WILCOX AHEAD ON MAUI

LOOKS LIKE INDEPENDENTS HAVE THAT ISLAND.

Baldwin Only Safe Republican—Fighting Chance for Kepoikal—Others out of It Altogether.

The news by the Eclipse is that Maui with Wailuku, Lanai and Molokai to hear from Wilcox was twenty-one votes ahead of Sam Parker. The total vote was as follows: Wilcox, 292; Parker, 372; David, 209.

The Independents say that the precincts not yet heard from will increase Wilcox's lead considerably.

The Senatorial ticket fared nearly as bad. H. P. Baldwin is the only Republican sure of election. He has 583 votes. Kalus, an Independent, leads with 620 votes. William White is the other safe man, with 511 votes.

Democrat—Fred Hayselden, 115; John Richardson, 90; D. P. Eldredge, 20; J. Hapai Nui, 67; Paia Naki, 60; A. K. Forsyth, 55.

Independent—Kawahoa, 136; J. K. Hihio, 179; Fred W. Beckley, 161; I. Ahuli, 127; G. P. Kaimakaoke, 132; D. K. Kahalelo, 120.

The Eclipse brought an indefinite report of some trouble at Wailuku and a probable contest. As the senatorial vote and not the others arrived from that precinct it is assumed that the fuss was over the vote or count for delegate.

LONDON BREAKS LOOSE

GIVES TREMENDOUS WELCOME TO RETURNING SOLDIERS.

Some People Killed and Injured in The Awful Crush of the Cheering Crowds.

LONDON, October 29.—London gave the City Imperial Volunteers a tremendous welcome when they returned today from South Africa. The streets were packed with dense masses of humanity and at times the police were utterly powerless to keep the way open for the soldiers.

The list of casualties among the welcoming multitude was longer than that of the whole corps in its twenty-six engagements in South Africa. Partial returns from the hospitals and police stations indicate that more than 200 were badly hurt; eight, and possibly ten being killed. There were 400 police and 22,000 troops on duty along the line of march, but they were unable to manage the crowds. Women and girls fainted and were trampled under foot.

A man who was leaning over the parapet of the roof of a four story building lost his balance and fell upon a group of women, killing one and hurting two others, but walked away himself apparently uninjured. Many of the soldiers on the line of march were hurt in combats with the crowd. Altogether London had a wild day, with much fun and unfortunately a deal of grief in many households because of accidents.

Indeed, the only surprising feature is that the casualties were not twice as numerous for, when night fell, the streets of London would have done credit to the Commune. It was a scene of unchecked saturnalia that met the eye. Fighting and swearing throngs fought vainly among themselves for the right of way. Half an hour was needed to make 100 yards progress along the Strand, and the feat could only be accomplished at the risk of life and limb.

FROM WAILUKU. The gasoline schooner Eclipse arrived at noon today from Kona and Maui. She touched at Maui at midnight and brought some election returns from there. Captain Henderson says there were reports of trouble over alleged ballot box stuffing at Wailuku.

NO DRUNKS YESTERDAY. A feature of election day was the absence of drunkenness in any part of the city. With the exception of an occasional native, feeling good after a pall of swipes, no one under the influence of liquor was to be found. Corks were drawn at both the Republican and Democratic headquarters after the results of the election began to come in. Saloons did not open at all, during the day or night.

THE OAHU LEGISLATORS

SEVENTY-SIX MILLIONS.

POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 30.—The population of Hawaii, as shown by the census returns made public today, is 164,900. In 1890 it was $9,900.

The total population of the United States for 1900 is 76,295,320. The population of the forty-five states is 74,657,907, the remainder being in the territories. The total population in 1890, including Hawaii, with which the aggregate population of the present census should be compared, was 63,069,756, the gain in population of 13,225,464, during the last ten years being nearly 21 per cent.

Under the census returns Washington is the only Pacific Coast State that may possibly gain in its Congressional representation. The population of the states, as announced by Director Merriam today, will afford data for a new Congressional apportionment, and the next session of Congress probably will fix the new ratio for Congressional representation.

At present there are 357 members of the House, including one vacancy, and there is a decided feeling against increasing that number. The lower branch of Congress already is so large that it is unwieldy, and if the present basis of representation, which is 173,901, should be maintained the membership of the House would be increased to more than 450.

In an informal and tentative way there has been some discussion of fixing the new ratio at 200,000. Even on that basis there would be a net increase in the membership of the House of eight—making the total membership 374. If the ratio were to be fixed at 200,000 these states would increase their Congressional delegations, as indicated: Arkansas 1, Colorado 1, Florida 1, Illinois 2, Louisiana 1, Massachusetts 1, Minnesota 2, Mississippi 1, Missouri 1, North Dakota 1, New Jersey 1, New York 2, Pennsylvania 2, Texas 2, Washington 1, West Virginia 1. This would make total increase in membership of twenty-two. Under the same ratio, however, Kansas, Maine, Nebraska and Virginia each would lose one Representative in Congress, leaving a net gain in the membership of the House of eight.

ALAMEDA SIGHTS WRECKAGE. Owing to a wait for the English mail, the bursting of a steam pipe and a heavy fog, the Alameda left San Francisco about nine hours late. For the first four days out disagreeable weather was encountered. Notwithstanding these various handicaps the ship made a good run to port.

At 7:40 p. m. Friday, November 2, in latitude 34-35 North, longitude 121-122 West, the deck officers sighted a dark object about fifty feet to windward, standing upright; it appeared to be the wreckage of a mast with rigging weighing end down.

EMPIRESS UNDAUNTED

TRYING TO RAISE A CHINESE ARMY.

Still Wants to Drive Foreigners Out of China—Blood Money Offered for Four Missionaries.

LONDON, October 31.—"Most serious trouble," says the Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express, "is brewing in the Yang-tse region, whether the Empress Dowager has sent emissaries to raise powerful armed bodies to exterminate converts and expel foreigners. She has appointed Yu Chuan, a notoriously anti-foreign General, to be military governor of the Yang-tse district."

WASHINGTON, October 27.—From an independent source, Secretary Hay has received confirmatory evidence of the reported suicide of Yu Hsiang, the fanatical Governor of the province of Shansi, whose punishment was demanded by the powers of the massacre of a large number of missionaries.

HONGKONG, October 27.—The Chinese Mutual Protective Society of the Hoing district has offered $500 for the head of Dr. Sager of the American Board of Missions and $300 each for the heads of Rev. S. G. Tope, a British missionary; Dr. Graves, a Southern Baptist missionary; and Dr. Beattie of the American Presbyterian Board.

ALEMADA ARRIVES. Many Kamaainas Return From San Francisco.

The steamship Alameda arrived at about noon today from San Francisco, having been delayed near the Golden Gate by fog. She put out from San Francisco at midnight on the 31st and ran into a heavy fog, which held her until the next morning. There was no damage to the vessel, but Purser Smith says that the fog moved away considerably broken up.

The following passengers arrived on the Alameda: A. H. Afong, Miss T. Bouquet, George J. Campbell, D. H. East, wife, and two children, H. Conlin, Mrs. D. Dorwood and son, J. J. Downing and wife, Mrs. W. J. Dyer, child, Mrs. W. J. England, W. W. Goodale, F. D. Greany, W. J. Greer, Miss Hickman, F. L. Hooks, Mrs. W. Le Hopper, Miss Hopper, H. Hudson and wife, M. Hyman, W. F. ### THE FIRST ELECTRIC CARS

RUN TO PACIFIC HEIGHTS THIS MORNING.

The Desky Road Tested and Found to be All Right—Regular Service in a Few Days.

The first electric street cars ever run in Hawaii were tested today and found satisfactory in every respect. They are on the Desky road to Pacific Heights, which will now be connected with Honolulu by regular electric car service in a few days.

The test made this morning was the first attempt to run the new cars. They were found to be all right in every way, and the run from the foot of the hill to the Heights was made without a mishap. Among those on board were Mr. Desky, W. C. Weedon, Mr. Skinner of the Westinghouse company, electrician McKee and others.

The car ran smoothly up the hill and down again, and now Desky's project of making electric car communication between the Heights and Honolulu is an accomplished fact.

SAW THE VOTING ON KAUAI

CAPTAIN TULLETT LEAVES BEFORE THE END.

He Thinks Parker Carried the Island—News to be Expected Here on Next Friday.

The Inter-Island steamer James Makee, Captain Tullett, arrived early this morning from Kapaia, having left at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, in the midst of the voting. The steamer had been weather bound at Hanalei and it was hoped that she would stay at Kapaia long enough to get some election returns, but she left before the voting was over.

Captain Tullett is of the opinion that Parker polled the biggest vote on Kauai. He says that Parker voters were everywhere in evidence at the polling place in Kapaia and that as far as he has been able to judge in his visits to other parts of the island, Parker sentiment is very strong.

"The voting was going on quietly when we left," said the captain, "and there promised to be a full vote cast. Though the island is Prince David's home I feel sure that Parker has carried the day, and I think Wilcox will show up second. The polling place at Kapaia is near the landing, and I had a chance to watch the voting. I would be willing to bet that Parker was a good deal ahead, and I expect the same result at Waimea and other places on the island, where I have watched the meetings throughout the campaign."

Five Inter-Island steamers leave for various Kauai ports today, taking to the Garden Isle news of the election on Oahu. Some of them are likely to return by Friday, with news of the results on Kauai.

MAJOR RUHLIN'S REPORT.

WASHINGTON, October 18.—In the annual report of Major General Shafter, commanding the Department of California, there is a report from Major George Ruhlman, Depot Quartermaster at Honolulu. The garrison at Honolulu consists of two batteries of the Sixth Artillery, who are in quarters at Camp McKinley, four and a half miles from the center of Honolulu. He says that troops should be quartered in plain frame buildings, rather than in canvases, as the climate along the seashore is very destructive to the latter.

Speaking of the bubonic plague, Major Ruhlman says that no person connected with the military service was exposed to the disease. The effects of the plague were that the quarantine restrictions provided for a time the use of Honolulu for a port for transport service.

WIRELESS TELEPHONING.

The development of wireless electric service, made by Sir W. H. Preece in the form of wireless telephoning, is a very interesting one. It seems so far to attain its greatest success in communicating across considerable bodies of water. Though Sir William made some of his earliest experiments by placing ordinary insulated wires in the ground at both ends the more signal success was in placing the terminal plates in the sea water. By this means telephone communication is now established between the Skerries and Anglesea, and between Rathlin Island and the north coast of Ireland, the distance of communication having in some cases been as great as twelve miles. One of the most important applications of this discovery is that with its use ships at sea can communicate with each other by telephone at a distance of many miles when they are placed in a parallel position. The use of wireless telephoning on land is however, of doubtful value as yet.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A TRUE FRIEND.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly awakened in the night by the ominous hucky cough, and labored breathing, of her babe. It is the safe resort of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is coughing and irritation of the mucous membrane of the throat. It allays the irritation and cures the cold. Unfit For Business.

Does that mean you? Are your nerves so irritable and restless that you cannot sleep at night? Does the morning find you weary and worn-out, without appetite for food and no energy or ambition to take up the cares of the day? Are your spirits depressed? Are you melancholy, got the blues? Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine, and insist on getting it. Before that bottle is gone you will find relief. It will give you new life, new ambition, new hope. Don't wait; begin today with

Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"I suffered from nervous or sick headaches for years and they continued to grow worse in spite of the efforts of our best physicians. I had no appetite, lost flesh, had no energy or ambition and could scarcely sleep at all. I was unfit for business four days out of a week and had almost lost hope when I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine and Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills about one year ago. I felt relief in twelve hours from the first dose and before the second bottle was gone I was feeling like a new man." EX-MAYOR T. N. L. CUNNINGHAM, Dayton, Tenn. TO BEAT WILCOX ANYWAY

DEMOCRATS SAID TO HAVE PLAN IN HAND.

Proposed to Throw Garibaldi Out at Washington Should He be Elected—At Various Headquarters.

Leading Democrats gathered at their headquarters last night to hear the news from the various precincts. About 9 o'clock when matters were getting rather blue for them W. A. Kinney got up to make what he called his first speech in the campaign. He said that though defeated the party went down with its colors flying. Just then a Republican quartette went by singing "David's in the cold, cold ground." Three cheers were proposed for David and given with a whoop. The Prince made a few remarks in which he thanked those present for their support and declared that he would stand again if the party ever wanted him. "We'll get you there yet, Prince," several of the somewhat wilted Unfortunates shouted out.

It is understood to be the intention of certain leading Democrats to try to keep Wilcox from being seated in case he is elected. They figured last night that with the close margin on Oahu there was great danger of Wilcox gaining sufficient plurality on the other islands to pull out ahead. Then the real work would be at hand. By keeping Wilcox out of Washington there would have to be a new election, with the contest between David and Parker alone. Just how the Democrats propose to work the matter out could not be learned but it seems probable that plans have not yet been fully considered inasmuch as the other islands have not been heard from.

The Republican headquarters on Hotel street were crowded all last evening. Returns favorable to Sam Parker began to come in by six o'clock and arrangements were made to post the figures outside, where a large crowd of people gathered to watch for results.

Inside the rooms the various telephone messages telling of Parker's lead were received with loud cheers. At eight o'clock there were enthusiastic Republicans with tables of figures showing that Parker was 400 ahead, but later his plurality began to go down.

At the Republican headquarters, as at other places, there were surprises when the returns began to come in. It appeared that there had been a lot of very insincere banner-carrying and ribbon-wearing. Candidates who had been out for the ticket found that in some places where there had been a fairly unanimous flaunting of the yellow Parker ribbon, there had been a vote the other way.

The pleasant surprises were the votes in the Wilcox strongholds, where Parker ran somewhat above expectations. In some of the supposed Republican districts there was a bit of a shock the other way, for Wilcox did better business than was expected.

Late in the evening, when it became certain that the Republicans had carried the day for the head of the ticket and a number of the legislative candidates, the crowd increased at the headquarters. The Independents had all left their rooms, and many people left the Democratic headquarters to come where the cheering was. Colonel Parker visited the headquarters late in the evening and was received with loud cheers.

Certificate of Increase OF CAPITAL STOCK OF THE BANK OF HAWAII, LTD.

I, Theo. F. Lansing, Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, U. S. A., in accordance with Section 11 Chapter XXIII of the Session Laws of 1898 relating to the increase of capital stock of incorporated Banking Companies do hereby certify that at a special meeting of the stockholders of The Bank of Hawaii, Ltd., held August 29, 1900, it was decided by a unanimous vote of more than two-thirds of the stockholders there represented, to increase the capital stock of said Bank from $400,000.00 to $600,000.00 by the issue of two thousand new shares, said increase to be issued October 15, 1900, and upon examination I am satisfied that said increase of $200,000.00 was duly paid in on October 15, 1900 and that all the requirements of said law has been fully complied with. Given under my hand and the seal of the Treasurer's office this 16th day of October A. D. 1900. (Seal) THEO. F. LANSING, Treasurer, Territory of Hawaii.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The undersigned hereby give notice that all passengers going Coastwise on the through steamers of the Oceanic S. S. Co. and Pacific Mail S. S. Co. who wish to have their baggage examined and sealed by the Collector of Customs at this port, PRIOR TO DEPARTURE, must have the examination made and a copy of declaration presented at the passenger ticket office of the Company before a ticket will be issued. The Company positively declines to accept such baggage declaration AFTER tickets have once been issued. It is, however, understood that it is optional with the passenger whether he has the baggage examined before departure or after arrival in San Francisco.

THE OAHU ELECTIONS.

The Island of Oahu may be regarded as safe for Sam Parker with a plurality of close upon 300. This makes the Republican candidate for Congress practically safe. The stronghold of the Independent party has been completely beaten and overturned, while the Democratic candidate with 807 votes, will be utterly unable to pull up even if he gets majorities on Kauai and Maui. Sam Parker is so hopelessly ahead of Prince David that the latter may be regarded as quite out of the race.

This of course leaves Sam Parker and Wilcox to fight the matter out. Wilcox put his full strength into Oahu, and possibly he may make a showing in Wailuku, where the Independents have many friends. As to the rest of the Islands he will be nowhere, and what he does get will be by dividing with Prince David, while Parker will be soaring along adding to his majority steadily.

As far as the Republican candidate for delegate is concerned we may breathe freely. It was vital to the prosperity of the Territory that a Republican should be chosen. It was equally vital that a man such as Wilcox is should not be chosen. The vote is the end of Wilcox. Two years from now he will be unable to get together even a corporal's guard upon issues of hatred and abuse of the white population, and he has no other issues to fight upon. He may now be considered to have played his last card and to have burst his bubble of popularity. He will now be relegated to the obscurity which he never should have emerged from. His reputation—but there, he never had any reputation so what is the good of discussing it. He had notoriety which some people have mistaken for reputation. His countrymen are well rid of a man who has persistently used his influence to their detriment and for his own selfish ends.

With regard to the senatorial and representative tickets, the Republican party has not made a sweep, but it will have a majority, though not a large one. But the other Islands will give only a much better showing than Oahu. The probability will be that the Republican majority will be large enough to carry both houses though not against a coalition of Democrats and Independents, could such a coalition take place which is very unlikely, for upon vital questions, touching the good of the Territory and its economic management, many Democrats would vote with the Republicans. We are not quite out of the wood, but the light is brighter.

TWO SUGGESTIONS.

From our experience of yesterday it is very plain that the next Congress should give the election law a very thorough overhauling. The main point to be gained is to let the voter cast his vote as quickly as possible. To do this the precincts should be subdivided and there should not be more than 200, or 250 voters to each precinct. The lesser number would be the better. Then there would be no need of more than three boxes, and everybody could easily vote by five o'clock.

Another thing that should be decided upon is the length of time to be allowed to mark the ballot or ballots. According to the present law there is no provision and taking advantage of that an elderly gentleman occupied a box in Pauoa over twenty-five minutes, thus keeping at least twelve people from recording their votes. This of course is an absurdity and it is one which the Inspectors of election should not have allowed. In some places there is a three minute rule, in others a five minute rule. The latter is certainly ample.

These two ideas strike one at the outset, there are many more suggestions which can be obtained by studying the laws of various states that have adopted the Australian ballot system. Our law at present is very crude indeed, but then this is the first time that we have put it to a practical test. The election of 1898 polled such a light vote, that it was really no test.

THE CHINESE QUESTION.

The conditions in China are by no means so satisfactory as the Western powers would wish. The Chinese are proposing a basis which they should know will not be admitted, but even in this they are astute. They calculate that they are dealing with half a dozen powers, and that it will take them time to negotiate between themselves before they come to an agreement. Therefore there will be time gained and as long as the Eastern mind can gain time, it is satisfied that it is winning no losing. It was this policy which the Eastern Emperor Alexander Comensus employed against the Western crusaders who swarmed through his dominions. He temporized, he divided, and he did away with the storm for a time. Eventually came others who could not be temporized with, and the Western wave eventually swept his descendants away, for a time.

No one can read the Chinese proposals for a basis of peace without seeing this temporizing policy sticking out. These proposals are as follows:

1. That as the attack on the Foreign Legations was a manifest violation of the law of nations, there can be no question about China's obligation to apologize.

2. That China is bound to pay a proper indemnity.

3. That the amount of the indemnity to be paid to the Powers collectively shall be fixed first, and subsequently, the indemnities to each Power separately, and that so soon as an arrangement is arrived at on these points, the allied forces shall be withdrawn.

4. That if any revision or supplementing of existing treaties or any concluding of new conventions be contemplated, the present opportunity should be taken.

5. That as the allied forces were put in motion solely for the avowed purpose of succoring the Legations, an armistice should commence simultaneously with the opening of peace negotiations.

That such proposals will be accepted as a basis is of course absurd, because they only promise an apology and a possible indemnity, but they will gain their end by causing delay, and that is all that they are for.

That even Russia views the Chinese question as an unsolved problem and one can see in what direction she is drifting by the following extract from Novosti, a semi-official journal of some weight. It says:

"It has been said in some foreign publications that the aim of the allies was accomplished when Peking was taken. But the presence of Graf v. Waldersee is by no means unnecessary. No one knows as yet what turn affairs may take. Daily we hear of new riots in China, and it is apparent that the Chinese Government, though anxious to make peace, still encourages the Boxer movement. It should be remembered that Graf v. Waldersee is commander-in-chief in Pe-chi-li only. But it would be queer if only a fictitious power were given him there. He will have trouble enough, as it is, to make the Chinese understand that reparation really must be made. Should China have neither money nor credit, then the powers would be justified in taking territorial pledges, and the commander-in-chief will have to determine the places and the number of the troops occupying different places."

This is a fair clean avowal for the partition of China as against such a program as the Chinese proposals to the representatives of the Western powers.

It is a thousand pities that the telegraph takes away the responsibility of men on the spot, and that everything that men now do is in a large measure directed from the capitals of Washington, London, Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg. Clive would never have acquired the fruits of his victory of Assaye, nor would Warren Hastings have gained his diplomatic triumphs, winning an empire with only a handful of troops, if either of them had been at the end of a telegraph wire. The fact that it took near six months for their dispatches to reach home, and another six months for them to receive a reply, enabled them to carry out their schemes. It would be utterly impossible for either a Clive, a Warren Hastings to act in China at the present day, and yet it is just that kind of intellect and self-confident courage which is required to deal with the Chinese court at the present moment. If the status of the Chinese Empire is not settled now, it will be left unsettled for probably half a century to come, and will cost many lives in the course of settlement.

The honor of running the first line of electric cars in the Territory belongs to Mr. Desky, everything was ready last night for a start today. Mr. Desky certainly deserves to do well with his Pacific Heights scheme. He has opened up a situation for building which is unique in the history of the city. The scheme is the pioneer of other expansion, and people will soon be living on the cool highlands instead of on the hot lowlands. Mr. Desky's enterprise will be the commencement of a new era in building.

The excellent order of yesterday emphasizes what has often been said about the good temper of this community. There had been a very heated campaign in which most intemperate language was used, and prejudice of the deepest kind was appealed to, yet, when the day of election came, the crowds were as orderly as they could be, and this also in spite of the fact that men had to stand in line for hours waiting their turn to vote. This latter fact would in itself, in most countries, have brought about any amount of fights, yet even this inflexion was borne with perfect equanimity and good humor. This is much to the credit of the people of the Island of Oahu.

The effect of closing the saloons for the entire day proved very satisfactory and undoubtedly saved a great deal of drunkenness. At former elections it has been the habit to open the saloons at the closing of the polls, viz: 5 o'clock. With the very great excitement which was in the political air, and the very late hour at which the count came along, had the saloons been open between the hours of 5 and 11:30 p. m. there would undoubtedly have been a great deal of drunkenness and consequent disorder. Men, being already excited, a very small amount of liquor would have set their tongues wagging and their brains on fire. The authorities are to be commended and will be so even by the liquor sellers, for except those places which are on the verge of the disreputable, the ordinary liquor seller does not want drunk and rowdy men upon his premises.

NEW ROCK QUARRY OPENED

ONE STARTED NEAR LUNALILO HOME.

Prisoners Get Out Macadam for the City's Streets—Mr. Henry Preparing for Labor Discussion.

Jailor Henry, in conjunction with the road department, has opened near Lunaliilo Home a new rock quarry and black sand bed. This gives three in which prison labor is utilized. The new quarry is about 200 yards above the old Makiki rifle range. It is against the side of a low hill, but the very best and best stone is obtained. How long the supply will last, however, is a matter of some doubt.

Up to now all the work of the prisoners has been on the surface, no extensive digging nor blasting having yet been found necessary. Boulders weighing from a half ton to two tons are then broken with sledge hammers into chunks about as big as a man's head. These chunks are loaded upon small cars and taken over a tram track to the crushing plant, which is about a hundred yards away. In this machinery all grades of macadam are turned out.

From the crusher the road department gets in its work. Wagons are lined up under the chute and are then loaded, one after another, with the particular grade of material required. Up to this point the system is first class in every detail and an immense amount of material is sent out in a day. From the crusher, however, to the street about 300 yards away is one of the worst roads in the country. It is badly cut up and nearly all the time has several inches of mud upon it. During the recent wet spell it was nothing to see a wagon wheel sink into the mud in the flush. Double teams had to be brought in to pull the wagons up to the good grounds.

The new quarry was opened for more than one reason. Besides the fact of its convenience and the increasing demand of macadam Mr. Henry is anticipating the need or if in disposing of a very serious question that will doubtless come before the next legislature. That of prison labor. Indications are that there will be a red hot war against the employment of prisoners upon work that citizens may undertake on Hawaii and Maui there will be no special kick. It is true that the prisoners work on roads there, but the improvements are so greatly needed and labor so hard to get that doubtless nothing will be said. In Honolulu are 125 "hard labor" prisoners. This is a large force for a small place. Prisoners have been withdrawn from the streets on account of the competition with free labor. There is nothing inside the prison for them to do, so that Mr. Henry forecasts that the only solution of the approaching problem will be to work them in the quarries as now.

Another matter in connection with prisoners that must be handled by the next legislature is that of the character of work to be performed by the different "degrees" of criminals. Under the law there is no distinction made between a man who steals chickens and one convicted of manslaughter in the first degree. Both are sentenced to hard labor, and hard labor both must get. This question was brought out strongly in the case of W. H. Marshall, the man who was convicted of libel. His offense appeared in a different light to that of a murderer or an embezzler and yet under the law he was sent out with these convicts to break rock in the quarry alongside of them. In the case of Marshall the jailor has taken to his own hands now to keep the prisoner inside the jail on some lighter work. Of course this is contrary to the court mittimus, which reads "hard labor" but Mr. Henry believes popular sentiment in the matter will sustain his action. At the same time numerous men in prison for petty crimes are working side by side with dyed-in-the-wool criminals.

Mr. Henry has an idea for working the better class of hard labor prisoners that will probably be suggested to the legislature. It is to establish an experimental farm upon which they could learn a good business and at the same time promote agricultural interests throughout the country in the way of experiments to be carried on. The harder class of criminals would be sent to the quarry as before, and the better class would be given the lighter work on the farm.

LIQUOR CASE DROPPED.

Nolle prosequi was this morning entered in the Circuit Court in the case of George Houghtaling, charged with selling liquor without license. The defendant was fined $500 in police court. In Circuit Court last spring he pleaded guilty on condition that sentence be suspended for six months. Since that time his place in Bethel street has remained closed and the government came to the conclusion to drop the case.

VIDA'S FINE REMITTED.

Judge Humphreys this morning remitted the fine of $25 imposed against Henry Vida, a petit juror at the present Circuit term, last Monday. It will be remembered that Vida did not answer to his name when called and explained that he did not know there would be any court until after election. The excuse was considered insufficient and the fine was assessed. The court subsequently took the matter under consideration and let Vida off with the payment of costs.

CHEERED FOR BRYAN.

Big Meeting in His Honor in New York.

NEW YORK, October 27.—William J. Bryan's second coming to this city was the occasion tonight of one of the noisiest political demonstrations of the campaign. Fourteen thousand people cheered the Democratic candidate at Madison-square Garden. He had been speaking all day. This morning was spent at New Haven and this afternoon he made several addresses at points between New Haven and this city. He was accompanied to this city by 200 Yale students. When he arrived at Grand Central Station there were more than 5000 persons to greet him. He spent the remainder of the afternoon at the Hoffman House, where he went over the business of the campaign with the leaders and attended a dinner in his honor, at which there were forty-five guests. He afterward witnessed the great pyrotechnic display.

BOERS STILL ACTIVE.

Capture Two Maxim Guns and Kill British.

LONDON, October 29.—According to a dispatch from Cape Town to the Daily Morning Post, a force of Boers attacked and surrounded a patrol of Cape police with a convoy near Hoopstad, Orange River colony, last Wednesday and a sharp fight ensued.

"The police," says the correspondent, "were compelled to abandon two Maxim guns. Ultimately, reinforced by the yeomanry, they succeeded in getting away with the convoy, but they lost seven killed, eleven wounded and fifteen captured. The colonials were outnumbered ten to one and the engagement lasted two hours."

"The Boers have 15,000 men in the field, nearly half of whom are in Orange River colony. These are divided into commandoes of some 300 each, but are capable of combination for large operations."

Ayer's
Hair Vigor

is a hair food. It won't take the place of grass or bread. It is good for the hair, and that is all. It feeds the hair with hair food. The hair can't keep from growing. It stops falling out because it is heartly and strong. And it always restores the early rich, dark color to gray hair.

We say that "gray hair is starved hair"; and the only way to treat it is to supply the best kind of hair food.
This is where Ayer's Hair Vigor differs so greatly from other hair preparations; it feeds the hair, just keep that in mind all the time you are using it.

DAVID P. ELDRIDGE, CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE.

Passes Away the Day Before Election.
Spoke at Waialuku Friday Night—His History.

David P. Eldredge, a candidate for the House of Representatives on the Democratic ticket of Maui, died suddenly at his home in Kula early Monday morning. Coming as it did, it doubtless had considerable effect on a part of the election on that island.

Eldredge joined the prince David party and made a speech in Waialuku last Friday night. At that time he was suffering with what he supposed was a cold in the chest. On Sunday he grew very much worse and retired to bed. News of his death was brought here by the Waialeale.

David P. Eldredge was born in Honolulu, August 1, 1848. He attended the free school from 1855 to 1859 when he left to learn the carpenter's trade, being apprenticed to a Mr. Johnson. From this time on he worked at the carpenter
trade with McStane, Lucas, Wiggins
and others or as a independent contractor in various parts of the islands, until 1869, except for a short time in 1866.

He was a lively stable keeper for about two years. In 1871 he was appointed interpreter for Dr. Hutchinson for the Leper Settlement. From this time on he worked at the carpenter
trade with McStane, Lucas, Wiggins
and others or as a independent contractor in various parts of the islands,
until 1869, except for a short time in 1866.

In March 1875 he went to Maui to take charge of Kaonoulu ranch, and remained there and at Waiohuli, Kula until 1881, when he removed to Waialoa Kula where he still resides.

October 14, 1890 he was appointed a member of the Board of Commissioners to appraise government lands in the district of Kula, and May 29, 1891 he was appointed government land agent for all government lands in the district of Makawao. September 14, 1891 he was appointed an inspector of elections for the district of Makawao.

At present and for some years past he has been engaged in farming and grazing.

July 21, 1870, Mr. Eldredge married Miss Rosina Keonookalani Miner in Honolulu.

AN OLD FAMILY.

The Van Hoorns are an old family, proud of their descent, and as jealous of their honor as any family in Europe. Many of the name are to be found in the Netherlands. They look back with reverence on their famous ancestor, Count Hoorn, who, as well as Count Egmont, was one of the most renowned victims of the despotism of Philip II of Spain. The name Van Hoorn was afterwards changed to Van Heurn and the descendants of the old family bear this name today. Perhaps the best known of the modern race is the gallant Major Van Heurn, who only the other day retired from active service. For many years he served with the army in the East Indies, and distinguished himself in the Atjeh war.
Wherever the greatest danger was to be found Major Van Heurn was to be seen. The natives thought he bore a charmed life and feared him accordingly.

They stop to drink of "Briter" beer

Julius Asche states that the lack of speed in polling at the Reformatory school yesterday was not the fault of the inspectors but was due to the slowness of the voters in marking their ballots. Attention was called to numerous cases in which voters took from twenty minutes to a half hour.

TEDDY WELCOMED HOME.

Big Reception to Roosevelt in New York.

NEW YORK, October 26.—This City overflowed with Republican enthusiasm tonight on the occasion of the reception arranged for Governor Roosevelt, candidate of the party for Vice-President. Beginning with the arrival at the Grand Central station on the minute of the schedule time, 5:30 o'clock, until along toward midnight, when the Rough Rider Governor went, tired and weary, to his sister's home for the night, there was such a series of receptions, such a burning of fireworks, such electrical displays and such volleys of eloquence as are seldom seen in New York. It was the climax of the candidate's tour of many thousands of miles and his friends and admirers made the streets ring with their shouts of welcome home.

A CELEBRATED DOG.

Clarence J. Berry's mastiff Julian, the most widely known dog in the gold fields of Alaska, is dead. Exposure to the rigors of the northern climate put an end to his career. Mr. Berry first put him to work on a sled in 1895, when the dog hauled provisions for the season over the Chilkoot Pass. In the following year the dog was the mainstay of the team which was used by Mrs. Berry when she went to join her husband. On this perilous trip all the dogs except Julian gave out, and he had to haul the load, which weighed over one thousand pounds, by himself across the frozen surface of Lake Bennett. When the party reached Dawson the dog hauled most of the lumber and material used by Mr. Berry in his mines and houses. So famous did Julian become that his owner was offered fabulous sums for him, but declined to consider any proposition which meant parting with his faithful servant.

MAY SHOCK NEW YORK.

A New York judge has decided that a diamond collar button is an article of jewelry and not personal attire, and that it must be left in the safe if a hotel is to be responsible for it. If New York is shocked by the appearance of men without collars in transit from hotel offices to their rooms, this judge will be entirely to blame.—Washington Star.

WHAT YOU ESCAPE.

While you cannot vote if you do not register, you may also escape the campaign cigar.—Chicago Record.

AN IMPROVEMENT.

It might be an improvement if Grover Cleveland would communicate part of his silence to J. Sterling Morton.—Chicago Record.
