Dear Chaplain, Saw few chaplains here, on their way, so I'm hoping that your turn will be up to join your family. We are in Wafers, awaiting transport, while the boys - the 2nd & 3rd groups, are just a few blocks away. Saw Kent standing, yesterday, trying to get a ride to town. He piled us in 40 & 8 box cars but no one complained as the thought of going home was too good.
The opera season is on & DiMoles & I took in Cido - better than the other operas we saw.
We are grouped in threes, Di, Crawley & I, together, while Major Mac, Corbin & Chip are together.
Please give my aloha to the officers & men and hope you won't be there too long. Will let you know when my first leg steps on Hawaii.
