The South African Tragedy

Down in South Africa there is going on one of those great world tragedies whose problems have never yet been solved to the satisfaction of humanity. On the one side is the force of a great empire tending to progress and the advancement of civilization, and on the other a free people opposed to progress and to change, holding fast to the ways of their fathers and resolved to die rather than surrender that freedom. The human intellect approves the cause of the empire, but the heart sympathizes with the indomitable patriots. Between the two there is no longer organized war; there is only the struggle of military power against the strength of an armed and desperate people. Civilization stands half affrighted at the task imposed upon her, and even in Great Britain itself earnest and noble minds are doubting whether anything victory can give will repay the appalling cost required to achieve it.

In his recent speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet, Salisbury indicated a clear conception of the difficulties that confront him in dealing with the problem, and his only word of good cheer on the subject was the expression of a hope that ere long representatives of the burghers of the Transvaal and of the Orange Free State may have seats in the Imperial Parliament and the conquered provinces be reconciled to become parts of the empire as self governing states.

The expression of such a hope indicates on the part of the British Premier an intention, or at least a desire, to pursue in South Africa a policy of conciliation. It suggests, however, nothing definite in the way of immediate policy, nor intimates how conciliation can be effected with men resolved to die rather than accept conciliation upon any other terms than those of absolute independence.

The situation so far from clearing up after the dispersion of the Boer armies has grown darker. It is now evident that Kruger's retirement from South Africa was not a flight, but a movement for protracting the war by appealing to the sympathies of Europe and to the interests of the nations on the side of the patriots. So far as the representatives of the Boers have spoken at all their voices have been anything but weak or timid. Thus Kruger himself said at Marseilles: "I have fought with savages, but the present war is even worse. We will never surrender. We are determined to fight to the last extremity, and if the republics of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State lose their independence it will be because they have lost every man, woman and child."

Olive Schreiner, speaking to a woman's convention at Cape Town, said recently: "I know not how it is with you; but for me, though I should live to be a very old woman, never again while I live shall I hear the name of England spoken or see it written but I shall hear a whisper, 'The oppressor.'" And again she said: "I know the day will come when hands will rise which will in actuality unfurl the republican flags and they will float free across South Africa. We may not live to see it; many of us may go down in tears and sorrow and blood to our graves; but the future is with the republicans."

Of course, too much importance must not be attached to words like these. The fierce cry for vengeance on the part of the conquered has been heard after every war. It came from the South immediately after every great war. It came from the South immediately after our Civil War, and it was heard for many a year from France after the war with Germany. Time has cured those passions. Southern men in the war against Spain fought as valiantly as those from the North under the flag of the nation; and in France to day the cry for "savanebe" has given way to talk of an alliance with Germany against Great Britain. The men and women of South Africa whose voices now sound like the roar heard from a "Numidian desert, with all her lions up," may grow calmer with the years.

It is to be noted that there is on the British side in South Africa a greater man than either Kitchener or Roberts; and that man is Cecil Rhodes, the author of the war. He has declared himself emphatically for a policy of conciliation at any and every cost. In a recent speech before the South African League at Cape Town he said: "If I could say a word to the Dutch, I would say, 'For goodness sake, drop this business about the late war and its bitterness. The whole country is one, and what a work we have before us.'" Thus he proposes to appeal to the self-interests of the patriots to get to work, to develop their country and to make it rich, promising equal rights and privileges to all. If that policy be adopted and Kitchener's harsh methods set aside there may yet be a solution of the problem that will not stagger civilization, but it must be admitted that at this time the prospects are far from cheering.—S. F. Call.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The terrible massacre of missionaries and Christians in the Southern provinces of China emphasizes the necessity for the great powers to warn the reckless missionaries that if they will spread the gospel they must do so at their own risk, and that they cannot look to their home governments for protection or redress. The world cannot afford to get into the turmoil of war for the benefit of fanatics who ruthlessly expose the lives of themselves, their wives and children. There is plenty of work for missionaries at home.

Dr. Serepo E. Bishop has an article in the Friend in which he appears to be greatly shocked because there was an exhibition of the Hula dance at a political luau given by Hawaiians in honor of Delegate Wilcox. The reverend gentleman had nothing to say some years ago when the pious Thurston made the Hula the drawing card at the Hawaiian exhibit at the Chicago exposition, or when that good Christian enlightened his dime museum with its cycloramas by the appearance of Hawaiian dancing girls; nor did he go into hysterics when the pillars of the church in charge of the Mid-winter Fair coined moneys through the performance of the "heathenish" hula. Why these tears now? Was Dr. Bishop not invited or did he share the fate of Queen Liliuokalani, Prince David and Colonel Parker in getting his invitation too late to get his lauhala pa-u—we mean his Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes—ready for the occasion?

The Germans have a proverb which has passed into all languages, that he who laughs last laughs best. This apropos of an article in this morning's government organ in reference to claims brought against the Hawaiian Government by foreign powers for the unlawful imprisonment of their subjects during the spurious emeute of 1895. The Cranston-Muller cases have no bearing whatsoever upon these claims. It was well known to the authorities and others that these men, prior to the emeute, belonged to the International Society, a gathering practically consisting of anarchists. Many of the members were of the socialistic and unruly class. The decision of Secretary of State Hay is a proper one in this case, but has no effect upon the cases of the "suspects" imprisoned without warrant and whose claims are supported by their respective governments. Proved participants in a revolution are certainly not entitled to compensation, but innocent men, non-participants, are as the government and its sycophantic organ will shortly discover.

The Executive Council which devotes a great deal of its valuable time in discussing which matters should be attended to by the heads of the different departments take a deep interest in the granting or refusing of liquor licenses in every corner hamlet of the islands. Yesterday we noticed that Mr. Dole's cabinet refused an application of Ah Lee, of Kapaa, Kauai, for a renewal of the light wine and beer license which Ah Lee has enjoyed for the past two years. Ah Lee has during those two years conducted his place strictly according to the terms of his license and the law; which is more than can be said about the majority of light wine saloon-keepers. No complaint has been laid against Ah Lee and when his license was renewed last time the residents of the neighborhood did not protest as it is claimed they have done now. We are able, however, to surmise why these "residents" have suddenly become aware that Ah Lee's saloon was a nuisance. Colonel Z. S. Spaulding, the great I Am of Kapaa, has returned to his province after numerous sojourns in "Paree" and other cities of the world. We can imagine His Pomposity noticing the saloon and immediately ordering his grand vizier to tell Dole to cancel the villain's license. The idea that the slaves of I Am should be permitted to drink wine and beer. How preposterous! Now the Colonel is perhaps able to "boss" Dole & Co., but he can't "boss" the Legislature which simply will change the existing liquor laws in such a manner that it will not be within the province of Dole and his Cabinet to discuss who shall or shall not have a license, or permit it to be within their power to prevent any man from earning an honest living. It is about time these narrow-minded imbeciles were put on the shelf.

When the Legislature granted a charter to the Hawaiian Electric Co. which gave a monopoly to that concern, it was of course stipulated that it should furnish a first class service for the benefit of the public and at specific rates. The present service of the Company is simply a disgrace. The lights go out the elevators are down, and only the charges in the bills are moving up at an alarming rate. If a speedy change is not made in the service furnished in behooves the next Legislature to cancel the present charter and let lighting by electricity be open to the public.

The much bragged about Republican meeting of last evening at the Drill Shed, presumed to be for a patriotic purpose, was about the saddest held during the campaign. In the first place the delegates did not turn up to decide the momentous question of practically a non-partisan convention for the preparation of a charter, and there was not a majority present. Again they who were there apparently did not know their own minds and could not work in harmony and split up as they did on election day. Again our friend J. D. McCants Stewart, who presided, so far as his buxette complexion is concerned, representing, but not endorsed by the ruling brute race, talked too much and too frequently while the blondaines felt small and wilted and contented themselves with quarrelling.

Eventually the following resolution was adopted: "It is the sense of this meeting that the Executive Committee of the Republican party of Hawaii decide and declare for itself and the Republican party in the matter of framing a municipal charter, without any further conference in reference to the same."

This morning the Executive Committee in its purblind wisdom decided to decline the invitation of the Independent party for consultation but agreed to appoint a committee of thirty citizens to prepare a charter on behalf of the Republican party. The Independents await the result with the intention of giving fair play if fair play is given.

KRUGER WILL NOT VISIT GERMANY.

Receives Official Intimation That the Kaiser Cannot Receive Him

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—Mr. Kruger has abandoned his proposed visit to Berlin, owing to the receipt of an official intimation that Emperor William regrets that in consequence of previous arrangements he will be unable to receive him. The Boer statesman will therefore proceed direct from Cologne for Holland. He telegraphed to this effect this afternoon.

The Cologne Gazette, in an inspired article, says: "Mr. Kruger's visit is not agreeable to Germany, his aim being to obtain intervention in South Africa. It would be a grave political mistake—it would be even a great crime—to allow him to entertain even a spark of hope that Germany will render him any practical support."

This declaration is accompanied by reproaches, Mr. Kruger being charged with "having encouraged a useless guerrilla warfare and having disregarded Germany's advice when he might have still followed it."

The press generally strikes the same note. COLOGNE, Dec. 2.—Thousands of people waited to day in the vicinity of the Cathedral Hotel to catch a glimpse of Mr. Kruger, who, when replying to the deputation of Bonn students in the afternoon, described the educational progress of the Transvaal, thanked the students for their kind welcome and shook hands with each. A terward he appeared upon the balcony and was loudly cheered. Having rested for half an hour he went into the vestibule of the hotel, which was crowded with visitors. Here, replying to a deputation from the Pan-German League wishing him success, he referred to the close relationship between the Boers and the Germans. It is expected that Mr. Kruger will remain here until Wednesday.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The morning papers comment with unbounded enthusiasm upon the abrupt snub administered by Emperor William to Mr. Kruger, which is all the more noticeable when contrasted with the Boer statesman's successful visit to France. The snub is regarded as further evidence of the good relations existing between Germany and Great Britain.

Emperor William's telegram to the German Minister at Luxemburg was the outcome of the following dispatch which Mr. Kruger sent to the Kaiser on arriving at the German frontier:

"On reaching German soil I hasten to express to your Majesty my sentiments of respectful devotion and cordial sympathy."

The official explanation offered through the German press is that steps had not been taken to ascertain whether Mr. Kruger's visit would be agreeable. The Boer delegates admit that they have received a serious check and Mr. Kruger is said to be extremely disheartened. There is a rumor that he had been requested to avoid Belgium territory.

PARIS Dec. 2.—Emperor William's refusal to receive Mr. Kruger has caused general surprise here. Most of the morning papers make it an excuse for articles sympathizing with the Boer statesman and condemning the Kaiser.

"The Kaiser is no longer a modern Lohengrin," says the Echo de Paris, "but a simple disciple of Bismarck. His attitude is dictated by the interests of Germany, which he considers identical with those of England."

Some papers publish the Kaiser's famous telegram of 1896 to Mr. Kruger side by side with that of yesterday.

The intransigent and Nationalist organs comment with their customary violence.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

The terrible massacre of missionaries and Christians in the Southern provinces of China emphasizes the necessity for the great powers to warn the reckless missionaries that if they will spread the gospel they must do so at their own risk, and that they cannot look to their home governments for protection or redress. The world cannot afford to get into the turmoil of war for the benefit of fanatics who ruthlessly expose the lives of themselves, their wives and children. There is plenty of work for missionaries at home.

Dr. Soren E Bishop has an article in the Friend in which he appears to be greatly shocked because there was an exhibition of the Hula dance at a political luau given by Hawaiians in honor of Delegate Wilcox. The reverend gentleman had nothing to say some years ago when the pious Thurston made the Hula the drawing card at the Hawaiian exhibit at the Chicago exposition, or when that good Christian enlivened his dime museum with its cyclorama by the appearance of Hawaiian dancing girls; nor did he go into hysterics when the pillars of the church in charge of the Mid-winter Fair coined moneys through the performance of the "heathenish" hula. Why these tears now? Was Dr. Bishop not invited or did he share the fate of Queen Liliuokalani, Prince David and Colonel Parker in getting his invitation too late to get his lauhala pa-u—we mean his Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes—ready for the occasion?

The Germans have a proverb which has passed into all languages, that he who laughs last laughs best. This apropos of an article in this morning's government organ in reference to claims brought against the Hawaiian Government by foreign powers for the unlawful imprisonment of their subjects during the spurious emsute of 1895. The Cranston-Muller cases have no bearing whatsoever upon these claims. It was well known to the authorities and others that these men, prior to the emsute, belonged to the International Society, a gathering practically consisting of anarchists. Many of the members were of the socialistic and unruly class. The decision of Secretary of State Hay is a proper one in this case, but has no effect upon the cases of the "suspects" imprisoned without warrant and whose claims are supported by their respective governments. Proved participants in a revolution are certainly not entitled to compensation, but innocent men, non-participants, are as the government and its sycophantic organ will shortly discover.

The Executive Council which devotes a great deal of its valuable time in discussing which matters should be attended to by the heads of the different departments take a deep interest in the granting or refusing of liquor licenses in every corner hamlet of the islands. Yesterday we noticed that Mr. Dole's cabinet refused an application of Ah Lee, of Kapaa, Kauai, for a renewal of the light wine and beer license which Ah Lee has enjoyed for the past two years. Ah Lee has during those two years conducted his place strictly according to the terms of his license and the law which is more than can be said about the majority of light wine saloon-keepers. No complaint has been laid against Ah Lee and when his license was renewed last time the residents of the neighborhood did not protest as it is claimed they have done now. We are able, however, to surmise why these "residents" have suddenly become aware that Ah Lee's saloon was a nuisance. Colonel Z. S. Spaulding, the great I Am of Kapaa, has returned to his province after numerous sojourns in "Paree" and other cities of the world. We can imagine His Pomposity noticing the saloon and immediately ordering his grand vizier to tell Dole to cancel the villain's license. The idea that the slaves of I Am should be permitted to drink wine and beer. How preposterous! Now the Colonel is perhaps able to "boss" Dole & Co., but he can't "boss" the Legislature which simply will change the existing liquor laws in such a manner that it will not be within the province of Dole and his Cabinet to discuss who shall or shall not have a license, or permit it to be within their power to prevent any man from earning an honest living. It is about time these narrowminded imbeciles were put on the shelf.

When the Legislature granted a charter to the Hawaiian Electric Co. which gave a monopoly to that concern, it was of course stipulated that it should furnish a first class service for the benefit of the public and at specific rates. The present service of the Company is simply a disgrace. The lights go out the elevators are down, and only the charges in the bills are moving up at an alarming rate. If a speedy change is not made in the service furnished in behooves the next Legislature to cancel the present charter and let lighting by electricity be open to the public.

The much bragged about Republican meeting of last evening at the Drill Shed, presumed to be for a patriotic purpose, was about the saddest held during the campaign. In the first place the delegates did not turn up to decide the momentous question of practically a non-partisan convention for the preparation of a charter, and there was not a majority present. Again they who were there apparently did not know their own minds and could not work in harmony and split up as they did on election day. Again our friend J. D. McCants Stewart, who presided, so far as his buzzette complexion is concerned, representing, but not endorsed by the ruling buzzette race, talked too much and too frequently while the blondaines felt small and wilted and contented themselves with quarrelling.

Eventually the following resolution was adopted:

"It is the sense of this meeting that the Executive Committee of the Republican party of Hawaii decide and declare for itself and the Republican party in the matter of framing a municipal charter, without any further conference in reference to the same."

This morning the Executive Committee in its purblind wisdom decided to decline the invitation of the Independent party for consultation but agreed to appoint a committee of thirty citizens to prepare a charter on behalf of the Republican party. The Independents await the result with the intention of giving fair play if fair play is given.

KRUGER WILL NOT VISIT GERMANY.

Receives Official Intimation That the Kaiser Cannot Receive Him

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—Mr. Kruger has abandoned his proposed visit to Berlin, owing to the receipt of an official intimation that Emperor William regrets that in consequence of previous arrangements he will be unable to receive him. The Boer statesman will therefore proceed direct from Cologne for Holland. He telegraphed to this effect this afternoon.

The Cologne Gazette, in an inspired article, says: "Mr. Kruger's visit is not agreeable to Germany, his aim being to obtain intervention in South Africa. It would be a grave political mistake—it would be even a great crime—to allow him to entertain even a spark of hope that Germany will render him any practical support."

This declaration is accompanied by reproaches, Mr. Kruger being charged with "having encouraged a useless guerrilla warfare and having disregarded Germany's advice when he might have still followed it."

The press generally strikes the same note.

COLOGNE, Dec. 2.—Thousands of people waited to day in the vicinity of the Cathedral Hotel to catch a glimpse of Mr. Kruger, who, when replying to the deputation of Bonn students in the afternoon, described the educational progress of the Transvaal, thanked the students for their kind welcome and shook hands with each. Afterward he appeared upon the balcony and was loudly cheered. Having rested for half an hour he went into the vestibule of the hotel, which was crowded with visitors. Here, replying to a deputation from the Pan-German League wishing him success, he referred to the close relationship between the Boers and the Germans. It is expected that Mr. Kruger will remain here until Wednesday.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The morning papers comment with unbounded enthusiasm upon the abrupt snub administered by Emperor William to Mr. Kruger, which is all the more noticeable when contrasted with the Boer statesman's successful visit to France. The snub is regarded as further evidence of the good relations existing between Germany and Great Britain.

Emperor William's telegram to the German Minister at Luxemburg was the outcome of the following dispatch which Mr. Kruger sent to the Kaiser on arriving at the German frontier:

"On reaching German soil I hasten to express to your Majesty my sentiments of respectful devotion and cordial sympathy."

The official explanation offered through the German press is that steps had not been taken to ascertain whether Mr. Kruger's visit would be agreeable. The Boer delegates admit that they have received a serious check and Mr. Kruger is said to be extremely disheartened. There is a rumor that he had been requested to avoid Belgium territory.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—Emperor William's refusal to receive Mr. Kruger has caused general surprise here. Most of the morning papers make it an excuse for articles sympathizing with the Boer statesman and condemning the Kaiser.

"The Kaiser is no longer a modern Lohengrin," says the Echo de Paris, "but a simple disciple of Bismarck. His attitude is dictated by the interests of Germany, which he considers identical with those of England."

Some papers publish the Kaiser's famous telegram of 1896 to Mr. Kruger side by side with that of yesterday.

The intransigent and Nationalist organs comment with their customary violence.

KRUGER WILL NOT VISIT GERMANY.

Receives Official Intimation That the Kaiser Cannot Receive Him

BERLIN, Dec. 2.—Mr. Kruger has abandoned his proposed visit to Berlin, owing to the receipt of an official intimation that Emperor William regrets that in consequence of previous arrangements he will be unable to receive him. The Boer statesman will therefore proceed direct from Cologne for Holland. He telegraphed to this effect this afternoon.

The Cologne Gazette, in an inspired article, says: "Mr. Kruger's visit is not agreeable to Germany, his aim being to obtain intervention in South Africa. It would be a grave political mistake—it would be even a great crime—to allow him to entertain even a spark of hope that Germany will render him any practical support."

This declaration is accompanied by reproaches, Mr. Kruger being charged with "having encouraged a useless general war and having disregarded Germany's advice when he might have still followed it."

The press generally strikes the same note.

COLOGNE, Dec. 2.—Thousands of people waited today in the vicinity of the Cathedral Hotel to catch a glimpse of Mr. Kruger, who, when replying to the deputation of Bonn students in the afternoon, described the educational progress of the Fransaal, thanked the students for their kind welcome and shook hands with each. A crowd he appeared upon the balcony and was loudly cheered. Having rested for half an hour he went into the vestibule of the hotel, which was crowded with visitors. Here, replying to a deputation from the Pan-German League wishing him success, he referred to the close relationship between the Boers and the Germans. It is expected that Mr. Kruger will remain here until Wednesday.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—The morning papers comment with unbounded enthusiasm upon the abrupt sub-administered by Emperor William to Mr. Kruger, which is all the more noticeable when contrasted with the Boer statesman's successful visit to France. The sub is regarded as further evidence of the good relations existing between Germany and Great Britain.

Emperor William's telegram to the German Minister at Luxembourg was the outcome of the following dispatch which Mr. Kruger sent to the Kaiser on arriving at the German frontier:

"On reaching German soil I hasten to express to your Majesty my sentiments of respectful devotion and cordial sympathy."

The official explanation offered through the German press is that steps had not been taken to ascertain whether Mr. Kruger's visit would be agreeable. The Boer delegates admit that they have received a serious check and Mr. Kruger is said to be extremely disheartened. There is a rumor that he had been requested to avoid Belgium territory.

PARIS Dec. 2.—Emperor William's refusal to receive Mr. Kruger has caused general surprise here. Most of the morning papers make it an excuse for articles sympathizing with the Boer statesman and condemning the Kaiser.

"The Kaiser is no longer a modern Lohengrin," says the Echo de Paris, "but a simple disciple of Bismarck. His attitude is dictated by the interests of Germany, which he considers identical with those of England."

Some papers publish the Kaiser's famous telegram of 1896 to Mr. Kruger side by side with that of yesterday.

The intransigent and Nationalist organs comment with their customary violence.
