More Japanese Employees.

Persons walking down Emma street are treated to another illustration of how little respect the Republican administration of Governor Carter has for the citizen workmen in Hawaii. Wednesday we told about Government water pipe being discharged from the ship Erskine M Phelps by Japanese, under the supervision of C B Wilson, representing the Public Works Department. Today we have the spectacle of Japanese laying the walks in Emma Square, a straight Government contract. In addition to the universal protest of citizens against the employment of Asiatics on public work the Legislature passed a resolution practically making that sentiment a law. The opinion seems to be that in the matter the present Republican administration is a "the people be d—d one."

FUSION ON MAUI.

The local Democratic party is still young, and although it is gaining strength daily, it needs all the reinforcement it can get to cope successfully with the Republican party, which has been established here for years now, and which is fortified by having behind it a not over-scrupulous administration. It is therefore fore for the progressive Democrats and the intelligent Home Rulers in Honolulu to follow the example set by Maui of fusion. There is no reason why such a step should not be accomplished here, as well as on Hawaii, Maui and Kauai, where the Republicans will find themselves opposed by one party only, and where they have no hope of winning out by butting in between two opposing tickets.

On Maui Beckley and Kaiue acted as obstructionists, and they were consequently turned down. We shall not be surprised, if we see Beckley appearing as an independent or even a Republican candidate for political honors at the next election, but we doubt that he will select Maui for the scene of action, because defeated as he stands by the party he has betrayed, he would find only a lukewarm support in the Republican ranks, which, even if they wished to, could not elect him. Beckley stood for all that was clean and good in politics when he first made his appearance in the Legislature. He was hailed with acclamation by friends and opponents alike, and he had before him a bright political future. As a Republican hanger on, distrusted by his own people, watched secretly with suspicion by his new allies, he will soon find his political career ended, a fact that all friends of the Hawaiian race regret. It is another instance of where a bright young Hawaiian has been unable to resist flattery and promises and has fallen by the political wayside.

As for Hon Samuel E Kaiue we are never—Hello, hello! His past usefulness as a Senator is at an end, but he'll still remain, no doubt, as the Home Rule boss, although the younger element have the best of him at this time.

Maui has done well, and the victory will follow the excellent political strategy of the leaders, when election day comes around. Is Senator H P B still out of politics?

SMALL FARMING IDEA.

If the Advertiser would devise means to prevent Asiatics from becoming American citizens, the question of Hawaii's political future would be solved without having recourse to the doubtful scheme of inveigling American farmers to emigrate to these Islands and starve. The Advertiser persists in its misleading and false theory, that markets will follow production.

We hold—and events have too often proven that we are right—that we must arrange for markets and transportation before devoting time and money to production. Put a thousand farmers on the best lands we can pick out, and let them cultivate them on the line of the most productive farms found anywhere, the result will be the same, and that is utter failure through the want of a market, caused by the absolute impossibility of our competing in price and production with the California farmers.

We wish that the Advertiser, which undoubtedly has the best of intentions, would arrange a paper farm and show us in detail the expenses of running it and the income to be derived from it. Give us some figures from one of these imaginary small farms, and we shall soon show what a wide difference there is between theorizing in the Advertiser office and farming on the "homesteads."

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The success of the Japanese in the war with Russia will have good effect in Hawaii. It will open Korea for Japanese colonization and thus turn the tide of Japanese immigration from Honolulu to the Hermit Kingdom.

One thing the voters should aim for in the coming election is the choice of men as thoroughly conversant with taxation systems as possible. This is one of the most important matters to come before the next Legislature, and only men who know how to handle it should be entrusted with the work.

The next Legislature would not be complete without Oily Billy White being there. He is sure of his election and the old "smooth-borer" will be heard again. We have not been able to find confirmation of the rumor, that Billy received a cable from Col Mazuma, via the Moon, just after his nomination, which read: "Go! Oily! Congratulations."

Allowing the walks in Emma square to be constructed by Japanese is another outrage of our Republican government. For the sake of a few dollars saved on the payroll of his department, Superintendent Holloway is willing to pour another neat sum of public money into Yokohama. In the meanwhile citizen workmen are walking the streets and looking for work. What will the voter do about it in November.

It is very interesting on the eve of an election to see the old old cigarette controversy cropping up in the official organ. Why not have a plank in the Republican platform promising a prohibition law against cigarettes in case of a Republican victory. The "plank" would be as intelligent as some of the others in that original platform, and the Republicans would carry out an anti-cigarette promise as conscientiously as they will their other pre election promises.

The presence in Wailuku of the two governors did evidently not have the desired effect on the stalwart Democrats, who, since the fusion with the Home Rulers, are invincible. The Governor's personally conducted campaign has no effect on the Mauiites. They will "lusu" him and serenade him, but they will not give his administration their political support. Even "Jack" couldn't pull the legs of Maui's seasoned, old, political war-horses.

If the voters on the other islands will follow the example of Maui and present a fusion ticket of Democrats and Home Rulers, the Republicans will meet their Waterloo, and be known no longer, in the administration of the Territory. The leaders of the Home Rulers and Democrats are not novices in politics, and the game of "give and take" is easily learned. If a fusion can be satisfactorily arranged on Maui, Kauai and Hawaii, we do not see any reason why Oahu should not fall into line. Harmony is now the battle cry.

Because a few Democrats and Home Rulers, some of whom were absent from the city, were delinquent with their water-rates, their supply of water was cut off by order of Superintendent Howland. But how about delinquent Republicans?—did he give them the same dose? From present knowledge—no; only kenekas were wanted pressed and coerced, with a view, probably, of bringing them to terms and to a realization that they must look to Republicans for favors, and in return their votes might be desired in order to retain them in office unto life's end. Nit; so can do!

It would be a satisfaction to a large majority of the people should Cecil Brown fail of nomination in the Republican convention tonight. Mr Brown has been in the Legislature so long that he imagines he has a fee simple title to a seat there for life. This feeling has led to arrogance and a lack of respect for the rights of the people. But that is not the worst of it. Mr Brown's record in the last Legislature stinks to heaven. His Pauoa water and banking bills would make a Senator Burton sick. The Republican party cannot do a better thing than to put him out of the way of doing farther harm; and it is certain that if he runs as an independent candidate he will be snowed so deep that it will take a well-boring outfit to rescue the remains.

Some Fugilistic Tips.

From one who professes to know, claiming that he has closely watched all the principal actors in tonight's fistic tournament, the following tips are given, free gratis, for the benefit of our readers:

In the chief event of the night, the bout between Tim Murphy and Bill Huihui, the Australian will beat the Hawaiian within the time limit.

If the Jackson-Castro bout goes to the limit of time, Jackson will surely win over his antagonist on points. But if it should end before the fourth round, Castro will win over his opponent by a knock-out blow.

And in the Ackerman-Silva bout, Ackerman will get the decision.

The above are given not with the intention of making sure bets, but merely as the opinion of one who follows the game.

District Court Doings

At today's session, the case of embezzlement against Kayano, which has been pending since August 30th last, was further postponed to the 30th inst. Other cases put off were those against J Hoo-mau, for selling liquor without a license, to next Wednesday, and Apio, for assault and battery, to next Monday. Another case against Apio, for cruelty to animals, was disposed of by his being fined $5 and costs.

Three Chinese were up for gambling in playing che fa. One was nolle prossed and two fined $20 and costs each. A native woman was nolle prossed for being drunk, H Delanux, for the same, was fined $6 and costs and Cramer $3 and costs. George Freitas and Willie Meyer, both for truancy, were reprimanded and discharged.

There will be no session tomorrow, it being a local holiday.

Democrats Confer.

New York, Sept 16—Judge Parker is here conferring with Hill, Davis and Lament about his letter of acceptance and the gubernatorial fight.

Mrs Mackintosh's Death.

The following is an extract from a letter received here from Dresden concerning the recent death of Mrs A Mackintosh:

Dresden, Aug 25, 1904.

Yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock Mrs Mackintosh was taken from us. She died of apoplexy and had not a moment's pain or any consciousness of her illness. She had been out shopping with Bertha and Marie and at 12 o'clock I saw her at the dressmaker's looking regal in her new velvet dress. At one o'clock they came home and her head, which had been aching for some days, was very bad. She undressed, lay down on the bed, was very sick and at once fell into a sort of sleep, from which she never regained consciousness. The doctor was sent for at once and she was sick at intervals. He said it was a slight stroke—to keep her absolutely still and not raise her head. They sent for him again about four as she was breathing strangely. He came after 5 p.m. She passed away without a struggle at 6 o'clock. The evening before Bertha had a little supper for them and Aunt Lillie was the life of the party—full of fun and looking so well and happy.

She is going to be taken to the beautiful church this afternoon and the service will be some time on Friday. Aeneas will be here on Friday morning. We telegraphed at once and had her answer last evening before eleven.

I never saw anyone look so beautiful as she does, the most heavenly expression of peace on her face.

Mr Mackintosh is quite stunned. He keeps saying: "I knew it was coming. I felt this dreadful darkness on my heart."

Catholic Priest Homeward Bound.

Rev Thomas Palmes, a Filipino Roman Catholic priest, age about 50 years, was a passenger on the Coptic returning home. He has been on the mainland on a special mission to the Washington government and speaks in high terms of his treatment there, and more particularly of the relations between the United States government and the Catholic Church. During his sojourn there, he met President Roosevelt, the late Senator Mark Hanna and other prominent Americans, and of whom he spoke very highly.

He spent three months of his time in Porto Rico and he visited the St. Louis Exposition where he has been in attendance since April last. And while in St. Louis on the day of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary (August 15), he, with 17 other priests heard confession from over a thousand people, many of whom were Filipinos and American soldiers. His father is in the Government employ in the Philippines.

While here, he was the guest of the Roman Catholic Mission and lodged there Wednesday night. This morning early he celebrated mass in the Cathedral. His impression of Honolulu is that it is a beautiful and lovely spot on the globe.

Sure to Win Out.

Charles Notley, the Home Rule candidate for delegate to Congress, reports quite hopefully of his campaign tour. He is so sure of his election that there need be no use for Democrats to stir out, as no attention will be paid them nor to their candidate, Col Isaoka. And he further says that the fight will be only between the Home Rulers and Republicans. On the strength of his Hawaii and Maui tour, he feels very confident of annexing Kauai to his banner and everything else that is likely to come before him.

Was a Big Success.

"Said Pasha," which was staged by amateur talent at the Hawaiian Opera house last evening, was a great success in every particular. The house was crowded. The play was brought out in a most interesting manner and everyone was heartily pleased with it. A repetition of the sketch will occur tomorrow evening at the same place.

Democratic Club Organized.

Last Tuesday evening, at the residence of A B L Hao, above the old Kahi Camp, quite a number assembled for the purpose of organizing a new Democratic club for that precinct, the seventh of the Fifth. Following were the officers elected: Sol Kealoha, president; Wm Kaai, vice president; Jno Kaiama, secretary; P K Kini, treasurer; Executive Committee: S M Maha, J S Chandler, D Kekulu, Jno Kaiama and S Luahine. The club has fifty members enrolled. After perfecting organization, speeches were made by F R Harvey, Wm Kaai and others.

A meeting of Democrats of the new Ninth of the Fourth was held last evening at the house of Kanealii in Kakaako. There was quite a large gathering of Hawaiians and much enthusiasm was displayed. The following officers were duly elected: L W P Kanealii president; O Mikiol vice president; Lono Mahuia, secretary, B Kauwe, treasurer; Executive Committee: R Kauwe, Ioelo Kikashi Moses Mau, L M Keanui and S K Kaona.

After the election and transaction of routine business the meeting was thrown open to speech making. Interesting addresses were delivered by all the officers. Other speakers were: Fred Turrill, E H F Wolter, P O'Sullivan, Umauma and others.

Back From Mainland Vacation.

Bro Frank, who returned day before yesterday by the Sierra after a two months vacation on the Mainland; left in the Likelike last evening for Lahaina, from which place he will go over to Waituku, where he is located in his vocation as an educator of the rising generation and where his sphere of influence is felt among a large circle. During his Mainland tour, the first he has taken in many years, he visited many places and went as far as Baltimore.

Paid Washington a visit and while there, on inquiring for the Hawaii delegation headquarters, none seemed to know; he even went so far as to visit some of the Departments, and no information could be got, and he was surprised that nothing or very little is known of Hawaii. There seemed to be no interest taken of Hawaii over there. He neither saw nor found any advertising literature, and the first he found was on the steamer coming down, from "Promotion" Eddie Boyd.

On his return, the train he was on was delayed in Kansas City through encountering bad weather. The trip over to San Francisco was made in nine days, which should have been made in three days. He says he is glad to get back and he feels much better in health and is ready to enter work with renewed energy and vigor.

Welcomed Home by Sons.

The Chinese beneficiaries of St. Elizabeth's House in Kapalama gave Deaconess Drant a welcome home reception and entertainment last night at the place. Oriental lanterns were hung out in front, giving the place a scene of gaiety and pleasure, the interior being brilliantly lighted as well, the whole making quite an illumination. Just previous to the reception, the beneficiaries of an American gave an exhibition march drill in the lot in front. The St. Andrew's Cadets, mostly Chinese marched out there in full force and helped to enliven the time, till it broke up, late.

Russian at Vancouver.

Victoria, Sept 16—His Majesty's ship Grafton, flagship of the station, has returned to port. The Graf on has been docked for a hasty cleaning, the Flora is ready for sea and the Shearwater is ashore.

Shanghai, Sept 16—The Japanese are determined to frustrate the departure of the crews of the Askold and Grozovoi.

Washington, Sept 16—It is unlikely that the officers and crew of the dismantled Russian cruiser Lena will be permitted to take further part in the war.

Mukden, Sept 16—The panic has been allayed, business is resumed and the declaration is made that the Japanese lost 40,000 killed and wounded in one day's fighting. Twelve thousand Russian wounded are being treated in the hospitals here.

London, Sept 16—The Japanese intend transferring the whole of the Liaotung peninsula to China, making Port Arthur an open port.
