witte And Liberal Russia

The cables this morning indicating that De Witte is losing power and suggesting that a military dictatorship is foreshadowed, give especial interest to the recently published views of Captain Demens-Tvorsky regarding the political character of De Witte. Captain Demens-Tvorsky is a Russian liberal who was forced to flee his country a good many years ago, and has been an American citizen for twenty years or more.

Captain Demens-Tvorsky combats very vigorously the conception of De Witte which has been generally accepted in America, of a man who has risen from humble life by sheer force of genius to a commanding position in Russian affairs; that he is a liberal in ideas, and a star of hope to the down-trodden Russians. According to Captain Demens-Tvorsky, De Witte, while not of the hereditary or moneyed aristocracy, comes of a bureaucratic family, and has had a not unusual bureaucratic career; that he has risen through lucky accidents, and by a willingness to serve those who could advance him; that he is without convictions and is in no sense a liberal, nor in sympathy with liberal ideas.

De Witte, Captain Demens-Tvorsky claims, is distrusted by both the liberals and the conservatives. The liberals distrust him because he is not a liberal and because they do not believe he would take a single risk to himself in order to advance the interests of the people of Russia. The conservatives distrust him because they feel he would desert them the moment he thought their cause lost. De Witte's popularity in America is accounted for by Captain Demens-Tvorsky, by his adaptability to conditions and his astuteness as a politician.

There has been much that has been inexplicable in Russian affairs since De Witte was placed at the head of them, on the assumption that he is the man which the popular American mind has pictured him, but which is explained by the light which Captain Demens-Tvorsky has thrown upon his character. The cables have made it clear that De Witte has not had either the confidence or the control of the elements which have been forcing one concession after another from the Czar—which have been wresting political freedom and liberty from the Autocrat of all the Russias. The Zemstvos pledged him support only after long debate, and by a narrow majority. The groups of patriots which are represented by Father Gapon, by the followers of Tolstoi, and by those men and women who have kept aflame the torch of liberty in that darkened land, have very evidently looked on him, not as a man with whom they could work for the accomplishment of cherished ends and purposes, but as one through whom they might possibly work, not by reason of his convictions but of his craft and policy. Captain Demens-Tvorsky has made it clear why the cable should say "liberals have commenced an agitation for the dismissal of the Witte cabinet."

The suggestion of a military dictatorship contained in the cable dispatches was foreshadowed by Captain Demens-Tvorsky. He pointed it out as one of the possibilities of the situation, though doubting its probability. His reasons for doubt were largely his belief that the present radical movement was not merely political in character, but economic. The Russian radicals do not look to political emancipation alone for their ideals but to economic revolution.

It would be quite a proper and at the same time a graceful act on the part of the different public bodies of Honolulu to express some word of esteem for Assistant Postmaster Louis Kenake who has given thirteen of the best year of his life to the faithful and efficient discharge of a most important series of duties and who is now going away.

At the banquet to Bishop Libert last night, Governor Carter explained for the benefit of P. C. SIXTY DAYS RULE IS SUSTAINED

SUPREME COURT HOLDS THE ACT OF THE LAST LEGISLATURE IS CONSTITUTIONAL—NO TERM TRIALS SIXTY DAYS AFTER THE OPENING OF A TERM UNLESS BOTH LITIGANTS ARE READY TO GO AHEAD.

The sixty day rule stands in the circuit court. The Supreme Court says:

The provisions of the Organic Act that 'each law shall embrace but one subject, which shall be expressed in its title,' should be liberally construed. The title may be broader than the act, provided it is not delusive; the act may cover different matters, provided they have a natural connection and are fairly embraced in one subject. A provision limiting civil jury trials, unless by consent, to the first sixty days of each term in the first circuit, may properly be included in an act purporting in its title to amend a certain section of the Revised Laws relating to terms of the circuit courts; the other provisions of which act relate to the length, adjournment and extension of the terms in the several circuits."

Under his ruling the circuit judge was proceeding to try the case of Buckle vs. Ahmi, in which C. W. Ashford represents the defense. Ashford objected to going ahead and applied to the Supreme Court for a writ to prevent further proceedings in the case this term. The decision this morning finally grants the writ. The decision is by Chief Justice Frear, Hartwell and Wilder concurring. The syllabus

After last Scene, Jubilee Song.

It was during the first part of the program that a little girl stepped daintily up to the Mother Superior and presented her with a tray which seemed to be very heavy.

It was quite characteristic of the venerable recipient that when she was asked this morning how much the gift amounted to she answered: "I do not know. I have not counted it yet."

From another source it was learned that the sum was $1160.

The address delivered by little Miss Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Murphy in presenting the $1160 in gold was as follows:

"Dear Reverend Mother: On this, your Golden Jubilee Anniversary as a Nun, do I in behalf of your many former pupils, wish to express their sincere love and affection. The memory of the former happy days gone by, the pleasant thoughts in connection therewith and the great benefits attained through your council and advice are ever with them. They are gathered here today to wish you God's blessing, to wish you all the happiness possible on this earth, and a Heavenly reward.

"They, your former pupils, grandmothers and mothers wish me, a daughter of one of your pupils, to present to you this token of remembrance and esteem.

"Dear Rev. Mother, we pray to God that you may be spared many years to continue the good work so nobly undertaken by you fifty years ago.

"Again, on behalf of your former pupils, grandmothers, mothers and girls, large and small, do I congratulate you on attaining your Golden Jubilee Anniversary as a Nun."

The closing address from the older pupils was couched in the following terms:

"Dear Reverend Mother: My soul doth magnify the Lord! Such is the glad hymn of praise and thanks which from your heart rises on this day of your Golden Jubilee to the God, who, regarding the humility of his handmaid, has done great things in you and through you.

"We share in the unalloyed joy that fills your soul, and we offer you, dear Rev. Mother, our warmest congratulations together with our best wishes for a very happy feast and many, many more returns. We would, on this thirteenth happy day, delight to place with loving hands a wreath on your brow, dear Rev. Mother, and to lay garlands at your feet as a tribute of our admiration, but flowers, in their sweet language, would fall to express our filial feelings.

"We then, dearly beloved Mother, turn confidently to Him Who hath shown might in His arm, and filled the hungry with good things, we implore His divine Majesty, through the Immaculate Queen of heaven, to exalt you, dear Rev. Mother, who you have, for this half-century past, been the humble and faithful servant of the Sacred Hearts.

"Permit us also, on this auspicious occasion, to congratulate you in the name of those on whom you lavished your motherly care during these fifty years. We know, dear Rev. Mother, how eager they would be to pay you honor and to testify their affection for you if they could today share in our joy. Once more, in their name, as well gether with the ocean beyond. But the fishing grounds from the coral reef to the seabeach are for the landlords and for the tenants of their several lands, but not for the others."

FISHERIES TEST CASE ATTEMPTED TO WASHINGTON

The following are the main contentions of the Territory on which it is asked that the decision of Judge Humphreys, affirmed by the Supreme court here, declaring that the various fisheries claimed are public property, should be affirmed by the highest court:

"The fishery right claimed by plaintiffs in error (if any ever existed) was lost because not presented to the Land Commissioners for award.

"It has been the law of the Hawaiian Islands since the time of the establishment of the Land Commission that any person who had a claim cognizable by the board and failed to present the same and obtain an award thereon, lost his claim.

"The fishery claimed can not be held to be appurtenant to the land granted to the predecessor in interest of the plaintiffs in error. The clear result of the foregoing contentions is that at common law the right to fish in tide waters is a public right; that the riparian proprietors have no greater right to fish in the waters adjoining their land than that possessed by every citizen, and that there can be no exclusive right in such waters as an appurtenance to the lands bordering thereon. This doctrine is so well settled that there is nothing strange or startling in the fact that it was adopted and carried out in the old Hawaiian decisions which have never been reversed.

"A fishing right can not be acquired by prescription.

"A fishing right can not be acquired by custom.

"The Statutes relating to fisheries did not create vested rights."

The Godfrey-Rowland suit is set for next Monday.

An affidavit was filed this morning by Godfrey, in which he sets forth an absolute denial of the statements in the affidavits of Mrs. Punahoa and husband, who are his accusers. His trustee, Frank Godfrey, stated that it would be easily shown at the hearing that there was nothing in the charges.

Thompson moved for a postponement of the contempt proceedings, on the ground that any decision Judge Robinson might give would affect the jury in the case of Godfrey vs. Rowland, in which the bribing and threatening of a witness are alleged. McClanahan and Derby objected. Derby said the proposition would all come out in the trial anyhow, referring to it as an attempt to bribe. Judge Robinson remarked that it should be called attempted subornation of perjury, and that the facts should all go to the jury. He thought, however, that the contempt proceeding should go over until after the trial, and granted a postponement to a week from next Monday. The Judge expressed doubts of his power to punish for contempt in such a matter. He said that recent decisions of the Supreme Court had greatly limited the powers of circuit courts here to punish for constructive contempt.

Frederick had kicks to make against newspaper headlines regarding the serious charges brought against Metcalf. The Star yesterday referred to the charges as being of "tampering with a witness," while the Advertiser this morning has a heading "Dirty Work is Alleged." Godfrey was informed that both the headings correctly describe the charges.

Thompson moved for a postponement of the contempt proceedings, on the ground that any decision Judge Robinson might give would affect the jury in the case of Godfrey vs. Rowland, in which the bribing and threatening of a witness are alleged. McClanahan and Derby objected. Derby said the proposition would all come out in the trial anyhow, referring to it as an attempt to bribe. ADAMS' RELATIVES TO HIS RESCUE

SAN FRANCISCO SPORT RECEIVED THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS TODAY TO ENABLE HIM TO GET OUT OF HIS TROUBLE—WILL PAY DEBTS AND LEAVE THE CITY AFTER HE PLEADSGILT UY Y TO CHARGE OF GROSS CHEAT.

The relatives of Fred S. Adams, the San Francisco sport, have come to his rescue and he now walks the streets, a free man. That is, he is a free man by the grace of Sheriff Brown who permitted Adams to depart from the police station today on his own recognizance, but under promise to appear in the police court on Saturday morning to plead to a criminal charge.

Three hundred dollars were cabled to Adams, care of the Bishop & Company's bank, today, by relatives, to assist him out of his trouble. Adams did not keep the money however, for he turned the entire amount over to the authorities so that his bills in Honolulu could be liquidated. The claims against Adams aggregate $261.50, as follows: Hawaiian Hotel, $42.50; Union Grill, $35; Fred Kiley $181 and Jerry Rooney $21.

Of all the claims, however, it is probable that only those of the Union Grill could cause any criminal proceedings to be brought against Adams. With those claims he gave two checks on Bishop & Company's bank, when he did not have any funds deposited to meet them, and it was on a charge of gross cheat that he was arraigned in the police court today. The case was regularly moved on until Saturday when Adams will appear and plead guilty to gross cheat. Sentence will be suspended to enable him to leave the city by the S. S. Korea on Monday for San Francisco.

Warm, Debilitating Weather
Many people, after a long spell of oppressive heat, suffer from lassitude, loss of spirits, and a general "run down" feeling. They need a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has revived and restored to active life and health thousands of such sufferers. A lady who recently returned to England from South Africa writes concerning this "wonderful medicine": "While in Cape Town the past summer I suffered greatly from the long-continued heat. I was completely worn out; my blood seemed to become as thin as water, and I lost all energy and interest in life. My friends recommended and a course of this wonderful medicine restored my health and spirits. My husband suffered in the same way as I did, and he also was greatly benefited from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
There are many imitation Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "AYER'S."

NEW NAME FOR DAKOTA.
"I think it is a shame," said the chronic kicker, "that so many states in the Union should have been given those outlandish Indian names."
"Yes," replied Brightley; "like Dakota, for instance. Now, 'Leisure' would be a better name for that state."
"Leisure?"
"Yes. So many people who marry in haste repent there."—Pittsburg Leader.

OPIUM AND CHINESE STUDENTS.

In the Pekin Times appeared the following: "Chih Jung-heng, the literary chancellor of Hunan, has addressed an eloquent memorial to the throne asking that the habit of opium smoking be stopped among students. He points out that China's future depends upon a high state of efficiency, both physically and mentally, and nothing is more calculated to deteriorate both mind and body than this baneful drug. The imperial regulations with regard to schools urge the abolition of all forms of self-indulgence, and the memorialists finds that in those districts where the students indulge in this habit of opium smoking the most unsatisfactory results have attended the examinations.
"Proclamations have been issued and much personal advice given in regard to opium, but these are useless, and it has been decided that nothing will have any effect unless the students are given to understand that no degrees will be bestowed on those who smoke opium. Opium is at the root of all China's weakness and corruption, and before China can hope to rid of the evil she must check the habit among her young men.
"Chih Jung-heng therefore urges that the literary chancellors in each province be directed to enforce this rule strictly so that the holder of one degree will be debarred from a second so long as he sticks to the opium habit. The memorial is being considered."

DEATH ON MAUI OF JOHN KINI
HAD BEEN AN EMPLOYEE OF THE ROAD DEPARTMENT FOR OVER TWENTY YEARS.
WAILUKU, December 6.—John Kini, a respected Hawaiian in this district who has been road supervisor for several years past, died at his home on last Thursday evening from the effects of pneumonia. Kini took sick several weeks ago, and has been gradually sinking until the end arrived on Thursday. With the death of John Kini, Wailuku feels a great loss in a Hawaiian who was highly esteemed. John took active part in politics, he being a staunch Republican, and also assisted other associations organized for public benefit. He has been in the employ of the road department for over twenty years, and took very much interest in his duties. He was a faithful worker, and rarely grumbled. Only recently with the inauguration of county government, his salary was cut by the Supervisors, but he was faithful and appreciated the reason of their action. Mrs. Kini who is the only one of the family surviving him, has been in poor health for a long time.

Bishop Libert A Guest At The Banqueting Board

THE CATHOLIC SOCIETIES OF HAWAII UNITE IN A BANQUET OF WELCOME TO THE BISHOP OF ZEUGMA AND TO FATHER VALENTIN ON THEIR RETURN FROM THEIR VISIT TO THE SOVEREIGN PONTIFF AT ROME.

The Catholic societies of Honolulu joined in a most elaborate and delightful banquet to Bishop Libert last evening at the Young Hotel. The occasion was the return of His Lordship from his visit to the Sovereign Pontiff at Rome. Together with the Bishop, as guests of the evening, were Father Valentin, who accompanied the Bishop, the Fathers who returned with them to take up work in this field, and a number of the clergy of the mission among them the venerable Father Clement.

The societies included in the federation which was the host of the evening were some ladies' societies of the church, and these were represented at the banquet, giving the banquet table a bright and vivacious appearance.
The banquet was served in the east dining room of the Young, and the large number present taxed the capacity of the room. During the early evening Captain Berger and the Hawaiian Band gave a concert on the roof garden complimentary to the bishop. The roof garden was crowded with listeners, and at the close of the concert General Sumner complimented Captain Berger and the band upon their excellence.
Johannes F. Eckardt presided at the banquet, proving himself a superb toastmaster. His speeches in proposing the toasts, and introducing those who were to respond, were models of good taste and discriminating judgment. The toasts, ten in number, were thus proposed by Toastmaster Eckardt:
"His Lordship our beloved Bishop Libert and Rev. Father Valentin, we welcome you and pledge you our loyalty and devotion." To this toast Judge W. J. Robinson responded.
"The President of the United States of America, the worthy Executive of a great nation, a fearless, honest and Christian man," responded to by R. C. Stackable.
"Hawaii, the land we live in and which we love, and youngest Territory of the American Union," responded to by Governor Carter.
"Our reverend clergy and the religious orders in Hawaii, the devoted, kindly men and women, of whom it can truly be said: 'Where duty calls, there you will find them.'" responded to by the Rev. Father Maximin of Hana, Maui.

FATHER VALENTIN.

church, his country and his fellowmen. Judge Robinson gave a vivid description of the unity of the church in time and throughout the world, and paid a glowing tribute to the worth and work of the Bishop and Father Valentin.
Father Maximin compared the clergy to a new deck of cards. They differed in value and in usefulness, but all were needed, and in the hands of the Bishop the value of each could be made to count for the most possible.
The affair was a most pleasing tribute to the esteem in which the Bishop and Father Valentin and the clergy of the mission are held.

A dispute over the division of a large tract of California land, left by the late Bart Smithson, was settled the other day by tossing a coin. The land was divided into four parts and the four heirs, with the head and tail of half a dollar, made successive selections, to the great loss of the local legal fraternity.

QUEEN'S HOSPITAL CONTROVERSY

BOARD OF HEALTH WILL PROBABLY TAKE THE MATTER TO THE SUPREME COURT.

The Queen's hospital controversy was referred to the attorney general by the Board of Health yesterday, with the understanding that there shall be a conference between him and the board, regarding action to be taken to compel the hospital to receive contagious cases. Dr. Wayson, to whom the matter was referred at a previous meeting, stated that he had been given an oral opinion to the effect that in view of the hospital's quasi public character and its receiving a subsidy, it should provide a ward for such cases. The doctor advised having the matter settled in the Supreme Court, and this will probably be done.

President Pinkham reported to the board the following plan for Kalaupapa, which was approved:
"As the Settlement on Molokai has a steam boiler and will be obliged to install an engine to run the pol machinery, we have under consideration the addition of a small ice plant and a laundry which can thus be economically provided. The latter is quite a necessity. We hope to soon lay before you plans that will prove unobjectionable and meet with your approval. Both these latter proposed improvements would produce certain income for their maintenance."

A report was also made by the president on a device installed by Plumbing Inspector Keen at the Normal School as a means of supplying pure drinking water. It consists of a number of jets of water from which pupils drink without having actual contact with anything but the water, and the president expressed the opinion that it was a good sanitary scheme for all the schools.

WESTMINSTER GLEE SINGERS

Owing to the success which Mr. Robinson, the advance manager of the Westminster Glee Singers has met with, it has been decided to give four concerts in the Opera House, the dates being December 14, 15, and 16 (afternoon and evening). The party consists of four boys sopranos, two tenors, two basses, two altos, and are assisted by Madame Marie Hooton, contralto, and Dudley Causton, a well known London society entertainer.

Although this is the first visit of the party to Honolulu they have been giving concerts in all parts of the world for the last four years although it has been found necessary to change the personnel of the company from time to time owing to the adults having to return to take up their church appointments in England, and the boys' voices breaking. The present party have been touring for a year and a half, during which time they have delighted audiences in South Africa, India, Ceylon, British Borneo, the Straits Settlement, China, the Philippines and Australasia.
The company arrive in the Mlowera on Wednesday next and in the evening will be the guests of the University Club at a smoking concert especially arranged for their benefit.

The subscribers' list will remain open until Friday night at Wall, Nichols Co.'s and the plans will be open to subscribers on Saturday, and the public on Monday.

EXPECTORATION AND GARBAGE

BOARD OF HEALTH ADOPTS SOME NEW REGULATIONS TO PRESERVE PUBLIC HEALTH.

The Board of Health yesterday afternoon passed the following new rule:
"Resolved, That no person shall expectorate upon any public place, sidewalk, street crossing, or upon the floor of any street car or railway car, or any other public conveyance, or of any public building or any building common to the use of the public. Street gutters are excepted."
The Oahu county ordinance which prohibits laundrymen sprinkling clothes with water sprayed from the mouth, was also adopted as a rule of the board to apply all over the Territory. New regulations were adopted governing the disposition of garbage and rubbish.

FISHERIES TEST CASE TO WASHINGTON

GROUND UPON WHICH TERRITORY BASES CLAIM TO MANY FISHERIES NOW PRIVATE.

The brief for the Territory in the Bishop Estate fisheries case has been sent to the Supreme Court of the United States by Attorney General E. C. Peters and Deputy Fred W. Milverton. This is a test case which will settle a large number of claims to fishery rights in the islands. It is an appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court here in favor of the Territory. In one test case, of S. M. Damon vs. the Territory, the court at Washington has given a final decision against the Territory, but the claimants in the class of cases affected by the one now pending claim title to the fisheries under a different set of facts.

The brief acts forth the following arbitrary law promulgated by Kamehameha in 1819, as a beginning of land and fishery titles here: "His Majesty the King, hereby takes the fishing grounds from those who now possess them, from Hawaii to Kauai, and gives one portion to the common people, another portion to the landowners, and a portion he reserves to himself. These are the fishing grounds which His Majesty the King, takes and gives to the people. The fishing grounds without the coral reef, namely: the Kilohee grounds, the Loehoe grounds, the Malolo grounds, to-

FOLLOWED EASTERN PRACTICE

The Supreme Court in the John Richardson case yesterday followed a practice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, in promptly handing down its decision without waiting for the preparation of an opinion. As Richardson is very seriously ill there was special importance in having his case, one of embellishment, determined as soon as possible and after several consultations the justices decided to make known their finding in favor of a new trial at once.

"The statement that the court acted in a hurry might make an unfortunate impression," said Justice Hartwell this morning, "and might make it appear that the case did not receive proper deliberation and examination. We found that the case presented one feature which we considered to be decisive of the defendant's right to a new trial. To prepare an opinion on all the twenty or thirty exceptions, or on any one of them, would have taken considerable time, or else would have required us to set aside other cases having precedence. As we deliberately concluded in favor of the defendant's right to a new trial, we thought that on his own account, as he is said to be in a precarious condition, and also on account of his family, it was no more than proper to announce the decision, not waiting for the preparation of an opinion.

"This is the usual practice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, which in a large number of cases before opinions are written out, hands down what are called rescripts, that is to say final conclusions of the court. The advantage of the practice is that all concerned are promptly informed of the results of cases, and the court takes all the time it desires for preparation of its opinion."

POULTRY SHOW OPEN

The show will run today, tomorrow and Saturday and that the attendance will be large is assured.

The committee in charge is composed of J. H. Craig, Charles R. Frazier and G. P. Wilder, chairman.

The judging was done with the best sense of fairness as the entries were merely designated by numbers until the award was made when the name of the owner was attached by the committee.

The varieties of the birds shown is entirely creditable and the citizen who misses the show will be sorry when the full accounts of it are presented.

The following appear among the exhibitors: C. Arnevan, L. K. Smith, G. Domingos, G. H. Robertson, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, W. E. Bellina, A. H. Afong, W. Wolters, W. A. Kinney, C. H. Bellina, C. F. Cullen, Melvin Nichol G. P. Wilder, P. L. Weaver, R. C. Brown, W. C. Weedon, G. Markham, Mrs. W. E. Wall, Mrs. Lishman, Mrs. J. K. Brown, J. Cullen, F. F. Fernandez Will E. Shaw, A. W. Seabury, John Markham, F. H. Krauss, W. Walters, C. A. Brown, C. F. Peterson, H. N. Almy and Louis Singer.

The attendance this afternoon was very large. Governor Carter was among the visitors and expressed delight at the excellence of the show. About thirty boys from the Kamehameha schools also appeared in charge of teachers and got practical lessons of value.

It was a matter of regret to the committee that some entries were sent in without identification and were consequently out of the judgment as in some cases the unidentified birds were superior to those awarded prizes. The show will be open in the evenings until nine o'clock.

Just before coming here Mr. Tomlins was on the Los Angeles Times, and reported for that paper the Bennington disaster, and the many scenes and incidents of interest that followed it.
